Plan Billboard Drive Against Bias

Kennedy Mum on School Strife in Louisiana

Palm Beach, Fla.—President-elect John F. Kennedy Sunday refused to see a delegation of representatives of the Louisiana government who called upon him to express his feelings about the action of U. S. District Judge J. Skelly Wright in enjoining the Louisiana legislature from interference in the integration of New Orleans public schools.

Instead Sen. Kennedy designated Clark M. Clifford, Washington attorney, as his representative to receive a joint resolution of the Louisiana legislature and an executive order signed by Gov. Jimmie Davis.

New Orleans public schools, which last week resembled Little Rock of several years ago, were closed this week for the Thanksgiving holiday.

New Orleans, La.—The father of one of the four Negro youngsters attending previously all-white schools in this bias-torn city was fired from his job this week after four and a half years of service.

NAACP Field Secretary Clarence Laws has assured the unidentified parent that the NAACP will help him find another job. Laws revealed that the parents of the four first-graders "are holding fast despite the violence." Although the identity of the parents and children has not been revealed to date, their homes are under 24 hour police security guard.

The NAACP spokesman also said that the "teachers have been nice to the Negro girls who appear to be oblivious to what is happening." All

Roosevelt Club, Inc., Pledges All-Out Support for UNCF

Members of the Roosevelt Club Inc., pledged their all out support in raising funds for the United Negro College Fund, by not only making personal contributions themselves, but by soliciting and urging others to do so, announced Mr. Joseph Wimberly, club president.

Lawrence R. Perkins, National Field Representative on his stop-over in Des Moines, Nov. 19, and 20, personally expressed his gratitude to the membership for this humanitarian project undertaken by the club, by supporting and endeavoring to raise funds for the education of our youth. The United Negro College Fund has made it possible for hundreds of boys and girls to obtain a college education who otherwise would not have had that opportunity. Rev. N. R. Ophlin is the local chairman of the Negro division.

"Members of the Roosevelt Club urge every Negro to stand up and be counted in this necessary cause with a contribution—large or small. When contacted want you respond by having a check or money order payable to the United Negro College Fund. We do not recommend giving cash unless the person is personally known by you and authorized to solicit for this fund.

"Even if not contacted mail your check or money order to your Treasurer, Bonnie Herndon, 723 West 28th Street, Des Moines, Iowa, or

GREET YOUR FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS IN THE IOWA BYSTANDER CHRISTMAS ISSUE.

THANKSGIVING

Augusta, Ga.—The text of President Eisenhower's Thanksgiving Day proclamation:

Whereas it has long been our custom as a people to pause from our labors for one day at the close of the harvest season and give special thanks to Almighty God for the bounty which He has bestowed upon our land; and

Whereas again this year we have been blessed with an abundant harvest; and

Whereas it is fitting and appropriate at this time of national thanksgiving that we should remember and respond to the needs of those of other lands; and

Now, therefore, I, Dwight D. Eisenhower, president of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim Thursday, Nov. 24, 1960, as a day of national thanksgiving; and I urge the people of the United States to give grateful thought to the observance of this day.

Furthermore, I call upon our people, while giving thanks for our blessings, to direct their thoughts to the peoples of other lands less fortunate than we.

Food Problem

In particular, I urge my fellow Americans to support and assist the efforts which we as a nation, working individually and in co-operation with other nations, are directing toward the solution of the world food problem.

Under our food-for-peace program, a distinguished company of voluntary citizens' groups and religious societies is making heart-warming contributions to this effort. I ask our people to give them continued support.

At the same time, I urge my fellow Americans to assist in the freedom-from hunger campaign of the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization. Our government fully supports the objectives of this organization.

But success of its campaign requires the active co-operation of generous citizens, and of public and private groups, in our country and around the world.

Use of Resources

Let us hope that some day, under a benevolent providence and through the best use of the world's God-given resources, each nation will have reason to celebrate its own Thanksgiving Day.

NEWS In A Nutshell

New Orleans, La.—Leonard Gunzburg, manager of Manners Jewelry store in downtown New Orleans was convicted last week in Federal court of concealing assets in bankruptcy proceedings. He ran for Mayor a few years ago on a strictly anti-Negro ticket. He was accused of hiding jewelry from authorities in the bankruptcy proceedings. His store had been patronized by Negroes until they stopped purchasing following his persecutions.

Nashville, Tenn.—William Tines, 37, convicted of raping a Roane county white housewife, died in the electric chair he had avoided for three years last week despite last effort ditch by his attorneys to save his life.

Spartanburg, S. C.—Miss Lois Thomas, explaining why she had a black eye, told newsmen: "I was walking down the street and this fellow insulted me. I socked him, probably broke his nose." But what about the black eye? "My brother decided to help me and he took a swing at the other fellow. But he missed and hit me in the eye."

Hampton, Va.—Two Hampton Institute students were killed and seven other persons, including four Hampton coeds, were injured when James E. Moore, 20, Hampton freshman and driver of the death car, sideswiped another vehicle and hit a utility pole. Moore, in a futile and fatal attempt to return to the campus before the school's curfew hour, was driving a late model station wagon from a nearby beach dance.

Petersburg, Va.—The Petersburg Public library reopened on an integrated basis last Monday after four months under lock and key, but no Negroes showed up.

