BEG PARDON

In last week's Bystander story that Gov. Loveless had reduced the sentence of Lee Hawkins from the death penalty to life imprisonment, inadvertently the heading said "Save Lee Hawkins from Gallows." However, the photo and the story all bore the name "Lee Hawkins". This was a typographical error and we therefore apologize to any person whose name is Lee Hawkins even though readers saw the error clearly.

Mother, 3 Children Enroute Home from Greensboro, N.C. Trip

Tragedy interrupted the trip of Sioux City, Ia., woman who with her three small children was returning from a visit in Greensboro, N.C. where she had visited her parents.

Mrs. Shirley Evans was on the last lap of her fateful journey when she stopped in Des Moines Saturday morning. She had planned to stay overnight at the Greyhound bus depot before continuing her trip. She had taken a cab trip to a self service laundry to wash the children's clothes. On returning to the depot her youngest, Tommy, 9-months became seriously ill. She called police when his breathing became difficult.

Dead on Arrival

Patrolmen Pearl McVey and Raymond Goulden said the child had stopped breathing when they arrived at the depot in response to the call. Goulden administered mouth to mouth respiration but could not revive the child who was then taken to Broadlawn Polk County hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

An autopsy was performed but when Dr. Leo Luka, Polk County coroner was contacted, he said it would take several days.

Befriended

Mrs. Evans was befriended at the hospital by Mrs. Kenneth Martinez, of 2900 Fourth St., who was there to secure medical treatment for children. Mrs. Martinez invited the mother and her other two children to her home pending the arrival of Mr. Evans from Sioux City during the night.

The infant was taken to Estes and Son Funeral home, who shipped the body to Sioux City the following day. Funeral services were pending in Sioux City.

SIT-IN STUDENTS GET AID

Washington, D. C. — Executive Committee members of the American Council on Human Rights received a check last week from Dr. Gladys B. Jones (R), basileus of Epsilon Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Baltimore; Md. ACHR president, Dr. Marjorie Parker (L), and Dr. Lorraine Williams, chairman Student Sit-In Emergency Fund, announced sending $1,120 to aid student protest leaders at A. & T. College, Greensboro, N.C.

Boy, Nearly Blind in One Eye, Hit by BB Shot in Other Eye While Playing with Friend

Clarence English, 15, continued to run into misfortune as far as his eyes are concerned. Five years ago a piece of coal cinder hit him in his left eye. Despite two operations he remained nearly blind in that eye.

Last Tuesday, Dec. 27 he and a friend, Clifford Fisher, 14, were playing with BB guns that had been given to two younger friends. During the firing a BB pellet hit Clarence in the right eye and imbedded itself in the eyeball. He was rushed to Broadlawn Polk County hospital. Later he was transferred to University hospital at Iowa City, Ia.

It was feared surgery would be required but little hope was left that the eyesight could be saved, said the boy's mother, Mrs. Mary Lee English of 1289 E. 19th Street. However, from Iowa City she wrote a friend a letter, saying that Clarence had a bandage over his eye and perhaps an operation would not be necessary, after all.

Clifford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford G. Fisher, of 1343 Fremont Street, said the two boys were firing the guns inside the home of Mrs. Leonard Jefferson, of 1609 Stewart St.

"I thought Clarence was going to shoot at me, and then my gun went off," Clifford said.

"The next thing I knew Clarence hollered 'you hit me'. He fell down three stairs and was bleeding."

Harry Gossett Held For Murder in Illinois

Harry Joe Gossett, 25, who was released last April after serving a six-month jail sentence for his participation in the $40,000 Hilland Potato Chip Co. safe robbery, is being held in Jacksonville, Ill., jail accused of murder.

Gossett, who formerly lived at 1160 9th street, is accused of shooting an innocent bystander in a gun duel Dec. 10 in the Jacksonville American Legion dance hall, police officials said. Billy Jackson, 58, was killed instantly by a stray shot during a gun battle in which a dozen shots were fired, police said. Jacksonville Police Chief Charles Runkle said the FBI ballistics tests showed a bullet from Gossett's .32 caliber revolver was the fatal one for Jackson, who was sitting at a table in the dance hall. The gun duel was between

"Not only do I categorically refuse to back your shocking disregard for the federal laws and court orders, but I will be pleased to introduce a resolution in the 1961 session of the Iowa General Assembly denouncing your actions."

