5 Women Fined $25 Each for Shoplifting

What police believed to be a shoplifting ring of young women was broken up with the arrest of five women at 5th and Court avenues. A sixth eluded officers as they converged on the area, by boarding a downtown transit. She was later identified by the others and arrested at her home.

The five were fined $25 each in municipal court Friday. They were identified as Lois May, 20, 1163 9th st.; Pat Louise Solomen, 25, 908 16th st.; Marcella Allan, 21, Sue Taylor, 22, and Lorrie Walker, 21, all of 945 16th st.

Motorcycle Patrolmen and other uniformed police converged on the area after receiving a tip that the women were reported leaving Miller-Wohl co., Inc., at 312 7th st. They were chased by an employee of the store to the outside street. Detective W. E. Marohn said the women carried large shopping bags in which police found merchandise stolen from Miller-Wohl; Hills department store, 4th and Walnut and the Cotton Shop, 610 Walnut st.

2 Waive to Grand Jury in Thefts of Record Player Here

Two men, arrested in connection with the theft of a record player from the Des Moines Audio Service co., 1102 Keosauqua way Thursday night, waived to the grand jury Friday and are being held in jail for failure to post $5,000 bond each.

Charges of breaking and entering were filed against James L. Boone, 45, who gave his address as 1315 Crocker st., and Robert Wesley Massey, Jr., 35, of 1138 9th st. Both pleaded innocent.

Noticed Car

Police said the audio firm reported the theft of an $80 record player Friday morning. They said the thieves gained entry through a rear window. Later that same morning Patrolmen Robert Penland and Irvin Thompson, while cruising in the 1200 block of Park st., noticed a record player in the back seat of a car in which two men were sitting. By the time the police officers turned their car around and approached the suspects' car, they said,

Include Trains in Efforts To Desegregate Interstate Travel, Facilities in South

Jackson, Miss.—(Wednesday) The Freedom riders, who have spread their campaign to trains, continued to receive jail sentences for their actions aimed at desegregating interstate travel stations and other facilities. Eight newly-arrived "freedom riders" who came by train, were found guilty of a breach of the peace here Tuesday.

Meanwhile, in Montgomery, Ala., where the first freedom riders arrived several weeks ago, a white witness, Cecil Lewallyn, 21, who had been linked to the burning of a "Freedom Rider" bus was jailed for contempt of court Tuesday when he refused to say whether he was there.

Jackson, Miss.—(Monday) As the wave of "Freedom Riders" continued by busses on the southern cities, arrests continued as officers under strict orders of segregationist city and state officials.

Seventeen more were arrested as they arrived at the bus station here. They were in addition to 27 others who were arrested, jailed and later convicted at a trial which was held under strict security guard with only a handful of Negro spectators attending.

In Mississippi

The arrivals of bus loads of "freedom riders in Jackson, began hard on the heels of violent riots in a neighboring state, Alabama, when a mob of over 1,000 whites attacked a group of freedom riders as they alighted from a Greyhound bus a week ago. Before the mob was quelled and brought under control, the national guard had to be called out, and over 600 U. S. marshals

Hunger Strike

On arriving in Jackson they were arrested on charges of breaching the peace and were fined $200 each and given 60-day suspended sentence in jail. They elected to stay in jail. A charge of failure to obey an officer was later dropped by the city "because we don't want to be too harsh." The group went on a hunger strike, skipping three meals when one was not allowed to telephone his wife.

Police Dogs

During the trial a group of Negroes gathered across from the court house and police dogs were used on

Step Up Integration in Little Rock Public Schools

Little Rock, Ark.—Twenty five Negro seventh graders will break the racial ice in junior high schools here and the largest number of Negro students, 24—have been assigned to three non-Negro high schools.

The most students—12—were assigned to 900 student West Side Junior high school, four blocks from Central High school where the city's first integration brought violence four years ago.

