Gov. Scranton Gives Strong GOP Warning

New York City—William W. Scranton, Pennsylvania's newly elected Republican Governor, has gone on record with a strongly worded warning to his Party not to become the haven of segregationists.

In a major speech Jan. 30 in New York City, Governor Scranton said: "The Republican Party must avoid at all costs falling into the trap of clasp to our bosom those who use the phrase 'states rights' only as a cloak to deny Negroes or any other groups their human and civil rights."

"The party of Abraham Lincoln should not become the party of segregationists. I do not welcome as a Republican a man whose only reason for joining us is his hope of leaving his Negro neighbors outside."

1,400 Foreign Students Attend 'Weekend' in Des Moines

After a whirlwind weekend of hospitality, fiestas, and other entertainment more than 1,400 foreign students returned to the campuses of their various colleges and schools in Iowa after attending the 10th annual Foreign Students Weekend sponsored by the Iowa and Des Moines Board of Education.

Representing some 85 nationalities the students set up booths in the Veterans auditorium which were open to the public Saturday afternoon. That evening representatives of the visitors presented an International Fiesta after a potluck supper at KRNT theater. The week ended with a tea and tours of the Statehouse and greetings from Gov. Harold Hughes.

Willie Cerf's Wife Sues for Divorce

Willie Cerf, former Drake University basketball star, has been sued for divorce in Polk County District Court by Mrs. Loraine Cerf, of Des Moines.

Mrs. Cerf, who asked the divorce on grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment, said in her petition that they were married here Nov. 25, 1961. They have no children.

Cerf, who was a Drake star in the mid-1950's, later earned a master's degree in psychology at Drake and was employed on the staff of the State Training school for Boys at Eldora from November 1961 until October 1962. He now is reported to be living in Los Angeles.

Youth Council in Miss. Seeks Aid in Boycott Drive

Jackson, Miss.—The North Jackson NAACP youth council has issued a call for nationwide support of its two-month old selective buying campaign against downtown merchants in this capital city of Mississippi.

The campaign, which has enlisted wide support among Negro citizens of Jackson, seeks non-discrimination in employment and promotion; desegregation of drinking fountains, lunch counters and restrooms; courtesy titles for all customers alike; and service on a first come, first served basis.

Refused

The merchants have thus far refused to meet the demands of the NAACP youth group which also has the backing of the Congress of Racial Equality and the Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee.

Local authorities have tried to

School Integration Not New to South Carolina

New York—The peaceful enrollment of Harvey Gantt as a student at Clemson College in South Carolina was hailed here this week by NAACP Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins as "a significant turning point in the current integration struggle."

"South Carolina, a proud state, has not chosen to demonstrate its pride through violence," Wilkins declared, "and for this the entire nation is indebted to South Carolina leaders, the Governor and legislators, the Clemson administration and students."

Not First

However, he pointed out, Mr. Gantt is by no means the first Negro to attend classes with white students in South Carolina's public education system. His admission to Clemson, the NAACP secretary said, represents a resumption of a process interrupted some 80 years ago with the collapse of Reconstruction.

NCNW Selects Top Youth Organizer

Washington, D.C.—Miss Roslyn V. Cheagle of Lynchburg, Va., has been named Youth Organizer for the National Council of Negro Women. The appointment was announced by Miss Dorothy I. Height, National President, following the Council's annual meeting held recently at the Statler-Hilton Hotel. Miss Cheagle, a former field secretary for the NAACP, is a graduate of Bennett College, where she majored in History.

Most of the stores against which the campaign is being directed are locally owned. Seventeen, however, are local outlets of retail chains. The NAACP youth council seeks nationwide support against all local outlets of these chains.

Donate $4,000 to 5 Ga. Negro Colleges

Atlanta, Ga.—Gulf Oil Corporation today presented $4,422 to the five colleges forming the Atlanta University complex as part of the Company's Aid to Education program. The five recipients are Atlanta University, Morehouse, Spelman, Morris Brown and Clark Colleges.

