D.C. Exclusive Club in Turnabout

SERVED 8 POSTAL HEADS—James H. Smoot, retiring after a remarkable period of Federal service in Washington, D.C., receives a certificate of recognition for outstanding service under 8 Postmasters General from Deputy Assistant Postmaster General James R. Thomason. Mr. Smoot, whose son Roland is a physician in Baltimore, Md., began his Federal service in 1917 with the Smithsonian Institution in Washington and moved to the Postal Service in 1924, where he worked with and was well known by Postmasters General Harry S. New, Walter Brown, James A. Farley, Frank Walker, Robert Hannegan, Jesse M. Donaldson, Arthur E. Summerfield, and J. Edward Day. During all that time, Mr. Smoot took no sick leave whatsoever.

NAACP Skeptical of JFK's Message to Congressional Open

New York — Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, commented as follows on the civil rights section of President Kennedy's State of the Union message delivered to Congress Jan. 11.

The President's statement reiterates the belief of his Administration that the protection of the right to register and vote ranks first in the Kennedy approach to civil rights.

Hints reversal

His message pledges support to this type of legislation and seems to hint that he may abandon his previous position and support certain other civil rights bills in this session of the Congress.

The NAACP applauds his stand on voting legislation but, because of the vagaries of politics, we view with understandable caution his tentative and excruciating titillation of our hopes on other measures, such as FEPC, school desegregation and additional powers authorizing the Attorney General to intervene in all kinds of civil rights cases.

NEWS In A Nutshell

Cownie to Head Brotherhood Week

Charles T. Cownie, President of Cownie Furs, Inc., will serve as 1962 Brotherhood Week chairman. It was announced today by the co-chairmen of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, Harry Prugh, George O'Malley, and Albert Berkowitz.

In accepting the appointment Mr. Cownie said, "Brotherhood is giving to others the rights and respects we want for ourselves. We hope that the annual observance of Brotherhood Week will bring this definition closer to reality."

Many schools, churches, synagogues, and community organizations, plan special programs during the week of observance, Feb. 18-25.

Go on Record Against Membership Bias; Step Doesn't Affect Rowan Bid

Washington, D.C.—The Cosmos Club, which a week ago turned down the proposed membership of Carl T. Rowan, Monday went on record as opposing use of discrimination in any form in admitting new members.

However, the new stand on memberships does not change the rejection last week of Rowan, deputy assistant secretary of state for public affairs. (Rowan, formerly a prize winning journalist-writer for Minneapolis newspaper, has made numerous speaking appearances in Des Moines and other Iowa cities.) President Paul A. Scherer told the members prior to the vote that since the Rowan incident 12 of the 2,250 members had resigned in protest.

Resolution

The resolution read in part "exclusion of any person from membership on account of religion, color, race or national origin is incompatible with the principles of the Cosmos Club." It was drafted by Malcolm C. Henderson, professor of physics at Catholic University.

It is the same club to which President Kennedy's name was put up for membership last spring, by John Kenneth Galbraith, U. S. ambassador to India, who resigned from the club before any action was taken on the application.

President's Reply

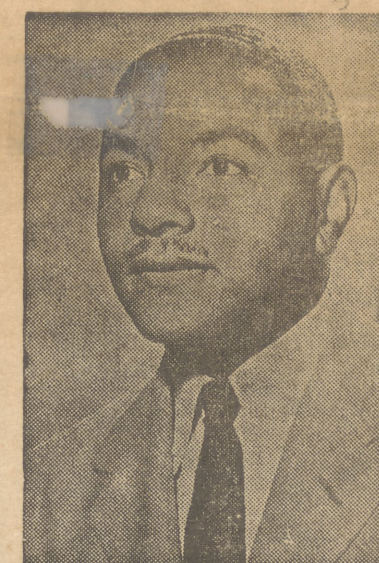

Asked at his press conference Monday about racial discrimination in clubs, President Kennedy replied that that was a personal matter for each individual. He added tersely that his application for membership in the Cosmos club was not being renewed.

The following day the White House confirmed that President is an honorary member of another Washington exclusive club, the Chevy Chase club, which is reported to practice ethnic discrimination in selecting members.

GOP Maps Plans to Win Negro Vote in Big Cities

Washington, D. C. — A Six-point program designed to strengthen Republican organizations in predominantly Negro areas in big cities has been adopted by the Republican National Committee.

At its meeting in Oklahoma City Friday, the Committee approved the report of its Committee on Big City Politics, headed by Ray Bliss, chairman of the Republican State Central and Executive Committee of Ohio. The plan to win Negro support is a part of this report.

Rights Record

"Certainly our party's splendid record in the field of civil rights merits greater recognition and response than it has received," the report stated.

The plan calls for the Republican party to make a concerted effort in big cities to "develop and recruit party leaders and candidates for public office from the ranks of its Negro supporters."

Field Forces

Other steps call for the National Committee to enlarge its field forces to permit increased organizational activities in states with large Negro voter populations. The Minorities Division of the Republican National Committee is directed to encourage organizational activities in the big cities aimed at bringing Negro citizens more fully into all Republican programs.

Negro Women

The plan also commits the Republican Party at all levels to concern itself particularly with encouraging Negro women to work in their communities for the party and its candidates. Special emphasis will continue to be placed on bringing young Negro citizens into active participation in Young Republican Clubs.

