IN PRE-HOLIDAY RULING:

Court Upholds Clemson Rejection

Emancipation-100 Years Ago
What Has Happened Since

By Harry Gersh

On Jan. 1, 1863, Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation, and all slaves in the states of the Confederacy were liberated—in law. The 13th, 14th, and 15th Amendments to the Constitution were then inevitable.

And so, for a century, there has been no legal right to discriminate between men of different races in the United States. Were we late or early in recognizing the religious, moral, and scientific truth that all men are as one? Were we pioneers of freedom? Or laggards?

Other Nations

British abolition legislation came 30 years earlier, in 1833. In Brazil slavery wasn't abolished until 1888. Slavery was still a concern in the League of Nations after World War I; the League's anti-slavery convention wasn't adopted until 1926. A 20th century form of slavery existed in the Soviet Union as late as ten years ago.

So we were neither first nor last.

Legally Wiped Out

Now, 100 years after the Emancipation Proclamation wiped out the legal basis for slavery in the United States, how have we fulfilled Lincoln's promise to the enslaved? For slavery isn't merely a question of proclamations and laws. Men can be enslaved by other means than a piece of paper saying this man belongs to that man. Men can be enslaved by the illegal use of force given sanction by custom. Men can be enslaved by withholding their food, or controlling their opportunities to earn food. Men can be enslaved by restricting their movements. And men can be enslaved in their minds by closing off whole areas of life open to the rest of the population.

Sharecroppers

Only a few years ago descendants of the men freed by the Emancipation Proclamation were not permitted to leave the farms on which they worked in some Southern states. The mechanism for keeping them from leaving wasn't a bill of sale. It was a debt rigged so it could never be paid off. It was threats of force. These men were not free.

Tennessee

In Tennessee descendants of the men freed by the Emancipation Proclamation were not permitted to

Study Shows Job Bias
Widespread in Chicago;
Banks, Insurance Cos. Worst

Chicago—Hiring policies of banks and insurance companies were under heavy fire last week when Jacob E. Siegel of the Chicago Jewish Labor Committee released the results of a survey of employment practices made here recently. The study indicated that these two groups discriminated against Jews and Negroes on a wide scale.

The JLC leader called for an investigation by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation to "find out if this agency, by underwriting deposits in banks, is not underwriting racial and religious bias."

Guarantee

The committee asserted that "a depositor will think twice if a bank does not have a government guarantee behind deposits. He will take his business to a bank that has this guarantee."

The survey showing banks and insurance companies to be "the worst offenders" was made by the Bureau of Jewish Employment Problems.

Applications

It revealed that 10 of 13 private employment agencies chosen at random used applications containing discriminatory questions on religion, nationality or descent. The problem is even greater for Negroes who are "not even referred by the agencies or seen by prospective employers unless the job order specifically indicates a willingness to consider them."

Total

The director of the Bureau also pointed out that "the number of discriminatory job orders of which we have direct knowledge is minuscule in terms of the total number of discriminatory jobs orders placed. Further, since many companies who do in fact discriminate to issue discriminatory orders, it is only realistic to assume that the extent of discrimination in employment is much higher than our figures suggest."

Notes Creeping Segregation
In Chicago Public Schools

Chicago, Ill.—Segregation — not only of Negroes, but also of Jews—moves from block to block as members of these two minority groups change their residences.

So testified Dr. Faith Rich of Chicago CORE, a one-time Chicago teacher, on the basis of a study she made in 1956 and 1957. Her testimony was before a state examiner investigating charges of de facto school segregation.

Temporary

"There appeared for a while to be integration as Negroes moved into new neighborhoods, but the integration was only temporary," she said. "Oddly enough, this applied to Jews as well. This trend of spreading segregation runs contrary to a Board of Education prediction that Negroes would eventually be assimilated."

Democratic Basis

At a recent budget hearing, Samuel Riley, chairman of Chicago CORE, urged "that placement of teachers be on a democratic basis

Deltas Aid Civil Rights
Defenders in Alabama

Albany, Ga.—Delta Sigma Theta, a National Sorority of Negro college women, devoted its energy this Christmas towards the relief of Negro families in Albany, Georgia, whose means of income have been cut off due to their efforts to obtain the right to vote.

