Church Fight Ends in Sioux City

Expulsion of Members Set Aside by Judge; NAACP to Court Again On Virginia School Case on January 9

Sioux City—The 15-months Court fight of Robert Brown, now deceased, Timothy Jackson, A. C. Evans, C. W. Tillman, Eddie Jones and Elder Owens as Plaintiffs vs. Mount Olive Baptist Church, a corporation, Rev. William Phillips, Allen Robinson, Larry Ganaway and John Doe, defendants, came to an end in the Woodbury County District Court when Hon. M. E. Rawlings, Judge 4th Judicial District, handed down his decree on Dec. 18, setting aside the expulsion of the plaintiffs from the Mount Olive Baptist Church here on Sept. 24, and ordered their reinstatement as members not later than January 16.

Conclusions

The plaintiffs, through their attorneys, Henry T. McKnight, of Des Moines and Clem & Clem, of Sioux City, had contended that their expulsion was illegal, not in keeping with the basic Principles of Natural Justice, fundamental rights, the Common Law and equity; and that Rev. Phillips had used church funds for his own use.

McKNIGHT

Decree

Considering the expulsion proceedings held on Sept. 24, the Court said: "This Court can only conclude that, while the members of the subject Church then had the right, power and authority or jurisdiction to expel plaintiffs therefrom, such right was exercised in such a manner and means as to be contrary to fundamental principles of Justice and Equity, and such proceedings must now be adjudged to be null and void."

New York—Another round in the 11-year-old fight for desegregated public schools in Prince Edward County, Virginia, will begin on Jan. 9 in the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals in Alexandria, Va.

The NAACP-sponsored case against this Virginia school system was initiated in 1951 and was one of the five which led to the Supreme Court's school desegregation decision of 1954. In 1958 the schools were closed and white students have been attending publicly supported private schools. Negro children have been without any formal training since that time.

Requests

In the January hearing, the NAACP will ask that the court order the opening of the Prince Edward County schools on an integrated basis, restrain the dilatory tactics of the county school board which has not yet submitted a desegregation plan as ordered by the U.S. District Court, and enjoin the board from using tax money in support of private education for white children.

Representing the parents and children in this appeal are NAACP General Counsel Robert L. Carter and his assistant, Miss Barbara Morris, both of New York City, and S. W. Tucker of Emporia and Richmond, counsel for the Virginia State NAACP.

NAACP Still Seeking Readmission To Ala.

Montgomery, Ala. — Appealing a year-old ruling of Montgomery Circuit Court Judge Walter B. Jones, NAACP General Counsel Robert L. Carter called for reversal of the decree which imposes a permanent injunction on Association activities in Alabama. A temporary injunction had been in effect since June 1956.

In argument before the Alabama State Supreme Court here on Dec. 18, Mr. Carter said that the ban on the NAACP was a punitive measure inasmuch as the law requiring registration of out-of-state corporations under which the injunction was issued had not been applied to any other non-profit organization.

NAACP Announces Natl. Centennial Essay Contest

New York — Announcement of a nationwide Emancipation Proclamation essay contest for junior and senior high school students was made here this week by Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive secretary.

Open To All

Wilkins stressed that the NAACP-sponsored competition is open to all youngsters. It will be under direction of Dr. John Hope Franklin, chairman, department of history, Brooklyn College and Dr. Bruce Catton, noted Civil War historian. They will be assisted by Calvin Banks, NAACP program director.

2 Parts

The contest is being held in two parts. The junior high topic is "What the Emancipation Proclamation Has Meant to America" while the senior subject is "America, One Hundred Years After the Emancipation Proclamation."

First prize is $500.00; second prize, $250.00; and third prize, $100.00, in each group. Winners will be announced on July 4, 1963, in Chicago at the 54th NAACP annual convention.

Essays

Junior high students are asked to submit essays of no less than 800 words and no more than 1,200 words. Senior high school essays must not be less than 1,200 words nor more than 1,500 words. All essays must be submitted on or before March 15, 1963, so that a panel of educators may judge them.

Local Branches

Wilkins added that contest announcements will be distributed, starting Jan. 1, through NAACP branches, youth councils and college chapters who, in turn, will contact other local organizations.

This is one of a series of Emancipation Proclamation projects planned by the NAACP in accordance with a resolution passed by delegates attending the Association's 53rd annual convention in Atlanta, Ga., last summer.

Appeal Fied In Clemson College Case

New York—NAACP Legal Defense Fund attorneys filed an immediate appeal this week from a decision by a South Carolina judge denying Harvey Gantt's suit to transfer from Iowa State to Clemson College.

