NEWS
In A Nutshell

Atlanta, Ga.—The Atlanta Water Works hired its first Negro meter reader last week. He is Charles Ralph Benton, who was among the three Negroes who recently qualified on the examination which was opened to Negroes following a long fight initiated by the Citizens Committee on Employment.

Pasadena, Calif.—Ethel Waters, 61, who starred in the Broadway stage and in the movies and wrote a best-selling autobiography, is broke today, the Los Angeles Mirror reported. Miss Waters lives with a Pasadena family and "has never been happier," the article said. Miss Waters said she has a bad heart.

Washington, D. C.—L. A. Harris, was one of the most active criminal defense attorneys in the nation's capital for the past two years. But the F.B.I. charged here last week that he wasn't really a lawyer at all and that Harris wasn't his real name. It charged him with making false statements to the government. It seems his real name is Daniel Jackson Oliver Wendell (cq) Homes Morgan, which might explain his interest in a legal career.

Former Ebony Editor
Named Managing
Editor of Tone Mag

Chicago, Ill.—Francis H. Mitchell, former Ebony Magazine Associate Editor, was named Managing Editor of TONE, the magazine supplement servicing 58 newspapers in the Negro press, Publisher Donald W. McIlvaine announced in Chicago.

Arkansas-born Mitchell, 35, resigned from Johnson Publications after a distinguished career there spanning six action-packed years, reporting news at the source from around the world and logging more than half a million air miles.

Mitchell succeeds Marc Crawford in his new position, McIlvaine said in announcing Crawford's promotion to Executive Editor.

Integration

Boston University Journalism graduate (class of '51) Mitchell has made more sorties into the deep South to report the integration story than any other reporter in the Negro press and distinguished himself by his courage in the face of mob violence and incisive coverage of the school integration crisis both at Little Rock and Clinton, Tenn.

Exclusives

With a 35 mm. camera hidden in his sleeve, Mitchell slipped into a Birmingham, Ala. hospital to get the only pictures of KKK castration victim Judge Aaron in 1951.

A veteran of World War II and a member of Sigma Delta Chi national journalistic society, Mitchell, a senior consultant, has worked with the Florida A. and M. Inter-scholastic Press Workshop for the past four years.

Rare Skill

A Photo-Journalist of rare skill and former Managing Editor of the Norfolk Journal and Guide, Mitchell's foreign correspondence includes Cuba, Korea, Japan, Okinawa and the Philippines.

Said Publisher McIlvaine: "Mitchell is the man we've been looking for to help give our readers the very best in a very demanding age."

Charges Florida Legislative
Group Equates Integration
Efforts, Red Activity Same

New Orleans, La.—Aubrey W. Williams, president of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc., has charged that a Florida legislative committee which recently attacked that organization, "equates subversive activity with working for integration, and communism with advocacy of equal treatment under law."

Committee Charges

Another SCEF official, Mrs. Anne Braden, also charged that the committee is "not really afraid of communism but of democracy." Mrs. Braden is field secretary for SCEF and the wife of Carl Braden, who was one of the main targets in a report presented to the 1961 Florida Legislature by the Florida Legislative Investigation Committee.

Letter

Mrs. Braden made her charge in a memorandum mailed to representatives of the SCEF in Florida. In a letter accompanying the memorandum, Mr. Williams stated that the Florida committee's report "is little more than a series of assertions that the SCEF and those other organizations associated with it are Communist and the proof is that they are against segregation and working for integration. Carl Braden, the field secretary representing SCEF in its work in Florida is singled out and labeled out-of-hand as a Communist, without giving one scintilla of proof!"

"Any objective person," wrote Mr. Williams, "will recognize this attack on SCEF for what it is, a blind, angry sputtering of frustrated men."

Best Answer

Mrs. Braden stated in her memorandum that the report of the Committee "is the best answer to itself."

"It states," she wrote, "that SCEF had set up an organization in Florida to try to get people throughout

'Tax Laxity' Background
Nips His Chances As Negro
Commissioner of D. C.

Washington, D. C.—Just as most major Negro weeklies carried the story that Frank D. Reeves, special assistant to President Kennedy, had become the first of his race to be named as District of Columbia Commissioner, the news broke that the history making position had been blocked when his "tax laxity" past caught up with him.

