Hiram Lodge No. 19, Davenport, Celebrates Prince Hall Day

Hiram Lodge No. 19 celebrated Prince Hall day at Bethel A.M.E. church in Davenport, Ia., recently, and took time out to pose for the picture above.

Marshalltown NAACP Gets Plaque for Membership, F.F.F. Achievements in 1962

Marshalltown, Ia.—George Cooper, Council Bluffs, Ia., and president of the Iowa State Conference of NAACP Branches was guest speaker at a program Sunday for the Marshalltown branch at Second Baptist church.

Mr. Cooper hailed the branch's outstanding achievement in membership increase, Fighting Fund for Freedom and said the work of "small communities is just as vitally important as those of the large cities." He urged the organization to continue the fight for full freedom for all men.

Plaque

He also noted that the branch's program came close to the 100th anniversary of President Lincoln's signing of the Emancipation Proclamation.

He presented the president, Wilmer Johnson, with a plaque from the national office which had been awarded at the regional convention in Minneapolis, Minn., for the branch's achievement. Mr. Manuel Bailey, vice president, president over the program.

Sit-Inners

Invocation was by Rev. W. R. Fields of Des Moines. Mrs. Samuel Morrow presented the Morrow Quintet which sang several numbers. Mrs. Rose Johnson, presented Tracy Rodgers of New Iberia, La., student at Drake University who gave a bird's eye view of the sit-in and swim-ins in which he participated in 1961-62 while a student at Talledega College in Alabama.

Two Leaders

Mrs. S. Morrow, F.F.F. chairman and Russell Gilliam, membership chairman, were presented as the two who were chiefly responsible for the branch receiving the NAACP plaque. John Mowry, state representative of Marshall county, spoke on Iowa civil rights.

Virginia Circuit Court Bans Two Anti-NAACP Statutes

Richmond, Va.—The right of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc., to advocate racial integration and to underwrite legal expenses for desegregation litigation in the State of Virginia has been affirmed by the Circuit Court of Richmond.

Packet of 7

In a decision striking down two of a packet of seven anti-NAACP statutes passed by the Virginia General Assembly in 1956, Judge Edmund W. Henning ruled that neither organization may be required to register in order to "engage in activities relating to: (1) the advocating of racial integration or segregation, or (2) the raising or expending of funds for the employment of counsel or payment of costs in connection with litigation in behalf of any race or color."

Lobbying

However, the judge also ruled that the NAACP may be required to register where it may be engaged in lobbying activity designed to influence legislation or in activity to create "racial conflicts involving violence."

This ruling limited the application of the law requiring registration. Two of the laws governing ethical standards of civil rights lawyers were declared unconstitutional by Judge Henning. Previously, the Supreme Court of Virginia had declared a similar anti-barratry law

D.M. NAACP Plans Intensive Fall Roundup For Membership Quota

Mrs. Thelma Clark, 1962 membership chairman of the Des Moines branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, announces an intensive two-month drive to bring the local membership up to its quota of 1200.

"We have nearly four hundred memberships to go yet, but we are going to try to make it," she said in a telephone interview.

"Most people don't realize that a membership not only entitles them to attend the NAACP meetings but also to participate. We are always looking for new blood and new workers," she added.

She pointed out that vacations had slowed down the campaign but now every effort will be put forth to meet the Des Moines goal of membership as well as the Fighting Fund for Freedom.

"Anyone wishing to take out a NAACP membership or who has not been contacted previously may call me and I will be glad to pick up the membership," she said.

She noted that the drive here is being held in connection with a fall membership roundup directed in many U.S. cities who have not met 1962 quotas under the directive of the national office.

Mrs. Bertha Willis to Go on Trial Oct. 2 For 1st Degree Murder

Mrs. Bertha Mae Willis, charged with first degree murder, will go on trial at 9 a.m. Tuesday, Oct. 2 in Polk County District Judge Ray C. Fountain's court.

Mrs. Willis, 44, who gave her address as 1352 15th street, pleaded innocent to the charge Friday in connection with the fatal shooting of her husband, Ernest.

Mrs. Willis is accused of shooting her husband five times with a .38-caliber revolver June 10 at the D.A.V. Club, 808 12th street, which he operated.

