Warns of Secret Missile Build-up in Cuba

President Tells Nation
In TV Speech; Will Enforce Blockade

Washington, D.C.—In the sudden, grave international crisis, President John F. Kennedy Tuesday formally signed a proclamation on a naval blockade of Cuba. The action came hours after he went to the nation in a personal message to the people informing them of a "secret" buildup of nuclear arms and medium range missiles in Cuba by Russia.

The president told the nation that its secret intelligence agents had placed evidence at his disposal, proving that missiles bases were being established in Cuba which were capable of firing warheads that could reach targets up to 1,000 miles, which includes Washington, D. C., and most eastern coast cities.

Wednesday, officials indicated it had word that a convoy of Russian ships loaded with arms were sailing for the Red satellite island in the Caribbean sea. U. S. leaders confirmed that naval ships had orders to fire on any ship that refused to turn back or allow a search by U. S. naval officers.

NAACP Integrates
Missouri School

Charleston, Mo. — Seven Negro youngsters were enrolled here this week in previously all-white Charleston High School as a result of NAACP action spearheaded by Leonard Carter, NAACP field secretary, and Clyde Cahill, the Association's chief counsel in Missouri.

They entered the school on order of the United States District Court in Cape Girardeau, Mo. An additional suit in behalf of nine other students seeking admission to the high school is scheduled for argument in January.

Housing Sit-In Leads To City-Wide Pact

Philadelphia, Pa.—As a result of a 6-hour sit-in by Philadelphia CORE members at a sample home in the northeast section, negotiations took place which resulted in a broad, anti-discrimination agreement with the Home Builders Association, which represents all major builders.

In addition to merely ceasing discrimination in the sale of new homes, the builders agreed to enroll their salesmen in the State Commission's training program on how to handle white buyers who are afraid to purchase in developments where Negroes live. The builders agreed to also use the State Commission's facilities for community education in instances where a house is sold to a Negro in an all-white neighborhood.

OPEN LETTER

Protests Youth Conduct
At Games, Public Places

This appeal is being made to both parents, and youngsters. It concerns our conduct and the way we behave ourselves in public.

Word has been received from the principal and teachers at East High School that some of the athletic events at the East High Stadium have been cancelled due to the behaviour of the Negro boys and girls who attend the football games and other events at the stadium, and those persons, youth or adult, on the outside.

Manners

We are all deeply concerned about what is happening to our people in the South; it is time we become concerned about ourselves, and our own actions and manners. Let us not abuse the very privileges that the Negroes in the South are fighting for, and we already have.

Several weeks ago, one teacher was knocked down in a melee between Colored children. Their actions are terrible, as is their language.

Setting Example

An appeal is being made through the churches and ministers for parents to please find out if your children are involved in this disgraceful conduct, and to teach them how to behave themselves, or to keep them at home.

We, as adults, need to set good examples before the youngsters. We must also teach them good manners and the proper conduct when they are in public.

If something is not done among ourselves to curb the disgraceful actions of our young people, the police will perhaps step in.

This is our city, our community, and a drive for better conduct among ourselves is most important.

Won't you please help? Speak of this in your neighborhood, your family gatherings, and your social clubs.

Files Two Suits Against
AFL-CIO Groups; Ruether
Threatens to Resign

New York—Within hours after his return from a trip abroad, Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, re-affirmed the Association's intention "to press the campaign to eliminate" discriminatory practices within certain trade unions.

On his arrival here, Oct. 18, the NAACP leader met with an Associated Press report that Walter Ruether, president of the United Automobile Workers, AFL-CIO, was considering resigning from the NAACP Board of Directors because of the Association's drive to rid the labor movement of racial bias.

Resignation

Shortly after Wilkins' return, the UAW issued a statement from the union's headquarters in Detroit containing no hint of resignation from the NAACP Board by Mr. Ruether. The UAW statement expressed the union's intention "to continue our work with the NAACP and other organizations who have joined together to abolish all forms of discrimination wherever it exists in American life."