1000 Arrested

Over 1,100 citizens of Albany have been arrested for such offenses as sitting in the front of a bus, entering a restaurant, and seeking to attend a church service. The head of the Delta chapter in Albany, Marion King, was knocked to the ground and kicked by an officer when she brought food to 100 teenagers who were incarcerated for marching, peacefully, on the City Hall. She was six months pregnant at the time and lost her baby.

President

Dr. Jeanne Noble, a native of Albany and the National President of Delta, in her plea to Delta sorors everywhere to aid the embattled Negroes of her city said, "Albany... where Negroes have worked hard and suffered much to have their humanity recognized... is a scene of mass disorder." To offset the severe economical reprisals suffered by the Negroes in Albany, an Emergency Clothing Fund has been established by Delta for children whose parents are out of work because of civil rights activity. The sorority is holding their annual Christmas in Albany and each Chapter -and member is

Two Negroes
Receive Rhodes
Scholarships

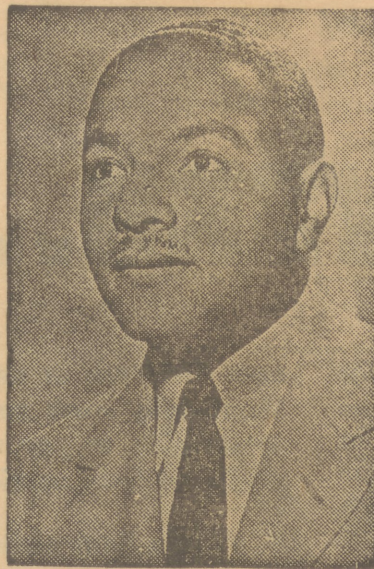

Chicago—Two Negro students were among 32 young men in the nation who won Rhodes scholarships Saturday for study at Oxford university in England.

The two are Joseph Stanley Sanders, a political science major at Whittier college in southern California, and Joen E. Wideman of East Liberty, Pa., a senior at the University of Pennsylvania.

giving wholeheartedly to aid the victims of the civil rights conflict in that city.

Hints Rowan Will Get Ambassador Post

United Nations, N. Y.—A reliable source reported last week that the first Negro to hold a high post on the permanent American delegation to the U. N. will be appointed soon by President Kennedy. Designated for the post, the spokesman said, is Carl T. Rowan, alternate delegate to the current session of the U. N. Assembly and under-secretary of state for public affairs.

The former award winning newspaperman for the Minneapolis Tribune would replace Jonathan Bingham as U. S. representative on the U. N. Trusteeship Council on the Special Committee on Ending Colonialism.

Alabama Church Bombed

Birmingham, Ala.—An explosion apparently caused by a homemade bomb did extensive damage to the Bethel Baptist church last week formerly pastored by the Rev. Fred L. Shuttlesworth, Negro integration leader.

NEWS
In A Nutshell

Kosciusko, Miss.—James H. Meredith failed to appear in traffic court here and was fined $10 Dec. 19 on a charge of failing to yield a right of way. Meredith had announced he would forfeit the $10 bond because he feared his appearance would incite another incident.

Detroit, Mich.—Supt. Samuel M. Bronwell, told the Board of Education of Detroit that he has decided to keep the text, "Our United States," but has ordered supplements prepared for chapters that were cited by a Negro parent in withdrawing a child from school for two weeks. Negro leaders and the local NAACP had protested that the text failed to deal adequately with the role of the Negro in American history.

Washington, D. C.—Roland E. Barnes, school principal, has filed the first complaint of a violation of the president's order against housing discrimination. He made the complaint to the Federal Housing Administration that he was unable because of his race to buy a home in a suburban project advertising FHA terms.

Richmond, a.—The NAACP moved this week to bring an end to segregation in the Virginia National Guard. In two separate actions the Virginia State Conference of NAACP branches sought to bring about complete racial integration of the Guard. Secretary of the Army Cyrus R. Vance was requested to use his good offices to insure that the reorganized Virginia National Guard would be integrated.

Philadelphia—A suit filed by the NAACP in June, 1961, against the Philadelphia Board of Education has been ordered to trial by U. S. District Court Judge Harold K. Wood. The suit charges racial discrimination against both Negro pupils and teachers in the public schools and asks for court-ordered school desegregation. A series of delaying tactics by the Philadelphia School Board and the Philadelphia Federation of Teachers was brought to a halt by Judge Wood's order which set a pre-trial hearing for Jan. 8. He also set this date as the deadline for preparation of the NAACP's case and the School Board's defense.

