Former Air Force Pilot Wins Legal Battle

U.S. Supreme Court Says States Can Rule On Interstate Carriers

Washington, D. C.—A Negro pilot and former air force captain who appealed to the highest court in the land to help him get a job with an airlines company, Monday won his case after five years of legal battle.

The United States Supreme Court ruled unanimously that the states may forbid discriminatory practices by interstate carriers. Justice Hugo Black delivered the court's opinion.

Marlon D. Green, in 1957 sought a job with Continental Air Lines, Inc., of Denver, Colo. The 33-year-old Negro said Continental in an examination found that he was qualified, but he was not given employment.

White men who also were tested got jobs, Green related, although he had more flying experience.

Commission Order

Green complained to the Colorado Anti-Discrimination Commission, when ordered Continental to enroll Green in its next pilot-training class.

Colorado's Supreme Court overturned the commission order, holding that the commission lacked authority over Continental because it is an interstate carrier. Green and the commission next appealed to the high tribunal.

The U. S. Supreme Court decision means that the commission can proceed to enforce its order against the airline.

600 Applications

Green, who said he was an Air Force classmate of astronaut Virgil Grissom, related that in his search for a pilot's job he sent applications to more than 600 firms but got only outright rejection or silence. The 600 firms included airlines and corporations that he believed operated private planes.

NAACP YOUTHS SCORE VICTORY IN ATLANTA

Atlanta, Ga.—Eight members of the Atlanta NAACP Youth Council were successful in desegregating a portion of the Capitol Building here last week.

Led by Willie Ben Ludden, NAACP youth field secretary, the group used the tables and licensing windows marked "white" when they went to obtain drivers license applications. No efforts were made to prevent them from using the "white" facilities.

A second group, which went to the driver application section later the same day, reported that all signs marked "white" and "colored" had been removed.

Wilkins Assails Kennedy Pace On Civil Rights; Praises Iowa

Roy Wilkins, Executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, New York City, had some praise for the progress of civil rights in Iowa but some hard words for the pace of the Kennedy administration on the problem.

In a press conference Friday at the Hotel Fort Des Moines Wilkins declared "The Negro has been held back so long, there has to be an accelerated pace. The Kennedy administration has not proceeded as rapidly in the light of the gravity of the problem.

'No Brutality, Bias' at Polk Jail, D.M. NAACP, Reports

Following investigation at the request of Assistant County Attorney Edward R. Fitzgerald the Des Moines branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People reported that complaints of alleged "cruel, and inhuman treatment, racial discrimination, police Polk County jail prisoner were groundless.

The charges were brought by Charles E. Bates, 31, who gave his address as 844 10th street, and is serving a nine-month sentence on a breaking and entering charge.

No Real Issues

In a report to Polk County District Judge Tom K. Murrow, the NAACP said:

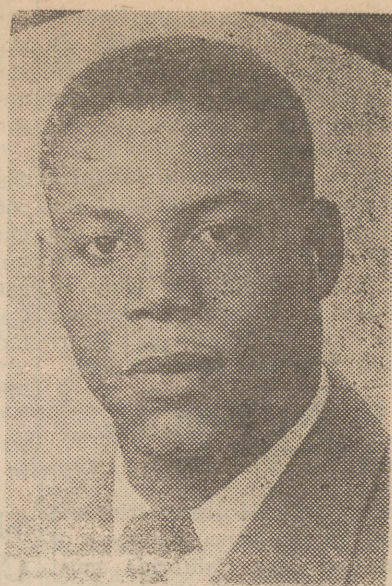

Bates "has not established any real issues of racial discrimination," there does not "appear" to have been any police brutality and that the matter should be closed.

The NAACP said Bates "specifically denied that anyone had physically abused him though they had talked rough to him."

Troublemaker

The report was submitted by Robert A. Wright, an attorney who is president of the NAACP branch, and the Rev. Kenneth McNeil of Burns Methodist Church, a member of the branch's executive board.

Wright and the Rev. Mr. McNeil said jail officials described Bates as a "trouble maker and chronic complainer about everyone and every-

The guest speaker for the session is P. G. Porter, Most Worshipful Grand Master of Kansas. Mr. Porter is the Supreme Master Knight of the International Supreme Council of the Order of the Knights of Pythagoras, Prince Hall Affiliated. He is a member of the Supreme Council of the 33rd degree.

