Give State Delegates Specific Instructions For Nat'l Convention

Despite stiff opposition from their national leader, delegates to the Iowa 40 & 8 convention here Sunday voted to remove restrictions limiting membership in the American Legion fun making society to "white only."

The Iowa group passed the resolution with no dissenting votes after an effort to table it was defeated in a voice vote. The Iowa group also is the third in the nation to propose the elimination of a phrase in the constitution that restricts membership to "white male members of the American Legion."

National President

Speaking before the delegates, John M. Hobbie, of Liberal, Kans., national president of the 40 & 8, declared that it would be impossible to effect the change at the national convention, to be held in Miami, Fla., in October. "We never told the American Legion the word 'white' wouldn't come out of our constitution," he said later in his speech. "There isn't a racial fight in this thing. It's a political and power politics problem."

Instructions

The Iowa delegates, who convened at Hotel Fort Des Moines Monday, in its resolution specifically instructs Iowa delegates to the national convention to "support the elimination of such restrictions. It also urges the delegates from local posts in the state "to support the action" with their votes at the convention.

Lyndon Johnson Tells Homefolks He'll Fight Part of Rights Plank

Blanco, Tex.—In an off the cuff talk before 5,000 persons gathered for a barbecue and political rally, Senator Lyndon B. Johnson, Democratic vice-presidential nominee, last Wednesday said that he'll oppose in congress, sections of the Democratic civil rights platform.

Not Election

Johnson said he referred particularly to the civil rights section, declaring, "I'll oppose that part of the platform when it gets up in congress—not in the November election, but I'll put the opposition in the proper place."

The rally took place on the banks of the Blanco river and was Johnson's farewell speech in Texas before he returned to Washington for a renewed session of congress which began Monday with an address by President Eisenhower.

Mrs. Roy Wilkins Accuses Beauty Salon Of Bias in St. Paul

St. Paul, Minn.—Mrs. Roy Wilkins, wife of the executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, revealed that she was refused service by a St. Paul beauty salon while the NAACP was holding its national convention here in June. She made the complaint to the state human rights commission of which Clifford Rucker is executive director.

Rucker quoted Mrs. Wilkins as saying that she was refused service "in a discourteous and uncivil manner, resulting in embarrassment, confusion and inconvenience," by Miss Viva Barnett, owner of the salon. When asked for an explanation Miss Barnett denied the charges, saying she was prepared to serve Mrs. Wilkins.

Suspects in Confidence Game Here

More Than Score of Cities Halt Lunch Counter Bias

New York—Inclusion of Durham, N. C., and Miami this week in an on-going NAACP sit-in protest success survey, raises the total number of cities to more than a score with integrated lunch counter facilities. Kress, Woolworth and McClellan variety stores in Durham opened their lunch counters last Monday (Aug. 1) following a series of mass sit-ins. These were conducted by NAACP youth council and college chapter members from local high schools, North Carolina College and other trade and business schools within the Durham community. Food was served to Negroes at three downtown Miami variety store lunch counters on the same day. No disorders were reported in either locality. NAACP youth units have been active in the Florida sit-ins for months.

Survey Shows

To date, the NAACP survey shows varying degrees of lunch counter integration in North Carolina at Charlotte, Durham, Greensboro, Winston-Salem, High Point and Salisbury. In Texas at Corpus Christi, Galveston, San Antonio, Dallas and Austin. In Virginia at Arlington, Alexandria, Portsmouth, Norfolk, Fredericksburg and Fairfax.

Initial Site

In Florida at Miami. In Tennessee at Nashville and Knoxville. Also Baltimore in Maryland, and St. Joseph and Jefferson City in Missouri. Finally, there are Oklahoma City, Tulsa and Guthrie, in Oklahoma. Oklahoma City is the site of the first of the recent sit-ins. NAACP youth units launched a carefully planned drive in 1958 to secure lunch counter service. It was eminently successful and, today, Negroes are served in some 60 stores where service, prior to 1958, was denied them.

