Says Many Whites Youths Join Negroes In Sit-in Movement

"A great part of the American Dream is being realized providing an oasis of good cheer in a world torn by strife and fears. The Brotherhood is man can be carried on more easily... in an atmosphere of give and take found in no other place than colleges," declared Dr. T. Winston Cole, president of Wiley College, Marshall, Tex., in a kickoff speech here Sunday in behalf of the United Negro College Fund, of which his school is a member.

Jet Age

In an age of "jet propulsion and fear of nuclear war," Dr. Cole said, "the picture in the south is changing for very rapidly. We all must realize we are related to all other, in the world. My greatest fear, is that with the rapid change, those who could profit most from it might be found unprepared.

"Education is the answer to youth and adult everywhere. The more one knows the better prepared is he to accept the responsibilities when opportunity comes along.

White Sitts Too

"Those outside the south are likely to feel that Negro students ity complexes.

"All should feel concerned, man for his fellow man, to grow and in the current sit-in movement are alone; but, they are not. There are many white students with them, often more white students than Negroes.

"It is reassuring in that for the white students participating, it is

Miss. Delegation Meet in N.Y. to Map Out Strategy

New York—Headed by Dr. Aaron Henry, president of the Mississippi state NAACP organization, a delegation of NAACP officials from the Deep South state conferred here April 7 with national officers on strategy in the all-out campaign against Mississippians.

Known as "Operation Mississippi," the effort is described by Roy Wilkins, NAACP secretary, as an "all-out and continuous" drive to eliminate discrimination in Mississippi.

Snarling Dogs

This move was prompted by the use of snarling German police dogs on peaceful Negro citizens outside a Jackson, Miss., courthouse, Mar. 29. They were awaiting results of the trial of the state's first sit-in demonstrators—nine NAACP students from Tougaloo Christian College who sought to use a public library. The effort will be carried forward in all areas of activity, although the precise items and the exact timetable will emerge later.

Voter Drive

Already the NAACP voter registration drive has been under way in Mississippi and will be expanded and pressed in order to increase Negro registration. Mississippi is the lowest in the nation on Negro voters, with less than 4 percent of the eligibles permitted to register.

Justice

Another sore point with Negro Mississippians is the double standard of justice in the state for white and Negro citizens. Recently Clyde Kennard, who at one time attempted to register at Mississippi Southern University, was sentenced to seven years at hard labor for allegedly "agreeing to buy" five sacks of stolen chicken feed valued at $25.00.

Jailed Also

When Medgar Evers, NAACP state secretary, called Kennard's conviction a "mockery of justice," he in turn was sentenced to jail and fined $100. The case is on appeal. A young white lawyer in South

Ask Jail Term for Anti-Bias Housing Violators

7 Rights Members Seek Strong Powers As Job Ordinance

The city council was asked last week to pass an ordinance prohibiting discrimination in all housing in Des Moines with a jail sentence or fines for any violators.

In asking for the sweeping measure, the Des Moines Commission on Human Rights in its Apr. 5 meeting, passed a resolution (7-0), calling for the prevention of housing discrimination by anyone, including owners of real estate, real estate brokers, salesmen or agents, lending institutions and builders. The resolution stated that discrimination should be defined as: "Any difference in treatment in the sale, lease, rental, or financing of housing units of housing accommodations because of race, color, religion, ancestry, or national origin."

Same Procedures

The resolution asked that the commission on human rights be empowered to administer the ordinance in the same manner as it administers the city's job discrimination ordinance. Under that ordinance, the commission first tries to negotiate a voluntary settlement, then holds a public hearing, and finally can ask the city legal department to file a criminal charge.

Voting "Yes"

Violation of the proposed "fair housing practices ordinance" would carry a penalty of a $100 fine or 30-day jail sentence, the commission proposed. Voting for the resolution were Joseph A. LaCava, chairman; Harold Goldman, Gerald E. Bash, Robert A. Jackson, A. P. Trotter, Mrs. Edward Zerin, and Dr. Robert M. Johnson. Mrs. Wilma C. Hefti abstained and A. Arthur Davis was absent.

Cites Proof

Edward E. Shelton, executive secretary of the commission, said a well-documented case can be presented to the city council proving there is housing discrimination in Des Moines. In citing several examples, Shelton said many Negroes being displaced by the freeway and urban renewal projects have been discriminated against by local real estate firms. He said many white Moines; two brothers, Wardell Coyle of Des Moines and John people have tried to sell their homes to Negroes but real estate companies would not co-operate in the sales.

