United Negro College Fund Gross Record Total in 1961

New York — The United Negro College Fund's annual, nation-wide campaign reached a new high of $2,195,821 in 1961, Bruce Barton announced here today. Barton, chairman of the board, Batten, Barton, Durstine & Osborn, served as national UNCF campaign chairman for the third consecutive year.

Reflects Confidence

"The amount raised last year follows the pattern of increases set by UNCF in the past," Barton said. "Our success reflects the confidence of the American people in the 32 member colleges of the Fund and their more than 24,000 students. These colleges are preparing their students — academically, in leadership, in patriotism, in dignity — to accept the responsibilities of citizenship."

8 Per Cent Increase

W. J. Trent Jr., executive director of UNCF, stated the amount raised during 1961 represents an eight percent increase over 1960 contributions, the largest increase in five years. "New contributors, wider national interest, and greater effort by devoted volunteer workers, especially UNCF alumni, sparked the success of the 1961 appeal," Trent said.

NEWS In A Nutshell

Detroit, Mich. — The estate of the late Rev. A. G. Wright, prominent Detroit mortician, businessman and church leader who was accidentally killed during a row at the National Baptist Convention, USA in Kansas City, Mo., last September, has been valued at over a million dollars by his attorney, Chester Smith.

Dallas, Texas — The crowd of worshippers at the Mt. Tabor Baptist church were shocked at almost the close of the Sunday morning service when Dr. M. K. Curry, president of Bishop college, hesitated at the close of his sermon, seemed to grope for words and sank down in the pulpit. He was heard to say as he sank, "I'm very sick." Doctors later diagnosed his illness as not serious but ordered a long rest for the prexy.

Memphis, Tenn. — Officials of the Tri-State Bank of Memphis headed by A. Maceo Walker, president, last week sent out drafts to stockholders representing a dividend of $6.50 per share on the company's stock.

Washington, D. C. — Negroes constitute approximately the same proportion of the population as they did 50 years ago, but this represents an increase over the intervening years. In 1960, the Negro population according to the latest census was 18,871,310 or 10.5 per cent of the total. In 1910 it was 10.3 of the total.

Cleveland, Ohio — Spencer Payne, 55, fired from his maintenance job, shot up the Ohio Overall Cleaning company, killed the production manager who fired him, wounded two other executives and narrowly missed several employees. The berserk gunman was killed minutes later as he shot it out with police after fleeing in a car he had commandeered at gun point.

Chicago — For the second time in its history the Presbytery of Chicago has elected a Negro minister to serve as its moderator. Named to the post last week was the Rev. Ulysses B. Blakely, co-pastor of the First Presbyterian church here.

Indianapolis, Ind. — The guard force at state penal institution now all white, may add two Negroes to its ranks. Arthur Campbell, state corrections commissioner, said two Negroes have applied and are under consideration.

Pittsburgh, Pa. — A 20-year-old Californian made history in the city recently when he became the first Negro to conduct the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra. He is Henry Lewis, a former bass player with the Los Angeles Philharmonic, who was one of two gifted young conductors to guide the orchestra through its regular concerts.

Lebanon, Tenn. — Two previously all-white Wilson county high schools were desegregated without incident last week.

Washington, D.C. — Miss Dorothy Height, of New York, president of the National Council of Negro Women and former president of Delta Sigma Theta sorority, has been appointed to the newly-created President's Commission on the Status of Women.

President Says Unusual Action Taken Because of Continued Demonstrations

Baton Rouge, La. — In a surprise move that left many civil rights leaders gasping, Southern University, the nation's largest Negro college was closed down Thursday, Jan. 18 until further notice.

In a special convocation, President Felton G. Clark told the school's 4,344 student of the decision, and stated that the action was taken to quash student demonstrations. He also said all students would have to vacate the campus and reapply for admission.

Extraordinary Move

The extraordinary move, it was understood, was to weed out campus troublemakers in the wake of last month's mass demonstration of 2,000 Southern University students in downtown Baton Rouge against lunch-counter segregation and job discrimination in local stores. Police used tear gas to break up the demonstration on Dec. 15, and 73 students were jailed.

Deemed Necessary

Dr. Clark said the shut-down was deemed necessary because subsequent disturbances and rioting on the campus by a segment of the students had "seriously hampered the academic program of the university."

Tuesday night, Jan. 16, a band of students pushed in doors, smashed windows, cut power lines, hurled bottles and raided a girls' dormitory.