Mrs. Willis is being held in the Polk County jail without bond.

NAACP BOARD MEMBER N WINS INTERRACIAL AWARD

New York — NAACP Executive member of the Board of Directors of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and president of the New York State Conference of NAACP branches was the winner of an annual award given by the Catholic Interracial Council. Dr. Reed, a Long Island dentist, received the James J. Hoey award for interracial justice.

U.S. Justice Department in Historic Suit to End Bias In Impacted-Areas Schools

Washington—The Justice Department's historic suit, seeking to end racial discrimination in public schools receiving federal monies, culminated several years of NAACP spade work.

Government action this week was based on complaints filed by the Association's Washington Bureau on behalf of children of military personnel stationed at Fort Lee and Fort Belvoir, Va., and Sheppard Air Force base, Texas.

Prince George County

Schools in Prince George County, Va., received funds under the federal program of school aid for "impacted areas"—schools whose attendances have been expanded due to children of military personnel stationed nearby.

The NAACP's work in the Fort Lee, Va. problem goes back several years. The first major development took place in 1960 when the Association asked the Department of Health, Education and Welfare to intercede.

NEWS In A Nutshell

Toledo, Ohio.—Raymond Heard, a Hampton Institute has become the first Negro teacher in the Swanton school system.

Norfolk, Va.—The Negro law firm of Jordon, Dawley and Holt which has provided the legal support for most of the integration fights in Georgia, Southern Carolina and Virginia has integrated itself by hiring a white law student and a white woman secretary from San Francisco, Calif.

West Los Angeles, Calif.—Mrs. Rita Davis, 41, stepmother of entertainer Sammy Davis, Jr., last week was hospitalized at the UCLA Medical Center from an overdose of sleeping pills she had taken following a family argument.

Washington, D.C.—The U.S. Senate last week swiftly confirmed the nomination of Carl T. Rowan deputy assistant Secretary of State for Public Affairs, as an alternate delegate to the 17th United Nations General Assembly this fall, in sharp contrast to the delaying tactics employed by the Senate in the case of Federal Judge Thurgood Marshall.

San Francisco, Calif.—Mrs. Joan Finney became the first Negro woman in Northern California to be elected to a Congressional District co-chairman at the recent meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee.

New York — Miss Margaret M. Smith, who speaks and writes Spanish and French fluently was appointed supervisor of Immigration and Naturalization Service port receptionists at International Airport, Idlewild.

Chicago—The planned reception for a newly wed Negro couple turned into a minor riot here last week when a mob of about 1,000 whites demonstrated against the use of the hall, located in a white commercial area and stoned the bride couple and their guests. The bride also had the horrifying experience of seeing her mother pelted by a rock and arrested by police.

Ghetto Trash Protest Brings Prompt Results

Brooklyn, N. Y.—In a unique protest action over a community grievance—irregular garbage collections—some 40 members of Brooklyn CORE on Sept. 15 made their own trash pick-ups in the Bedford Stuyvesant Negro ghetto area and deposited three truckloads on the steps of Borough Hall.

"Suitable"

HEW was asked to rule that the word "suitable" in laws pertaining to the education of military personnel at Fort Lee, be interpreted to mean "desegregated." The Department did not agree with the Association at that time, but the NAACP pursued the issue.

Secretary Abraham Ribicoff of HEW reversed the Department's previous position in March of 1962 and announced a policy of stopping aid to segregated schools under the impacted-area program.

However, his new ruling was not to go into effect until the fall of 1963.

U.S. Justice Department Seeks Force to Enroll Meredith at Ole Miss

Jackson, Miss.—The U. S. Department of Justice and Governor Ross Barnett of Mississippi ran head-on Tuesday as the admission of James Meredith to the University of Mississippi was blocked for the second time by Gov. Barnett.

BULLETIN

Oxford, Miss.—James Meredith was denied admission to the University of Mississippi for the third time Wednesday morning when he appeared at the entrance to the campus accompanied by three federal marshals. They were met by a cordon of Mississippi state police standing shoulder to shoulder. Lt. Gov. Paul Johnson met Meredith personally; Gov. Barnett, until a court order to show reason why he should not be cited for contempt, was delayed because of bad weather.

