Rev. Shuttleworth Released on Bail

U.S. District Court Acts When Alabama Ignores 5-Day Order

Birmingham, Ala.—The Rev. F. L. Shuttleworth and the Rev. J. S. Phifer, were released from city jail here after U.S. District Court Judge H. Hobard Grooms set their bail at $300 each.

The case went to federal court when state courts failed to act within five days, in line with a U.S. Supreme Court ruling issued Feb. 26.

The two ministers were jailed Jan. 25 on 1958 convictions resulting from an integration demonstration. Rev. Shuttleworth was under a 90-day sentence and Rev. Phifer, a 60-day sentence.

Since they went to jail, they have initiated petitions to city and county officials for desegregation of all courthouse facilities—water fountains, restrooms, and courtroom seating—and for an end to discrimination in city and county jobs. They have also led the continuing struggle, initiated last fall by the Alabama Christian Movement, for integration of the University of Alabama Hospital in Birmingham.

Thousands of Birmingham citizens have joined in signing the various petitions the two leaders have initiated. W. E. Shortridge, chairman of the Legal Redress Committee of the Alabama Christian Movement, said court action would soon be taken to force a showdown on the petitions for justice that have been filed.

2 Accused of Pushing Man from Moving Car After Drinks Together

A Des Moines man was treated at Broadlawn Polk County hospital here over the weekend for injuries he sustained when he said two men pushed him from a moving automobile.

William T. Jones, 33, of 714 S.E. Scott street, said he had been drinking with Frank Thomas Butts and a man nick-named "Dumps," in West Des Moines. He said the men demanded $2 to take him home and that when he gave them $1, they repeated demands for $2, and pushed him from the car when he told them he had no more. Jones said he had $12 in his billfold but when he was found by police it was gone.

State of Shock

Patrolmen Robert B. Good and Elwood Fogle, dispatched to S. E. 15th street and Scott streets Friday night found Jones, 33, lying in the street in a state of shock. The officers later found the car Jones described near E. 17th and Garfield street, occupied by Butts Clarence "Dumps" Jackson, 26 of 1651 Walker and four other men. The four were released for questioning.

Charges

Butts, who gave his address as 1646 Maple street and Jackson, were arraigned before Municipal Judge Ray Harrison and were released on $1,000 bond each, pending preliminary hearing on charges of assault with intent to do bodily injury. They claimed Jones stepped out of the car on his own volition.

Jones was treated for back, leg and kidney injuries at the hospital.

RESTAURANT CHAIN

4-H WEEK OBSERVERS

Among the top 4-H youths who are observing National 4-H Club Week, March 3-10, are James Otis Toles, top center, of Grady, Ala., and two of his sisters, Ethel Louise and Melvinor, at bottom. James is getting pointers on culling out poor layers from Assistant County Extension Agent Addre Bryant, right. His father, Otis Toles is looking on. UNCF Regional Director Praises Contributors in Iowa

Lawrence Perkins, New York City, regional director of United Negro College Fund, visited briefly in Des Moines over the Feb. 24 weekend and conferred with Joseph Wimberly, 2720 Amick avenue, co-chairman 1961 co-chairman of the Iowa UNCF drive.

Mr. Perkins had profuse praise in behalf of UNCF for the response of Iowans and gave special commendation to Mr. Wimberly.

Cities Praised

Mr. Wimberly stated that commendation should not go to him but rather should be credited to the efforts on the part of many individuals, organizations and churches in Iowa.

He mentioned specifically: Iowa City, under the leadership of Mrs. Helen Lemme, which was second only to Des Moines in total contribution; Cedar Rapids, Mrs. Viola Gibson and Keokuk, Mrs. Ruth B. Toomes.

