Civil Rights Bill Fails To Meet Needs--Wilkins

New York—The civil rights bill as passed by the Senate "falls far short of meeting the needs of the people," NAACP Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins charges in a statement this week.

The bill, previously passed by the House, was adopted by the Senate on April 8 after almost two months of futile debate. It was passed by a vote of 71 to 18 and returned to the House of Representatives where it awaits final action.

Referee Plan

The NAACP leader expressed the conviction that the referee plan embodied in the bill "constitutes an obstacle course which the disfranchised southern Negro voter will find not much easier to negotiate than the maze he currently faces."

"The Civil Rights Act of 1960 makes it perfectly clear that the intent of the leadership in both parties all along was to produce the very least that could be given the civil rights label with a straight face."

Man Seized in Jewelry Store Robbery

Two Others Escaped; Valuable Diamonds Taken from Window

Three men who were enroute from Kansas City, Mo., to Minnesota early last Thursday morning, interrupted their motor trip long enough to break into Daniels Jewelry store, 310 6th street. The trio broke a display window and grabbed thousands of dollars worth of watches and rings, before they left the scene. During their hasty departure, they were seen by a merchant police who fired a round of bullets at them. Two of the men escaped. The third was seized.

That is the story told by Eugene Williams, 32, of Kansas City, Mo.—the man who didn't get away.

Hearing Set

Later the same day Williams was arraigned before Municipal Judge Howard W. Brooks. He pleaded innocent to a charge of breaking and entering and was ordered held in jail in lieu of $5,000 bond pending a hearing Thursday, Apr. 28.

Police quoted Williams as saying he and his companions were driving the car from Kansas City to Minneapolis and had arrived here only about half an hour before the 5 a.m. burglary.

Stumbled

Williams was seized by Harold Strasburg, a merchant officer, who saw the three men fleeing east down an alley between Locust and Walnut streets just after he heard a police radio report of the burglary. Williams stumbled and fell as he was crossing Fourth street. Police reported that a shopping bag found beside Williams contained 53 diamond rings. Three more rings were found in Williams' pockets and still another was found by a janitor in a hallway at the jail. In addition, two watches were found behind the rear seat cushions of the police car in which Williams rode, police said.

Displays His Catch . . . 36-Pound Catfish

Elmer (Pack) Hunter, 1131 9th street proudly displays his catch . . . a 36-pound flathead catfish which he landed last Thursday from the Center street dam in the Des Moines river.

Hunter, who goes fishing nearly every evening, says this is the largest fish he ever caught. "Usually they are 20-pounds or more lighter," he said. He used a rod and reel and it took him 25 minutes to land the big fish.

Urges Alabama Governor to Support Threatened Teachers

New York, N. Y.—The American Civil Liberties Union today urged Alabama Governor John Patterson to assure teachers at the Alabama State College that they would not be dismissed for supporting the southern student demonstrations against lunch-counter racial discrimination.

An ACLU telegram, sent by its executive director, Patrick Murphy Malin, noted that the Alabama State Board of Education had declared in a published statement that 11 faculty members at the all-Negro college who had voiced support for the students should be dismissed, and that if the college president, H. C. Trenholm is unwilling to fire the men, the Board will get someone who would, Nine Alabama State College students have been ordered expelled for their protest.

Freedom of Speech

"... such action would be a gross violation of freedom of speech and academic freedom," the ACLU said. "We urge that in your official capacity you reassure college teachers and students that despite the bitter feeling about the racial segregation issue, the long-established American tradition of freedom of expression will not be extinguished in Alabama. Moreover, the failure to observe such an essential of academic freedom is bound to bring discredit on the Alabama educational system in academic circles."

Says Attempt to Fasten Red Tag on Students Sitins Unworthy of Harry Truman

New York, N.Y.—Commenting on an implicating statement by former President Harry Truman that the student sit-ins in the south are Communist inspired, Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the NAACP issued this statement which said:

"The N.A.A.C.P. deeply regrets former President Truman's attempt to smear the gallant young sit-in of a man who has roundly denounced the use of the tactic by others. There is not the slightest evidence of Communist 'engineering,' domination or infiltration of this movement."

At a news conference at Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., Truman was asked Monday if such demonstrations might be Communist-inspired.

"I wouldn't be surprised," he replied.

Truman added that he had told student seminars he is "against the Southern students shutting up a man's place of business," but did not believe a businessman should "bar anyone from his place of business."

Rev. King

In Atlanta, Ga., another integration leader, the Rev. Martin Luther King called on Truman to prove his statement about Communists or apologize to the nation.

King said in the letter to Truman that "I have worked very closely with the students in this struggle and the one thing I am convinced of is that no outside agency (Communist or otherwise) initiated this movement."

Cites Bias in Iowa Housing, Barbershops as Discouraging, Hotels, Cafes Not too Good

Discrimination against Negroes in Iowa barbershops is practically unanimous and presents a discouraging picture in housing. This is the consensus of a report compiled for the U. S. Civil Rights commission.

"Iowa does not have a large Negro population, and the housing problem has arisen only in the larger towns and cities," the report said.

Resentment

"Many of the colored people are very bitter because of their treatment. Most are philosophical and have adjusted to the problem, but . . . the resentment is there and will remain until the problem is solved," it continued.

The report said Negroes are forced to buy in poorer sections or pay exorbitant prices for purchase and rent, if they have the means for better housing. Even then petitions have been circulated and conditions made very unpleasant for them.

