Miriam Makeba in First Art Center Jazz Concert

It was very appropriate that the famed folk singer from South Africa, Miriam Makeba should make her appearance for the first Art Center jazz concert Saturday evening. Miss Makeba and an instrumental trio delighted some 1,800 persons, the largest crowd yet; above she appears in one of 27 songs she sang.—Photo courtesy of Des Moines Sunday Register.

Famed African Singer Mariam Makeba, Thrills 1800 Patrons

Mariam Makeba, the famed South African folk singer, more than fulfilled her television promises, when she appeared before some 1,800 delighted patrons in the first Art Center outdoor jazz concert here Saturday evening.

Miss Makeba, who sang 27 songs of widely differing origin, mood, language, nature and purpose, proved herself the artist in person that she has seemed in television and recordings.

Trio Accompanied

Miss Makeba, who flew into Des Moines from a Friday night concert at the Hollywood Bowl, was accompanied by an instrumental trio: Bill Salter, bass; Sam Brown, guitar, and Auchoe Lee, percussion (conga or rada drums, chacha gourd and finger cymbals).

Her repertoire embraced the customary folk material of love and war ballads, market and work songs, fun and game tunes, domestic scenes and lullabies.

Mostly African

These songs were mostly African, but the program included Hebrew, Indonesian, West Indian, French and English examples, too—even "pop" ballads from "Black Orpheus" and "King Kong" musicals.

The Art Center's second outdoor jazz concert will be at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 15, by Shelly Manne and his Men.

Memphis—Nearly 8,000 new names were added to voter registration rolls in four Tennessee cities and two counties as the result of a five-week crash drive. W. C. Patton, NAACP field secretary for registration and voting, reported this week.

In addition, 4,518 voters who had moved since the last election were retained on the rolls by reporting their change of address. Cities participating in the campaign include Memphis, Chattanooga, Knoxville and Clarksville. The counties are Fayette and Haywood.

800 Volunteers

A total of 800 volunteers worked in the various campaigns, distributing literature, holding meetings, ringing doorbells, giving instructions on how to register, and making nearly 25,000 personal contacts.

In Memphis, where, as a result of previous NAACP campaigns, more than 70 per cent of the potential Negro voters were already registered, 4,036 new names were added to the rolls for a total of 73,588. The drive, under the direction of Mrs. Maxine Smith, executive secretary of the NAACP branch, was concentrated in the city's low-rent housing projects.

Cooperation

The campaign in Chattanooga was conducted in cooperation with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. It resulted in the registration of 1,400 new voters and the recording of 2,361 changes of address. At the end of the campaign

Negro registration in the city totaled 15,000.

In Knoxville there were 1,123 new registrations and 1,783 changes of address, which together with the number previously registered brought the total to 11,000.

Under the leadership of James Caruth, 1,162 new names were added to the rolls in Clarksville. An additional 374 changes of address were reported.

Rural

In rural Haywood and Fayette counties resistance was encountered and slow-down tactics were used by the registration officials. In some localities in these counties, Patton observed, the registrars would take 45 minutes to enroll a single voter "when it normally should take only about three minutes to register." Nevertheless, 43 were added in Fayette County and 72 in Haywood County. Directing the campaign in these counties was Mrs. Mildred Hays.

All NAACP branches in the state did some voter-registration work before the closing date, July 3, Patton reported.

HOSPITAL ADMINISTRATION

The State University of Iowa began a program in Hospital Administration in 1950 that was the first to offer a Ph.D. degree in the subject. Purpose of the program is to provide the broad education and extensive training necessary for career hospital administrators.

Circuit Court Mandate Reverses Marching Ban; 800 Jailed; None Released

Albany, Ga.—Nearly 1,000 persons have been arrested, mostly Negroes but a few whites, in this racially torn city, in marching demonstrations which city officials declared had defied city ordinances.