Churches

Among fraternal organizations cited were Fidelity Lodge No. 1058 and Mt. Olive Masonic Lodge, of Cedar Rapids and churches named and their pastors were Burns Methodist, Rev. W. J. Canafax; Corinthian Baptist, Rev. N. R. Ophlin; and St. Paul A.M.E., Rev. E. P. Williams. Organizations and their presidents given special mention were Des Moines chapter of Links, Inc., Mrs. Alta Herndon; Monarch club, Hugh Semple; Parliamentary by Lee Vertis Swinton, branch president and Robert Russell, youth advisor.

WIMBERLY

Law and Culture club, Mrs. Helen D. Wimberly; Roosevelt Club, Inc., William M. Brooks; Royal Dukes, Robert Calderon.

Individuals

In addition Mr. Wimberly observed that many individual citizens had rendered valuable advice and supervision, namely, Judge Luther T. Glanton, Jr., Atty. J. B. Morris, Sr., Messrs. A. P. Trotter, Paul Wilson and Frank B. Robinson, Jr.

Public Relations

Mr. Wimberly suggested a more forceful campaign of interpretation as to how UNCF fills the needs and hopes for education of our Negro youth should be given through an effective public relations campaign for greater total contribution through participation of more people.

Mrs. Williams Freed; Judge Says Slaying Was in Self Defense

After spending five days in jail, an open charge of murder was dismissed against Mrs. Frances Eliza Williams, 46, for the fatal shooting of her husband, Jesse, 52, on Sunday, Feb. 25.

Municipal Judge Harry B. Grund Friday granted the dismissal motion filed by her attorney, Henry T. McKnight, who said evidence showed Mrs. Williams fired a .410 shotgun at her husband at close range in self defense.

Witnesses

Witnesses including police and Polk County Medical Examiner Leo Luka, testified in the preliminary hearing. Testimony showed Williams had awakened his wife demanding to know where his cigars were, and when she told him she didn't know, he started beating her.

Beating

Mrs. Williams said he beat her severely with his fists and a large flashlight, and when she tried to escape, her husband chased her through several rooms in their apartment at 930 18th street. Mrs. Williams testified that as they neared the bathroom where her husband's shotgun was standing beside a wall, he declared he was "going to finish me," and she grabbed the gun and fired.

The Williams couple had been married nine months. She was his fifth wife. Neighbors living on the floor below testified as to the sounds of the fight. A petition presented by neighbors to the judge said Williams often beat his wife.

U. S. Judge Integrates Houston Park

Houston—U. S. District Judge Joe Ingraham desegregated Sylvan Beach last week.

Ingraham's decision ended a three-year fight by four Negro dentists to allow Negroes to use the park's facilities.

The judge's decision permanently enjoined the county and the county commissioners from practicing racial discrimination at the park.

Step Forward

Robertson King, attorney for the Negroes, said the decision was "decidedly a step forward."

County Judge Bill Elliott said the county commissioners will have to meet to decide if they want to appeal the case.

Judge Ingraham's 16-page decision included more than two pages citing previous desegregation decisions by federal courts.

Judge Ingraham also denied the county's contention that the dentists' suit applied only to them and not to the Negro race as a whole.

Deserving

D. Farris Barclay, one of the dentists said:

"Everyone involved was very fair to us, and we think it was a deserving decision."

"It is a step forward. We just want what is rightly ours under the law, and we are trying to do it through the courts."

The other dentists are Joseph R. Willie, Lee O. Mosley and Hugh H. Ford.

Views Mississippi at End of Jim Crow Rope

New York — NAACP Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins said here this week that "Mississippi is now down to her last rickety legal support for racial segregation in travel, namely, the breach of the peace subterfuge used to carefully in the Freedom Rider cases."

This was his comment following the United States Supreme Court decision of Feb. 26 instructing a Federal district court in Mississippi to rule on the state's Jim Crow travel laws which had been challenged by lawyers of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. on behalf of three Negro citizens of Jackson, Miss.

Affirmed Legality of Public School Segregation Not Under U.S. Court Orders

New York—Shocked by the report of Abraham Ribicoff's testimony affirming the legality of public school segregation in the absence of specific Federal district court orders, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has called upon the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare for a clarification of the statement attributed to him.