Faubus Critical

Thirteen students were assigned to Central; six to Hall and five to Technical which has not been previously integrated. The assignments were approved 5-1 by the Little Rock school board. The action brought angry protests from Gov. Orval Faubus, who in 1957 used the national guard to block integration at Central.

Faubus termed the assignments as "surrender by degrees to the NAACP."

Court to Act

The board acted in advance of a hearing Monday in U. S. district court under an appellate court ruling directing a speedup of desegregation. The 8th Circuit Court of Appeals, in a ruling earlier this year, noted that it felt it was time the board took affirmative action toward

Postal Alliance Grooms New Frontier

Standing (L-R) James B. Cobb, President of NAPE; J. Edward Day, Postmaster General; Christopher C. Scott, Deputy Assistant Postmaster General and Louis E. Martin, Deputy Chairman Democratic National Committee. More than 300 representatives of NAPE local branch offices met at the luncheon honoring Day and Scott. Scott holds the highest position ever held by a Negro in the Post Office Department.

Tennessee Farmers With Land Will Get 'Run Money'

Chicago, Ill.—The AFL-CIO has announced that it will provide subsistence money through the growing season to 53 Negro families in Fayette and Haywood Counties in Tennessee. Secretary Matthew Lynch of the Tennessee State Labor Council, who will administer the program for the national organization said, "these checks will go to farmers who have land to work and have been given crop loans by volunteer groups but are unable to get their usual 'run money' from customary sources."

Run Money

"Run money" is that needed by farmers for the maintenance of their families during the period between planting and harvest.

Local committees have checked and certified the needs of those applying, according to Lynch. The amount will vary from $30 to $100 a month depending on the size of the family.

400 Individuals

The 53 families who will receive subsistence checks represent more than 400 individuals. They are among some 700 who had been subjected to an economic boycott because they registered to vote. Many are tenant farmers who were faced with eviction. A federal court ruling halted the evictions but it could not guarantee the farmers that they would get land and the capital for working it.

In announcing the AFL-CIO's grant, Lynch said, "Our aim is to help those who want to stay in counties where they have lived all their lives and who want to do the only work available to them."

Housing Leader Cites Bias in Waterloo

Waterloo, Ia.—Regional A. Johnson, 58, director of housing activities for the National Urban League, said Tuesday that he was snubbed at a Waterloo restaurant. Johnson, in the city to discuss urban renewal problems, said the restaurant manager directed him and two other Negroes to a table in the back room. He said there were empty tables in the main dining room.

The restaurant said the empty tables were reserved or too large for the party of three. Johnson and his friends left the restaurant.

SCOTT PAPER COMPANY PROMOTES NEGRO TO MANAGE NEW DISTRICT

Philadelphia, Pa.—William D. Wayne, 35, of Hecktown Road, Bethlehem, Pa., has been promoted to Scranton district manager with the retail sales division of Scott Paper Company of Chester, Pa., manufacturers of paper products for the home.

Wayne joined the company in 1956 as a retail salesman in Philadelphia. Two years later, he was promoted to senior salesman, and in 1959 he was named district manager in Allentown, Pa.

A native of Media, Pa., Wayne was graduated in 1944 from Media High School where he captained the football team in 1942-43, and attended St. Joseph's College, majoring in business administration.

A member of Food Industry Associates, Toastmasters International of Allentown, and the Knights of Columbus, the new Scranton district manager also serves with the Hecktown Fire Company, Number 2.

Prior to joining Scott, Wayne was a member of the public relations group with the Veterans Administration.

U.S. Atty. General Urges Commerce Dept. to Rid All Bias in Interstate Travel

Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy today petitioned the Interstate Commerce Commission to issue regulations banning segregation in interstate bus transportation.

Mr. Kennedy's petition requested that the regulations include such terminal facilities used by interstate motor carriers as waiting rooms, rest rooms and restaurants.

Asks Early Action

Mr. Kennedy asked the ICC to issue the regulations "as expeditiously as practical."