Reeves, who had been special assistant on President Kennedy White House Staff, would have been the first Negro member of the governing body for the District of Columbia.

Iowa Senator

Prominent in the move to block the Reeves post was Senator Jack Miller (Rep., Ia.). Senator Miller, a tax lawyer, questioned Reeves, a democratic national committeeman for the District of Columbia, about records showing he had been tardy in his payment of taxes three times in the last four years. These included a federal claim of $628.40 and two district tax liens of $63.29 and $51.33.

Oversight

Reeves had explained his tax delinquencies as "matters of oversight." He said that his wife was the family bookkeeper.

(The Bystander learned from sources close to state senator that Reeves had made false statements before the committee, claiming that he had paid a delinquent tax for 1956, when in fact he had not done so.)

Intentions

Senator Miller said he was not concerned with Reeves' intention to pay, but that he was "concerned with . . . your apparent failure to

"More Critical"

A White House source said Wednesday an examination of the records showed the tax laxity of Reeves was "much more critical than was indicated" in the first questioning by the senate District of Columbia committee.

Senator Miller said the tax questions were vital because the District of Columbia has so many tax problems, and relies on the federal government for funds.

"The district commissioners must administer the tax laws in a fair and equitable manner," he said.

"Any laxity on the part of the commissioners would be a bad example for the public, and this is particularly true in these times when there is so much deficit financing."

"I hope that the president will be able to nominate a Negro for a seat on the district commission. However, I hope there will be less consideration given to the political activities of the nominee than was done in this case."

5-Year Term
After Break-In

Robert W. Massey, jr., 36, who gave his address as 1138 Ninth st., Wednesday pleaded guilty before Polk County District Judge Edwin C. Moore to a charge of malicious injury to a building.

He was sentenced to five years in the state penitentiary at Fort Madison. Massey was arrested May 26 following a break-in at the Des Moines Audio Service, 1102 Keosauqua way, in which a window was broken to gain entry.

TodaySends $100 To Have Jail Enlarged For
Freedom Riders

Jackson, Miss. — Mayor Allen Thompson said last week he had received a check for $100 from a Fairfax, Va., donor, specifying it be used to enlarge the city jail to accommodate Freedom Riders.

The governor's office has also received at least two donations to aid the fight against integration and Freedom Riders.

Gov. Ross Barnett said he has received a $5 check from Texas and a letter with 50 cents enclosed from California.

Rev. Shuttlesworth Gets $1,000 Check

New York City—CORE Community Relations Director Marvin Rich presents Rev. Fred Shuttlesworth with $1,000 check as part payment for legal expenses incurred as a result of the Freedom Rides. The heroic Birmingham leader has been involved in four separate lawsuits arising from the rides. CORE has agreed to provide the legal defense in his cases. In addition, CORE has already spent more than $70,000 in bail, lawyers' fees, travel for riders, training and hospital bills arising from the Freedom Rides.

Rev. Shuttleworth Is Most Jailed 'Freedom Rider'

Birmingham—The Rev. Fred L. Shuttleworth of Birmingham, is a likely candidate for the title of the most jailed leader in the civil rights movement.

At the moment, he is under conviction in six separate cases for challenging segregation in Birmingham.

In addition, he is under a $5,000 peace bond which he is appealing; he faces another charge in Montgomery scheduled for trial in July, and his children are under conviction for defying bus segregation in Gadsden.

That makes nine criminal cases pending for the family.

Also in Civil Suits

Besides that, Shuttleworth is involved in 12 civil court actions; in five of them he is a defendant and in seven he is the plaintiff.

This makes a total of 21 active court cases, civil and criminal, in which he is involved.

And this does not count civil cases and one criminal case which he won in the last year.

Also uncounted is a contempt sentence which he has already served. Birmingham Court Recorder Conway fined him $10 and sent him to jail for 24 hours for contempt on June 2 when he refused to promise not to break any segregation laws for the next year.

"Hard to Keep Up With"

"Sometimes I have a hard time keeping up with all of them myself," Shuttleworth says of all his various litigations. "You know, I didn't really mean to get involved in so much; I just want to be free."

Shuttleworth's battles in the courts have now been going on for five years—since 1956 when he organized the Alabama Christian Movement for Human Rights to fill the breach when the NAACP was out-lawed in Alabama.