NEWS In A Nutshell

New York—Four Negroes were among the 46 killed and at least five were among the known 154 injured in the war-type destruction which wrecked the world's largest aircraft carrier, the Constellation in a 17-hour, 10-alarm fire last week at the New York Naval Shipyard in Brooklyn.

Addis Ababa—The bloodstained bodies of two Ethiopian rebels killed by police hung in the main square here on Christmas eve as a grim token of Emperor Haile Selassie's victory over his foes. Thousands of cheering Ethiopians milled around the square.

San Francisco, Calif.—John Wesley Bussey, first Negro appointed to the bench in this city's history, this week unanimously elected by his associates to be presiding judge of San Francisco's municipal courts.

New Orleans, La.—Teachers and other employees in the city's two nearly abandoned integrated schools left for the holidays with a big gift—their paychecks. Dr. James F. Redmond, school superintendent, announced that local banks have acceded to a federal court order without appealing, and have started honoring checks the board writes on its deposits. All checks, however, were a month short.

Midland, Pa.—A Kentucky-born steel worker was elected president of the school board here and is believed to hold such a position in western Pennsylvania. He is 44-year-old James Morrison, construction foreman at the Crucible Steel company's Midland works.

Raleigh, N. C.—Mrs. Ada Thompson Umphrey McLamb, 42, under a suspended sentence for the slaying of her first husband, was charged with the murder of her second mate last week. She was charged in the fatal shooting of her husband, Josephus McLamb, 28.

Batesville, Ark.—Rev. W. J. Daniels, a Negro Methodist minister, has turned down the presidency of the bi-racial Ministerial Alliance here because "I don't want to embarrass my friends or be embarrassed myself." He was unanimously elected president of the 20-member alliance after serving one year as vice-president.

Indianapolis, Ind.—Governor-elect Matthew E. Welsh said last week he will ask the 1961 legislature to ban racial discrimination in jobs, housing, hotels and restaurants.

Paris, France—Word from this capital city says that "Ole Satchmo" Louis Armstrong and his wife, Lucille plan to adopt two African babies in the near future. The Armstrongs, married 20 years, are childless.

Boston, Mass.—Gov. Foster Furcolo has appointed his secretary, Edward S. McKenney to the Roxbury District court as a special justice.

The club, was reproved by Dean Robison and Dr. Cecil C. Humphreys, MSU's president, for having invited Russell B. Sugarman Jr. to address the group. No Negro had ever been invited to speak on the campus before," Dean Robison said.

Court Grants Temporary Injunction Against Eviction On Grounds of Voting

Somerville, Tenn.—A mass exodus of Negro sharecroppers from Fayette and Haywood counties in Tennessee where they said white landowners have refused to renew their leases because they voted in the 1960 national election, was forestalled Friday when the U. S. Sixth circuit court of appeals in Cincinnati, Ohio, unanimously granted a temporary injunction that they cannot be evicted on the voting issue.

No Rights Interpretation

However, the three-judge court hastened firmly to direct that its order not be construed as any determination that the 1957 civil rights act constitutionally may be used to require private persons to enter into contractual relations in respect to their own property. The question will remain for decision. The appeals court also said the order was not to be construed as preventing any "legitimate action" by landowners where their intentions were not meant to deprive Negroes of voting rights.

Claim Mechanization

The government, in asking for the injunction on behalf of the sharecroppers, contended that no Negroes ever had voted in Haywood county prior to this year and only a few had cast votes in Fayette county, Tenn., also involved in the case. Negroes outnumber whites in both counties. Landowners in both counties countered that they were terminating the contracts by which sharecroppers farm their land because of mechanization of farms and reductions of cotton crop acreage.

Tent City

Almost obscuring the justice department suits against the counties is the tent city of nine families in 13 tents that has sprung up on the farm of Shep Towles, a Negro landowner. Many white persons contend it is for propaganda purposes only. Members in the tent city have received aid of more than 100,000 pounds of food, clothing and toys have been shipped in recent weeks. Speculation is rising as to what will have to the tent city dwellers, at Somerville where the injunction does not apply at the moment. However, they seem to be

Shielded From Reporters

Meanwhile, the tent occupants were shielded from reporters. James Forman of Chicago, co-chairman of the emergency relief committee, said that henceforth he will answer reporter's questions in tent village press conferences. Signs of "Private Property" have cropped up on roads and areas adjacent to the tent city.

"Status Quo"

The appeals court decision pointed out that the federal government was seeking to preserve the "status quo" of the sharecroppers and to prevent the issue from becoming moot before the civil rights issue was decided.