Hotels and Restaurants

Most of the larger hotels will accommodate Negroes under certain conditions, but it is very hard for a Negro to get a room at the better hotels and motels. The restaurants will serve them, but most of the time the service is very poor and the colored person is humiliated to the extent that he does not return.

Des Moines, Waterloo and Marshalltown were cited as having the more promising conditions in the housing picture. Waterloo also serves Negroes in barbershops without question. Other cities do not.

The report was compiled by the Iowa Advisory committee.

Africans Threaten Second Boycott; Many Flee Country

Johannesburg, South Africa—While white-supremacy leader Verwoerd, Prime Minister, is recovering so rapidly at General Hospital that he could sit up and dictate a long list of clamping down methods to "keep the Africans in tow"—Negro teachers and pupils threatened a second one-week boycott by not showing up. They have been warned by government officials that they must come to school.

tion which gives the government the right to arrest or detain anyone without making charges or producing them before any court, has been enforced. Police are "detaining" many white sympathizers or any white person known to aid the Africans.

The most powerful weapon the Africans have, however, is the work boycott where 10 million Negroes provide most of the labor for farms, factories and domestic help for 3 million whites. The hardest hit are employers who have lost fortunes.

AFRICANS SEE FRONT PAGE passed out pamphlets, advising the people to continue to fight. Police say they are trying to prevent the Africans from "becoming intimidated."

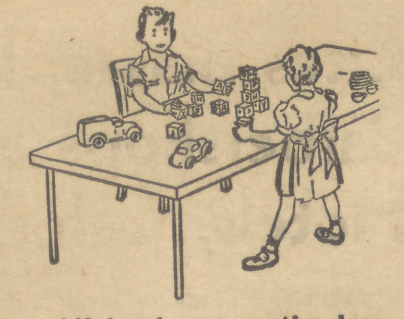

The pamphlets, written plainly and to the point stressed 1. Abolish passes which the law requires all Negroes to carry. 2. Free our leaders. 3. End the state of emergency. 4. Lift the ban on our organization. The government's answer is an SOS call for more white immigrants to even out the overpopulated Negroes—the whites already living there are trying to migrate to Canada and Australia.

POWELL TRIAL GOES ON New York City—Arguments for and against Rep. Adam Powell continue in the trial the politician was sure would have been ended by now. Now reduced to one count, it still remains on the court record and resumes next week.

A new motion for mistrial has risen again but was denied. Powell himself took the stand and was cross-examined.

Old Door Becomes Table AN OLD door may be converted into a sturdy play table for youngsters. First select some old water or gas pipes that will serve as legs of the right height for the youngsters who will use the table. Fittings that screw on the door, at the corners, and into which the threaded end of the pipes will fit can be obtained at a hardware store. Similar fittings will protect the floor.

All hardware on the door should be removed. Provide a smooth, splinter-free surface by attaching a panel of Masonite 3/4" Tempered Presdwood with 1" brads. Protect the children's fingers further by applying strips of this material to all edges. By putting on the strips first, the top panel will cover the edges and make a neat job. The legs may be painted, and the new table top likewise primed and painted or given three coats of waterproof varnish. With a table like this, children can have fun, indoors or out, for years, as the sturdy construction and durable surface will allow all sorts of rough treatment. As the children grow, the table can be extended with them—simply by increasing the length of the pipe legs.

CIVIL RIGHTS

SEE FRONT PAGE This law can in fact accomplish substantial registration and voting by colored citizens who are now denied this basic right.

Appreciation "We express our deep appreciation to those liberals in both parties, who against opposition of Congressional leadership, fought through to the end for vital civil rights provisions, including Part III (a workable voting rights section, aid to school districts in complying with the Supreme Court's desegregation decision, and a statutory basis for the President's Committee on Government Contracts.

"We are inviting all supporters of civil rights to join us in a renewed effort at the 1960 conventions of both political parties, in the 1960 election campaign and in the 87th Congress, since the Civil Rights Act of 1960 falls far short of meeting the needs of the people."

To Lubricate a Lock IF A LOCK becomes stiff and hard to operate, a temporary cure is available in any home in the form of a soft lead pencil. Simply rub the key until it is heavily coated with the graphite, and then turn it in the lock a few times. This treatment should make the lock work like new. Of course, you can use powdered graphite, which is available in most hardware stores. This lubricant is blown into the lock through the keyhole by squeezing the tube. SEE IN STARS

WITH DELORES CALVIN

New York City—Duke Ellington, who has been very quiet recently, goes into Fack's April 29th in San Francisco . . . followed by Dgkota Station . . . Josephine Baker will be back on the scene May 23rd for a weekend at the Alcazar in Frisco . . . Lloyd Price, who currently has a hit in "No Ifs-No And's", is singing it at Pep's in Philadelphia.

Sammy Davis, Jr.

Sammy Davis, Jr.—whose wedding is completely off now—goes into Salisbury Beach, Mass. to open their season the last weekend in June . . . Hazel Scott carries on: now at Freddie's in Minneapolis.

Pearl Bailey

We don't realize how great our top stars are becoming . . . Pearl Bailey has grown into a class with Tony Martin, Red Skelton and the like . . . Her fabulous revue is booked for 16 weeks and going strong . . . Best, next to Pearl May, is the integrated Flamingettes, four of the pretty girls are Negroes.

Ellis Larkin

Ellis Larkin and his Trio are currently at the exclusive Living Room on Manhattan's East Side . . . Ellis, as you may remember, was one time husband of a French-African singing star named Moune, who has a sensation here for a few months at the new defunct Cafe Society Uptown owned by Barney Josephson . . . This is the place where both Hazel Scott and Lena Horne got their starts.