Faculty Members

Negroes attended the University of South Carolina in Columbia during Reconstruction, Wilkins said. At least one Negro was a member of the university faculty—Richard T. Greener who was the first of his race to be graduated from Harvard College in 1870. He taught philosophy at the South Carolina institution until 1877. While teaching there, he attended the university law school.

Graduate

In 1936 when the school's Alumni Council was seeking the oldest living graduate to honor at a ceremony on the campus they found 83-year-old Alonzo Gray Townsend, a Negro clergyman and teacher of Sumter, S.C., who attended the university, 1872-76, earning the A.B. degree. The planned celebration was canceled.

Not only did Negroes attend the university, but they also went to the same public and elementary schools under an anti-segregation provision of the state constitution adopted in 1868.

Seek End of Housing Bias at Missouri U.

Columbia, Mo.—A full-scale campaign to get Missouri University to end its ironclad segregation policy in both on-campus and off-campus housing, is being conducted by Columbia CORE. When Negro students by mistake are assigned to white living quarters, they are summarily asked to move. Several personal affidavits to this effect from Negro students have been obtained by the CORE group.

Decision Ends 2 Weeks Of Suspense; Another Student Refused Admission

Oxford, Miss.—In a dramatic news conference James H. Meredith, the only Negro knowingly admitted to the University of Mississippi, made known his decision to return to the campus for the second semester, while across state lines in South Carolina, another Negro, Harvey B. Gantt, former Iowa State University student, integrated classes peacefully at Clemson college.

Greene

Meredith's announcement, which was greeted enthusiastically by some 200 newsmen, came on Wednesday, Jan. 30. The following day another Negro Mississippian, Dewey Greene, Jr., 22, arrived on the Ole Miss campus and attempted to register but was turned away with the statement "he had not completed qualification." Later the statement was enlarged to say that Greene's grade did not meet the standards for entry.

Greene, a graduate of Broad Street High school in Greenwood, has attended Mississippi Vocational College, a state-supported Negro institution at Itta Bena, Miss., for the past two quarters.

Meredith's decision also ended two weeks of suspense and speculation whether his grades would make him ineligible for enrollment. Meredith said a communication from the Registrar indicated he was a student in good academic standing. However, he had failed to show up for final exams for Algebra, indicating he may have failed the course.

First Applied

During the first semester of 1962 when Meredith was attending Ole Miss classes under guard of U.S. marshals and troops, Greene had applied for admission to the school on Oct. 4, 1962, either as a transfer student or as a freshman. It was denied on the grounds too much publicity had been given Greene's application. On Dec. 10 a letter from the registrar, indicated Greene had not supplied character references from people in his community. He immediately sent the names and references.

Lonnie McGill and Joyce Banks are singing two duets in the individual competition.

The show will be presented Friday and Saturday, Feb. 22 and 23 in the Drake Auditorium. The curtain will rise at 8 p.m. each evening.

Famed Ebony Food Editor, Mrs. Freda DeKnight, Dies

Chicago, Ill.—Famed Freda DeKnight, 53, long time home service editor for Ebony magazine and author of the recently published "The Ebony Cookbook" died Wednesday in New York City. Services will be held at the Frank E. Campbell Funeral Home, Madison Avenue and 81st Street, New York City.

Mrs. DeKnight had battled cancer for several years. She was well known to North Iowans as she spent her girlhood days in Mason City and Sioux Falls, S. Dak. She brought the famed Ebony Fashion Fair to Des Moines several years ago with the Olympian club as sponsors.

Mrs. DeKnight who was married to Rene DeKnight, pianist with the Delta Rhythm Boys, divided her time

Student of the Week

Our candidate for "Student of the Week" is a pretty, smiling young Des Moines lass who is a junior at Muscatine High School, in Muscatine, Ia. She is Edna Mae Wyatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hurley Wyatt of 1323 Crocker street.