In a week-long climax of racial activities, demonstrators had marched in waves on city government buildings in protest of continued segregation in facilities in Albany. They had been sparked by the leadership of famed integrationist, the Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

Rev. King had said he and other demonstrators would refrain from marching according to the mandate of a restraining order handed down Friday by U.S. District Judge Robert Elliot who had granted the order at the request of city officials.

Tuesday afternoon Chief Judge Elbert P. Tuttle of the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals said "the trial court had no jurisdiction to enter this order at all."

Without Hearing

Judge Tuttle determined that the order had been granted without a hearing and without the two-day notice to the Negro defendants required for such an instrument.

Attending

Attending the informal meeting was the Rev. King, Mayor Asa Kelley, and Albany Police Chief Laurie Pritchett. Tuesday night several hundred singing Negroes started a march toward the downtown area and 40 of them were arrested when they entered an area previously designated by police that arrests would be made of anyone crossing into it.

Rocks Thrown

One state trooper was reportedly hit in the face by a rock and dozens of bottles and other objects were tossed at officers and newsmen by a crowd that formed swiftly after the arrests. Then police moved into the Harlem section of this city and dispersed the crowd. They also closed all bars and liquor stores in the area.

150 Carey Family Descendants Attend 'Cousin Convention'

This week, over 150 descendants of the five Carey brothers (who migrated to the mining community of Muchakinock, Iowa from Staunton, Va. after the Civil War, and liberation of the slaves) gathered for their bi-annual "cousins convention". Coming from every part of the country, they began to arrive Thursday of last week, staying at the homes of the Des Moines relatives.

Friday nite, a pot-luck was held at the residence of Mrs. Ontario Thompson, one of the daughters of the first generation. Because of the large number, some spilled over into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Miller. This gathering of the clan served as a reunion for the older Careys and an introduction for some of the younger Careys.

Saturday nite, a dinner party was held at the McNeil Motel. Several after parties were held at the various homes of the Des Moines relatives.

Sunday, church was attended by many, after which a picnic dinner was held at the Owen Crist farm. Descendants to the sixth generation were in attendance.

Monday, family luncheons, dinners and gatherings were combined with visits to friends, acquaintances, and scenes of childhood memories.

At this writing, although some have returned to their respective homes, many are still visiting. The next "cousins convention" will be held in Detroit, Mich., in 1964.

Living children of the first generation Carey Brothers are Lena Brown, Australia Walden, Ontario Thompson of Des Moines; Cleo LaVella, New York City; Ralph Carey, Permelia Thomas, and Bernice Hoagland of Detroit, Mich.

Rights Group Reluctantly Accepts Sheltons Resignation

At a special meeting of the Commission Human Rights, Wednesday, July 18, 1962, the resignation of the Commission's Executive Secretary, Edward E. Shelton, was accepted with regrets. Along with the expression of regret on the loss of Mr. Shelton was also the expression of thanks and appreciation to Shelton for his inestimable aid in developing a strong, cohesive Commission.

SELTON

"It must be recognized, Dr. Johnson said, 'the dedication of the Commission to its responsibilities has been at its highest level under Mr. Shelton's guidance.'"

Letter

Shelton's letter of resignation to Commission Chairman, Dr. Robert W. Johnson, stated:

"After much thought and deliberation, I have decided to resign from my position of Executive Secretary to the Commission on Human Rights and accept a position with the Federal Government in Washington, D. C., as Inter-group Relations Assistant. In order that the loose ends of present work may be successfully drawn together, I request that the effective date of my resignation be regarded as August 30, 1962.

Gratifying

Working with and for the Commission has been a most gratifying experience and I shall cherish the memories and friendships made for the rest of my days. Being the responsible officer for the administration of Ordinance No. 5775, has added to my personal growth and depth of understanding in the area of human relations. For this, I wish to express my sincere thanks to the Commission for giving me this opportunity to be of service.

Progress

I have the distinct feeling that we have made progress in our chosen area of operation. But, let me hasten to add, that there is much left to be done. The job will and can be done; if not tomorrow, then tomorrow's tomorrow.

I wish the Commission the best of everything as it lights the byways down freedom road. My only regret is that I am leaving at this juncture for what to me represents wider professional opportunities."