Not Illegal

Testifying before a House Education and Labor subcommittee in Washington on Feb. 27, Mr. Ribicoff is reported to have said that racial segregation in schools is not illegal except where it is in violation of specific rulings of Federal district courts.

In a telegram to the HEW Secretary, dispatched on Feb. 28 and made public here today, NAACP Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins voices the Association's shock to learn of the "interpretation of Supreme Court decision on school segregation attributed to you in New York Times today."

Interpretation

This interpretation, the NAACP

leader continues, "has a Cabinet officer stating that racially segregated public schools are nowhere illegal except where they are operating in violation of specific district court orders."

"This is an unique interpretation and one, we think, at variance with the Supreme Court's declaration that racially segregated public school systems are unconstitutional. Under your interpretation, 2,500,000 Negro children in 2,000 school districts remain legally segregated and will remain so until court orders are handed down in each of these districts. We would appreciate clarification of your views in as much as your assertions are being quoted gleefully by segregationists."

Liberals

The House subcommittee is investigating the use of Federal funds in segregated public schools. Liberal members of the committee, both Democrats and Republicans, have demanded that the Administration either withhold federal funds from all Jim Crow schools or give active support to pending legislation to achieve this end.

Iowa Student Leader Speaks At Lincoln U (Mo.) Rally

Jefferson City, Mo. — The Lincoln University Chapter NAACP, headed by Visanio Johnson, 20 year old senior Sociology major of Oklahoma City, sponsored a Torchlight Rally to encourage student participation in its protest against the local segregated bowling alleys Friday at 6:30 p.m. (March 2).

Although the temperature dropped below the 30 degree range, hundreds of students—Negro and White—met behind the Administration building to join the rally. Three foot torches were distributed and lighted, and as the group began singing a school pep song, the long line of marchers began its march across the campus to the lawn facing Barnes-Krekel Hall joining the left lawn of the University President's residence. All of the Presidents of the Greek-letter organizations carried signs lending their organizational support to the protest.

Burning Torches

After the entire group with burning torches had assembled, the Reverend Edgar Reid, pastor of the Second Baptist Church of the city, led the crowd of demonstrators in prayer. After his very fervent prayer, Walter Jackson, Program Director of the University Chapter, introduced Chapter President, Visanio Johnson, who presented the occasion. Johnson said, "By our efforts to fight discrimination, others will be inspired to fight even harder for equality. Let us, as American College Students, take the leadership roles that we are preparing ourselves for."

Iowa Student

After the thunderous applause for Miss Claren was quieted, Miss Wilkins said that no state may require racial segregation of interstate or intrastate transportation facilities. The question is no longer open. It is foreclosed."

Commented Mr. Wilkins: "The Court's handwriting is very plain and if Mississippi authorities were graceful they would dismiss all Freedom Rider cases without waiting for the findings in some one of them now on appeal."

ma Lyghtner, Student Government President, of Mason City, Iowa, urged the group "to look out across the world and see the millions of oppressed people every where as they raise up from various forms of bondage." She said that next Saturday should find each member of the Lincoln family gallantly marching in a picket line.

Court to Hear NAACP Suit In Hempstead School Case

Hempstead, N.Y.—The Board of Education appeared before the U.S. District Court on Wednesday to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not be issued to restrain it from proceeding with a vote on a $1,300,000 school bond referendum March 13. Federal District Judge Jacob Mishler signed the order in response to a complaint action filed by NAACP attorneys in behalf of 56 Negro school children here.

Charges

The Association has charged that monies from the bond issue would serve to entrench the already existing pattern of discrimination in public schools. School officials are planning to enlarge two predominantly Negro schools, Jackson and Franklin-Marshall, in an attempt to ease overcrowding.

The NAACP countered by pointing out that "once this building program has commenced it will be too late for correction."