Call On President

Meanwhile, CORE national director James Farmer called on President Kennedy and Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Ribicoff to "cut off all Federal funds for higher education in Louisiana until these funds are used for educational purposes."

Rumor Spread

Last week word began to spread on the campus that the expulsions

Declares 'Trench Warfare' Battle on Segregation

New York — An all-out desegregation attack on Mississippi, the legal defense of protest demonstrations, and the advance of school desegregation up from "tokenism" will be the major areas of civil rights legal activity during 1962, Jack Greenberg said today.

Greenberg recently succeeded Thurgood Marshall as Director-Counsel of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund.

Legal Inroads

"Within the next year or two Mississippi will cover ground that took decades for the rest of the South," Greenberg predicts. He expects legal inroads to be made into segregated public facilities such as hospitals, parks, beaches, public transportation, and, in the near future, public education.

Legal Defense Fund policy toward protest demonstrations was enunciated by Thurgood Marshall when the sit-ins began in 1960. Marshall stated that the Defense Fund would represent every person convicted in such demonstrations that sought its help.

IOWA REPUBLICAN RECORD

GOVERNOR BRINGS NEW FACES TO THE STATE HOUSE

Under Governor Norman R. Erbe's leadership during his first year in office, a significant improvement over the previous administration in the employment of Negroes to positions of responsibility has taken place. He has indicated that he will fill all vacancies on the basis of qualifications. Race, color, creed or nationality will not, in any way, be a determining factor for employment.

A preview of the trend in policy of the new Republican Administration was the appointment of Wm. Parker to the Board of Parole.

In recognition of this fact, a few Negro Republicans held a meeting recently and outlined a plan to make a series of state-wide tours of Iowa to meet the various local Republicans with the idea of perfecting a state-wide organization.

There are 16 new employees who have been added to the state personnel since Governor Erbe's inauguration, bringing the total of Negro employees to 55; about 7 of the 55 are held by Democrats. The names and positions held by these people are as follows:

Vivian Pruitt, Tax Comm.; Fay Bruce, Tax Comm.; Mary Tilliam, Tax Comm.; Joan Green, Tax Comm.; Donald Murray, Highway Comm.; Bonnie Davis, Public Safety; Evelyn Phillips, Public Safety; Joan Loggins, Public Safety; Gwendolyn Fulton, Traveling Library; Edith Cawthorne, Traveling Library; Thelma Cauldron, Maintenance; Barney Williams, Maintenance; Lowell Tillman, Maintenance; Mary Ruth Simmons, Agriculture; Everett Johnson, Maintenance; Wm. Parker, Board of Parole.

This week, Bonnie Davis of Muscatine, Iowa, a file clerk in the Department of Public Safety is being introduced. She has been employed in that position since last November and files drivers' licenses for driver training students.

Miss Davis plans to enroll in Drake University next month to major in journalism. She attended summer school last year at the State University of Iowa on a scholarship. She is a graduate of Muscatine Senior High where she was active in the senior scouts, student council, International Relations club and editor of the school paper.

BONNIE DAVIS

Miss Davis is one of five daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Davis of Muscatine. Her father is a contractor and her mother is a dietitian at Muscatine General hospital.

In order to give the public an intimate look at these new faces a few friends of Governor Erbe have decided to run a series of articles accompanied with a photograph and a biographical sketch concerning them. Mrs. Gwendolyn Fowler is the sponsor of this article.

Archibald Carey Endorsed by GOP For Court Post

Chicago — Archibald J. Carey, Jr., Chicago minister and attorney, has been endorsed by Republican slatemakers for Probate Court judge, marking a new gain for Negroes.

Carey, a former alderman of the 3rd ward and a former delegate to the United Nations, served under the Eisenhower administration in the Committee on Government Employment. He is minister of Chicago's historic Quinn Chapel AME church, currently observing its 153rd year of existence.

Traditionally, both parties have slated Negroes as one of a "team" of candidates, such as when "several county commissioners or Sanitary District trustees were to be nominated.

Carey's endorsement is the first time a Negro has been slated for a single Cook County office.

in Montgomery entered an injunction banning the discrimination and the Jackson case is currently being appealed to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Fund attorneys are also cooperating in the defense in state courts of the more than 300 Freedom Riders who were arrested in Jackson.

Trench Warfare

In the area of school desegregation, Greenberg sees the current struggle in terms of a "trench warfare" against "tokenism."

"The defense of 'token' plans by southern officials has now moved into a sort of white collar crime category," he says. "We don't get the obvious 'we don't want any Negroes in our schools' argument, but rather, a reliance on technicalities and the concealment of the true reasons for exclusion."