Charles W. Peguese, Most Worshipful Grand Master of Iowa and Jurisdiction extends an invitation to all members of the order to attend what promises to be an outstanding conference and workshop.

The host lodges for the occasion are North Star No. 2 and Doric No. 30. Dr. Lewis A. James is the general chairman.

Social courtesies will be extended by the North Star Guardsmen to the conference visitors Saturday evening, April 27, 9 p.m.-1 a.m. at the Brotherhood-American Legion Building.

Repair Home Damaged by Molotov Cocktail in Miss.

Clarksdale, Miss.—Contractors began work, April 19, to repair the $1,000 bomb damage to the home of Aaron E. Henry, president of the Mississippi State NAACP.

The Henry home was fired by a flaming "Molotov cocktail" hurled through the window early on the morning of April 12 at a time when Congressman Charles C. Diggs of Detroit was a guest in the home. Mr. Diggs was in Mississippi to investigate local efforts to deny Negroes the right to register and other civil rights.

The following day two young white men were arrested—Theodore A. Carr, 24, and Luther A. Cauthen, 26. They told police that they had thrown the lethal homemade bomb as a lark and were unaware that Representative Diggs was stopping there or that their target was a Negro home.

Awakened by the explosion and roaring flames, Mr. Henry hurriedly escorted his wife and young daughter to safety, while he and Representtative Diggs returned to fight the spreading fire.

Carr and Cauthen have been removed to Jackson for psychiatric examination. Meanwhile, the Clarksdale Press-Register dismissed the bomb as a "relatively harmless incendiary." The insurance adjustor appraised the damage at $1,006.00.

200 Iowa Students At Human Relations Confab at L.S.U.

Ames, Ia.—Nearly 200 students from throughout Iowa attended a human relations Conference for Iowa students at the Memorial Union at Iowa State University here Saturday and Sunday.

Speakers included Donald Frey, Evanston, Ill., a leader in the Illinois Freedom of Residence Committee and Williams Higgs, Jackson, Miss., the only Mississippi attorney to handle civil rights cases in Mississippi.

NEWS In A Nutshell

Washington, D. C.—Miss Marlene White, airlines stewardess who fought discriminatory practices of Northwest Airlines for nearly four years, before being hired, was dismissed by the company Apr. 13. She was one of two Negro hostesses for the airlines.

Chicago, Ill.—Dr. John Hope Franklin, 48, one of the world's leading authorities on the American Civil War and reconstruction and Negro history has been appointed professor of American History at the University of Chicago. Franklin was reached at St. John's college at Cambridge university in England where he is teaching as a William Pitt professor of American history and institutions.

Accra, Ghana—Kwami Dortumtor, 38, was fined $280 last week because he failed to stand during the playing of the Ghana National Anthem. He claimed he "was too tired to stand up."

Jackson, Miss.—A Negro editor, once a national board member of the NAACP, declared last week that Comedian Dick Gregory could do more to help the cause of race relations by remaining in Chicago where some conditions are worse than those in Mississippi. Percy Greene, editor and publisher of the Jackson Advocate, said that Gregory's presence in Mississippi can have "only the direct effect on Negro voting and political participation."

Conway, S. C.—Rev. Andrew Washington (Linc) Stackhouse, who died in a sitting position in an ambulance rushing him to the hospital was buried that way after being viewed by the congregations in five churches he served.

Philadelphia, Pa.—An army of FBI agents and police stormed Calvary Baptist church last week and seized a husky visiting minister, Rev. C. M. Fithcett, within full view of a startled Palm Sunday congregation of 400 worshippers. Later it was discovered he was not one of the nation's "Ten Most Wanted" criminal fugitives.

Chicago, Ill.—When the U. S. Thresher, the world's most advanced $45,000,000 fast-attack nuclear-powered submarine, went down to the bottom of the Atlantic Ocean Apr. 10—marking America's greatest peace-time naval disaster—its 129 crewmen included at least one Negro, Chief Reactor Technician Roscoe Cleveland Pennington.

Miami, Fla.—Dade county school officials broke a precedent last week and appointed a white person to the principalship of a school in a Negro community.

