CORE Members Acquitted

Arlington, Va.—The first attempt to enforce a new Virginia law intended to curtail civil rights demonstrations have failed.

Four Northern Virginia CORE members, arrested as they picketed an Arlington theatre the previous week, were acquitted of charges of "injuring business." Dismissing the charges, County Court Judge Kenneth Smith ruled there was no proof picketing harmed the theatre.

Mr. Rauh, who was retained by the Americans Civil Liberties Union to defend the CORE members, contended that the pickets displayed no malice as they carried signs with slogans such as "Segregation is Immoral."

Negro Officer Captures Desparado in Omaha

An ex-convict who admitted shooting a Nebraska Safety Patrol officer at Blair, Neb., was captured in Omaha Thursday.

A house-hunting couple, a quick alarm by the Blair chief of police and an act of cool courage by an Omaha police patrolman led to the arrest of Philip Marion Delham, 23, charged with wounding the trooper.

Aaron Dailey, a plainclothes patrolman assigned to the Detective Bureau, captured Delham and rescued the gunman's hostage in the climax to a manhunt that had lasted 3½ days.

Delham is charged with the shooting of Safety Patrolman Lowell Korber early Monday at Blair. The suspect had been sought in the Blair area until Thursday, when a search of empty houses and buildings was abandoned and roadblocks were removed.

Dailey is one of the popular Negro police officers on the Omaha force.

Patrolman Dailey driving north on Thirtieth Street at Fowler Avenue, spotted the Chamberlain car moving south. The policeman made a U turn and followed the car as it turned west on Larimore Avenue and then in another turn to 4715 North Thirty-fourth Avenue, where he curbed it.

Oyster-Rice Turkey Stuffing Is Elegant

This Oyster-Rice Stuffing is a "must" for that turkey (or chicken) you're planning to roast. It's easy to make because there's very little chopping to do and no bread crumbs to bother with.

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 cup uncooked white rice
- 2 cups water
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 3 tablespoons butter or margarine
- ½ cup chopped onion
- 1 cup chopped celery
- ¼ teaspoon black pepper
- ½ pint oysters
- ¼ cup water or turkey broth

METHOD: Put the rice, water and salt in a 2-quart saucepan. Bring to a vigorous boil. Turn the heat as low as possible. Cover the saucepan with lid and leave over this low heat 14 minutes. Remove from the heat but leave the lid on 10 minutes.

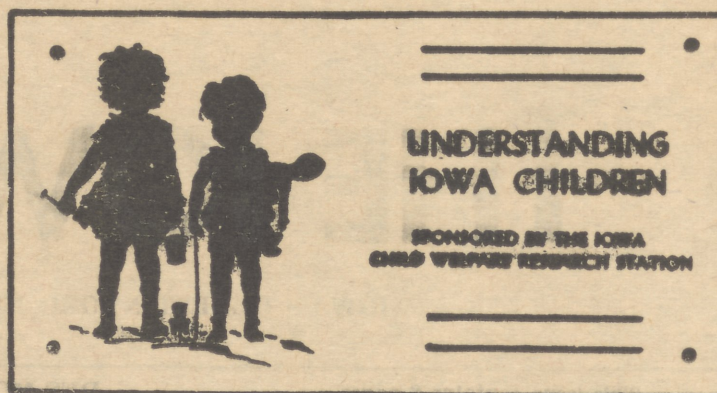

While the rice is cooking, melt the butter or margarine in a saucepan. Add the onion and celery. Cover and cook over a medium heat until tender, stirring occasionally. Stir in the black pepper. Add the onion and celery to the rice mixture. Add the oysters and water or broth and mix gently.

This stuffing may be prepared ahead of time so long as the liquid is not mixed with the dry ingredients until the turkey is to be stuffed and cooked. The turkey should be stuffed just before it is placed in the oven. It should not be stuffed and refrigerated. Extra stuffing may be baked in a separate pan or made into dressing balls. Allow ¼ cup of stuffing for each pound of poultry, dressed weight, or 1 cup for each pound ready-to-cook weight. This recipe makes 4½ cups of stuffing.