The court pointed out that little time was given Judge Boyd to decide the civil rights issue since the injunction petition was not filed until early this month. It added:

Involves Questions

"This case involves grave constitutional and legal questions and if mass eviction of Negro sharecroppers as a part of a plan for intimidating Negroes of Haywood County, Tennessee, from exercising their right to vote takes place on Jan. 1, 1961, these sharecroppers might suffer irreparable damage before the court has an opportunity of passing upon the questions involved."

In view of that, the appeals court expressed belief that adequate time should be allowed attorneys to present briefs and other arguments on the issues involved.

Kennedy Appoints Robert Weaver as U.S. Housing Boss

Palm Beach, Fla.—Dr. Robert C. Weaver, would have under his post when he was named as state rent administrator in the Harriman administration in New York. He has served as a member of the New York City's housing and redevelopment board. And from his wide experiences have come writings and research for public consumption.

Strong Liberal

Known as a strong liberal, Dr. Weaver has been known to advocate a presidential executive order banning segregation in all federally-aided housing, and is expected to press Kennedy for such an order. The son of a postal clerk, Dr. Weaver, is married to the former Ella Haith, an assistant professor of speech at Brooklyn College. They are parents of an adopted son, Robert, Jr., now 19.

Savannah Tribune Comes to Life

Savannah—The Savannah Tribune resumed publication here last week after a lapse of six months during which it changed ownership. The paper, 85 years old, is now being published twice weekly by Davis Lee, who operates other papers in Newark, N. J., Anderson, S. C., Brooklyn, N. Y., and Valdosta, Ga.

Starting in 1875 when Col. J. H. DeVaux founded it after he served in the Civil War and in the National Guard, the paper was continuously published for 85 years.

Mrs. Nettie Jackson, Grand Daughter Elks Ruler, Dies; Led Colorful, Active Life

Norfolk, Va.—Mrs. Nettie Carter Jackson, Grand Daughter Ruler of the I.B.P.O.E. of W died Tuesday, Dec. 27 after an illness of several months. Despite the severity of her ailment, Mrs. Jackson continued to perform her duties almost to the hour of passing. The demise of the leader of 100,000 fraternal women leaves a great void in the ranks of the organization. Mrs. Jackson was born in Staten Island and lived there all her life.

Elks Career

Her career in the Elks started when she helped organize and was a charter member of Raritan Temple No. 218 of Staten Island. She served as Dt. Ruler, District Deputy, Senior Mother of Aurora Juvenile Class No. 54, Financial Secretary of Raritan Temple No. 218; Recording Secretary of Alpha Past Daughter Rulers Council; Financial Secretary of Council; Chairman of Public Relations and State Secretary. She served as secretary of the Civil Liberties Department under the late Brother J. Dalmus Steele and was Vice Chairman to the Pilgrimage to John Brown Farm working closely with Mrs. Bertha McKanlass, Grand Directress of Shrine Department. She was a confident and close as-

Elected in 1951

Upon the death of Elizabeth Ross Garden on November 1951, Mrs. Jackson succeeded to the position of Grand Daughter Ruler and was re-elected each year to this post; the highest in the largest women's fraternal order in the country.

Mrs. Jackson was praised and esteemed for the imaginative and progressive innovations made during her administration. Under her leadership a history of the order was issued at the 50th anniversary commemorating Mrs. Emma V. Kelley, the founder and first organizer, several new departments were added, a Grand Temple Extravaganza and Fashion Show held in New York City annually, a music scholarship fund was established, a regular program of assistance for war orphans inaugurated, a mid-winter conference conducted and special classes for deputies and Grand Assistants and their staffs carried out in various sections of the country and at the

Rep. Denman Rips La. Legislator in Letter On School Integration

In a recent letter William F. Denman, state representative elect, wrote a Louisiana segregation leader that he would seek a resolution denouncing the actions of the governor and legislators for their abortive action in the public schools integration in New Orleans.

Denman's letter was a reply to Frank Voelker, Jr., chairman of the State Sovereignty commission in Baton Rouge, La., who had asked Iowa legislators for assistance in fighting integration in their state.

Destroyed Sympathy

Denman wrote . . . "the recent actions by your legislature and governor have destroyed any sympathy I might have had."