810 Days

His current six criminal convictions add up to total sentences of 810 days in jail (over two years) and $1,400 in fines. Two of the convictions have recently been upheld by the Alabama Supreme Court; these were a 90-day sentence and $100 fine on another conspiracy growing out of the first challenge to Birmingham bus segregation in 1958 and a 180-day sentence and $10 fine on another conspiracy charge during the 1960 sit-in campaign in Birmingham.

Freedom Ride

During the recent Freedom Ride crisis in Birmingham, Shuttleworth was arrested on four charges in two weeks. He received 90-day sentence and $500 fines on two separate conspiracy charges, and he was sentenced to 180 days and $100 fines on two other charges—refusing to move and interfering with an officer.

It was after the trial of the two latter charges that City Recorder Conway gave the 24-hour sentence for contempt and placed him under $5,000 bond to keep the peace for a year. He is appealing the peace bond and the convictions.

UNDERSTANDING IOWA CHILDREN

SPONSORED BY THE IOWA CHILD WELFARE RESEARCH STATION

Written by William P. Hawkinson, SUI Assistant Professor

BUILD CHILD'S CONFIDENCE AND UNDERSTANDING

Jerry's ball went smashing through the dining room window. He started for the house while the other boys ran home. At the kitchen door Jerry was met by his father. "Gee, Dad, I'm sorry," he said.

"It was an accident, I suppose?" said his father.

"Yes, it was," answered Jerry.

"And just possibly a bit of carelessness?" asked his father.

"Ye-e-s, I guess so," said Jerry.

After talking it over, they decided that Jerry would order and pay for the glass, but that they would set in the new glass together.

Puzzled

When our children destroy property, we are often puzzled about what to do. Certainly just showing indignation and blaming the child does little to clear up the problem. Most children whose parents trust them and give them responsibility according to their age and development hate to break things and do not like accidents.

In the broken window episode Jerry was helped to take responsibility for his carelessness and, equally important, he kept a good relationship with his father.

Behavior

Jerry's behavior in this instance suggests some positive things about his past relationship with his father. Jerry did not run away and hide. He started toward the house knowing that his father was there. And when Jerry said, "Gee, Dad, I'm sorry," it seemed to show that his father had helped him to take responsibility for his behavior by dealing with him on other occasions.

We all want to be helpful to our children. In this instance the father had built up a relationship of confidence that Dad would help him out.

WHICH ONE OWNS IOWA POWER? Answer:

You're right, whichever person you guessed

Iowa Power stockholders come from all walks of life. Nearly half of them live right here in Iowa, but every state is represented.

That lady in the low heels is a school teacher who invested part of her savings in Iowa Power.

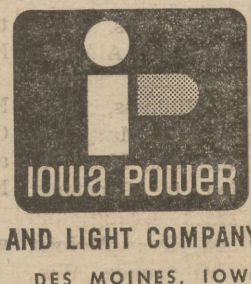

The little girl is an indirect stockholder. She is the beneficiary of an insurance policy in a mutual company which owns a fraction of Iowa Power.

The man with the brief case on his lap represents financial institutions—investment funds, insurance companies and the like.

The young woman in the smart pumps is her husband's partner in a large farm operation.

Then we come to the man with the "24-hour hat"—an Iowa Power employee. He, too, is a stockholder of Iowa Power.

On Chicago Links

Chicago—Claiming he was humiliated, inconvenienced and embarrassed when he was denied the use of the Hickory Hills Country Club's golf links recently because of his race, Negro golfer Charles W. Smith, Jr., of York Center, Dupage county, has filed a $3,000 damage suit against the club, located in suburban Oak Lawn.

He is suing the club, three of its employees and two Oak Lawn policemen, William Keeton and Joseph Lublock. Smith charged that he telephoned the club and made reservations but was denied tickets to the golf area when he showed up to purchase them.

Claim Race Bias

At Tryout Camp

Memphis, Tenn.—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (N.A.A.C.P.) Tuesday protested a racially segregated tryout camp of the St. Louis Cardinals here. Jesse H. Turner, president of the Memphis N.A.A.C.P. chapter, sent a telegram to the Cardinals' president charging that Negroes were given separate tryout days.

Cardinal Scout W. H. (Buddy) Lewis, who scheduled tryouts for white youths Monday and Tuesday and Negro tryouts today and Thursday, said he did so to give the Negro youths an equal chance. "We thought there'd be so many boys there that we couldn't see what they could do," Lewis said.