"It is the unquestioned right of all persons to travel through the various states without being subjected to discrimination," Mr. Kennedy said.

"This petition to the ICC will serve the purpose of having this entire matter determined in a proper legal proceeding."

Already Held Illegal

Mr. Kennedy pointed out in his petition that under decisions of the ICC and the recent decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the Boynton case, segregation in facilities at regular interstate bus stops is a violation of the ICC Act. "Recent events that have taken place in certain states have disclosed a breakdown of guarantee of non-discriminatory transportation to passengers in interstate commerce," the petition stated.

Mr. Kennedy said in his petition that ICC regulations would lessen the possibility of mob violence threatening the safety of interstate travel; would guarantee to all passengers their rights under the Interstate Commerce Act and would vindicate those rights against "inconsistent and unlawful action by state or local authorities."

Military Inroad

Discrimination has had an obvious effect upon members of the military service of this country who must use the facilities of interstate motor carriers," the petition said.

In the Boynton case, decided December 12, 1960, the Supreme Court held that a restaurant which is an "integral part" of interstate bus service cannot segregate its customers without violating the Interstate Commerce Act. The Court stated that the ruling did not apply to roadside restaurants at which buses may stop infrequently.

College Members Urged to Ride Home Without Bias At End of Spring Semester

New York—The NAACP today urged members of its 123 key college units in 33 states to return home on a "non-segregated transportation basis" at the end of this school year. Estimated campus populations affected is 546,450, including Howard University in Washington, D. C., with a student population of 4,800, the bulk of whom reside in the South.

Where You Choose

Roy Wilkins, the Association's executive secretary, urged the students to "sit where you choose on trains and buses," and to "use terminal, restaurant and other facilities without discrimination."

Wilkins noted that the directive "will obviously apply to students whose routes home lie exclusively within a state, as well as to those who will be interstate passengers."

Types of Travel

"The Supreme Court's rulings are clear as to both types of travel," he said.

The NAACP spokesman observed "the publicity focused on the Freedom Riders and the heavy armed guard needed for their protection have led leaders of the Rides to feel that, the viciousness, crudity and disregard of law characteristic of Southern segregationists have been well exposed."

Not Tested

However, the Ride leaders agree that "the Rides have not yet tested to what extent Negro passengers engaged in normal and routine travel will be able to enjoy non-segregated use of facilities," he said.

"The impending end of school terms in colleges throughout the country affords an opportunity for such tests," he added.

Right to Test

Secretary Wilkins emphasized that "American citizens have the right and the duty to test the enforcement of the Constitution of the United States as embodied in the law and in the interpretations and rulings of the U. S. Supreme Court."

"Any state law or custom which is not in compliance with the Constitution is subject to challenge at any time by any citizen who chooses to act to enjoy his rights," he concluded.

Be sure that everything is in order for projecting your film before the meeting opens. That's the secret of a good smooth showing.

Films Give Variety to Club Programs

Many clubs and organizations have heard their first "meeting come to order" for the season, and program chairmen are looking for good material.

That's why we feel it's a good time to talk about the vast fund of program material that's currently available in professionally-made movies—and at prices well within the budget of even the smallest club group. We think you'll be pleasantly surprised to learn that it's possible to provide an interesting program for as small a rental fee as $1.25 to $2 per film!

Movies are really hard to beat as program material. For they not only offer fine fare for a tiny price, but present a wide enough choice of subject matter to fit any type of program you may be planning.

General interest, pure entertainment, special interest, educational—dramatic or documentary—you can have what you want strictly a la carte. If yours is a literary group, look into the classics of literature available on film.

A Mothers' Club and the Parent-Teachers Association will be interested in films on child care and development. The garden club will be pleased with films on flower growing and arrangement. An internationally-minded group would probably be attracted by films about distant lands or perhaps a visit to the United Nations. For farm groups, a film program devoted to specific agricultural problems might well be your best choice.