How to Bake the Turkey: Remove pin feathers from turkey and singe if necessary. Remove any bits of lung, kidney, etc., remaining in turkey. Wash and rinse inside and outside with cold water. Wipe dry. Rub cavity lightly with salt. Put enough stuffing into the neck of the turkey to fill it out nicely. Fasten the neck skin back with a skewer. Stuff cavity well—but do not pack stuffing tightly as it expands during roasting. Shape wings ("akimbo" style) bringing wing tips on to the back. Place skewers across stuffing opening of turkey and lace shut with cord. Tie legs to tail. Grease skin thoroughly with fat. Place the turkey, breast down, on a rack in a shallow pan. If the bird is very large and difficult to turn, place breast up and leave in this position throughout the roasting. Lay fat-moistened cheese cloth over the turkey. Place in pre-heated 325°F. oven. Do not cover with a lid. Do not add any water. As cloth dries out, moisten with fat from the bottom of the pan. Roast until done, following the timetable below. Garnish turkey with frosted grapes made by dipping grapes first in beaten egg white, then in granulated sugar.

DOES YOUR CHILD UNDERSTAND THE MEANING OF "NO"?

Parents are often puzzled when their child continues to make the same request, despite the fact that the request has just been refused. Actually, parents often unwittingly encourage this kind of behavior.

Research indicates that behavior rewarded on only a portion of its occurrences (partial reward) will persist much longer than will behavior which has previously been consistently rewarded. Let's consider a simple example. Two children can be trained to pull a lever in order to win marbles. Suppose one child receives a marble every time the lever is pulled, whereas the other child is rewarded only every other time or every third or fourth time (partial reward).

Offers Reward

Next, suppose that some time later the marble delivery machine is disconnected so that pulling the lever no longer delivers marbles. Research indicates that under such circumstances, the partially rewarded child will persist longer in pulling the lever even though no marbles roll out.

What lesson does this have for the parent? In certain situations, parents partially reward their child's behavior. For example, if your child asks for candy and you refuse it, often he will make a second request, whine or cry. In such a situation, it is not uncommon for parents to give in finally so as not to be embarrassed in front of a guest or simply just to stop the noise.

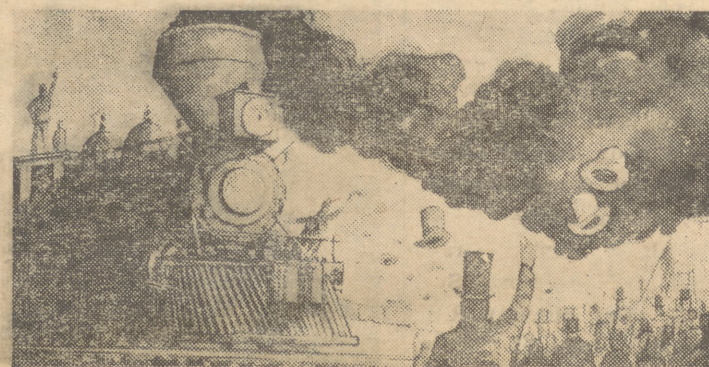

Teach Lesson

This is essentially a partial-reward situation, analogous to pulling the lever a number of times before winning a marble, and is likely to encourage the type of behavior which the parent wants to stop. In contrast, if a parent who refuses a request can put up with the initial "noisemaking," his child will soon learn that persisting in such behavior is useless.

This notion can, of course, be applied to a wide variety of situations. Partial reward, in the form of a parent's finally giving in after a series of requests, is likely to produce what is generally called a "nagging" child.

It happened 100 YEARS ago

The oldest incorporated trade association in the country, the United States Brewers Association, was organized in 1862 . . . the same year that

IN IOWA crews building the Mississippi and Missouri Railroad pushed the line to Brooklyn . . . almost half way across the state. Iowans cheered this pioneering feat with glasses of foaming beer.

For even then, beer was Iowa's traditional beverage of moderation. Beer still provides enjoyment for Iowans, and a good living for many of them . . . not only the employees of the Brewing Industry itself, but also for Iowa farmers and other suppliers of the materials brewers use.

TODAY, in its centennial year, the United States Brewers Association still works constantly to assure maintenance of high standards of quality and propriety wherever beer and ale are served.

Old-Fashioned Plaything

EVEN in this streamlined age of television and jet planes, the child of two to six enjoys a toy that's quite primitive, like a hobby horse. It makes no difference if you can't purchase one, because making one is a cinch for the proud Dad.