It was expected that federal troops would be ordered to aid Meredith to enroll at Ole Miss by force as the tense situation draws to a showdown.

Arrest

Meredith, who had won the right to enter the 114-year-old university through a series of court suits, came face to face with Gov. Barnett at the state house.

The federal government which had hoped that by ignoring Gov. Barnett, they would avoid making him a martyr by arresting Mississippi's highest state official, saw no other recourse. By order of the Justice department, plans were being made to send in airborne troops for the Governor's arrest and to forcibly enroll Meredith at Ole Miss.

Jailing

Gov. Barnett claimed that he and any other state official should be willing to go to jail to keep Mississippi University segregated. Five hours after Gov. Barnett prevented Meredith from entering the school, the Fifth U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans, La. ordered the governor to appear at a contempt hearing Friday at 10 a.m.

Contempt

The contempt citation was requested by the U. S. Department of Justice as part of its plan to thwart Gov. Barnett's efforts to keep Meredith out of the university. Meredith was expected to go to the Oxford campus Wednesday to make a third attempt to enroll, and it was also expected that Gov. Barnett who was reported in seclusion, would also make another personal attempt to prevent him.

Will Intensify Mississippi School Desegregation Drive

Jackson, Miss.—The more frantic Mississippi officials behave in their efforts to keep a Negro out of the state university, the more determined colored citizens become in their demand for a meaningful breakthrough in the state's ancient Jim Crow pattern, Medgar Evers, NAACP field secretary for Mississippi, said here this week.

Negroes throughout the state, he reported, have calmly followed developments in the constitutional crisis precipitated by Gov. Ross R. Barnett's rejection of a federal court order to enroll James H. Meredith as a student in the University of Mississippi at Oxford.

More Determined

"They are more determined now than ever," Evers said, "to demand their full constitutional rights. More desegregation suits at all levels may be expected. We can look for an acceleration in the tempo of the civil rights struggle. The people anticipate that the federal government will not allow Gov. Barnett to get away with open defiance of federal authority."

Began in 1961

The Meredith case started in January 1961 when the air force veteran applied for admission to the university with the backing of the Mississippi State NAACP. Following rejection of his application, suit was filed in U. S. District Court on May 31, 1961, on his behalf by lawyers of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc., with Mrs. Constance Baker Motley as chief attorney in the case. The State of Mississippi, after exhausting every legal maneuver to prevent Meredith's admission, finally resorted to open defiance of the government.

Meanwhile, Evers said, Mississippi's colored citizens are preparing to demand admission into the state's other institutions of higher learning: Mississippi State College, Mississippi State College for Women, the University of Southern Mississippi and "all other colleges supported by tax money."

Petition

The Evers and other Negro parents in Jackson have already filed a petition with the local school board for enrollment of their children in presently all-white schools. Rejection of this petition is expected to result in the filing of a suit in the United States District Court. Similar action at the elementary and secondary school levels are being planned by NAACP branches in other section of the state.

To $13,000 City Job

New York—The appointment of Randolph Risley Dent, Jr. as Brooklyn director of the Rent and Rehabilitation Administration was announced last week.

Dent, 50 years old, is president of the Brooklyn branch of the NAACP. Mrs. Hortense W. Gabel, administrator of the agency said that Dent would supervise the borough's 545,000 rent-controlled housing units. Dent, a lawyer, will receive $13,000 a year.

Martial Law Like Ordinance in Alabama

Restricts Meetings of Two or More on City Streets at Any Time

Talladega, Ala.—The City Commissioners have passed a law to block further sit-in demonstrations, marches, and picketing here. It provides fines and jail terms up to six months for violators.

The ordinance is one of the harshest yet seen in the South. The effect is virtually the same as martial law, in that it places strict bans on assembly of three or more persons.

Students

One section of the law is aimed specifically at students who protested against segregation here last spring. This action was led by Negro and white students from Talladega College and included high-school pupils.

The new law appears to have been passed in preparation for a hearing here Oct. 8 on a court order issued against students and others on April 28. In asking for the order, State Attorney General MacDonald Gallion told the State Circuit Court that "remedy by law is inadequate."