If you're not familiar with the sources from which rentals may be made, just go to the public library for information. In some cases, you'll find that the library itself has a film-rental department. If not, you will be given a direct lead to a convenient source.

You might also like to know that the Government Printing Office publishes a little fifty-cent handbook, called "A Directory of 2,660 16mm. Film Libraries." If you order a copy, you'll discover an extensive list of film sources in your area—including your state film library—along with a description of the type of film carried by each source.

So we say, never underestimate the power of a movie—it may turn out to be the best program material your club ever had!

Keep Drawer Knobs Tight

USE of a lock washer can keep a knob screw on a drawer from turning, according to Popular Mechanics. The special washer should be placed between a flat washer and the head of the screw. If it is located against a wooden surface, it will sink into the wood and lose its locking ability. The same principle can be applied to keep wooden knobs tight on the lids of pots and pans.

A Shortcut for Shortcake

ERVE SHORTCAKE AND IT'S A SURE THING . . . everybody loves it, especially when lots of sweet, luscious fruit comes sliding over the top and through the middle. And now when you can depend on your grocer for fruit all through the year, fresh or frozen, it means shortcake comes more often to your table. And as long as you have an excellent recipe for shortcake such as this, you can have as many variations as there are fruits to spoon on the top—and be happy there are so many reasons for serving this dessert.

This new recipe comes through the courtesy of Pream, the 100% dairy product to "cream" your coffee as well as your cooking. They suggest you try serving the individual shortcakes unadorned with several varieties of fruit in serving dishes, then let each guest select his own fruit topping.

QUICK SHORTCAKE

2 cups biscuit mix 2 tablespoons sugar
1/2 cup Pream 1/2 cup water

Mix the dry ingredients thoroughly and stir in water. Roll out into six biscuits. Bake for 12 to 15 minutes in oven at 450°. (ANS)

Check Your Social Security Account

"Have you checked your social security account recently?" asks Leo W. Smith, Manager of the Des Moines Social Security Office.

Smith urges every worker to check his account at least every three years before retirement, since there is a limit to the period in which certain corrections can be made. If any errors are found in your account, your social security office will be happy to assist you in correcting them, so that the benefits paid at retirement, disability or death will be at the highest possible rate.

Request Form

A special postcard request form is available at any social security office for checking an account. The worker who sends the card will receive a statement of the total amount of earnings credited to his record, plus the yearly credits for the last three full years. In addition, a new booklet, printed especially for the worker who checks his account, will be included. This booklet explains how social security records are kept and how to read the statement; also what payments are made, how much the payments are, the amount of work needed, and where the money comes from to pay benefits.

Check your account now! Your Social Security Office at 205-12th Street, Des Moines, Iowa, will be glad to supply you with the postcard request form.

Make A Picnic Check-List

WHO HASN'T been on a picnic where the pop stayed in its case all the way home because everybody forgot the bottle opener? Avoid mishaps like this by following a simple little "check-list" when you pack your picnic basket. Choose a picnic site with fireplaces, pack some interesting food that everybody can help to cook . . . then check your basket against this list. You may even want to clip it out and stick it to the lid of your basket.

PICNIC ESSENTIALS

salt, pepper, relishes & condiments paper spoons, knives, forks, plates, cups, napkins & table cloth paper towels and soap bottle opener, corkscrew
paring or carving knife

Here's a hint from the manufacturers of Sylvania cellophane: save your cellophane bread wrappers and vegetable bags. They'll come in handy when it comes to wrapping sandwiches, buns, butter, salad greens, pastry . . . anything that needs special moisture-protection in your picnic basket.

We would like to step out of our accustomed realm this time. This is something we rarely do, as you readers can attest to, and we are hoping you will bear with us.

In our younger days we once heard a speaker say, "Give your flowers to the living; do not wait 'til they are dead." Somehow that made a lasting impression with us. We feel that a compliment or deserved praise spoken to the one earning or deserving it, should be given not to a bereaved family after they are gone, not that it is not welcomed then either.