Geographic

Association spokesmen prefer to have schools built in geographic locations that would facilitate integration of classrooms.

They also pointed out that school officials are planning to place some Negro classes on double session, rather than transfer them to nearby white schools.

Court action was utilized by NAACP officials only after extensive attempts to negotiate with school board officers. Several letters were sent to State Education Commissioner James E. Allen by David Adams, president of the local chapter and Robert L. Carter, the NAACP's general counsel, in January. They were unheeded.

Telegrams

Messrs. Carter and Adams sent several telegrams early in February to Commissioner Allen. Mr. Adams made public statements appealing for positive action by local and state education officials. There was no response.

Announcement of an NAACP petition to Commissioner Allen was made Feb. 16 by Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive secretary.

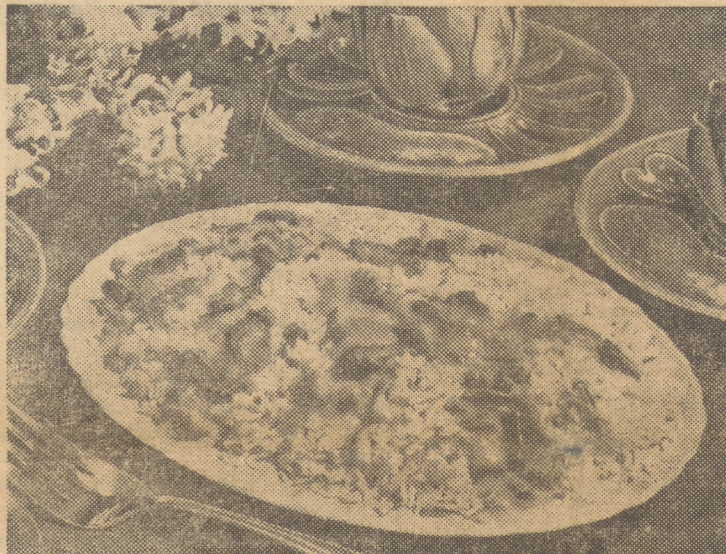

Other Appeals

All other appeals having failed, NAACP attorneys asked the U. S. District Court for the Eastern District of New York to halt the referendum.

The NAACP complaint asked that Hempstead school authorities be "enjoined from operating and providing racially segregated public schools."

The complaint also asked that the board no longer assign "plaintiffs and the members of the class they represent to racially segregated schools." Also that the board be enjoined from "controlling transfers from school to school within the public school system, and of seeking further to extend existing patterns of racial segregation."

Family Finances

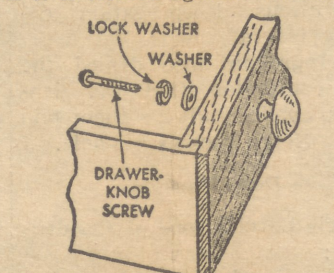

If you're planning to borrow money or buy on time, be sure you're familiar with the following points:

- No matter what interest rate is quoted, find out the actual cost in money.
- Before signing any papers, check the figures as to their accuracy and don't leave spaces to be filled in later.
- Question extra charges that would increase the total cost of the loan.
- If you're to owe a firm other than the dealer you're buying from, find out if they are reputable.
- Find out what the penalties are for late payments.
- Don't skip the fine print. Read and be sure you understand.
- What does the contract say about repossession?
- Understand what security you are giving.
- Do not sign away legal rights or guarantees such as the right to refuse merchandise which is not as promised.
- Is there a provision for refund of interest on payments ahead of schedule?

Keep Drawer Knobs Tight
 USE of a lock washer can keep a knob screw on a drawer from turning, according to Popular Mechanics. The special washer should be placed between a flat washer and the head of the screw. If it is located against a wooden surface, it will sink into the wood and lose its locking ability. The same principle can be applied to keep wooden knobs tight on the lids of pots and pans.