The Commission's primary concern at this time is with obtaining an executive secretary to fill the position vacated by Shelton. A personnel committee was established to screen applicants for the position. The committee will be headed by Mrs. Jack P. Cleveland, a member of the Commission.

PREJUDICES FREQUENTLY START AT HOME

Judy, a kindergarten pupil, reeled off a familiar rhyme some time ago on her school playground, not realizing fully the effect it would have on several colored schoolmates. When asked by a teacher where she had heard the rhyme, she answered, "At home; Mommy taught it to me."

No Difference

To a young child, skin color makes no difference. In Judy's case, prejudice against several Negro schoolmates had been started in her home

Patmos. Mrs. Lewis Kipper sang a solo, "Jesus Will Hear You Pray."

At the three o'clock hour, the men of St. John Church held a Men's Day program. George Simpson was master of ceremonies.

Calvin Duncan and O. H. Burrell led Devotion. George Sampson and Orville McGruder sang a duet. Arthur Moore sang a solo, "Awake At Dawn." Lewis Kipper gave a reading by Weldon Johnson. Rev. R. Giles preached the sermon, "Men In the Church." Virginia Moore accompanied the duet and solo at the piano. Rev. Giles gave the Benediction.

Open Enrollment Rejected by NAACP for Plainfield School

Plainfield, N. J.—In an action which marks the first of its kind the executive committee of the Plainfield NAACP branch unanimously opposed as "completely unacceptable" the open enrollment plan proposed by the Plainfield Board of Education at its regular meeting on July 17.

The board's proposal came as a result of NAACP requests to end segregated education in the Plainfield schools. At the Association's urging in June, 1961, a Law Citizens Advisory Committee was established and Dr. Max Wolff was engaged to act as consultant to examine existing segregation and formulate recommendations by June, 1962.

Meeting with Miss June Shagaloff, the NAACP committee voted to reject the plan promptly following its adoption by the Board of Education.

Two Alternates

The plan for open enrollment set aside two alternate recommendations made by the committee: rezoning of the existing school districts or reorganization of the schools under the "Princeton Plan." The study specifically rejected the possibility of open enrollment as a solution stating that, "under this plan the goals of good balance throughout the system and of ending segregation . . . could not be met."

Ignored

The NAACP charged that the board had ignored the recommendations of the school-sponsored study and the work of the citizens' committee. Miss Shagaloff stated: "It has chosen instead to substitute not only the least effective desegregation plan but one which is no more than a carefully hedged, minimal transfer plan which fails to meet the Board's educational and legal responsibilities to and existing segregation."

Seeks Redress

In protesting the action of the school board the NAACP said: "If the board fails to adopt a meaningful desegregation plan, the NAACP will seek redress through the Commissioner of Education and, if necessary, the courts. We will also seek to engage in other forms of direct action to assure for all children in Plainfield, non-segregated, equal educational opportunities."

Children soon learn they live in a world of prejudice; if they are not taught more democratic ways of behaving, uncontrolled prejudices can run wild. We cannot advance toward the goal of better race relations if children are not taught tolerance.

Second Baptists
Gives Dinner
Choir Program

The Seeds of Kindness auxiliary of Second Baptist church sponsored a hobo dinner Sunday afternoon, July 15, at 3 o'clock at the Teen hall, 311 Central avenue. The public is invited to attend.

The auxiliary, organized 49 years ago, is planning observation of its anniversary soon. Mrs. Bessie Williams is president of the group. Members of denominations other than Baptist are included in the organization.

On Sunday, July 22, the Mission of the church sponsored an appearance of the Des Moines Corinthian Baptist male fellowship chorus here. The group presented a program at 3 p.m. at the church at 1827 Fourth avenue south. The Rev. Carl Sanders, of Des Moines and pastor of Second church here, is a member of the chorus. Dinner was served to the group.

Organized in 1945 by the late Dr.

George Robinson, pastor of Corinthian church, the chorus has traveled widely through the midwest. There are 21 members in the group.