NAACP Proposes New Units for N.Y. State Housing

New York — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has been urged to establish within the New York State Division of Housing an intergroup relations office to provide professional "direction and guidance to local communities whose state-aided (housing) programs have implications for minority group residents of the State of New York."

In a memorandum to the Governor, dated Jan. 9, Jack E. Wood, NAACP special assistant for housing, said such an office is needed to supplement the work in the housing field of the State Commission Against Discrimination. It should be charged "with the responsibility of providing professional guidance and reviewing local programs for compliance with state policy."

Receivership

In the area of legislative action, the memorandum points out, "enactment by the New York State Legislature of the receivership proposal would constitute a major contribution toward the betterment of housing conditions for families now residing in slum tenements in the City of New York."

The proposal for an intergroup office in the State Division of Housing and the call for enactment of the receivership bill are among recommendations submitted by Wood covering state-aided urban renewal and low rent housing.

Intergroup Office

In a covering letter to Rockefeller, the NAACP housing specialist expressed the hope that the Governor's forthcoming message on housing "will endorse and make specific reference" to the need for setting up an intergroup office in the State Division of Housing and enactment of the receivership bill to "provide the City of New York with adequate tools to obtain title to and rehabilitate . . . slum properties."

Encouraged

Referring to the Governor's annual message to the Legislature on Jan. 3, Mr. Wood said the NAACP "was encouraged both by your interest in

Public Relations

An expanded public relations program also will be undertaken to build support among Negro voters. In addition to a weekly column now being distributed to the Negro press, public relations activities will be expanded to include the regular release to all communication media pointed to the Negro community of special items concerning Republicans and Republican activities.

Des Moines NAACP Will Meet Tuesday

The Des Moines branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, will meet on Tuesday, Jan. 23 at 8:15 p.m. at Willkie House, 900 17th street. An executive board meeting will precede at 7:30 p.m. Atty. James B. Morris, Jr., is president.

Negro Chemist on Research Team Helping to Prove Fallout Can Be Removed From Milk

Washington, D. C. — If ever an emergency arises and it becomes necessary to remove fallout contaminants from milk, American scientists know how to do it, the U. S. Department of Agriculture has announced.

Among these scientists is Frederick W. Douglas, Jr., a 32-year-old Negro analytical chemist at the USDA dairy product laboratory, Beltsville, Md., who is a member of a research team working to perfect a practical method of removing fallout contaminants such as strontium 90 from milk.

Douglas' function in the team's chain of steps in removing the radioactive element from milk is to determine the calcium, potassium, sodium, and magnesium content of the milk used in the research to make sure the proportion of these useful minerals remain unaffected by the removal of radiostromium.

The young chemist and his research associates have developed a pilot plant at the Beltsville Research

Urban Renewal Terms Of Mrs. Glanton, Powers Expire Today

The Urban renewal board terms of Mrs. Luther T. Glanton, Jr., and Fred Powers expire today. It has been reported that Powers may be reappointed, but no decision has yet been made regarding Mrs. Glanton. She is currently accompanying her husband on a U.S. State Department sponsored speaking tour of African nations.

Bus Burning Case Ends; 3 Birmingham Churches Bombed

Birmingham, Ala. — Dynamite charges set off by persons unknown, blasted three Negro churches here Tuesday night. However, there were no injuries and damage was relatively light—with only a broken window glass to the churches and nearby homes.

One Hour

The first of the explosions, all which occurred within an hour, came at St. Luke's African Methodist Zion church about 10 p.m.; five minutes later another shook the New Bethel Baptist church and the third explosion rocked the Independent Triumph church about 10:50 p.m.

Sidewalks

All the explosions took place either along the sidewalk around the buildings or at the curb, 15 feet from the entrance. Holes up to 18 inches in diameter and 10 to 12 inches deep were left in the ground. Pastors of the Methodist and Triumph churches said they knew of no reason for the explosions.

African Student Guest Speaker At Little Rock Church Service

Little Rock, Ark.—Ibrahim N. Mwenda of Kenya, East Africa, a student at Philander Smith college, was guest speaker last week at Allison Memorial Presbyterian church. Young people of the church were in charge. High school and college youths took part.

Birmingham, Ala.—The legal case of eight men accused in the burning of a greyhound bus in which Freedom Riders were passengers last May ended here Tuesday when six of the men changed their pleas and charges against two others were dropped.

Sentence

The six changed their pleas from innocent to no contest. U.S. District Judge H. Hobart Grooms placed five of them on one-year probation and sentenced the sixth to a year and a day in prison.

Trial of seven of the eight men ended in a mistrial when a Federal Court jury was unable to agree on a verdict last fall. The seven were scheduled for a new trial next month. The eighth was not arraigned because of injuries suffered in an auto accident.

A ninth man indicted on the bus burning was freed on a directed verdict of acquittal last fall.

Edith Sampson Attends NATO Meeting in Paris

Washington—Two Chicagoans, Ben Reagan and Mrs. Edith S. Sampson, left last week to join 18 other American citizens in Paris for a two-week convention with citizens from other North Atlantic Treaty organization countries. The announced object of this Atlantic Convention of NATO nations is to obtain "a fresh and independent look by a commission of citizens" at the problems of achieving greater unity among NATO members.