Lena Horne

Lena Horne meanwhile has been branded a "wow" at the Waldorf

Lena Horne

and acts . . . The height of poise and regal splendor, Lena does justice to the elegant Empire Room by gracing it—her repertoire is most befitting the setting—and the audience seems to enjoy one of her newest and funniest, "Don't Commit The Crime."

Geoffrey Holder

Geoffrey Holder, who can do just about everything—paint, dance, sing, teach and compose—finally hit a spot which isn't tailor-made for him . . . It's the Arpeggio in Manhattan where a $4.50 minimum exists in the jazz center . . . Geoffrey is more of the beatnik type from the village who believes everything must be for the sake of art—therefore his act, consisting of ballads, folk chants, bongo drums and the like, just doesn't fit here . . . He does a Haitian song and some of his native Trinidad music—but the people came mostly to hear modern jazz—and with them, singer Ernestine Anderson, made a big hit.

Louis Jordan

Louis Jordan came to town with a new gimmick—in this election year—it's a very cute one . . . a song called "Louis Jordan for President" and it turned out to be a swinging deal—as the tune caught on like wild fire . . . Jordan brought back some of his old hits too . . . And he brought along another gimmick: having his singer Dottie Smith to sing two of Billie Holliday's songs while wearing a carnation in her hair as did Billie all the time . . . Some say Jordan is grooming Dottie for a chance at the title role in the life story of Billie . . . But it's hard to say who could do justice to that part.

Havana Queen

We understand that Castro himself got so tired of Joe Louis and his publicity agents sending plane loads of fair-skinned Negro girls to Cuba to boost the tourist trade—that he gave personal orders to send a dark girl—please . . . The request was so underscored that an SOS was sent out overnight for a pretty dark girl—one was found and shipped over in a matter of days—for the carnival . . . So pleased was Castro and his bearded men, they made her the Queen and she rode down Havana's beautiful wide streets on a float personifying the American Negro girl.

All-Negro Cast Will Present Drama on CBS-TV Sunday

"Brown Girl, Brownstones," the compelling story of a West Indian family attempting to adjust itself to a new way of life, will be presented with an all-Negro cast on the "CBS Television Workshop" Sunday, April 24 on the CBS Television Network (12 Noon-12:55 P.M., EDT).

Heading the cast will be a trio of stars—Ossie Davis, who is appearing in the Broadway success, "Raisin In the Sun"; Pauline Myers, who was seen on the stage last season in "Take a Giant Step," and Cecily Tyson, who played in the Paul Muni film, "The Last Angry Man."

Dilemma

The drama deals with the dilemma in which a young girl finds herself when she attempts to understand her mother's determination to gain a foothold in a new country while her father, for his part, refuses to abandon his dream of returning to the little island where he was born.

Negro Writer

"Brown Girl, Brownstones" was written by Paule Marshall, a Negro woman, who is a new writer for television. Additional cast members are Benita Evans, Ethel Ayler, Hilda Haynes and Vinette Carroll. The production is devised and produced by Albert McCleery. Joe Chomyn directs.

NAACP Branches Will Observe Anniversary Of Court Ruling

New York—NAACP branches across the nation are planning May 17th celebrations—sixth Supreme Court school integration ruling anniversary—it was announced this week by G. B. Current, director of branches.

Although public school segregation was outlawed six years ago, some 2,500,000 Negro youngsters are still forced to attend separate and unequal schools. Only six per cent of the Southland's Negro youth attend integrated classes. This takes place mostly in border states. It also represents a rate of progress of one per cent Negro school integration per year.

Completes 30 Years Of NAACP Service

Ike Smalls, national NAACP vice president and veteran civil rights advocate, has completed his 30th year of service to the Association. Smalls is best known to NAACP members for the Ike Smalls award, named in his honor. It is presented annually at the NAACP national convention to the branch showing the largest percentage of membership increase during the previous year.

Worked Thru Ranks

Although he has served as a top NAACP officer since 1950, Smalls worked through the ranks. He joined the local branch in 1930 and was elected to the executive board the next year. Three years later, he became vice president and subsequently president. He built a 195-member branch up to 600 during his first year. From there Smalls became a national convention delegate, president of the Iowa State Conference of NAACP branches, and a national Board member in 1946.

Life Member

Smalls is a life member of the Association and serves on the national life membership committee. He has solicited 11 life memberships in Iowa. But, his activities are not confined to the NAACP.

He has been cited for securing 6,500 blood donors for seven local hospitals since 1937. He is also president of the Beth El Jacob synagogue

N. Y. is planning a "Sixth Anniversary Week" radio program; Cooks-ville, Md., is planning talent programs, lawn parties and a special dinner; Inkster, Mich. is planning a radio program.

The Baltimore branch is combining this with its 20th annual state conference meeting; the youth council in Willow Grove, Pa., is planning a dramatization. Many other branches are arranging unique and significant commemoration ceremonies.

Critical Importance

"Since academic recognition for a college requires Ph.D.'s in every major department," stated Raulerson, "our 'Project Doctorate' is a matter of critical importance in maintaining the high standing of our colleges and improving the quality of their teaching staffs."

$5,000 Donated to NAACP Defense Fund By Large N.Y. Union

New York—A large New York union last week donated $5,000 to the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund to help continue the legal efforts against racial discrimination in all phases of American life.