Mrs. Constance Baker Motley, chief attorney for Gantt, said that the appeal asks the U. S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit to hear the case as soon as possible. She hopes to win the 19 year old Negro student's entrance to the all-white state school by February, when the second semester begins.

Missouri Governor Ends National Guard Jim Crow

Jefferson City, Mo. — Governor John M. Dalton, on prodding from the NAACP state organization here, this week ordered full integration of the Missouri National Guard. The Governor instructed Adjutant-General A. D. Sheppard to advise all unit commanders that entrance should be based on qualification alone. This move, announced on Dec. 18, followed a series of requests, for an executive order banning discrimination in the state guard, lodged by the NAACP through its state conference president, Mrs. Margaret Bush Wilson, in association with Dr. William Ross, NAACP state legislative chairman. Prior to the Governor's move, the Missouri National Guard consisted of 90 all-white units and two all-Negro units (both stationed in Kansas City and containing 98 men).

Coroner Rules Death Suicide by .12-Gauge Shotgun Two-Days Before

Arthur B. Tillman, Jr., 28, was found dead here about 11 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 30 on the porch off his apartment at 1176 14th street by his landlord, Adam Johnson, Sr., of 1112 14th street.

His death was ruled suicide by County Coroner Leo Luka, who fixed the time of death as sometime Friday evening. Dr. Luka said the instrument of death was a .12-gauge shotgun.

At the time of his death the victim's wife, Mrs. Georgia Tillman was in Mercy hospital where she had given birth to the couple's first child, a baby girl on Dec. 27. Following her release she went to the home of her sister, Mrs. John F. Thomas, 1705 Carpenter.

Mr. Tillman had served in the Army two and one-half years and was discharged on February 1962. His body was taken to Fowler and Son Funeral home.

Mr. Johnson, who found the body of the victim, said "The hospital had called trying to reach him. His folks came up to see what was wrong, and came to me for a key. I went with them, and when we did not find him in his apartment, I went out on the porch and found him."

"I called the police who came, with the coroner arriving shortly afterwards."

Mr. Johnson said the couple had lived at the 1112 14th address for more than a year.

Mr. Tillman was born in Des Moines, one of five children of a pioneering East side family, Arthur B. Tillman, Sr., and his wife, Mrs. Corrine Tillman. He was a graduate of East high school. At the time of his death he was employed at Younk-ers Store.

Chicken Italiano With Olive-Cheese Gravy

Your family and guests will rave about their favorite food—fried chicken, when it's served with this different gravy.

INGREDIENTS:
1 ready-to-cook young chicken
2½ to 3½ lbs., cut up
½ cup all-purpose flour
2 teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon black pepper
Fat for frying chicken
1 cup uncooked white rice
2 cups water
1 teaspoon salt
¼ cup all-purpose flour
¾ cups milk
½ cup grated American cheese
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup sliced stuffed green olives

METHOD: Wash the chicken. Pat dry. Place the ½ cup flour, 2 teaspoons salt and the ¼ teaspoon black pepper in a paper bag. Add pieces of chicken and shake to coat with the flour. Heat ½ inch of fat in a skillet. Brown the chicken on all sides. When browned, reduce heat, cover tightly and cook until tender (about 40 minutes). Turn as necessary to brown evenly. Uncover the last 10 minutes for a crispier crust.

About 14 minutes before chicken is done, put the rice, 2 cups of water and 1 teaspoon salt in a 2-quart saucepan. Bring to a vigorous boil. Turn the heat as low as possible. Cover with a lid. Leave over this low heat 14 minutes. Remove the saucepan from heat but leave lid on 10 minutes, or until ready to serve.

Drain cooked chicken on absorbent paper. Keep hot in a slow oven. Pour off fat in the skillet. Measure 3 tablespoons of fat back into the skillet. Place ¼ cup of flour to one side in the skillet. Blend fat into the flour. Cook, stirring, several minutes. Slowly blend in the milk. Stir in cheese, nutmeg and 1 teaspoon of salt. Cook, stirring, until gravy thickens. Add the olives. Add more milk for a thinner gravy. Place the rice on a hot platter. Arrange chicken over rice. Serve with gravy.

This recipe makes 6 servings.

If Monday's frenzied but well coordinated activities engendered by a state of emergency was any indication, the Des Moines Commission on Human Rights will have a hectic, but successful year.