"Do you people down there really think that you speak in the name of democracy, a word which you so loosely use; and encourage in the name of freedom, mob violence and outright violation of the law of the land? Your actions are reprehensible to every law-abiding citizen of this country and can in no way be con-

of Polk County, Iowa, the petition of Polly Weston, duly verified alleging that Henry Davis was a resident of this state; that his usual place of residence was in
Lee Township, City of Des Moines, Polk County, Iowa, and that he has without known cause absented himself from his residence and ceased to be heard from his whereabouts for a period of more than seven (7) years; that said absentee has property in this state which is situated in Polk County, Iowa, and which is described in said petition; that so far as the petition is concerned, the persons who would be entitled to share in the estate of the absentee, in the event he is found to be dead, are named in said petition and that the petitioner is not related to absentee but has maintained a policy of insurance upon his life which is payable to his estate and that she would be entitled to administer on the estate of said absented if he were known to be dead. That this petitioner prays in said petition that administration be granted on the estate of said absentee, and that she be appointed as such administratrix.

You are further notified that on the day set for hearing if the absentee fails to appear, the Court will appoint some person to administer the estate of the absentee and all beneficiaries not appearing and to investigate the matters and things alleged in the petition, and will thereupon continue the said cause until the next term of said Court and may make further continuance from time to time as may seem proper to the Court and at such continued hearing as the Court may decide, whether or not the petitioner will appear, and the Court will hear the proofs and, if satisfied of the truth of the allegations of the petition, will order the issuance of letters of administration upon the estate of said absentee as though he were known to be dead and said real estate.

Northwestern Bell Highlights

The number of telephones in use and the number of calls made over them, both local and long distance, are at an all-time high. The 37,000 telephones added throughout the state during the year brought the total at year end to 770,000. That is 55 per cent more than 10 years ago. Calls increased in about the same ratio.

Major Improvement

Major service improvements during the year brought dial service to 10 more communities, 200,000 added miles of wire in storm-proof cables, 760 added long distance circuits, a further expansion of the automatic switching of long distance calls and a wide variety of service improvements available to customers everywhere. Underway is an equally large list of projects due to complete in 1961.

Largest Construction

The construction program of the company, which serves about two-thirds of the state's telephones and provides most of the long distance lines, was almost $31 millions, largest in the company's history. Plans for 1961 are expected to need about the same amount of money.

With dial telephone service introduced at Boone, Colfax, Correctionville, Decorah, Grimes, Jewell, Keokuk, Rock Rapids, Waukegan and Waukon, more than 92 per cent of the telephones served by the company now are dial operated. Ninety-four per cent of the two million miles of local and long distance lines now are in storm-proof cables or radio-relay systems.

New Services

Among the new services available is the Princess telephone, the Call Director, Farm Interphone, Home Interphone and Data Phone. The Call Director is a compact system with a wide variety of features for business firms. The Farm Interphone provides intercommunication between house and farm yard by means of speaker-microphone. The Home Interphone provides intercommunication between telephones in the home and features a speaker-microphone at the door to permit talking to a caller from any telephone. The data-phone service permits customers to transmit data between machines. Even the largest high-speed computers can exchange information over connections put through just as telephone calls are.

Fable: Boy With Sticks

A FABLE about a boy with a bundle of sticks he wanted to break has its meaning for today's home craftsman. Unable to even bend the bundle, he asked for advice. His father told him to break each stick separately.

The beginning home handyman too often feels he should buy numerous tools and much material. Doing so often is frustrating, so the experts advise him to "take it easy," buying just essential tools and materials and learning their use and application in simple projects.

Lumber dealers are good sources of tools needed in the home workshop, and they can advise the beginner which ones he should obtain first. They can tell him also about basic materials to have on hand. Among these is Masonite Tempered Preswood, an all-around panel that wears like iron, is free of splinters, knots and grain, and is low in cost.

Getting back to the fable, the handyman needn't buy even a 4 by 8-foot panel for his beginner's project, for his dealer usually has short lengths available, and their price usually is a bargain. Gaining confidence in the use of a few fundamental hand or power tools, the home craftsman can make a success of his initial undertakings; and then branch out to build an under-stairs project, line the old coal bin, and build some basement or kitchen cabinets.

He'll do well to break just a single fagot at a time.

- (1) Stuff turkey and neck cavity.
- (2) Place turkey, breast up, in a pre-heated 325°F. oven.
- (3) Garnish roasted turkey with frosted grapes, and serve.

Oyster-Rice Turkey Stuffing Is Elegant

This Oyster-Rice Stuffing is a "must" for that turkey (or chicken) you're planning to roast. It's easy to make because there's very little chopping to do and no bread crumbs to bother with.