Edna Mae is so busy that when we begin to recount all the things she is active in that it makes one a little dizzy just to list them.

First of all she has more than a fair talent and flare for drawing and painting, and the Lutheran home, where she stays in Muscatine has many pictures, cards and other mementoes, testifying to that fact. In addition her parents' home also has various pictures and paintings the young lady has done.

Recently she was appointed chairman of the Youth Council and representative of Muscatine county in the 1963 Easter Seal project of the Iowa Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc. She and her co-chairman will come to Des Moines this summer to represent the county and make a report.

She is the first "student of the week" at Muscatine High; Miss Frequency of KWPC Radio Station where she is disc jockey for "Pop Parade." Also, she is the only Negro to be cashier girl at a local supermarket there and is chairman of the

EDNA MAE WYATT
Muscatine High

C.S.Y. council.

She is a volunteer nurse's aide at Muscatine hospital and does all art work for her school and the Lutheran Home. Last year she won first place in her high school art contest and went on to compete in the state.

In Des Moines she is a member of Maple Street Baptist church and was formerly active in the Sunday school, choir and Usher board.

SCHOOL SEGREGATION IN CHARLESTON, MO. RULED UNLAWFUL

St. Louis, Mo.—The trial of Missouri's first school segregation case since the historic 1954 Brown decision ended in a federal district court ruling that the Charleston, Mo., School Board must discontinue operating racially segregated schools. On Jan. 15, U.S. District Judge James H. Meredith found that the Charleston School Board was violating the supreme law of the land.

Integrates Quietly

Miami—Quietly and unobtrusively, school integration in one of the most effective and encouraging manners, proceeds without incident at this City's Dade County Junior College. Of the 6,000 students attending, at least 250 are Negroes. All pursue the same academic studies, which, along with active participation as members of the Florida Junior College Athletic Conference, include mutual participation in basketball, baseball, golf, tennis, track, gymnastics and swimming.

Along with their student activities, mutual attendance in cafeterias, browsing together through the same college book store, students at Dade County Junior College are finding that education in the South is, indeed, no longer a far-fetched possibility, but an actual fact.

A. Lincoln

• The Emancipator • Sixteenth President of the U.S.

During Lincoln's early manhood, he made a trip down the Mississippi river on a flat bottom boat where he gained his first contact with slavery. So incensed over what he saw that in one of his memorable statements he said "If I ever get a chance to hit that thing, I will bet it hard."

As President of the United States, he got that chance and among other blows to slavery issued the Emancipation Proclamation, one hundred years ago, January 1, 1863. It is one of the famous documents in American history. That proclamation lives as a precious pronouncement of the beginning of a steady climb to freedom by the Negroes in America.

Emancipation Proclamation

(JANUARY 1, 1863)

Whereas, on (September 22, 1862), a proclamation was issued by the President of the United States, containing, among other things, the following, to wit:

"That on (January 1, 1863), all persons held as slaves within any state or designated part of a state, the people whereof shall then be in rebellion against the United States, shall be then, thenceforward, and forever free; and the Executive Government of the United States, including the military and naval authority thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of such persons, and will do no act or acts to repress such persons, or any of them, in any efforts they may make for their actual freedom.

"That the Executive will, on the first day of January aforesaid, by proclamation, designate the states and parts of states, if any, in which the people thereof, respectively, shall then be in rebellion against the United States, by members chosen thereto at elections wherein a majority of the qualified voters of such states shall have participated, shall in the absence of strong countervailing testimony, be deemed conclusive evidence that such state, and the people thereof, are not then in rebellion against the United States."

