Rips City Council on Housing Lag

Region IV Applauds Kennedy's Request

Top Correspondents Name Dr. Bunche Most Influential Negro

UN Undersecretary Ralph Bunche was picked as the most influential Negro in America by 500 top Washington correspondents virtually all of them white, according to an article in the February EBONY Magazine.

In a poll taken by the magazine's Washington Editor Simeon Booker,

Bunche polled the highest (23%) followed by the Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. (19%), Thurgood Marshall (17%) and Robert C. Weaver (5%). Bunche ran No. 1 even though many correspondents refused to consider him as a Negro leader. Said one correspondent: "I think of Dr. Bunche as an American leader who happens to be a Negro."

Others

Other names listed included D. C. Commissioner John B. Duncan, Housing aide Walter Washington, Deputy Assistant Secretary of State Carl Rowan and NAACP Head Roy Wilkins. CORE leader James Farmer received no votes. Although well known to Washington correspondents and with national reputations as Negro politicians, Reps. William L. Dawson, Adam Clayton Powell, Jr., and Charles Diggs were also in the poll, EBONY says.

Second Negro Child Integrated in Tampa

Tampa, Fla. — Seven-year-old Robert W. Saunders, Jr., son of the NAACP's Fla. field secretary, this week became the second Negro to integrate this city's public schools. The youngest son of Rev. A. Leon Lowry, president of the NAACP's Florida state organization, enrolled at a special school for the physically handicapped earlier.

Young Saunders is attending the MacFarlane Park School.

Southern U Reopens; 45 Are Refused Readmission

Baton Rouge, La. — After a 10-day unprecedented shutdown ordered by the president, Southern University, the nation's largest state school for Negroes, reopened Monday. Hundreds of students headed for classes despite a threatened boycott. About 45 students were refused readmission to the school.

Boycott

Among those refused was d'Army Bailey, a 20-year-old expelled student from Memphis, Tenn., who

For Rights Legislation, Urban Affairs Group Headed by Weaver

Kansas City, Kans. — Delegates to the Region Four NAACP Executive Board and Advisory committee Saturday in a resolution applauded President Kennedy's action to enact civil rights legislation and pledged full support to this program.

Delegates, representing 10 states, also endorsed the creation of a department on Urban Affairs with Dr. Robert C. Weaver as Director and will seek the support of Congressmen from Region IV, to approve this new federal department. It was noted that thousands of new jobs would be created under the direction of Dr. Weaver.

Increased Membership

Leonard H. Carter, Region IV executive secretary, also noted that Region IV had increased memberships and Freedom Fund contributions despite a slight dip in overall NAACP national membership totals. The Region pledged its full support to the Missouri Legal Committee headed by Atty. Claude Cahill of St. Louis, in his push to end segregation in the public schools in southeastern Missouri. The group also completed planning for 1962 Regional Conference scheduled to be held in Minneapolis, Minn., on May 4-5 at the Curtis hotel.

Atty. Carter

Also addressing the group was Atty. Robert Carter, General Counsel for the NAACP in New York City. Attending from Iowa were George S. Cooper, president of the Iowa State conference of Branches from Council Bluffs, and Atty. James B. Morris, Jr., president of the Des Moines branch.

SUI to Confer 445 Degrees Saturday

Iowa City, Iowa — An estimated 445 students will receive degrees at The State University of Iowa's mid-winter Commencement exercises Feb. 3 at 10 a.m. in the University Fieldhouse, according to Donald Rhoades, registrar and director of convocations.

President Joseph E. McCabe of Coe College, Cedar Rapids, who took his present post in February, 1958, will give the Commencement address. SUI President Virgil M. Hancher will confer the degrees and also will deliver the traditional charge to the graduates.

Relatives Rob Rochester

Los Angeles, Cal. — Eddie (Rochester) Anderson reported to police last week that two houseguests, one a relative had broken into his den and taken some $320 worth of assorted firing arms, before departing for their home in Beaumont, Tex.

received his master's degree in education. He and his wife are parents of one daughter and one son. They live at 2712 Amick avenue.

Housing Unit Rejects Urban Affairs Bill over Protests

New York — Despite NAACP protests, five Republican members of the powerful House Rules Committee joined four southern Democrats in bottling up the Administration's bill to create a new Department of Urban Affairs headed by a Secretary with Cabinet rank. The committee voted, 9 to 6, to pigeon-hole the bill.

Prior to the vote, on Jan. 24, Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, sent a telegram of protest to Representative William E. Miller, chairman of the Republican National Committee.