Famed Civil Rights Attorney Dies in Ark.

New York—Joseph Robert Booker, pioneer civil rights attorney, died in Little Rock, Ark., on July 31, at the age of 66.

He is best known for his participation in the Elaine riot case of 1919, which established the constitutional principal that every defendant is entitled to a fair trial free of mob domination, one of the most famed of NAACP cases.

It started when five white persons and between 25 to 50 Negroes were killed in rural Phillips County, Ark., near Elaine. Federal troops were called in to suppress what was broadcast as a "massacre" of whites. Close to 1,000 Negroes, mostly farmers, were rounded up. Nearly 200 were held. Of these, 94 were indicted and tried.

12 Condemned

Twelve were condemned to death, 82 were given one to 25 years in prison. The case lasted six years until all defendants were cleared. Booker, then a young attorney, as-

Hearing Slated Monday; Victim Claims Loss of $1300 in Confidence

An 86-year-old Chariton attorney here last week fell victim to an even more ageless confidence game, as he accused two men from Los Angeles, Calif., of bilking him of $1300. The two were arrested a day later following a telephone tip from an unidentified woman, who having read of the newspaper account, told police that the two men seemed to be working on another "victim."

Last Thursday's victim was Walter W. Bulman, retired attorney. The two accused were identified as Fate Hill, 50, and William Selmon McDonald, 46, and both pleaded innocent to charges of obtaining money under false pretenses, larceny and embezzlement. They were arraigned Saturday morning before Judge Ray Harrison and jailed in lieu of $15,000 bond each. Hearing will be held Monday, Aug. 15 at 1:30.

Not in Town

At their arraignment the two men told Judge Harrison that they weren't even in town when Bulman was duped. When police checked their story they reported that the Ryan hotel in St. Paul, Minn., had registered a "Fate Hill and company" there on Wednesday, the day before the first incident here.

Victim's Story

Telling of his encounter with the two men, Bulman said he was walking along E. Locust Street when a well-dressed man stopped him to ask about hotel accommodations. Bulman said the man spoke with a French accent and told him he was from the island of Martinique, in the French West Indies.

The man told Bulman he had just received $6,500 from his brother's estate, but doubted if it was safe to put the money in a bank. Bulman said he assured the man, and a companion who appeared, that the money would be safe in a bank.

The two men, still expressing doubt, asked to see Bulman's bank book. They drove Bulman to his room at 1667 E. Court Ave., where

Gasoline Ban on Tennessee Negro Voters Finally Lifted

New York—The embargo on sale of gasoline and oil to registered Negro voters in Fayette County, Tenn., has been lifted.

Announcement of this development was made here today by Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. It followed NAACP negotiations with representatives of the oil industry.

John McFerren, a leader of the registration drive in the county and owner of a grocery store and service station in Somerville, reported to the NAACP national office that he had received 12,000 gallons of gasoline and had been assured of a shipment of oil.

Economic Squeeze

Because of the economic squeeze, designed to keep Negroes from registering, McFerren had not been able to purchase gasoline and oil for his station from local distributors of any of the major oil companies since he took over the business last spring. Not only McFerren, but Negro farmers and other colored consumers who had registered were blacklisted and denied gas and oil at local service stations.

NAACP Boycott

In an effort to end this economic freeze, Wilkins, on July 6, sent a memorandum to all NAACP units asking them to refrain from purchasing gasoline and oil from the offending companies. He listed Texaco, Gulf, Esso, Amoco, Delta and two regional concerns, Lion Gas and Southern Oil Refining Company. Negotiations with representatives of the oil industry in July led to the termination of this phase of the economic squeeze.

Second Memo

Wilkins has sent a second memorandum to NAACP units throughout the country informing them of the new development and advising that "the July 6 memorandum is withdrawn. We trust that there will not be a recurrence of the Fayette County action anywhere in the country."

McFerren reported to the NAACP that wholesale food and soft drink dealers still refuse to make deliveries of their products to Negro merchants in the county. The only soft drink available to them, he said, is 7-Up.