Now, therefore, I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, by virtue of the power in me vested as commander-in-chief of the army and navy of the United States, in time of actual armed rebellion against the authority and Government of the United States, and as a fit and necessary war measure for suppressing said rebellion, do, on this first day of January, . . . (1863) . . . and in accordance with my purpose so to do, publicly proclaimed for the full period of one hundred days from the day first above mentioned, order and designate as the states and parts of states wherein the people thereof, respectively, are this day in rebellion against the United States, the following, to wit:

Arkansas, Texas, Louisiana, (except the parishes of St. Bernard, Plaquemines, Jefferson, St. John, St. Charles, St. James, Ascension, Assumption, Terre Bonne, Lafourche, St. Mary, St. Martin, and Orleans, including the city of New Orleans,) Mississippi, Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, and Virginia, (except the forty-eight counties designated as West Virginia, and also the counties of Berkeley, Accomac, Northampton, Elizabeth City, York, Princess Ann, and Norfolk, including the cities of Norfolk and Portsmouth,) and which excepted parts are for the present left precisely as if this proclamation were not issued.

And by virtue of the power and for the purpose aforesaid, I do order and declare that all persons held as slaves within said designated states and parts of states, are, and henceforward shall be, free; and that the Executive Government of the United States, including the military and naval authorities thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of said persons.

And I hereby enjoin upon the people so declared to be free to abstain from all violence, unless in necessary self-defense; and I recommend to them that, in all cases when allowed, they labor faithfully for reasonable wages.

And I further declare and make known that such persons, of suitable condition, will be received into the armed service of the United States to garrison forts, positions, stations, and other places, and to man vessels of all sorts in said service.

And upon this act, sincerely believed to be an act of justice, warranted by the Constitution upon military necessity, I invoke the considerate judgment of mankind and the gracious favor of Almighty God.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"SEAL" Done at the City of Washington, this first day of January, A. D. 1863, and of the Independence of the United States of America the eighty-seventh.

AN OPEN LETTER

As Treasurer, of your Polk County Tuberculosis and Health Association, I can say in all sincerity that we have budgeted in the red these past two years in order to provide thousands of Free Chest X-Rays.

Now, we have reached the point and are faced with the possibility that our life-saving program may have to be reduced in 1963.

This can be averted, however, IF, we can raise $8,000. In order to continue our program of saving lives, we needed just $68,000 and to date only $60,000 has been received.

Remember, Chest X-Rays Detect—TUBERCULOSIS — ABNORMAL HEARTS — CANCERS — TUMORS and OTHER CHEST DISORDERS. So, when you give to CHRISTMAS SEALS, you help fight all the RESPIRATORY DISEASES.

IT'S NOT TOO LATE—HELP KEEP YOUR CHRISTMAS SEAL X-RAY MOBILE UNIT ROLLING IN 1963. Your gift, in any amount you choose to send is very important and it will help save lives.

Our heartfelt thanks,

Wilkins Denounces Senate Vote on Filibuster Curb

New York—The Senate vote to sidetrack a move which would have made it easier to halt filibusters was denounced here this week by NAACP Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins as a "surrender . . . to the single-minded obstinacy of the southern minority."

Sharply Worded

Wilkins' sharply worded statement was issued following a 53 to 42 vote in the Senate, Jan. 31, to table a proposal which would have cleared the way for adoption of a new cloture

Baltimore Rights Law Overturned

Baltimore, Md.—A Baltimore city ordinance providing equal public accommodations for Negroes in hotels, motels and restaurants was struck down Thursday, Jan. 31, in Superior Court.

Judge Edwin Harlan declared the ordinance passed last year invalid because it conflicted with a statewide trespass law. The state law makes it a misdemeanor for anyone to enter or trespass on property of another after being notified not to do so.

The trespass statute has been used often in recent years against integrationists staging sit-ins at restaurants in Baltimore and elsewhere in Maryland.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Fie On The Flu! Gesundheit!

Sneezes require blessings, according to the old tradition. They also need sympathy, lots of clean tissues—and a great deal of watching.

Sneezes can be a symptom of the flu, that treacherous influenza that haunts the winter months and brings death and severe illness to many thousands.