The statement recognized that "a few unions still have not met their moral obligations and continue to deny equal opportunity to all workers." The UAW, the statement continued, "has no quarrel with the NAACP."

Statements

Wilkins' statement, issued after receipt of Mr. Ruether's comment, recalled "the active cooperation" of the two organizations "on civil rights matters over a period of more than 20 years, not only in fighting discrimination in all walks of American life, but especially in seeking enactment of civil rights legislation by the Congress."

The NAACP leader paid tribute to Mr. Ruether's vital role in "the long and complicated fight for amending the Senate filibuster rule which acts as a roadblock to civil rights legislation."

Asks President to Protect
Miss. Integration Leaders

Washington — President Kennedy was urged this week to invoke all means at his disposal to protect life, limb and property of Negro integration leaders in Mississippi.

The appeal came from Bishop Stephen Gill Spottswood, chairman of the NAACP Board of Directors, who cited the bombing of the home of Dr. J. L. Allen, of Columbus, vice chairman of the Mississippi State Advisory Committee of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights.

Bombings

Bishop Spottswood's letter, dated Oct. 17, also cited bombing of the properties of Dr. Gilbert Mason and Dr. Felix Dun, NAACP leaders in Biloxi and Gulfport, respectively, and the firing upon of Negro homes in Leake County.

The "frequency and intensity of telephoned threats have greatly heightened," President Kennedy was advised.

Reprisals

"We respectfully urge," the NAACP official continued, "that the U.S. Government invoke every means at its disposal to ensure the safety of those now, or likely in the future to

HEALTH FOR ALL

Three Million Wheezers

There are more than three million people in the United States who suffer from asthma.

A person having an asthma attack feels as though he is choking. He cannot inhale enough air and he can't breathe out what air he has managed to take in. He wheezes loudly with every breath.

Air Passages

Asthma is a disease which obstructs the small air passages in the lungs (bronchioles). The mucous membrane of the bronchioles swells up and gives off a thick mucus (phlegm). There is a spasm of the bronchiole wall muscle. What with one thing and another, the bronchioles just cannot do their work—taking oxygen to the bloodstream and carrying carbon dioxide throughout the lungs.

Allergic

Asthma is an allergic disease. That means it is simply the body's stronger than normal response to physical substances — lint, pollen, certain foods; to an infection inside the body — cold, flu, bronchitis; or even to uncomfortable emotions. Most of the people who get asthma have had some previous allergy — skin rash, hives, hay fever.

Wheezers

If you are one of the three million off and on wheezers, don't waste your money on advertised cures. Go to your doctor. Often he can pinpoint the offending substance. Once he knows that, he will be able to help you prevent further attacks.

Even if the cause of your asthma is not found at once, a doctor can always help you escape severe asthmatic attacks.

The Legend of Halloween

Today Halloween belongs to the kids... for costume parties, trick-or-treating, pranks more or less innocent. But in times past, grown-ups had all the excitement!

No one laughed about spooks then... because they believed in them. One of the legends of the origin of Halloween comes from the Druids... Saman, the Lord of Death, called together all the souls of the wicked who had been imprisoned inside animals bodies during the past year.

87th Congress Has Poor Record on Rights Legislation

New York—The NAACP concludes that the 87th Congress made one "feeble achievement" in civil rights this year: "It extended the life of the Civil Rights Commission as a temporary agency until September, 1963."

The Association's annual legislative scorecard appears in the October issue of "The Crisis," official NAACP organ. It was compiled by the NAACP's research division and

Burns Methodist Church News

The Rev. E. T. Streeter will bring the message and choir of Clair Methodist will present the music.

Preceding the service, dinner will be served at 4 p.m.

Regular morning services will be at 11:00 a.m.

Two of our members, Miss Thelma Lyghtner and Mr. George Nichols, Jr., will participate in a panel discussion to be held at the Wilkie House Oct. 28 at 6:00 p.m., along with two members from the Ames Collegiate Methodist Church.