We arrived about mid-morning for an interview with Mr. Ernest Russell, new executive secretary of the Commission, only to find the staff in a state of emergency with the unscheduled arrival of Mr. Abdoulaye Konati, Chief of Protocol from the Upper Volta, only a few minutes earlier. Mr. Konati, through his interpreter, announced they would be in the city through Thursday, and expressed an interest in visiting some of Iowa's farms, etc.

A phone call had come to the Commission late last week from the U. S. State Department, which indicated a change of plans, but Mr. Konati had some tours in Chicago, and at the last minute, decided to come onto Des Moines as previously scheduled but did not inform Mr. Russell of the plans until they arrived in Des Moines.

Like pros, however, Mr. Russell and Mrs. Marilyn Stanton, a secretary, hastily began to formulate a schedule, and had much of it completed when Mr. Konati and his interpreter arrived at the Commission office about 11 a.m. where the visitor was graciously received as if a month had been given over to planning.

Mr. Russell was to take Mr. Konati to lunch at the YMCA and then a tour of the building. Several dinners were scheduled, including one Wednesday night at the home of Rabbi I. Weingart. Others were to take the visitors on a tour of the city and later of various farms Wednesday. Several Negro leaders were contacted for "coffee, teas and receptions."

There was an added complication, besides the New Year holiday when activities quiet down on the first day of the year. Mr. Konati, a Moslem, does not indulge in alcoholics or eat pork.

In addition Mr. Russell was also occupied with his presentation of the Commission goals and plans for 1963 at the first council meeting which was scheduled last evening (Wed.) in Council chambers. So if you will bear with us we hope to bring you a story and interview of the new executive secretary of the Commission in next week's issue.

We were rather amused when we heard stories about Christmas help at the Des Moines post office during the recent holiday rush. Some employees who are sometime given to off-color jokes or exclamations, felt rather restrained with women Christmas help around, and verbally, were perfect gentlemen.

In addition because of complaints of profane language on the part of several employees, women so it is told, the Postmaster has handed down a "no cussing" directive for all employees.

Well to the surprise and delight of many, we had a white Christmas after all, when a few hours after dark Christmas eve the big white snow flakes began to fall.

It goes to prove that it doesn't take much to make children happy or they are very ingenious about finding their own brand of clean fun. For instance the lower portion of our concrete driveway, frozen over with melted snow has become a virtual skating rink for our youngsters and their neighborhood friends.

St. Paul Pastor's Aid Holds Party

The Pastor's Aid of St. Paul A.M.E. Church held its Christmas party on Sunday, Dec. 23 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. French Brown, Jr., of 933 14th place. Gifts were exchanged and games were played.

Guests attending were Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Williams, Mesdames Haley Johnson, Lucille Buford, Osceola Sims, Minnie Williams, Dorothy Heariold, and Messrs. John M. Danforth, Sylvester Parish, Lewis Piggee, Earl Johnson, Henderson Green, Marcus McCraven, Ezra Ewing, George Heariold, French Brown, Jr., husbands of the members of the club.

Mrs. Helen McCraven, president, presented each member with a lovely Christmas card and a check to Rev. and Mrs. Williams from the club. Dainty refreshments were served.

FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS
DRAG THEIR FEET

A recent study by the Chicago Jewish Labor Committee reveals a widespread practice of job bias there. The results of the study show that banks and insurance companies are the greatest offenders of hiring Jews and Negroes.

This, to be sure, is surprising in view of the fact that the distribution of Negroes and Jews in the labor field is pretty general as casual observers may see them working in most places.

The study points out the fact that the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation guarantees deposits of banks and savings and loan associations and thus the government is helping finance racial discrimination.

This study brings to mind the situation in Des Moines for here the insurance companies do a good job in this respect but the banks and savings and loan associations hire none except janitors, porters and service helpers.

At one time, the United Federal employed two Negroes in white collar jobs. Both left voluntarily. Two banks have hired one Negro white collar employee each, the Iowa State and Iowa-Des Moines National. One left for the service and did not return to the city, while one was let out with a cloud over his record which is no excuse for not hiring another.

Maybe nobody has applied since and this often is the reason for jobs in financial institutions just have not been available to Negroes.

There are other places equally guilty of keeping Negroes from better jobs. Maybe it would be well to make such a survey in Des Moines as was done in Chicago so as to pinpoint the lack of opportunity in these fields. Some will be sympathetic to the more liberal policy which may be just the final push to get the job done.

SOME SUGGESTIONS FOR THE NEW YEAR

Observing what goes on in a community, it often comes to mind some things the citizens of Des Moines might will conspire to improve. A few occurred to the Bystander and while everybody has ideas, these are desirable programs for 1963.