The only parts needed are an old broomstick, two pieces of Masonite ½" Tempered Presdwood, a four-inch wooden or metal wheel from an old wagon, a piece of rope, and some paint—white, red and brown.

Following the diagram shown here, Dad can lay out the head pattern on the Tempered Presdwood. He will cut out two heads with a coping or jig saw and glue their screened sides together so that only the smooth faces will be exposed.

He'll select the desired length of broomstick and cut slots into which the head and wheel are bolted. After applying a prime coat of paint, he can cover the various parts with colors as shown. The youngster will thoroughly enjoy this old-fashioned plaything.

It's Desk or Dresser!

DON'T let the high cost of furniture prevent your having a desk or dressing table! By following a free plan, you can build one that will serve as either. The plan also describes construction of a three-legged stool, in the event you want a dressing table. Features of this piece are the removable top, the drawers without pulls, and the durable, smooth surfaces—

Masonite Tempered Preswood. An interesting alternative, for the top, is Masonite Leatherwood, the embossed hardboard which makes an unusually attractive surface for a dresser. Leatherwood is stain and burn-resistant. As shown in the illustration, this desk-or-dressing table is neat and modern. The cost of materials used in its construction is comparatively small. The plan is easy to follow too. It may be obtained free by writing to Home Service Bureau, Suite 2039, 111 West Washington St., Chicago 2, Ill., and requesting Drawing No. AE-170.

140 Ways To Keep Cool

What's better than a refreshing glass of iced tea to cool you off these hot summer days? Answer: 140 glasses of iced tea! And that's exactly how many you see surrounding this lovely miss who has just made up the entire batch from a single giant size 3-oz. jar of Nestea instant tea. No wonder she's cool! Modern instant tea is one of those homemaker hot weather boons that puts joy into summer beverage preparation.

You can make iced tea by the glass, by the quart — just as much as you need for family or guests. Simply add one rounded teaspoon of Nestea's instant Nestea to each glass of cold tap water. Sweeten to taste and drop in a few iced cubes. For a real "cool" garnish, use lemon or orange slices, or a fresh strawberry pushed end-down onto the rim of the glass. If fresh mint is in season, a sprig of it will enhance the glasses. Then insert a straw — and your 140 glasses of iced tea will win praises all-around.

Personally Yours
Frances Hawthorne.

By the time you read this yours truly and family will be relaxing in the green, green countryside of Missouri with my mother and sisters and brothers. We expect to return to Des Moines on Sunday, July 22.

As we promised we would like to expand on an idea as they were presented to us by Mrs. Ralph Parker about presenting a "Potential Debutante Cotillion" here in Des Moines next year.

Mrs. Parker was so enthused about the Cotillion for Debs she witnessed in Chicago a few weeks ago that she wants to duplicate the event here on a small scale and for potential debs, from ages 10 to 12 years. If a young girl is nine and will be 10 next year she will be accepted. However, if she is 12 to be 13 next year, Mrs. Parker says "No" because she wants this to remain for non-teenagers on this first venture.

Mrs. Parker returned and immediately, with ideas and plans humming in her head, contacted various city organizations and leaders including the Des Moines Chamber of Commerce, which told her "they would back her all the way because to them it is a worthwhile idea to combat juvenile delinquency."

However, there is a lot of advance planning and work that goes into the presentation of young girls to society; in this case they will be young buds or potential debs now and in several years, will be presented in full bloom to society.

Mrs. Parker sees the need to get started no later than mid-September because it takes a year of learning dance numbers, etiquette, correct posture, rehearsals and other techniques, which she terms a school of instruction for any successful Debutante Cotillion. She has already contacted a dance school for the various dance lessons, which will require at least two lessons per month until about March or early April, when the group will need to rehearse once a week.

Any parent who has a daughter meeting these specified ages and would like her to be presented as a "Potential Deb" is asked to contact Mrs. Parker. Entry fee will be between $2 and $25 covering of course lessons, a hotel ballroom for presentation, dance band, and other costs, which Mrs. Parker can enumerate.

A call is also sent out for boys to serve as escorts, about the same ages, but may be one or two years older. They will have to take the dance lessons, but naturally they serve as escorts only.