Party Policy

The NAACP, Wilkins told the G.O.P. leader, "has noted report that Republican members of the House Rules Committee will vote against a rule to permit the Department of Urban Affairs to reach the floor. If true, this must be party policy decision. We believe the projected action will be interpreted as racially motivated, and that your influence as party chairman should be exercised to prevent Republican party acquiring this stigma."

Telegram

Although Wilkins' telegram made no mention of Robert C. Weaver, Administrator of the Housing and Home Finance Agency, opposition to creation of the proposed department has been attributed to southerners who fear that Mr. Weaver, a Negro, would be named Secretary of Urban Affairs.

Later in the day, at his press conference, President Kennedy, for the first time, announced publicly that he intended to appoint Mr. Weaver to the post. He also said that he would submit to the Congress a reorganization plan for the establishment of the proposed department.

Cannot Escape

In identical telegrams to the five Republican members of the committee, the NAACP leader said that "opposition to the Department of Urban Affairs cannot escape being interpreted as racially motivated."

Howard U. Faculty Member Gets $92,509 Public Health Service Grant

Washington, D. C. — A College of Dentistry faculty member at Howard University has been awarded a five-year $92,509 U.S. Public Health Service grant to continue "A Study of the Head and Face of the American Negro Child."

Dr. Leonard A. Altman, associate professor of orthodontics at Howard, has been conducting the study since 1956 under a Public Health Service grant. He is attempting to determine if racial characteristics have an appreciable orthodontic value. Orthodontics is a branch of dentistry dealing with the straightening of crooked teeth.

APPEAL FOR CAMPAIGN FUNDS

William G. Porter, St. Louis, president National Association of Market Developers; Mrs. Thelma Morris, Montgomery, president National Congress of Colored Parents and Teachers; and George L. P. Weaver, Washington, special assistant to the Secretary of Labor, appeal for generous donations to the March of Dimes. The Dimes Drive opened Jan. 2. Aid to polio patients and birth defects and arthritis patients depends on money raised in the 1962 New March of Dimes.

NEWS In A Nutshell

New York, N.Y. — Dr. Gardner C. Taylor, nationally known Baptist leader, was one of three men named last week by Mayor Wagner to take over the Democratic leadership of Brooklyn.

Miami, Fla. — Charges of conspiracy to commit a felony resulting in a murder were dropped last week against the wife of former municipal judge, Mrs. Eugenia B. Thomas.

Lynchburg, Va. — The second contempt charge in less than two weeks against Rev. John H. Teeter was dismissed after the counsel for a legislative committee investigating the conduct of integration leaders admitted it was his fault the minister failed to show up in court.

Yellow Springs, Ohio — Lewis Genger, a white barber declared that he doesn't know how to cut Negroes' hair and rather than learn would close up his shop. The testimony came before a packed courtroom in the first test case of Ohio's new anti-discrimination law in the field of public accommodation.

Alahe, Kans. — P. G. Porter, grand master of the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Kansas, announced that Prince Hall Masonry has been organized in Labrador.

Chicago, Ill. — A misunderstanding or perhaps a case of sheer indifference on a telephone party line may have cost the lives of four persons in a three alarm fire here last week. Killed in the $15,000 fire which raged through a four-story apartment building were Capt. John Benthan, 57, and three small children, he was making a vain attempt to rescue.

Rockville, Md. — Montgomery county became the first Maryland jurisdiction to enact a law prohibiting racial and religious discrimination in public places.

Indianapolis, Ind. — Franklin B. Jones, Jr., began working last week at the Indiana Reformatory as a guard, the first of his race ever to hold a full time job as a correctional officer at any Indiana penal institution.

Buffalo, N.Y. — Felix Brown, a postal truck driver, was credited with saving the lives of seven people, including three youngsters, during a raging fire.

Detroit, Mich. — Theodore Morgan, a Negro labor leader, last week was named to a key $10,700-a-year post in the Department of Public Works here by Mayor Cavanaugh.

Speak Against Ban On University Parking

Among businessmen and interested citizens speaking against the proposed ban on parking on University avenue from Harding road to E. 23rd street, were two Des Moines ministers, at the City Council meeting Monday. They were Rev. Richard Bogie, of University Church of God in Christ, E. 17th and University and the Rev. James K. Brown of Bethel A.M.E., 1528 E. University. They said the parking ban would cause difficulties for their churches.