Attending

Among those attending the meeting were: The Rev. Dendy Garratt, Wesley Methodist Church; the Rev. Ian McCrae, University Christian Church; C. H. HEALTH FOR ALL

The Sneeze Menace

You could practically go into orbit on the propulsive power of a sneeze. Research shows that a cough or sneeze shoots out germ-laden droplets at a rate of 150 feet a second. The larger droplets usually travel for about five feet before they fall to the ground. They've been known to hit the twelve-foot mark, though. Small droplets float onwards and upwards for hours.

Careless Cough

Many illnesses, including the common cold, flu, pneumonia, and tuberculosis, are spread from person to person by jet-propelled germs in somebody's careless cough or sneeze.

It is possible to have an infectious illness without knowing it. So—anytime you feel a cough or sneeze coming on, whip out a tissue and cover your mouth and nose. A handkerchief will do as well, though it seems silly to put germs back in your pocket. Paper tissues are best, but don't forget to dispose of them.

Protection

Use the same method to protect yourself if you see someone about to cough or sneeze in your direction.

If you catch cold, don't pester your doctor for an antibiotic. It won't do any good. You can keep

Lincoln U (Mo.) To Cite 2 For High Journalism Activities

Jefferson City, Mo.—One of President Kennedy's 14 appointees to the Peace Corps organization and a veteran Kansas City editor will be cited at the 13th Headliner Banquet by the Lincoln University Department of Journalism, April 12.

Louis E. Martin, publisher of the Michigan Chronicle, and Lucile H. Bluford, executive editor of the Kansas City Call, have been chosen for the University's citation of merit for outstanding performance in journalism.

Backgrounds

Martin launched the Detroit weekly Michigan Chronicle in 1936 soon after he had finished college and has made it the largest Negro newspaper in the state with 34,000 weekly circulation. He also serves as editorial director for the Defender Publications, publishers of the Chicago Daily Defender and the Chicago Defender, a weekly. The Chronicle is a member of the Defender chain of newspapers.

Miss Bluford

Miss Bluford, a Kansas University journalism graduate, worked briefly for the Atlanta (Ga.) Daily World and joined the Kansas City Call staff in 1932 as reporter. She became editor in 1938 and executive editor in 1957. Gov. James T. Blair named her to the Missouri State Commission on Human Rights, on which she still serves.

unpopular for them to take such a stand.

Ph.D. in Texas

Dr. Cole, who received his doctorate at the University of Texas in his native state, noted there were quieter movements, "little heard of" such as scholarship programs geared to advanced training for students.

"We must be concerned that our Negro youths achieve education. They must know it requires hard work to learn and achieve. We must try to develop a sense of sufficiency; get ride of inferiority and superiority. When the Negro is fully accepted this will be a measure of man's humanity to man."

No Bias Support

During a question and answer period Dr. Cole emphasized that to support the U.N.C.F. is not to perpetuate segregation. He pointed out that some of the U.N.C.F. supported colleges already have interracial and integrated facilities and student bodies. We should maintain all our institutions in the U.S., that are quality institutions.

You and each of you are hereby notified that a petition to set aside the judgment in the above entitled action, is now on file in the office of the Clerk of the above named Court, and which said petition asks no claim of personal judgment against you, and which petition alleges that the plaintiffs are the absolute owners in fee simple of the real estate described in the caption of this notice, which description is by this reference, made a part hereof. Althea Gibson Delays Marriage

New York—The proposed marriage of tennis queen Althea Gibson and William Darben, her longtime sweetheart, has been postponed by mutual agreement, Miss Gibson declared last week.

Plans for the marriage, which was to have taken place early this spring, was announced by Miss Gibson last Christmas Day in the presence of family and friends as a party in Althea's apartment here. At the same time Darben, an expeditor and production analyst with the Bendix Aviation Corp., in New Jersey, gave Althea a large diamond engagement ring.

Romance Cooled
However, the two-time Wimbledon women's tennis champion, stated last week that the marriage . . . "is definitely off." She refused to comment further, but her statement tended to confirm rumors that their romance had cooled. Said Althea: "We came to an agreement that this was not the right time to be married because of extenuating circumstances."

Darben, a 35-year-old bachelor, and Miss Gibson have been sweethearts for several years.