Mrs. Annell Banks is president of the Mission department.

Mrs. Mayme Lewis

Mrs. Mayme Lewis, 41, 225 south Fourth street, died at Lutheran hospital Sunday afternoon following a short illness. She had been hospitalized for two weeks.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the chapel of the Laufferweiler funeral home with the Rev. LeRoy Patterson, associate pastor of Copplin chapel, officiating. Burial will be in North Lawn cemetery.

The former Mayme Martin, Mrs. Lewis was born in Palo Alto, Calif., where she was educated. In 1930 she came to Fort Dodge where she lived until 1943 when she moved to Omaha, Neb. She returned here about a month ago.

She is survived by her father, Pick Martin, Fort Dodge; her mother, Mrs. Ruby Martin, Berkeley, Calif.; and one daughter, Darlene Lewis of Fort Dodge.

Pastors Exchange

Sunday will mark the initial appearance in Fort Dodge of the Rev. A. Cecil Williams of Kansas City who will preach his first sermon at the 8:30 services at the Riverside Methodist church.

The day will also mark the first appearance of the Rev. Dick Williams, Riverside church pastor, in the pulpit of Rev. Williams' church—St. James church in Kansas City.

These two events mark the beginning of an experiment in fostering better racial understanding between the churches of the Central jurisdiction, of which St. James church is a member, with churches in the North Iowa Methodist conference.

Rev. Williams boyhood home was at Austin, Texas, and he attended Tillotson college at Houston. After completing his theology studies at Perkins School of Theology of Southern Methodist university in Dallas he returned to Tillotson college to teach for four years. Prior to his Kansas City residency, Rev. Williams completed further study at the Pacific School of religion in California.

TONI HOLMES

ROBILYNN HAWKINS

Personally Yours by Frances Hawthorne.

I am back again with you once again after a wonderful and restful vacation at the home of my mother, Mrs. Pauline Watson in Eolia, Mo. Enroute there and back we had a safe and uneventful trip. My husband drove the entire 305 miles there and the same back. When we left Des Moines early Sunday morning, July 15 it was foggy, rainy and dreary looking, which lasted nearly two hours, after we got to Ottumwa. On the return trip we ran into a brief but turbulent rainstorm at the same place, but we made it allright.

While in Missouri we visited with my brothers and sisters at my mother's home and with another married brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Watson, Jr.

Before leaving we were guests at a sumptuous feast given in honor of my mother and youngest sister who returned with us, for a visit in Des Moines, by family friends and neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wommack.

We also made side trips to Louisiana, Troy and Bowling Green, Mo. Mostly we rested, ate of country wholesome good foods fresh from the garden, and relaxed and enjoyed ourselves.

Our sons, Victor and Vance, got the thrill of their lives which was also dampened by slight misgivings at intervals, when they went along on their first blackberry picking exhibition. Later when the large, dewy, black red berries were made into a traditional summer treat, blackberry cobbler, their delight was even more apparent.

We were a little surprised to see the changes that have taken place in the little town of less than 500 persons, which has also decreased from the time I graduated from school there some years ago. Schools have been integrated since the 1954 Supreme court decision. And of course for a small Missouri town that was a startling event in itself. However, some of the other events which follow naturally sometimes and sometimes not so naturally, do not always occur in a small town, such as integrated baseball games and other sports. However, in Eolia they are the common thing. On Thursday we got ready and went up to the ball diamond where my sister, Donna, 17, played left field for the Eolia team, and was among some four Negro girls on the team which also has an integrated coaching staff. The teams turned out to be short an umpire for third base so my husband was called on for umpire duty for that position, and did an admirable job to our delight and that of our three children. Eolia also won 11-7 against Bowling Green.

On Sunday we stayed long enough in the afternoon to see our brother, Donald, twin to Donna, pitch for the Eolia boys team against Bowling Green. He played a good game and it was our first time to see him play before we left and then we left after he was knocked out with three runs in and the bases loaded.

