TEAM TOURS NEGRO HISTORICAL SITES

Boston, Mass.—The Freedom Trail which includes the site of the "Boston Massacre" where the first American, Crispus Attucks, lost his life in our country's struggle for freedom, was travelled today by two young women beginning a motor tour of historical sites of general interest and of particular interest to the American Negro.

Their choice of touring dates is significant for 100 years ago President Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation which freed American Negroes from slavery. The Proclamation went into effect on Jan. 1, 1863 and President Kennedy has made special efforts to set aside 1963 as a year of commemoration of this historic event.

The American Oil Company is sponsoring a "Tour America" informational project which will highlight those places in the United States that have played a part in this great American heritage and has selected Miss Sandra East, of Baltimore, Md., an honor graduate of Morgan State College in Baltimore and a leader in many Baltimore civic associations, and Mrs. Jean Pittman, of Washington, D. C., a freelance writer and the mother of two teenage daughters, to make this tour and gather the necessary historical and cultural information.

In addition to Boston, the tour team of Miss East and Mrs. Pittman will visit New York City, Philadelphia, Chicago, Springfield, Detroit, St. Louis, Memphis, Tuskegee, Atlanta and Washington, D. C.

Albany, Ga.—Sixty-five Hartford, Conn., area clergymen, planning to come to this racially troubled city Oct. 28 to aid integration efforts, were advised by white Albany ministers to stay home. The Albany Ministerial Association said in a resolution that action by the Hartford group would not help the situation in Albany.

Washington—Four-year-old Caroline Kennedy's White House kindergarten class was scheduled to be racially integrated when it began its fall term this week. Avery Hatcher, five-year-old son of associate White House press secretary Andrew T. Hatcher, a Negro, has been enrolled in Caroline's class.

Charlotte, N.C.—Two Memorial Hospital outpatient clinics, restricted until now to white patients, have been open to patients of all races. The action, which was announced last week followed a report from the U.S. Public Health Service stating that the hospital must provide service to Negroes and whites in the maternity and dental clinics if it is to qualify for federal funds.

San Antonio—With a minimum of fanfare, Southwestern Bell Telephone company has employed its first Negro clerical workers. Two young women, having passed required examinations and physical tests, went to work recently. Miss Beverly Ann Johnson, 24, is a combination clerk, who does filing and operates the teletype. Violence Erupts; President
Kennedy Orders Marshals,
Troops to Quell Rioting

Jackson, Miss.—Events in this Mississippi capital city and at the University of Mississippi in Oxford, catapulted to a tense climax before erupting into violence with the registration of the first Negro at the previously lily-white state supported 114-year-old institution.

Hours before President Kennedy went on a coast-to-coast television-radio appeal to Mississippi residents and students for "calm and peace" James H. Meredith, preceded by some 200 U. S. marshalls, was escorted on the campus Sunday night and installed in a two-room dormitory, with his escorts as room-mates.

Contempt of Court

Two days earlier on Friday, Gov. Ross Barnett has been slapped with a $10,000-a-day fine for contempt of court and given until Tuesday, Oct. 2 to purge himself or be arrested. Lieut. Gov. Paul Johnson received a similar sentence with a $5,000 fine.

On Tuesday, Oct. 2, the U. S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals gave Gov. Barnett a 10-day reprieve to show he had not broken faith with the courts. The emotion packed atmosphere became more tense when Gov. Barnett appeared at a football game Friday night and vowed "Never to give an inch in his 'fight with the federal government."

U. S. to Rescue

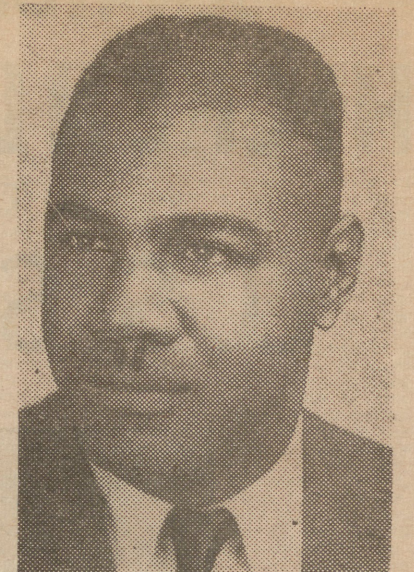

When it became evident that the court orders were being flouted, (Gov. Barnett had gone into seclusion later and refused to accept the court summons) Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy and the U. S. Justice Department stepped into the case, vowing that the courts would be upheld. Threats of troops and marshalls failed to dent the resistance of Mississippi Gov. Barnett and his supporters. Twice the Governor had gone to the Mississippi University

Job Bias Costing U.S. $17
Billion A-Year ---Johnson

Washington, D. C.—Discrimination in employment and training is costing the United States $17,000,000,000 a year.