Dr. Proctor Gives Farewell Address at A&T College; Joins Nigerian Peace Corps

Greensboro, N.C.—Dr. Samuel D. Proctor, President of A&T College, last week, urged 3,000 students and faculty to purge their hearts of hate and bitterness resulting from discriminations which they have had to face, and to develop the tools and equipment necessary for preparation to attain goals set for themselves.

Farewell Address

He was delivering his farewell address to the A&T College family prior to his departure for Nigeria where he will, for the next 18 months, head the U. S. Peace Corps program in that nation. As president of A&T College, he was granted leave last month to assume the new post.

South Running Fast

He told the audience that the South is lagging behind the rest of the nation and that the region must be running fast to close the gap. "Then," he queried, "how much faster must the Negro in the South move to catch up?"

Dr. Proctor continued, "we who are already in a position lower than the average in the South will find ourselves so thoroughly disadvantaged that instead of our condition being improved with time, it will worsen."

Mays Re-elected to Japan Christian U. Foundation

New York — Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse college, Atlanta, was re-elected to serve on the board of directors of the Japan International Christian University Foundation at its annual meeting here last week.

The Foundation is the agency through which 14 major Protestant denominations in the United States and Canada are channeling funds to help support the International Christian university in Japan.

IPALCO Turns On Gas In "Hall of Flame"

Outdoor barbequing in the coldest weather, big weekly prize drawings, a complete display of the latest gas appliances and heating equipment, and a unique and informative display on the story of natural gas were all highlighted on Jan. 15 when Iowa Power and Light Company "turned on the gas" in its brand new exhibit.

Aptly titled, "The Hall of Flame," this exhibit at the utility firm's Service and Idea Center, 823 Walnut Street, is a dynamic new display centered around gas appliances and heating equipment. It features attractive, convenient, and modern vignettes showing the nine uses of natural gas in the home. A special feature of the exhibit will be the awarding of two major appliances each week through prize drawings.

Six Weeks

Scheduled to run for six weeks, The Hall of Flame will display all-gas kitchens family living areas, utility areas, and out-of-door patio living with gas. A section of the first floor has been reserved for an audio and visual presentation of "The Story of Natural Gas." Each week participating dealers in Iowa Power's Hall of Flame display will give gas demonstrations on cooking, dishwashing, and clothes drying.

Outdoor Fountain

An outdoor fountain, located in the patio area, will run continually even in the coldest weather, through the magic of infra-red gas heating.

The Kitchen Planning Service, launched at the opening of the utility firm's renovated Des Moines General Office Building in October, will continue to be available. The Service and Idea Center is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 9:30 to 1 p.m. on Saturdays.

DR. NABRIT

Dr. Nabrit is President of Howard University in Washington, former Dean of the Howard Law School, and a well-known civil rights attorney who has argued many National Association for the Advancement of Colored People cases. Dr. Nabrit is admitted to practice of law before the Texas Supreme Court and the United States Supreme Court.

HEALTH FOR ALL

January and February are the months for stressing dental health in all the Polk County Schools.

The Polk County Schools, in cooperation with the Polk County Health Department, Polk County Dentists, and the State Health Department are again sponsoring a Dental Health Story Contest to help promote dental health.

For the third year this project involves the production of original stories, essays or poems on dental health. The objects of this program are twofold: (1) the promotion of dental health and (2) the encouragement of creative writing.

Original Composition

An original composition—story, essay or poem—of 50 to 500 words may be submitted by each pupil, and the judging will be in four classes: Grades 1, 2, and 3; grades 4, 5, and 6; grades 7, 8, and 9; grades 10, 11, and 12.

Prizes

The first prize winner in each of the four class groupings will be presented an individual trophy and the rooms of the winners will be presented a large traveling trophy. Trophies are being provided by dentists throughout Des Moines-Polk County. Also award certificates will be presented to 1st, 2nd, 3rd prize winners and honorable mentions. Each classroom may submit two entries for semi-final judging.

All entries will be based on the individual effort of a given student as a result of dental health teaching. Papers are due from teachers February 12.

The semi-final judging of the compositions will be done Feb. 13 and 14th. This judging will be done by Mothers representing designated groups in each of the county regional institute areas. Each area will submit two entries at each grade level for final judging.

Final Judging

Final judging will be done Feb. 15, beginning at 1 p.m. under the supervision of the Polk County Health Department, Polk County Board of Education, Polk County Dentists and the State Health Department.

The tentative date for the awards presentation will be Feb. 22, time and place to be announced.

DENTAL HEALTH WEEK, FEB. 4-10th.

The first prize trophies are now on display at the Des Moines-Polk County Health Department.