Mankind has known influenza for centuries. A long time ago Italian astrologers thought the sickness was influenced by heavenly bodies; hence quested to bring in or mail their pictures (which will be returned), information about school, church and community activities and parents names, accompanied by a check or money order for $2.00 to the Bystander no later than Feb. 12. For further information please call the Bystander, AT 8-1904 and ask for news editor.

Remember the deadline is Feb. 12. All pictures and information must be in by that date.

Mrs. Willoughby

Rites Held Saturday

Services for Mrs. Hattie L. Willoughby, 76, of 1251 Stewart st. were held at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the Bethel A. M. E. Church. Burial was at Glendale Cemetery.

Mrs. Willoughby died Wednesday, Jan. 30 at Mercy Hospital after a heart attack.

She was a matron at the Insurance Exchange Building for 27 years until her retirement. A native of Valley Head, Ala., Mrs. Willoughby had lived in Des Moines for 46 years.

Survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Pauline Gilbert of Des Moines; a brother, Thomas W. Harrison of Chicago, Ill.; a grandson, and four great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Willoughby

"influence" is the Italian word for influence.

Long Way

We have come a long way in medical knowledge from the days of heavenly superstition. Today's flu vaccine is approximately 70 percent effective, and a drive last fall by Health Departments and TB associations urged vaccination, particularly for people with certain types of chronic illness such as heart diseases, tuberculosis or emphysema, persons over 45 years of age, and pregnant women. If you missed out last fall, it may not be too late. It's a good idea to check with your doctor.

If, however, you should come down with the flu, there are certain things you can do to offset the threat of serious after-effects.

Symptoms

First of all: take your symptoms seriously. Call the doctor. These symptoms could include sneezes, sore throat, chills, fever, headache, backache, muscular pains, lack of appetite, weakness, pain or burning of the eyes, sensitivity to light, and nausea.

If it's real influenza—not just a common cold—your doctor will probably put you to bed, tell you to keep warm, drink plenty of liquids and take whatever medicine he prescribes.

And, when you feel you're on the road to recovery, be considerate of yourself and cautious, because your lowered resistance could leave you particularly susceptible to other, even more serious diseases.

Potatoes A La Mom

Dad and your strenuous-playing, fast-growing brood announce a meal's not a meal without potatoes; and maybe you're sick of them the same old ways.

Tonight, how about concentrating your recipe prowess on the spuds, and serve simply with sliced cold meat. These potato cheese croquettes fill the bill to a T for something fillingly different, go with practically anything else you have on hand, and will make the whole family wonder where you've been hiding your talents for improvising.

They'll sit up and take notice on taste too, when you include Ac'cent* in the mixings. Ac'cent is the seasoning that points up subtle natural flavors, blends them together harmoniously for delectable enjoyment in the eating. Use it in all your meat and vegetable cooking for the best in good taste.

Potato Cheese Croquettes

2 cups cold (leftover) mashed potatoes
1 egg, beaten
1 cup grated Cheddar cheese
Salt to taste
3/4 teaspoon Ac'cent*
1/2 cup fine dry bread crumbs
1/2 cup milk

Break up potatoes. Beat egg in blender until frothy. Add potato pieces gradually, beating at medium speed until blended. Stir in cheese, salt and Ac'cent. Shape as desired. Dip into crumbs, then into milk, and again into crumbs. Fry in shallow hot fat until golden brown on all sides. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

According to tradition and the proponents of superstition, Old Man Groundhog came to the surface of Iowa's frozen turf last Saturday. But, when he beheld his dark shadow reflected by the sunny skies he made a mad dash for his hole of hibernating and will remain there for six more weeks at least. His actions are supposed to portend six more weeks of winter, but here in Des Moines, with the exception of frigid sub-zero cold waves and one hard snow, we haven't had too hard a winter.

Besides Groundhog day (also known as Candlemas) February is bursting to the full with special days and weeks. Of special note to Des Moines residents is the Regional convention of Beauticians at Hotel Fort Des Moines on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Also there is Race Relations Sunday, Lincoln's birthday, Negro History Week, George Washington's birthday, Boy Scout Week, and Valentine day. Then there is Shrove Tuesday (English) which is also called Pancake day or Fat Tuesday or Mardi Gras by the French, or Fasnacht Day by the Pennsylvania Dutch.