250 Jeer As White
Church Helps Negroes

Chicago, Ill.—Police Supt. Orlando W. Wilson Wednesday began investigating allegations that police allowed a noisy crowd to form at a white neighborhood church which gave refuge to about 75 Negroes after a fire in their hotel home. The Negroes, many of them children, were offered shelter in Holy Cross Lutheran Church after a fire in Douglas Hotel, 1 W. Twenty-sixth st., Monday night.

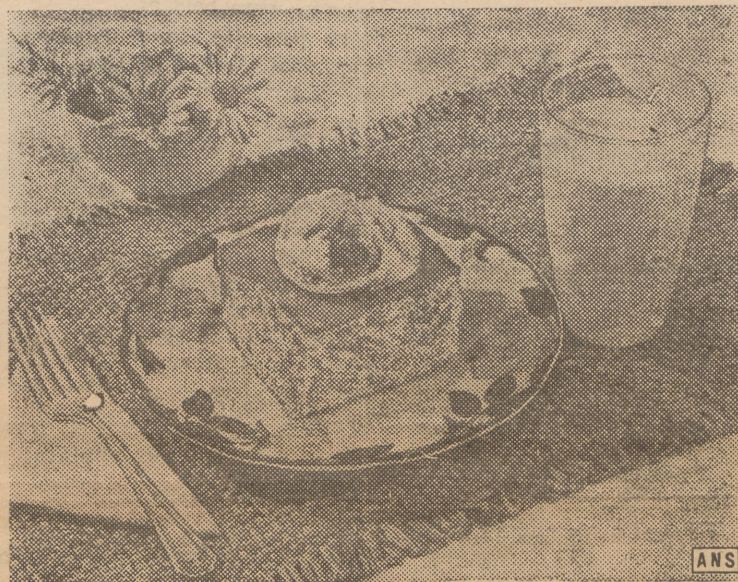

Shortly after they arrived, a jeering crowd of white persons, estimated at 250, gathered. Red Cross officials moved the victims to another church after the pastor, the Rev. Albert H. Constien, and his wife reported having received threats. Police said there was no violence and no arrests were made.

Arrest 5 More

Freedom Riders

Jackson, Miss. Five "Freedom Riders" arrived by bus from Montgomery, Ala., Sunday and police arrested them shortly after they entered the terminal's white waiting room here. The riders—three white and two Negro—brought the number of arrested travelers in Jackson to 169.

Elder E. H. Cluke from Atchinson, Kans. will be here Sunday the 9th at the Church of God in Christ to begin a great revival. You that love old fashion gospel preaching come out and hear the word of God.

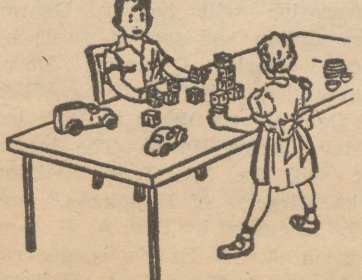

Rev. Simon Estes, Jr. brought us a wonderful message Sunday night at the Second Baptist Church. He also sang a solo, "How Great Thou Art." Mr. and Mrs. Okie Estes visited Mrs. Oleta Smith from Fairfield Iowa, who was at the home of Elder and Mrs. Cooley. Mrs. Elizabeth Carter has been on the sick list for some time, let us all pray for her that God will strengthen her. Mrs. Florence Ridding was called to Denver, Colo., as her daughter Roseanne has been very sick. We hope that she will soon be up and well again.

Old Door Becomes Table

AN OLD door may be converted into a sturdy play table for youngsters.

First select some old water or gas pipes that will serve as legs of the right height for the youngsters who will use the table. Fittings that screw on the door, at the corners, and into which the threaded end of the pipes will fit can be obtained at a hardware store. Stimilar fittings will protect the floor.

All hardware on the door should be removed.

Provide a smooth, splinter-free surface by attaching a panel of Masonite 1/4" Tempered Presdwood with 1" brads. Protect the children's fingers further by applying strips of this material to all edges. By putting on the strips first, the top panel will cover the edges and make a neat job.