Albany, N. Y.—Hubert T. Delaney of New York City, a director of the NAACP, will direct a state study of ways of improving low-income housing programs. He was named by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

10 'Disciplined Observers' Heard No Defense of Total Segregation During Trip

By Mrs. L. E. Tinker

A Grand View College "Travel Seminar on the South" was conducted during the Easter vacation by the psychology department of the college. The integrated group of students included Penny Ware, Tom Merrifield, Des Moines; Dorothy Montheix, Altoona; Linda Tomlinson, Ruth Hall, Verner Duus, of the Cedar Falls area, John Ochieng, Kenya; Ron Kester, Nigeria. Mrs. L. E. Tinker, Grand View psychology teacher of 704 Grandview, her husband, L. E. Tinker, Methodist minister with the staff of the American Friends' Service Committee, and their daughter Bonnie Jeanne, accompanied the group. Tom Merrifield and Bonnie Tinker are members of the NAACP Youth Council.

Observers

We went intending to be "disciplined observers" of the southern situation. We found just being ourselves in an integrated group, and we were active participants one way or another wherever we went, from the extremely hospitable situation with Fisk friends to the lunch counter experience where only part of our group was served.

All of us knew what Griffin means in his book "Black Like Me" by "the hate stare." Nowhere did any of the southerners defending segregation. Even the prejudiced ones to whom we talked admitted that desegregation was coming. It was just a matter of time.

Rev. Whitfield

Members of the Baptist Church, Mounds, Ill., under the leadership of the Rev. Mr. Whitfield, extended hospitality to the group Thursday night, with a "southern style" chicken dinner. The Rev. Mr. Whitfield told the group about his leading 1800 dispossessed sharecroppers on "the first sit-down," on one hundred miles of highway in Missouri in the winter of 1939. This effort resulted in his having a personal interview with President Franklin D. Roosevelt, who provided needed land for these people. The group were overnight guests in the homes of church members, were served breakfast in one of the elementary schools. Mrs. Chambliss, M.A. from Fisk, school principal, conducted the group on a tour of her school.

Fisk U.

Dr. Herman Long, head of the Fisk Race Relations Institute, arranged hospitality for the group in Nashville. The fellows stayed at the Fisk Gymnasium with members of the Tuskegee Institute baseball team. The girls were guests at the Meharry Nurses' Dormitory. A seminar with 41 foreign students at the University of Illinois, conducted by Dr. Long and anthropologist H. Barber, was enjoyed Friday night. Also, they attended a "Modern Dance Seminar."

U.S. Rights Group Urges Cut Off Federal Funds From Mississippi Projects

Washington, D. C.—The United States Commission on Civil Rights announced Wednesday that it had adopted and sent to President Kennedy a special report expressing its alarm at "the open and flagrant violation of constitutional guarantees" in the State of Mississippi, and requesting that the President employ the legal and moral powers of his office "to the end that American citizenship will not continue to be degraded in Mississippi."

Incidents

In the report, which was sent to the President on April 16 by Commission Chairman John A. Hannah, the Commission detailed incidents which have occurred in various parts of the State since October 1962. The incidents reported ranged from denial of food provided through Federal programs to children "at the brink of starvation" to shootings and assaults upon citizens attempting to vote or engaged in civil rights activities.

Requests

The Commission requested that: (1) the President formally reiterate his concern over the Mississippi situation by requesting all persons in that State to join in protecting the rights of United States citizens . . . (2) the President continue and strengthen his Administration's efforts to suppress existing lawlessness and provide Federal protection to citizens in the exercise of their basic constitutional rights; and (3) the Congress and the President consider seriously whether legislation is appropriate and desirable to assure that Federal funds contributed by citizens of all States not be made available to any State which continues to refuse to abide by the Constitution and laws of the United States; and, further, that the President . . . withhold Federal funds from the State of Mississippi, until it demonstrates its compliance with the Constitution and laws of the United States."

The Des Moines branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, will elect delegates to the National convention to be held in Chicago, Ill., in July, at its May 28 meeting at Willkie House, 900 17th, it was reported at a meeting of the branch Tuesday evening. Atty. Robert A. Wright is president.