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 cup uncooked white rice
- 2 cups water
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 3 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1 cup chopped celery
- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper
- 1/2 pint oysters
- 1/4 cup water or turkey broth

METHOD: Put the rice, water and salt in a 2-quart saucepan. Bring to a vigorous boil. Turn the heat as low as possible. Cover the saucepan with lid and leave over this low heat 14 minutes. Remove from the heat but leave the lid on 10 minutes. While the rice is cooking, melt the butter or margarine in a saucepan. Add the onion and celery. Cover and cook over a medium heat until tender, stirring occasionally. Stir in the black pepper. Add the onion and celery to the rice mixture. Add the oysters and water or broth and mix gently.

This stuffing may be prepared ahead of time so long as the liquid is not mixed with the dry ingredients until the turkey is to be stuffed and cooked. The turkey should be stuffed just before it is placed in the oven. It should not be stuffed and refrigerated. Extra stuffing may be baked in a separate pan or made into dressing balls. Allow 1/2 cup of stuffing for each pound of poultry, dressed weight, or 1 cup for each pound ready-to-cook weight. This recipe makes 4 1/2 cups of stuffing.

How to Bake the Turkey: Remove pin feathers from turkey and singe if necessary. Remove any bits of lung, kidney, etc., remaining in turkey. Wash and rinse inside and outside with cold water. Wipe dry. Rub cavity lightly with salt. Put enough stuffing into the neck of the turkey to fill it out nicely. Fasten the neck skin back with a skewer. Stuff cavity well, but do not pack stuffing tightly as it expands during roasting. Shape wings ("akimbo" style) bringing wing tips on to the back. Place skewers across stuffing opening of turkey and lace shut with cord. Tie legs to tail. Grease skin thoroughly with fat. Place the turkey, breast down, on a rack in a shallow pan. If the bird is very large and difficult to turn, place breast up and leave in this position throughout the roasting. Lay fat-moistened cheese cloth over the turkey. Place in pre-heated 325°F. oven. Do not cover with a lid. Do not add any water. As cloth dries out, moisten with fat from the bottom of the pan. Roast until done, following the timetable below. Garnish turkey with frosted grapes first in beaten egg white, then in granulated sugar.

$250,000 SUIT FILE

New York—Newsweek, nationally circulated weekly magazine, has been named defendant in a $250,000 suit filed in New York State Supreme Court by Earl R. Sweeting, well known artist. Sweeting's action, he said stemmed from publication in the October 31, 1960 issue of an article headed "Surprise—If You Have no History, Invent One," in which, according to the artist's lawyer, Atty. Joseph A. Bailey, there appeared "false and defamatory matter" about Sweeting, "his capacity and profession, as an artist, historian, student of history and depicter of the historical past."

It is not easy for household buyers to judge quality of meat.

The best guide for selecting the meat you want are the U.S. Department of Agriculture grades stamped in purple "USDA" and the grade name.

Here are beef grades and their relative price ranges:

High Priced—
"US Prime"—Excellent quality and flavor, tender and juicy, good distribution of fat through the lean meat.

Medium Priced—
"US Choice"—Very acceptable quality, moderate amount of fat with desirable eating quality.

Medium Low Priced—
"US Good"—Relatively tender with high ratio of lean to fat.

Low Priced—
"US Standard"—Very thin covering of fat to high proportion of lean, coming from animals under 48 months of age.

Lowest Priced—
"US Commercial"—Produced from older animals. In buying beef select the grade to suit your preference. The lower grades have more lean and less fat and will give you more for your money than higher grades.

UNDERSTANDING IOWA CHILDREN

SPONSORED BY THE IOWA CHILD WELFARE RESEARCH STATION

Written by May P. Youtz, SUI Associate Professor

AGGRESSIVE TENDENCIES

How can we teach children to control aggressive behavior without causing "underground" resistance? First, we must remember that every normal person feels an urge to have his own way. Second, we need to teach better ways to use this urge.

Take three-year-old Jackie, for example. He stood watching his mother as she petted the baby. Suddenly he gave the baby a slap and as quickly his mother slapped him. Then she told him he was very naughty and he did not bother the baby again. Later she saw Jackie tip over his wagon and heard him exclaim, "Oh, baby was in my wagon and it's got killed!"

Why He Pretended?