News Deadline

Because the Bystander offices will be closed on Tuesday, Jan. 1, New Year's Day, our news deadlines will be advanced one day. It will be at 2 p.m. Monday, Dec. 31; all news to be published for the Jan. 3 issue must be in before then.

If you should have club, church, social or any other news earlier, please bring, mail or phone it in before the deadline as it will help to alleviate the last minute rush. The advertising deadline remains at Wednesday noon. Thank you for your kind co-operation.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Harvey Gantt, Former
I.S.U. Student, Delayed in
Admission to S.C. School

Greenville, S.C.—Harvey B. Gantt, a former student at Iowa State University, Ames, Ia., received a set back in his legal fight to enter Clemson college here, when District Judge C. C. Wyche said the 20-year-old student had failed to comply with the rules and regulations for admittance.

Appeal Certain

However, there still is a chance that Gantt will be able to enter Clemson, for the second semester if an appeal, which is certain to be filed, should reverse the district court decision. Gantt's enrollment at Clemson would mark the first of his race to attend a state-supported institution of higher learning in South Carolina, the last of the southern states operating segregated schools.

Judge Wyche, who presided at week-long hearing on Gantt's case recently, said Gantt could be admitted voluntarily by Clemson officials without violating any laws of South Carolina.

B-Average

Gantt, who compiled a near-B average for a year and a half at Iowa State University, Ames, before leaving there early in November, lives in Charleston.

He had attended Iowa Safe with funds supplied by the South Carolina Regional Educational Board. This fund was set up to support Negroes who must attend out-of-state schools to get courses not offered in Negro colleges in this state.

Transfer

Gantt filed application to transfer to Clemson from Iowa State early this year. Clemson officials said his application was set aside because it did not furnish sufficient information.

When his application was not acted upon in time for admission this fall, SEE PAGE TWO

BIMINI BEAUTIES

The above bevy of Bahamas beauties beamed pleasingly as they were viewed by approximately 200,000 persons who saw 30th annual Orange Blossom Classic parade prior to game featuring Florida A & M University, Tallahassee, and Jackson State College of Mississippi in Miami. The charming young ladies represented Bimini one of the many beautiful islands of the Bahamas group located just off the east coast of Florida. "Miss Bimini," seated center, is lovely Lucille Saunders.

The pretty attendants, from left, are Myrtle Gaither, seated, Lavern Smith, Carolyn Sawyer and Marguerite Jones, standing and Paulette Grant, seated. The parade activities for the Bahamas party were handled by Frank Brown, Bimini business man who also entered a band in the parade. The young ladies represented various business establishments on the Island of Bimini. More than 43,000 football fans witnessed Jackson State's defeat of Florida, 22-6, in Florida's only loss of the year.

Taylor Cites Two Means of Improving Equal Job Chances

Washington, D. C.—Full utilization of government programs, both Federal and local, and stepped-up efforts to encourage minority group youth to prepare for better jobs were cited this week as two steps toward equal opportunity.

Hobart Taylor, Jr., executive vice chairman of the President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity, told a charity dinner of the Far East Democratic Organization in Washington, D. C. that the government program is getting results, both in Federal employment and in employment on government contract work.

Occupations

"Persons are being increasingly employed in occupations hitherto denied them because of the emphasis being placed on this program, both locally and nationally," he declared. "A knowledge and understanding of these programs and of the benefits that they will bring to all our people is one important contribution that we can bring."

Dropouts

The speaker emphasized the need for encouraging minority group youth to complete their education.

"School dropouts in this group are much higher than the national average and are particularly serious about the 9th and 10th grades," he pointed out. "A most strenuous effort should be made to save young men at this point in their careers, for they are the raw material upon which the entire future of the nation rests."

Results

"Consider the dynamic results that would flow in a few short years if individuals, such as you, could center some of your efforts on young boys of high school age, if each member of this organization could concentrate on one boy in his own neighborhood to enable him, through your urging, encouragement and mature wisdom, to get a chance to develop the right kind of attitude with regard to effort and adult responsibility.

Leadership

"Children need leadership, not so much from their fellows as from their elders who, through experience, know what paths are best for their future success. And many of these children have parents whose personal lives have been unfortunate and who therefore are ill-equipped to advise. We have here a situation in which those who have the advantages must reach down and assist those who do not."