Greenberg sees no alternative other than to fully support such "trench warfare" actions until the total number of Negro children in desegregated schools is substantially increased.

Total

Finally, Greenberg hopes to widen the scope of legal activity during 1962 into the areas of hospital discrimination, teacher desegregation, and voting. As always, Defense Fund attorneys take cases in which there is violation of constitutional rights of a criminal defendant.

Gas Attack Hospitalizes CORE Leader Thomas

Huntsville, Ala. — A mustard gas attack hospitalized CORE Field Secretary Henry Thomas Friday evening Jan. 12 after a CORE action project in Huntsville.

Thomas left Cumberland Church after dispatching CORE sit-in teams to five variety stores. Upon entering his car with Henry Lee James they smelled a strong odor. Thomas says, "We thought it was stink bomb and let the car air out for a few minutes."

Burning Sensation

"We called police and then got in and drove for a few blocks. I felt a burning sensation in the seat of my pants and between my legs. I stopped the car and we jumped out," added the CORE representative.

They called a cab and tried to find a doctor but were unable to do so at first. Then they returned to Cumberland Church. A few minutes later, Dr. John L. Cashin, a local dentist entered the church and examined their clothing. It was his opinion that mustard gas was involved.

Dr. Cashin got in touch with officers at the nearby Redstone Arsenal. They sent a team of doctors and chemists over to examine Thomas and the car. Thomas was sent to Huntsville Hospital. He was under sedation for more than 16 hours.

Introduces Bill Banning Nepotism In U.S. Offices

Representative Neal Smith (D), Fifth District of Iowa, has introduced a bill to prohibit nepotism in all Federal offices, departments and agencies, including the Legislative, Judicial and Executive offices.

"Everybody talks about nepotism and most people don't like it, but nobody has done anything about it," Smith said. "As nearly as I can determine, my bill is the first to be introduced since before 1900," he said.

SMITH

Smith said he had been informed that with the possible exception of Harry Truman every President in this century has appointed relatives to positions, but that the most frequent abuses have been by department heads, postmasters, and agency heads, to whom appointive authority has been delegated.

Fifth District of Iowa.

Dilley, who describes himself as a conservative, for individual liberty to plan, work, manage your own affairs, and own property and against governmental control over life, work and money."

DILLEY

"My purpose in running for this high office is to do all in my power to preserve liberty for our children and future generations. I am concerned in the departure of our nation from the fundamental principles on which it was founded as expressed in the Holy Bible, the Declaration of Independence and the U.S. Constitution of written law limiting the power that government officials can use to rule of people," said Dilley.

A veteran of World War II, Dilley is founder and present owner-manager of the Dilley Manufacturing company and is a member of the First Evangelical Lutheran church.

Savannah Cops Freed In Slaying of Negro, 23

Savannah, Ga. — Another page of southern history turned here this week when Chatham County's police court exonerated two police officers of the killing of a 23-year-old Negro man.

George NAACP President W. W. Law brought the killing to national attention and assigned attorneys, from the Association's Savannah legal redress committee, to assist in the case. Patrolmen C. L. Goolsby and C. L. Diffenberfer said Arthur James was armed with a counter stool when they attempted to accost him Jan. 5 at the Safari Restaurant, a Negro establishment on the west-side.

8 Witnesses

Judge George E. Oliver said at the conclusion of a four-hour hearing that he would not hold Goolsby, whose bullet killed James, who was father of a one-year-old daughter.

However, eight Negroes, who were in the Safari Restaurant at the time of the killing, testified under oath that James had his hands over his head and was retreating when the officers fired one shot each.

Self Defense

Disregarding this testimony, Judge Oliver concluded: "This court believes that he (James) had a stool and that the officers' action was in self-defense."

NAACP attorneys E. L. Gadsden and Bobby C. Mayfield said that they plan to present their evidence to the solicitor general of Chatham County and ask him to place the matter before the grand jury.

Mayfield added that the NAACP is contemplating asking for a Department of Justice investigation.

But Mrs. Henrietta Simmons Grant signed an affidavit saying she saw the incident.

The Negro section of the courtroom was overcrowded, forcing Negro witnesses to stand during the lengthy hearing. There were empty seats on the white side. Another 75 Negroes jammed the corridor leading to the courtroom while several hundred stood around outside.

Mrs. Mercedes Wright, Georgia state NAACP youth advisor, said that the "Negro population of Savannah and surrounding Chatham County is aghast at the outcome of the hearing. This means no Negro is safe in this city."