So declared Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, Chairman of the President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity, in a speech to Department of the Army employment policy officers attending a training session in Washington.

Necessity

"The concept of equal employment opportunity is not just a luxury in which we indulge in our leisure moments," he emphasized. "It is a matter of necessity—urgent necessity."

"In the first place, equal employment opportunity is a question of justice—and no nation can hold itself forth as the leader of the free world unless it practices justice to all of its citizens, regardless of race, creed, color or national origin.

Economic Urgency

"In the second place, it is a matter of economic urgency—because we can no longer deny ourselves the use of trained and skilled manpower for reasons totally irrelevant to merit. The Council of Economic Advisors estimates that the nation's gross national product would rise by $13,000,000,000 if all jobs were handled solely on the basis of merit and without regard to irrelevant considerations of ancestry. The increase would rise to $17,000,000,000 if the opportunity to train for all jobs were open on the same basis.

"In other words, job discrimination will cost us $13,000,000,000 to $17,000,000,000 this year."

The Vice President pointed out the importance of speedy adjudication of complaints of discrimination.

Program of Justice

"We are dealing with a program that involves justice, an done of the oldest and truest of legal maxims is that justice delayed is justice denied," he said. "It is important to all of us that anyone who feels he

Seeks Probe of Attack on Negro Home in Los Angeles

Los Angeles—The NAACP went to the defense this week of a Negro family which is being harassed by its white neighbors in nearby Rialto.

California Attorney General Stanley Mosk has been asked to investigate the continuing insults and vandalism being heaped on the John Rodgers family which paid a deposit on the $17,000 house in July.

The house was purchased from the Veterans' Administration after having been repossessed.

Moved Sept. 8

They moved into the all-white town on Sept. 8 and since that time, almost every window in the house and the sliding glass door, have been shattered by rocks.

Telephone lines and gas connections have been tampered with, screens torn and shutters dented. One stone, hurled through a bedroom window, broke a closet door.

Another stone hurled through the same window, sent flying glass onto the bed of the couple's 2-month-old son, Edward. Even visitors to the Rodgers' home are not immune from attack, a car window being shattered last week. Scathing remarks are a constant nuisance.

Police

The Riverside NAACP, located in a neighboring town, requested police protection for the young family and Miss Althea Simmons, NAACP field secretary, said that the problems have been laid before the VA and the management brokers handling that agencies repossessions.

Rodgers, a sixth grade teacher at San Bernardino's Warm Springs Elementary School, said that he will not move. He and Mrs. Rodgers also have a four year old daughter, Sharlita.

Passed for White; Attended 'Ole Miss'

New York—A New York Negro revealed this week that he spent his freshman year in college at the University of Mississippi in 1945-46 and was accepted on the Oxford campus as a white man.

Harry S. Murphy, Jr., a 35-year-old native of Atlanta who operates a lithograph business here, said he spent nine months at "Ole Miss" as a Navy V-12 student at the close of World War II.

"There was no cloak and dagger business," he said. "It was after I passed the V-12 examinations that I learned my group was going to Mississippi."

Lived In Dormitory

Murphy said he lived on campus in Navy dormitories, attended movies in Oxford and ate occasionally in local restaurants without incident. His records at the university list Murphy as "white" or "Caucasian" and he is similarly listed on Navy records.

tured at many of the GOP national conventions.

Dangerous Stuff

Two-year-old Johnny was playing quietly in his room when his mother heard him choking. She rushed to his room to find him with talcum powder in his mouth, breathing heavily and coughing. An open can of talcum powder was beside him. She rushed him to the hospital. In spite of everything the doctors could do, Johnny died the next day. Cause of death was massive inhalation of talcum powder.