We stopped by the home of Mrs.

Hurley Wyatt, 1323 Crocker street, to get a picture and information on her daughter who is this week's "Student of the Week." Mrs. Wyatt has just been released from the hospital several days before but feeling "quite well," and kept busy answering the phone calls of well wishers and friends.

We were particularly struck by two large pots of azaleas in full bloom, which sat on a table in a front window, giving a gay, colorful defiant warmth to the icy cold and snow outside the window.

The living room was also aglow with lots and lots of get-well cards skillfully arranged and displayed on furnishings around the living and dining rooms.

From a small item in an issue of the daily paper we noted that Linda Griffin, was a member of the play, "Land of the Dragon" given by the Children's Theater of Drake University last Saturday. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Griffin, 1608 44th street.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS
AFTER EMANCIPATION

Tuesday, February 12 marks the birthday of Abraham Lincoln, one of America's great presidents and one who served during one of the most trying times in the history of the country. This year marks the 100th anniversary of the signing of the Emancipation Proclamation—one of the great documents in our history—one which marked the beginning of the slow but sure climb of Negroes to full citizenship in America.

The Emancipation Proclamation did not free the Negro in every respect. Lincoln and his contemporaries realized that, necessitating in the adoption of the 13th, 14th and 15th amendments to the constitution clarifying the status of the newly freed citizens.

Later Congress passed civil rights measures seeking to protect and safeguard the Negro, but the Supreme Court which continued the atmosphere of those members who rendered the Dred Scott decision struck down most of them. And in succeeding years congress did not possess the moral fortitude to act further in the civil rights field.

Concluding that congress offered little help in implementing the Emancipation Proclamation and the constitutional amendments which followed it, the NAACP directed its attack on the denial of first class citizenship through the courts. The program has succeeded admirably to the point where daily the walls of discrimination and segregation are crumbling to the extent that Negroes are near their goals in most respects. More people are working more earnestly than ever before to make first class citizenship for the Negro an accomplished fact.

So as Lincoln's birthday is observed next week remembering that just one hundred years ago he issued the Emancipation Proclamation, every American should pause and give thanks that a man like he rose up at the propitious time and started America on the road to correcting one of its greatest evils.

American history must keep this in the minds of the people, many of whom are quick to forget that Lincoln and the Emancipation Proclamation should be held in esteem by every generation of American citizens.

UNCERTAINTY OF URBAN RENEWAL STYMIES
SCHOOL IMPROVEMENTS

The Des Moines City Council has not been able to come up with a solution of the remaining Urban Renewal program. Inability to finance the program seems partly the excuse but judging from the wishy-washy handling of the first one, they seem headed for a even less satisfactory program for the second.

In addition to those people living in the area who are unable to plan for the future because of the uncertainty of the Urban Renewal program, the Independent School District seems to be caught in the same dilemma.

The school board has plans to ask the voters to approve a two million dollar bond issue for the purpose of repairing and improving some of the present buildings and the construction of some new ones. However, because of the uncertainty of the Urban Renewal program, some buildings which need repairs and additions are left as is.

Admittedly, there are many fine schools in Des Moines affording some students every opportunity to learn, grow and develop as they should. On the other hand, children living in the Urban Renewal area are denied a full equal opportunity in what the modern schools offer and thus are cheated. It is hard to make up for the loss sustained in the early years.

It is not clear whether the school board and urban renewal authorities have tried to work out a program which would fill the gap. They should, for the lack of some such arrangement will be in the mind of the voters to unduly penalize the school growth.

The Willkie House boys lost their basketball game to the Minneapolis guys last Saturday night. They tell us that the fellows from up the country had a guy who was nine feet tall and four feet wide. He threw whatever he got his hands on into the basket, ball players or what have you. Sometimes when a Willkie House cager tried to hang onto the ball, this gent would simply toss 'em both through the hoop.