OVEN FRIED CHICKEN A LA CREOLE

MENU
OVEN FRIED CHICKEN
A LA CREOLE
Buttered Spinach
Mexican Corn
Hot Biscuits
Fruit Compote Cookies

INGREDIENTS:
1/4 cup butter or margarine
1/3 cup all-purpose flour
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 teaspoon paprika
1/4 teaspoon poultry seasoning
1/2 teaspoon black pepper
1 ready-to-cook young chicken,
2 1/2 to 3 1/2 pounds, cut up.
1 cup uncooked white rice
1/2 cup chopped green pepper
1/2 cup chopped onion
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon black pepper
3 cups hot chicken broth made by cooking backs and neck
in water
2 large tomatoes, cut into wedges

METHOD: Light the oven and set at 400°F. Place the butter or margarine in a large all metal skillet, baking pan or baking-serving dish about 12"x9"x2". Place this in the oven until the butter or margarine melts. While the butter or margarine is melting, wash the chicken in cold water. Fat dry. Put the flour, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, paprika, poultry seasoning and 1/2 teaspoon black pepper in a paper bag. Add one piece of chicken at a time. Shake bag to thoroughly coat each piece of chicken with the flour mixture. Place the chicken in the hot melted butter or margarine, skin side down. Bake, uncovered, 25 minutes at 400°F.

Arrange rice, green pepper and onion under the chicken, turning the chicken so the skin side is up. Sprinkle the rice with the 1 1/2 teaspoons salt and 1/2 teaspoon black pepper. Slowly pour the hot chicken broth over the rice. Make certain all the rice is under the broth. Arrange the tomato wedges over the chicken and rice.

Return to the 400°F. oven and bake, uncovered, 45 minutes or until the rice is tender. If the mixture becomes too dry, add a small amount of chicken broth or water.

If desired, serve from the dish in which the chicken-rice bakes. This recipe makes 6 servings.

Tea With Meals For Family Good Will

When planning a family meal, most women think in terms of likes and dislikes of the members of their family. They strive for good nutrition first, which is essential in rearing a healthy family. But meals serve a purpose other than gustatory revelation. . . it's also a time of day to encourage esprit de corps among family members. One of the elements so basic in encouraging family oneness is relaxation. In this connection we'd like to recommend a hot beverage—tea—as the ambassador of good will in the family unit.

Tea not only aids digestion but relaxes the body, relieves nervous tension and provides a pick-up which most folks need—especially parents after a busy day.

To make a good, full-bodied pot of tea for the family meal, it's important to follow the Four Golden Rules—just as it's important to follow a cake recipe precisely. The rules are simple—(1) always use a teapot (2) use 1 teaspoonful of tea or 1 tea bag per cup (3) bring fresh water to a full-rolling boil and (4) brew 3-5 minutes.

A surprise main dish, sure to please the family is Duck Hawaiian.

DUCK HAWAIIAN

(Makes 4 to 6 servings.)

Cut 1 5-6 lb. Long Island duckling, dressed weight, into serving pieces. Remove skin; place duck pieces in mixing bowl. Combine 2 tablespoons kitchen bouquet, 1/2 cup lemon juice, 1 clove garlic finely minced; pour over duck. Marinate 45 minutes turning occasionally. Melt 2 tablespoons duck fat in heavy frying pan. Brown pieces of duck on all sides. Add 1 cup unsweetened pineapple juice and any left-over marinade. Cover tightly; simmer until duck is tender—about 45 minutes. Add 2 green peppers cut into 1 1/2 inch cubes. Cover and cook 15 minutes longer. Blend together 2 tablespoons corn starch, liquid from 1-3 ounce can of mushroom crowns and 1/2 cup sugar. Add to duck stirring constantly until thickened. Add 4 slices unsweetened pineapple cut in quarters, 4 medium sized carrots quartered and cooked and fresh water to a full-rolling boil and (4) brew 3-5 minutes.

Eartha Kitt, famed singer, dancer and actress, displays badge she will wear when she joins Mothers' March for March of Dimes at end of January. For Protecting Walls

ANOTHER use for an old rolling pin is illustrated by courtesy of the professional builders' magazine, American Builder. The rolling pin has been installed at the top of a ladder to be used in painting a house. It has been covered with a piece of carpeting, glued in place.

Other operations required to make this improvement, which simplifies the moving of the ladder and prevents scratching the wall, include the drilling of a hole through the center of the pin, longwise, and the insertion of a long threaded rod or bolt. Washers and jam nuts are then attached to hold the rolling pin firmly in place.

NEW BRIGHT FUTURE FOR NEGROES IN HOUSTON

New York—"A quiet revolution is taking place in the Negroes march toward economic emancipation," Pageant magazine points out in a 12-page photo story appearing in the current issue.

The magazine's spotlight falls on Houston, Texas where the traditional ways of older Negroes contrast sharply with the new generation reaching for a fair and equal share of the American dream.

Titled "New Cry In The Black Man's South," Pageant's photographer Burk Uzzle has captured the poverty as well as the progress that is part of the Negroes emergence to a bright future as he cuts the binds of a shanty-tied past.

It Sparkles Plenty

"Oh, look at the bubbles!" That will probably be your family's first reaction when they spy this novel and attractive fruit gelatin dessert. Using ginger ale as an ingredient, you can mold bubbles right into the gelatin, creating a special "sparkley" effect that the family will love.

"What a grand flavor!" That will be the next exclamation of pleasure, when your family tastes fresh pears, top of the season, molded in this wonderful taste combination of ginger ale and luscious raspberry-flavored gelatin.

"This is an idea for my recipe file!" And that's what you'll say to yourself when you see how easy it is to prepare a gayly original dessert that adds real freshness and charm to your late-summer menus.