Potential

The average household is crammed with potentially death-dealing powders, pills, and liquids. Of the 822,000 poison casualties every year, two-thirds are children under five.

The under-five years are ones when the youngster is developing interest in the environment and everything in it. He works hard to get into everything and much of what he handles goes into his mouth. All in the spirit of exploration. He will open even tightly-fitting doors on kitchen and bathroom cabinets, unless they're kept locked. He will climb on a chair or table to get at something that is out of his reach. He will spend hours working at the cap on a pill bottle until he has it

Sunday the Second Baptist church has Women's day. Due to the absence and illness of the pastor's wife, Mrs.
Deloris Alexander, the program was not as it had been anticipated; others did their best.

Devotional services were in charge of Sis. Lillian Walker assisted by Sisters Mary Smith and Erma Armstrong.

Pastor David Alexander had not been expected to preach, nevertheless he gave a timely sermon.

The Baptist Ministerial Alliance of Des Moines will be in Oskaloosa Friday, Oct. 5 to raise money to help
Oskaloosa with their utilities.

An old fashioned entertainment was held at the home of the Clarence Armstrongs as a church benefit to help on the utility project.

campus and turned Meredith away in person. The third time it was his lieutenant governor.

National Guard

He ordered the Mississippi National Guard to surround the campus and prevent Meredith and any marshals from entering the grounds. The move was successful until the national guard unit was federalized by President Kennedy on Saturday.

Troops were ordered to converge on the campus when rioting began Sunday shortly before midnight when it became known that Meredith was on the campus. Tuesday, it was reported the troops numbered 10,000 in full battle dress. Marshals armed with tear gas and under orders not to fire on rioting students, were practically under siege nearly eight hours before the rioters were quelled.

The next day, Monday morning, Meredith, a former air force veteran and father of two, registered and attended classes escorted by marshals. When the tear gas smoke had cleared Monday morning three persons were dead, hundreds wounded and even more arrested.

Pine-Maple Yams Go To A Party!

Giving a party? Or just interested in giving the family a special supper treat? Then you'll like this delicious baked yam dish with its subtle maple flavor plus the piquancy of pineapple and the crunchiness of pecans. Easy to make—with the added advantage of being able to prepare the yam part in advance. Then, when preparing dinner, heat the maple-blended syrup with the fruit and nuts and pour over the yams and bake. Try it on the family... but for "outside" applause, serve this dish at your next buffet supper!

YAMS WITH PINEAPPLE

2½ cups mashed cooked Louisiana yams	3 tablespoons maple-blended syrup
1 tablespoon maple-blended syrup	1 tablespoon butter
8 tablespoons butter	½ cup crushed pineapple and juice
2 tablespoons milk	¼ cup chopped pecan meats
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper

Combine yams, 1 tablespoon maple-blended syrup, 3 tablespoons butter, milk, salt, and pepper in saucepan. Place over medium heat and cook until mixture is heated, stirring constantly. Place in greased 10x6x2-inch baking dish.

Combine 8 tablespoons maple-blended syrup, 1 tablespoon butter, pineapple and juice, and nuts in saucepan. Place over medium heat until mixture is heated—about 8 minutes. Pour over sweet potato mixture. Bake in hot oven (400°F.) 25 to 30 minutes. Serve at once. Makes 4 or 5 servings.

In addition, Mrs. Adah Johnson held a steak cookout at her home several weeks ago in honor of Miss Wharton. And she was guest of Mrs. Dorothy Hatch, executive director of Bidwell-Riverside settlement house at a smorgasbord dinner at the Gold Buffet in Winterset. Miss Thompson, a staff member who was leaving Bidwell, also shared the guest honors.

We would like to add that Miss Wharton's leaving will be a distinct personal and professional loss to the community, but the vacuum will be most ably filled by her successor.

Asked by the English moderator if there has not been rapid progress on the civil rights issue, "everything considered," Secretary Wilkins responded that "in the long view, as history is written, progress has been rapid, but for us who have had to live through the struggle, the progress has been painfully slow."

Following the interview and a night's rest, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins departed for Paris. They will also visit Switzerland and Italy.