Jackie did not know why he pretended to kill the baby. His mother did not understand either. She thought he was just being naughty. She did not know that Jackie's resistance and jealousy and hostility had gone underground, and had come out again in pretend play. She could force him to stop slapping the baby but could not force him to stop wanting to slap the baby.

Help Remove Jealousy

Mother could help remove Jackie's jealousy instead of driving it inward. She might say to herself, "I know he hates the baby. Almost all little brothers feel this way about babies who take their place on mother's lap. It's a perfectly natural feeling. But this isn't the best way to get along in this world. Let's see what we can do to get rid of this jealousy."

Feel He Is Loved

Mother could make Jackie feel that he is loved just as much as the baby. She might make him feel proud of helping her take care of the baby. He could hand her things for baby's bath, and examine all the various soap and powder boxes in the baby's bath tray. Suppose she does have to wash off some fingerprints later. She will go further toward removing Jackie's hostility than by smacking him right back again when he hits the baby.

If Jackie's jealousy goes underground, it will come out again and again in aggressive behavior. He will tease and quarrel with the baby, and his jealousy may last into his grown-up years. But if Jackie learns that he is loved, too, and is useful to his mother, he may feel less jealous.

Nobody... But Nobody... Should Skip Breakfast

YOUNG AND OLD, EVERYBODY NEEDS A GOOD BREAKFAST each day. And the nice thing about breakfast is that one menu does for the whole family. Especially when you base the morning meal on this Quick 'K' breakfast pattern of fruit, or fruit juice, crisp ready-to-eat cereal served with milk or cream, bread, butter and a beverage. It's hearty enough for the man in the house and yet has lots of appeal for children's fickle appetites.

If you have a problem getting your children to eat in the morning, try decorating the table with colorful, attractive dishes. Choose a cereal, such as Kellogg's Raisin Bran Flakes with plenty of plump sweet-tasting raisins included in every package. Or, perhaps one of the presweetened cereals, such as Sugar Frosted Flakes, is more popular in your house. Round out the menu with orange slices, or other fruit in season, bread, butter and milk. And feel sure that your children are getting the energy and nutrients they need to romp and play these sunny summer days. (ANS)

Now, that we have brought the New Year safely in, perhaps we can enjoy it and work in earnest for worthwhile achievements, personal and communal, in the next 360 days. Did you find yourself noting what you were doing and mentally, probably amusedly, saying to yourself, "This is what I will be doing all year?" Or did you sit down and roll off some resolutions that you would like to keep for the next 51 weeks? Even if you don't keep them that long it is good to make them and keep them even for a little while, than to give up in skepticism and cynicism and say, "Oh what's the use. I won't keep them long anyhow, so why make any?"

With the advent of his ninth birthday we took a close look at our oldest son, Victor, and almost took a double take. He is such a tall, lanky though well built, boy that he has always been taken for one to two years beyond his actual age. And of course, like boys will, his interests are wide and varied, and vary from year to year. Now he is especially interested in painting, cartoon drawing, all kinds of insects, loves reading, has lots of natural poise in most sports and confidence to spare in all endeavors, but gets impatient and a little miffed sometimes when things aren't quite going the way he would like. Underneath it all is a gentle consideration for others, which prompts him to inquire unexpectedly, "Is there anything you want me to do?" Yet he is all boy. In addition he makes friends easy, and looks forward to new friends and experiences.

Cheese Crusted Hamburger Pie

Here is a flavorful, colorful, meal-in-a-dish—just the thing to please the end of the month food budget.

Tempt family appetites with this Cheese Crusted Hamburger Pie early this spring. You may even be surprised yourself at how your family will accept a new dish so quickly—and demand repeats in the future.

This pie can be your economy dish for the week. The hamburger pie picks up a delicious new flavor with the "melt in your mouth" cheese crusted topping. Luckily too, it not only tastes good, but is good for you! When the cheese crust is made with enriched flour, you get extra shares of B-Vitamins and food iron along with food energy and protein.

Along with this Cheese Crusted Hamburger pie you will like to include a fresh green tossed salad with some of the new spring vegetables. This in itself would make a complete luncheon but a dinner perhaps you'll want to include a dish of fresh new asparagus. Nothing more will be needed to get the "You're the best cook, mom" reward.

Clip this recipe not only for this week's menu but also for future demands.

OPPOSE GARBAGE COLLECTION CHANGE

Included in the list of suggested bills which the city of Des Moines is asking the legislature to pass is one which would discontinue the tax levy for garbage collection. The garbage collection would be done on a fee basis. The cost is estimated at $1.00 per month per family.