GINGER PEAR MOLD

1 package raspberry-flavored gelatin
½ cup hot water
1½ teaspoons lemon juice
1½ cups ginger ale
1 cup diced fresh pears

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add lemon juice and ginger ale gradually. Chill until slightly thickened. Then fold in pears. Turn into 1-quart mold. Chill until firm. Unmold. Garnish with pear halves, green grapes and green leaves. Makes 6 servings.

CHILDREN NATURALLY "GRAVITATE" TOWARD FRIENDS

Some of the changes you see taking place in your school-age youngster may not be easy for you to accept. Formerly loving and confident, he may now seem to have lost his affectionate disposition and to have picked up a variety of irritating habits. He may become insolent and sloppy in his dress. Many children of this age can hardly wait to get out of the house to join their pals, leaving their chores and homework unfinished whenever they can. More of their affection is going out to their friends.

Share confidence

We need to remind ourselves that these youngsters are on their way to becoming people in their own right. They need others like themselves with whom to share confidences and experiences, to show off to, to dominate, to imitate. Often this shift away from the family toward their friends broadens out to include their friends' parents as well. Mrs. Smith's apple pie or Mrs. Jones' beef stew may be rated as being much better than what Mother makes at home. Mr. and Mrs. Brown are "really keen."

Home Behavior

We do not always enjoy hearing how helpful our son or daughter is at someone else's home when it is

Teen Age 'Tween Snack

WHEN YOUR TEEN-AGERS bring home their new school chums, nothing could make a bigger hit than to greet them with a special snack like these "franks de luxe." In their jargon they'd be "the greatest." Takes only minutes to get ready, too, because the franks are split and piled high with a mixture made from packaged pre-cooked rice and other delicious convenience foods. Serve a refreshing beverage, and have some new discs on hand, and the youngsters will surely enjoy this home-style "jam session."

TEENERS FRANKS

1 1/2 cups packaged pre-cooked rice
1 1/2 cups water
1/2 teaspoon salt
12 frankfurters (about 1 1/2 pounds)
1 to 2 tablespoons prepared mustard
1 can cream of mushroom soup
1 cup chopped parsley
2 tablespoons grated onion
2 tablespoons chopped pimiento
1/2 cup grated Cheddar cheese

Combine rice, water, and salt in saucepan. Mix just until all rice is moistened. Bring quickly to a boil over high heat, uncovered, fluffing rice gently once or twice with a fork. (Do not stir.) Cover and remove from heat. Let stand 10 minutes. Split frankfurters lengthwise and spread out surface with mustard. Place in long shallow baking dish. Combine rice, mushroom soup, parsley, onion, and pimiento. Pile lightly in frankfurters. Sprinkle with grated cheese. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 20 minutes. Makes 6 servings. (ANS)

Can't Go South? Try Ham Tropical!

NOW THAT THE COLD WEATHER IS HERE, we yearn for warmer climes. But not all of us can pick up stakes and trek for the yellow sands. However, we can create an illusion of sun and color on our dining room table in the foods that we serve and the ways that we serve them. For instance, what could be more gay or provocative than a slice of pink succulent ham, garnished with golden pineapple, yellow bananas and crunchy white coconut? Try this for Sunday dinner next week, and banish thoughts of the cold outdoors!

BROILED HAM TROPIC STYLE

- 1 slice smoked ready-to-eat ham, 1" thick
- 2 green tipped bananas
- 8 slices canned pineapple
- 3/4 cup melted butter
- 1/4 cup New Orleans molasses
- 1 teaspoon prepared mustard
- 1/2 cup pineapple juice (from canned fruit)

Cut fat on ham and stick with cloves. Place in center of broiling pan and surround with bananas cut in sections and pineapple slices. Brush all with melted butter. Combine real New Orleans molasses, mustard and pineapple juice. Spoon molasses mixture over ham and fruit. Place in pre-heated broiler and broil ham 4-5 minutes. Turn ham and pineapple slices, spread with more molasses mixture and broil another 4-5 minutes. Remove banana sections and pineapple rings to warm plate as soon as they appear done. Serve ham surrounded with fruit. Makes 4 servings. (ANS)

Just about one of the first things most of us do when we receive our calendars for the new year, is to check it to see what days of the week special family and relatives birthdays, holidays and other events fall upon. Had you ever checked it for the birthdays of famous people, or ever realize that January, the babe of the New Year, boasts the most birthdays of famous people?

Among those born in January are Ben Franklin (Jan. 17), American statesman, printer, scientist and writer, better known to the general public for his experiment with kite and key to establish the relation between lightning and electricity, for his "Poor Richard's Almanack" and for his aid in helping to draft the "Declaration of Independence." Then there are two noted generals, Robert E. Lee, (Jan. 19) Civil war leader for the south, and Douglas MacArthur, World War II war head in the South Pacific.

In addition two U.S. presidents, William McKinley, (Jan. 29) and Franklin Delano Roosevelt, (Jan. 30) who served four consecutive terms.

We had a note from Mrs. Agnes D. Snow of Emporia, Kans., earlier this week. She wrote: "Just a note to let my friends in Des Moines know I arrived there Dec. 22. Finally got a truck to take me to my mother's on Dec. 23. Stood up all the way on the Rock Island train, so I went in and stayed. Left Des Moines Dec. 29 and almost had to stand up again.