Mrs. Anna Adams, director of Wesley House of Drake University, will serve as panel coordinator.

Scottie for House Number

A TIME TRIED method of displaying a house number in an attractive manner is illustrated. Either the Scottie-dog cutout or some other animal will serve the purpose. Set in a parkway, on the lawn or at the curb, the jaunty puppy, with its sparkling eyes, will prove to be an attractive addition.

Scottie is 15 inches long and his height is 1 1/2 inches. Cut him from two pieces of Masonite 3/16"

Tempered Presdwood, holding the panels, screen sides together, with C-clamps and following a pattern with a coping, keyhole or hand saw. Slightly round the edges with a file or sandblock.

Reflector-type bolts used for ear licenses serve as eyes and reflect the light from passing cars. The numbers are sawed from the Tempered Presdwood and glued to each side of the cutout.

Two wooden stakes, shaped from 1 by 2-inch lumber, are laid between the two cutouts and fastened with screws applied through holes drilled in the hardboard. Paint Scottie in appropriate colors, first using a primer. Push the stakes into the ground, and your new house number will be in service. All the materials needed are available at lumber yards.

Study Lists

Notation is made of the "adroit skill employed to avoid direct action on any one of the many significant measures basic to formulation of enlightened domestic planning . . ."

The study lists the vote of every member of the Senate on nine issues involving civil rights. Only two civil rights issues came to a vote in the House of Representatives. The vote of each member of the House on these measures is recorded in the study.

FORTY YEARS AS EDITOR

In November, I will have been editor and publisher of the Bystander for forty years. That's a long time and I often wonder how I have been able to continue so long.

In that time I've been interested in raising the level of the Negro in Iowa. Certainly, forty years ago it was not at a high level.

But during that time, I have been in the midst of the many changes which have come to pass much because the Bystander has stood solidly for those changes. For instance, forty years ago only one Negro woman was employed in an office either public or private. In fact, for years practically every Negro girl started her career at the Bystander office. No longer is this necessary.

It just occurred to me, and I have decided to publish my 40th years anniversary edition on November 8 which will include sponsors in a two page ad. Clubs, lodges and churches will not be solicited to participate as most of them do a pretty good job in other areas. However they will not be excluded. On the other hand individuals will be asked to participate.

Many an individual has remarked what a fine job the Bystander has done. Here is an opportunity to repeat that by participating in this my 40th anniversary—call the office AT-8-1904 for details.

Georgia Will Get 1st Negro Legislator In Half A Century

Atlanta, Ga.—The state of Georgia will get its first Negro legislator in more than half a century. This was assured Saturday when Superior Court Judge Durwood Pye ordered that Fulton County (Atlanta) Democratic and Republican senators must be elected by district and not on a county-wide basis.

This meant that Negro Leroy Johnson was the primary winner in the thirty-eighth district. If the votes had been counted on a county-wide basis, Johnson would have had to face a white man in the runoff.

As it is, Johnson, a Democrat, will be running against a Republican Negro, T. M. Alexander, in the Nov. 6 general election.

Boy Scout News

More than 12,500 Boy Scouts of the Tall Corn Area Council will call on householders in central Iowa Saturday, Oct. 27, and Saturday, Nov. 3, to help them do a Good Turn for the handicapped.

Good Turn bags—90,000 of them—will be distributed to homes in an 11-county area—including Polk, Boone, Story, Guthrie, Dallas, Jasper, Tama, Poweshiek, Madison, Warren and Marion Counties—in the third annual Boy Scout drive to collect usable and repairable household articles for non-profit Goodwill Industries.

Many an individual has remarked what a fine job the Bystander has done. Here is an opportunity to repeat that by participating in this my 40th anniversary—call the office AT-8-1904 for details.

Ideal Snack

Prune Oat Bread and Cottage Cheese

"You never outgrow your need for cereal and milk." This is the theme of the Fourth Annual Spring Cereal and Milk Festival sponsored jointly by the Cereal Institute and the American Dairy Association to promote the food value of cereal and milk.