Memphis, Tenn.—A fire caused by sparks from a fireplace killed two children, ages 10 and 5 years, in a one room apartment last week and authorities were pondering whether to file charges of negligence against the mother, Mrs. Sadie Wilson, who left the children alone while she worked at a cafe.

Memphis—Mound Bayou, world famed all-colored town in the heart of Mississippi Delta, has virtually lost all of its ties with a romantic past in the death of Mayor Benjamin A. Greene on Nov. 10. Mayor Greene was the first male child born in Mound Bayou . . . a thriving plantation town founded by the late I. T. Montgomery, a distant cousin.

Johannesburg, South Africa—A Johannesburg white woman whose Siamese twins were still-born has surrendered their bodies to surgeons to help them prepare an operation to separate 3-month old Negro Siamese girls.

Tennessee U Votes To Admit Negroes

Knoxville, Tenn.—The University of Tennessee board of trustees voted Friday to admit Negroes to the University on the undergraduate level. The first Negro students will be admitted in January. The university's graduate school and law college have been integrated since 1952.

Aimed at Iowa Travelers; Council Bluffs Witnesses Claim Bad State Record

A plan to campaign for civil rights on Iowa billboards next summer was revealed here Thursday by the Governor's Commission on Human Relations meeting at the statehouse.

The object of the campaign which will be in July 1961 is to inform travelers that Iowa law protects them against racial discrimination in motels, restaurants and other public accommodations. Tom Stoner, Des Moines, public service director of the Iowa Outdoor Advertising association said the association has agreed to provide 66 free billboards for the civil rights message for one month.

Alert Tourists

Commission Chairman Donald Boles of Ames said the billboard campaign might be helpful in alerting Iowans, as well as tourists, to the anti-discrimination law. Last year the commission was successful in getting the Iowa civil rights law printed on the highway maps which are distributed by the state highway commission.

At the same meeting a statewide survey of housing bias against non-whites made by the organization reported that a city ordinance which forbids Negroes to stay overnight in Le Mars.

Le Mars Report

The Le Mars report to the commission said the race ban there had not been enforced in recent years. No objections have been raised to non-white students at Westmar College there, the report said.

At Le Mars, City Clerk Nelson C. Newendrop said the race ban is one

Council Bluffs, Ia.—Members of the Iowa Advisory committee to the U. S. Commission on Civil Rights heard testimony here Saturday that Council Bluffs has the worst record for racial discrimination in housing and employment than any other city in the state.

Speaking before the group, George Cooper, president of the state NAACP, and who has been a resident of Council Bluffs 43 years reported, "There has been a definite change in the relations between the races during my time here. There was a period when there was no housing problem. The Negro could live in Council Bluffs anywhere his money could buy a home. That is no longer true today.

Housing Projects

"The Negro has been systematically relegated to the most undesirable sections of the city. There are areas where Negroes formerly lived and owned homes; they can no longer live there today, due to a sort of gentlemen's agreement between the real estate people," he continued.

Cooper added that there "have been many new housing projects built in the city . . . with not a single Negro in any of them . . ." He said the condition "has caused unrest and resentment among the colored people", and that many of them have left the state.

Employment

Cooper went on, "The employment picture for the Negro in Council Bluffs has never been on a comparative basis with other cities in

Reveal Foreign Students in Moscow Face Discrimination

New York, N. Y.—The foreign student colony in Russia is a hornet's nest of discontent, says an American woman who spent two years in Moscow as a correspondent.

Although the Communists are going to great extremes to woo Africans to their universities, they practice such intense segregation that many students only want to go back home, she discovered.

Priscilla Johnson reports in the December issue of Harper's Magazine that discrimination against the Afro-Asian students takes such forms as billeting them in inferior dormitories, giving them Russian roommates who may spy on them, constantly quizzing them on their political views and, on occasion, beating them up for dating Russian girls.

No Exit Visas

"Yet when the students try to leave Russia, the young men hit snags," writes Miss Johnson. "They'll get no exit visas, Soviet authorities imply, and no money for return passage home, till they've stayed at least two years. Many are doomed to five. So the sensation of being trapped begins, in some cases, at the very outset."

Miss Johnson reports that last year Russia played host to only 830 students from Asia, Africa, and Latin America, while the U. S. had 35,672.

Western Values

"A short term in Russia shoves many a 'neutral' Afro-Asian over to a sense of identity with the West, and Western values, he never felt before," she writes. "The very least an Indian or African can do in gratitude for a free Soviet education is rush into the Communist bear hug. But once the young 'neutral' discovers that the famous Russian hospitality he's heard so much about has its price ranging all the way from polite abstention from criticism, to enthusiastic espousal of Communist causes—he may turn bitter."

She is a welcome addition to our community for she became well known in Milwaukee for her work in the organizing of neighborhood clubs. Mrs. Smelley's coffee hours which started in her home and spread throughout the neighborhoods, proved that oneness can be established in neighborhoods.

Through her efforts many residents learned of the value of property and of the importance of keeping it in the best of condition. In an interview with this columnist, Mrs. Smelley stated that she is willing to help any neighborhood in the starting of a club.

Mrs. Smelley lives at 154 Harrison St.

Mrs. Annie Mae Weems, Pres. of the local branch of the N.A.A.C.P., reports that the State Conference held last Saturday, was a tremendous success.