Cites Failure to Relocate Many Negro Families in Urban Renewal Projects

In a hard hitting statement Monday Marion Williams, representing the Des Moines Improvement Association, Des Moines branch of the NAACP and the Des Moines Ministerial Alliance, called the Des Moines City Council on the carpet for its failure to make progress toward providing housing for Negroes displaced by urban renewal and for not appointing qualified Negro leaders on city boards and committees.

Oakridge

Pointing out that the city has not provided standard housing for all Negroes displaced by the River Hills Urban Renewal project, who only comprise one-seventh of the families there, Williams said "How in the world (is the city) going to tackle Oakridge which is almost 100 per cent Negro?"

Williams said neither the City Council nor its Mayor's Housing Action Committee has accomplished anything toward providing low-cost relocation housing for Negroes.

"These people are sitting around wondering what they are going to do," he stated.

Sharp Exchange

The statement by Williams, president of the Des Moines Improvement Association, touched off a sharp exchange of words between him and Councilman William Leachman. Referring to the four month deadline given by the federal government to Des Moines to formulate a workable plan for relocating families from the Oakridge area, Leachman said, "This Deadline on relocation is another piece of propaganda for public housing."

Cites Percentage

With regard to Williams's comments on relocation of Negroes from River Hills, Leachman said:

"I don't believe the facts will bear you out. People are being relocated despite the propaganda . . . It's surprising to me that only 11 per cent have moved into so-called sub-standard housing."

Leachman said he believes "the real estate folks are doing yeoman service" in helping relocate families from River Hills.

"What are they doing?" Williams replied. "When it comes to Negroes they've probably forgotten about them."

City Boards

Williams also complained to the council that Negroes are not represented on any city boards or commissions except the Human Rights Commission. He asked the council to appoint a Negro to fill the expired term of Mrs. Luther T. Ganton, Jr., a Negro, on the urban renewal board.

Housing Body

Williams and Dr. Robert Johnson, chairman of the Human Rights Commission, both asked that a member of the commission be appointed to the Mayor's Housing Action Committee.

"How do you expect the housing committee to come up with a solution when you have no one on the committee who has experienced the problem?" Williams asked.

Remarkable Stride

Councilman Jens Grothe said he thought "remarkable strides" are being made here in appointing and

Phony Political Maneuver On Urban Affairs Says Senator Jack Miller

Special to The Bystander

Washington, D. C. — Senator Jack Miller (R-Iowa) Monday said President Kennedy's proposal to establish a Department of Urban Affairs and name Dr. Robert Weaver to head it reveals "a low regard for the intelligence of city voters and particularly for Negroes."

In remarks on the Senate floor, Senator Miller said "voters of the big cities are intelligent enough to recognize a phony political maneuver. So are the Negroes, who, having been fooled by promises of legislative action on civil rights legislation, are not about to be fooled on this one."

S poke For Dr. Weaver

"They know that five Republican senators, myself included, spoke in favor of Dr. Weaver's nomination to be Housing Administrator. And they will know, therefore, that because some of us, myself included, are opposed to a Department of Urban Affairs does not mean that we are opposed to Dr. Weaver, much less to Negroes."

Before the White House political strategists brag about the great victory they think they have won, Senator Miller said, "they ought to reflect on the damage such strategy causes to the unity of our people—a unity so necessary in our fight against Communism. They will discover, moreover, that master strokes such as this result in a loss of respect for the Democratic Party among the American people."

Over 16 Million Receive Social Security Benefits After Jan. 1

Shortly after Jan. 1, 1962 and one-half million people started 1962 by receiving more than a billion dollars in monthly social security benefits; 292,000 of these people, according to Leo W. Smith of the Des Moines social security office, live in the state of Iowa and receive a total of $18,725,000 per month.

"By social security, we don't mean just old-age benefits," Smith went on to say. "In fact, there are 52,500 Iowans receiving survivors' benefits and 11,200 disabled workers and their dependents drawing monthly

Sit-Inner Kidnapped, Hospitalized; Ala. Demonstrations On

Huntsville, Ala. — A 27-year-old white technical writer who was abducted at gun-point after joining CORE lunchcounter sit-ins in Huntsville, Alabama was in Huntsville Hospital today suffering with itching, peeling, blistering skin. He was sprayed with oil of mustard by his kidnapers, according to Dr. S. W. Hereford.

Marshall Keith, who works at the Redstone Arsenal, was at home reading just after midnight when two men knocked at the door. They said they had a flat tire and asked to borrow a jack. As Keith opened the door, a gun was stuck in his back and the two blindfolded him.