The Joint Board of the Dress and Waist Makers Union, a 60,000 member affiliate of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union, presented the $5,000 check to Thurgood Marshall, director-counsel of the Legal Defense Fund, on Tuesday, at the Joint Board's New York headquarters.

Deserves Support

Charles S. Zimmerman, a vice president of the ILGWU and general manager of the Joint Board, said that his union "feels very strongly that the fight for civil rights deserves the support of all Americans who take democracy seriously." Zimmerman is also chairman of the AFL-CIO Committee on Civil Rights.

Other Contributions

The union leader said that the $5,000 contribution to the Legal Defense Fund was part of a continuing program of support for agencies and organizations in the field of civil rights. He added that contributions had also been made to other organizations such as the National Urban League, Congress of Racial Equality, and the Jewish Labor Committee.

"Our union has always been active in the defense of minority groups," he said. "We regard this as a duty of good citizens in a democracy."

and was responsible for erecting a $250,000 edifice.

As general chairman of the 1957 Goodwill Industries drive here, Smalls raised $40,000. Among other duties carried on by Smalls are, chairman of Building Fund Bonds for Israel, and former executive director of Polk County Blood Donor Service, Inc. Also chaplain of Jewish War Veterans Post No. 673, member of Board of Governors of Midwestern States Region—American Association for Jewish Education and numerous others.

Rights Commission Releases Volume on State Advisory Reports

Washington—The Commission on Civil Rights has released a 433-page volume of abridged reports from 48 of its 50 State Advisory Committees which Commission Staff Director Gordon M. Tiffany said "clearly shows that the problem of civil rights is a national one."

The collected reports also include the proceedings of the National Conference of State Advisory Committee Delegates held in Washington in June 1959. Reports from Mississippi and South Carolina, where committees were not formed until after the reports had gone to press, were not included.

Evaluations

In releasing the volume, Tiffany said, "These reports constitute grassroots evaluations of civil rights problems by local people who are best acquainted with local situations. They should prove a real contribution to an understanding of problems in the area of equal protection of the laws."

Cautioned

In the foreword, the Commission cautioned that "these reports must be read for what they are: not official documents, but on-the-spot findings of informed and conscientious citizens seeking to discover the extent of denials of equal justice in their respective States, and possible remedies."

WASH WEAR

Listing the advantages of wash-wear garments is as delicious as counting sugar plums. A good wash-wear fabric is usually: machine washable, machine dryable, moisture repellent, spot- and wrinkle-resistant—and needs no ironing!

PEOPLE MAKE IOWA GREAT

...the farmer

Hats off to the Iowa farmer. He has made this the greatest farming state in the nation . . . champion of them all.

Back of this record are hard work, of course, plus modern farm science, and a broad and continuing demand for the products of his acres.

The brewing industry is proud of its position as a major consumer of farm products. Last year, it was one of the farmer's best customers. It bought over $250,000,000.00 worth of farm products for use in making beer. And, ranking second on the list was Iowa's No. 1 crop . . . corn!

For agriculture, as for so many other phases of our economy, we all know . . .

UNDERSTANDING IOWA CHILDREN
SPONSORED BY THE IOWA CHILD WELFARE RESEARCH STATION

Written by May P. Youtz, SUI Associate Professor

WHEN THE NEW BABY ARRIVES
As most parents know, the arrival of a new brother or sister can be a very upsetting event in the life of a young child. Probably this is due to the fact that the child feels that his place in the family is threatened.

The older child's anxiety often takes the form of jealousy of the baby, with this feeling showing in a number of ways. Some of these behaviors are easily recognized as being caused by jealousy, whereas others are not.

It is not uncommon for a child to show feelings of jealousy by hitting the new baby or trying to stick a pin in him.

Physical Aggression

Aside from physical aggression, children can express their jealousy in many other ways. A child may be gentle with the baby and show

A wallet designed to hold favorite snapshots is an excellent Mother's Day gift. Let the whole family join in helping her pick out just the right pictures for it.

Focusing on Mother

Mother's Day is one dear to the hearts of all families, and one which just naturally makes everybody think about pictures—pictures to take and pictures to give.

Each family's own special way of honoring Mother is worthy of record. Your own version of the whole "Queen-for-a-day" story—from Dad's serving her breakfast in bed to the children's goodnight kiss—will make a series of wonderful pictures that Mother can enjoy over and over all through the year.

Among the gifts that Mother will treasure are pictures of various members of her family in an album especially compiled for her. So, this week is a good time to collect the family snapshots from their hiding places in old drawers and boxes and make up an album as a surprise for Mother. Other gifts will be doubly welcome if they carry an extra dividend of pictures, too. A leather wallet for Mother will look twice as handsome to her if its transparent identification pockets hold snapshots of the family. And so will a locket or one of the new watch bands with place for tiny pictures of those she holds dear.

An enlargement of an especially good picture of Dad and the children—framed appropriately for her desk or dresser—is another gift that says "I Remember Mama" in a way that's sure to please any mother. Or perhaps you might want to take a series of small snapshots—one of each member of the family—and arrange them in a long narrow frame to grace her dressing table.

As you can see, the day set aside to honor Mother is one on which pictures really have their day, too! —John Van Gulder

"Make It Yourself" Sandwiches

When company comes over during warm August days set out all of the "fixings" and let them make their own sandwiches. They will enjoy the informality and how it will save you work!

"August Is Sandwich Month" offers an excellent excuse for an easy party. Make some new fillings like those pictured above and have a variety of breads on hand. Then let guests make their own sandwiches.