She stated that the Resolutions Committee voted to send a letter of thanks to the following firms for their hiring of members of the minority races: Cutler's Apparel, Walnut Daity, A. & P., Eagle's, National Tea, and Woolworth's.

Fifty two delegates were in attendance at the conference reports, Mrs. Weems and she wishes to thank the Waterloo residents and the branches of other cities for the cooperation in making the conference successful.

SEE IN STARS

WITH DELORES CALVIN

New York, N. Y.—Will the New Nat King Cole Musical Make it? ... It's obvious that with all the money behind it, and with the great Paul Gregory to stage it, everyone concerned is hoping for a smash hit with the Nat King Cole starrer—"I'm With You."

And what a vehicle it is for Nat who sings 16 of 23 songs. It's got everything a musical should have if it wants to live on Broadway. Everything but one thing—a solid score that covers the defect of star Nat himself.

No Actor

Let's face it—Nat's no actor—never has been and never will be. He cannot get through long recitations and only makes the audience as embarrassed as he is. He can sing, and he can Mc a show if the lines are crisp and short. But give him a lot of talking—and poetry—ye gads—or anything that demands a lot of inflection in his voice and he's bound to flounder.

Barbara McNair

That's the case with this lavish, extravagant musical that's designed to make money, and big money. Maybe as it travels across country, others will realize their flaw and start cutting some of the dull lines from Nat's part. Meanwhile, the music is very good, the dancers and singers are excellent, Barbara McNair a stunner and Nat works hard. But not hard enough.

Nat's Backers

Broadway is rough . . . It takes its toll if just one ingredient is off. This is the pinnacle of success here and to take all the marbles, everything must be perfect. Nat's backers had better pick up on more story material from somewhere for him to make it on Broadway.

Miles Davis

Miles Davis is home again after his run-in with the British . . . His Quintet moved in at the Village Vanguard in New York.

Della Reese

Las Vegas is getting two stellar performances on the same bill with Dinah Washington and Della Reese going in the Flamingo Lounge . . . Cab Calloway is due back to New York after mid-west dates . . . Cab opens at the "Golden Slipper" two days after Xmas.

Variety With Vegetables

DO YOU NEED ANOTHER new idea or two on serving vegetables? Most of us do. It's easy enough to fix an exciting dessert—cookbooks have scores of recipes for sweet endings to meals, but vegetables too often, have been sadly neglected.

What can we do with beans, for instance, both green beans and limas? Well, we can boil them and serve with butter. Good enough but we need a change occasionally. So, for a fresh new note in your routine, try this suggestion from the Minute Maid-Snow Crop Frozen Foods Test Kitchen. During these lazy, warm days of early fall, serve beans arctic cold, marinated first in a delicious dressing. Mound them in pale green cups of iceberg lettuce and arrange round a large platter. Cool, delicious, and an easy meal when you team them with favorite cold cuts. And, from the special hint department comes this whisper in your ear—serving up cold vegetables in this fashion is a wonderful way to use up left-overs.

EASY BUFFET SALAD

|--|----------------------------------|
| 1 10-oz. pkg. Snow Crop Quick-Frozen Green Beans | 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard |
| 1 10-oz. pkg. Snow Crop Quick-Frozen Lima Beans | 2 teaspoons Worcestershire Sauce |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt | Few grains cayenne pepper |
| 1 clove garlic, peeled | 3 tablespoons lemon juice |
| | 1 cup salad oil |
| | 1 raw egg |
| | 1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese |

Cook vegetables following package directions, then chill in refrigerator. Sprinkle salt over peeled clove of garlic and chop finely. Place in mixing bowl with remaining ingredients except cheese, and beat with a whisk until well blended. Approximately one cup dressing. Pour dressing over chilled vegetables and marinate in refrigerator two hours. To serve, vegetables may be divided into lettuce cups and topped with grated cheese just before serving. Anchovy fillets may be substituted for the cheese. Makes 8-10 servings. (ANS)

Reduce Overseas Tour For Marine Corps

The Secretary of Defense has approved the request of the Commandant of the Marine Corps to reduce the overseas tour of Marines serving with the Fleet Marine Force in the Far East from 15 to 13 months.

The new tour length will apply to all Marines departing for these overseas units after July 1, 1960.

Marines who left the United States prior to July 1, 1960, normally will be governed by the old tour policy. However, under present plans, those who arrived on station with Fleet Marine Force units as late as June or July, 1960, may expect return to the United States no later than August, 1961.

The major units affected by the new policy are the First Marine Aircraft Wing in Japan and the Third Marine Division on Okinawa.

of several "entirely obsolete" sections in the city's 20-year-old law book.

The municipal code is being completely revised and the anti-Negro section undoubtedly will be among the old sections eliminated, Newendrop said.

Similar Laws

The human relations commission said it believes many Iowa cities and towns may have similar, old, discriminatory ordinances on their books. The commission planned more research on that.

Questionnaires

Questionnaires were sent by the commission to city officials, church leaders and local human relations groups where they exist in cities throughout the state. From many cities no replies were received.

Mrs. Harriette Baum of Manchester, a member of the commission's housing committee, reported that the only "derogatory" reports on cities of any size came from Fort Madison and Council Bluffs.