Little fellows like Harold Holt and Kenny Richardson didn't mind being shot for points, but they certainly didn't care for being dunked along with the ball. But, our gang came back in the last quarter and nearly pulled the game out. The local boys will get another crack at Minneapolis later on.

Golden Gloves

We listened to the sports program on KRNT Saturday night as Dave Fidler was discussing the coming Golden Gloves bouts. We wondered why the guy who really carried the local until the rest could get organized wasn't brought in. Mel Barber kept things going for a couple of meets until someone rallied a group behind the local boxing program. Maybe that someone was Dave but the least he could have done was to give some recognition to Mel Barber for without him there might not have been a Des Moines team.

Drake Cagers

Well, Drake got its second crack at Cincinnati and had the usual tough luck. Those guys play their own type of game and the team that finally beats them is going to either beat Cincinnati at its own game or force them to abandon their ball control type. Some coaches say Loyola of Chicago would beat them but the experts could guess wrong. We pick Bradley to upset the Bobcats in their next meeting.

Olympics

Somewhere we read a plea for subsidizing our American Olympic athletes. The argument ran that we will surely lose to the Russians in the next Olympic games. They will probably beat us at track and field, a sphere we have always held a lease on. Maybe we ought to do something for our athletes. After all it is a great deal to ask of a man that he leave his job and be gone a while to play in a track meet. But, this fellow should not be penalized for being off. He should have his pay while he is participating, even if the government has to pay it.

IOWA POWER
RECORD YEAR

Chicago—With a revenue increase of about 6 per cent, 1962 earnings of Iowa Power and Light Company, Des Moines, Iowa, increased 10 per cent over 1961. A. Paul Thompson, the electric and gas utility's president, told the Public Utility Securities Club of Chicago today.

Shares

Common share earnings were $5.213,000 in 1962, compared with $4.725,000 the year before. Per share earnings rose 22 cents to $2.43 last year. Revenues were $55,503,000, an increase of $3,099,000 over 1961 revenues. Investment in utility plant, net of depreciation, rose nearly $5,000,000 to $150,000,000.

Thompson attributed the revenue and earnings increases to greater use of both electricity and gas per customer, due in part to the especially cold winter of 1962, and to the addition of more residential, commercial, and industrial customers in the company's central and southwestern Iowa service area.

Construction

The utility president projected earnings of $5,740,000 or $2.68 per share in 1963, an increase of 10 per cent. Revenues should increase to about $59,000,000. The company has budgeted $18,500,000 for construction in 1963, and some $60,000,000 for construction over the next five years, he said.

Wilma Rudolph
Files for Divorce

Nashville, Tenn.—Olympic champion runner Wilma Rudolph Ward has filed suit to divorce William Ward, the Davidson County Circuit Court clerk's office disclosed Jan. 30.

Rudolph charged Ward with cruel and inhuman treatment in the suit filed Jan. 22. Both were students at Tennessee A. and I. State University when they were married Oct. 14, 1961.

WILMA RUDOLPH

Miss Rudolph underwent an emergency appendectomy in her hometown that may sideline her track competitions for some time.

Sonny Liston Gets
$85,000 of His Money

New York, N.Y.—The $85,000 Sonny Liston had been demanding before he would consider negotiations complete for his rematch with Floyd Patterson was turned over to the heavyweight champion Wednesday. Another $75,000 was placed in escrow.

The rematch is scheduled at Miami Beach Apr. 4. Liston won the title by knocking out Patterson in the first round at Chicago last September.

The $85,000 brings to $185,000 the amount of money Liston has been paid for the first fight so far. The U. S. had impounded most receipts from the fight while they satisfied tax claims.

Championship

At the same time, Machen, 30, renewed his quest, optimistically at least, to win the world heavyweight championship. He sought a title bout for several months before frustration reportedly drove him to the verge of suicide. Police found him on a highway with a pistol on the seat beside him and it was disclosed that he intended "ending it all."