HEALTH FOR ALL

DOCTOR, CAN I HAVE A BABY?

Marilyn is a pretty, young woman, very much in love with her fiancé. But her family doesn't think she should marry.

"You can't Marilyn! With tuberculosis, you can't take a chance."

It's true that Marilyn has had TB for a year. She spent the first six months in the hospital and is still under medical care at home. It will be at least a year before she is completely well. But she's a good patient, making fine progress.

Pregnancy

Can she live a normal life? Can she marry and have a family?

The answers must come from her doctor. But chances are good that he will say, "Yes."

Today's evidence shows that pregnancy has no effect on the mother's disease. It does not cure TB, nor does it make the illness worse. This information comes from a specialist on the subject. Dr. J. Arthur Myers has treated over four hundred mothers with tuberculosis and has examined their 872 children.

Doctor

The thing for Marilyn to do is to discuss the matter with her doctor. If he gives his blessings to her marriage, she will have to see him regularly, just as she would if she were single. Her family members—including her husband—will have to get regular skin tests. Just to make sure they don't have TB.

If Marilyn (with the doctor's approval) has a baby, she may nurse and care for him—IF the doctor says she is no longer infectious. There is no reason why her TB history need interfere with a happy marriage and motherhood.

Children are not born with TB nor do they inherit it. They can catch it from mother if her disease is active. But only if modern preventive measures are not carefully followed.—Polk County Tuberculosis & Health Assn.

PATTERSON SPEAKS OUT AGAINST BIAS IN MISS.

Jackson, Miss. — Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson told 4,000 cheering NAACP members and supporters here this week that he felt guilty about remaining in the North while they daily faced "danger" in the South. Patterson, along with Jackie Robinson, former baseball star headed a delegation of celebrities attending the NAACP's 10th annual southeastern regional conference. Messrs. Patterson and Robinson are co-chairmen of the NAACP's Fight for Freedom Fund campaign. The celebrity project was organized by Mr. Robinson.

INCREASED VOTE SEEN AS ANSWER TO BIAS

Albany, Ga.—Gloster B. Current, the NAACP's director of branches, called on Negroes here to register 5,000 new voters in a drive slated to end March 12. Current told his audience in this tension-ridden town, that "we can win all our civil rights if we have a mass outpouring of voters at the polls." He addressed the Freedom Fund dinner of the Association's Albany branch here on March 1. Negro citizens here have been waging a selective buying drive in an attempt to secure equal treatment in the downtown shopping area. This grew out of the arrest of over 700 civil rights demonstrators.

It was the third consecutive year that the band has won in the George Washington Day parade competition.

Old-Fashioned Plaything
EVEN in this streamlined age of television and jet planes, the child of two to six enjoys a toy that's quite primitive, like a hobby horse. It makes no difference if you can't purchase one, because making one is a cinch for the proud Dad.
The only parts needed are an old broom stick, two pieces of Masonite 1/4" Tempered Presdwood, a four-inch wooden or metal wheel from an old wagon, a piece of rope, and some paint—white, red and brown.

Following the diagram shown here, Dad can lay out the head pattern on the Tempered Presdwood. He will cut out two heads with a coping or jig saw and glue their screened sides together, so that only the smooth faces will be exposed.

He'll select the desired length of broomstick and cut slots into which the head and wheel are bolted. After applying a prime coat of paint, he can cover the various parts with colors as shown. The youngster will thoroughly enjoy this old-fashioned plaything.

For a free plan showing other toys that can be made in the home work shop, write Home Service Bureau, Suite 2039, 111 West Washington St., Chicago 2, and ask for Drawing No.

UNDERSTANDING IOWA CHILDREN

SPONSORED BY THE IOWA CHILD WELFARE RESEARCH STATION

Written by May P. Youtz, SUI Associate Professor

HELPING CHILDREN

THROUGH THE "NO" STAGE

Usually the child's "No, no" stage develops sometime between 2 and 4 years of age.