Ghettos

The effect of interstate highway construction in Council Bluffs on housing for non-whites will be to "put them in ghettos by themselves," the report from that city said. A report from Oskaloosa said there is no "official" real estate policy for Negroes there "but no broker will lease or sell in an all-white community."

Political Intelligence

Pennsylvania House

Philadelphia—Rep. Robert N. C. Nix, Sr., first Negro Congressman in the history of Pennsylvania, was re-elected to his third term, defeating the Rev. C. M. Smith, pastor of Wayland Temple Baptist church, in the Fourth District balloting, 81,516 to 22,060; a majority of 59,456. And in keeping with the trend, eight Negroes, all Democrats, were elected to the Pennsylvania House of Representatives.

Senator Watson Reelected

New York—Senator James L. Watson, running for reelection to the New York State Senate on both the Democratic and Liberal ticket, defeated Eugene McIntosh, Republican. Watson received a total vote of 61,940—51,316 on the Democratic ticket and 10,624 on the Liberal party ticket. Mr. McIntosh had 19,257 votes.

Boston Elects Three

Boston—For the first time in Boston's turbulent political history, there will be three Negro state representatives from Wards 9 and 12. In Ward 9, Lincoln G. Pope Jr. was re-elected to the House of Representatives by a vote of 2,948 to 1,420 for Atty. Laurence H. Banks, another Negro. Pope is a Democrat; Banks, a Republican. In Ward 12, another predominantly Negro ward, Royal L. Bolling, Democrat, and Alfred S. Brothers, Sr., Republican were elected to the House of Representatives. However, the incumbent George Greene, white, has asked for a recount inasmuch as his margin of defeat is roughly 160 votes.

California House

Los Angeles—Negro candidates in the State assembly races did not fare well last week. All were soundly beaten with the exception of venerable Augustus F. Hawkins, who was elected to the State legislature. His opponent was, another Negro, Leon Giles.

Boston—The first Negro ever to run for major public office in Massachusetts said Wednesday that his defeat at the polls had nothing to do with his race. Edward W. Brooke, a 40-year-old Boston attorney, was the Republican candidate for Secretary of State. "I was a victim of the Kennedy landslide," he said.

four children are only six years old.

Laws praised police saying "they have been working to their utmost to protect life and property. They are trying to do a job, even though they have been under terrific attack by the White Citizens Council and others."

Screaming Mob

The marauding mobs have received ample stimulation and encouragement from the White Citizens Council. A three-hour rally was held earlier last week (Tues., Nov. 15) at Municipal Auditorium where several thousand screaming, stomping, men, women and children applauded and cheered an array of segregationist speakers.

Assistant District Attorney Leander H. Perez called Mayor DeLesseps S. Morrison a "little weasel, snake-head." Mayor Morrison has backed the school board in keeping the schools open. Rep. John S. Garrett, chairman of the joint legislative committee on segregation, pledged that "legislators' heads are not bowed."

Blames Judge

He continued, saying "Judge Wright (James Skelly Wright, federal court jurist who ruled in favor of integration) has thrown away the law book" and has "come to the theory that might makes right."

Garrett added that if the public permits the integration of four Negro girls today, "there may be 5,000 next week." He blamed Judge Wright and the school board "for the turmoil we're having in the city of New Orleans."

Mississippi

John R. Wright, president of the Mississippi White Citizens Council, followed and told the wild audience that "Mississippi is 100 per cent behind you."

"Checkerboard classrooms today mean blackboard jungles tomorrow. In this crisis you now face, inaction is consent," he said.

A group of teenagers was invited to the speakers' platform and it was announced that they had been arrested by police guarding integrated schools. They were roundly applauded. Perez returned to the speaker's stand and concluded his remarks by calling NAACP Attorney Thurgood Marshall a "smart-alec mulatto lawyer."

HEALTH FOR ALL

"Bright, Blue Weather"

No one will quarrel with Helen Hunt Jackson's famous poem awarding the beauty prize to "October's bright blue weather." It's so wonderful that we try to forget the days that aren't so fine, the days when leaden skies overhead and sodden leaves underfoot provide a preview of November and December.

Common Cold

For all its beauty, October heralds the triumphal march of the common cold. For the next six months in almost any group of six people, there will be at least one person who's coming down with a cold, one who has a cold, and one who's just getting over me. What can we do to break this pattern which makes late fall and winter the season of sniffles?

Let's not waste time blaming the weather. Let's adjust to it, and that means dressing for it. October or November can be as changeable as April. Even the brightest day calls for a sweater or a coat. A cloudy day calls for rainwear from head to foot.

Check Doctor

This is a good time to check with your family doctor and get his advice on protecting the family from illness in the months ahead. This year especially because of possible epidemics of Asian flu, make a special effort to be sure that every member of the family is in the best possible physical condition. See that they get enough sleep, rest, and outdoor recreation. Step up the protective foods—milk, eggs, meat and vegetables—in the meals you serve. If, in spite of all precautions, a cold should strike, give the patient a day of rest, preferably in bed. If there is fever call the doctor.

Iowa." He pointed out that the railroad which formerly hired 75 per cent of the Negroes in Council Bluffs, had cut down employment and consequently forced Negroes to seek Employment elsewhere.

Governments

"The city and county governments have consistently refused to employ Negroes except the lowest menial work even though many had passed written and oral civil service exams. He reported that some hotels deny accommodation to Negroes and some restaurants in the city refuse service to Negroes unless the food is to be taken out.