Often we hear or read of an incident in which we sympathize or secretly admire someone or a group. How many of us, who do so, sit down to write a letter of compliment, make a phone call or stop the person passing by? A good example is the case of the man who found the sack with $240,000 in it and returned it to its rightful owner. Many of us admired his actions. And even later when his actions brought letters and words of ridiculing scorn and reprisals upon his head from strangers and some acquaintances, many of us were incensed that honesty, once taken for granted, was so rudely abused. How many of us thought of writing him, our fellow man, a letter of encouragement, and carried through?

So since this is the week of Memorial day, which will be two days past when you read this, we would like to throw a few flowers to the living, with all due praise to those who lived so nobly and inked their prints upon life, before leaving this world.

When we cast around for recipients for "floral" tributes there are many deserving, but in our estimate, none more deserving than we feel the present-day freedom riders and sit-inners. If you have followed some of the television special program on the incidents, they more than newspapers or even radio, tell the viewer of the courage and dedication of young men and women who are leading these campaigns.

As you hear them speak and watch their calm expressions you cannot help but be impressed. Here are young people who not only believe in what they are doing, which is getting rarer nowadays, but what is more rarer, is willing to act on that belief, with no compromises. What is rarest of all, they are acting in a Christ-like way, of non-violence, not even hitting back when they are beaten and stoned. These young people, Negroes and whites, are dedicated, most from middle class families, and college students. They do not do this for pranks, or publicity sake. They are actively protesting a great wrong in this life and are willing to lay down their lives for this.

As one girl connected with the freedom riders quoted, "Before I lay down and be a slave, I die and go to heaven and beat peace."

What can you do with convictions like that? What can you do with such courage as that? But admire it and perhaps write letters and send financial contributions to give some puny aid. For the freedom riders, one and all, know that death is a probability, when they embark upon their journey, for they are journeying into the land of fear, and hate born out of fear. There is no more futile battle then that waged against an idea and conviction that is found in a foundation of truth and right. And that is what the freedom riders have on their side.

A vast social change is taking place, yet as Oliver Wendell Holmes once wrote, "there is no greater social fear, than change itself."

So ends our tribute to the Freedom riders.

Thanks to a good friend of ours and a truly world citizen and thinker, Miss Charlene Wharton, of Willkie House, our youngsters were able to attend the circus at Veterans auditorium Saturday afternoon. Over our protests, that she is doing too much, (which she does) she just modestly, and characteristically, brushes aside our gratitude, "Oh it's nothing much." Aside from being a good friend she is also one of our dozen good news sources, persons who will take time out to call us and ask, "Do you know about such and such," or "Thought you would like to know about this and that if you already do not have it."

To a news reporter, people like these are priceless, for they are

MISCONCEPTIONS ABOUT HUMAN RIGHTS

Altogether too many people get the notion that the Freedom Riders, now touring the South, are violating the supreme law of the land. But this is not true. The United States Supreme Court has held that segregation in interstate travel is illegal, and in spite of the fact that some states through which they pass have laws to the contrary, the federal law takes precedence.

There are those who feel that the riders have made their point and that the project should be called off. Again, this is a fallacy. After all, segregation is being carried on daily and continues. The law is being violated. The practice should cease.

Unfortunately, equal protection of the Negro has too long been somewhat of a play thing. Politicians have used it to get elected; church people have used it to demonstrate brotherly love. But few have been willing to go all the way toward giving the Negro the same treatment as any other citizens.

A great many people have been in this brotherly love class. They have wanted to do just as little as possible and to take the longest time possible to do it. Many have been supporters of the NAACP but have become lukewarm in recent years because the association's aggressive program has been successful.

For years, Negroes submitted to Jim Crow and segregation laws, not because they agreed with them but because they are law abiding. But now that the law is on their side, supporters of segregation and Jim Crow violate these laws and commit crimes against those who attempt to exercise their rights as citizens.