Challenged

Those named in the order challenged the injunction on the ground that it violates their rights under the First and 14th Amendments to the U. S. Constitution. The First Amendment guarantees freedom of speech, press, assembly, and petition, such as picketing and marching.

The city ordinance states that it is designed to "regulate the size of crowds upon the public streets, sidewalks, ways, public parks, and public-school property."

It is intended to "prevent unlawful assemblies, riots, disorderly conduct, disturbances of the peace, and conduct calculated to cause same."

Hoodlums

This is similar to the wording in the injunction issued by Judge

William C. Sullivan. However, his order did not apply to white hoodlums—who attacked students taking part in peaceful demonstrations.

Several students were struck by the hoodlums, four were tear-gassed, and some others were beaten by police who stopped a march the day before the court order was issued.

Two or More

The ordinance makes it unlawful "for any person to congregate with one or more other persons upon the public streets, sidewalks or other public property and to refuse and fail to move on at the request or direction of a police officer or other duly constituted law officer."

It also forbids "any person or combination of persons to stand, walk or march in a group or near to each other on any sidewalk, street, or crossing so as to obstruct free passage of other pedestrians or vehicles thereon."

The ordinance says further: "Whenever the police or other law enforcement officers have reasonable cause to believe that an assemblage of persons of three or more in number on any sidewalk, in any place of business to which the public is invited, or upon any public property, is likely to cause a riot, disturbance or breach of the peace, such officer shall order such assemblage to disperse."

void and a United States District Court had struck down the three laws on which Judge Hennig ruled in the state court.

U. S. High Court

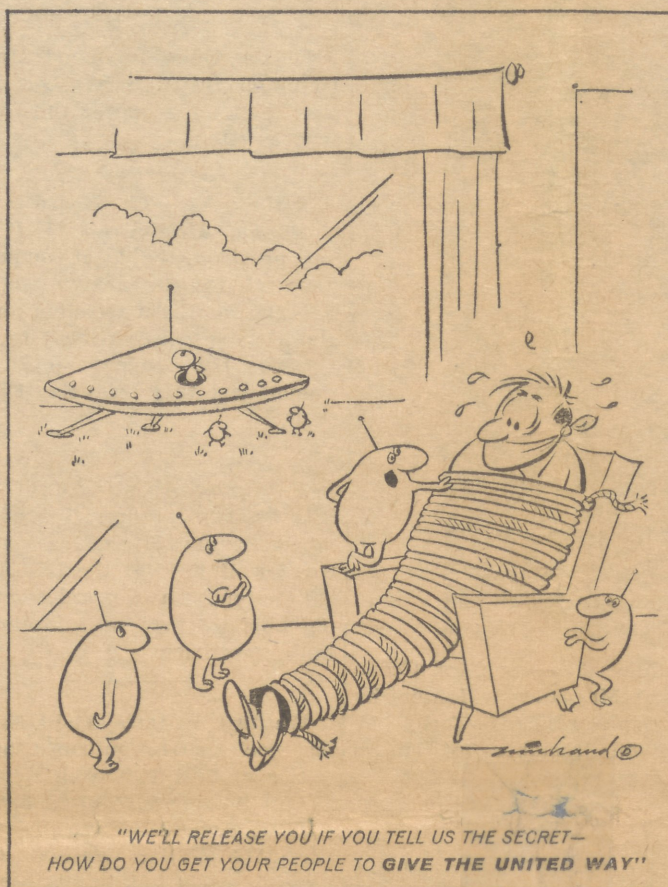

The United States Supreme Court is scheduled to hear argument, Oct. 9, on an appeal from a lower court decision upholding a statute providing for the revocation of licenses of civil rights lawyers. Two of the seven laws providing for the establishment of legislative investigating committees have not been challenged in court by the NAACP.

Brooklyn CORE Sweep up Trash

New York—Members of Brooklyn CORE sweep up trash lying on the streets of the Bedford Stuyvesant section of Brooklyn in protest against insufficient trash collections.

The CORE members collected three truckloads and deposited them on the steps of Borough Hall. Later Brooklyn Borough President Abe Stark called for daily trash collections in the area.