Human Rights Exec Gets Staff Assistant

John David Challas, 23, has been named as the newly appointed staff assistant to Edward E. Shelton, executive secretary of the Des Moines Commission on Human Rights.

Challas, began his first assignment last week by beginning a survey of Des Moines employers of more than 75 persons. Purpose of the survey is to ascertain employment policies of employers under the commission jurisdiction to learn the number and type of jobs in each employer's operation and pinpoint jobs held by minorities.

Emphasis

The survey will emphasize beginning jobs, and minimum qualifications; data sought will also include distribution of minorities in each work force, according to Shelton.

Shelton stated, "the object of the survey is not to judge but to describe a process; not to seek information as a means to praise or blame any person or firm."

Challas resides at 3330 University ave., is a graduate of Drake university and is completing his first year of law study there.

he got out two bank books. The men then drove him to the Iowa State Bank, E. Seventh and Locust Streets, and asked him to get his money to prove that a person could withdraw his money from a bank any time he wanted to. Bulman told police he withdrew $700 from the bank, then drove with the two men to the Des Moines Savings & Loan Association, 210 Sixth Ave., where he withdrew another $600.

The men persuaded him to put the money in a paper sack with what he thought was their $6,500, Bulman said. They drove him back to the Iowa State Bank, and asked him to take the money into the bank while they parked the car. On his way to the bank Bulman looked in the sack and discovered nothing but a wadded newspaper. The men had vanished, having switched sacks.

Similar Story
When police arrested Hill and McDonald they were talking to F. A. Youngquist, 79, of 1310 65th Street, who told police that one of the men had stopped him on the street and asked directions to a hotel. Youngquist said they were later joined by a second man and the two pretended not to know each other. He said the conversation that followed was closely similar to that Bulman reported with the two men.

Evidence
In a later development in the case Monday Mrs. Luther T. Glanton, attorney for Hill and McDonald was refused 200 and an auto seized from the two by Detective Chief Edward J. McCarthy. Mrs. Glanton is representing the two and said the two men authorized her to take possession of the money and car. McCarthy said the money and car are being held as evidence against the two men.

Family Finances

Insurance Counselor
Old Equity Life, Evanston, Ill.

"Should I buy this sofa with cash or credit?" "Would it be better to get this electric mixer on credit and pay a carrying charge or should I wait several months and pay cash?"

If cash versus credit decisions plague you, here are some helpful hints:

- Use cash whenever possible.
- Use credit only if it adds to your family's general welfare.
- Shop before borrowing—compare the charges of two, preferably three, lenders.
- Keep your total debt (not counting mortgage debt) below a set percentage, say 20 per cent, of your annual take-home pay.
- Carry insurance on your large debts.
- Know all conditions of any installment contracts before you sign.

If you have questions about your family finances write to me in care of your editor. No letters can be answered or returned; however, as many questions as possible will be covered in future columns.

WHY NOT TAKE STEVIE WITH YOU?

Five-year-old Stevie was crying and very unhappy because his mother and father would not take him to the supermarket. This situation happens in every home at one time or another.

Let's examine Stevie's situation a bit more closely. We will see that Stevie is a cerebral-palsied child who wears braces and is confined to a wheelchair. Stevie has been shopping only a few times.

Deprivations

Studies show that the physically handicapped child is deprived of many social experiences that children should have. By taking Stevie on trips to the store, the park, the movies, the zoo, etc., the parents could make up for this deprivation. It is easy to see why it would be difficult to take a physically handicapped child who needs such expert long run the parents and the child will reap great rewards for their efforts.

Social Developments

The non-handicapped child has rich experiences in social development; these experiences provide for better social adjustment. The handicapped child will need such experiences even more than the non-handicapped one because it is of the utmost importance for the handicapped child not to have still another problem to face.

These experiences will provide for him a foundation that will help him in school as well as at home. Parents and others can do a great deal to help children such as Stevie to lead a richer, fuller life.