You don't have to be a parent. You could know some one you would like to sponsor, whose parents are unable to do so for financial or other reasons. If so call Mrs. Parker. She can give you all the details.

She hopes to get her own club, L.T. Club, of which she is president, as chief sponsor, but if not she will ask around and get some local club. Out of town "Potential Debs" will also be accepted if their parents can get the youngsters to Des Moines for the dance lessons and rehearsals.

Among those leaving with the Des Moines Tribune and Register news carriers for the annual bus trip to Chicago, Ill., was Neal Williams, who is a regular participant at Wilkie House.

To the delight of our youngsters, Miss Charlene Wharton, Wilkie House Director, brought around a prettily arranged and wrapped box of goodies and snacks for the children to enjoy on their trip to Missouri. See you next week.

Peggy Marie Spates Leaves for Texas

Peggy Marie Spates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Spates of 1244 13th street, left Thursday, July 12 for Wichita Falls, Tex., to visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alben Spates.

Peggy will accompany her grandmother to Seattle, Wash., where they will be guests of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Spates and children. While there they plan to attend the Seattle World's Fair.

Mrs. Nancy White, Rochester, Visits Here

Mrs. Nancy White of Rochester, N.Y., and formerly of Des Moines, was a visitor in Des Moines last week. While here she was a house guest of Mesdames Catherine Atkinson, Mamie Smith and Ada Jefferson. She also worshipped at Maple Street Baptist church where she was a former member.

Edna, Eddie Scales Celebrate 9th Year

Edna and Eddie Scales, twin daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Scales of 1237 10th street, celebrated their ninth birthday with a party Thursday afternoon, July 12 at their home.

Guests sharing the courtesies were Dan Law, Jr., Lynelle and Dawn Simon, Carol, Joanne, Bill and Bobby McKeehan and Venita, Vance and Victor Hawthorne.

Isaac Lewis, Chicago, Is D.M. Visitor

Isaac Lewis of Chicago, Ill., was a house guest last week in the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Carter, 911 16th St.

THE WHY OF URBAN
RENEWAL PROBLEMSLetter to Des Moines Tribune
by James B. Morris

As a reader of the Register and Tribune for more than forty years, and an admirer of them as outstanding journals in America and a friend of minorities, I was disappointed at the editorial appearing in the Tribune July 11, "Vague Complaint on Urban Renewal." I agree that the complaint expressed by Orson A. Kinney, director of the Chicago Office of Home and Finance, was vague but it appears that someone got his ear and persuaded him to duck the issue which Des Moines Urban Renewal has done from the beginning.

I am not interested in whether the late Dr. E. T. Scales, Attorney W. Lawrence Oliver or Mrs. Luther T. Glanton, as members of the Urban Renewal Board, fully represented the Negro on the Urban Renewal Board, but I am interested in how closely the Des Moines Urban Renewal Board and the City Council have complied with all the conditions laid down by the Housing Administration, for apparently the Negro's interest has not been met as evidenced by Kinney's appearance in Des Moines.

First, let's get straight about quotas. The day has passed when Negroes earn their places in the sun on the basis of quota representation. More important jobs are being filled by them every day not on the basis of quotas but by test standards where they have been given an even chance to compete. Negroes do not forget the untiring efforts of their many white friends who have opposed discrimination. They are thankful for them. But as the Negro becomes prepared, he can fight his own battles better than any representative or advocate can for him. Of course, he welcomes those white friends who continue in the cause.

Negroes serve on most Community Chest boards in Des Moines. I have been fortunate to serve on several and today am a member of the Red Cross and Polk County T.B. Boards. If I thought I was selected to represent the Negro only on these boards I would not accept. I serve as an adviser on all affairs and as such help demonstrate that Negroes are a part of the community and are willing to render service to the whole community and not just the Negro.

Participation in government means not only voting but also holding office. Here is one instance where the Urban Renewal program has ignored the Negro for except the publication of three legal notices in the Bystander, not one cent of the money spent for salaries and services has gone to Negroes. And this in spite of protests from "outsiders."

The relocation of families requiring low cost housing has been a complete failure and the unwillingness of the City Council to follow the accepted programs of other cities until it was too late and which permitted willful opponents of progress to gather sufficient strength to befuddle the unthinking and defeat a sensible housing program.