Harmony Chapter No. 22 O.E.S. presents Spring Fashion Show featuring Perita Bates. Miss Perita Bates, international model charm consultant and Beautician Artist of St. Louis thrilled her audience with selections from the Fashion wardrobe.

Each outfit was an original created by "Racine", an outstanding Modiste of St. Louis.

From her nine complete changes we will mention the ones that set her audience completely on edge.

For travel she wore Royal and Painter's blue full coat, blocked in with white gloss braid with a blocked in over blouse and a sheath skirt, a high gloss straw hat and royal blue shoes.

For travel she wore Royal and linen cocktail suit of gold colors set off by a wide band of braided straw at the hemline with a two inch silken fringe below the braided section. When the box jacket was removed it revealed a striking sheath dress with a scooped neckline.

Her formal was of butterscotch yellow and black silk organza. The full length sheath dress was covered with hand-rolled flowers of the silk organza. As she walked the petals gave the illusion of bright yellow butterflies all in a bunch.

Mrs. Carla Johnson, noted for modeling in the Sioux City area thrilled the audience with selections from her wardrobe.

Miss Johnson was party pretty in a cocktail dress of black chiffon on silk halter top full skirt, long chiffon sleeves and accented by a self belt.

For lounging she modeled a triple layer nylon robe with hand-painted flowers of lavender and turquoise.

A black and grey tweed suite created by Miss Johnson was accented by an upholstery fringe of nylon. The white crepe to match the lining of her jacket was accented by log black gloves.

Hair styles modeled by the students of the Crescent Beauty School of Des Moines created much excitement. Each model, radiant with beauty, showed off a different style of hair dressing created by the use of the very new Hair Strate.

Millinery Fashions were shown by the Fannie Mae Shoppe and fashioned by Fannie Mae Alexander.

Most exciting of the many styles shown was the Jackie Kennedy Pillbox and a lovely creation in the

IS THERE AN EASY WAY TO TRAVEL WITH BABY?

Although it is generally agreed that the best place for baby is his own home, when an occasional trip is desirable or necessary, certain needs can be easily and safely handled with a little planning.

Consider the basic requirements, but also remember that an over amount of supplies adds to carrying problems.

Feeding First

Take care of feeding first. If the trip is contained within one day, enough chilled formula can probably be carried in one or two thermos bottles. Pack several sterilized nipples and bottles. If travelling by commercial lines, the porter or stewardess will warm bottles; if travelling by car, a small heating appliance, or a quick stop at a restaurant will serve.

Clothing

Prepared baby cereals and canned baby foods are ideal for use while travelling since they can be used safely at room temperature.

Disposable diapers worn inside regular diapers and/or water proof pants solve the diaper problem. Cotton knit dresses or suits are comfortable for baby and easy to care for. They also take very little space.

Mrs. Lillian Condree Weds Elder Steven Watson In Lovely Home Ceremony on Saturday P.M.

On Saturday, Apr. 8 Mrs. Lillian Condree of 1221 E. 16th st., became the bride of Elder Steven Watson of 824 14th st., at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Lyle of 1227 E. 18th st., with Elder G. W. Jones, pastor of Marshalltowns Church of God in Christ, performing the ceremonies.

Setting

The setting was the center of the archway of the Lyle living room with white candles which set on twin box cases on either side, burning throughout the ceremony. Music was by the bride's 10-year-old granddaughter, Lillian Lyle, who played the hymn, "Holy, Holy, Holy" on the family chord organ before the vows were spoken.

Church Mother

The bride, who is one of the Church mothers at East University Church of God in Christ, wore her mother's uniform of white nylon trimmed with white pearl buttons as accessories. She wore white nylon gloves, white shoes and a corsage of white carnations tied with a blue ribbon.