Is the cereal and milk serving a nutritional bargain? Yes, an average serving of cereal and milk costs less than five cents. The cereal and milk serving provides top-quality protein, quickly available food energy, essential B-complex vitamins, and important minerals.

The use of cereal and milk need not be limited to breakfast. A bowl of cereal and milk makes an inexpensive, readily digestible snack. Prune Oat Bread with cottage cheese is another way to include the nutritious goodness of cereal and milk in the daily diet.

Prune Oat Bread

2 cups sifted all-purpose flour 1½ cups coarsely ground ready-to-eat oat cereal*
 ½ cup sugar 1½ cups buttermilk or sour milk
 2½ teaspoons baking powder 2 tablespoons melted fat
 ½ teaspoon soda 1 cup diced, drained cooked prunes
 1 teaspoon salt ½ cup chopped nuts

Sift together flour, sugar, baking powder, soda, and salt. Add ready-to-eat oat cereal and mix thoroughly. Combine buttermilk with slightly cooled fat. (To make sweet milk sour, add 1 tablespoon of vinegar to 1½ cups of sweet milk.) Add to flour mixture with prunes and nuts, stirring just enough to moisten the dry ingredients. (Batter should be lumpy.) Put into well-greased loaf pan, 9 x 5 x 3 inches. Place extra halves of prunes and whole nut meats on top. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) about 1 hour, or until done. Turn out on rack to cool. Yield: 1 loaf.

*Three cups of ready-to-eat oat cereal (about) makes 1½ cups of coarsely ground cereal. If grinder does not have a coarse plate, crush cereal with bottom of metal measuring cup. Do not use a rolling pin—the crumbs obtained are too fine.

Last week we were out covering some of the territory that had not been solicited by our United Campaign workers; that is we had been unable to get a block worker for that particular area. Sometimes you know people by reputation and name only or perhaps you have seen them only a couple of times.

When we walked up to the door of 1232 13th street, we were very politely greeted by a lady who invited us inside and proceeded to give us a generous donation for the drive which made us feel that the job was indeed worthwhile when you come across occasional givers as she.

It was not until we took out our pen to record name and address that we learned who she was. And when we told her our name we both exclaimed with mutual delight. She was Mrs. Bernice Richmond. She recalled that we had written several paragraphs about her in this column and inquired why our children had not attended her annual party this year. We told her the weather had been so cool and rainy that day that they had remained home. She agreed that the inclement weather had held the usual size of the party way down. She also told us that a neighbor had called the Register and Tribune which had sent out a photographer. "I never even suspected that anyone might want to take pictures," she said.

Speaking of parties our oldest youngster spent the afternoon Sunday at Union Park sharing in the birthday celebration of a classmate and neighbor, Jimmy Young, 1323 10th street. He returned so replete with refreshments, he was unable to take part in the family dinner, at least not until dessert time.

Back to the UC drive a moment. We are happy to report, thanks to our diligent, wonderful block solicitor than we went 20 per cent over our goal.

We talked briefly to Mrs. Jack Parker, 1229 15th street, who is captain of the area west of us. She said she and her co-captain, Mrs. Andrew Siegh, 1215 15th street, were a little behind, but expect to reach it in a last minute spurt.

Mrs. Ernest (Speck) Redd, 1753 Walker, had rather a sad ending to an evening out recently. She had attended one of the stage shows at KRNT starring Pearl Bailey and others, taking as her guest, Mrs. Rufus Spates, 1244 13th street.

When they returned she learned that her home had been burglarized while she was out. Missing were some jewelry and cash.

We already have several communications about our new series, "People You Know." We greatly appreciate your interest and help. With it we can keep the series going indefinitely. Don't forget also the "Student of the Week" series which we want to inaugurate.

For those who dabble in the arts, especially in the field of ceramics or it closely allied fields, or take the artistic inclinations seriously as a profession, you will not want to miss attending "Hobbyrama", an annual ceramic show at KRNT Theater, Nov. 3-4. For the first time the show will be integrated from the participant angle. It is hoped that it also will be integrated from the spectator angle. Three Negroes will demonstrate their artistic creations, which is closely allied to ceramics. Heretofore, there has been a "gentlemen's agreement" about keeping the show, for "whites only."