Witnesses

The meeting was held in conjunction with the recently organized Mayors Committee on Human Relations. Others testifying at the meeting were Dr. Allan R. Knight, chairman of the Mayors committee; C. B. Miles, superintendent of schools who said there were no Negro teachers

RAPPORT WITH OUR CHILDREN

Mary, 12, had been punished by her father. This happened so seldom that she was disconsolate, almost crushed. The Girl Scouts were marching in the Decoration Day parade the next day and Mary left her home early to meet with the Scouts at headquarters.

Mary's mother and her grandmother were leaving for the parade when the grandmother said: "Isn't Bill (Mary's father) going?"

Rapport

"Oh yes," said the mother. "He has gone on ahead. He wanted to find a good place to be sure of seeing Mary—and to be sure Mary would see him."

In this case, Father cared greatly about rapport with his 12-year-old daughter and was trying to make her feel comfortable and loved in spite of the fact that he had been obliged to punish her.

Dictionary

The dictionary gives "harmony of relations, agreement, and sympathy."

thetic relation" as synonyms for rapport. We do need to discipline our children as we try to guide them into desirable habits, yet we must maintain a feeling of closeness.

Maintaining good rapport with our children does not mean indulging or "spoiling" them, but it does mean that sensitivity in relation to our conduct is important.

Awareness

Most children are aware of good rapport with their parents—or the reverse. "Nothing I do is right," wailed one boy—this is tragic for the child who needs approval and the trust of his parents.

One thoughtful mother said that in their family the parent who sent a child to his room or away from the table for misconduct would always go bring the child back after the isolation period was over. She thought that this helped maintain understanding between parent and child—and meant that the child did not get the idea that one parent was more lenient or friendly than the other.

First Rescue

Stitch made his first rescue in September, 1958, when he saved Joseph Shifcar, an Army Corps of Engineers worker, from drowning near the same dam. Shifcar was also fishing in the river. For rescuing Shifcar, the Fund cited Stitch with a bronze medal.

Meanwhile, the National Boxing association has established a Rudell Stitch Sportsmanship award to be presented annually to the professional boxer exhibiting the most sportsmanlike conduct "in and out of the ring."

Stitch has also won the respect and admiration of citizens in and out of boxing.

Tuskegee Ruling Is Hailed as Significant

Washington, D. C.—The Supreme Court ruling last week that a state may not change the boundaries of a city if the effect is to deprive Negroes of the right to vote in city elections was praised by the NAACP's General Counsel Robert L. Carter.

Carter, who argued the case for the Negro plaintiffs along with Fred D. Gray of Montgomery, Ala., said:

Since 1954

"I am inclined to regard this as

Mrs. Josephine Kinchlo Dies in Los Angeles

Mrs. Elizabeth Welch attended the funeral services for her mother, Mrs. Josephine Kinchlow who passed away Monday, Nov. 7 of a sudden stroke. Services were held Monday, Nov. 14 at Harrison Ross mortuary in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Kinchlow was a former resident of Des Moines, also former member of Union Baptist church. At her death she was a member of Victory Baptist church in Los Angeles.

Surviving her is her husband, Jack Kinchlow; her mother, Mrs. Anna Smith; son, Mr. Edward Roone; daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Welch; eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Mrs. Smith accompanied her granddaughter back to Des Moines. Mrs. Smith is now living with her grandson, Mr. Roone at 1405 Fremont Street.

The most significant court decision in the field of civil rights since the public school desegregation decision of May 17, 1954.

"There is no longer any doubt," Carter continued, "of the Negro's growing determination to become an important equation in the nation's political structure. It is equally evident that the future of the country's movement toward full equality will be determined in the political arena."

Controversy

The controversy in the case, the decision of which was announced Monday, Nov. 14, arose over a 1957 Alabama statute that changed the boundaries of Tuskegee, home of the famed Tuskegee Institute. Before 1957 it was a city of four sides with a total population of 6,707 of which 5,397 were Negroes and 1,310 were white. Its 1,000 qualified electors included 400 Negroes.

Personally Yours
by Frances Mulhorne.

THANKSGIVING 1960—may you have enjoyed yours to the utmost; may yours indeed have been a day of thanks giving not only for personal worth, prosperity, health and well-being for your families and friends who shared the annual feast at your tables—but for a national worth, which is even more personal on a higher scale, for living in a country where there is freedom of speech and more powerful, freedom of the ballot. True ours is not a perfect country, far from it. But, think a moment. We live in a country where if we exercise the use of the ballot, we can effect changes in personnel of government offices on the city, county, state and national level, then can help to bring about our long sought dreams of freedom of equal opportunity in all facets of living.

For this we give thanks—that we may put our individual shoulders to the wheel—to keep America strong and free—that our children may in their day of leadership may add to the prestige and strength of their country and thus drink more bountifully from its sparkling, rich fountains than we have done. Let's we forget, a nation is always as strong as its individual citizens.

A letter came to our desk last week from Mr. Ernest White of Burlington, Ia., who was seeking help to pass on some information about a planned venture of his. He wrote: "I am a colored man, 29 years old, single, paralyzed and unable to walk. I am a dance band leader. I am looking for girls and boys that play and sing as follows—piano, guitar, drum and saxophone to be a part of a dance band with 'Little Ernest White and His Rocking Blues.'"