Howard University President Challenges Students to Develop New Goals for Freedom

Washington, D. C.—Howard University President James M. Nabrit, Jr. today challenged students at the University to develop new goals for a coming era where "equality of opportunity and full citizenship are on the horizon."

95th Year

In his address inaugurating the 95th year of instruction at Howard, Dr. Nabrit declared, "in our lifetime we shall traverse the chasm from second-class to first-class citizenship, but we need new goals, new techniques, new philosophy, great courage and vigorous imaginations if we are to move with confidence in this coming era."

On hand at Cramton Auditorium to hear the annual Formal Opening address, Dr. Nabrit's second such talk since he became president of the University in 1960, were some 1,200 students and teachers. The Howard president spoke on "The Future of the University."

Now Africa

"We live in a new and changing world," he stated. "The world rhythm no longer is the music set by Europe. Its themes are set in Africa and Asia, where a great pageant of emancipation has unfolded. The Negro problem in America has not escaped the common lot."

DR. NABRIT

He said Howard University, in its tide of rising development, may enlarge its stature beyond the limits of America and the Negro people in the measure and to the extent that it gives expression to its potentialities of mind and spirit.

HEALTH FOR ALL

"Still A Killer"

Great strides have been made against pneumonia. It used to kill one out of every four people who got it. With modern drugs it is no longer the death sentence it used to be. Nineteen out of twenty recover. But still pneumonia does rank sixth as a cause of death, killing about 45,000 people a year.

Fairly recent on the scene is pneumonia caused by straphylococci. Some "staph" germs are resistant to antibiotics, which means simply that the antibiotics don't work. Recovery is slow.

Types

Then there is a type of pneumonia in which many small sections of a lung are involved. This type of pneumonia can come from streptococcus, a virus, a fungus—to name only a few of the possible causes. This too is difficult to treat, since the antibiotics often don't work. This pneumonia tends to hit people who are weakened by some other illness, by surgery, or by age.

Germ

But most pneumonia is caused by a germ called the pneumococcus, which probably lives in everybody's throat. When body resistance is lowered by a severe cold, by bronchitis, or by poor living habits, the pneumococcus moves from the throat down into a lung. The lung tries to fight back by pouring out fluid. This fluid fills the air spaces in the lung and hampers breathing.

Suddenly

Pneumococcal pneumonia begins suddenly, usually a day or two after catching cold. There is a shaking chill, high fever, chest pain, shortness of breath, and cough which brings up red or rust-colored material.

If any of these symptoms develop, call a doctor at once. Untreated, pneumonia can kill. With antibiotics, along with rest in bed, chances are good for a cure. The drugs will reduce fever in a day or two. But it is important to continue taking the drugs for as long as the doctor says to, because if the patient stops taking the medicine too soon, pneumonia can return.

It is always particularly nice to meet in person or receive a phone call from someone who has written us from time to time to tell us the latest news about themselves through letter, especially if the readers are from out of town. We had such experience earlier this week when Mrs. Agnes D. Snow of Emporia, Kans., called us. She has written us several times and of course we have had contact with her mother, Mrs. Lucy Lawrence 936 10th street.

Mrs. Snow called about her mother who has been in the hospital since Aug. 28. Mrs. Snow who is not completely recovered herself said she came to Des Moines to share the load with her sister, Mrs. Anna Sumerville, who lives with Mrs. Lawrence, has been in Des Moines since Sept. 2.

Mrs. Lawrence was scheduled for surgery at Still Osteopathic hospital this week but her doctors decided against it and she was scheduled to be released instead.

We have always maintained that trouble never comes singly, but in pairs or more. News stories locally and far away as well as personal experience has borne this out for me. This premise held true for the Atty. James B. Morris family. Last week Atty. Morris was hospitalized and was released from Mercy hospital Monday afternoon. The night before, his wife, Mrs. Georgine C. Morris, fell and broke her arm at her home. She was taken to Mercy hospital where it was placed in a cast and then she was released several days later.