Even if you are not a hobbyist or dilettante of the arts, you would enjoy seeing the various articles that can be created in ceramics or closely allied artistic materials. So mark down that date on the calendar and go won't you.

The Negroes who will have their own exhibit booth and demonstrate are Messrs. Howard Bakers and Leonard Manly of 832 26th and Kenneth Hardeman, 1247 11th street. Mrs. Ralph Parker wanted to get a message off about "Potential Debs of 1962." All fees must be in by Thursday, Nov. 1. She can still take applicants and needs boys for escorts.

To Our Readers

News from out-of-town correspondents should reach the Stander no later than Wednesday morning. If you can possibly get your news in earlier the staff would greatly appreciate it.

THERE IS NO OTHER SIDE

At its annual meeting in Des Moines last week, the Iowa Association of Municipalities had as one of its principal speakers Mayor Allen Thomas of Jackson, Mississippi. It was announced that he was invited so the members could hear the south's side of Mississippi University-Meredith story.

Frankly, there is no OTHER side to the question and it is difficult to understand why some people are so confused over school integration. The Supreme Court has ruled that segregation has no place in public education. This is the law of the land. The highest court has ruled that Meredith should be admitted to the University of Mississippi. He has a right to be there, and when Gov. Barnett or any other official attempted to block the execution of the decision of the court, they are in contempt and subject to be punished.

Murder, robbery, breaking and entering are crimes in Alabama. Does a convicted criminal come or is he invited to come to Iowa to tell his side of the case? Absolutely not. If convicted, he is sentenced to prison or fined; maybe paroled by the judge or his sentence commuted by the governor or the appropriate authorities. This is exactly the position in which Gov. Barnett, et al, find themselves today except their case is in civil contempt of court.

Mayor Thomas told his audience that Jackson (and this appears in most towns in the south) had built finer and more schools for Negroes proportionately, than for whites. This is true. But why? Up to the time the NAACP began its fight on school segregation in the South, some southern states spent five times as much educating a white child as a Negro child. But when the courts began to apply the separate but equal doctrine to public education and later that equal education must be provided within the borders of a student's home state, they began this building program hoping to block integration, they saw the handwriting on the wall, but it was too late.

Thomas never admitted in his speech to the convention or in his taped interview with Jim Zabel over radio station WHO that he favored obedience to law and order as was presented to Gov. Barnett.

If the northern people wish an intelligent understanding of the racial problem in the South, they would do well to invite such men as Ralph McGill, editor of the Atlanta Constitution, a southerner himself who has not feared to tell the South that integration was inevitable, that the power structure in Mississippi (comprising lawyers, doctors, ministers and business men) had abdicated their responsibility to self seeking politicians who have led the ignorant, the uneducated citizen down the wrong path resulting in such happenings as the mobs and thus calling in the army to put down insurrection.

ATTACK ON BIAS IN EMPLOYMENT IS TIMELY

Recognizing the unjust exclusion of Negroes from employment in many areas of American economy which not only relegates them to the lower strata of society, but also forces an unfair proportion on relief rolls, the NAACP is directing much of its energy toward bettering that situation.

In the course of their investigation, discrimination of varying degrees is being exposed raising the ire of some labor leaders who have worked with that organization calling for full civil rights but have failed to extend democratic treatment of Negroes within their own organization.

These investigations have uncovered differential in pay for whites and Negroes doing the same work, exclusion from union membership or maintaining separate Jim Crow unions where the members don't enjoy all the facilities of full membership, discrimination in the services offered white employees in plants, refusal to upgrade capable employees, denial of apprenticeship opportunities to learn trades.

These are fundamental rights which labor enjoys today. To deny them cuts down the economic status of a great share of the economy.