"If you are interested, write a letter telling all about yourself. Also, am looking for nice people in Des Moines to room with. Although, I am paralyzed, do not require close attention."

"For more information write: Ernest White, 502 S. Storr ave., Burlington, Ia."

If any of you readers are interested, or know anyone who might be, write the gentleman a letter, will you?

When Ebony Fashion Fair, with its 1960 touring troupe of 18, came to town this year, they came a day ahead of schedule and of course, got a chance to do a lot of things, as well as get acquainted with the city. Mrs. Freda DeKnight, who directs the unique traveling model show, went out to Better Homes and Gardens to visit the test kitchens of that national magazine. Mrs. DeKnight, who is a well-known home economist and wizard with the unusual recipes in her own right, with Ebony magazine, dedicated a satin cerise dress to the magazine.

The troupe were housed at the Brown hotel, but on Monday evening enjoyed a wonderful party at the beautiful home of Atty. and Mrs. W. L. Oliver of 5795 N.W. 73rd Place.

The president of the Olympian club, local sponsors of the show, had an additional reason to walk with springs in his steps and a smile on his face. Not only did the show bring a capacity crowd out this year, but his wife had just given birth to their first born, a son, that same day at Iowa Methodist hospital. The couple, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson, Jr.,

Speaking of new babies, a son was born last Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kemp, Jr., of 849 9th street at Broadlawn Polk County hospital.

Back to the Fashion show for a minute. Remember those little monkey hats models wore throughout the show last year? How did you like this years stove pipe and pyramid millinery creations? And of course, for something very different in the jewelry, how about wearing a big rhinestone pin on the sleeve of your fashionable coat? If you were there, you saw it all.

Patricia Pruitt was omitted from the list of models for cosmetiste annual benefit show and dance.

Health care needs can be wisely budgeted throughout the year saving you the financial burden of one-lump bills.

1. Set aside between four and six percent of your family income to pay for medical and dental check-ups, pharmacy bills, and first aid supplies. A portion should be used for insurance to take care of unexpected medical and hospital bills.

2. Don't buy insurance that only pays for predictable low-cost expenses like check-ups. Protect against major financial damage.

3. Encourage the family to get medical care at the first sign of trouble. Prompt treatment saves money in the long run.

4. Protect the income of the family breadwinner with income insurance.

5. Change your program as circumstances change. The number of family members, likelihood of maternity, present health and age of family members should be considered in deciding to raise or lower the amount of money allotted for health care needs.

BLEACH DRIFTWOOD

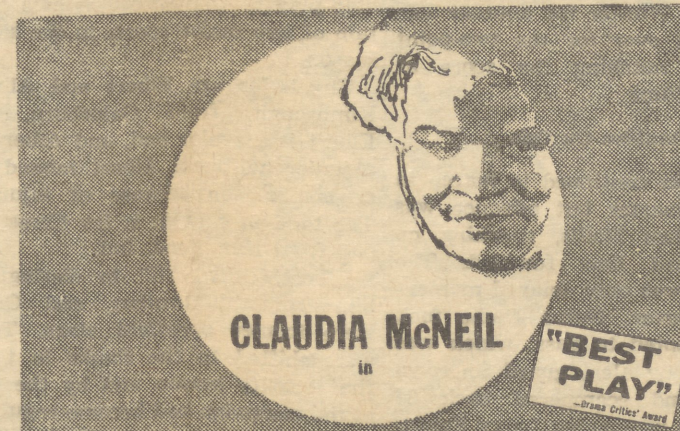

Driftwood, used as a decorative accessory by itself or in flower arrangements, adds a real touch of natural beauty to almost any room. However, it should be bleached occasionally to prevent color changes. Driftwood is prone to such changes, especially if subjected to much cigarette smoke. To bleach driftwood, wet it with soap and water, and place it in the direct rays of the sun. Add more suds as it slowly bleaches.

DUCKING THE ISSUE IS UNFORTUNATE

President-elect Kennedy is engaged in a series of conferences with top-flight Democratic leaders mapping plans and programs for his new administration.

Most areas of government operation: foreign affairs, finance, defense and personnel are being chartered looking to the change which will occur in January 1961.

Saturday, a Louisiana delegation composed of legislators and private citizens, called on Mr. Kennedy to determine what would be his position on problems arising out of the troubled school desegregation situation in New Orleans.

Mr. Kennedy did not see the delegation but left an aide, Clark Clifford, to relay his statement that this was a judicial matter and for one in the executive branch to interfere would be unwarranted.

Well! Dr. King's troubles were with the judiciary also but the time—during the campaign—made the situation different. Mr. Kennedy is not now candidate Kennedy.

This position is ridiculous for not only is the question of obedience to judicial pronouncements involved but also one of whether laws are being enforced by orderly procedure or hounded and blocked by mob violence.

During the campaign, much was heard about the loss of prestige by America among nations of the world. But little was said about why. Surely this country must know that it cannot mistreat the Negro in America and at the same time earn and keep the respect of the darker races here and abroad.

The excuse is made by officials that the trouble is caused by a few hoodlums and outsiders but that the sponable minority is allowed to fix abiding. It is peculiar that an irre-great masses of the people are law-the policy in a community.

