Clerical Error

Municipal Judge Ray Harrison dismissed reckless driving charges against Jones and Mrs. Perry because the police officers who made the arrest failed to appear in court to testify. Court officials said there was a clerical error and subpoenas issued to the officers bore the wrong appearance date.

The crowd, which police estimated grew to 300, gathered after they stopped Jones and Mrs. Perry. Police said they were pelted with apples, rocks and sticks.

Antao's feat was reported in a dispatch from London, where he also equaled a meet record for the 100 meters in 10.4 seconds.

The Kenyan sprinter was also successful in Berlin where he won the 200 meters event and placed second in the 100 meters in an international track meet.

Reprieve Come 2 Days Before Death after 9 Year Fight for Life

Chicago, Ill.—Paul Crump, who spent nine years in jail under a death sentence, had his sentence commuted to life without parole by Governor Otto Kerner two days before he was to have died in the electric chair.

When Crump heard the news he said, "I can only thank God for this." Crump had been scheduled to die Friday for murdering Theodore Zukowski, a plant guard, during a $20,000 holdup in 1953.

During the move for clemency Crump made no denial of guilt, and he made no claim of innocence.

Cited Opinions

His lawyers didn't challenge the handling of his case in the courts.

Instead, they concentrated on the opinion of jail guards, clergymen and others that Crump had undergone a "miraculous change" for the better during his nine years in the Cook County Jail.

Attends Race Relation Institute in Indiana

Miss Jean Sanfilippo, teacher at Mount Olive Lutheran School in Des Moines and member of the Des Moines Branch of the NAACP has just spent eight days (July 22-29) at Valparaiso University in Indiana at the Lutheran Human Relations Association of America (L.H.R.A.A.) Workshop and Institute.

The 44 professional church workers at the workshop heard many essays by Dr. Thomas F. Pettigrew of Harvard University. Dr. Pettigrew co-authored the book, "Christians in Racial Crisis," a sociological study of the Little Rock ministry.

A special feature of the Workshop was a full day's tour of the South and West sides of Chicago's densely populated Negro areas. A visit was paid to the Johnson Publishing Co., Inc., which publishes Ebony, Jet, Negro Digest, and Tan magazines. The 2½ day Institute was attended by 400 Lutherans concerned about race relations, nearly half of whom were non white.

Miss Sanfilippo, whose original home town is in Maywood, Ill., has been vitally concerned with the race issue for the last five years when she was a member of an interracial church in Chicago and spent much time doing church work in the surrounding Negro communities.

The Robert Wrights Win Award for Yard In Wakonda Manor

A Des Moines attorney and his wife proved to Des Moines that contrary to some areas of opinion that Negroes can and do keep up their yards and property when they move into a predominantly white neighborhood.

They are Atty. and Mrs. Robert A. Wright and two daughters of 4517 Wakonda parkway. Last week they were singled out for honor and awarded as having the best yard in Wakonda Manor, one of six districts whose yards were judged by the Men's Garden Club of Des Moines.

Fall Conditioning

The task of keeping up the yard around the family residents belongs to Atty. Wright, who said, "I'm a firm believer that preparing the yard in the fall even one hour pays far more dividends than two hours in the spring."

Atty. Wright says he takes a week in the fall when he concentrates on his yard, getting it in condition for the spring, cutting the grass, raking all leaves, spraying for weeds and crabgrass, seeding and using a fertilizer.

"I also believe that a brush should be used everytime you cut the grass," said Atty. Wright who admitted he had not had to work as hard this year on his yard as in previous years. "I guess my previous efforts are paying off now."

Falls Off Ladder, Man, 48, Injured

George Carter, 48, of 946 Sixteenth st., was in Broadlawn Polk County Hospital Friday evening with back injuries suffered in a fall earlier Friday. Police said he was painting or preparing to paint a house at 1541 Harding road when he fell about 13 feet from a ladder.

Girlfriend, 19, Charged With Abetting Arrest of Martin; Barker Waives

A young woman described as the girl friend of a man who was recaptured a week later after escaping from police officers at the police station was arraigned in Municipal court Monday on charge of assisting a person to escape from an officer.

She is Shirley Ann Otis, 19 of 1305 University avenue; she pleaded innocent to the charge and was released from custody after posting $500 bond.