If there is a Stevie in your family or in your neighborhood, take him with you whenever possible. What may seem an ordinary experience to you may give a real "lift" to Stevie.

DINNER SOCIETY

Des Moines Chapter President Reports Exciting Probing Sessions at 12th Nat'l Links Assembly

An exciting, probing session spiced by glamorous social activities was reported by Atty. Willie S. Glanton, who attended as delegate to the 12th National Assembly of Links, Inc., in Los Angeles, Calif., recently. Mrs. Glanton, who is president of the Des Moines chapter of Links, served on the constitutional committee. Other local members attending the assembly which had headquarters at the Statler-Hilton hotel, were Mrs. Alta Herndon, alternate delegate, and Mrs. Irma Estes, Sr. Local Connecting Links attending were Messrs. Bonnie Herndon and John Estes, Sr.

Highlights

One of the highlights of the Assembly, attended by 500 delegates from 67 chapters, was the program of the National Project Program committee, "Search Motivation and Guidance of the Talented Negro Youth," a panel discussion which followed the keynote address by Dr. Paul Lawrence, superintendent of the Willowbrook school district in Los Angeles county. Following the discussion workshop sessions were held on all areas covered by the panelists.

Notables

Notable personalities appearing before the Assembly were Dr. Abbott Kaplan, director of University Extension, University of California; Mrs. Helen Coffin, supervisor of Special education, Los Angeles; George Butler, educational director, President's committee on Government Contracts; John C. Moore, chairman of Mayor's Committee on Human Relations; Mrs. Rollin Brown, past president National Congress of Parents and Teachers and chairman of 1960 White House Conference on Children and Youth; Hon. Norris Paulson, mayor of Los Angeles; Hon. Frank G. Bonelli, chairman of the Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles county; Asst. Atty. General James Williams of Los Angeles and NAACP fame and Hon. James Roosevelt.

Social Affairs

Mrs. Glanton reported that numerous social affairs were given. "Many Des Moines residents will be especially interested in knowing that one of the daughters of Judge and Mrs. Thomas Griffith of Los Angeles made her debut at the Cotillion sponsored by the Los Angeles chapter of Links. Judge Griffith is a native Iowan and visited here about two years ago with his charming wife and daughter," she reported.

"The Cotillion, held in the beautiful and fabulous Beverly-Hilton hotel in Beverly Hills, was indeed an elaborate and elegant affair." "It was also interesting to note that delegates were entertained with an "Evening in Hawaii," a cocktail buffet at exclusive Wilfran club. It reminded Des Moines members of the "Afternoon in Hawaii," which was sponsored earlier this summer by the local chapter."

Sesame Puffs Go With Frozen Fruit Salad

Fragrant, warm Sesame Puffs with margarine give appeal to frozen fruit salad.

A frozen fruit salad is at its cool best when a hot bread is served with it.

Bread and margarine are an excellent foundation for summer eating. One leading nutritionist says that menus planned around bread and spread, citrus and milk are tops nutritionally. And, says he, the idea that bread and margarine are fattening is old hat. It might have been true in the days when bread was not enriched and when margarine did not contain vitamin A. But nowadays, with their fine food values, these basic foods ought to be included in every meal, even in the diets of those seeking to lose weight.

To go with a frozen fruit salad and to make the menu a complete meal, it would be hard to find a bread more delicious than Sesame Puffs. They are easy to make and they keep well for several days. Any left over can easily be reheated in the top of a double boiler, or foil-wrapped in the oven.

Sesame Puffs are made from a yeast-leavened batter. It need not be kneaded, only stirred and perhaps beaten a bit to make it extra good. Since the batter contains milk and eggs along with margarine and enriched flour, the puffs are practically a meal in themselves. To make them extra easy to mix, the recipe calls for dry milk. This means there is no bothersome scalding of milk and that extra pan to wash.

If any of the men in the family belong to the "no salad for me" brigade, these cloud-light hot little rolls may help them change their minds.