Church Minister

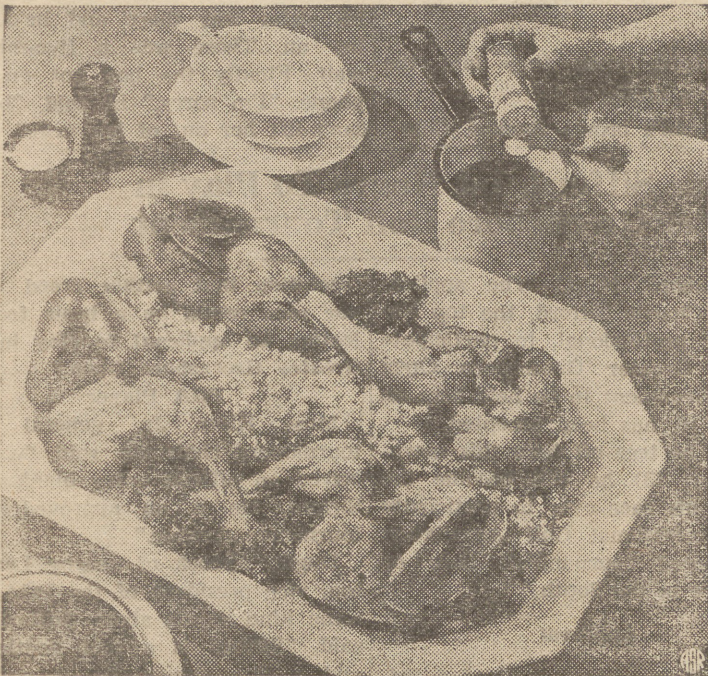

The groom, who is one of the ministers of the same church, was attired in light gray with a white boutonniere. The matron of honor, Mrs. Blanche Spivey, wore a white two-piece suit and white slippers. Best man was William Barnett, also attired in gray.

The reception followed in the church dining room. A large white two-tiered wedding cake covered with pink roses decorated the dining table. Church women brought additional sheet cakes for the bride and groom, and also served as hostesses.

Hostesses

Serving as hostesses were the bride's granddaughter, Miss Karen Evans, and daughter, Mrs. Ruby Evans, Mrs. James Boston, and Mrs. Alma Berry. The couple are at home at 824 14th st., Apr. 5.

You Can Bake A Broiler With Unstuffed Stuffing

Broilers are the gay young things of the chicken population and, thanks to their tender age, will always be tender on your plate. However you prepare them, do yourself a favor by shaking Ac'cent on them before cooking.

Ac'cent is a leading brand of pure monosodium glutamate, derived from sugar beets, which has the unique property of making foods taste naturally better. Chicken dishes of every size, shape and character become more lively with a liberal sprinkling of the pure white crystals.

In this instance, we plan not only to bake a broiler but to serve an unstuffed stuffed bird. Wrap the stuffing securely in aluminum foil, and bake it alongside the chicken.

Baked Chicken and Stuffing

Sprinkle 4 broiler-fryer chicken halves with Ac'cent on flesh side of chicken and a little on skin side 15 to 20 minutes before cooking, then sprinkle with salt, pepper and paprika. Place chicken halves, skin side down, in baking pan. Do not overlap halves. Brush melted butter over cut side of chicken. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) 1 hour, 15 minutes. While chicken is baking, prepare packaged stuffing according to directions. Place stuffing in aluminum foil; seal edges tightly. At end of first half hour, turn chicken over and brush with butter. Place stuffing in oven with chicken. Bake 30 minutes longer and brush chicken again with butter. Continue baking 15 minutes longer. Serve with stuffing and gravy made from partially diluted cream of chicken or mushroom soup.

Iowa's vacillating weather made constant and pretty by the beautiful millinery creation worn by some of Des Moines best known lovers of hats. Some tentatively eyeing the calendar mentally on vacation time while many high school youngsters try in vain to push back the chronological time in the rush of academic and extra-curricular activities before the big day, Commencement. One of the largest classes of Des Moines Negroes in history will walk down the aisle in mortarboard caps and gowns come June.

Des Moines was a mecca for educational leaders and college presidents over the weekend. First, Lawrence Perkins, national field representative of the United Negro College fund came to town for the kickoff meeting of the Des Moines campaign. Accompanying him was Dr. Harry V. Richardson, president of the Interdenominational Theological center at Atlanta, Ga. The center is one of the 32-member colleges of UNCF. It is composed of Baptist, A.M.E., M.E., and C.M.E. divisions with a director for each. It is a seminary for students preparing for the ministry and is unique in that it makes possible for each to study in his chosen faith.

Then another college president, Dr. T. Winston Cole, of Wiley College, Marshall, Tex., was guest speaker at a meeting at the YW Sunday afternoon. He spoke before a small but interested and education-minded group of citizenry. It is to be lamented that so few professional persons, especially in the field of education, came out to hear the gifted speaker, whose wide knowledge is increased by firsthand reports and views garnered from his world wide travels.