Escap

Miss Otis was charged in connection with the arrest Saturday of Charles Edwin Martin, 21, of 1755 E. University avenue. Martin was charged with breaking and entering the Duck Inn Tavern, 805 7th street, and Noah's Ark, 2400 Ingersoll avenue. He escaped from the basement of the police station when he and his brother-in-law, Wayne E. Barker, 21, of 1143 13th street, were taken there by Patrolman Joseph Dunham about 3 a.m. Sunday, July 29. Dunham said he noticed the car apparently trying to avoid his squad car along E. 14th street. He stopped them, neither had identification and their car contained an assortment of tools and other objects which police believed to have been stolen.

Acted on Tip

As they were about to enter the basement of the police station Martin suddenly ran out the east door. Acting on a tip, police went to an 11th and University apartment last Saturday. They said Miss Otis slammed the door in their faces and barricaded the door. Martin then jumped from a window and ran a half-block before police caught him again.

Burglaries

At his arrest police said Barker admitted the two burglaries, naming Martin as his accomplice. Barker said they got $1,160 in cash from the Noah's safe and $10 in cash, four cartons of cigarettes and 12 cans of beer from the Duck-Inn Tavern. Barker waived to the grand jury and is being held under $10,000 bond.

Hails President's Statement On Albany Demonstrations

New York—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People "deeply appreciates your forthright statement on Albany, Ga.," NAACP Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins said in a telegram sent to President Kennedy, Aug. 2.

The telegram was in praise of the President's characterization of the Albany situation as "completely unsatisfactory" and the attitude of the city government as "wholly inexplicable," in response to a question raised at his press conference, Aug. 1.

48 Hours

Kennedy made his remarks within 48 hours after the NAACP leader had sent a wire calling upon the President "to speak out in condemnation of the persecution . . . of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King and his associates for peacefully protesting racial injustice."

In his press conference, the President said: "I find it wholly inexplicable why the city council of Albany will not sit down with the citizens of Albany, who may be Negroes, and attempt to secure them, in a peaceful way, their rights."

Wilkins Attends Jamaica Celebration

Kingston, Jamaica, W. I. — Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, is among distinguished guests of the government attending the celebrations marking the independence of Jamaica, Aug. 4-8.

Representing the British Crown at the celebration is Princess Margaret, younger sister of Queen Elizabeth II. The NAACP leader was invited by Sir Alexander Bustamante, Premier of the newly independent nation, to be present at a series of events in celebration of independence.

Scheduled as the highlight of the five-day celebration was the national parade beginning at 11:00 p.m., Sunday, and culminating in the raising of the Jamaican flag at midnight, Aug. 5-6, as the symbol of independence.

Geneva

"The United States Government is involved in sitting down at Geneva with the Soviet Union. I can't understand why the government of Albany . . . cannot do the same for American citizens."

The President further said that the Federal Government would "try to provide a satisfactory solution and the protection of the constitutional rights of the people of Albany . . . And the situation today is completely unsatisfactory from that point of view."

Denial of Rights

In his telegram to the President, dispatched on July 30, Wilkins charged that "The time-honored rights of assembly and petition for redress of grievances have been denied and a community of 22,000 is being repressed in ruthless fashion . . . Practically on the eve of the 100th anniversary of the drafting of the Emancipation Proclamation, the United States of America is witnessing in Albany, the flouting not only of that document, but of the Bill of Rights."

Iowa 40 & 8 Asks Removal of Racial Ban on Membership

Davenport, Ia.—For the first time in its history, the Iowa group of the 40 & 8, social organization of the American Legion, went on record asking the national group to remove the word "white" from the requirements for membership.

At its convention here Tuesday the organization approved a resolution on the matter. It was the strongest move the Iowa convention has taken and was done so unanimously.

Sore Spot

This racial restriction has been a sore spot between the American Legion and its 'fun' society. The Legion has threatened to expel the 40 & 8 unless the restriction "white male" is removed from its constitution. The Legion has no such restriction in its membership rules.

They were led by Iowa president, Mrs. Roberta Frazier, Des Moines, whose financial expenses were paid by the Iowa Association of Club Women. All other delegates and visitors making the trip paid their own way or had it paid as a gift by relatives or families.