It appears that the recommendation is prompted by the desire to use the levy heretofore set apart for garbage collection to spend in other places.

Besides the job, (and it will be an expensive one), of collecting $1.00 per month from each family, the tax money saved will be offset by the dirty alleys and other places where some families have no pride in their homes or maybe won't have the $1.00 to pay for the service.

There are entirely too many unsightly alleys and areas in Des Moines today. This new system of garbage collection will add to these unsightly conditions and make for even a worse looking town than prevails today.

This portion of Des Moines' recommendation should not get the blessings of legislative officials.

DR. WEAVER IS A

CREDITABLE APPOINTEE

It was announced after President-elect Kennedy had offered the job as Postmaster General to Rep. Dawson of Illinois, the Bystander criticized the offer as an out, because the high standards announced for cabinet posts were not used in this instance as in other appointments.

However, in the appointment of Dr. Robert C. Weaver as administrator of the Housing and Home Finance Agency, Mr. Kennedy nominated a high class intelligent Negro with an excellent education, wide experience in that field and whose views are in line with those who not only want full civil rights but are willing to fight for them.

As chairman of the board of the NAACP, Dr. Weaver has been in the forefront of those seeking full political and economic equality. He knows the problem from all angles.

Mr. Kennedy is to be congratulated for doing the thing which is not only a credit to the appointee but also the members of his race as well. The Bystander criticized him in the Dawson offer and is equally glad to praise him in this instance.

IOWA REPUBLICANS

SHOULD WAKE UP

As a result of the November election, Republicans take over the Iowa State government in full. For the past four years, the head of the government has been in the hands of the Democrats while the Republicans controlled the other executive offices and the legislature.

Governor Loveless got along pretty well with Republican forces and did some things which were outstanding. From the standpoint of Negroes, he created a Human Rights Commission and appointed Luther T. Glanton, Jr., judge of the Municipal Court in Des Moines. It took considerable courage to do this—even in Iowa—and he made many friends for that.

While Negroes are interested, as other citizens, in a well governed state with a program of progress rather than static, they are also interested in a better deal in the distribution of patronage.

No Negro has served on any of the many boards and commissions which the governor appoints. In fact, the job situation is and has been miserable. But Gov. Loveless made somewhat of a start and unless present state officials at least match his record, there will be little incentive for Negroes to support them.

Now that top offices are being filled by younger men with more modern views, men who have rubbed shoulders with Negroes in college, the armed forces and in civic affairs it is hoped that some, including Gov. Erbe, will get off their narrow track which has kept us out of these jobs over the years.

BABIES DIE IN SHACK

Wichita, Kas.—Two little twin girls who would have been three months old the day after Christmas, were found dead Friday in an unheated shack, apparent victims of pneumonia caused by exposure. The children were Judy Ann Smith and her sister, Jackie Lynn, daughters of Mrs. Betty Smith, 22, and Clifford E. Smith, 23, who is in Sedgewick county jail here on bad check charges. Mrs. Smith said she hadn't been able to obtain welfare aid and that she had moved into the little shack about a week ago. She worked Thurs.

Did you see any of the Bowl games? We were glad Missouri and Washington came through. Guess you know why. In the Rose Bowl the thing that beat the Gophers was the action of the faculty committee in voting against the Big Ten tie-up and then grabbing the game. That fired happened at the Prairie Bowl? population until it would have taken a really hot Minnesota team to have won.

Sandy Stephens and Bell didn't let their fans down but neither did those guys at Washington.

Missouri

Didn't know Missouri had more Negroes on their team, but they were all there and they all played big parts in their team's win. What happened at the Prairie Bowl? Prairie View and Arkansas State met in that one and the result was a closely guarded secret.

Pro-Playoff

That pro-play-off was a jim dandy too. The officials didn't call them too closely and we could see why tempers flared. There was a lot of unnecessary piling on and several instances of a runner especially, a Los Angeles Negro being tackled after he was clearly outside and the play was over. No wonder people got mad. It was interesting to note that the players from Mississippi, the all-white school played right alongside the Negroes and didn't mind it a bit.

Basketball

All of the Iowa teams came out all right over the holidays. Iowa may be a factor in the Big Ten race and Iowa State could be tough in the Big Eight scuffle. Drake continues its winning ways but didn't get any higher in the polls. The Bulldogs are wear in the rebounding departments and will lose to some good teams because of it.