Quite a few residents of the capital city left early in various cars and other transportation early last Saturday morning for Iowa City where they helped cheer the Iowa Hawkeyes to victory in the first contest of the season. Trees are beginning to take on their annual mantle of beautiful autumnal shades. And the local social season steps up its impetus.

We were reminded by a note that we had left off several captains who attended the coffee at the Governor's Mansion last week for United Campaign captains and co-captains. The names we omitted were Mrs. Mattie Avant, captain of District WD-7 and her co-captain Mrs. William J. Clinton.

Those who are so kindly taking time out of their busy workdays to assist us in WE-4 as block solicitors are Mmes. Cecil A. Thompson, Frank Massey, Eva Swain, H. M. Leinen, M. E. Ingham, George Porter, Sr., John Allen, William White, James Smith, W. J. Wilbert, M. S. Smith, Jr., R. Plimmer, H. V. Kellums, and A. Polen.

We had wonderful assistance from our Area chairman, Mrs. Marvin Hein, who did all the phone work in securing the names of solicitors for us.

Any captain who would be interested in publishing their list of block workers may feel free to call us and we will be glad to do so. At least the success of any captain's report and the whole campaign depends mostly on the zeal and interest of the block workers. Publishing their names is only a small recognition of that fact.

Another side note on the campaign: Willkie House was one of the agencies supported by UC that had a booth at the rally Tuesday at the Veterans Auditorium. The UC division has also conducted numerous tours of Willkie House and other agencies during the past several weeks.

The Senior Citizens had a wonderful time celebrating the birthday last week of Mr. Roy Todd. However, the most important person, the honoree, was not present. Seems he was on a fishing trip in Minnesota.

We walked into H. L. Green's variety store earlier this week and saw a familiar young face working as a clerk. Naturally, we walked over and during a brief conversation, learned she was Mrs. Bernice Hughes, the former Bernice Garrett. Seems she has been married for over a year and lives at 200 8th street in West Des Moines. She has been working at the variety store for about a month she says.

Went over for an interview with the new executive director of Willkie House earlier this week. She has such a relaxed manner and an infectious humor, that it makes one feel one has known her all her life. Her name is Mrs. Helen B. Stevens of Cleveland, Ohio. See picture and story on front page.

Retiring executive director, Miss Charlene Wharton, reports that she will have her whole story next week, as to where she will go from here. However, many friends and organizations of Willkie House, have shown her various courtesies.

The Mothers Coffee hour held a surprise potluck and hankie shower for her last Thursday morning at the Center. Along with them were numerous cards of affection and good will.

The Golden Agers presented her with an autograph book of "Signatures and cherished inscriptions." The Senior Citizens presented Miss Wharton with a hanky and cards. All of these Miss Wharton vows to keep for many years as mementos of her stay in Des Moines. From experience we know that Miss Wharton cherishes cards, giving and receiving them, and will spend long hours in card display stores selecting just the

DANGEROUS CHARACTERS
LEAD THE PEOPLE

Gov. Barnett of Mississippi took upon himself the job to block the admission of James Meredith to the University of Mississippi and thus to become a hero in the eyes of the segregationists but in the end turns out to be an ignorant bigot in the eyes of decent Americans as well as that of many nations of the world.

Unfortunately, instead of taking prompt action against a situation which pointed inevitably to just what developed, Barnett was allowed time to build up formidable resistance to law and order and make accomplishment of obedience to constitutional government exceedingly difficult.

Ralph McGill, editor of the Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution and one of the most outspoken advocates of integration and obedience to law and order, said that the power structure in Mississippi, which is composed of the business men, the clergy, newspaper editors and lawyers was lacking in men who had the courage and a forthright attitude to stand up for the things that are right and lead the people to calm sane action. Without it, he said, the ignorant and narrow minded people took the lead and thus spoke for the state of Mississippi.

South Carolina and Alabama are the only states in the south where no Negroes attend the state universities or the public schools. Gov. Faubus of Arkansas warned that he tried to prevent integration and failed. Surely the governors of the two states remaining with no integration should take heed and prepare the people of their states of the inevitable and accomplish it without the deep scars that have been made in Mississippi.