She had been nominated by IACW. Also on a raised platform in the state officers section was Mrs. Frazier. Mrs. Glanton was presented a certificate of award for her outstanding achievement and contributions to human relations and womanhood. Later, a banquet was given in honor of state presidents, with Mrs. Frazier among the honored. More than 500 attended.

MORE DES MOINES SOCIAL NEWS

The local scene continues its constant change as people leave and return from vacation or guests arrive, enjoy themselves and depart again for their homes. There are so many people in and out of the city that it's hard to keep up with them, so we gladly solicit your help in reporting them on our social pages of the Bystander.

Ran into Mr. and Mrs. Vernon K. Ashford, Sr., 3017 Bowdoin, at a local downtown camera shop where they had the same idea as I, getting pictures out or putting film in for developing. Mrs. Ashford said they expect company in about the last week of August but about the middle of this month they are going to Denver, Colo., to bring back some grandchildren for a visit.

Enjoying the happy presence of their granddaughter, Cindy Long of Knoxville, Tenn., is Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Proctor of 1111 11th street. All the children of Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Griffin of 1608 44th street are in camp for a few weeks. Planning to make a trip soon to Detroit, Mich., for a family reunion there is Mr. Hobart DePatten and three children. His wife, Mrs. Evelyn DePatten, will not be able to accompany them because she cannot get vacation time due to changing to her new job recently at Salisbury House.

Mr. Rufus Spates of 1244 13th street returned last week from Wichita Falls, Tex., where he had motored to pick up his daughter, Peggy Marie, who had been vacationing with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albia Spates. Peggy's grandmother had taken all her grandchildren to Seattle, Wash., to visit the Seattle World Fair.

Mrs. Leon S. Jones, Sr., of 1929 Buffalo road, returned last week from Los Angeles, Calif., where she had flown by jet airliner to be with her son, David, on his 15th birthday. She stayed a week with both sons who are spending the summer there with relatives, before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones of 1227 10th street expect to spend part of Mr. Jones' two-weeks vacation in Kansas City, Mo., visiting with relatives and friends. Mr. Jones is custodian at Willkie House which is now closed for summer activities and renovation.

The burning of old Crocker school drew a large crowd as many expected. They were treated with the sight of a major fire and all the panorama of fighting it. There, of course, was one element missing—the desperate need to stop the fire or bring it under control, as it would be if the fire had been one not deliberately set. Aside from experience on fire fighting for firemen, it also proved in inexpensive way to get rid of a huge building.

For those who will attend the completely remodeled Moulton school (former Old North high) some may have far to go by bus but they will have a brand new school inside. From our peeks inside the most modern and up to date building materials and paint colors are being used. And pleasant surroundings inside a school room are important because from fourth grade up many pupils never get outside only at noon lunch hour and closing time.

The poem "Growing up" in the Exchange section this week was written by a 13-year-old girl, which also reiterates what I have always said. Don't worry about today's youth. Most of them are pretty sound with their feet on the ground.

July Visitors in Stanley Proctor Home

July visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Proctor, 1111 11th street, were their sons-in-law and daughters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Long, Jr., and children, Cindy, Julie and Matthew III of Knoxville, Tenn., Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wilbekin and son, Erik Jon of Cincinnati, Ohio.

VERY SUCCESSFUL RECITAL BY SANDRA LOUISE HARVEY

An organ-piano recital by Sandra Louise Harvey, 15-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert F. Harvey of Waterloo was a great success at Payne Memorial A.M.E. Church last Saturday evening, Aug. 5.

An appreciative audience of music lovers of Waterloo, Cedar Falls, and Minneapolis were enthralled and pleasantly surprised at Miss Harvey's technique with both instruments and especially the ease with which she handled difficult numbers by the masters. The recital was unusual in its presentation of two instruments.

A beautiful reception in the church parlors followed the recital. Pictures were taken by Mr. Ivan Mast of Cedar Falls and Mr. Eugene Speller of Waterloo which will be made into an album for Sandra who enters East High School in the fall.

Mrs. Harvey Fullilove teaches Sandra piano and Mrs. Margaret Davis the organ.