Sexton Named To Post In Congressman's Office

Washington, D.C.—Congressman Garner E. Shriver, Republican of the 4th district of Kansas, announced last week that Edwin T. Sexton, Jr., editor and publisher of the Wichita Enlightener, has recently been appointed as a member of his congressional staff. Congressman Shriver stated that Mr. Sexton will serve as a district representative with a primary responsibility of assisting those citizens and organizations to communicate with my office in Washington, D.C., on the responsible agencies relative to their problems with the federal government.

Civic Speeches

Congressman Shriver also stated that he would expect Mr. Sexton to represent him before civic, veterans, service, and church and school groups on those occasions when it was not possible for him to be present. In addition, he will represent him at various meetings of such organizations as the Urban League, the Urban Renewal Board and other community bodies, where items of congressional interest might be discussed. Mr. Sexton will continue his newspaper and other business interest. Mr. Sexton has held many organizational positions, locally, state and national with the Republican party.

HOSPITALIZED NAACP YOUTH SECRETARY RECUPERATING

New York—Laplois Ashford, recently appointed NAACP youth secretary, underwent an emergency operation here this week for a ruptured ulcer. Mr. Ashford was roughed up by police during his arrest in Pascagoula, Mississippi, on Nov. 7 following his refusal to purchase his Greyhound bus ticket at a Jim Crow window. Doctors at the Veterans' Hospital here in New York agreed that Mr. Ashford's condition resulted from a blow. They said he is doing well.

and that neither race nor color be a determining factor as to whom or where one teaches."

Carter D. Jones, Jr., chairman on the West Side CORE group told the committee: "I was born and brought up on Chicago's west side. The schools I attended were integrated for the most part. Those my son will soon enter are almost 100% of one race. This is the experience of most Chicago Negroes and their children."

NAACP IN MISSOURI TO SEEK PUBLIC ACCOMMODATIONS LAW

Kansas City—A drive to secure enactment of a state-wide public accommodations law has been designated the No. 1 project for 1963 by the Missouri State NAACP organization. Such a bill would make it unlawful for restaurants, hotels, motels and other places of public accommodation, to refuse customers on a basis of race, color or creed. A resolution approving the project was adopted at a recent conference of the NAACP. Another resolution, passed by the NAACP delegates, called upon Missouri Governor John M. Dalton to issue an executive order immediately banning discrimination in the state's National Guard.

Court Rejects

Gantt filed suit in district court asking that the college be forced to admit him while the case was awaiting a hearing. He charged that he was being barred because of his race.

Quick Trial

The Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals denied the motion, but ordered the case tried before Judge Wyche quickly so that any appeal from his decision could be heard by the appellate court before the next Clemson school term beginning Jan. 28.

Gantt maintained in his suit that he should be admitted to Clemson because his parents are South Carolina taxpayers and Clemson is a state-supported college.

EMANCIPATION

lamation were denied fertilizer, seed loans, food itself because they tried to exercise the right of emancipated men and vote. These men are not free.

In Alabama last year descendants of the men freed by Lincoln's Proclamation were beaten when they tried to move from state to state on the same buses and in the same manner as the rest of the population. These men are not free.

Automation

In Detroit, in Pittsburgh, in Gary, in many other places, the great automated machines wipe out three times as many Negro jobs as white jobs. If freedom implies equality, even of unemployment, these men are not free.

In Mississippi, a descendant of Lincoln's freedmen had to be guarded by regiments of marshals and soldiers in order to exercise his free man's right to an education—an education supported by his and his parents and his people's taxes. This man is not free.

Real Estate

And in every town and city the descendants of the men freed on Jan. 1, 1863, are not free to read the real estate ads in the local paper and say: I will buy that house, rent that apartment.

We have come far on a dark, bloody, and terribly long road. But we haven't come far enough in 100 years. Eugene Victor Debs said, "So long as one man rests in prison, I am not free." He would have agreed to the paraphrase, "So long as one man's freedom is invaded, my own freedom is incomplete." That's what the Emancipation Proclamation meant in 1863—and means in 1963.

IOWA POWER PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES $18.5 MILLION CONSTRUCTION IN 1963

Iowa Power and Light Company will spend $18.5 million in 1963 for new construction and expansion of generating, transmission and distribution facilities, A. Paul Thompson, president, today told a group of financial leaders at a luncheon at the Des Moines Club. During the next five years, the company's expenditures for expanding its facilities will amount to $60 million, he said.