"I am still resting. Hope to get back this spring so I can get around. My birthday was Jan. 5 and we had six inches of snow!! Hope Victor did not have too much snow for his birthday. Still enjoy the Bystander. Everyone seems to be doing things." Mrs. Snow was referring to our son, Victor. He had nice weather which was followed the next week by some of the coldest temperatures in many years here.

Mr. I. L. White, 1228 Dixon street, who has been active in the Drake recital groups and the Des Moines community Playhouse for a number of years, was telling a fellow postal clerk, his method of recalling his lines at inopportune moments when his mind was a total blank "I just stand there as if I am deep in thought and studying how to begin, and usually my lines come back to me. If I am in a play, I usually try to improvise," he said.

During her recent confinement at her home due to an ankle injury, Miss Charlene Wharton, 2401 School street and Willkie House director, was aided greatly by her neighbor, Mrs. Lee Lewis. Mrs. Lewis and her air force husband, Sgt. Lewis, live in the downstairs apartment.

Mrs. Lewis helped Miss Wharton with chores she was unable to do, brought her mail, made and changed her bed and gave her invaluable moral support.

In additional Miss Wharton also was able to keep in close contact with Willkie House through two staff members, Mrs. Mary Rollison, secretary-bookkeeper, and Kenneth Whitney, athletic director, who brought important reports and communications to her, as well as kept her informed on activities at the agency.

We went out to Waveland library, 4110 University avenue, to view the antique collection of Mrs. Ellaine Estes, reference librarian at the Des Moines Library.

The collection, mostly culinary utensils would bring back nostalgic memories of our great-grandparents. Any one viewing the collection will probably recall seeing one or more similar items in their homes or those of their relatives.

The items on display included a babaka cake pan, iron kettle, pancake griddle, milk and cream strainer, lemon squeezer, butter melter, ladle, gem pan, grill, corn stick, kettle, tongs, coffee mill, donut frier, butter press, fruit jar, sad iron, chopper, clay jug, dough bowl, waffle iron, monks pan, muffin pan and bacon and eggs skillet.

All are made of wood or cast iron. Mrs. Estes, who follows in the antique collecting footsteps of her mother, Mrs. James Graham of Springfield, Mo., is the wife of Mr. John M. Estes, Jr. Their home at 1012 University is full of antiques and rare pieces, collected through the years.

Better Breakfasts—Better Grades

Better grades, better work, better attitudes from Better Breakfasts. With vacations over, youngsters going back to school, and everyone back on a schedule, this is the time to establish good eating habits for every member of the family.

For in recent studies at a distinguished medical school of a leading mid-west university, it has been shown that omitting the morning meal may result in the lowering of the mental and physical efficiency of young women, young men, and old men during the late morning hours.

The findings of the newest of these scientific tests, a study conducted with boys 12 to 14 years of age, show that maximum work rate and maximum work output were significantly less in the late morning hours when breakfast was omitted.

From the teachers' observations and records, it was the consensus of the school authorities that the omission of breakfast exerted a significant detrimental effect both on the attitude and scholastic attainment of the boys who followed this practice during the time they were in school.

The subjects showed no significant change in body weight whether they ate no breakfast or a basic cereal breakfast so long as their total caloric intake per day was not changed.

The quickest, easiest, and least expensive of all breakfasts is the cereal breakfast, which is as effective nutritionally as other breakfasts. Using the nationally accepted basic breakfast pattern of fruit, cereal, milk, bread and butter, 3/4 to 1 1/2 of the day's total food requirements is provided.

Here's a breakfast to start the day right—baked apple, a large casserole of piping-hot oatmeal with butter melting into it—to be topped with a liberal sprinkling of cinnamon and sugar; milk for cereal and as beverage, and hot muffins. When you eat a basic cereal breakfast like this, you will work better, think better, and be calmer and steadier.

SHYING AWAY FROM
PLATFORM PLEDGES

The Democratic platform of 1960 as well as that of the Republicans promised prompt passage of civil rights laws. President Kennedy accepted that plank and campaigned hard on it. But during the first session of the 87th Congress, neither he nor the democratic leadership did anything about it.

Negro groups, and particularly the NAACP, have criticized President Kennedy for reneging on the promise. However, it must be recognized that President Kennedy has made a number of outstanding appointments and the justice department has been alert to do a good job with the laws already on the statute books and has shown a desire to rectify some injustices. Executive orders, as were used by predecessors in an attempt to correct injustices in many instances, don't stand up.

It has been said often that dictatorship is not bad as long as there is a good dictator. So are executive orders and those who issue them. But good dictators are not to be had always and occasionally bad ones are in power, and it is then that some people suffer.

Most of the progress Negroes have made in recent years has come by applying the law. And in many instances, some have opposed what was going on but preferred to obey the law. Here in Iowa, conditions have improved because the law fixed standards to follow. Had these improvements waited for the public to be educated, many would have been left in status quo with discrimination going on which now is out of the window.

It is apparent that President Kennedy does not wish to antagonize his leadership in Congress which is in the hands of southerners principally. He feels that other measures which other than civil rights which he had pledged of passage would be in jeopardy. He feels that it is easier to explain this to Negroes than the southern wing of the party.