The salad filling at the top of the picture is a delicious old standby, egg salad. Another bowl contains chicken Waldorf—a wonderful combination of chicken, apples and nuts. The third bowl is filled with "pretty as a picture" shredded cheese with pimiento pieces.

As a base for these spreads you might choose white bread, whole wheat bread and rye bread. Enriched white bread is a nutritious sandwich container. It has three essential B-vitamins, food iron and protein. When combined with these salads, it takes on main dish proportions, nutritionally. Whole wheat bread contains about the same nutrients. Just be sure the label reads "100 percent" whole wheat.

With "Sandwich Makings" have colorful relishes, like stuffed olives, radishes and carrot curls. Complete the menu with large glasses of iced tea or coffee and raspberry shortcake.

CHEESE PIMIENTO

1 cup shredded nippy cheese 2 tablespoons salad dressing
Combine all ingredients in order given. Mix well. Makes enough filling for 6 sandwiches.

CHICKEN WALDORF

1 cup diced chicken 1/2 cup chopped apple
1/2 cup chopped celery 1/4 cup chopped nuts
2 tablespoons salad dressing
Combine all ingredients in order given. Mix well. Makes enough filling for 6 sandwiches.

EGG SALAD

2 teaspoons prepared mustard 2 tablespoons chopped celery
Dash paprika 2 tablespoons chopped olives
2 tablespoons mayonnaise 1 tablespoon chopped sweet pickle
4 hard cooked eggs, diced 1 tablespoon chopped pimiento
Add mustard and paprika to mayonnaise. Combine all other ingredients and fold in mayonnaise mixture. Makes enough filling for 6 sandwiches.

Lamb Riblets Make Barbecue Meal

To tease your palate and please your purse, as well as providing a fine experience for your nose while they cook, do try barbecued lamb riblets! Surface-cooked in a covered skillet over low heat or slowly baked in the oven, this delicious dish is a year-round favorite, an "easy-to-make" that can be done the day before for re-heating.

Riblets, cut from the breast of lamb, are 1-inch thick strips of lean streaked with fat, attached to a rib bone (making them a good finger food). They're usually 5 to 6 inches long, weighing 2 to 4 ounces each. Available at a ridiculously low price, breast of lamb, either cut as riblets or in serving portions, makes mighty good eating.

Barbecued Lamb Riblets

- 10 to 12 lamb riblets
- smoked salt, if desired
- salt and pepper
- 2 onions, sliced
- 3/4 cup catsup
- 1/2 cup water
- 2 tablespoons vinegar
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce and dash of Tabasco sauce
- 1 teaspoon mustard
- clove of garlic, mashed or minced

Brown the lamb riblets slowly and thoroughly in a skillet. Drain off the fat. Sprinkle the meat with salt, pepper, smoked salt, if desired. Add sliced onions. Combine remaining ingredients and pour over the meat and onions. Cover and cook slowly until fork-tender, about 1 hour. Stir occasionally while cooking.

These barbecued lamb riblets may be baked in a heat-proof shallow baking dish in a 325 deg. (slightly under moderate) oven, for about 1 1/2 hours. Spoon the sauce over the riblets two or three times while baking. Serve with or on hot cooked buttered spaghetti with Parmesan Cheese. Serves 4.

Personally Yours
by Frances Hawthorne.

How about last Easter Sunday? It was really one for the record! Old man weather dished up just about everything in its bag of tricks but a hurricane for Iowans. And the only reason that probably wasn't laded out is because we live so far inland. Did you ever see such huge snowflakes?

What happened in our home probably was repeated in a number of yours. Our early rising youngsters rose a little earlier than usual and on impulse or instinct went to the window to look out. We heard them exclaiming about the snow and everything but in our drowsy state refused to take them seriously and put it down to kidding. But, did we wake up when we looked out!

U. S. citizens who waited until the last moment to mail their federal income returns had a 72 hour reprieve. This year's deadline which fell on Good Friday was set up to Monday, Apr. 18. So many who would have done some scrambling around Friday evening postponed it to the annual Monday evening. So the annual scene that most likely happens in every town and city to some degree, occurred in Des Moines. Cars were lined up for blocks Monday evening, not too long before midnight even, to drop their envelopes in the courtesy boxes located just outside the main postoffice.

Mrs. Barbara James of 678 26th street has certainly had a lot of bad luck, indirectly and directly, stemming from cars. First her mother, Mrs. Pauline Humphrey was injured in a car accident enroute to Keokuk. Mrs. James who instructs a Slim Trim class at Willkie House, was also trying to carry on for her mother at Crescent Beauty school. About a week after her mother's mishap, Mrs. James was involved in a minor accident, but no less nerve wracking. Her station wagon went out of control due to bad breaks and sheared off a telephone pole, while she was driving in city late last week.

However, she was feeling alright by Saturday. Her daughter, Stanley, had an important part in the Easter party given by Delta Sigma Theta sorority at the Iowa Children's Home Society last Saturday. Costumed as the Easter bunny she distributed Easter baskets to foster children who were guests at the party.

The Public Affairs committee of the Y.W.C.A. building, which meets monthly, went on record in a resolution that recommended that the Central Y.W.C.A. commend the National Board in its stand supporting the objectives of the student protest movements against segregation in the South.

At that meeting last week Mrs. Emma Turner, social worker of Foster Care at the Iowa Children's Home Society was guest speaker. Several years ago, as you may remember, we had occasion to write a series of articles on the ICHS, which was intended to point up the shortage of Negro foster parents and to publicize the society for Negro participation. We had never learned of the direct results, if any, of our articles.