Arrest Chicago Parents In School Protests

Chicago — Denied a hearing by the Chicago Board of Education, Negro parents have asked NAACP attorneys to file suit for an injunction restraining the board from transferring and assigning students on a racially discriminatory basis.

As the result of demonstrations against transfer of 34 Negro elementary school children from the integrated Burnside school to the predominantly Negro Gillespie school, Carl Fuqua, executive secretary of the Chicago NAACP branch, and 11 mothers were arrested on Jan. 16 on complaint of the principal of the Burnside school. They were charged with trespass and unlawful assembly.

Denied Complaint

The following day seven more parents were arrested at the very time Municipal Judge Joseph Butler was denying leave to the principal to file a complaint against the 12 persons arrested the previous day.

The parents protested the transfer, effective Jan. 2, on the ground that the under-utilized and predominantly white Perry school is nearer their homes than the Gillespie school. They and their children conducted study-in demonstrations at the Burnside school from which the children had been transferred.

Withdraw Children

Later they withdrew their children from school and secured the services of Mrs. Rita Phillips, vice chairman of the NAACP branch education committee, as teacher for the boys and girls in one of the homes of parents. Meanwhile the Board of Education refused to hear their plea and the superintendent of education sharply rebuked them.

Mrs. Marie Powell Buried in Louisiana

Services for Mrs. Marie E. Powell, 47, of 1146 9th street were held at 1 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 18 at St. Paul A.M.E. Church with the Rev. E. P. Williams officiating. Burial was in Shreveport, La., her hometown.

Mrs. Powell died of cancer Monday, Jan. 15 at Broadlawn Polk County hospital following an illness of five months. She had lived in Des Moines 18 years.

9:30 a.m. at the Y.M.C.A. in Des Moines. "The purpose of this meeting," said Mr. Murphy, "is to formulate plans for an extensive educational and fund-raising effort in April, in recognition of 25 years of cancer control progress."

Edward L. Milliner Bound Over to Polk Jury, Robbery Charge

Edward L. Milliner, 26, accused of robbing Glazer's Food Market, 1226 University avenue, on Jan. 2 was bound over to Polk County Grand jury on Jan. 17 following a hearing before Municipal Judge Howard Brooks.

Milliner, who gave his address as 947 10th street, was identified by Miss Carolyn Beal, 16, of 1429 University avenue, as the man who approached her as she worked at the cash register in the store and asked for money. She testified Milliner has a pink-and-white blanket over his head and wore sun glasses, but that she could see his face.

Mrs. Anna Glazer, owner of the store, testified Milliner got $326.91. Judge Brooks continued bail bond at $25,000 and Milliner was returned to the Polk County jail after the hearing.

were coming. The students held private meetings which came to a head in an all-night "standout" Tuesday in front of Clark's home.

More than 1,000 students marched with candles, singing spirituals and kneeling in prayer. They kept their vigil from 7 p.m. to 6 a.m. but Clark refused to appear.

He also said he didn't expect the lockout to last too long. "World opinion and the mixed inner emotions of those who have ordered this will not permit it to go on indefinitely."

Message of Support

Cox said of Clark the school president: "He is caught between the movement for racial equality and the rules of the Board of Education which are designed to enforce segregation."

Spring semester classes would normally start Monday but the shutdown order gave no indication of any reopening date.

Mrs. Mary Jackson Dies of Cancer

Services for Mrs. Mary Jackson, 65, of 1138 Enos avenue, were held at 10 a.m. Saturday at Estes and Son Funeral Home with burial in Glendale cemetery. She died Tuesday, Jan. 16 at Johnson Nursing home of cancer following an illness of several years.

CHILDREN GROW THROUGH BELONGING TO GROUPS

One strong evidence of children's moving away from the "home base" in the period from 9 to 12 years of age is their intense and growing interest in forming groups among themselves. They're big club members at this age, even if membership is limited to two.

Positive Values

Clubs have positive values—they help give a child a sense of worth and security, and they make it possible for a youngster to try resisting adult authority. Children band together against grownups to test their own power, and often pit the group's authority against parents: "But, gee, all the other kids are going to the movies tonight!"

Parent's Reactions

Some children seem to have a need to do something mischievous, to be seen doing it, and yet get away with it. If parents can react to such behavior by being neither too lenient nor too harsh, they will be "getting" the important point these youngsters are making: "We can stand up to adults and still survive."