Stripped and Beaten

Keith, the first white man to join in Huntsville CORE demonstrations, was then driven to a remote part of town, partially stripped, beaten and sprayed with the chemical substance, checks."

Break Down

Nationwide, the figures break down like this: 11,690,000 retired workers and their dependents receiving $780,000,000 monthly; 3,814,000 widows and children receiving 225,300,000 monthly; and 1,036,000 disabled workers and their dependents receiving $68,000,000.

1961 Changes

Many of these folks are receiving benefits now because of changes made in the law in 1961. August of last year was the first month that men between 62 and 65 could choose to receive benefits (with the amount slightly less than if they had waited until 65). Effective that month, 3,700,000 aged widows and people receiving minimum benefits found an increase in their checks. The 1961 amendments also made it possible for some social security beneficiaries earning over $1200 to receive more monthly checks.

Persons who have questions about any particular area of interest are urged to contact their local social security office for additional information.

electing Negroes to public offices.

Williams and the Rev. William H. Burnette, Jr., representing the Ministerial Association, said they disagreed.

Back on the subject of relocation, the Rev. Mr. Burnette said Negroes are tired of appearing before the council and getting no more response than "thanks for coming."

Want Action

"We have come for action and not sweet words," he said.

Williams asked the councilmen if they think low-cost relocation housing can be provided without some form of subsidy.

Mayor Charles Iles replied he believes some type of subsidy will be needed to build the housing. Iles said the Greater Des Moines Chamber of Commerce housing committee is working on a solution.

IPALCO Joins Power Proposal

Iowa Power and Light Company president, A. Paul Thompson, today announced that Iowa Power has joined 13 other Midwest utilities in a formal electric power proposal to United States Secretary of Interior, Stewart L. Udall.

The proposal, which was submitted yesterday to Udall, will make it possible for the Federal Government to increase, by more than 50 percent, the supply of electric power from the hydro-electric plants on the Missouri River. The power increase would cost the government nothing.

Proposed Plan

In essence, the proposed plan of 14 power suppliers from Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, Wisconsin, and the two Dakotas, provides for the exchange of electric power to take full advantage of Missouri River water flow. This, Thompson explained, can be done without any additional investment by the Federal Government in electric generating equipment or new transmission lines. It would enable the government to supply all the requirements of its present regular power customers for the next eight years.

State Court

The convictions of the two ministers in state courts was upheld by the Alabama Supreme Court. The U.S. Supreme Court on January 9 refused to review the convictions because of technical flaws in the appeals.

Technicality

"We feel," said the telegram,

Asks Atty. Gen. to Intervene For 2 Jailed Ala. Ministers

Birmingham, Ala. — Twenty civil rights organizations in nine Southern states joined today in a telegram to Attorney-General Robert Kennedy urging him to intervene in the case of two Alabama ministers.

The two ministers, the Rev. Fred L. Shuttlesworth and the Rev. J. S. Phifer, entered Birmingham jail Jan. 25 to serve 90 and 60-day sentences for challenging in 1958 a bus segregation ordinance that was later declared unconstitutional.

"that no technicality should be allowed to make two American citizens serve jail sentences on charges that our federal courts have declared were illegal in the first place—especially on an issue such as bus segregation which our courts and public opinion of the nation have so clearly denounced as wrong."

The telegram was initiated by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference; Dr. Martin Luther King is president; and the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc., Bishop Edgar A. Love, president.

NAACP Files Appeal In Alabama Trial

New York — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has appealed from a judgment of the Montgomery Circuit Court permanently banning the NAACP from operating in the state of Alabama, NAACP General Counsel Robert L. Carter announced this week.

Cost Bond

A cost bond of $2,000 was posted and notice of appeal filed in the Supreme Court of Alabama in Montgomery on Jan. 22. The Association has 60 days within which to file the record of the case which was heard before Judge Walter B. Jones, Dec. 27-29, 1961.

Following the three-day trial, Judge Jones made permanent a temporary injunction against the NAACP which had been granted to the state on June 1, 1956. A fine of $100,000 imposed by Judge Jones at the time was later invalidated by the United States Supreme Court.

High Court

Twice again, the case was carried to the High Court which, on Oct. 23, 1961, directed the United States District Court to take jurisdiction unless the state courts held a hearing of the case on its merits "within a reasonable time, no later than Jan. 2, 1962." Not until then was the Association able to get a hearing to determine the validity of the temporary injunction.