Naturally, we took advantage of the opportunity to inquire. Mrs. Turner stated that there had been an increase of Negro participation and that it began soon after the publication of our articles. As you will know, we were pleased to learn that. That also reminds us of the article we wrote about the little girl baby at the Iowa Lutheran Society shortly after Christmas. In a matter of weeks after our articles the baby was adopted by loving parents.

Local Residents Motor to Missouri

Mr. and Mrs. Morton Graves, jr., of 1234 10th street, Mr. and Mrs. Orbie Boggs, jr., of 1247 10th street, and Misses Ann Wright of 1302 E. 15th street and Gloria Chinn, a student at A.I.B. and a resident of the Y.W.C.A., motored to Missouri over the Easter holiday weekend to visit in various cities with friends and relatives.

They returned to the city early Monday morning.

COUNCIL SENSES HOUSING INADEQUACY

The Des Moines City Council has finally become interested in low cost federal housing. On April 18, the recent resolution of the Urban Renewal Board endorsing it was brought up. It was referred to the corporation counsel for study and appropriate action.

Corporation Counsel Robert J. Spayde said his department would prepare a report to the council concerning types of public housing, and Des Moines' housing needs, particularly those resulting from the coming clearance of the River Hills urban renewal area.

That would be preliminary to the council's deciding whether the city would support some form of bill in next year's session of the Iowa legislature authorizing municipalities to engage in public housing or some related form of subsidy.

While this is a welcome move, it does come somewhat tardy in that the Urban Renewal Board has been battling around the question of proper location of families dispossessed by the first segment for months. A makeshift housing project is in the making for a northeast Des Moines location, but it is an idle dream that the facility will be anywhere near adequate.

Recently, the city planning commission has come up with long range proposals to beautify parts of the city which would include a fancy drive along the river front.

All these proposals are desirable but very impractical in the light of living conditions in other parts of the city.

For instance, in southeast Des Moines, during the winter and spring months, residents find it difficult to come and go to their homes because of lack of paved streets and sidewalks. Large areas are without running water and still must resort to the old outhouse, a relic of years ago; much of the area is slums territory only lacking because houses are not close together. And yet there is no long range planning to remedy such conditions which local residents have endured all these years.

The boards and commissions don't seem to have evaluated the order in which projects should be built or the most practical method, based on that of the communities, of getting their projects off the ground.

Judging from the move the council made Monday, it would appear that somebody is beginning to recognize just how inadequate our proposals to beautify and improve the city have been.

NAACP NEEDS EVERYONE'S EFFORT

The 1960 membership drive for the Des Moines branch NAACP begins next week. This is in keeping with previous efforts as is true in other branches in and out of the state.

The NAACP is a great organization, doing a great job for the American people as a whole; for minorities in particular. By lawful methods, careful intelligent planning and with considerable expenditure of funds—entirely inadequate—it has moved the Negro far toward first class citizenship. It has furnished intelligent leadership for a cause which while successful has required patience and hard work.

It has maintained a fine reputation of loyalty to America thus giving the lie to those who claim that it is communist dominated.

The branch has a quota of 1200 which is 200 more than last year. It should be met promptly.

That quota should include every adult Negro—with any courage or sense—and all the white people who are interested in raising the standard of Negroes in America and thus the whole population.

True, racial problems are not as acute in Des Moines or other Iowa towns as they are in the South. But problems there are in housing and job discrimination. The branch has done much to improve race relations. It can do more with continued and improved support of those interested in human dignity for all men.

TRUMAN SHOWS HIS COLOR

Former President Truman comes up now with a statement that the sit-down movement in the South is inspired by Communists. Well, the former friend of the Negro finds a new excuse every week why Negroes should not use the same method of his ancestors used to win their freedom. He joins the rank of those who believe that the communists inspire every move a group makes to win its freedom.

Thus, former President Truman continues to show himself ridiculous. He is not running for office.

John I. Johnson, The Call's Sports Editor, Passed Apr. 11

John I. Johnson, sports editor for The Call since 1945, died early Monday morning, April 11, at the Veterans Administration hospital in Kansas City, Mo.

Funeral services were held at the Watkins Funeral Home, 18th and Benton, Friday morning, April 15. The Rev. C. C. Reynolds, Sr., pastor of the Centennial Methodist church, officiated.

A second service was held at the Methodist church in Warrensburg, Johnson's native home Friday afternoon with the Rev. Reynolds officiating.

Education

Johnny Johnson completed his elementary and high school training in the public schools of Warrensburg. He received his B. S. degree from Lincoln university in Jefferson City.

For 10 years, Johnson taught in the public school systems of Harrisonville and Odessa, Mo.

An Army veteran, he was a member of the Wayne Miner post No. 149, American Legion. He was a former Prince Hall Mason.

In Warrensburg, he united with the Methodist church, where he was active for several years in the Sunday school as pianist and teacher; and as pianist for the choir.

Joined Call

Coming to Kansas City in 1940, he worked as a barber in the old Castle Barber shop, located on 12th street. During World War II, he was employed as a counselor at North American Aviation, Inc. of Kansas, the B-25 bomber plant.

On August 27, 1945, Johnson began work with The Call as sports editor. During the 15 years that he served in that capacity, he became a familiar figure to sports lovers as he covered the many sporting events locally and out of the city.

Next weekend is the Drake Relays. Those things have been held rain or shine for 50 years. There was a time when one knew just about what Negroes would be here and it wasn't hard to get a line on their background. But now there are so many Negroes in all capacities that you have to see them to know who they are, and then a guy could get lost trying to figure out who is who.