For those who live in the Moulton school district and might be wondering why the P.T.A. meetings are scheduled late, we learned that the district has no P.T.A. group yet and one is in the process of being formed. When the Crocker school was dissolved all groups, including the P.T.A. became non-existent with it. Therefore a new group, Moulton P.T.A. has to be organized, including rules, by-laws, officers, etc. Naturally all this takes time.

Among captains and co-captains attending the United Campaign coffee at the Governor's Mansion Monday morning were Mesdames Inez Morrow, Eunice Bates, Jack Parker, and yours truly. It was a rewarding pep session and enthusiasm is running

DISGRACEFUL FARCE
IN MISSISSIPPI

The arrogant ignorant foolish Gov. Barnett of Mississippi continues to put on a show for the voters of his state in an effort to prove that he can interpose himself between the state and federal law in an effort to block the admission of James Meredith to the State University.

Gov. Faubus of Arkansas tried it without success. Several governors boasted that integrated schools would never be a fact in their states. They were wrong. So Gov. Barnett should know by now that the federal government is supreme and that there is no way to block integration.

It is ridiculous that so-called intelligent men will but their heads against a stone wall in an effort to stave off progress which includes improved race relations. Surely, countries hostile to America must be having a field day chiding America for its almost inability to block shortsighted segments of the population by acts which negative democracy.

The justice department is doing an excellent job keeping Mississippi officials on a hot spot. And if they continue, the results are inevitable.

In the meantime Gov. Barnett is asking for the use of troops to force his hands. And as President Eisenhower did, the justice department will be called upon to do likewise.

REV. JACKSON PROVES
A POOR SPORT

Rev. Joseph H. Jackson, President of the National Baptist Convention, takes great pleasure in criticizing Dr. Martin Luther King both for his methods and objects in the campaign against racial discrimination.

Dr. Jackson should be ashamed of himself for the un-Christian like methods he has used to maintain himself in office. It is doubtful that he has the courage to fight racial discrimination where it is almost unsafe to do so as Dr. King has. On the other hand, he is perched in a safe spot in Chicago where physical violence won't reach him.

SUPPORT THE UNITED CAMPAIGN DRIVE

The 1963 United Campaign drive for funds begins next week. The announced goal is $1,807,420 which was arrived at by committees of responsible businessmen who scanned the budget of each of the 43 agencies carefully.

Des Moines has been fortunate in its United Campaign organization over the years. It has been efficient and the cost of raising the funds kept at a minimum.

Forty-three agencies operating in the field of character building, health, recreation, child care and family service cover most needs of the community.

Each one should do his share, large or small, in the drive to secure the goal promptly.

FORTY YEARS AS EDITOR

In November, I will have been editor and publisher of the Bystander for forty years. That's a long time and I often wonder how I have been able to continue so long.

In that time I've been interested in raising the level of the Negro in Iowa. Certainly, forty years ago it was not at a high level.

But during that time, I have been in the midst of the many changes which have come to pass much because the Bystander has stood solidly for those changes. For instances forty years ago only one Negro woman was employed in an office either public or private. In fact, for years practically every Negro girl started her career at the Bystander office. No longer is this necessary.

It just occurred to me, and I have decided to publish my 40th years anniversary edition on November 8 which will include sponsors in a two page ad. Clubs, lodges and churches will not be solicited to participate as most of them do a pretty good job in other areas. However they will not be excluded. On the other hand individuals will be asked to participate.

Many an individual has remarked what a fine job the Bystander has done. Here is an opportunity to repeat that by participating in this my 40th anniversary—call the office AT 8-1904 for details.

Liston Turns on Power;
Dethrones Champ PattersonKOs Floyd in First Round of 3rd Fastest
Fight; Richest Gate

Chicago, Ill.—There were few fight fans and veteran writers who were caught completely by surprise at the almost history making knockout of World Heavyweight Boxing Champion Floyd Patterson by the powerful challenger Sonny Liston at Comiskey park Tuesday night.

With the all too brief battle, really a series of skirmishes by Liston, came a string of firsts or near firsts. It was one of the fast heavyweight bouts in title history, only two others were faster, with Patterson going down in 2 minutes and six seconds of the first round. It was the richest gate in history and Patterson, the loser, walked out with a cool million for his bank account, raising his fight total to some five million dollars or more.