Some groups should plan a program of beautifying neighborhoods directed, not to the expensive houses and communities, but the average homes and blighted areas where a real clean up campaign backed by the city authorities would remove and do away with rubbish and cans in the yards, broken fences, porches and windows which could be repaired with little effort and money, clean up the alleys and haul the trash away; give more attention to lawns and general appearance of the home no matter how humble.

Some coordinated movement should be available to find what talent is in the city whether laborer or white collar worker and the tools to help get opportunities to all them. In this connection, a definite followup on opportunities for apprenticeship training and the securing of openings to improve on them is needed.

A more definite and coordinated effort by the churches and Sunday schools to help youngsters follow the paths of good living. This requires not only preaching to and teaching on Sunday but also a follow up with social organizations and agencies working in that field.

A Negro member serves most United Campaign boards. The United Campaign deserves credit for this in that the practice broadens the base of citizen participation in its activities and serves to acquaint white members with Negroes working side by side on equal footings.

When business in a city is carried on by non-resident owners, its growth is generally slow, for they take too much out of a community and put less back. These businesses are regulated miles away from the base of operation and thus are bound to be callous to most community needs except a few they cannot afford to ignore. It is hoped that no more locally owned institutions will pass their management and ownership to non-residents in the near future.

A more efficient system to handle out-patients at Broad-lawn—one which would eliminate waiting a half day in the reception room to get ten minutes service or a doctor and—maybe a pill. Broadlawn is an excellent hospital but this is a weakness often complained of by patients and relatives.

More decorum by youngsters on the street who often, in an effort to attract attention, conduct themselves without decent restraint.

More participation, other than in athletics, by Negro students in the extra curricular affairs of the schools. And this is no complaint of the athletic programs. As these students move up to college or proceed to jobs, most of their contacts will be with the youngsters with whom they went to school. Its pretty important to become accustomed to them.

More Negroes participating in the affairs of state, county and city government. And in this connection, at least one who will take the examination to become a fireman, pass and not quit until he is appointed is high desirable.

More reading of Negro periodicals by Negroes so as to acquaint them with their history, what is going on and how others similarly situated have gone to the top of the ladder, and with this more found in the upper group of their classes.

Observing these suggestions and doing something will not cure all the ills but to do so would move things far ahead in 1963 over 1962.

Youths Honored
For Sportsmanship

The cake says "Hats Off to Lincoln High" and it reflects a city's pride in an example of "outstanding sportsmanship." Members of the football and cross country teams at Milwaukee's Lincoln High School recently donated $100 as a memorial to two white boys from other high schools here who were injured fatally in athletic competition—not involving Lincoln. The Lincoln athletes got the money by passing up their annual athletic banquet.

When word of their generous action got out, a special banquet was promptly arranged to honor them, sponsored by Robert A. Uihlein, Jr., president of the Jos. Schlitz Brewing Company. Uihlein termed the gesture by the Lincoln boys "one of the finest examples of outstanding sportsmanship . . . an unselfish tribute which in itself deserves tribute." Guest speaker at the special banquet was Jesse Owens, great Olympic track star.

be null and void. At a peremptory called 'business meeting', with no advance notice as to the special matter to be then taken up, no charges, no hearing, no opportunity to be heard or to defend, and amidst hopeless confusion, the membership of these plaintiffs in defendant church was terminated as to each and all of them. This was akin to mob rule and clearly violated the fundamental rights of these plaintiffs."

No Use of Funds

The Court held that the plaintiffs failed to prove that any funds of the church had been misappropriated or had been expended without authority, or that Rev. Phillips had used church funds.

The defendants, through their attorneys, Whitcher, Davis & Yanoff, of Sioux City, had contended that the Court was without jurisdiction to pass on the expulsion of the plaintiffs, because the same was not a property right and that the defendants were damaged in the sum of $20,000.00 on account of assertions and accusations made by plaintiffs in their pleadings relative to church funds.

Jurisdiction

As to the question of jurisdiction, the Court said: "This church is of the independent or congregational type and the power of the majority is limited only by fundamental principles of justice, with no higher ecclesiastical body to which an appeal may be taken."

While this Court, like all Courts, may understandably seek to avoid controversies such as here presented, it still remains that this Court does have jurisdiction of the parties hereto and the subject matter hereof, and cannot and will not avoid the responsibility imposed (Ragsdale v. Church of Christ, "N.W. 2d 539; 20 A.L.R. 2d 440; and 45 Am. Jur., Religious Societies, Section 43, at Page 754)."