Year after year, we have appealed to Mayors to place Negroes on some important boards and commissions in the city government. They have responded grudgingly by placing them on boards which had little, if any, policy making and/or administrative power and never pay any salary resulting in fewer and fewer Negroes in city government.

After all, millions of dollars will be spent in the urban renewal program some of which is paid for by me and others of my class. Is it not fair that some of this money should be spent among all the people who pay rather than the favored few? This is a part of this "community participation" about which Mr. Kinney hinted but seemed unwilling to explain.

The Urban Renewal Board and the city seem powerless or unwilling to grasp the sources of their troubles. I would suggest that they sit down with a group of Negroes who are not afraid to fight for the cause, learn what the difficulty is, correct it and undoubtedly that seventh provision will be acceptable to the National Urban Renewal Administration.

36 Negroes Vie For
All-Star Rookie Team

Thirty-six Negro ballplayers in both the American and National Leagues this year are contenders for the 1962 Topps Rookie All-Star Team. The fourth annual Rookie All-Star Team is sponsored by Topps Chewing Gum, Inc., publishers of baseball trading cards.

The 1962 Topps team will be selected from ballots distributed to all players, coaches, and managers of the major league teams during the season. The names of the members of the winning team will be announced in September. Under the rules of the election, eligibility for the team precludes any player who spent more than 45 days on a major league roster between May 15th and September 1st prior to the 1962 season, or one who had more than 90 turns at bat or pitched more than 45 innings in the major leagues prior to the 1962 season.

BEFORE CROSSING

CHECK FOR CARS

We would certainly like to be able to make a comment on John Thomas, the high jumper. This weekend Thomas meets the Russians who start off jumps at seven feet. Thomas, you will recall, was our first seven foot high jumper. It was all set for him to win at the Olympics in Rome. All he had to do was show up and pick up his first place medal. But the script went wrong. Somebody forgot to tell the Russians and those two Russian fellows jumped higher than

Our personal opinion is that there are so many people in Russia that if one scouts around enough, he is

'A DAY AT M-M' IN POETRY

We would hit the door, and glance at the clock,
Eight hours we'd sigh at the faithful tick-tock.
Greetings to all then we take to our seats,
We chatter to all while we rest our feet.
Then to devotion we kneel at the keys,
We give praise to God although not on our knees.
Theory comes next. We open our books, pretty certain to come up with some fine athletes. That is probably what they are doing. We have already argued that there were a lot of athletes around who were overlooked as athletes because of various reasons. Maybe they couldn't make a college course. Maybe they quit school and got married early or maybe they are any number of reasons for them not being discovered. For instance, we would like to have seen what Charles Swink of Valley could have done in big time competition. As we recall it, the big guy was never pushed to his limit in high school and yet he set records in the quarter mile which he ran.

Athletes Need Help

If we are to maintain our place as the leading nation in track and field games, the powers that run these things are going to have to stop pretending and go looking for the best wherever it may be. Of course, schools and colleges are a natural

And if it's test time we all feel the hook.

An hour or so for that, then the practical work starts,

We treat our hair and scalp, or marcel in some parts.

Lunch time is next, now we're looking good!

The more we eat and rest our feet, the more we wish we could.

"But let's get back to work, ladies" is a phrase we kinda dread,

While Brown is never ready, saying "Just one more piece of bread."

Half the day is over, three more hours to endure, place to look, and most of our leading athletes will continue to come from there. But we are going to have to look further beyond schools and pick up maybe some mill workers or broom pusher and see what they can do.

Our National AAU games used to be full of athletes from all over the country who were workers and who ran unattached. A few of them ran events, for instance, our last three mile runners for years was a foundry worker named Earl Johnson, a slender Negro out of Pennsylvania. He usually ran way down in the Olympics but he was the best we had. We think he placed fifth one time.

There may be a lot of those guys around the country and we think someone ought to put on a search for them.

While working we sometimes reminisce, and sometimes we're on a cloud
When we hear a voice both charm and clear,
Say "Ladies, you're getting too loud."
When it's time to go we tidy up and never is there sorrow!
We bid "Good-bye" and last we say, "I'll see you all tomorrow."