One couple, a Dr. and Mrs. Harvey and daughter traveled quite a distance, from Waterloo, just to see and hear Dr. Cole. Both are former students at Wiley. They brought with them a young student, who also has matriculated at Wiley. Dr. Harvey is a dentist in Waterloo and his wife is a teacher there.

Adding to the alumni cheering section was Mr. James Bowman, a teacher in the Des Moines public school system. Mr. Bowman formerly served on the teaching staff at Wiley. Briefly, but concisely and completely Dr. Cole spoke to his audience, giving much food for thought; however, a question and answer period proved so lively it almost eclipsed his preceding speech.

Received a call from an old By-stander reader and supporter, Mrs. Rosa Wilson of 844 15th st. She reported that she will be sending in a picture and announcement of the engagement of one of her granddaughters soon.

She also advised us that her name had not been given to us in the list of members of Rebecca Court No. 3, Court of Calanthe, who attended a Thanksgiving service in Mason City recently.

Mr. John Wilbois, who is handling the publicity for the reorganization plans for the Polk County Historical society called and informed us that the organization is seeking new members. He pointed out that anyone concerned about local history and genealogy will be welcomed at the meeting (see story) and hope some Negroes will attend. He also said the society intends to provide a place for keeping family relics. He noted that often people died and leave behind a relic that cannot be kept where other members of the family may view it. So if you are interested be sure and make the first public meeting.

CLEAN UP, PAINT UP
EFFORT NEEDED

Now that spring is here and the snow and ice have pretty well gone for the season, the winter months have left their toll of neglected cleaning which cannot be very well done in winter.

These neglected and undone chores are such things as rubbish and trash around the house, alleys not very well kept and, maybe, a board or shingle gone, a window pane out (the inside protected by a card board or some other unsightly plug), a few leaves and other unsightly decoration around which, if left too long, brand the owner a poor neighbor.

Nobody, who is trying to keep his property up, likes to have such a person as a neighbor for not only does he disfigure and lower the value of his own property but also inflicts the same damage upon the other fellow.

Several years ago, the health department conducted clean up campaigns in Des Moines. City trucks were available for hauling rubbish and trash, boy scouts helped care for the older home owners who were not able to take their part.

Much of the rubbish and trash, in some places, consist of cans which, at times, are health hazards in that stagnant water remains in them long after rains are over; city health inspectors might well warn owners of property in such condition to clean them up. It should be done.

In an effort to provide better homes for those people who must move because of urban renewal and freeway construction some people, both Negro and white, have found Negro colleges particularly those because their record of keeping present homes up has not been good. Partly as a civil project, some group should organize an effective clean up campaign. The Des Moines Junior Chamber of Commerce tried several years but they did not reach the people who needed it.

COLLEGE PRESIDENT HAS HOPEFUL VIEW

Speaking in Des Moines in the interest of the United Negro College Fund, Dr. T. Winston Cole, Sr., president of Wiley College at Marshall, Tex., one of the schools included in the organization said conditions in the South were improving slowly but surely; that many of the good things were happening quietly without wide publicity which some others that are no less substantial receive.

As an example, and one of the most helpful signs he mentioned, was that of participation by white students in many of the sit-in demonstrations. In doing so, not only are they subject to the insults and sanctions against them as a part of the movement, but also they are branded as traitors.

This cooperation goes on among and between some of the white and Negro colleges particularly those where politicians have no part in voting appropriations to keep them going.

It has been demonstrated over and over again that left to solve their racial difference, students would move faster than the older people. But the elders hang on to their "way of life" or some fear economic and political reprisals; the politician uses ignorant to help get elected—all take their toll in dragging the progress toward equality of citizenship.

But as Dr. Cole says, there are more Negroes being educated each year, that more whites are being educated. And as they throw off ignorance each will become better citizens and better neighbors.

He said further support for the Negro college fund did not prolong segregation for every available school is needed to care for the rising number of college students and that in time, with integration working both ways (not only Negroes to former all white schools but whites to former all Negro schools) segregation will work itself out even in the South.

This is the month of April. Things happen. The baseball season gets off. The long pro-basketball season with the playoffs; the track season opens with the usual parade of relay meets and we uncover some sensational runners who become just some of the boys in June.

Our biggest show is of course, the Drake Relays and judging from the time made in earlier meets we are going to see a flock of records busted.