Southern U

of about 300 faculty members released a signed statement calling for a "constructive reappraisal" of the university's policy toward student protests against segregation. The signers said they were opposed to segregation and discrimination. They said they regretted the action taken against demonstrating students.

Assigned to Nigeria

Washington, D. C.—Dr. and Mrs. Walter M. Austin of Florida A&M University have been granted leaves of absence for a one-year period, Feb. 1, 1962-Feb. 1, 1963. Dr. Austin has been assigned to Umidiki, Nigeria, to serve with the United States Government in connection with the Agency for International Development programs for underdeveloped areas.

Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Bratton of Mt. Zion Baptist church spent one week in Kansas City, Mo., and Atchison, Kans., on business and visiting relatives and friends. They were accompanied to Kansas City by Mrs. Blanche Landors. Rev. Bratton was guest speaker at Ebenezer Baptist church in Atchison on Jan. 21.

The Youth Council of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was honored by the presence of Mr. Arthur Hayes, president of the Senior council, on Jan. 25. Mr. Hayes spoke on the origin and history of the NAACP and why we should support it. The speech was both interesting and educational. ### CHILDREN NEED TO SATISFY THEIR CURIOSITY

"Can you tell me what I can do with Johnny? He wants everything he can't have."

This question was asked in a study group by a young mother about her 19-months-old son. The discussion that followed produced several suggestions for keeping Johnny busy and happy, while at the same time keeping him away from things which he could break or which could hurt him.

Simply Curious

The first point brought out was that Johnny was simply curious. Children are born curious. One writer expressed it this way: "Curiosity is to the intellect what appetite is to the body, a cause of growth and development."

Johnny was investigating his own world, learning that water is wet, that the hot radiator will burn him that the glass will break if it is dropped. He was learning the properties of things around him. When Johnny learns to talk, he will add "Why?" and "What?" as he comes across things which are new to him.

Suggestions

The study group suggested getting Johnny blocks to build with, toy animals to hug and carry around, and other play equipment that would call for action on his part. Johnny's mother will find these suggestions helpful as she shops for his birthday toys.

The group suggested that a place be provided where Johnny could play near the part of the house where his mother spends most of her time. Then she could keep an eye on him.

Out of Reach

They also advised that breakables be put out of his reach.

Often children wander off, led by their curiosity about many things. The child of 2 or 3 or 4 enjoys taking walks with him regularly will pay dividends to the parent in closeness and companionship with his child. It might also lessen the number of "lost" children about whom we read.

Curiosity is truly the basis of all learning. So be glad if your child is curious!

HEALTH FOR ALL

Quack

"See a doctor—but be sure he is a doctor."

One of the best pieces of medical advice anyone can get is, "See a doctor." When you feel sick, don't trust yourself to diagnose the trouble. A doctor can do it much better. That is what he has been trained to do.

But there is a second piece of advice that should always go with the rule: "But be sure he is a doctor."

Bogus Methods

Every year, the American public spends millions of dollars on medical quacks—bogus doctors with bogus methods. They use seemingly wonderful, unheard of machines and mysterious, secret formulas. At best, these quack remedies are simply harmless; at worst, they can be extremely dangerous.

A quack promises cures, even for incurable diseases. He is generally anti-doctor and anti-medical associations. He is also opposed to proven methods of treatment. He probably advertises (something a bona fide doctor would never do), and he often talks freely—brags, in fact—about the cures he has affected.

Time Wasted

But the worst thing of all about a quack is the time he wastes, time when the patient could be undergoing valid treatment from a genuine doctor. Time that, in some cases, might mean the difference between life and death.

So, if you aren't feeling well, don't dose yourself. See a doctor—and be sure he is a doctor. Quacks are for ducks.

Bacon Rolls

Peanut butter and bacon bits team up to make a flavor hit in Bacon Rolls.

Long a favorite combination, crumbled bacon and crunch-style peanut butter meet in new fashion in Bacon Rolls. The rolls are made from a beaten yeast batter that requires no kneading. You'll find the "wheat and meat" combination of Bacon Rolls makes an ideal pick-up for a light supper of an omelet or souffle, hot vegetable, crisp salad and coffee.

The batter for Bacon Rolls is made with enriched flour to give three B vitamins and food iron. After the batter rises for an hour it is stirred down and spread in a greased, eight-inch square baking pan. Crumbled bacon is sprinkled over the top in rows, dividing the batter into 16 two-inch rolls. Pressing the bacon to the bottom of the pan firmly separates the rolls and gives a "bacony" taste all the way through.