This situation exists all over America. It is becoming increasingly difficult for Negro men to secure and hold good paying jobs. And thus in spite of the provisions in most labor union constitutions banning discrimination in the organization. This is true in Iowa where other than the CIO side of the organization, Negro men are almost totally barred from apprenticeship training and thus journeyman jobs.

The NAACP IS wise to push this angle of discrimination in the American economy for even though the Negro is accorded his civil rights, he cannot enjoy them if he has no money to buy what these rights bring on.

The NAACP has been a big supporter of organized labor in its campaign for a better share of what the country has to offer and leaned heavily politically toward the party and candidates which labor has supported.

Its another of those instances where lip service rather than substantive cooperation has been the rule. True some leaders have been pretty sore about the accusations against their organizations, but like the old adage, throw a rock in a crowd of dogs and the one that is hit yells. Let's not let up on this program until a change has been made in the exclusion of Negroes from fair employment.

Time Extended for Anniversary Edition

Orders of these who plan to participate in the special Anniversary edition should be in the Bystander office on or before November 1.

Tommy Davis Wins '62 NL Batting Title

Los Angeles, Calif.—A home-run and single by Tommy Davis in the final game of the playoff series, enabled the 23-year-old Los Angeles outfielder to clinch the 1962 National League batting championship here Oct. 3.

Davis' performance dispelled all fears that Frank Robinson of Cincinnati, might "back" into the title while the Dodgers star was battling through three extra games of the season.

The two hits in three at bats gave Tommy a .346 mark for the year. It was enough to insure the crown for Davis, whose average had skidded to .344, just two percentage points ahead of the idle Robinson's .342.

When the NL season came to its official close with the San Francisco Giants edging LA in a best-of-three playoff, colored players occupied eight of the ten top spots in the final stick averages.

Following Davis in the leading ten were:

Robinson, second; Bill White of St. Louis, fourth; Hank Aaron of Milwaukee, fifth; George Altman of Chicago, sixth; Felipe Alou of San Francisco, seventh; Bob Clemente of Pittsburgh, eighth, and Orlando Cepeda of San Francisco, tenth.

Vassar College Turns Down $200,000 Gift; Due to Race Clause

Poughkeepsie, N.Y.—Integrity in the field of education and among those who supervise its varied facets, is still strongly evident today. This was demonstrated last week when the trustees of Vassar College, and exclusive "name" school for women, turned down a $200,000 bequest of a former student.

The bequest was made by the late Miss Sally Baker Staton of Tarboro, N.C., whose will specified the money should be used for white girls only from Tarboro or Edgecombe County, N.C.

The Vassar Board of Trustees authorized officers of the college to decline the bequest unless the restriction to white girls is eliminated.

Miss Staton, was a member of the class of 1897 at Vassar; she died recently at the age of 87.

Fergy Stars As Hawks Gives Game Away on Fumbles and Penalties

BY STAFF WRITER

Madison, Wis. — Some say Iowa gave the game away on fumbles and costly penalties. There were others who say the Badgers were red hot and played heads-up football all the way. Whichever way you want it, when the dust had cleared and the final gun sounded, the Hawks found themselves beaten by an almost identical score, with which they trounced the Wisconsin Eleven a year ago.

Both Teams

For the first quarter both teams looked as if they were playing tick-tac-toe with the scoring and the Hawks, left halfback Larry Ferguson, looked like his old self, with two long passing-running plays, one for 80 yards and a TD and another 56 yards.

Ailing Quarterback

The Hawks, under ailing but game Quarterback Matt Szykowny, tied the game at 14-14, and then they literally almost "bowed" out of the game. The rest of the scoring was all Wisconsin, who gained 23 first downs, 186 yards on the ground and 238 on passes for an amazing total of 424 yards.

Iowa covered lots of ground, 58 on the ground, and 259 on 16 completed passes for an overall total of 317. Ferguson, squad captain, carried 132 yards of that total. Star performer for Wisconsin was Ron Vanderkelen, quarterback, who totaled 239 yards, 202 of them by passing.