The legs may be painted, and the new table top likewise primed and painted or given three coats of waterproof varnish. With a table like this, children can have fun, indoors or out, for years, as the sturdy construction and durable surface will allow all sorts of rough treatment. As the children grow, the table can grow with them—simply by increasing the length of the pipe legs.

Genevieve Answers Beauty Questions

by Genevieve Young

Q. Is there any way to avoid skin blemishes on my face?

A. Blemishes are usually caused by faulty diet, skin not cleansed well or an emotional condition. For minor blemish problems, reduce the starches, fats and carbohydrates in your diet; and always cleanse your face of all make-up before sleeping. To assure thorough cleansing, first splash your face with very warm water to open the pores. Use your fingertips, working in a circular motion, to apply a facial soap containing cleansing cream. After rinsing away soap, use cold water to splash your face, which closes the pores. Pat it dry with a soft towel. For a cool, soothing finish apply an astringent lotion.

Q. What determines the tightness of curl in my hair?

A. A loose, casual curl can be achieved with large wire type rollers. Clips, bobby pins and tiny rollers will give a tighter curl. After deciding on a hair style, select the type of curlers for each area that will give the desired effect. I recommend the use of a permanent-type hair straightener to control hair that is unruly or too tightly curled.

Miss Mease Booker, 1959 winner of the national Golden Girl contest, displays her "Goldie", the golden symbolic statuette awarded to the girl selected to personify the finest qualities in charm, beauty, and graciousness by Royal Crown Hair Dressing and Beauty Products.

Q. How does a girl get to be a model?

A. Many have asked for information on becoming a model. It takes hard work and rigid self-control to be successful in this exacting field. Watch for my next column for more specific details.

Miss Young will answer your letters on "Beauty problems." Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and send to Miss Genevieve Young, R. C. Beauty Institute, P. O. Box 2841, Memphis 2, Tenn.

Mirror pictures are easy to make, nice to have, and fun to show and impress your friends.

It's Almost Like Seeing Double

Yes, when you picture your subject reflected in a mirror, it's almost like seeing double—but it also can give you a very striking and effective snapshot.

Mirror pictures are for the most amateur photographers—using the simplest of equipment, as well as for the professionals who are well aware of the effectiveness of this technique.

A simple camera with flash attachment enables you to take these pictures. There are only two things which you have to keep in mind that don't apply to other pictures.

First of all, be sure that neither your camera nor the flash is reflected in the mirror. Secondly, when you figure the distance, you add that between camera and mirror to that between subject and mirror.

This means that if you have a camera that won't let you shoot a picture closer than six feet—and your subject looks best posed a foot from the mirror, you will keep the camera five feet from the mirror. That's all there is to it.

Find a pretty mirror, a good subject, and take camera in hand to make some snapshots that are "different" and make a "terrible impression on people who aren't in the know."

The movie is based on the award winning Broadway play, by the same name, and written by the talented authoress, Angela Hansberry, a native of Chicago.

Like the play, the movie closely follows the fears and dreams of a middle class American Negro family caught up in the emotional turmoil and aspirations and efforts to eke out a better (economic) way of life. Like the play the movie also has the same group of stars that made them so famous.

It Sparkles Plenty

"Oh, look at the bubbles!" That will probably be your family's first reaction when they spy this novel and attractive fruit gelatin dessert. Using ginger ale as an ingredient, you can mold bubbles right into the gelatin, creating a special "sparkley" effect that the family will love.

"What a grand flavor!" That will be the next exclamation of pleasure, when your family tastes fresh pears, top of the season, molded in this wonderful taste combination of ginger ale and luscious raspberry-flavored gelatin.

"This is an idea for my recipe file!" And that's what you'll say to yourself when you see how easy it is to prepare a gayly original dessert that adds real freshness and charm to your late-summer menus.

GINGER PEAR MOLD

1 package raspberry-flavored gelatin
1/2 cup hot water
1 1/2 teaspoons lemon juice
1 1/2 cups ginger ale

As the city sweltered the latter part of last week which threatened to go into the weekend, but luckily did not, we beat a hasty retreat to our recreation room, just completed and finished last fall by our husband, and enjoyed its delicious coolness while the upstairs and outside baked and groaned in the excessive heat. We practically moved "bag and baggage" into the downtown family room, doing some of our household chores that could be done there, catching up on a little reading and letter writing and listening to records on stereo. Meanwhile, we kept up with the hour to hour happenings via radio wave lengths and the daily edition of newspapers.