It is apparent that the big city vote in northern cities saved the election for the Democrats in 1960. The efficient political machines have kept Negroes fooled that left with relief—a horrible thing—and hand-outs from political henchmen that seem to convince them that their salvation is in keeping them in power.

On the other hand, Negroes are on relief far exceeding their population proportionally, many of whom joined with labor unions to elect Democrat officials but who use their position in unions to keep Negroes—men particularly—out of jobs.

The Bystander does not oppose unions which do not discriminate against Negro membership. But as one looks around to see who is employed, he finds that Negroes fare worse in the highly organized unions. In other words, Negro labor supports the party of union choice but labor does not reward them in keeping with that support.

This all adds up to the unwillingness to carry out platform pledges to the very group which cast the deciding ballots to elect President Kennedy.

TRY BEGINNERS AND UPGRADE THEM

On several occasions, the Des Moines Commission on Human Rights and other groups have been asked to find clerks and stenographers in the upper brackets of employment by some of the fine institutions in Des Moines. And unfortunately, none was available for most qualified Negro women are employed—and in a great many instances in good jobs.

Two things are drawbacks in this situation: many girls who finish high schools are not willing to pursue their studies further or are not willing to begin at the bottom and work up due, in part to the policy of once in a job, the worker never gets a promotion.

The Bystander would suggest that firms desiring to adopt a more liberal policy of hiring Negroes that if top level help is not available that they hire youngsters with potentials but little experience and promote them as they become proficient.

Unfortunately, many business houses are trying to do their share of integrating their employees but they must use the same system of producing top notch employees among Negroes as is done with other groups.

Last Sunday was a real day for yours truly. In the beginning we watched a movie of about 1932 that took us back to the days of our own semi-pro football days. We had a team called the Bulldogs and nobody ran over us. Our team was modeled after the great Notre Dame teams of that era. Saw the movie based on the life of the coach of those teams, Knute Rockne. It brought back the days that we had lived an incident that we recalled as if it happened yesterday.

Old Uniforms

The old football uniforms and the big ball were all part of that day when all a guy needed to play football was heart and desire. Size didn't matter as it does now. There was some great pint sized linemen and line backers then who would not be big enough to be the football now. Of course in those days the movie industry brought out a football movie about every fall. The hero always made the winning score in the last minute of play but it was always fun to watch the pictures.

Pro Bowl Game

Then we saw the pro bowl game and watched Jim Brown ramble seventy yards for a TD to put his team ahead only to commit a fumble that let the East score the winning touchdown. We wonder what makes even the pros fumble sometime? It is necessarily a hard tackle. The contact at just the right time against a players arm is sometimes just enough. And then it doesn't have to be very hard and the ball would pop loose. Between Brown and Night Train Lane for the West Negroes had themselves quite a day in that game. But we looked in vain for linemen.

Basketball

Drake has just about the best team in Bulldog cage history in just about the toughest league in cage history. There record will be outstanding no matter what they do because of the opposition.

Iowa is determined to have an All America in Don Nelson who could be so much better if he had some outstanding help. Maybe he will get it. Still wish the Hawks could have kept Connie Hawkins.

Andy Hankins Among
High Sports Scholars

Iowa City, Ia.—According to reports released by the University Monday this year's basketball squad is in fine academic shape as the first semester nears the end.

Above Average

Last year, four of the starters failed first semester courses.

This year's squad, however, has a grade-point average above the all-university and all-men's figures.

The squad's cumulative average is 2.5, out of a possible 4.0.

The all-men's average at the end of the spring semester of 1961 was 2.27 and the all-university average was 2.38.

Medical School

The three cagers with the highest grade points are preparing for medical school.

They are Dick Shaw, Des Moines junior, with 3.36; Sophomore Andy Hankins with 3.19; and Clarion junior Tom Purcell with 2.95.

Co-Capt. Joe Novak has a 2.93 average in pre-law.

Banks Touring with Harlem
Globetrotters; Emcees, Signs
Autographs During Halftime

Chicago — Ernie Banks, baseball's greatest slugging shortstop, is now a grand slam attraction with Abe Saperstein's famous Harlem Globetrotters basketball team.

The tall, slim Chicago Cub star is currently on a month-long tour with the dazzling Trotters, who are playing to capacity crowds on the west coast. Ernie is not a part of the Globetrotters court magic, however.

Personal Appearances

He is making personal appearances with Saperstein's fabulous cage crew, signing autographs before and after games, and also serving as the master of ceremonies during the Globetrotters' sparkling half-time entertainment show.

Ernie, who was a basketball star during his high school days in Dallas, Texas, says he would like nothing better than to put on a uniform and play with the Trotters.

Afraid of Injury

"However," he explained when he joined the Globetrotter organization for the tour through California and the northwest, "Phil Wrigley (owner of the Cubs) made me promise that I wouldn't play basketball on this trip. He gave me permission to make the tour with the understanding that I would confine my activities to meeting and talking with the fans in the various towns and introduce the acts during the half-time shows.

"Mr. Wrigley said he is afraid I might get hurt if I play basketball. After all, spring training isn't far off, you know."

Greatest Hitters

No one can blame the Cub owner for his fears. Banks is not only one of the greatest hitters in the big league history but, also, the Cubs' outstanding player. Chicago fans refer to the 32-year-old home run king as "Mr. Cub," a tribute he has owned for nine of his ten major league seasons.