Growing Demand

The construction planned is based on anticipated growing demands for electric and gas service during the period and reflects the company's "confidence that this area of ours will continue to expand economically," he said.

The first major construction project, a $12 million addition to the Des Moines Power Station No. 2 was begun this year. Additional electric generating facilities being built will add 125 megawatts (million watts) to the company's generating capacity.

When the addition is completed in May, 1964, Iowa Power's total generating capacity will be 500 megawatts, about 30 per cent more than its present capacity, Thompson said. Considering the anticipated growth of the company's service area, central and southwest Iowa, it is anticipated that still additional generating capacity will be required by 1969.

Loop Line

Also to be built is a 161 thousand volt "loop" line encircling Des Moines that will provide improved flexibility of distribution and continuity of service and will enable the company to serve a bigger volume of business. Additional construction over the next five years includes an addition to the company's propane gas peak shaving plant, improved electric distribution facilities, construction of additional gas distribution facilities and better street lighting, Thompson said.

Citizenship Class For Foreign Born

The Department of Adult Education of the Des Moines Public Schools announces that a new class in Citizenship for the Foreign Born will begin Jan. 3, at 7:00 p.m., at Slinker School, 15th and Center Streets. It designed to be of assistance to those persons who have been in the country approximately five years and who desire to file their citizenship papers. English classes for the foreign born will resume Jan. 7, at 7:00 p.m., at Slinker School.

A Favorite From The Freezer

Orange Cereal Flake Loaf, a quick bread that is best served cold.

Most quick breads are best served as soon as they are baked, but breads that are made in loaf pans usually contain cereal flakes, chopped nuts or fruits, and are apt to crumble if sliced hot. So the "loaf" is the one big exception to the "bake and serve hot" rule that is part of the tradition surrounding quick breads. After baking, cool the loaf about 10 minutes in the pan, then turn it out onto a rack and cool completely. Wrap in foil or saran and let stand overnight. Wrapped with extra care, puffing out all air, this bread can be frozen, and will keep very well for two or three weeks. And a comforting item it is to have on hand for that quick snack needed before or after a tennis game. In addition to adding color and texture to the bread, corn flakes add to the vitamin B content by providing additional thiamine, niacin and riboflavin.

Orange Cereal Flake Loaf

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|---|
| 2 cups sifted all-purpose flour | 1/2 cup chopped nuts |
| 3 teaspoons baking powder | 1 egg, beaten |
| 1 teaspoon salt | 1 cup orange juice |
| 1/2 cup sugar | 3 tablespoons melted fat or cooking oil |
| 1 1/2 tablespoons grated orange rind | 1 cup corn flakes |

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt, and sugar; stir in orange rind and nuts. Combine egg, orange juice, and fat; add to flour mixture and stir just until well mixed. Blend in cereal flakes. Turn into greased loaf pan, 9 x 5 x 3 inches. Bake in moderate oven (350°F) until done, about 1 hour. Cool on rack 10 minutes, then remove from pan. Yield: 1 loaf, 9 x 5 x 2 1/4 inches.

Pine-Maple Yams Go To A Party!

Giving a party? Or just interested in giving the family a special supper treat? Then you'll like this delicious baked yam dish with its subtle maple flavor plus the piquancy of pineapple and the crunchiness of pecans. Easy to make—with the added advantage of being able to prepare the yam part in advance. Then, when preparing dinner, heat the maple-blended syrup with the fruit and nuts and pour over the yams and bake. Try it on the family . . . but for "outside" applause, serve this dish at your next buffet supper!

YAMS WITH PINEAPPLE

- | | |
|---|-------------------------------------|
| 2 1/2 cups mashed cooked Louisiana yams | 8 tablespoons maple-blended syrup |
| 1 tablespoon maple-blended syrup | 1 tablespoon butter |
| 8 tablespoons butter | 1/2 cup crushed pineapple and juice |
| 2 tablespoons milk | 1/4 cup chopped pecan meats |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt | |
| 1/2 teaspoon pepper | |

Combine yams, 1 tablespoon maple-blended syrup, 8 tablespoons butter, milk, salt, and pepper in saucepan. Place over medium heat and cook until mixture is heated, stirring constantly. Place in greased 10x6x2-inch baking dish.

Combine 8 tablespoons maple-blended syrup, 1 tablespoon butter, pineapple and juice, and nuts in saucepan. Place over medium heat until mixture is heated—about 8 minutes. Pour over sweet potato mixture. Bake in hot oven (400°F.) 25 to 30 minutes. Serve at once. Makes 4 or 5 servings.