All in all it was an enjoyable experience to witness. These are only the highlights. We did not want to bore you with more details, only to say we came back loaded with various blackberries, vegetables and other home grown foods, to tantalize our appetite for the remainder of this week.

We were talking to Mrs. Ethel Jeffers of 1120 17th street and she told us she is making plans for leaving for California the first of August. She broke her toe recently but she is not letting that stop her.

Two Des Moines ladies would like very much to be in the Iowa delegation that will leave Friday for Washington, D.C. to attend the National Association of Colored Women's Clubs, Inc., this weekend. They are Mrs. Helen D. Wimberly who has made previous trips to the national sessions and who is quite active in the Iowa Association of Club Women and Mrs. Sarah E. Jett, also quite active in IACW, who was to have made a trip as a gift from Parliamentary Law and Culture Club. Mrs. Jett suffered a stroke weeks ago and just recently was released from the hospital and will return to the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr.

TOO MANY PEOPLE
HOLDING EXTRA JOBS

With the increase and the number of retired people, the problem of what to do with them gets more acute. But the program was never intended that these people should shift to other occupations. It would push unretired persons out of jobs. Jobs are too scarce now, and for retired people to take the jobs of others simply adds to the unemployed, putting additional people out of work.

The sheriff of Polk county has asked the board of supervisors to permit the hiring of the former chief of police as a deputy, to be placed in charge of the identification bureau. And while this officer is a splendid man, his services in this connection would add nothing to the office in view of the fact that he is not expert in the field.

In charge of this work today is a man who has spent years on the job. And judging from his popularity with those whom he has been required to work, he has done a good job.

There are altogether too many people holding two jobs today, while at the same time the employment situation is very unsatisfactory. Many young people find themselves out of a job (some are just out of school) while others because of influence are holding jobs they should not have.

Some members of the board are opposed to the idea, and as a practical matter they are on sound ground.

WHY EMPHASIZE
OUR DIFFERENCES?

A few days ago, a movement got on foot to have the city council honor citizens from foreign countries emphasizing the contribution each group has made to America. Citizens from Latvia were first to be honored.

Speaking of what America has meant to them, a leader of the group praised America as a country where every citizen is free to live, work and prosper with freedom from tyranny such as existed in the old country. Evidently he has not read all about America because many of things going on in some parts of the country certainly negate the statement.

The program is a mistake. It does no good to know how many Latvians, Jews, Italians, Germans, Frenchmen, Negroes, Englishmen, etc. are in Des Moines. Such a move tends to emphasize the lot of many segments of the population, rather than the whole citizens as Americans.

In some of his famous sayings, the late Justice Holmes often said that it is far better to emphasize the things we agree upon than that with which we disagree. Certainly to emphasize the racial strains, many of whom disagree in several ways or maybe advocate strange doctrines, tend to set them apart and thus negative our hope that all of our citizens are Americans and not pseudo Americans.

THESE PEOPLE MAKE SACRIFICES FOR ALL

One can not but admire Dr. Martin Luther King, Rev. Abanathy, and the other brave Negro citizens in Albany, Georgia, who are consistently risking their lives and freedom for the cause of first class citizenship. And while segregation exists all over the South just about like it does in Albany, the campaign emphasizes the folly of the whole system which denies citizens the equal protection of the law as guaranteed by the constitution and fully explained by the Supreme Court.

It is well that in these actions, Dr. King and his followers obey the law for to do otherwise, plays into the hands of enemies and flaunts the very thing that has been so effective in breaking down discrimination over the country.

When these sit-in demonstrations began, former President Eisenhower said that the participants were simply exercising the right of protests to the government for wrongs being done to them, and as long as they were being conducted in an orderly fashion he saw no objection to them.

The mayor of Albany and his followers, taking a cue from the N.A.A.C.P., has gone into federal court and secured an order restraining Dr. King, Rev. Abanathy and others from carrying on these demonstrations. Chief Judge Elbert T.

Tuttle of the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals said, "the trial court had no jurisdiction to enter the order at all".