There is talk that some southern states are planning to withhold their electoral votes and support the person they want rather than the ones who were chosen in the election. Maybe, this was in his mind when this answer was given.

This problem has become so serious and strikes so deeply the concepts of orderly law-observance in America that President Eisenhower and President-elect Kennedy should make a joint appeal to the citizens of New Orleans to act like civilized people.

EXPOSING INJUSTICES HELPS TO CORRECT THEM

Last week, the governor's commission on human rights issued a report on housing for minorities in Ft. Madison and Council Bluffs. It stated that minorities were relegated to neighborhoods down by the tracks, that few other than shacks were available and that the real estate boards had secret agreements not to sell to Negroes in blocks where white people live.

Further, they reported that LeMars had an ordinance barring Negroes from remaining in that town over night.

The charges brought stiff denial from the respective towns.

The denial by LeMars is subject of definite proof while the question of whether an understanding exists among realtors to keep Negroes in slum houses is difficult to trace down.

However, the very fact that homes are being sold to Negroes in undesirable neighborhoods only is proof that some type of arrangement does exist.

Of course, the commission does not propose that Council Bluffs and Ft. Madison are the only two communities where poor housing among Negroes exists. On the other hand, to a smaller or greater degree, it exists in most towns.

Officials make these heated denials because communities don't like to be tabbed as unfair. All of this airing gets in the press and has a moral effect on those people who believe in fair play and wish to take positive action to help bring it about.

The mayor of Council Bluffs has appointed a human rights committee composed of some of its fine citizens who are offering their services to bring about better conditions for Negroes in the community and closer cooperation between the races. Better race relations don't just grow but come about by action.

Iowa State Winds Up Second 7-3 Season; To Lose Nine Seniors

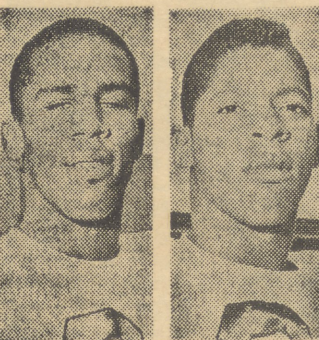

By Staff Writer

College of Pacific, Calif.—The Cyclones staved off and outlasted the College of Pacific here Saturday night 14-6 as they stopped the ferocious Tigers on the one-yard line on the last play of the football game.

Tom Watkins

In launching this dramatic and powerful stand the Iowa State Cyclones finished with another 7-3 season, matching their 1959 record of

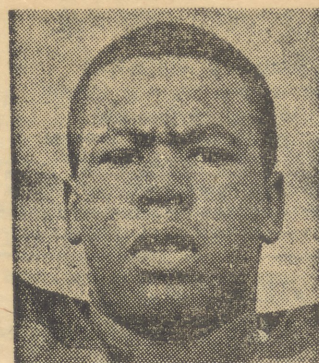

WEBB FITZGERALD

7-3, which marks the best 2-season record for the university since 1907-08.

However, the Cyclones lose a considerable share of their starters this year through graduations, including the great Tom Watkins, Mike Fitzgerald and Don Webb.

Makes All-City, and All City Prep Teams

Harold Wilson, powerful 225-pound tackle of Des Moines East high school football team, made the first team of the Sunday Register All-State high school football selections.

Harold Wilson
Des Moines East

He was the only one from Des Moines high schools making the list. Norm Taylor fleet-footed back of Des Moines Tech, a senior, made the third all-state team. Both were named to the first all-city team.

Harold, a rugged two-year regular was vicious with his tackling and was hard to block out on plays around this side of the line. He was a member of East's forward wall which allowed only four touchdowns during the season, three on running plays.

He is a senior and stands 5 foot 10 inches. Photo courtesy of Des Moines Sunday Register.

Ernie Davis To All-East Team

New York—Ernie Davis, Syracuse university's shifty halfback, last week was named to the weekly all-East team of the Eastern College Athletic conference for the third time this season.

His selection was announced after Ernie had gained 110 yards in 11 carries and set up the Syracuse touchdown as his team ditched Army by a 9-6 score. Selected along with Davis were nine other gridgers, including Ron Zoia, Hofstra's quarterback and Steve Sims, a fullback, of Rutgers.

An ex-Katherine Dunham dancer, Mrs. Belafonte will join such other personalities on the show as Gloria Lynne, the Modern Jazz quartet, the Contemporary String quartet and another singing group.

Choreographer for the show is Walter Nix.

Iowa Hawks Subdue Fighting Irish 28-0 Co-Champs End Season 8-1, New Records Set

By Staff Writer

South Bend, Ind.—The Iowa Hawkeyes delivered the finishing blows to the hapless but spirited Irish of Notre Dame here Saturday to subdue them 28-0; meeting out four touchdowns to complete the final round of the football season with a 8-1 won-loss record and tie for the Big Ten championship with the Minnesota Gophers; and set new individual records.

At this meeting the Irish were already engulfed in the throes of a seven-loss and one-won season and were trying desperately to thwart the rampaging Hawkeyes but in the final analysis had received the coup de grace from the Hawks.