While parents understand that clubs and groups provide a needed testing ground where children can learn to live with others outside the family, parents wonder whether their children will outgrow absorption in these groups and learn to think for themselves without needing group approval.

Recognition

Once having won a sense of belonging by conforming to the standards of a group, children can generally go on and gain recognition as individuals. With group experiences behind them and with understanding guidance at home and school, they eventually do develop personalities all their own.

That they can join a group and be happy away from home, and to some extent independent of it, is actually a tribute to their parents and their earlier upbringing. However much children are influenced by their friends, they still have strong emotional ties to their parents and family and are strongly influenced by their parents' values.

HEALTH FOR ALL

WHAT'S THE USE?

Most American communities are worried about their slums. And about the people who live in them. We hear much about problems of overcrowding, dependency, delinquency, and disease.

When help is offered to redevelop slums into happier and healthier places in which to live, it sometimes has met with attitudes of distrust and skepticism from the local people. They may say "What's the use" and "I don't care."

Skill

If such attitudes existed in a slum neighborhood where a TB association in a large Eastern city recently worked, they were skillfully overcome.

Overcrowding plus poverty can add much to the threat of tuberculosis. An organization dedicated to fighting TB must also be dedicated to fighting slums. It must recognize that you cannot renew blighted metropolitan communities without helping to renew their people.

Did More

Facing a high TB prevalence in a slum neighborhood, one big-city Christmas Seal organization recently did something more than call out the X-ray buses. First it helped to mobilize the neighborhood so that the people became actively interested in solving some of its immediate problems. Then it encouraged the residents to set up such self-help projects as cleaning alleys and back yards, preventing careless throwing of garbage, reporting nuisances, seeking help with gang problems from the police, and sponsoring recreation for children.

Screening

For the TB association, the project closed with chest X-rays. In screening 2,600 people, it found eight people who had active TB that they didn't know about—each of whom might otherwise have spread the disease to others.

In this community, the effects of the TB association's work may continue for a long time. The community council which it helped to organize has as its continuing theme, "We are the community builders—not at the top but climbing."

Fire and smoke Thursday night badly damaged the interior of the First Full Gospel Church for All People, 1522 E. University avenue. The interacial church was founded less than a year, by the Rev. Mrs. Orzealya Roberson, of 846 15th street.

Also damaged by smoke and water was an electronic organ belonging to the Rev. Mrs. Roberson, also minister of the church. The church recently began Sunday night broadcasting directly from the church building, on a local radio station.

The fire was discovered by Mrs. Peter VanDyke, who lives in the rear of the church, which is a former store building. Mrs. VanDyke said an oil heater exploded while she was at a neighborhood store.

MAKE A SHOOFLY PIE

by Jane Ashley

Whether you are planning a pie for Sunday night supper, for a late breakfast on a cold weekend or to follow some active sports event or a brisk walk, this Pennsylvania pie should be baked. We borrowed from the Pennsylvania Dutch, but used our new 1-2-3 Pastry. The filling is flavorful and just right with coffee or juice.

Shoofly Pie

- 1 9-inch unbaked 1-2-3 pastry shell
 1½ cups sifted flour
 ½ cup granulated or brown sugar
 ½ teaspoon salt
 ½ cup Mazola margarine
 ½ teaspoon soda
 ½ cup hot water
 ½ cup dark Karo syrup
 Cinnamon

Sift flour, sugar and salt together; cut in margarine until mixture is crumbly. Spread 1 cup of crumb mixture over bottom of pastry shell. Stir soda into hot water, then mix in Karo syrup. Spoon this liquid mixture over the crumbs (do not pour all in one spot). Spread remaining crumb mixture evenly over top. Sprinkle top with cinnamon. Bake in a 400° F. (hot) oven 15 minutes; reduce heat to 350° F. and continue baking for 30 minutes. Serve warm.

Note: For a more moist pie, pour all of liquid mixture into pastry shell, then top with all of the crumb mixture, spreading evenly.

1-2-3 Pastry for Shoofly Pie

- 1 cup plus 2 tablespoons unsifted flour
 ½ teaspoon salt
 ½ cup Mazola corn oil
 2 tablespoons cold water

Measure flour by dipping nested dry measuring cup and measuring spoon into flour; level off with straight-edged spatula.
 Mix flour and salt. Blend corn oil thoroughly with fork. Sprinkle all of water over mixture; mix well. Press dough firmly into ball with hands. If too dry, mix in 1 to 2 tablespoons more oil.
 Flatten dough slightly; immediately roll into 12-inch circle between two pieces of waxed paper. Wipe table with a damp cloth to keep paper from slipping. Peel off top paper; place pastry in pan, paper-side-up. Peel off paper; fit pastry loosely into pan. Trim ½-inch beyond rim of pan. Fold under and flute. Fill and bake as recipe for Shoofly Pie directs.