That is what this whole freedom ride is about. They will stop when there is no longer a question of their right and law enforcement of the law by local as well as federal authorities.

REP. SCHWENGLE NO

GULLABLE OFFICIAL

The Bystander certainly congratulates Congressman Fred Schwengle of Davenport, who represents the first Iowa District, for his refusal to accept an award given by the Americans for Constitutional Action.

This organization runs parallel to the old America First group opposing, as they say, communism—a catchall for the unsuspecting—and everything not in harmony with liberal causes. These are familiar claims to fame by right wing organizations. But invariably, they oppose the equal enjoyment of civil rights by all citizens.

Representative Schwengle knows this to be true and that is why he was not gullable enough to accept the award. We need more people like him in high places.

NEGROES HAVE A RESPONSIBILITY

It is reported that Washington, D.C. is gripped with a crime wave, much of it involving attacks by Negroes on women, assaults and killings. In the Sunday, May 28, Register, Richard Wilson, head of the Cowles bureau in Washington, said the situation was bad citing instances of crime and the apparent unwillingness of public officials to come to grips with it.

This is most unfortunate for hoodlums, who do these things, furnish ammunition to those opposed to according Negroes first class citizenship. They cite such instances to prove that Negroes are not prepared morally for first class citizenship. Of course, nobody has committed more and worse crimes than white people.

However, this is no excuse for emulating someone who is engaged in crime. On the other hand, to penalize all Negroes for what a few do is unfair.

Negroes must realize that the fellow who keeps a bad looking home or does not conduct himself with decorum is watched more closely than the one who does not. And thus when better housing or better jobs are being considered, the undesirable are too often pointed to as proof that Negroes are not entitled to that which the law or good citizenship guarantees.

Knowing this to be the case, Negroes themselves have responsibility to help those people who are ignorant, cannot control themselves and display little disregard for the rights of others.

Churches, Sunday Schools and civic and social clubs can be a great force in improving the daily conduct of Negroes. In fact, the churches might well devote half their time teaching people how to live as well as how to die. After all, if people live right, they die right.

Patterson Named One of 10 Most Influential Young Men by N.Y. Boys Club

New York—Heavyweight champ Floyd Patterson was named by the Boys' Club of New York as one of America's Ten Most Influential Young Men. Among the others chosen were astronaut Alan Shepard, U. S. Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy and television star Dick Clark.

Based on Impact

Selection of these men was based upon their impact on American society rather than the views and professions they represent, according to Boys' Club executive director Peter Capra. Others on the list were humorist Mort Sahl, playwright Paddy Chayefsky, physicist Donald Glaser, FCC chairman Newton Minow, industrialist Peter Peterson and pianist Van Cliburn.

Under 40

All of these men are under 40 and have made significant achievements in their respective fields, Mr. Capra pointed out. "They serve as excellent examples of what can be accomplished by young men in the United States today."

"Floyd Patterson, by becoming the first man to regain the heavyweight championship, upholds the 'never say die' spirit of the American character."

"Commander Shepard, of course, is an obvious choice because of his remarkable effort. So is Attorney General Kennedy who, at 35, has demonstrated great courage in one of the highest offices in the land."

Musical

"Dick Clark represents and promulgates, probably more than any other man, the popular musical taste of our youth. Mort Sahl has not only developed a unique approach to humor, but has influenced an entire generation of American comedians."

Mr. Capra further explained that Paddy Chayefsky was chosen because of his contributions to the contemporary American theatre, motion pictures and television. He said that 34-year-old Nobel Prize winner

Donald Glaser demonstrates to society the value of pure scientific research.

Cliburn

"At 35, Newton Minow, new chairman of the Federal Communications Commission, brings to his assignment a refreshing attitude which will undoubtedly alter the nature of broadcasting and televasting," Mr.