Information was given to us late last week about a young lady from Des Moines who enlisted in the Women's Army Corps following mid year graduation last year. Seems she has completed quite a record for herself and her commanding officer, Lt. Col. Lois S. Hinckley, WAC, wrote her mother a letter of commendation. The young lady is Pvt. Gloria Jean Webb-Bey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Webb-Bey, 1529 E. 19th street.

The letter reprinted as follows: "Your daughter Gloria has recently been selected as an honor graduate of her class in the Clerical Procedures and Typing course at the U.S. Women's Army Corps school.

"An individual selected as an honor graduate must have attained an academic of 95 per cent and be above average in conduct and efficiency in her company duties.

"Private Webb-Bey's record reflects great credit on herself, her mother, and her early military training. We are proud to have such a young woman in the Women's Army Corps."

It was almost like old home week at the home of Mrs. John (Elaine) M. Estes, Jr., 1012 University avenue when she gave a coffee in honor of Mrs. Edythe Cawthorne, Iowa state traveling librarian.

NO EXCUSE FOR LACK OF PERSONAL INTEGRITY

In an effort to carry out some of his campaign pledges of equal opportunity in the handling of patronage, President Kennedy appointed a lawyer, Frank D. Reeves, in Washington, D.C. as a commissioner—the highest post given a Negro in the district. He would be one of the three executives who run the city.

Reeves is Democratic National Committeeman of Washington, is serving at white house aid and traveled with President Kennedy during his campaign last fall.

The appointment as white house aid did not require senate confirmation. However, that of commissioner does so when his nomination came before the district committee of the senate, a pretty searching inquiry of his fitness for the post was made.

Among other things, Senator Miller of Iowa developed in the course of the examination that Reeves had been tardy in his payment of taxes three times in the last four years. These included a federal claim of $628.40 and two district tax liens of $63.29 and $51.33.

Reeves had explained his tax delinquencies as "matters of oversight." He said that his wife was the family bookkeeper.

This, of course, is a flimsy excuse and more so coming from a lawyer. Senator Miller said "Only when tax officials have reached a point of exhaustion will they file a lien. I hope that the president will be able to nominate a Negro for a seat on the district commission . . ."

This is a most unfortunate situation for President Kennedy for he shows here a full intention to reward the Negro in his official family. His previous appointments have been good. On the other hand, Reeves has nobody to blame but himself for his personal record is subject to public scrutiny just as anybody else. Senator Miller did just what any other public official should.

STRIKING A MUCH NEEDED CHORD

During the past few weeks several Iowa religious bodies of Iowa have been holding their annual convention. And as usual, resolutions have been passed. Invariably their resolutions have included a statement on segregation and equality of opportunity.

Fortunately, all have been forthright condemning racial injustices and calling upon members to follow through in their communities along the lines suggested.

Meeting in Ames this week, the Presbyterians, in their resolutions, struck a note which while glaring is overlooked among many who give lip service but do nothing about the practical application of their pronouncements.

The resolution says "We . . . who have contributed so greatly to the problems of integration and segregation by our apathy, our selfishness and our lack of concern for the plight of Negroes, Indians, and foreign nations in America, in indefinitely and intentionally excluding such persons from our society, our churches and our lives . . ."

Too many people consider the race question something to be prayed and talked about but to do nothing about. And yet it is one of the most serious questions facing the American people. The failure to handle it with decision and uncompromisingly has added to the poor job that has been done so far.

Levittown's First Negro

Family Moves "For Better Job Opportunities"

Levittown, Pa.—The first Negro family to move into this 60,000-member community moved out last week. William Myers, Jr., 38, his wife, Daisy, 38, and their three children, said there was no disturbances such as the one that marked their moving in on August 12, 1957. Myers told Buchanan Elementary School authorities he was moving to N.Y. "for better job opportunities." There now are seven Negro families living in Levittown.

THINGS THIS WORLD NEED

A good ten-cent cigar . . . A bigger and better mouse trap . . . and wives that can cook without a can opener and a frozen food locker.