Fumbles

However, the Irish did not take it sitting down. They played hard-nosed defensive football but their offensive game was pock-marked and scarred with fumbles and intercepted passes. On the first play from scrimmage Notre Dame lost the ball on a fumble on their 28. Iowa's potent offense roared into action. With their razzle, dazzle ground stuff and aerial stuff intermixed the Hawks moved the necessary yardage for a touchdown in seven plays. Quarterback Wilburn Hollis threw a crucial 13-yard pass to end Felton Rogers. Storming fullback Joe Williams went over for the score. A bobbled pass from center forced Tom Moore to run with the ball and he was tackled on the five-yard line.

Fleet Sammie Harris

In the second quarter fleet Sammie Harris returned a booming Irish kick to the Notre Dame 28-yard line. Two plays later Quarterback Matt Szykowny uncorked a long skyliner to end Bill Whisler for another TD. Hollis went over for the two-point conversion, notching the score at 14-0 at halftime.

Fumbles On One

The Hawks continued to march in the third quarter but advance was nullified when Hollis, sneaking on the two-yard line, fumbled. The touchdown was only delayed momentarily, however. Notre Dame took over, attempted to pass, which was intercepted by alert guard Sherwyn Thorson, and scampered back 34 yards. Then rampaging Larry Ferguson sailed for 39 more. This time Hollis took it over for sure on the sneak. This tally coupled with his two previous extra points, gave the talented junior quarterback a total of 68 points for the season, giving him a greater season total than any other Iowa back since the early 20's.

sports writers as another Jimmy Brown for the third team.

The selections this year were based basically on bigness and power. Al Hinton perhaps the key to some of the Iowa success failed to place but next year's selection can't help but name this powerful tackler after the season when the Big Ten backfields thought Hinton was part of the team since he spent most of the time in their laps.

Fourth Touchdown

This time on Iowa's fourth touchdown march graduating senior fullback Eugene Mosely decided to show the fans some of his antics before his departure. Mosely ran like a house afire, ripping off balance through tacklers, covering 36 yards to the Notre Dame 21. Mosely carried the ball four times for 44 yards in this 57 yard march. He made his first and only touchdown of the season from the two. Moore had four PATs for the day, bringing his total to 26 for the season, to surpass the efforts of Bob Prescott's 24 back in 1926.

Ferguson Record

Scampering Ferguson gained 94 yards in 14 tries to set a new record for halfbacks during Forest Evashevski's regime. His efforts for the season far surpasses the exploits of Eddie Vincent's 620 yards-season.

New Coach

The Hawks finished their season in grand style with tons of excitement and sensational antics, which was marred only by their disheartening loss to the Minnesota Gophers. Now, brilliant coach Evashevski bows out to end an era of coaching turning over the reins to one of his assistants, Jerry Burns, to whom we hope he has bequeathed his winning formulas.

Northwestern Boasts Tan Football Twins

Chicago—Northwestern university, at nearby Evanston, has a double distinction as far as tan football players are concerned. The Wildcats have the only tan twin combination among major colleges, and have the only tan player—and perhaps the only player—who is serving as a captain of two major sports in the same season.

The twins are Elbert and Albert Kimbrough, from Galesburg, Ill. Elbert is a senior end, and Albert is a junior halfback. Albert missed all of last season because of injuries. The tandem captain is Irv Cross, an end from Hammond, Ind.

Elbert, called "E" to distinguish him from his brother, and Cross were former backfield stars. They were shifted to the flanks in their first varsity season and by the end of the campaign had become regulars.

TALKING TURKEY

By Alton Levy

Tennis courts
And swank resorts,
Barber shops and hotels;
Children's schools
And swimming pools,
Amusement parks
And motels;
Skating rinks
And golfing links,
Fine restaurants
Or diners
Aeroplanes
And bowling lanes
Or ocean-going liners . . .
These all might
Be lily-white
And patronized by bigots,
Or run by those Whose bias flows
As though from open spigots.
Such racist cranks

Will give no thanks
For reasons rather murky:
The awful sight—
Dark meat and white,
Co-mingled on their turkey!

They're at a loss
At how to cross
White chicken with White Owl;
Their hope, they say,
To breed some day
Superior white-meat fowl.

RIDE THE SWIFT WAVE

Ride the swift wave, and the future can be:
A pageant of marvels . . . beyond fantasy.
Let us not fear, what tomorrow will hold:
But meet it with mind, that is eager and bold.
Only the brave, who are armored with love

Will sail with the saints: to worlds up above.
Faith is our shield, God is our sword:
He is
Our All, when our winnings are scored,
So . . . we go, without fear, from the cradle, to grave
Knowing His children: all ride the swift wave.

Old-Fashioned Plaything

EVEN in this streamlined age of television and jet planes, the child of two to six enjoys a toy that's quite primitive, like a hobby horse. It makes no difference if you can't purchase one, because making one is a cinch for the proud Dad.

The only parts needed are an old broom stick, two pieces of Masonite 1/4" Tempered Presdwood, a four-inch wooden or metal wheel from an old wagon, a piece of rope, and some paint—white, red and brown.

Following the diagram shown here, Dad can lay out the head pattern on the Tempered Presdwood. He will cut out two heads with a coping or jig saw and glue their screened sides together so that only the smooth faces will be exposed.

He'll select the desired length of broomstick and cut slots into which the head and wheel are bolted. After applying a prime coat of paint, he can cover the various parts with colors as shown. The youngster will thoroughly enjoy this old-fashioned plaything.