Ingemar

In addition Patterson, who after becoming the first heavyweight in history to regain the world title in his rubber match with Sweden's Ingemar Johansen, also Tuesday night became the first heavyweight to lose the crown twice.

The victory for Liston was in a way a complete vindication of his ability and his linguistic verbal pre-fight assaults. Taciturn but with verbal telling blows, Liston became one of the few fighters who did not have to eat his proverbial words.

Pure Power

For all who heard and saw the brief bout, all would agree that it was a display of pure power and ability for Liston. His bulging muscled weight of 215 pounds, his almost gorilla like 84 inch reach and his doglike determination—and to the surprise of many, his fistic speed. These were Liston's and they brought him to the pinnacle of his aspiration.

All he asked was for the public, to "give me a chance." I can be a great champion."

All this happened to a man who had walked the long, long road out of the shadows, to the bright light of world acclaim—the heavyweight championship of the world.

FAMU's Bob Hayes
Deserts Track
For Football at A & M

Tallahassee, Fla.—The 1962 track exploits of Robert Hayes, co-holder of the world's record of 9.2 seconds for the 100-yard dash, ended last week as he exchanged track spikes for gridiron cleats in anticipation of the start of the football season with the Florida A & M Rattlers.

Hayes, recently returned from a successful track tour of the Scandinavian countries, will star as a punt return specialist with the Rattlers, perennial powers of the Southwestern Athletic Conference.

Track Star Races
Through Window;
Falls To Death

Nashville, Tenn.—A Tennessee A. and I. track star was killed Wednesday when he fell from a third story window while staging an impromptu race with a classmate down a dormitory hall.

Milton Eugene Howard, 18, of St. Petersburg, Fla., apparently could not stop in time after crossing the imaginary finish line, located about 15 feet from the open window at the end of the hallway.

Jarratt Moore, 18, of Chicago, racing with Howard, said he made an attempt to grab the sprinter's feet but couldn't get to him.

N.A.I.A. CHAMPION HOWARD UNIVERSITY ANNOUNCES
EIGHT-GAME SOCCER
SCHEDULE FOR 1962

Washington, D. C.—Howard University athletic director Samuel E.

Did you like the fight results? Is Floyd Patterson really that bad or is Sonny Liston really that good? A lucky punch maybe; could be.

We recall when we were in school a noted columnist used to discuss fighters and fights and then dismiss them by saying a gorilla could whip them both. Well, if Liston is really as tough and as hard a puncher as it looks, they had better keep that gorilla out of that ring.

Speed

We thought Patterson's speed would give him a chance but we guess he never got to use it. Who will beat the new champ? Don't know yet but someone always does beat the champ. Another Patterson-Liston fight? Seems they have a rematch contract so we may have one. This one may be better. Now let's see if the big guy can be a champion out of the ring as well as in it.

Baseball

Wonder what the guys in power are going to do about Maury Wills and his stolen base record of 97? If the baseball commissioner will take time to study records, he will learn that in 154 games the great Ty Cobb had stolen 94 bases. Wills had 95 in 154 games. Cobb stole two more bases in the two extra games. So did Wills and winds up with 97. So by just about any yardstick Wills has topped the record for major league base stealing. If he should make it 100 what will be the ruling then.

In the case of Roger Maris last year, Babe Ruth had played in 154 games. That ruling made some sense. But Cobb played in two extra games and needed them to get his record. Wills beat the mark for both distances. How about it, Mr. Ford Frick.

New Assistant
Coach Named
At Virginia State

Petersburg, Va.—Joseph T. Kolpin has been appointed assistant football coach and instructor in health and physical education at Virginia State college, it was announced last week.

Kolpin, formerly head coach at Allen university, Columbia, S. C. (1955-62) and South Carolina Area Trades school at Denmark (1950-55), will handle the backfield coaching assignment for the Trojans.

Barnes today announced an eight-game 1962 schedule for the school's championship soccer team, including a November 10 contest with NCAA champion West Chester State at Howard Stadium.

Coach Ted Chambers' Bisons, who won last year's National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics' championship at Lock Haven, Pa., open against Philadelphia Textile in a Sept. 29 game at Philadelphia. Their first home game is scheduled for Oct. 13 with Frostburg (Md.) State Teachers.