PARTY IDEA: Sparkling Pineapple Punch

Pretty enough for a wedding.

Spring and summer are great party months—for brides, for graduates and for visitors. The problem of what to serve at any festive gathering is simple today, thanks to fruit juices in handy tins. These are ready to be mixed into refreshing punch and long, tall ice cold drinks in a jiffy.

A bowl of sparkling punch is an invitation to your guests to help themselves while you relax, instead of tripping back and forth to the kitchen to fill glasses.

TROPICAL PUNCH

- 3 cups sugar
 3 cups hot water
 ¾ cup lemon juice
 1 (46-oz.) can pineapple juice
 3 pints sparkling water
 Dissolve sugar in hot water. Cool. Add lemon juice and pineapple juice. Chill. At serving time, add 3 pints of sparkling water. Serve in punch bowl with ice block. Decorate with fruit slices and fresh or frozen strawberries. Yield: One gallon or 30 to 40 small servings.

NOTE: To prevent dilution and to keep excellent flavor down to the last cupful, it's a good trick to freeze "pineapple cubes." Just fill a refrigerator ice cube tray with pineapple juice and freeze until firm.

For a colorful punch cup garnish, spear two pineapple chunks on a toothpick with a maraschino cherry between. Cut a little slit in the cherry and fit it over the rim of punch cup.

The flu bug is really taking its toll here now, even though it has not gotten as widespread as it did several years ago. This type also seems different in that it seems concentrated in the nasal area, coupled with a high fever, in its beginning stages. One of the common mistakes most sufferers make is to curtail the convalescing stage and get up and about too soon—thus laying themselves wide open to complications, which are usually more severe.

We were talking to Mrs. Julia Cannon, of 1220 Laurel street. She is one of the homeroom mothers at Nash school. Tuesday she had spent the day at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ray Galbreath, of 1067 17th street, who is ill in bed with the flu and required the services of her family physician. Mrs. Cannon remained with her until Mr. Galbreath came home from work. They have four children.

Mrs. Cannon, who lost her husband about a year ago, has been taking care of six children, ranging in ages from 8 to 12 years, including a set of 9-year-old twins. Five are from the juvenile home and one awarded to her by the court. Three of the children she had before her husband passed.

"It's the best thing in the world to keep you occupied and keep you from feeling sorrow for yourself," Mrs. Cannon said happily. "They are a lot of comfort and company to me, and are so cheerful. And they are a lot of help too."

When we went to phone Mr. and Mrs. Mark Cassell of 931 23rd street, about their 58th wedding anniversary, we got our lines crossed and called the number just above listed in our address book, which happened to be that of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Carson, of 964 23rd street. The Carsons celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary last October.

Mr. and Mrs. Cassell returned on their anniversary, Jan. 10, from St. Paul and Minneapolis, Minn., where they had visited in the home of their four daughters and their families and with other relatives and friends. The Cassells quietly observed their 58th year in marriage at home with only the well wishes of relatives and friends. The Cassells have five daughters and one son, 15 grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Mrs. Cassell said they were married in Muchaknock, in Mahaska county, Ia., and have lived in Des Moines since 1912. Mr. Cassell is a retired miner. Both are members of Corinthian Baptist church, and are members of the Golden Agers and Senior Citizens groups.

Incidentally the Carsons and Cassells have known each other about 30 years and have been neighbors most of the time.

Know anyone in the hospital? If you do, will you take just a minute to phone us, so we can include their name in the "In the Hospital" column? If you are a church or club reporter, and know of anyone hospitalized, please include their names and the hospital in your weekly news letter. Your assistance will be greatly appreciated by the Bystander news staff and the ill and shutin.

SHIRKING RESPONSIBILITY FOR SECURITY IN OFFICE

Chicago, like a number of northern and eastern cities, is undergoing considerable difficulty trying to deal with racial segregation in the schools growing out of the location of large segments of Negroes located in concentrated areas.

These conditions were brought on not by law but by the location of Negroes in restricted areas, in many instances, and schools adjacent to them which require pupils to attend the ones near their homes.

Much of the problem has come about as some Negro families have attempted to transfer their children from the old Negro schools or the action of school officials in refusing transfer where, by their own rules, a few Negroes would go to all white schools.