Damages Denied

As to defendants prayer for damages the Court said:

"It is further Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed that the prayer by defendants, Mount Olive Baptist Church, a Corporation, Rev. William Phillips, Allen Robinson and Larry Ganaway, and each and all of them, for damages from plaintiffs herein, be and the same is hereby denied and their cause dismissed."

Excerpt of Decree

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Rev. William Phillips, Allen Robinson, Larry Ganaway, and any and all other persons whomsoever, whether serving as officers, trustees, directors, or being members of the Mount Olive Baptist Church in Sioux City, Iowa, a corporation, and all persons acting for or in concert with them, including but not limited to any and all persons having custody or control of any and all books and records of said church, or who are charged with the responsibility of keeping, maintaining and supervising the care, custody, control and maintenance of any and all such books and records of said church, be and hereby ordered and enjoined to forthwith reinstate and restore the plaintiffs, Timothy Jackson, A. C. Evans, C. W. Tillman, Eddie Jones and Elder Owens, to full and complete membership in said Mount Olive Baptist Church, with all the rights and privileges relating to or attendant upon such membership in said church, including restoration of the names of said plaintiffs, and each and all of them, on the membership rolls of said church, and that there be filed in the office of the clerk of this court in this cause a full return or report of the doings of all of the aforesaid persons in accord herewith, not later than 10 a.m. on the 16th day of January, 1963.

Tommy Davis Cops
NL Batting Crown

Cincinnati, Ohio—Tommy Davis, Los Angeles Dodgers' outfielder, last week was named the 1962 National League batting champion. Davis, the Dodgers' workhorse hit .346, four points higher than runner-up Frank Robinson of Cincinnati. The official averages also disclosed that Davis paced the circuit in runs batted in with 153 and hits with 230. He thus became the first National Leaguer to lead in batting, RBI and hits in the same season since Stan Musial of St. Louis in 1948. Davis is also the first Dodger player to win the batting crown since Carl Furillo in 1953.

Musial finished third in the '62 batting competition with a .330 mark. He was followed by teammate Bill White, .324, Hank Aaron of Milwaukee, .323, George Altman of Chicago .318, Felipe Alou, San Francisco .316 and Roberto Clemente of Pittsburgh, the 1961 titleholder, .312.

Archie Moore to Continue Fighting

San Diego, Calif.—Archie Moore's, the prize ring's senior citizen, admitted here last week that "Father Time" is closing in on him but he said he intends to keep fighting, at least for a while.

In a talk before the San Diego Lions Club, Moore, whose closest friends say he was 50 years old Dec. 15, said Doc Kearns, his veteran aide and advisor, was attempting to line up some fights for him in England.

After his four-round knockout at the hands of young Cassius Clay, the ring's latest braggart, Moore was reported to be pondering retirement. But Archie spiked such reports with his outright statement that he'll continue fighting.

Moore said he realizes that "before long—not too long"—he'll have to hang up the mitts.

Navy Has
Tan Player

Annapolis, Md.—The United States Naval Academy has a Negro basketball player, for the first time since the Academy began playing the game in 1910.

The player, Ben Thomas of Chicago played the final four minutes of the Middles' game with Long Island University here last week.

He was one of 13 players to see

Willie Mays, San Francisco's star outfielder, won the 1962 home run crown with 49, while Robinson led in runs scored with 134 and doubles 51.

THANKFUL?
YOU BET!

Thankful? You Bet!

To go where I wish,

To walk in the night.

To tell a guy off,

(He has the same right.)

For churches and schools, and winter and spring,

Summer and autumn, for birds that sing.

For Sunday mornings, slippers and pipe.

A gardener's smile when tomatoes turn ripe.

Thankful, You bet!

To hear children laugh,
To see them at play,
For a good wife's kiss
At the end of the day.

Holidays for reverence, holidays for fun,
Stars, snow, and rain, the setting sun,
For ice cream and pie, popcorn at the fair,

Tramps in the woods, leaf smoke in the air.

Thankful? You bet!

A home to go to,

Books and a friend,

Letters to read,

And letters to send.

For tasks to perform and a job to be done,

Football and fall; a crowd's yell

"Home run!"
For songs 'round a piano, parades and a band.
Republicans, Democrats, peace o'er the land.

Thankful, You bet!

For GI's and sailors,

The Airman, Marine.

For cops and firemen,

For a day serene.

I'm thankful for other things, both big and small.

Simple things, great things, that make a man tall.

There's no way to measure, their value, their worth.

I'm thankful for each day, bestowed me on earth.