Tech Chances

Here at home Tech makes the final bid for glory in the various relays beginning with the Valley relays. The Engineers just don't have enough good men to do more than put up a battle for high score in any out-door meets. They might squeeze through but this corner would have to call it an upset. If the boys they have could run in all the events they could stand, Tech would still be in trouble because all their good runners run the same events.

Drake Mile Relay

Drage has finally put together a mile-relay team that is tough. The Bulldogs broke the Texas Relays record and yea could get only fourth. But, they are still tough. We always make our out door track debut at the Drake Relays and expect to do so and this time we shall get some good pictures. In the last three years we have had three good pictures; not quite equal to the late Bill Ashby mark.

Tennis

With the coming of spring, tennis peeks around the corner. The Iowa State rankings were released and Esther Myers, Hilltop president, ranked No. 2 in the women's singles. Mrs. Myers was listed on two double teams; she was rated second with Roberta Ferine and was third with Janet Holins. It would be interesting to see those two teams play each other.

Rankings

After 67 years of play, Chet Williamson got a rating—20th in the veterans singles and Everett Mays, was listed 16th in this branch. Williamson and Mays were rated the 8th best vets doubles teams. Mrs. Myers got a 12th place in the mixed doubles with Chet Williamson. The thing that hurt was the absence of youngsters in the other brackets. Esther is doing her level best to develop some but it seems the desire is not there, and without that you don't get far.

Golfers

Guess, the golfers will be out now. The boys are bringing a nationally ranked player here in June and we shall try to see him in order to prove a point to ourselves. Shall explain later.

A THOUSAND TONGUES

The day has a thousand tongues
Blatant cacophony of bedlam,
The yammer of mechanical monsters
That smother the voices of the spirit.
From the inane and pointless chatter
Of the elbowing throngs going nowhere:
To the blare of traffic unnecessary horns,
Squeal of brakes and shriek of sirens
That pick up all the senseless debris.
How can the soul meditate in the chaos
Of today's maddening din and distress.
Above, the sky is polluted and torn
Asunder, as jets hurl themselves Toward a distant target around the globe.
Radio and TV, Advertising loud
speakers
Aggravate the ear and the eye continually.

So the day has a thousand coarse tongues:
How precious is the blessings of silence!

Thoughts for Today

"You can always reason with an obstreperous child... provided you first get his undivided attention with a strap."—Farm Journal.

The authority to issue an order involves the responsibility to see that it is properly executed.—H. L. Gantt.

The wise man is he who knows the relative value of things.—Dean Inge.

Laugh Lines

A little boy answered the salesman's phone call. "Is your mother or father home?" the salesman asked. The answer was no. "Well," persisted the salesman, "anyone his sister was there and he'd put her on. There was a five-minute wait. Finally the boy got on the phone. "I'm sorry," he said, "but I can't lift her out of her crib."

Charlie Sifford, 1st Negro To Play in Greater Greensboro Golf Tournament

Greensboro, N. C.—The application of Charlie Sifford, the top Negro golf professional, to participate in the Greater Greensboro Open Golf Tournament to be held here on Apr. 13-16, has been accepted.

When he tees off here this morning (Apr. 13) he will become the first of his race ever to participate in a Professional Golf Association co-sponsored tournament, here or anywhere in the South.

Approval

Immediately upon receipt of Sifford's application on Tuesday, Apr. 4, the same was approved both by the Greensboro Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsor of the tournament and the Sedgefield Country Club, the host club. The denial of either would have barred his participation.

W. W. Sharpe, Jr., chairman of the host committee, told reporters, "The board of directors passed a resolution that neither creed, color nor race would be a basis for rejecting an applicant to play in the Greater Greensboro Open."

PGA Player

Mose Kiser, Jr., general 1961 tournament chairman, said, "we received an official entry blank from Sifford. He is an approved PGA tournament player."

Dugan Aycock of nearby Lexington, vice president of the PGA had some kind words about Sifford. He said, "Sifford is a real gentleman and a fine player. He is entirely capable of winning a big tournament at anytime."

Native of N. C.

A native of Charlotte, N. C., Sifford now plays out of Los Angeles. He was scheduled to fly into Greensboro on Apr. 7, play an exhibition match in Winston-Salem on Saturday and begin serious practice sessions at the Sedgefield course on Sunday.

A win for Sifford in the Greensboro meet would give him a purse of better than $2,000, the biggest of his pro career.