Personally Yours
by Frances Mulhorne.

Now that the joyful day is past, many of us are turning forward to the New Year, and thinking automatically, humorously or seriously of resolutions we would like to make and keep for the coming days ahead. Before us lies a clean slate; it is ours to write within limitations, what we wish, be it good or bad, large or small, monumental or insignificant. What we have written on our slate in the past years, only we ourselves, know better than anyone. Perhaps, there is something we have lacked the courage to begin, but decide that this is the year. Give it a try. It is far better to try and fail, than never try at all. It is infinitely easier to sit in the scorners' seat by the side of the road and criticize, but never get in the mainstream and attempt to do our portion to right the world's ills.

We have no particular resolutions that we will list here but there are several things that we would like to see begin, and perhaps with their beginning, they will continue.

We would like to see further progress toward peace in the world. We know this is shared by most if not all of us. However, we all should realize that peace cannot come to the world, until each of us realize that we must be peaceful toward our neighbors and the people we meet. When all of us in the world do this, there will be peace. We cannot say we want peace and leave it to other members of the world society to create it. It must begin with each of us, with respect for all humankind, because they are human, with kindness and courtesy, and a desire and effort to treat one another, as we desire to be treated.

Secondly, we would like to see more driver courtesy in Des Moines. This essentially is part of the first. General discourtesies of local residents when they get behind the wheel in rank. People who wouldn't think of doing unkind little things on foot, change completely when they get to wheeling and dealing in their four-wheel carriages. Why is it considered "chicken" (that is not the word used but it is the same meaning) to be passed up by another? To give another the right of way? To be the first to get away from the traffic light? To endanger life and limb by racing one another? To lane hop all over the place and make other drivers burn rubber? To pass up every female driver in town? Or to berate a male driver just because he passes you?

All it takes is just a simple courtesy and respect for the lethal weapon that you drive, and for the life of yourself, family and others, and the local driving picture would be drastically changed!

While we were preparing last week's issue for makeup last week we had to stop and go over to Moulton school where our oldest son was singing in the school chorus, which 2-BYSTANDER Art 3 . . . presented its Christmas program. It made us good that we went, and our husband who had been working without letup as were all postal employees over the nation, also got up to go along. When we saw our son smile with pride and happiness, it made us glad we had come. It means so much to a child to have his parents come to what is important to him.

There were about two dozen parents present. Many were unable to come because of work schedule or illness and their children, naturally, understood. There was one youngster, throughout the program, who kept leaning his head around, searching perhaps for his parent or both of them to come in the door. It was just a little sad to see, the eager anticipation that was never answered.

May you have a Happy and prosperous New Year, and may you too reach the goals and keep the resolutions that you have set for yourself. HAPPY NEW YEAR!!!

SOME HIGHLIGHTS OF 1962

Resolutions for the New Year are easy to make, easy to break. But it's a practice men have followed. Undoubtedly, some have been able to stick, for the faith still persists.

As the old year passes on, it is comforting to look back and see some of the things that have occurred, weigh the good against the bad and see whether there has been a net gain for good in that period.

• James Meredith entered the University of Mississippi, and while his experiences are not pleasant, at least the way has been opened to which, no doubt, others will follow.

• Negroes played football in the North-South game last week for the first time and were key figures in winning the game for the South.

• Reports indicate that Texas is doing more integrating of schools than any southern state. Negroes played football on the Dallas Cowboys Pro-football team and made real contributions to winning the American League Championship. Remember some of the serious riots of Houston, Brownsville and the vicious assault on Johnnie Bright by a Texas A & M college player? Well Texas has come a long way.

• Negro servicemen are experiencing great difficulty living their normal lives in South Dakota. In fact, racial discrimination is the rule in and around Ellsworth Air Base near Rapid City. It is difficult to understand how the people of South Dakota would take such a position—opposing men who are protecting their lines.

• The prisoners captured in the unsuccessful invasion of Cuba in 1961 have been liberated thanks to an untiring job done by James B. Donovan, a New York lawyer, American firms which donated drugs and food demanded by Castro as ransom and those who helped in delivering them to their proper destination.

Some of the Cubans, as well as other refugees are being given new homes by citizens in several Iowa towns. In years gone by, some of these same towns have maintained a policy of total exclusion of Negroes from their community. Maybe, with these humanitarian acts they are soothing their conscience or fearing the day if an atomic attack comes. Good, something has changed their hearts.