Dealing with men like Gov. Barnett is like dealing with a mad dog and therefore needs to be treated as such.

COUNCIL SEEKS

UNDUED AUTHORITY

The Des Moines City Council has undertaken the task of revising the ordinance under which the Commission on Human Rights and Job Discrimination operates. Naturally, there is no objection to prescribing rules which will enable the commission to perform its task more efficiently. But judging from some of the suggested amendments, some members are more interested in hamstringing the job.

Commission staffs, such as this working in the field of human relations, are specialists in the administration of such affairs and are trained in the work. And while certain governmental principles prevail with any commission, regulations should be made to enhance the work rather than in a punitive fashion as is outlined in the proposed ordinance.

One suggested revision is that the executive secretary should have the unanimous approval of the council. This, of course, is ridiculous for there are members on the council who don't want any commission and this would give them an opportunity to block any name proposed to the council. It would rival Russia's attitude in the security council at United Nations. And yet the United States insisted that the veto power be made a part of the rules governing the council.

Another suggestion is that a local person should be hired as secretary and yet every time a problem has arisen in the past, an outside expert has been brought in. Why the difference?

The City Council has entirely too many unsolved problems on its hands now plus others that have been so badly handled that they can never be repaired. Why ask for more power?

FORTY YEARS AS EDITOR

In November, I will have been editor and publisher of the Bystander for forty years. That's a long time and I often wonder how I have been able to continue so long.

In that time I've been interested in raising the level of the Negro in Iowa. Certainly, forty years ago it was not at a high level.

But during that time, I have been in the midst of the many changes which have come to pass much because the Bystander has stood solidly for those changes. For instances forty years ago only one Negro woman was employed in an office either public or private. In fact, for years practically every Ne-

Iowa Hawkeyes, Drake Bulldogs Give Iowa
Football Fans Something to Shout, Brag About

By Staff Writer

Iowa City, Ia.—The Iowa Hawkeyes came out with a "new look" in offensive attack Saturday and the results gave Iowa fans something to shout and brag about, at least for a week. They thoroughly trounced the upstarts Oregon State Beavers, 28-8 before a packed stadium of 54,400 gleeful fans. It was the same west coast squad that had rioted another Iowa football team, the Cyclones a week earlier.

Standouts

Standouts for the victors were Quarterback Matt Szykowny, who fired three touchdown passes, left halfback Willie Ray Smith, End Cloyd Webb and right halfback Lonnie Rogers.

Giants and Dodgers
Go Down to the Wire
In Pennant Playoff

By Staff Writer

Los Angeles, Calif.—It was literally the "battle of the giants" as the San Francisco Giants and the Los Angeles went down to the wire of the 1962 National League baseball pennant after winning one each in a best two out of three game-playoff.

At this writing one will emerge victorious and will be playing the American League champions, the New York Yankees, in the World Series on Thursday in the National League park.

Ends in Tie

On Sunday the Dodgers lost to the St. Louis Cardinals while San Francisco was defeating the Houston 45 Colts ending the season in a tie. On Monday the Giants' Jim Pierce pitched a masterful three-hit shutout, spinning the Dodgers scoreless innings to 30. On Tuesday about a dozen pitchers were used when after the Dodgers broke a 35-scoreless streak with seven runs in the 6th inning where they were trailing in what seemed to be doomed game, 5-0. They won the contest 8-7 when Maury Willis stole home. The rubber game got underway Wednesday afternoon. It was the longest nine inning game on record.

Select Jury for Trial
Of Mrs. Bertha Willis

The first degree murder trial of Mrs. Bertha Willis, 44, was scheduled to get underway this week as attorneys made opening statements following the selection of a jury which began Tuesday, in Polk County District Judge Ray C. Fountain's court.

Mrs. Willis, 1352 15th street, is accused of the fatal shooting of her husband with a .32 caliber revolver June 10 at the D.A.V. club.

Only one witness testified for the prosecution during the preliminary hearing held two weeks after the shooting.

Davey Moore Tabbed
As Fighter of Month
By Ring Magazine

New York—Davey Moore, clever, two-fisted world's featherweight champion, clobbered Finnish champion Ollie Maeki into defeat last month and was promptly elected the "Fighter of the Month" by The Ring magazine, the boxing bible of boxing.