When you haven't time for making yeast rolls at home you can still give your family a variety of tasty, enriched breads. Choose them from the wide selection at our bakery or food store.

| 1 package yeast, compressed or dry                        | 1 teaspoon salt                      |
| ¾ cup water (lukewarm for compressed yeast, warm for dry) | 2 cups sifted enriched flour (about) |
| ½ cup milk                                                | ¾ cup crunch-style peanut butter     |
| ¼ cup brown sugar                                         | 1 egg                                |
|                                                           | 2 slices bacon                       |

Soften yeast in water. Scald milk. Add brown sugar and salt and cool to lukewarm. Add 1 cup flour and peanut butter and beat until batter is smooth. Add softened yeast and egg. Mix well. Add enough more flour to make a thick batter. Beat thoroughly. Cover and let rise in warm place until bubbly (about 1 hr.). When light, stir down. Fry bacon until crisp. Drain on absorbent paper and crumble lightly. Spread batter into greased 8-inch square pan. Sprinkle crumbled bacon in rows over batter dividing into 16 2-inch squares. With floured finger, press bacon through batter to bottom of pan. Let rise until doubled (about 30 minutes). Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) about 25 minutes. Makes 16 rolls.

Rented or borrowed films offer interesting entertainment for the family. They are available in a wide variety of subjects.

Show Professionally-Made Movies at Home

We always thought it's a good idea to rent professionally-made movies to show at home when you are entertaining. We've talked about it before and marveled at the wide range of subject matter covered by the films which you can get on a rental basis.

But we didn't know until recently just how smart this is considered socially. A friend of ours showed us something in one of the top women's fashions magazines that really proved how right we've been all the time. It was an article telling what kind of clothes a woman in an exclusive suburban New York area wears on various occasions. And it showed a dress for wearing when friends or neighbors invite her to drop in for the evening to see a film they've rented to show at home! The article went on to point out how popular this idea has become in the modern way of living.

Of course, we aren't going to suggest that you wear any particular type of clothing for viewing films—but we do want to remind you that there are so many wonderful movies available, both from an entertainment and educational standpoint, that it's a shame not to take advantage of them.

If you don't have a projector, it is usually fairly easy to borrow or rent one. The movies you show with it can be used to amuse the family on a rainy weekend, to fascinate young guests who come to play, and provide an enjoyable evening for your adult friends.

Complaining of having nothing to do or no where to go is an all too common bored wall of youth; however, it's not confined wholly to youth. Adults do their share of the same complaining. Deciding to do something constructive about the predicament and acting wisely, with ingenuity and imagination, is a step that too many of us fail to take. It is not wise to get in a rut whether we are young or old. And we all should be willing to learn new experiences and try new healthy avenues to a more constructive, fuller life.

With that preliminary we would like to tell you about a group of young girls, most of them in pre-teen or early teens, their parents and especially their supervisor. They are the La Petite Debs, organized on Valentine's day a year ago. Their supervisor is Mrs. Ruth Turner, 1253 E. 17th court.

Members of the club are Jaquita Robinson, president; Deborah Turner, vice president; Jane Taylor, secretary; Patrice DeVan, assistant secretary; Juanita Johnson, treasurer; Juanita Bagby and Suzette Reeves. Two other members, Kimberly Reeves and Mary Jo Boston, dropped out.

One day, Deborah (daughter of Mrs. Turner) was talking to her mother, how she and her friends had little to do to fill their time. Since all lived on the east side, there was too little time after school to go to Willkie House, and in some cases, they did not always have the fee though small, to go if they had been able to otherwise.

Deborah said that her friends had also talked to their parents about their problem of not having properly supervised time for recreation. Mrs. Turner admitted that the parents had also talked over the same problem of their children's needs.

Deborah then asked if she could have a club, and Mrs. Turner replied, "Yes."

Then there was the question of how to go about it and what to do in the club. Mrs. Turner suggested a Valentine's party as a starter for the girls to discuss the idea of a club; Deborah made her own invitations from white stationery and pasted tiny red hearts on them. The idea of the club was enthusiastically received by her friends and their parents. They then drew up a list of things they wanted to do and their interests, and named Mrs. Turner as supervisor.

"I was really surprised at their wide range of interests. During the year I have been even more amazed at their achievements," said Mrs. Turner. "They have studied more about music, art, drama, dance, sports.

"They have taken trips to concerts, to the library to learn more about its facilities and functions. We even made a planned tour of the Art Center but had to cancel, but it is on the list for this year. However, they did view some art work at Willkie House and of course, one of the girls, Jacquita, won an art prize of her own through her school.