Cyclones Comeback Like a Twister; Beat Colorado . . . 57-19

By Staff Writer

Ames, Ia.—Coach Bus Mertes was hung in "effigy" last week but his Cyclones rallied behind and came up with a record Big Eight score, 57-19 over Colorado Saturday. Some 19,500 saw the massacre.

As usual Dave Hoppman led the parade, scoring three of the touchdowns, running for 132 yards and passing for 71. But in this game he had plenty of help from such people as Tom Vaughn, Ozzie Clay and Otis Williams. They rocked Colorado for a total of 343 yards.

Two More Weeks of Little League Football

With only two week ends of competition left, the Southwest Packers lead the Heavyweight division and the Northwest Colts lead the lightweights in the Little All American Football League.

In games last week end, heavy weight, it was the Packers 19, Bears 12; Lions 20, Cardinals 0; in lightweights, Colts 32, Giants 24; 49'ers 7, Rams 0.

The schedule for next weekend—lightweights Saturday morning at Sec Taylor, Southwest 49'ers vs. Northwest Colts at 9 a.m., Southeast Rams vs. Northeast Giants at 10:30 a.m.—heavyweights, Sunday afternoon, Southwest Packers vs. Northwest Cardinals at 1:30, Southeast Bears vs. Northeast Lions at 3 p.m.

Who should get the blame for a losing team in any game? In baseball when a team like the Yankees win, the manager instantly becomes the greatest. But does he hit the home runs, steal the bases, or pitch the shutouts? Granting that he makes a change in the lineup. Then that substitute trying to avoid a close pitch hits the games winning blow. Astute managing?

Fumbles

Which brings us around to Iowa. We have heard several people say that Coach Jerry Burns just isn't good enough for the job of coaching the Hawks. We haven't seen the guys play yet but we have watched the game films and in just about every game we have seen fumbles in key situations, dropped passes with the receiver in the clear and what we think were missed blocks in offense or defense we have seen missed tackles, ends getting turned in and general confusion on defense at times.

Fault of Coach

How much of that is the fault of the coach? Could you become the coach for dropped passes, fumbles and poor center passes. For instances, last Saturday, at least two Wisconsin scores were the direct result of fumbles by Iowa. At least two Iowa scores were lost when the pass catcher dropped the ball with no one near him. Subtract and add those two scores as they belong and you would have a tie game with a vastly improved Iowa moral.

Drake

Well, somebody has to be blamed, so let's jump on the coach. Maybe, the boys wouldn't fumble or drop passes for a new coach. While Iowa has its woes in what looks like a long season, Drake rolls along. They dusted Wichita; so we have to say the Bulldogs have a team. They might not lose another game all season.

Iowa State

Iowa State got back on the winning track by whaling Colorado but figures to have tough luck at Missouri. Funny thing, Both Iowa State and Drake have more Negroes than the Hawkeyes have.

High School

We were hoping North would get by Roosevelt but guess it was not to happen. But the people who came out to see Clyde Duncan run went home happy. The fellow got away for a long T.D. run. Tech had one of those fields ankle deep in mud to play in and had trouble, while East had a bad time at Fort Dodge. Those Dodgers rarely lose at home. We have heard coaches say strange things about those fellows. Won't say they cheat, but the home team is awfully hard to beat up there.

DEMANDS U.S. ECONOMIC SANCTIONS AGAINST SOUTH AFRICA

New York — The United States should take economic sanctions against South Africa at once, recommended the American Committee on Africa today.

"The South Africa issue is symbolic of the last and the greatest struggle for freedom and equality in Africa. If the US can take the leadership in ending the reign of apartheid, it will be the greatest possible step toward establishing the US as the champion of equality and freedom," reads a document, "South African Crisis and United States Policy," issued by the Committee.

This year's apartheid debate has already started at the United Nations. In last year's debates, the US censured South Africa for her racist policies but opposed the imposition of sanctions and boycotts.

THE WINDOWS OF THE MIND

Open the windows of my mind,
The ones that catch the morning light,
And those that face the world's dark places.