We received a piece of news from our news hound Frank Massey the other day. It was about a guy named Chet Brewer the first Negro manager in organized baseball. Seemed that he had signed a young fellow for a big bonus and that was news. The thing that impressed me most was that Brewer was called the first Negro manager in organized baseball. We had received a card from this same Brewer guy a while back stating that he was a scout for the Pittsburgh Pirates but nary a word about the manager business was said.

Special Interest

This is of special interest to us because Chet and yours truly were really close friends until baseball and tennis sent us in our separate ways. Still have a snap shot of the both of us holding up a tennis double pennant we won way back in Y camp.

Your illustrious scribbler didn't know a tennis racket from a loud noise. But the lanky guy carried us in.

Boy Becomes Man

When the boy became a man right suddenly he could throw harder than lightning thumping a stump and he went on the road to pitch ball for one of the many traveling Negro teams that was around in the early twenties. From there he found the way to the Kansas City Monarchs when they were really the monarchs of Negro baseball. A young fellow had to have loads of talent, luck and intestinal fortitude to break into that line up. Brewer had all three and made the grade. Somewhere we have three outographed baseballs for the opening game of the Negro National League. The Monarchs vs. Birmingham, Chicago and Memphis and the year 1926, 27, 28.

Pitchers

The pitchers for Kansas City, Brewer and the gang had all low hit victories for the guy from Des Moines. Given a chance the fellow would have made a great major league pitcher. It is no wonder he got a chance to manage. Smart intelligence and a natural leadership who gets along well with everybody Chet could go far in organized baseball. We hope he does. Now we can understand Gene Baker getting the break as a manager in the same organization.

Need Closets? Build 'Em!

THERE'S no need of wailing just because your home hasn't enough closets! Fortunately, this shortcoming can readily be cured, especially if there's a man in the house who can use a saw, hammer and other simple tools.

Even in a room without any closet at all, there must be a corner in which the ingenious craftsman can construct one rather easily with the aid of modern building materials. If worst comes to worst, he can use the same construction principles outlined here to build a storage wall or a foot locker.

Materials often recommended for closets and similar built-ins are lumber and Masonite 1/4" Presdwood, an all-wood panel which has a reputation for "having what it takes." Made by exploding wood chips, these panels have no grain or knots, they are strong, abrasion-resistant and easily painted.

The only guide needed for making built-ins like closets and cabinets is to use large enough framing, about which your dealer can advise, and quarter-inch Presdwood. The vertical framing members should be 16 inches apart. Joints of the panels may be "cased" slightly with a sandblock, file or beveling plane. A slight gap at the joints is recommended for good installations.

Sliding doors may be made in the home workshop, following the same construction principles, or one may install manufactured doors with Presdwood surfaces finished in long-wearing, beautiful colors. They're ideal especially for a storage wall.

There's no need to be "closet hungry" when closets are so easily made!

HEALTH FOR ALL

Leave 'Em Alone

Whatever happened to the beauty spot? Time was, that women without a dark mole or two, painted them on. Now you don't see artificial moles. And people with natural ones have become unduly worried about them. There's a fear they may become cancerous.

Mostly a mole should be left alone. It should be removed only if it is very unsightly or if it is in a spot where it is constantly irritated. However, if a mole suddenly starts to spread, become darker, or gets lumpy, then you should let your doctor have a look at it. It may become that one in a million.

Moles are easily removed and they don't recur. Don't worry unduly about a mole, but don't take any chances, either.—Polk County Tuberculosis & Health Assn.

Moore To Become Publisher of New Magazine

New York—Archie Moore, the eloquent veteran of fistiana and current light heavyweight champion, has added another title to his list.

At a news conference with a jazz background, the San Diego fist fighter revealed that he has entered the publishing field. He is the publisher of Jazz Day, a new music magazine.

Bongo Drums

As Moore spoke of the new enterprise, he got in a few licks on a pair of bongo drums and later cut in on a session on the bass fiddle. He was backed up musically by Horace Parlan and the Playhouse Four.

The conference was held at the Village Gate, a jazz center, and a good crowd was on hand, just as Archie wanted it to be. He spoke freely and spontaneously of the future, as he saw it, in this new jazz world beyond the prize ring.

Quit Boxing?

He gave no indication that he anticipates quitting boxing to devote his full attention to this or any other business enterprise, though. Fighting evidently, will continue to be his main occupation.

Archie was in a very jovial mood as he addressed the conference here last week.