SESAME PUFFS

(about 30 2 1/4-inch puffs)

- 1 1/4 cup warm water
- 1 package yeast
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 3/4 cup sifted flour
- 4 tablespoons dry milk solids
- 1/2 cup melted margarine
- 2 eggs
- 1/2 cup sesame seeds

Measure warm water (100° F.) into 9-quart bowl, or into large bowl of electric mixer. Sprinkle yeast over water and let stand 5 minutes. Add sugar, salt, 2 cups flour and dry milk solids. Mix smooth. Stir in melted and cooled margarine. Add eggs and beat until smooth and shiny. Add remaining flour and mix well. (Batter should look glossy.) Cover and set in warm place to rise until doubled (about 1 hour). Stir down and drop by tablespoons into well-margarined muffin pans. Fill each muffin cup half full. Sprinkle a teaspoon of sesame seed over batter in each cup. Let rise until doubled (about 45 minutes). Bake in moderately hot oven (400° F.) 20 to 25 minutes, until golden brown. Remove from pans at once. Serve warm or cold with margarine.

McGAFFIN ATTEMPTS TO MISLEAD THE PUBLIC

William McGaffin, writing in the Des Moines Tribune, outlines the reason for a Republican drive in the South during the coming campaign. As usual, he takes the proverbial potshot at Negro Republican leaders and said that the old timers are being replaced by young men-white.

True, the Republican party was but a shell in the South up to a few years ago due, mainly, to the fact that Negroes were not permitted to vote, most white people hated the name while those inclined to that party wanted a lily white organization.

But participation in Republican politics in the South produced some towering able men just as is being done in the North today. And as Negroes become able to vote freely in the South, they will appear again.

Years ago, Iowa Senator Smith Brookhart went South to clean up the Republican party. That clean up was directed toward eliminating the Negro. Brookhart, a country boy, was shocked at what a political organization could be. He learned a lot from Negro politicians, folded his tent and broke off the assignment.

In his effort to degrade Negro leadership, McGaffin cites Mississippi as an example stating:

"The Republican state chairman until this year did not even reside in Mississippi. He was a Negro lawyer and he lived in Washington, D. C. but he retired this year, at the age of 88, and has been replaced by a 35-year-old businessman who lives in the state.

Feature writers should be an example on keeping the record straight. Obviously he was speaking of Perry Howard who, in fact, was the National committeeman and not the state chairman. The state chairman is a Negro named Mitchell whom I met at the Convention in Chicago last month.

During the Roosevelt administration, so many national committeemen had offices in Washington as well as back home where their influence peddling got so bold, so obnoxious and they made so much "political money" that their presence in the nation's capital became embarrassing to the administration. So they wisely made the main office at home and an associate in Washington to do the job. The trouble with Perry Howard was that he was not able to maintain offices in two states.

Patronage is a key to any political organization. This, the Negro political leader had little in the South for no matter what administration is in power, it must deal with senators and representatives in a states more or less. And when such men as the late Senator Vardeman, John Sharp Williams, Bilbo and now Eastland have some influence on what was to be done, it is hard to see how Perry Howard accomplished as much as he did.

IOWA CAN BE COUNTED ON

The 40 and 8 organization in Iowa voted to eliminate race as a qualification for membership at its convention this week.

Congratulations fellows! The Bystander has always had confidence in the Iowa Legion fellows for they have backed everything their Negro buddies brought before them over the years.

The National Commander, who opposed the action, is just another narrow individual with his head in the sand and thus does not know what is going on and the effect of his actions.

Undoubtedly, the national body will succumb to the body blows delivered by some of the state organizations when they meet in October.

DANGEROUS GROWING PAINS IN THE CONGO

The troubles in the Congo between tribes and other sub-divisions of the newly emancipated country are loaded with far-reaching consequences. They are most unfortunate and could easily precipitate a war. Fortunately United Nations is making a heroic effort to steady the ship proving its worth as a force for peace.

This type of situation seems to prevail in so many of the countries which have been liberated or have come to the front in recent years. It is true in China, in Korea, in Indonesia and more or less with Arab nations in the middle East and northern Africa.