Recently, parents and interested groups appeared before the city council in Chicago while the school budget was up for consideration. They objected to the adoption of the budget until the school board had agreed to change the conditions of which they complained.

Robert Nelson, reporting that meeting in the Christian Science Monitor, said

"In this latest council meeting, as is repeatedly the case, the stand for civil rights was taken not by members of the group of six Democratic Negro aldermen in the overwhelmingly Democratic council but by Fifth Ward independent Alderman Leon M. Despres."

These six Negro aldermen are elected from predominantly all Negro wards and yet are unwilling to take the leadership in a program designed to improve the living standards of their constituents.

Apparently, here is a situation where elected Negro officials, sent to council to represent them, prefer to maintain the status quo rather than elevate the lot of their constituents. Such people are not worthy of their position, are cowardly preferring to sit idly by while others fight their battles.

DAVID LAWRENCE IS PRETTY INCONSISTENT

David Lawrence, whose syndicated column appears in newspapers from coast to coast, can be pretty inconsistent. And while his conclusions are sound at times, he seldom passes up an opportunity to oppose the progress of the Negro in America.

Recently, he expressed strong opposition to the gain in influence and favor at United Nations of African and Asian countries which have won their independence recently. He complains that even though poor, in many instances, they are opposing the United States, a country from which much of their help is coming. Some are unwilling or unable to pay their proportionate share of the cost of maintaining United Nations which include operations in the Congo, Asia and elsewhere.

Alarmed at this apparent loss of support for the west, he suggested that the voting rules be changed so as to penalize these countries that are unable or unwilling to pay their share for the cost of maintaining U.N.

Well, this is rather far fetched in that here is a suggestion that the rules be changed to fit a situation which has come about recently which would certainly be ex post facto.

Lawrence is pretty well acquainted with the constitution of the United States and knows that the 14th amendment provides that representation in the House of Representatives shall be reduced proportionately where citizens are deprived the right to vote for any reason other than rebellion or other crimes. He also knows that Negroes in the South are counted when the representation is appointed and yet most of them are deprived of the right to vote contrary to the provisions of the 14th amendment.

However, David Lawrence never raises his pen to oppose illegal representation of the House in Congress right under his own nose.

The 14th amendment became a law in 1868 but the illegal representation in Congress continues today.

Of course, this complaint is not surprising and points up very clearly just how inconsistent Lawrence can be.

Jackie Named to Hall of Fame

Adds Highest Honor
To Long List of Firsts
As Baseball Wizard

Boston, Mass.—Jackie Robinson, one of the greatest athletes of all time, received official recognition of his former baseball talents and achievements, Tuesday, when he became the first Negro to be elected to baseball's Hall of Fame.

Robinson, who was named along with Bob Feller, famed right handed blazing pitcher who played 18 years in the major leagues, most of them with Cleveland Indians (also a native Iowan), helped carry the old Brooklyn Dodgers into six World Series. He received 124 votes, four more than necessary.

First Negro

Robinson, who cracked the ice by becoming the first of his race to play in major league baseball, when he was signed by then Dodger owner, Branch Rickey, Robinson then was sparkling at shortstop with the Kansas City Monarchs, all-Negro team. He also is a former football player at U.C.L.A.

Feared Base Runner

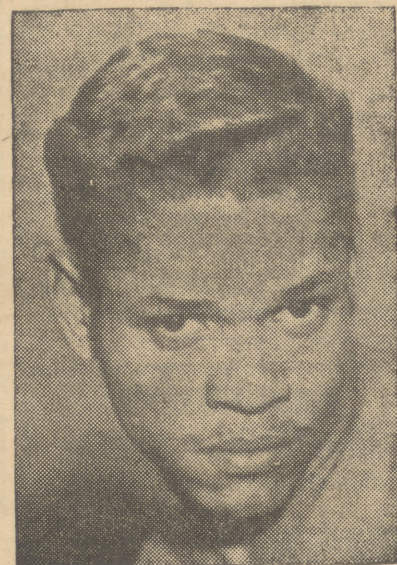

The most feared base runner in his prime, Robinson played most of baseball at second base. He won the National League batting crown in 1949 (.342) and holds the major league record for fewest errors for a second baseman in a season (7) and established a league mark by participating in 137 double plays that same 1951 campaign.