"This is a tired man marching to war and he needs something to revive him," said the veteran clouter, whose age has been stated variably between 44 to 47 years.

Tennis

Esther Myers brought home the runner-up trophy in the state tennis meet at Cedar Falls and Waterloo. But Esther still is not satisfied and wants to win the big one. If determination and hard work count she may make it. She took along Armiller and somebody else. Bell won a match which was pretty good for the group she was in.

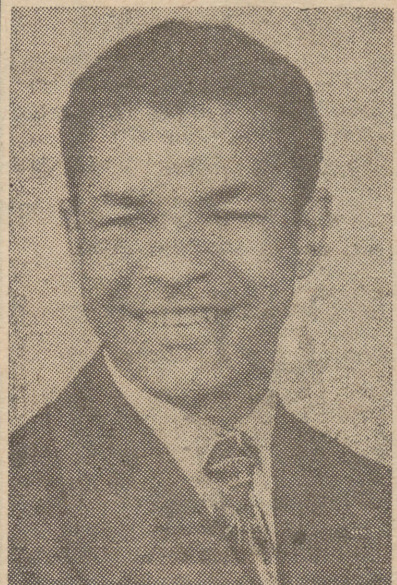

TENNIS NEWS

Armiller Bell and Esther Myers represented the Hilltop Tennis club in the Iowa District tournament at Cedar Falls and Waterloo June 29 and July 2. This tournament was limited to Iowa players.

Armiller won and lost a match each in the 15 and 18 under girls division. She lost to the same girl in the 15 and under that she had beaten in the 18 and under and by the same scores of 12-10.

Esther Myers won the semi-finals woman's match 7-5, 6-2 but lost in the finals 8-6, 6-3, to Karen Moser.

Earlene Brown May Retire From Track

Gary, Ind.—The desire to pursue a new career as a beautician and the necessity of devoting greater care to her schoolboy son may influence national women's shot put champion Earlene Brown of Los Angeles to quit the track after competing in the Women's National AAU meet at Gilroy Field here, July 1-2, it is believed.

Mrs. Brown, it was reported, is finding it increasingly difficult to carry on the dual roles.

In the Gary meet, Mrs. Brown, a member of the 1960 women's Olympic track team, will defend her national championship against a strong field. She won a third place bronze medal in the shot put during the Olympics.

Big Newcombe Suffers Eye Injury

Spokane, Wash.—Big Don Newcombe, former Dodger star now playing with Spokane in the Pacific Coast league, was hospitalized in Honolulu recently with an eye injury which he suffered when he bumped into a palm tree.

Reassigned to the minor leagues several weeks ago, Newcombe is reported to be one of the highest paid players in the minors. It is estimated that he will receive about $16,000 this season.

Newcombe was one of the leading stars on the Brooklyn Dodgers team several years ago and this season played with the Cleveland Indians in a switch to the American league, before being sent to the minors.

Intercity Match

The Hilltop Tennis club will play its first intercity match of the season against Ames at Goode park Sunday afternoon, July 9 and two weeks later, July 23 will play the Des Moines Tennis association at Goode.

Send Yours Today

THE FREEDOM RIDERS
By ANDY RAZAF

Ride, you Freedom Riders,
And hold your brave heads high,
As you face prison, even death;
That freedom shall not die!
Yours is not lip service.
You prove your stand with deeds,
As you ride forth together,
Forgetting race and creeds.
Shall local laws and customs
Continue to prevail?
Is ours a land united?
Shall Right and Justice fail?
The whole world's eyes are on us.
Is what we preach a lie?
If we are judged unfit to lead,
What shall be our reply?
You noble Freedom Riders
Could mean the golden dawn,

When all Americans close ranks.
If so, ride on! Ride on!

DECORUM

Decorum—almost all ignore
Some say it's obsolete,
The way to get by now-a-days
Is stomp 'em with your feet!

All dignity we used to know
When people were polite,
Is hidden from the light by day
And scarcer in the night.
The gracious and the gentle folk
Who knew the arts of living,
Have dwindled to a precious few
That spend their time forgiving.
Forgiving rough and rowdy toughs
Who headline this days quorum,
That scratch and claw their way
Ahead

And sneer at all decorum.
Some day, some day, may God touch these

Who work to spoil all good,
Then every free and decent soul
Can build for brotherhood.