"They have done their own drawings, even sewing. Each made a pair of shorts in their club colors, lavender, white and gold. They read a lot, each something different, and then they make reports at meetings and discuss them.

"They study points on poise, posture, good grooming. They have gone on picnics and each prepare their own food instead of asking the mothers to do it.

"They held a Fair, and did all the preparations themselves, selling tickets, preparing and decorating booths in club colors, which included dart games, cake walk; made hot dogs, snow cones and pop corn. Their door prize was a box of groceries.

"They do it all; I just stay in the background and give suggestions only if asked. They have really accomplished a lot.

One ceasions another mother, Mrs. Geneva Robinson, 1223 Dixon street, has assisted Mrs. Turner. We have printed this not only for your reading enjoyment, but perhaps it might serve not as an exact pattern, but as a guideline for you or your children. These young ladies have learned not to look to greener pas-

MARCH OF DIMES
DOES A GREAT JOB

The annual March of Dimes drive for funds is in progress. Most people are not acquainted with the big job that is being done by them for sufferers of polio.

Gordon Gammack's program on station KRNT, Sunday night, gave the public a wide insight into the workings of this program. One youngster after another—both white and Negro—and this is mentioned only to show that need is the only criteria for the administration of these services—appeared with nurses demonstrating the progress that was being made leading them back to the use of their limbs.

As this program was being shown, one could but marvel at the long tedious treatment these people require and the enormous expense their parents would be required to pay if this service was not made available by the polio fund. In fact, few, if any, could have paid for these treatments. Thus, many would have gone crippled and/or handicapped for life; many would have died without the service.

So, as appeals are made for contributions be it remembered that although small in many cases, the sum total does a great service for humanity which otherwise could not be available.

RAISING THE RACE
ISSUE UNDOULY

President Kennedy has asked Congress to create a new department of Urban Affairs which would add another cabinet post. Much opposition has developed to the proposal from Republicans and Democrats, arguing that it's just another department to spend more money; permits cities to bypass the states in their demands from Washington and adding more expenditures to an already overloaded budget.

Unfortunately, the race question was injected into the proposal when the President announced that he would appoint Dr. Robert C. Weaver, head of the Housing and Home Finance Administration, to the post.

Undoubtedly, this raised the ire of many southerners who oppose any advances for the Negro, and some Republicans who, while unopposed to Dr. Weaver, yet object to the proposal on its merits. Many feel that this is a political trick to further alienate Negro voters from the Republican party.

The house sub-committee voted against a recommendation that the bill be passed. All five Republicans and five Democrats were on the prevailing side. However, Mr. Kennedy can get the proposal before Congress by a government reorganization plan, but he chose the other method so that if the maneuver failed he could point to Republican opposition as killers of the bill.

There is serious question that such a department is necessary. It subsidizes another possible group which adds to the pulling apart among different interests and thus more divided areas in the national government.

Now that the whole program is out in the open, the race issue will be given as much attention as the merits of the bill. The combination of the opposition, made up of southerners who don't like the idea of a Negro cabinet officer and others, and Republicans who oppose the bill on its merits may defeat it.

MAKING UGLY
BUSINESS LOCATIONS

The Bystander congratulates those members of the council who had the foresight and courage to vote against the construction of an office building near Gray's lake.

The proposal had been recommended by the plan and zone commission, but many groups including the chamber of commerce which feels that such construction should be in the loop as a part of the redevelopment of the city while the garden clubs opposed it on the ground that they hoped to beautify the spot.

Through one ruse after another the city has permitted spot zoning all over the town with a result that business is scattered all over producing less and less residential neighborhoods. On the other hand available office space is growing bigger downtown, besides ample ground is available for new construction.

Office buildings don't add much to the Des Moines payroll. Energy used to get this type of business for Des Moines should be employed to attract factories.

Sandy Stephens Signs with Canadians

Reports Three Year
No-cut Contract for $60,000 Salary, Plus

Montreal, Quebec, Canada — All-America Quarterback Sandy Stephens of the Minnesota Gophers, signed a three-year no-cut contract for a reported $60,000 with the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League here Thursday night.

Stephens, who had been drafted by both U.S. pro leagues, New York Titans of the American and the Cleveland Browns of the National league—said his prime reason for deciding to sign with the Canadians were their guarantee that he would play the position of quarterback—which brought his such fame in the Big Ten and the nation's polls.