They are a hot shooting hustling team, but you can't win them all by getting one shot and then losing the ball because all those one shots aren't going to fall in often enough.

day night as a maid and left the youngsters with a babysitter at another house.

It's School Time!

For the past few days we've been hearing bells ringing in our ears—and you know what kind, don't you? That's right—school bells! Practically everywhere across the country summer vacation is drawing to a close, and very soon now hoards of youngsters will be reluctantly setting forth for their annual battle with the 3R's.

School is a word that covers many activities and people. At your house, school days may mean a well-scrubbed, neatly combed six-year-old who's entering Class 1-A. Or it may refer to a daughter who's on her way back to high school or a son setting off to college. And to a teacher—if there's one in your family—it will mean readying the classroom for a new group of youngsters.

But no matter what new activities school days bring to your home, one thing is certain: It's no time to put away your camera just because vacation has ended. The school year brings with it many moments when you'll be awfully glad you had a camera handy. And remember, something

Floyd Patterson Sues New York Beauty Shop Charging Discrimination

Rockville Centre, N. Y.—World champion boxer Floyd Patterson and his wife have sued a beauty parlor for damages on charges the beauty parlor refused service to Mrs. Patterson because she is a Negro.

Patterson asked $3,000 damages on grounds the action caused him "great humiliation and shame." His wife asked $500 on the grounds the beauty parlor violated the state civil rights law.

The Pattersons claim Mrs. Patterson was turned away at the Max beauty salon here last August and told to go elsewhere.

An attorney for the shop's owners, Max and Christina Kuck, said there was a misunderstanding. He also asked Mineola district court to throw out Patterson's personal claim because there was no charge that the champ was discriminated against.

Stanton Freed in Assault Charge

After more than two hours of hearing here Saturday in municipal court Donald C. Stanton, 36, of 1067 38th street was found innocent of assault with intent to commit rape by Judge Ray Harrison, because he felt "that the facts didn't fit with an assault with intent to commit rape been filed by Mrs. Rachel Henderson, 25, of 1312 E. 29th street.

Both Mrs. Henderson and her husband, Russell Henderson, who is assistant director of the Roadside Settlement at 620 Scott ave., took the stand and testified that Stanton testified he was coming out to see Mrs. Henderson.

Listened on Phone

Henderson said he listened to Stanton's conversation with his wife on an extension phone. He said he hid in the basement while Stanton was upstairs with his wife. Henderson said he called Stanton's wife, and the police. The three Henderson children were not home at the time.

Pregnant

Mrs. Henderson testified that she was about four months pregnant and had been ill in bed when Stanton telephoned. She said that she first told him not to come but that she insisted.

Judge Harrison commented, "There's no question but judgment was used by everyone."

After formal charges were filed against him last week Stanton resigned his position as athletic director at the Y.M.C.A., where he had been teaching an exercise class in which Mrs. Henderson was a member.

Some Questions About TB—and the Answers

Here are the questions people most often ask about tuberculosis, with the answers.

If I get TB, what are my chances of a cure? Excellent, if your illness is found early enough and you complete the treatment your doctor prescribes. There are 1,750,000 people living today who once had active TB.

Few Cases

Can TB be cured at home? In a few cases, yes. But most TB patients should start treatment in the hospital, where there are laboratories to make all the necessary tests, a staff of doctors to plan treatment, and good nursing care.

How long would I have to stay in the hospital? There is no one answer to this question, since each TB patient is different. TB cure may take several months in the hospital.

Jim Brown Wins NFL Rush Title

New York—Jimmy Brown, Cleveland's great fullback for the fourth straight year, won the rushing title in the National Football League. He is the first four time winner since Steve Van Buren of Philadelphia, annexed the rushing crown in 1945, 1947, 1948 and 1949.

Sunday's finale against New York, insured Brown the title, as the Green Bay team emphasized passing instead of Jim Taylor's running. Brown finished with 1257 yards on 215 attempts, an average of 5.8 yards a carry.

Taylor gained 1101 yards for a 4.8 average.

WHEN WE WISH

When we wish a happy new year
To the ones whom we adore:
Do we breathe a silent prayer
For the hungry, sick, and sore?
And for lost, lonely, blind, enslaved
In each dark, cold, distant land:
Do we pray that heaven help them
That He touch them with His hand?
Until every soul is blessed
By His sacrifice in blood:
All will suffer war and chaos
In an ever-swelling flood.
Make this year, a year of prayer
Heal each mind, and cast out fear:
Let each Christian be a worker
Every moment of this year.