Mrs. Dorothea Anderson of Alexandria, Louisiana and Mrs. Carolyn Powell of Shreveport, Louisiana are visiting in the home of Mrs. Ruth Stinson. Mrs. Anderson teaches 12th grade English and Literature and Mrs. Powell is a teacher of social studies—12th grade. They are the sisters of the late Rev. G. T. Stinson.

Mrs. Herbert Cox is on vacation and visiting relatives and friends in Omaha, Neb. and in Des Moines, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Devann of 1336 E. 19th St. Her plans also include a trip to Pueblo, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Therioth are visiting her relatives in Memphis, Tenn. From there they will go to Tulsa, Okla., to see his brother.

TIMES BRING ON NEW CONDITIONS

The Citizens Committee in Albany, Ga., has requested, without success, an audience with city officials for the purpose of working out a settlement of their complaints of racial discrimination.

In his press conference last week, President Kennedy said he could see no reason why the Albany officials should not meet with the Citizens Committee to discuss their problems. But to this, the officials said they would meet with local Negroes but not outsiders, meaning Dr. King, Rev. Abernathy and others who do not live in the city.

Undoubtedly, this concession upon the part of Albany officials sounds reasonable. But when one considers that most of the gains in civil rights for the Negro in the South, much of the early education he has received has come from outsiders, it makes a difference.

It must be remembered that missionary teachers from the North provided most of the instruction in Negro schools, particularly higher education following and for years after the Civil War.

But there is a broader aspect to the problem which these Albany officials overlook. President Washington early advised America to refrain from entangling alliances with other nations. The Monroe Doctrine set us apart from other nations frowning upon the encroachment on this hemisphere by foreign nations.

This was sound at the time these pronouncements were made. But they don't fit modern day living. As a matter of fact, America is using its influence, money and prestige over the world in an effort to spread Democratic ideals and stop or contain communism. It does so because experience has shown that wars and conflicts in other parts of the world invariably involve America. These efforts are being made to keep the peace.

If outside aid helps solve problems between nations—and it is being done every day—then outside help for Georgia Negroes is needed to solve problems in that and other states which local people ignore or refuse to consider.

Another aspect of the fight being waged by the Albany officials has resulted in securing an injunction against Negroes for protesting wrong doings by the city. They were successful in securing an injunction in federal court to cease and desist the prayers, parades and gatherings as a threat to peace.

It is difficult to understand why the court would issue an injunction against peaceful lawful protests. (Illegal protest should be condemned whoever does it, black or white). It would be interesting to see how far Negroes would get seeking an injunction against such mob action as occurred in New Orleans and Little Rock when howling mobs molested the youngsters whose parents dared send them to integrated schools. Undoubtedly, the court would say this was a matter for local law enforcing officials or the state police force in case the former could not control the situation.

This Albany case will find its way to the U. S. Supreme Court where such tommyrot as carried on by Albany officials and the local federal court will be struck down.

IOWA 40 AND 8
STAND FOR FAIR PLAY

The 40 and 8, fund making organization of the American Legion, has restricted its membership to "white" only.

Several state American Legion organizations—and Iowa's have been among them—have fought this un-American exclusion of Negro servicemen from the 40 and 8. And in spite of strong measures and protests from the American Legion, this provision has not been eliminated.

At the annual convention in Davenport this week, the 40 and 8 passed a strong resolution condemning the continuance of the all "white" provision in the constitution and called for its elimination. For this, they are to be congratulated for making meaningful the beautiful constitution of the parent organization.

In fact, the Iowa Legionnaires have been a fine lot over the years in the support of their Negro buddies. Never has a case of discrimination occurred in their operations. Local posts and women of the auxiliary have made meaningful the association of ex-servicemen by electing some as county commanders and other officials, lending their assistance whenever called upon and assuring representation in their patriotic activities.

Much of this is due to the fine leadership the Legion and 40 and 8 have had over the year. Undoubtedly, it will continue serving as a credit to the whole organization and the State of Iowa.

The Hilltop Tennis Club got a break on the weather and put on just about the fastest moving meet of the fourteen that have been held. There weren't too many Negroes in the thing but those who were there had a lot of fun.

Cecil Brewton's boy, Cecil the III didn't get very far in his bid for a win. Louis Miles won a Veteran's opening round duel but went out in the Vets and Men's singles in the next round.

Royal Madison of Chicago, a fellow who used to live here, and Leon Mann both came close in the Vets singles but teamed up and won a doubles match before going out.