Ernie is not only the greatest Cub shortstop of all time, but also one of the most brilliant in big league history. Wrigley calls him "the finest player, on and off the field, we've ever had."

League Records

Despite the fact that he was hampered by injuries most of the 1961 season, Banks managed to slam 29 home runs and hit .278 in 138 games. He has set many major league records since he came to the majors from the Kansas City Monarchs in 1953, including: Only player to ever win the National League most valuable player award two years in succession, 1958 and 1959; Led the major league's shortstop in fielding in 1959, with a record .985 fielding percentage, and his mark of only 12 errors also set a big league record, and in 1955, set a record for grand slam homers (5) for one season.

Hollis to Have
Wrist Operation

Iowa City, Ia. — Wilburn Hollis, Iowa quarterback who has had his broken right wrist in a cast for three months, will undergo an operation. The bone has failed to heal properly.

WILBURN HOLLIS
Iowa Quarterback

After bone-grafting procedure, the wrist should be as strong as before the injury, doctors have told Hollis.

The former Iowa star broke the bone in the first half of the Southern California game Oct. 7 and did not play in the Hawks' last seven games.

son. Baltimore's Jim Gentile tied that mark last season.

Those are just a few of Ernie's accomplishments and some of the reasons why his salary—an estimated 70,000—is among the first five in the major leagues and second only in the National League to the paycheck drawn down by San Francisco's Willie Mays.

Spring Training

As soon as Ernie completes his tour with the Globetrotters, he will head for Mesa, Arizona, and spring training. The 1962 season will be his tenth in the big leagues. He says he has been a Globetrotter fan as long as he can remember.

"When I was just a kid in Dallas," the Cubs sensational shortstop says, "I used to save up my pennies so I could go see the Trotters play when they came to town. Traveling around with them is a lot of fun because I get to see them play every night."

Natural Athlete

"If my baseball career hadn't turned out so successfully, I am sure my goal in life would have been to be a god enough basketball player to have played with the Globetrotters.

Saperstein, who was one of the first to recommend Banks as a major league shortstop, says: "Ernie would have been just as good in basketball as he is in baseball. He is a natural athlete. We are glad to have him with us on this tour."

CHARITY

Perhaps my faith is like my race,

An accident of birth

Determined only by the place

Where first I came to earth.

So for the faiths of every land,

Though many they may be,

If some I cannot understand,

Lord, give me charity.

The faith my fathers died to keep,

The quest for God and life,

Took them o'er mountains high and steep;

Through struggle, stress and strife,

They served their God as they knew how,

In fashion strange to me;

But if I cannot take their vow,

Lord, give me charity.

And if my neighbors go to church

To learn a difference creed;

For God in other ways to search,

And seek the help they need;

Although their forms to me seem odd,

Their ways too far to see,

If through their prayers they come to God,

Lord, give me charity.

Had I been born 'neath China's skies,

To ancestors I'd pray;

Had India met my op'ning eyes,

I'd bow to Brahma's sway.

The creed I hold derives its plan

CHARITY

Perhaps my faith is like my race,

An accident of birth

Determined only by the place

Where first I came to earth.

So for the faiths of every land,

Though many they may be,

If some I cannot understand,

Lord, give me charity.

The faith my fathers died to keep,

The quest for God and life,

Took them o'er mountains high and steep;

Through struggle, stress and strife,

They served their God as they knew how,

In fashion strange to me;

But if I cannot take their vow,

Lord, give me charity.

And if my neighbors go to church

To learn a difference creed;

For God in other ways to search,

And seek the help they need;

Although their forms to me seem odd,

Their ways too far to see,

If through their prayers they come to God,

Lord, give me charity.

Had I been born 'neath China's skies,

To ancestors I'd pray;

Had India met my op'ning eyes,

I'd bow to Brahma's sway.

The creed I hold derives its plan

From where I chance to be.
So when I judge my fellow man,
Lord, give me charity.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Pity the grouch—he's the guy who has sized himself up and got sore about it.

Well conceive plans clear the way for their execution. — William Feather.

Chamberlain Scores
Record 73 Points

Wilt Chamberlain, who has been scoring hotter than fire and with just as heated consistency, set a record for a regulation game last Saturday night when he poured 73 points into the bucket. In doing so he broke the previous record of 71 points set by the Minneapolis Lakers, Elgin Baylor.

Chamberlain, followed up his feat for the Warriors, who bowed in Saturday's game to the Chicago team, 143-136, with scores of 62 points in two straight games over the weekend.

LAUGH LINES

"Folks," said the minister, "the subject this evening is 'Liars.'" How many of you have read the 69th chapter of Matthew?"

Nearly every hand in the audience was raised.

"That's right," said the minister. "You are the folks I want to preach to. There is no 69th chapter of Matthew."

Rams Sign Bob Smith,
UCLA Quarterback

Los Angeles — Bob Smith, tan quarterback who kicked a field goal for his team's only score in the Bruins 21-3 loss to Minnesota in the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day, has been signed by the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League.

Smith did an outstanding job quarterbacking UCLA against the vastly superior Minnesota squad, led by another tan quarterback, Sandy Stephens.

Stephens was drafted by the Cleveland Browns, but has not yet signed a pro contract. There is some speculation that he will cast his lot with the Browns.