Having defeated all serious featherweight threats, Moore now is contemplating moving up into the lightweight division for a possible lightweight title bout with champion Carlos Ortig of New York.

gro girl started her career at the Bystander office. No longer is this necessary.

It just occurred to me, and I have decided to publish my 40th years anniversary edition on November 8 which will include sponsors in a two page ad. Clubs, lodges and churches will not be solicited to participate as most of them do a pretty good job in other areas. However they will not be excluded. On the other hand individuals will be asked to participate.

Many an individual has remarked what a fine job the Bystander has done. Here is an opportunity to repeat that by participating in this my 40th anniversary—call the office AT 8-1904 for details.

JAMES B. MORRIS

Iowa's new look which held them in good stead throughout the contest, was a "floating-T" attack, which held the Beavers scoreless until the last few minutes of the game, when the challengers scored on the reserve team of Iowa.

Statistics

Statistically, Szykowny completed 12 of 17 passes for 144 yards; Willie Smith ran 54 yards. Terry Baker, the triple threat quarterback for Oregon State, was masterfully contained, but he completed 11 passes for a total of 133 yards. Also stand-out for the visiting team was John Thomas.

The Hawkeyes meet the Southern California Bears Saturday.

Drake Game

Des Moines, Ia.—Five thousands fans witnessed the 21-0 triumph of the Drake Bulldogs over the Colorado State College, which was considered by many as an upset victory. Karl (Cowboy) Kassulke, right halfback was easily the star, scoring two touchdowns, reeling off 98 yards in 12 ball carries. The rampage began in the first quarter with a three-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Bill Harper.

Colorado State's Tom Carlson, reportedly one of the fastest arms in the west, completed only 9 of 30 attempted passes.

Big Attractions

This will be a big attraction for the Iowa baseball fans to see these Major League All Stars in Des Moines.

Bob Rushing, manager of the Des Moines Merchants, said it will be a challenge and a great thrill for the Des Moines team to play against such a Major League aggregation and he went on to say Des Moines will be doing all in its power to prove itself to the Des Moines fans.

We heard so much about the fight. So many people seem to think that Floyd Patterson took a dive. Some say he possibly was doped, since Sonny Liston had so many gangsters on his side. So we thought we ought to see the fight pictures. The slow motion action would give us a chance to see what went on. Well those who say Patterson took a dive or was roped were right. The champ was doped by the first Liston left hook to the side of his head, doped again by a couple of lusty rights to the noggin, and then took a dive after the finishing left hook lifted Patterson's body off the ropes and dropped him on the floor.

The new champ can punch. What will it take to beat him? In our opinion a good boxer-puncher or a good counter puncher will probably beat the guy. We don't know who that might be. Cassius Clay is at least a year away if he fights every month. Who else? We don't know. Harold Johnson if he can keep from getting hit too early.

Baseball

As we write this the Los Angeles Dodgers are in the process of trying to present the Frisco Giants with the National league pennant. That play-off served one good purpose; for about two hours a lot of people were more worried about what was happening out on the west coast than they were in ugly goings on in other parts of the country. If the Giants made it we would say they were hot and may take anybody including the Yankees.

Football

The head knocking goes on and right now Ohio State stands at the top of the heap in the No. 1 spot. Iowa looked pretty fair last week but should get a real test come Saturday.

Drake appears to have quite a ball club and shouldn't lose too many games.

High School

Here at home we have sent a box of aspirins to the Tech coach whose teams have never beaten Roosevelt. Looks like a long season for East. Don't know who they are going to beat. Maybe, Tech and bounce back. North appears headed for its chance to woes despite the presence of the fastest runner in state high schools. Yep, it ought to be some year.

15th Management

THINK RIGHT

Think hate, and it darkens your life;
Think love, and it brightens your days,
For we make or break on the word we take
As our motto along life's ways.
Think lies, and you fall to the pit;
Think truth, and you soar to the skies,
For we rise or sink by the words we think;
Then choose your thoughts and be wise.

Think fear, and it curdles your blood;
Think courage and it builds you anew.
For the thoughts we have can sink or save
As life's way we pursue.
—C. H. Stone, in Family Circle