While the baby is young, we do not give many directions. But as soon as he understands language, we begin to tell him to do this or to do that. During the few months sometimes called the "suggestible" age, he does willingly what we ask. But there comes a day when his own ideas develop. He cannot put his attitude into words, but he feels keenly the urge to independent behavior.

Awareness

The "I am I" awareness is developing. So, one day he says, "No! No!" when asked to do something. Recognized for what it is, this need not disconcert the parent. It is not disobedience at all, but the small person's attempt to experiment with his ability to make decisions for himself. While it takes patience and skill to guide the child through this phase, recognizing that it is normal may help.

A contest of wills is not necessary. Give the child things over which he can safely exercise his own choice. There are many choices he can make, and doing so will help tide him over these negative days if parents use some ingenuity.

Consistent

An extra effort by parents to be consistent during this period, will help. Insisting on the child's washing his hands one day and giving in to his "No" another day will only confuse him.

The "No" of a child is sometimes a bid for attention, which he needs as he needs food. If the parent meets this need in a positive way, the small person will not use negative means to get it. A good laugh over some nonsense rhymes or some funny happenings often helps him when he is in a negative mood. One comforting thought: children pass through this phase quite soon.

Built-In Kitchen Ranges

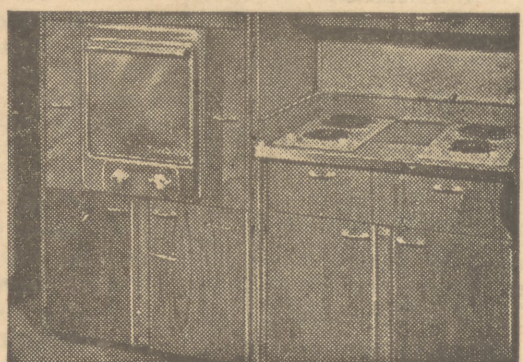

from SMALL HOMES GUIDE

Today an oven can be tucked into a wall of the kitchen and located at the height that is most convenient. Burner units can be as close to or as far away from the oven as the housewife desires. Built-in ranges, in either gas or electric models make this possible. They offer more flexible kitchen planning, allow the creation of the type of cooking center best suited to the individual's work habits.

The picture at left shows two electric ovens and a warming drawer located on one side of the kitchen. Opposite is the four burner and griddle surface unit. An important safety device is the controls on top of the unit and out of the youngsters' reach. Griddle top swings down when griddle is not in use.

Pictured here is a built-in oven and electric model burner unit placed side-by-side. Burners are built into a countertop which means storage space close at hand. A split-burner arrangement affords in-between work space. Oven has anodized copper finish on the door. Also available in stainless steel or baked enamel.

Plan New Class in Home Management

The Department of Adult Education of the Des Moines Public Schools, in co-sponsorship with the Polk County Heart Council, announces the opening of a new class in Home Management. The course is designed to help homemakers simplify all household tasks, manage time, money and family resources to make life more interesting and secure. The class will begin Thursday, March 15, at 7:15 p.m. at Franklin Junior High School. The instructor will be Mrs. Thomas E. Kelley.

Personally Yours by Frances Muthorne.

It's only been a few weeks now since we published pictures and writeups on some of the 1962 mid-year graduates. However, the high schools have already sent out lists of students scheduled to graduate in June. We note that about 24 are due to walk down the aisle with the class in June from North and about half that many are due from Des Moines Tech. However, since Tech does not register students according to race or nationality, we will probably miss some of the Negro students, not intentionally of course. That is why we will need your help. If you know of a student or have a son or daughter graduating from Tech will you let us know. We would like to include all of them with letters this time. Later we will print a list of those we have ascertained as Negro.

URBAN RENEWAL
HIRES NO NEGROES

Tuesday, the daily press announced that 19 people were being paid ten thousand dollars or more by the City of Des Moines. This is fine. More such salaries should be forthcoming for a city the size of Des Moines cannot thrive on the low salaries with the false notion that it saves the taxpayers money.