Give me vision . . . Inner sight.
Comprehension; understanding.
All things I would see and feel—
So that I may learn to know the best,

The worst, the false, the real.
Let there be no curtained casement.
Let there be no shattered pane.
Show me Life; the gloom, the glory;
Grief and gladness, sun and rain
Then no scene that I behold
Will fill the spirit with dismay;
I shall see beyond the hills
The promise of a brighter day.

LAUGH A LITTLE

A perturbed young lady at a Pennsylvania voting place was voting for the first time for President. "I can't decide who's the best man for the job," she confided to a fellow voter. "I like them both so much."

Outside the voting place a bit later, she appeared greatly relieved. "I just couldn't make up my mind," she told her friend. "So I wrote 'Good luck to both of you,' across the ballot."

If Only Pianos Could Talk

What stories they would have to tell of their pasts. It has been my privilege to know pianos in many parts of the world, and I have often wondered about the diverse pleasures and tortures they have experienced.

One night they are being used to honor Beethoven; another night they are giving forth music that honors our Lord and Saviour. Somehow I feel that this is what a piano enjoys the most.

But there are times when, just as the pianist sits down to play, he hears, "The piano is not very good; we've sort of let it go—but when you play it, we know it will sound just fine." I think back to a concert when, upon striking the first bass note, I discovered that it would not come up again—it kept ringing.

What do you do? Well, when your right hand isn't too busy, you cross it over your left, pull up the key, over and over, and trust that the audience will think it some intentional experiment or a bit of unusually good technique. (I later discovered a piece of pencil lead stuck between the keys.)

I have found pianos in high schools, banged senseless, with one or more pedals removed. They seem to whisper, "Please take it easy—I'm sick." Then there are the pianos in the jail chapels. I often feel an instrument must have committed a major crime to be punished as they are in some institutions.

As for church pianos, they should organize and demand hospital benefits—so many of them are in need of surgery. Usually a ten-dollar tuning operation would cure them! A neglected piano is like an unopened Bible in a home.

Did you ever notice how unhappy an out-of-tune piano sounds? It is like a Christian who is out of tune with God: There's no positive music.

cal sound. But when the instrument has been put back in tune and has been well cared for, what music can come from it! And it is the same when you and I are on pitch and in harmony with our God.

Los Angeles, Calif.—The hurriedly built shack which serves as sales office at Centerview Estates has been dubbed by Los Angeles CORE pickets as "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

Bloom Family Foundation

Donates $5,000 To NAACP

New York—The Sol Bloom Family Foundation of 275 Madison Avenue, today announced a $5,000 gift to the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund.

The gift was made in conjunction with a letter from Nahum Bernstein, the Foundation attorney, to James H. Meredith, the first Negro student to attend the University of Mississippi. The letter praised Mr. Meredith's "lonely vindication of our heritage," and quoted that it was accomplished "with intelligence, courage, integrity and a quiet dignity so rare in this day and age."

VOTE FOR AND RE-ELECT

SENATOR B.B. HICKENLOOPER

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR

U.S. SENATOR

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER

BECAUSE

- He has served the people of Iowa as a Legislator, Lieutenant Governor and Governor and has been a U. S. Senator since 1944.
- He is second ranking minority member of the Foreign Relations Committee of the Senate and has considerable practical experience in the program of aiding new and undeveloped nations.
- He is chairman of the Republican Policy Committee which has much to do with chartering the course of the Party.
- He nominated the first Negro from Iowa to a U. S. Service School in the person of Tommie Randle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Randle.
- He supported and voted to confirm Judge Thurgood Marshall as circuit judge. He will continue to support qualified Negroes whose nominations are presented with the same test that is applied to any other nominee.
- He will support measures coming before the Senate which meet the test of sound legislation and which is not a gimmick designed to catch votes.

Return Senator Hickenlooper to the Senate so as to help attain a Republican majority, control that body and place friends of civil rights at the head of important committees.