• On the front page of this issue is a cartoon, syndicated by the A.F.L.-CIO press entitled "The Spirit."—"Welcome, without regard to race, creed or color." Every local union should have a copy of it for there the real test of the pronouncement is to be had.

• Companies doing business with federal government hold contracts which bar discrimination on the basis in employment. And most of them give it little attention unless challenged. It is hard to enforce everything from a position in Washington.

• The Hoffa trial in Nashville, Tenn., was declared a mistrial by the presiding judge, William Miller, because 7 out of 12 jurors refused to vote for his conviction. Jury tampering and/or fixing is hinted at in the news. It certainly would require a lot of fixing to convince 7 jurors. Many people rather feel that the government is making a martyr out of Hoffa, and even though legal, to try him in Nashville for something which occurred in Detroit, seems to point that feeling up.

EMANCIPATION
PROCLAMATION
100 YEARS OLD

January 1, 1963, marks the centennial of the signing of the Emancipation Proclamation by President Lincoln. This act, while freeing the Negro from physical slavery, left him a slave because of ignorance and unpreparedness to take on the responsibilities of full citizenship which caused him to make some blunders which have been difficult to overcome.

At the close of the Civil War until this very day, many sensible white people, in spite of such men as James K. Vardaman, Hoke Smith, Ben Tillman, Ross Barnett, et al. with the close cooperation of the Klu Klux Klan and White Citizens Council, have made a great contribution toward making Negroes first-class citizens and first-class citizenship for Negroes to the extent that they have made greater progress than any other race during a similar time.

Of course, there have been times when the situation looked pretty dark—times when it was unpopular to be counted on the side of the Negro. But changes within and without the country have come which reversed the situation and thus men coming from the South such as Justice Hugo Black, Vice President Lyndon Johnson, Secretary of State Dean Rusk, et al., are showing the world that there are many good white people in the South who are making a great contribution to the cause of equality for all men in America.

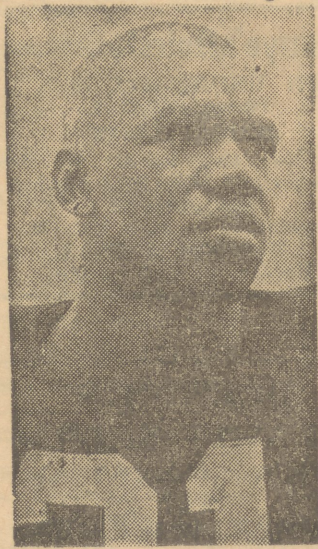

Unfortunately, no programs have been arranged to celebrate Emancipation Day in Des Moines. In years gone by, such were outstanding events. It would be well for churches and clubs to devote at least a part of their services—say read the proclamation on and around January 1—in recognition of the event.

There are entirely too many people who don't know anything about the Emancipation Proclamation. The schools give little attention to it. And yet it is one of the great documents of the history of America. Then, some Negroes tend to belittle it and/or attempt to minimize what Lincoln did when he freed the slaves. This is foolish; this is ignorance for a race which has come so far in one hundred years has nothing to be ashamed of. On the other hand Negroes should be proud, hold their heads up, get education, work hard, earn and save money, make their contribution to the state and the nation. With this they are bound to make greater strides during the next hundred years. And a lot of white people, both North and South, stand ready to make their contribution to those who would seek to be good substantial citizens.

Our biggest personal thrills of the year were the terrific battle Drake gave Cincinnati in their basketball game here; The running of the Negro colleges in the Drake Relays; the domination of small college basketball by those same schools; the National league playoffs and the World Series;

The play of Captain Larry Ferguson of the State University of Iowa Hawkeyes even though he was on a losing team; The inspired play of the Hawks against Ohio State; the fine play of Drake's twice beaten

Larry Ferguson

club and the running and passing of Billy Harper; the fun we had at the old timers softball game; our arguments with Willie Cerr about the quality of Drake cage teams.

Football

The running of Clyde Duncan at North High; If he could gain some weight he might be tough. The number of Negroes in the American football league. In spite of all the fuss about integration the boys from Dixie were glad to have Negroes on their side. Then of course there was the breaking of the color line in the North-South football game and the two boys who played, proud that they can play in any company by winning just about all the honors and the game for the South.