Among those listed in this category is Frank C. Price, city redevelopment and housing administrator and urban renewal director, $13,872 (the city paying 10 per cent and the federal government 90).

Undoubtedly, Price deserves the salary. His is a big job. But an important part of this announcement is that Des Moines pays 10% of his salary; the federal government 90%. And in spite of the fact that the employees in this department consist of lawyers, adjusters, clerks, stenographers and what not, even though Negroes have been hard hit by the operation of this project, so far as the Bystander has learned, not one cent has been paid to a Negro employee out of this department.

Recognizing that these Urban Renewal projects affect Negroes out of proportion to the general population, the federal government in its bulletins and instructions, has suggested that they be taken in as a part of all operations. For this reason, in view of the total exclusion of Negroes from every phase of these programs — except taking their property—it is apparent that our officials have not followed this angle of Urban Renewal in the least.

GIRL SCOUTS
DESERVE HIGH PRAISE

Girl Scouts are celebrating the 50th anniversary of their founding. The training and association the participating youngsters enjoy in this work make a contribution which add to a better life as they grow up.

Like most character building organizations today, the Girl Scout organization encourages full participation in the program by all groups. It provides an association which acquaints youngsters of different races to work together the year around—not just a day or week of the year—and thus enables each to get acquainted and thus respect the values of each group. It enables them to understand that better girls of all races make better women of the future who, in the long run, go a long way toward moulding sentiment for the betterment of the community where they live.

The Bystander wishes that every reader of the Des Moines Sunday Register of March 4 observed some of the operations of the Girl Scouts and the extent Negro girls were included. It's nice to belong to interracial organizations but it is highly important that they carry through the whole program a recognition that not only are all races included but also that they are given an active part in their program.

Such splendid recognition of the interracial program of the Girl Scouts gives evidence of their announced program of helping ALL girls to become useful women.

NIXON BLASTS JOHN
BIRCH SOCIETY

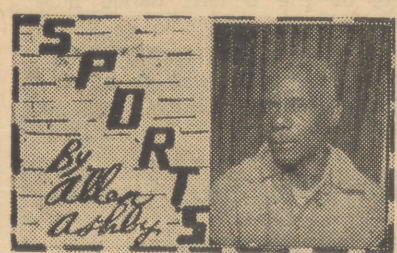

Last month former Vice President Nixon was a guest on the Jack Parr TV show. His appearance was superb capping it off with a ringing denunciation of the John Birch Society. Those who saw the show marveled "how did this man lose the election?"

Gov. Pat Brown of California, in an effort to put the kiss of death on Mr. Nixon who is a candidate for governor, has tried to accuse the Republican party of linking up with this group. And Mr. Nixon took this opportunity to say in no uncertain terms that the charges are untrue, that he is opposed to the group and the principles it stands for. Last week, the Republican organization in California backed Mr. Nixon with a resolution supporting his views.

Too long, America has winked at such extreme right wing organizations as the Ku Klux Klan, White Citizens Councils and now the John Birch Society which in the name of patriotism, of anti-communism, have engaged in unlawful methods to carry out their program. They have tended to divide citizens along religious, economic and racial lines using energy which would be much better spent solidifying all Americans in a move to make this truly a land of the free and the home of the brave for all men. And while these organizations have not made great headway, their operations have been a consistent gnawing at the vitals of America.

Undoubtedly, much will be heard of the John Birch Society during the coming campaign. Naturally a lot of good people will be duped into it as is the case with other such groups. But in the final analysis, Americans end up pretty close to its announced principles of free and equal consideration for all its citizens. In the meantime demagogues must not be allowed to sweep us off our feet.

We were more or less amused by the word battles set off by the refusal of Sonny Liston to accept 12½ per cent for his heavyweight title fight with Floyd Patterson. He has since agreed to accept that percentage of everything, gate, television, and movie rights.