STARS INVITED TO NAACP
MEETING IN MISSISSIPPI

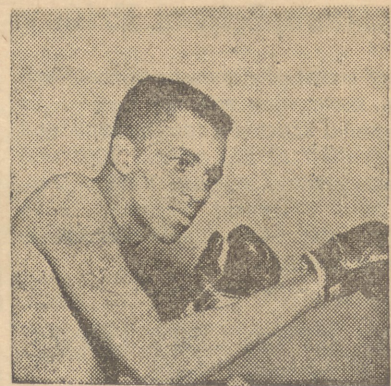

New York — Elston Howard, New York Yankee baseball star, has accepted an invitation to participate in the 10th annual southeast regional conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People at Jackson, Miss., Feb. 25.

The versatile Yankee player is the first of more than a score of famous athletes and entertainers to respond to Jackie Robinson's invitation to join him at a rally concluding the four-day regional conference. The former Dodger infielder, co-chairman of the NAACP's national Freedom Fund campaign, will be the principal speaker at the meeting.

Claims Satchel Paige
Should Be in Baseball
Hall of Fame

Philadelphia, Penna. — The Baseball Hall of Fame will never be complete until it finds a niche for Satchel Paige, ex-Cleveland fireballer Bob Feller declares in the current (Jan. 27) issue of The Saturday Evening Post.

Feller, who appears likely to be voted into the Hall himself this year, cites the case of Paige in an article entitled "The Trouble With the Hall of Fame," in which he contends that the present method of selection works against the modern ballplayer, particularly pitchers.

Ten Years Required

"As things stand," Feller says, "Satch is ineligible because he did not play the required 10 years in the major leagues."

Bob recalls Satch at the peak of his career as they barnstormed against each other. He says that when Paige came to the majors he was getting by mostly on savvy.

"Still," Feller says, "nobody ever stopped Joe DiMaggio as cold as he did. He handled Joe with ease, I've seen Satch walk a man deliberately to get at DiMaggio."

We are glad that Jackie Robinson made baseball hall of fame. We used to have several arguments with a sports writer friend of ours who expressed the opinion that Robinson so often brought up. That he would not make the Hall this time because he was a Negro and because he had not made many friends in baseball. We argued that Robinson should and probably would be judged as a ball player with a ten year record and not as a Negro.

Too Many Friends

We admitted that he had not made too many friends among writers but still he had not made too many enemies either. We argued that one does not have to like a person to place a fair evaluation on his place in history and certainly Jackie Robinson was a definite part of baseball history; and the Hall of Fame is a record of baseball history. Therefore we thought that Robinson belonged there. Well he made it and we are glad.

Boxing

Everybody seemed to think that Floyd Patterson's next opponent will be Sonny Liston. And just about everyone seems to think that Liston will win the crown with a punch. Maybe if he lands that punch but he doesn't have to land it. If Pinkie George really wants to prove that he has one heck of a fighter why not take on Sonny Liston. That is the way it used to be. The leading contender fought for the right to meet the Champ. But now the champ fights anybody he wants to. Oh Well, that's progress.

Basketball

Listened to an argument as to who was the best in pro basketball. Is it Bill Russell or Wilt the Stilt Chamberlain. All we can say is that we would like to have them both on our team. Chamberlain could be one of the best and all time team greats but he seems to be content to set scoring records.

Frank Marvelli of Knoxville. Dave Fidler, now directing amateur boxing here, said both youths have entered the Feb. 15-16 Central Iowa Golden Gloves Championships at KRNT Theater.

Former welterweight champion Eugene Brown, now fighting at 160 pounds, will also appear on the boxing card. He will face Roger Peple.

THE POWER OF PRAYER

When the trials of this life make you weary,
And your troubles seem to much to bear;
There's a wonderful solace and comfort,
In the silent communion of prayer.
When you've searched for the sun without ceasing,
And the showers continue to fall;
There's a heavenly lift in this wonderful gift;
That God has extended to all.
From the magic of prayer there comes power;
That will minimize all of your cares.
And you'll gather new hope when you're able to cope,
With the troubles that once brought despair.
So lift up your heart to the heavens,
There's a loving and kind Father there;
Who offers release and comfort and peace,
In the silent communion of prayer.

Thoughts for Today

Take Time . . .
Take time to be friendly
It is the road to happiness
Take time to laugh
It is the music of the soul
Take time to give
It is a short day to be selfish
Take time to work
It is the price of success
Take time to save
It is the foundation of your future.

TODAY

Today is here and mine to use;
Tomorrow may not be,
And so the present I would choose
To task my energy
The opportunity I hold
Within my hand today
May prove to be the precious mold
To shape my future way.