Everyone can't lead. Yet many people think they can and thus the struggle for power goes on among intelligent as well as primitive people. Ordinarily the trouble would sound of growing pains but potentials are so dangerous here that they cannot be ignored.

Thanks to good sense, America has given and will continue to help to right the situation through U.N. This procedure does two things (1) relieves charges of our own designs on other nations and (2) strengthens the hand of U.N. Unfortunate as the situation is —and we cannot condemn the Congolese from wanting Belgium completely out of their country—there is great hope that contending forces will reconcile their differences, quit playing with Russia and adjust to a thriving orderly nation.

$25,000 Bonus Contract Inked by Negro Youth

Chicago—A 19-year-old Chicago youth and former Dunbar High school football and baseball star now attending the University of Michigan has received what is believed to be the largest bonus ever paid to a Negro prospect when the Detroit Tigers signed him to a $25,000 contract, it was reported here.

He is Wilbur Franklin, a former All-City choice in baseball and football at Dunbar, who was assigned to the Tigers Class D farm team at Durham, N. C. He will report to the Tigers camp at Lakeland, Fla., in February.

Catcher

Franklin was a catcher at Dunbar but played the outfield at the University of Michigan, where he batted .382 during his sophomore year. He also was a varsity halfback on the Wolverine football team. While attending the university, he played semi-pro baseball with a Grand Rapids (Mich.) team, batting about .400.

A likeable kid who started his baseball career playing sandlot ball in community tournaments. Franklin was a member of the Dearborn Homes All-Stars in the Southside Community Committee Athletic commission league.

The Hilltop-Des Moines open tennis tournament closed with a bang on the Goode park courts. In the mens' singles they could have just as well sent the other contestants home and given the title to Gene Nadig. The cold eyed belter from Ames, sailed through the thing without losing a set. Probably have to shoot the guy to keep him from retiring this trophy next year.

E. Jensen

E. Jensen of Ames played a stout game but five-four in the first set was his high point against Nadig. Then Jensen took the count against another veteran, Harold McCollum and walloped him to win his second straight veterans singles. Most of the Goode park regulars got their kicks when Esther Myers won her second women's singles in three years. Mrs. Myers ranked fourth in the state, didn't give Bobbie Lavine much of a chance. This was the first time there were four Negroes and four white players in this bracket. Evanette Mays, Kizzie Strothers, and Lena Walden all went out in the first round. The same four got mixed doubles partners and went out after some good matches.

Veterans Singles

Chef Williamson won a match in the veterans singles but lost his next one. Everett Mays had his lumps in the first round. Aramilla Bell reached the semi-finals in the 15 and under girls and then lost. This was won by a little 12-year-old from California who played like a veteran. This young prodigy teamed up with Ralph Whitehead to win the mixed doubles from the McCollum family, Harold and Laura, daughter and father. They really had fun; even losing.

Men's Doubles

Aramilla Bell reached the semi-finals in the 15 and under girls and then lost. This was won by a little 12-year-old from California who played like a veteran. Baby Knows How High Is Up—A baby as young as 7 months can tell when the floor is a dangerously long way off, according to two Cornell University experimenters. They found that not even mother could coax baby from a table onto an adjacent sheet of thick glass covering a drop to the ground. Conclusion: When baby tumbles off the furniture it's a slip of the muscles, not the mind. He knows the danger.

No Place For the Country Cousin—The big city is the wicked place the farmer always thought it was. A study of the drinking habits of some 1,200 Iowans showed that the boys drink a lot more after they move from the farm to the city. Only about half of Iowa's rural dwellers drink, two-thirds of the city slickers.

Muscle Rustle—A doctor and an electronics engineer, experimenting with a new amplifier and frequency scanner, picked up high frequency signals from muscles in the form of rustling noises. Muscles sometimes crunched, but mostly they just rustled. Possible application: diseased muscle gives off different signals from healthy muscle, so maybe the gadget can be used in diagnosis.