It has always been our impression from former years that the challenger in any division fought for whatever he could get. He knew that if he got the title, he would make money. In the old days before Joe Louis, the challenger's manager sometimes put up the money to finance the title fight if he thought his boy could take the champ.

The way almost everyone feels that Liston is sure to be the next heavyweight champ, we would fight for nothing, but training expenses, to win that title, if we were Liston. But this corner hasn't said that Liston is a sure winner.

Snatching Titles

Have to laugh at the National Boxing Association. That body goes around snatching titles right and left. Pretty soon they will have taken all of them. Maybe, a battle royal for them. Still can't get over the old fashioned idea that titles should be won and lost in the ring. Maybe the N.B.A. can come up with a way to keep a man like Patterson fighting solely for the income tax dive, if he fights twice a year.

Out of 32 finalists in the Chicago Golden Glove bouts, 24 are Negroes. And there would be more if everything had been as it should be.

Local

We understand the Oldtimers are hard at work for their game next week at the Willkie House. They have plenty of balls since a couple of former players turned up sound enough to be used as basketballs. They said one oldster actually

Clemente Signs
Pact With Bucs

Pittsburgh — Roberto Clemente, the National League batting champion, was rewarded for his efforts last season in two ways.

The slugging tan Puerto Rican signed his 1962 contract for an estimated $50,000 and was honored by the Dapper Dan Club, a charitable sports organization, as the athlete who did the most to publicize the city of Pittsburgh last year. He received the Dapper Dan award at a banquet given by the club here.

Tatum Gets
Last Laugh

Indianapolis, Ind.—Reese Tatum, chief of the Harlem All-Stars, had the last laugh in court here as he was cleared of a charge of refusing to pay a hotel bill.

He had been arrested (Feb. 16) on a warrant for "defrauding an innkeeper" and later freed on $500 bond, pending trial.

However, after the court action clearing him, police said there was really nothing to the whole affair.

"Somebody on the team didn't pay a bill and the police sent the warrant for Goose's arrest," officials said.

The bill was for $219 at the Vendome Hotel in Evansville.

Jackie Tells 'Em The Story As It Was

New York—Jackie Robinson, who spent 10 years with the Dodgers and is now completing his fifth year as Chock Full O'Nuts' personnel vice president, had this to say to a group of sports writers honoring him after Jackie's selection into Baseball's Hall of Fame:

"I've been told that I have lost awards for saying what I believe. But I like to be able to look at myself in the mirror in the morning. When it comes to taking an award or taking my self-respect, I'll take my self-respect."

Needs Pistol For Protection: Floyd

New York—Heavyweight boxing champion Floyd Patterson applied for a permit to carry a pistol, after telling local police (Feb. 15) he needed it to protect himself.

Floyd said he carried large sums of money in isolated neighborhoods and thus need the sidearm.

Patterson, whose only protection in the ring are his fists, is believed near an agreement with challenger Sonny Liston for a proposed title defense in June. Liston is the No. 1 contender.

Joe Louis To Put On Fight Shows

Los Angeles—Former heavyweight boxing champion Joe Louis and his attorney wife, Mrs. Martha Louis, were approved as officials of the United World Enterprises promotional club which has been granted a license by the California State Athletic Commission.

The club was granted a license to promote once-a-month boxing shows at a meeting at which the commission continued its recognition of light heavyweight champion Archie Moore.

KEEP THE FAITH

God helps the man who trusts... believes—believes—all the blessings... he receives...

God's guiding spirit never leaves; so keep the faith in Him... Just start out with a righteous plan... you're bound to win... you know you can!

For He will help the godly man; who keeps the faith in Him... If you're in doubt... don't fail to pray—commune with Him... all through each day.

The path is marked... so clear, His way; it pays to follow Him... And when your last long day is done... the last flag furled... the battles won... you'll hear Him say, "well done my son... now bring your harvest in"...