Bonus, Too

Exact terms of the contract were not disclosed but the reported salary of $20,000 a year also carries with it, a bonus. The versatile 215-pound star climaxed his glittering career at Minnesota by leading the Gophers to a 21-3 victory over U.C.L.A. in the Rose Bowl on New Year's day.

Stephens had been offered a $100,000 contract by the New York

Titans but balked when the team officials refused to delete a no-trade clause in the agreement.

Coach Jake Gaither
Chalks Another First

Tallahassee, Fla. — Jake Gaither of Florida A&M University, the first of his race to be named "Coach of Year" for small colleges in football, chalked up another unique honor when he became the first Negro ever to address the American football Coaches Association convention recently in Chicago, Ill.

Wilma, Roger Congratulated

Wilma Rudolph Ward, Olympic track star, and Roger Maris, home run slugger for the New York Yankees, are congratulated by Norman R. Klug, president of the Miller Brewing Co., for being named 1961's Athletes of the Year. The Fraternal Order of Eagles-Frederick C. Miller Trophies were presented to the pair in Milwaukee Jan. 4. Mrs. Ward, who won three Olympic gold medals in 1960 and set a world record for the 100-meter dash last July 19 when she was clocked in 11.2 seconds in Stuttgart, Germany, won the woman's award for the second consecutive year. Maris, the American League most valuable player, hit 61 homers in 1961, a record for a single season. The two athletes were selected by 253 sports writers and broadcasters in a nationwide poll.

Minoso to Play for Cardinals on Field
And in Public Relations

St. Louis — The appointment of Saturnino Orestes "Minnie" Minoso to the public relations staff of Anheuser-Busch, Inc., was announced this week.

Minoso, who was bought by the St. Louis Cardinals late last year from the Chicago White Sox, will work in markets serviced by the brewery prior to reporting for spring training at St. Petersburg, Fla.

Minoso hit .280 for the Sox last year, although he has a .304 all time average. Born Nov. 29, 1922 at Pefico, Katanzas, Cuba, Minnie stands 5' 11" and weighs 175 pounds.

A colorful player, Minnie bats and throws right handed. He has played with Cleveland in 1951 before going to Chicago. In 1958 he went back to Cleveland where he played in 149-148 games in that and the following year.

Old No. 9

With the St. Louis Cardinals,

We didn't see the fights held a while back at the Jewish Community Center. But we have heard several fellows talk of fine prospects who got tired and lost. Some say one boy had been training for a month. Well as we always said one has to really train. It isn't enough to work just a little and then stop. One has to work until he is really tired, and then work just a little longer. In that way endurance is built up and that is about the only way one can gain it. So prospective boxers must be willing to work really hard if they want to be able to use their ability.

Bowlers

We have been hearing quite a bit about Negro Bowlers in the city. We would like to have someone who is a part of it to send us some dope on the high averages, high games and series from week to week. Also some team scores and standings would help. Ought to be able to work up quite a bowling corner with help, of course.

Drake

Drake has lost six games, five of them to conference rivals. This proves that they are in a tough league. We looked at the situation of the college boys involved in basketball scandals and fixed games. A lot were Negroes. We argued that Negroes are well represented among the top basketball players in the country. Most of them come from families who couldn't afford to send them to college so if they could not play the game, they would not be there. So they thus became easy marks for the gamblers we are sorry to say. Maybe they don't really need the money but it is a great chance to take to pick up what looks like easy money so they fall. Wonder how many Negroes will make All American this year.

Cincinnati

Hogue of Cincinnati and Walker of Bradley, Wiley of Wichita and Hill of Utah and some body else and then you would have a really good team they could play anybody. They may not be All American but they will do.

LIFE

Life is too brief
Between the budding and the falling leaf.
Between the seed time and the golden sheaf,
For hate and spite
We have no time for malice and for greed;
Therefore, with Love make beautiful the deed;
Fast speeds the night.

Life is too swift
Between the blossom and white snow's drift,
Between the silence and the lark's

up-lift,
For bitter words
In kindness and in gentleness our speech
Must carry messages of hope, and reach
The sweetest chords.

Life is too great
Between the infant's and the Man's estate,
Between the clashing of earth's strife and fate,
For petty things.
Lo! we shall yet who creep with cumbered feet.
Walk glorious over Heaven's golden street

Or soar in wings!
—W. M. Vories.

Did you notice that most afflicted of men often have the sweetest disposition while those who have a great deal, frequently have the sourest dispositions?