PETERSON

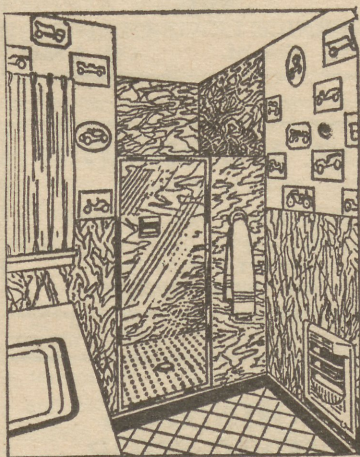

Capra said. "Peter Peterson (the youthful president of Bell & Howell) proves that ability and not age is what's needed to head up a major industrial corporation. And Van Cliburn has created an amazing wave of interest in classical music; by becoming a genuine box office idol, he has probably been responsible for introducing good music to millions of youngsters."

8,000 Boys

The Boys' Club of New York, founded over 85 years ago, serves over 8,000 boys in New York City. Its trained staff and volunteers furnish leadership and example to help direct young ambitions into constructive channels. Selection of the Ten Most Influential Young Men in America was made with these aims in mind, according to Mr. Capra.

FOR a bathroom decor that is attractively different, walls may be covered with distinctive marble-pattern paneling of hardboard with baked plastic finish. Marble paneling offers a choice of five imported marble patterns in authentic reproductions that provide the beauty of the luxurious stone at a fraction of its cost. Large four-foot-wide panels cover walls more quickly than do materials fabricated in small units. The paneling's smooth, hard baked surfaces, resistant to moisture and soiling, is easily wiped clean. It has a durable and serviceable base of Masonite tempered hardboard. Matching moldings are available for the panels, as are waterproof adhesive and joint-sealing compounds. The paneling also is made in plain colors and wood grain patterns.

South Carolina Golf Course Integrated

Charleston, S. C.—The first integration on a South Carolina golf course occurred without incident when two or three white foursomes and two Negro foursomes came out to play a few rounds last Thursday. Most of the Negroes were former caddies.

Legal action to integrate the course was taken against the city and the golf course commission by four Negroes in July 1959. Federal district judge ordered the golf course open to all citizens effective July 26, 1961. The Negroes appealed and the U. S. Fourth circuit court of appeals set the date as May 26.

Rafer Johnson Aids Japanese University

New York—Rafer Johnson, known as the "world's greatest athlete," has recently become interested in a new, exciting venture at the International Christian university in Japan. This project is the building of a gymnasium-auditorium, which will accommodate the all-weather, year-round program of physical education, health development, and recreation for the university.

Johnson is lending his support to the raising of a half million dollars for the construction of the gymnasium. It is hoped that this building will be completed by 1964, the year of the next Olympic Games, to be held in Tokyo.

BUS FIRM, DRIVER FINED FOR BIAS

Washington, D. C.—The Interstate Commerce Commission Thursday said that the first fines by a federal court for discrimination in interstate commerce by motor carrier were levied in Macon, Ga., on Apr. 21 against Southern Stages, Inc., of Macon and one of its drivers. The bus company and the driver were fined $100 each as a result of ordering a Negro interstate passenger at Macon on Sept. 7, 1960, to change her seat and move to the rear of a Texas-bound Trailways bus.

WHAT PRICE THE GLORY?

As we stand before these crosses and remember: All those bleak days and black nights that became an endless and stupefying blur of hate and horror. Men, like the walking dead; shambling mechanically slogging, leaden-footed, through the foul muck and ooze, offal and carrion: that was once the proud profane and joyfully alive men-at-arms.

What price the glory now for these? No flying banners here, nor stirring strains of marching bands so proudly walking by. The chill touch of the Reapers' breath, and skirl of shells on high: with the screech and scream and star-shells gleam, the wounded' anguished cry: The tokens of a battleground: hellish din, destructions' sound, and no one knows just why the finest youth, all o'er the world go marching out to die.