Still Can't Buy Happiness—You'll never get happy taking "happy pills." In fact, quite the reverse, according to Dr. Frank Berger, discoverer of Miltown, first of the tranquilizers. Someone looking for a lift won't find it in Miltown or any similar drug, says Dr. Berger, and may even feel worse. Tranquilizing drugs are useful, but let the doctor decide when and how!

Not How Much But How Often—Putting away three square meals a day may be rougher on the system than day-long nibbling of the same amount of food. So says researcher Dr. Clarence Cohn of Chicago's Medical Research Institute. Animal experiments suggest that taking on a heavy load of food three times a day may trigger diabetes, hepatitis, and heart and blood vessel ailments.

Patterson Begins Exhibition Tour of Sweden This Week

Goteborg, Sweden — Plans for heavyweight boxing champion Floyd Patterson to make an exhibition tour of Sweden were completed here last week by a group of Swedish promoters, who scheduled the first exhibition for Aug. 10 in the track and field stadium in Goteborg.

While the Swedes will get their first chance to see the man who crushed their greatest idol, Ingemar Johansson, last June, Ingemar won't be around to witness any of the events. He said he will be absent from Sweden during the exhibition tour.

Rematch

Meanwhile, promoter Bill Fugazy of Feature Sports Inc. announced here that plans for the Patterson-Johansson rematch at Los Angeles next Nov. 1, are all set. Only a formal signing remains, he said. This will take place about Aug. 20 in Rome, with both Patterson and Johansson going there for the ceremony. Patterson will interrupt the exhibition tour for the signing.

Mays To Tour Japan With Giants in Oct.

New York—Willie Mays, playing one of his best seasons in the majors despite the poor showing of the faltering San Francisco Giants, will put his fabulous talents on display for the benefit of Japanese baseball fans during a 16-game fall tour of Japan by the Giants between Oct. 16 and Nov. 16.

The tour was announced last week by the office of Baseball Commissioner Ford C. Frick. No details were given at the time.

The men's doubles was won by a pair in just about the best doubles match we ever saw at the park. The trophies were presented and a fellow named Lann Burr from Salina, Kans., won the boys singles and shared in the doubles titles. Another young fellow, Chapman from Iowa City won the 13-year-old boys title and we all went home, tired but happy.

OUR WONDERFUL LAND

In our wonderful land of plenty, Why should there be dissention? We have the bounty of His hand, So listen with attention! No where upon this teeming earth, That is our Lord's creation, Does any country have more wealth Than this, our own proud nation. No where, is there, such wanton waste, Nor heedless profligation. No other race, shows more heedless haste, Has less appreciation. Though millions, hungry, starving, die; Caught in the web of fate, Ours talk of helping, bye and bye,

While famine does not wait! Let US act, and act today, With willing heart and friendly hand; Give of our wealth, the christian way, And be proud of our wonderful land. —Glenn A. Gallagher

Thoughts for Today

A man must be both stupid and uncharitable who believes there is no virtue or truth but on his own side.—Addison

Nothing is ever felt to be of value which is not won as a result of sacrifice.—Calvin Coolidge.

Be civil to all; sociable to many; familiar to few; friend to one; enemy to none.—Benjamin Franklin.

Laugh Lines

Tom: "Say, Bill, how did you get that swelling on your nose?"
Bill: "Oh, I bent down to smell a brose in my garden."
Tom: "Not brose, Bill. There's no 'B' in rose."
Bill: "There was in this one."

Ship Repair

According to Senator Magnuson, it is estimated that the U. S. Merchant Marine, counting its seagoing, shoreside and shipbuilding and ship repair segments, contributes more than $5 billion a year to our economy. And foreign trade, he adds, provides direct employment for more than 4½ million Americans.

Railroad

Featherbedding practices in the railroad industry have been deplored by the president of the California Grape and Tree Fruit League in a letter to President Eisenhower. He said that his organization was "vital" concerned with any cost factors... that will increase freight rates or impair railroad efficiency."