Esther Meyers

Esther Myers tried to make it a triple crown but she and Cecil Brewton were cut down in the semifinals of the mixed doubles.

In the Men's singles the long grip of defending Champ, Gene Nadig, was finally broken by a newcomer to tennis around these parts. Roy Barnes of Ames gave Nadig quite a tennis lesson in a match that he said neither one played well.

One of the fiercest men in the tournament was Dick Judish of Davenport. The guy came to play and won the Veterans Singles honors. He bounded out in the semifinals of the Men's Singles and teamed with Bud Lusk of Davenport to be the first to get their names on the William Ashby standing doubles.

Bud Lusk

Oh yes, Bud Lusk and Wittlake teamed up to beat Harold McCollum and his daughter, Margaret in the shortest mixed doubles match on record.

In the Junior event Rich Friedman was so far over the field in the boys 18 and under singles that he probably kept the entry list down.

The other boys events eighteen and under and fifteen and under doubles were shared by two finalists.

In the Girls there were just two names, Robson and Fletcher.

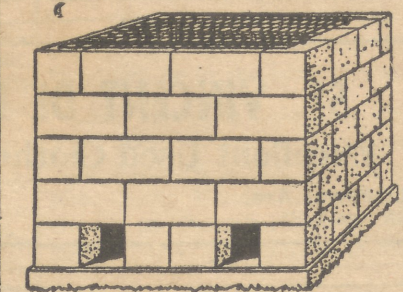

These two girls traded two-hour matches with one winning the fifteen and under singles and the other the eighteen and under. Then they won both doubles honors by playing together.

All in all it was quite a meet.

Handy Incinerator

FOR burning household rubbish, an incinerator built of concrete blocks on a concrete foundation is excellent. The base is 4 by 5 feet, and the concrete should be reinforced with chicken wire, according to Family Handyman.

Use standard size building blocks, setting the first course on a thin layer of mortar and leaving two 8"x8" spaces at the front to provide ample draft for complete incineration.

The cover is turkey wire, 1"x2" mesh, with welded joints so the wires won't separate due to the heat. Eye-bolts may be inserted in the joints between two of the top building blocks, if you want to hinge the mesh cover by looping down two pieces of the wire into the metal eyes.

Willkie House Day Camp Ends After Six Weeks of Varied, Enjoyable Activities

Willkie House Home Day Camp closed July 27th with one of its best programs according to parents and children. For six weeks, 5 days a week, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. a total of about 75 campers, ages 5-11½ years old enjoyed all of the routines of a regular camp program except for over night cabin experiences. They learned and sang many camp songs, participated in the Red Cross swimming program at Good Park twice a week. Steven Bush, Steven Dyser and Ronnie Sharp received swimming certificates.

Crafts

There was a variety of craft projects, nature lore, roller skating, games, fishing, tours to the Historical Museum, The Peter Pan Bakery, The Animal Rescue League, The Register & Tribune Building, The Ray & Ann Pet Shop, and a tour through a Rock Island Train and other places of interest. On the 2nd day of camp, the Campers enjoyed a theater party at the Orpheum Theater. They saw "Big Red," a Walt Disney picture.

Horseback Riding

All of the campers were thrilled over the horseback riding activity under the supervision of Mrs. Judy Smith. During the 6 weeks, all of the campers spent one day a week at five of Des Moines' lovely parks and the program was planned according to the facilities such as fishing at Birdland Lagoon and Greenwood Parks; cook outs, trail blazing, softball games, etc. Parks used were Pioneer, Mc Henry, Greenwood, Birdland Lagoon, and twice at Union Park. A Watermelon Seed contest and softball game terminated the weekly park program at Union Park.

Birthdays

The last Friday of camp, all campers having June and July birthdays were honored with cake and ice cream and special birthday cards which were signed by all of the campers in their respective groups. The cakes were baked by Mrs. Ann Parks group. Every one received a surprise pack. The Commanches, the older boys group under the supervision of Mrs. Judy Smith presented a special dramatic production of an Indian story, Kuo-ah, The Bear Boy.