The injunction will not stand, for these people violated no law. It is the duty of the mayor and other officials to protect these citizens in the orderly exercise of their rights. To do otherwise brands them neglectful of their duties and makes an attempt to use the courts to cover up their shortcomings.

We try to think of Negro athletes in major competition as Negroes. But if you saw the Russian-United States track meet last weekend, you couldn't help but be proud of the Negroes as they just about cleaned up in almost every event but the high jumps and the top step and jump. In fact if it were not for those fellows the Russians would have probably scored a million points. Then there were a lot of others who were in third or fourth place in the trials for this meet and on a given day they could have been running just as did those who did compete. Then when one realizes that we saw a lot of those fellows run here in our own back yard we felt that we had a small personal stake in the meet.

Boxing

Cassius Clay, kept his word and knocked out Pinkie George's fighter as quickly as he said he would. Now, people would like to see him tangle with Archie Moore who is getting no younger fast and we believe Clay is too fast to be caught up by one of the Moore traps. Speed can cover up a lot of mistakes and make up for a lot of inexperience. So, maybe, Moore better sit this one out and see how far Clay can go.

So much has been said and written about Sugar Ray Robinson that there isn't much to say except that we wish he would stop for good before he gets his brain scrambled.

Baseball

It looks as if the Yankees have finally got rolling and the rest of the race is a mere formality. But, one has to think of a club that could be real tough in either league. Include all of the Negroes on one club and you would have a tough outfit to beat and might not beat them. But none would want that and we are sure we mean no one.

One can't say much more about Jackie Robinson's Hall of Fame election. Just nice that it happened. Maybe, they will juggle the rules to get Satchel Paige in. He certainly should be there and given the chance would surely have become one of the games' greatest pitchers.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Baby Teeth

"It's only a baby tooth. Don't bother with it."

That's a sad mistake. Baby needs good teeth, not only for present use, but also for future dental health.

Once a toddler begins to eat solid food, he needs a good set of teeth to chew with. And neglect of baby teeth can lead to all kinds of dental trouble later on.

Permanent

It is important to remember that the permanent teeth exist in "bud" form in the jaw under the baby teeth. If baby teeth decay and so are lost too early, the permanent teeth which follow may come out in the wrong position. Permanent teeth that are overcrowded or protrude can change the shape of the mouth and face.

Temporary

Taking care of temporary teeth will help ensure what dentists call a proper bite (occlusion). That's the way the upper and lower teeth meet. Many children suffer from a faulty bite (malocclusion) because their permanent teeth have come in askew. Getting the permanent teeth into proper position later is a long and expensive business.

Complete Set

A child has his complete set of 20 temporary teeth by the time he is two or two and a half. Then is the right time to start taking him to the dentist for regular check-ups. Don't wait until he gets his first toothache. If his earliest association with the dentist does not involve pain, he may never develop that fear of the dentist which afflicts so many children, and adults too.

The dentist can advise you how best to protect those baby teeth from decay. Take the child back to the dentist twice a year. And while you're there, how about letting the dentist look at your teeth?

"MY CHURCH"

Have you thoughtfully asked yourself the question?
If not, perhaps, it's a swell suggestion.
What kind of a church would my church be,
If all the members were just like me?
You can sit there at home, and smoke your pipe,
Find fault with the officers, censure and gripe.
Or, you can be one always on call,
Both ready and willing to carry the ball.
To your fellow members, you will soon be known
As a true loyal worker—or else as a drone;
You can seek out a job, or you can refuse
To take any part, beyond paying your dues.
You can sit in the side-lines or jump

in and play,
Attending every meeting or just stay away;
You can visit his home when a Brother is ill
Or leave all the calling to Joe or Bill
Whatever your talents, some job you can do,
So, say to yourself as the past you review;
What kind of a church would my church be,
If all of the members were just like me?

DOUBT AND FAITH

Doubt sees the obstacles—
Faith sees the way!
Doubt sees the darkest night—
Faith sees the day!

Doubt dreads to take a step—
Faith soars on high!
Doubt questions, "Who believes?"
Faith answers, "I".