Our Negro schools have done really well. In the early days those schools were a novelty and mostly came along for the ride. Whenever they started we used to wince and hope for the end of the race. But now Lincoln U. of Jefferson City, Mo., Tennessee A and I, Prairie View and Texas Southern have carried off their share of watches and medals. No longer do we have to say, "Well, the boys ran a good race."

High School

We shall be watching our high school events with interest to see if Tech who finished second to Ames in the Valley relays, last week can get even this weekend. Then there will be individual performers worth seeing like Robinson of Davenport and Emmett Hoosman of East Waterloo.

Tennis

Esther Myers was the first Negro player to get an official ranking in the state tennis ratings. Mrs. Myers who teaches herself as she teaches her tennis classes, rated third in the women's singles and it is our guess that had she gone to Cedar Rapids and had much luck in the draw she might have improved that mark. In women's doubles Esther came up second paired with Roberta Laverne. Not bad for a girl who plays tennis, keeps house and works not to mention raising a husky son.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Medical Briefs

Have a Good Cry—Tears are useful for other purposes than getting a woman her own way, according to one scientist. He points out that tears keep the mucous membrane of the eye from drying out (bacteria just love dried-out mucous membrane) and that tears contain lysozyme, an enzyme that's poison to germs.

Outer Space

Doesn't Prove A Thing?—Researchers have been putting people in isolation, where not a single stimulus comes through to their senses, to see how they'd get along in outer space. They found that, although four men suffered hallucinations, a woman they kept isolated for six days did not, and concluded that "under stress women are biologically superior to men."

Get Up and Close the Windows,

Cincinnati Retires Oscar's Uniform

Cincinnati, Ohio—Oscar Robertson, college basketball's all-time top pointmaker, was presented the United Press International player of the Year award and the UPI All-America award here last week.

The presentation was made by Haskell Short, Ohio news manager for UPI, at the annual university of Cincinnati banquet with about 1,000 persons in attendance.

In accepting the awards, Robertson said he hoped next year's team goes a step further than did his squad and win the national NCAA championship. They finished third in the NCAA finals at San Francisco.

The All-America award was the big senior's third and climaxed a college career in which he set a number of scoring marks. He received a total of 10 awards at the banquet.

Robertson said he was glad the season was over because "all good things must terminate sometime." He thanked teammates for their many favors.

Earlier his No. 12 uniform was officially retired at a special convocation where Robertson also spoke.

FOUR MACHINES

Did you know that by 1980, American families may own four washing machines each? Multiple machines will permit washing all the laundry simultaneously, instead of sudsing it batch by batch. What a lovely clean thought at the start of a new decade—and what a wonderful boon to homemakers when the prediction comes true.

SLIPPER BOXES

Cinderella had her transparent slippers—but you can have transparent slipper boxes, which are a lot more practical! The clear plastic boxes protect shoes from dust, save precious closet space, and let you select any pair at a glance. Wipe them often with a sudsy sponge to preserve their transparency.

Dear!—New for insomniacs is a battery-powered device that produces the pitter-patter of falling rain.

Bacteria

Bacteria, Well Done, Please!—Researchers inoculated frozen chicken pies with bacteria, found that only 0.1 per cent survived when the pie was baked at 425 degrees F. for forty minutes, but almost all the germs were alive and kicking after only twenty minutes. What's more, the twenty-minute pies were half raw.

In the Bag—A look inside the little black bags of 1,100 physicians turned up bent hairpins, blank checks, wire cutters, and bubble gum, but no stethoscopes in 165 of them, and no thermometers in 110.

Vet Sifford Cracks PGA Racial Barrier

Charley Sifford, long time golfer great, recently cracked the Professional Golfers Association.

The racial barrier was broken, when the par-or-better golfer Sifford, was given a player privilege card by the PGA recently in Los Angeles, California, climaxed a long battle which was sparked by hard hitters like Joe Louis and the Negro press.

As per PGA regulations, however, Charley must serve five years of apprenticeship in order to become a member of the Association.

Meanwhile he will carry a card as an approved PGA player, and the first of his race to hold one.

Sifford, who has been trying to secure his PGA card since 1955, was highly elated when notified that he had been accepted by the Association.

Newk Sidelined With Groin Injury

Cincinnati—Big Don Newcombe, who bounced back from a dismal season with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1958 to become the Cincinnati Reds best pitcher last season, has been placed under the care of the team's physician here after suffering a groin injury in spring training.

General Manager Gabe Paul announced the decision to bench the big right-hander temporarily in order to save him for the gruelling season ahead. It was not immediately known how long Newcombe would be out of the lineup.

Newcombe, who recently divorced his wife in Mexico, has also experienced disappointment in business. After a liquor store he operated in New Jersey failed, Don charged that Negroes failed to patronize him.

Send Yours Today

DEAR EDITOR:

I am engaged in a study of Marcus Garvey and the Universal Negro Improvement Association. In an effort to gather useful documents, I am writing a number of Negro newspapers whose readers may have been interested in Marcus Garvey and his several organizations that flourished during the early 1920's.

Particularly would I appreciate your readers sending me copies of documents such as newspapers, leaflets, pamphlets, and even personal letters pertaining to the Garvey Movement. I will be glad to return these materials after they have been photostated. If requested, I will keep any personal documents confidential. In addition I will fully acknowledge assistance of contributors in the published work. These materials can be sent to me at the following address:

HAVE YOU A MOTHER?