The regular staff, Mrs. Judy Smith, and Mrs. Alvera Orr were assisted by Misses Rhoda Miller and Shirley Carter, and Camp Junior Counselors, James Carter and Seymour Gray, Jr. Assistance also came from Mrs. Willie Wells, David Rhone, William Jones, Norman Wright and Harry Flipping, Sr.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Oh, My Nerves!

Can't sleep? Ready to jump out of your skin? Whoa there! Don't be so quick to run to the drug store.

For one thing, everybody is sleepless now and then. And nobody can live a completely stress-free life, so extra tension must be expected from time to time.

Sleeping Pills

For another, what you can buy in the drug store are not true tranquilizers or sleeping pills. These can still be bought only with a prescription. Principal ingredients of the patent medicines are an antihistamine, a couple of mild sedatives, and sometimes a pain-killer. The pills may produce a slight drowsiness.

The government allows these drugs to be sold over the counter because taken in the recommended dosages they are harmless. But the tense insomniac is just the one most likely to take more than the recommended dose or get impatient for results and repeat the dose too soon. Any of the ingredients in excessive amounts can be dangerous. And no tranquilizer or sleeping pill should be taken for a long period of time except under a doctor's supervision.

Sleeplessness

For the sleeplessness try a warm bath, a hot drink, more ventilation, a bedtime snack. You can safely disregard occasional tense moments as the hard lot of anyone living in this unquiet world.

But if sleeplessness and tension persist, they can be serious symptoms and should not be self-treated. Delay in seeking medical advice may make an underlying condition worse. So if you feel tense or have difficulty sleeping most of the time, see your doctor. —Polk County Tuberculosis and Health Assn.

JUST A LITTLE

Just a little laughter
Mixed with work and play
Makes a happy ending
To a trying day.
Just a little kindness
Scattered 'long the way
Always helps to brighten
Skies, though dull and gray.
Just a little smiling
When we others meet
Changes clouds to sunshine,
Makes the bitter sweet.
Just a little lifting
Helping here and there,
Makes so many burdens
Easier to bear.
Just a little singing
Of some cheerful thing

Makes the hours seem shorter
Though the days are long.
Just a little courage
When the battle's on—
I will make your brother,
In the conflict, strong.
Just a word of comfort
And a handclasp true,
Breaks the clouds of sorrow
And the sun shines through.
Just a little praying,
A little loving, too
Will put a bit of heaven
Into things you do.

GROWING UP

At the foot of the Cross
I hope to stay

Depending on Jesus to Guide
My way.

For I know I'm just a youngster
Starting in my teens,

But I know who Jesus is and
What the Bible means.

We know we grow in body
Until maturity

We should also grow with Jesus
For our Soul's security.

I am just an average student
In subjects at my school

But I hope to get an "A" report
When I practice the Golden Rule.

More Headaches
For Campanellas,
Stepson Is Jailed

Glen Cove, L.I., N.Y.—A new problem confronted the Roy Campanellas last week when the 19-year-old stepson of the former Dodger catcher was arrested, pleaded guilty to disorderly charges resulting from a fist fight in which he had engaged with two other youths, and was arraigned in City Court here.

David B. McKenzie (Campanella) was reported held for sentencing in lieu of $500 bail, after police took him into custody for refusing to obey an order to leave the Community Hospital grounds after the fight.

Sponsors Drop
Sifford, Faces
Financial Handicap

Philadelphia — Charging that his own race let him down, Charley Sifford of Los Angeles disclosed here last week that he faces a great financial handicap because the Croyden Golf Equipment company, which had been sponsoring him at a cost of about $10,000 a year has cut off the funds because Negroes failed to buy golf clubs and balls manufactured by the company bearing his name.

Sifford, the nation's ranking Negro pro golfer, charged further that Negro golfers, by failing to support him were paying only lip service to the fight to eradicate race barriers in golfing.

Sifford expressed no bitterness toward the firm for cutting off the funds covering traveling expenses, caddy fees, equipment and membership fees. He indicated he feels the company has a right to expect some support.

In an unprecedented move in which the rules were suspended, Dr. Rosa L. Gragg, was unanimously elected to a third two-year term as president of the National Association of Colored Women's Clubs, one of the largest and most influential organizations of Negro women in the United States. Delegates from federated clubs in nearly every state in the union made the unprecedented step, which heretofore had governed that no president could serve more than two consecutive terms.