Tan Stars May Spur
Iowa in Big Ten Race;
First Game Saturday

Iowa City, Ia.—The Iowa Hawkeyes will open their 1962 football schedule against Oregon Saturday afternoon. Something of a disappointment last season, Iowa hopes to rebound in the Big Ten race this season and several tan players will be key performers for the Hawkeyes.

Missing

Missing this year, aside from the loss of Wilburn Hollis and Al Hinton because of the completion of eligibility in the plans for this season. Williams, who had figured prominently in the palms for this season.

But the Hawks have on the squad this season Capt. Larry Ferguson, who was missing most of last year because of injuries. Ferguson is considered one of the better halfbacks in the nation. Ferguson was the Big Ten's best runner in 1960, but he suffered the knee injury last season and the question is whether he has regained his proficiency.

If he hasn't, sophomore Willie Ray Might, a 180-pounder who can do 100 in 9.6 and is tricky in his fakes and cutbacks, is waiting in the wings.

Other Standouts

Another standout this season is likely to be Cloyd Webb, most promising sophomore last year (caught 25 passes for 246 yards and four touchdowns.) Jim Winston, another end, is suffering with injuries and his service is doubtful.

Other veterans include Sammie Harris, a good pass receiver and an excellent ball carrier. Bill Perkins, the Hawks' leading rusher (385 yards in 62 attempts for a 6.1 average), will probably claim regular fullback duty now that Williams is ineligible. Ferguson was shifted to fullback last year after playing end as a sophomore.

Bob Grier, a junior who was something of a disappointment last year, will help provide support for the Perkins.

The squad contains other tan players who do not yet figure too prominently in Coach Jerry Burn's plan.

Former Iowan Appreciates The Bystander Over The Years

Los Angeles, California
September 21, 1962

Mr. J. B. Morris, Sr.
Dear Mr. Morris:

Sometime ago, I wrote "on behalf of the current rise of cost of everything" I could no longer subscribe for your paper, "The Iowa Bystander." But thank you for having been kind enough to send it to me any way. (A friend has paid it for her.)

This week, I noticed you are having your 40th Anniversary as editor. I still can't pay for the paper, but I am enclosing a check for $10.00 on your 40th Anniversary.

This reminds me that just 40 years ago last December, we (J. L. and I) left Des Moines to make L.A. our home for the rest of our lives. J. L. passed 12 years ago, leaving me alone. I see by the paper that Mrs. Rush has gone, too. She was a friend of mine, but I did not know I was older than she. I am now 82 years old this day, September 21, 1962. I still attend

Sunday School as I did in Des Moines at St. Paul where J. L. was Superintendent when we left there. I live a long ways from our church here but I catch the 8:00 o'clock bus every Sunday morning and get there.

I am one of the regular interviewees every fourth Sunday in each month. This month I am the only woman. (see enclosed slip) The men you see on with me, are all young enough to be my sons, and are college graduates. I say this, that you might know what it means for an 82 year old lady to be on such a program. We have a membership of 4,000.

Tell your wife hello for me. She may not quite remember me, but I was a Company Mother in World War I. (366th Infantry.)

Good luck to you and your paper. If you are ever in L.A., drop by 1939 West and see the old white head lady.

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Nicie C. Edwards

Radnor, Pa.—Eight Negro players from seven colleges were among 47 gridiron stars named 1962 All-America favorites today by the American Football Coaches Association.

The blue-ribbon list was announced in the current issue (Sept. 22) of TV Guide magazine by Bill Murray, association president and head coach at Duke.

2 From Iowa

Iowa contributed a high of two players, Capt. Larry Ferguson, halfback from Madison, Ill., and elusive end Cloyd Webb of East St. Louis, Ill. Penn State, Minnesota, Washington, Southern California, Syracuse and New Mexico State had one each.

The coaches association, which has a membership of more than 500, will pick the 73rd annual All-America, originated by Walter Camp, after viewing films of 1962 games. The selections will be announced in the Dec. 1 issue of TV Guide. The first team will appear on the Ed Sullivan Show Sunday, Dec. 2.