At the same time, Machen last week was reported to be seeking to break his managerial ties with Sid Flaherty, his boxing pilot of several years.

NAACP Mourns Death
Of Ashley L. Totten

New York—The NAACP joined the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters this week in mourning the loss of Ashley L. Totten, international secretary-treasurer of the union, who died while on a Virgin Island vacation. He was 78.

Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the NAACP, wired A. Philip Randolph, president of the union and a vice president of the NAACP expressing "profound sorrow."

Willkie House Nipped
By Minneapolis Phyllis
Wheatley House 66-62

By Holt Mitchell

Saturday night, Minneapolis Phyllis Wheatley House basketball team demonstrated experience plus a 282 pound 6'9" center, Shorty Patterson as they defeated Willkie House in the first of two annual meetings of the teams.

Shorty Patterson used his tremendous weight to force the Willkie House defenders to foul him numerous times, enabling him to complete the three point play. At the half, Minneapolis led 33 to 25. In the third quarter, Minneapolis widened this margin with a score of 54-42.

Comeback

In the last quarter the Willkie House team demonstrating fine team effort, sparked by Kenny Richardson, Harold Holt, Charles Burrell and Wendell Jones, outscored the visitors 20 to 12 but fell short of victory.

Shorty Patterson led all scorers with 27 points. Willkie House was led by Ken Richardson with 13 points.

Saturday night, Feb. 9, the teams met at Phyllis Wheatley House in Minneapolis in the last of the two-game series. This game promises to be a real thriller.

Meredith's Decision
Commended by NAACP

New York—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is "gratified" by James H. Meredith's decision to return to the University of Mississippi, Roy Wilkins, executive secretary, said here this week following Mr. Meredith's announcement in Jackson, Miss.

"This decision was Mr. Meredith's and his alone," Wilkins said. "It vindicates the faith and trust the colored people of Mississippi have placed in him. It demonstrates anew his courage and reaffirms his determination to get the best education his native state affords its young people."

Reader Praises Poem

DEAR EDITOR:

I would like to tell you how much I enjoyed the poem, "How God Meant It To Be" by Miss Barbara Garrison of Waterloo, that appeared in letter to editor columns.

I would like to convey to Miss Garrison the many words of praises she has been receiving... The feeling her poem expressed could be a contribution toward better understanding among nationalities in our communities... it is a plea for understanding that is most touching and impressive.

My friends, family and I would like to congratulate her and would like to see more of her poems published. She is deserving of the warmest and sincerest commendation.

Maurice Collins

Prairie DeChien, Wisc.

Editor's Note: Another of Miss Garrison's poems appear in this issue. The Bystander welcomes letters to the editor, which must be signed and reserve the right to publish in part or in whole.

I Am A Negro

I am a Negro, why I don't know
But one thing I'm sure of, I'm proud to be so.
If I could be, anyone else but me
I wouldn't change, I like being a Negro you see.
To Me it's a goal, one put at hand
To stride along with my fellow man
To fight those who are prejudiced against my race
So I may gain freedom and be able to show my face

Sunday, Feb. 10, has been designated as "Scout Sunday" and members in uniform will accompany their parents to church. Many of the churches throughout the Council have planned special services in observance of the occasion. Other activities during the week will include window displays, live demonstrations, radio programs and Uniform Day, Friday, Feb. 8.

To seek for jobs, that hire none like me
So that some day no barriers there will be
I want to be able to come and go as
I please,
And when I walk in a place
I want to feel at ease
I want to be able to say to them true,
That we as Negroes are no different than you
Our color may be different, but it's only skin
This shouldn't stop us from being neighbors and friends.
We walk, and we talk and we dress
the same,
Being a friend to the Negro shouldn't bring you shame
You ought to be proud and prejudiced free
For you're a sinner as long as you hate me
I want to be able to say some day,
That I helped my race in some great way.