Sour Side

There were a few things we didn't care about. One was the lack of

HEALTH FOR ALL

TO WIPE OUT TB

The TB news is hopeful. Both case rates and death rates for the U.S. as a whole have been steadily going down. But although the general picture looks encouraging, it is true that in some parts of the country tuberculosis case rates have gone up recently. Not much. Just enough to spoil the picture.

Activities

It is possible, of course, that these recent increases may be more apparent than real. A vigorous spurt in case detection activities for instance, will almost certainly turn up more cases than last year's less energetic program. Increased efforts to check on those with whom the TB patient was in contact may also show a comparative rise in new cases. However, it is certainly possible that, in some instances, the case rate went up because there was actually more tuberculosis.

Ralph McGill Has
Praise for Houston
On Race Problem

Houston—Ralph McGill, publisher of the Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution, Friday praised Houston for its handling of the race problem, saying the city can be proud of its mature approach.

He said that aside from suffering a hangover of the moral conscience, such cities as Little Rock and New Orleans have been dealt economic blows from their race problems.

Race troubles belong in the past when there is a future to consider, he said.

entries in the various tennis meets. This lack of interest spread to the billiard meet that Willie Wells had, won by Moe Eubanks. The ugly rumor about Iowa football team and the number of Negroes dropping out of school at Iowa.

Boxing

We didn't like the ending of the bout in which Sonny Lister dethroned Floyd Patterson for the heavyweight boxing crown; didn't care for the two fights of Kid Paret against Gene Fullmer and the fatal one against Emile Griffith; the fuss about the Cassius Clay-Archie Moore bout didn't impress us; we still think Clay better let Liston alone.

On the whole it was quite a year and we would have liked to have seen the Hotentots win their city meet in softball.

culosis around.

Concentrated Drive

For the past three years there's been a specially concentrated drive to wipe out TB altogether. That goal is well within the realm of things we can hope to do. If there were no active cases of TB walking around untreated, there would be no further infection with TB. The job is to find and treat fully with modern drugs the more than 100,000 people who still have active TB today and don't know it. It also means special efforts to keep all known cases of active TB under treatment, until there is no longer any risk of infection.

Goals

Because long term goals sometimes breed discouragement along the way, the official and voluntary agencies behind the "no more TB" drive have set themselves an intermediate goal—a case rate for the country as a whole of no more than 10 per hundred thousand of population by 1970. The case rate for 1960 was 30.8, so we have quite a long way to go. Despite scattered rate increases here and there the job can be done.

ORDER SCHOOL PAPERS
RELEASED TO NAACP

Memphis—The Memphis Board of Education has been ordered by a Federal court judge to release to the NAACP their documents used in drawing school boundary lines in the city's plan to desegregate the school system by 1971. In his ruling Judge Marion S. Boyd stated that NAACP attorneys had a right to this information and ordered the School Board to produce the papers. Included are maps, charts and other documents used by the Board. The city will present its desegregation plan before Judge Boyd on Feb. 11 at which time the NAACP will also argue for a more immediate plan for integration of the public schools.

Dr. John Hope
Franklin Elected

MY PART TOWARD PEACE

To give the world the very best I can,
To keep my faith in God and fellow man,
To pass along the joy-light of a smile,
To count the smallest courtesies worth while;
To keep control of heart and mind, and know
That my own selfishness is my worst foe;
To grow a little kinder every day,
To do with cheer each task that comes my way;
To keep my sympathies alive and warm,
To be a rock for others in the storm;
To trust, and bid all strain and worry cease;
In this way shall I do my part toward peace.

Bostonians to Attend
Rites of Minnie Wray

Mrs. Gladys Walton and her daughter, Miss Vondalee Carr, of Boston, Mass., will be in Des Moines to attend the services Friday of their sister and aunt, Miss Minnie Wray. While here they will be house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Martin, Sr., 1305 Ascension street.

The water, falling on the land,
Each bud, or bloom, each lovely tree.
Though dust reclaim life, there shall be
The atoms, every molecule
Obeying rigid,
Unchanged rule.
His laws that bind this universe
They do not change: there's no reverse.

Unfailing is all evolution,
This alchemy beyond solution.
Gases thrown from burning sun;
Coalesce, and a world is begun.
A bright new star will take its place
In time: as a new-born world in space.
On a day long gone, a prophet wrote:
Eternal is: each drop, each mote.