What a wonderful dream I had last night; I dreamt my mother was at my side

It made everything seem perfectly right 'till I remembered that she had died.

Now that I'm awake and look on my past, my eye fills full with a lonely tear

As I think how I thought those things would last and I forgot my Little Mother Dear.

Now it's too late, and I can only dream of how satisfied now might be I

Had I gifts of love and flowers given her then before, alas, came her time to die.

Awake, oh youth, from life's cold, listless dream and make not the same mistake as I,
Give now your gifts of glory to your

Queen before, too late, time has passed you by.

Refrain:

Have you a Mother, so kind, so true?
Have you a mother, who'd die for you?

Have you told her lately that you love her? Do it now, you'll never have another.

Thoughts for Today

Every man I meet is in some way my superior; and in that I can learn from him.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

If the cost of a college education continues to snowball for many more years, a person can make a profit by remaining ignorant.—Grit.

Memory is what keeps telling you that you know the guy without giving you any idea of who he is.—Franklin P. Jones.

Laugh Lines

Answering the doorbell, a man found an old friend and a large dog standing on the porch.

"Come in! Come in!" he said. The friend and the dog came in, and the man sat down to chat. Meanwhile the dog put the man's cat to flight, knocked over a bridge lamp and several knickknacks, and finally made himself comfortable on one of the best chairs in the room.

When the guest rose to leave, the "Dog?" exclaimed the man, "I have no dog. I thought he was yours."

You can save money on auto coverage if you'll check recent trends in auto insurance.

New changes in car insurance are singling out safe drivers, total abstainers and owners of compact cars for lower rates.

Some 50 safe-driver plans have been announced in the past six months. One example I've seen would allow an over-25 driver without accidents and no major traffic violation for three years to get his initial insurance for $105. He would get lower rates each additional year, or his rate would increase for any year he had an accident or major traffic violation.

A total abstainer—the "occasional drinker" won't qualify—can get 20 to 30 per cent savings under some policies.

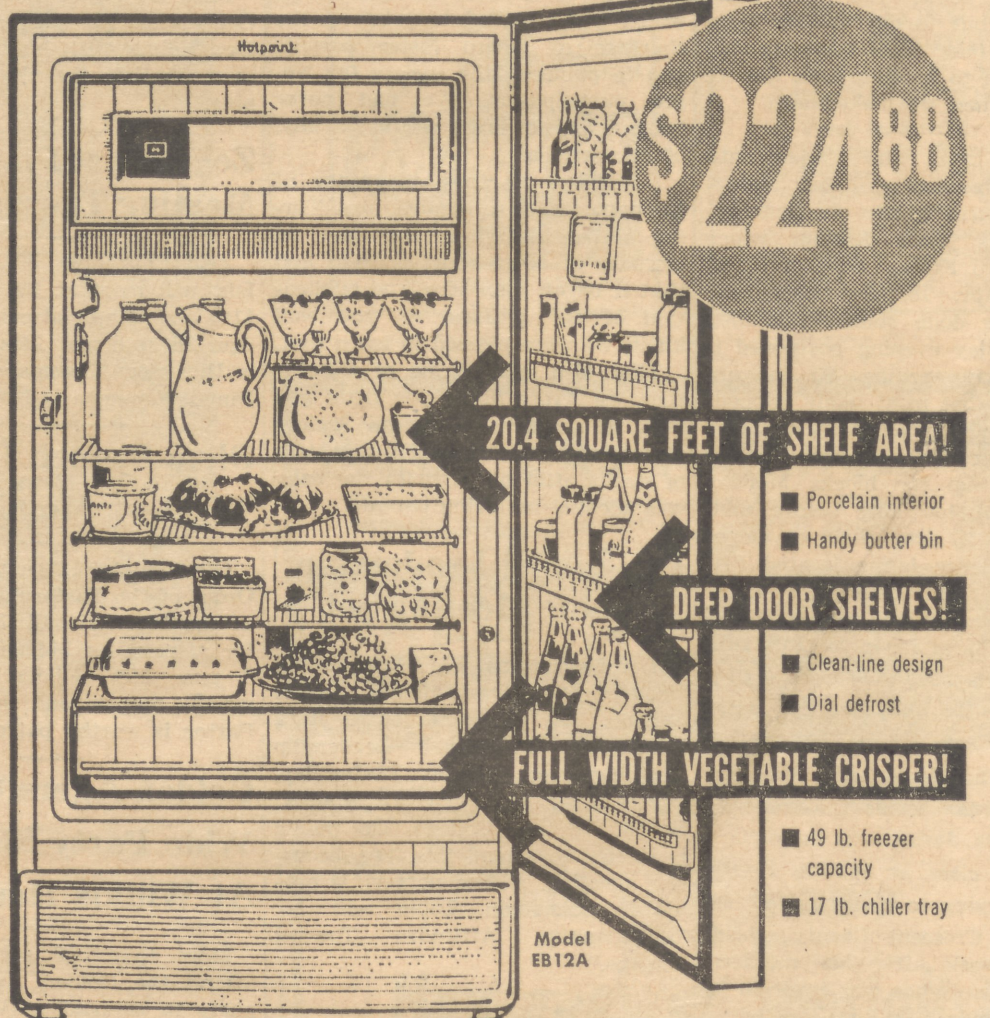

Some auto insurance companies will drop 10 per cent from rates for compact car owners.

Check with a local auto insurance agent for further details; my company does not issue auto insurance.