Meredith Applies For Family Housing At Mississippi U

Oxford, Miss.—James H. Meredith, the only known Negro to be enrolled at the University of Mississippi, Thursday, Apr. 18 applied for quarters for married students for the summer. He paid a $25 deposit in asking for living quarters in the Veterans Village unit on campus.

Meredith's wife has been attending Jackson State College for Negroes. The Merediths have a 3-year-old son.

Dr. King, 14 Others On Trail for Violating Alabama Injunction

Birmingham, Ala.—Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (S.C.L.C.) and 14 other demonstrators are on trial on contempt charges of violating an injunction against desegregation activities handed down by Circuit Judge W. A. Jenkins. Judge Jenkins is also hearing the contempt trial.

Rev. Martin Luther King

Dr. King and the demonstrators were arrested on Good Friday for marching on City Hall. They have been in jail ever since.

During testimony Monday a state investigator said that the S.C.L.C. would turn to revolution, if necessary to achieve minimum desegregation in Birmingham.

Meanwhile, nine Negroes, including Dr. King, filed suit in Federal Court to recover $10,000 damages each for alleged deprivation of civil rights.

Grand Jury Ignore Charges of Murder, Breaking and Entering

The Polk County Grand jury Friday ignored a second degree murder charge that was filed against Mrs. Lucille Lena Boone, 40, as a result of the fatal shooting of her husband last Feb. 24.

James Lee Lincoln Boone, 47, was struck twice in the head by .38-caliber pistol bullets. At the time of her arrest, Mrs. Boone told police that she and her husband had been quarreling when the shooting occurred at their home at 1512 Center street, and that her husband had the gun.

The grand jury also ignored breaking and entering charge against Phraitho Buddy Forbush, 914 S. E. 27th court.

IPALCO Honors 20 Year Club Members

Iowa Power and Light Company this week tipped its 24 Hour Hat in annual recognition of the firm's 374 members of the 20 Year Club. On Wednesday, April 17, all 20 Year Club members in Iowa Power's Central Division were honored at a dinner at the Hotel Fort Des Moines. On Wednesday, April 24, the firm's Western Division 20 Year Club members were honored at a dinner in Council Bluffs.

A. Paul Thompson, Iowa Power president, told 20 Year Club members, "Iowa Power has an outstanding group of employees. They are superior to their peers outside the Company anywhere." Thompson also said that Iowa Power's continued dependable electric and gas service is made possible by dependable conscientious people like the members of the 20 Year Club.

National Baptist Convention Ministerial Retirement Fund Office Opens In Phila.

Philadelphia, Pa. — A unique national program designed to develop a retirement program for ministers, missionaries and Christian workers of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., has been approved with headquarters at the Foreign Mission Board Building, 701-03 South 19th Street in Philadelphia, Penn., under the capable administration of Mrs. Isabel E. Hoggard, Executive Secretary.

The purpose of the Retirement Savings Plan is to build a permanent fund in excess of two million dollars on which to establish a retirement fund for aged ministers, missionaries

DETROIT PAPERS DROP RACE ADVERTISEMENTS

Detroit—Two leading newspapers, the Detroit News and the Free Press, have dropped all references to race in their classified advertising columns, the Detroit NAACP was informed this week.

Abraham Ulmer, Jr., NAACP housing chairman, concluded that the publications "have taken a positive step toward the area of open housing." The action was taken following negotiations with the two newspapers.

Cell Block 6, with the only white prisoners confined in the same cell block being "trouble makers."

The NAACP and Bates, however, agreed that Negro prisoners also were placed in other cell blocks.

Diet

Bates also had complained about a Dec. 28 incident in which both white and Negro prisoners were stripped of clothing and confined to a bread-and-water diet because a Negro prisoner had used vulgar language in speaking to Jailer G. B. Tucker, a Negro.

The NAACP officials said their investigation has "confirmed" this incident and that the stripping of prisoners and placing them in irons for a rules infraction by one prisoner "seems hard to understand."

Jailer Tucker

Bates had lodged several other complaints about Jailer Tucker.

The NAACP said it was the "feeling" of Bates and "prisoners in general" that Tucker was "more interested in impressing other deputies that he is taking care of the Negro problem than he is in understanding and giving fair treatment to Negroes."

"Mistrust"

This has resulted in "considerable mistrust, misunderstanding and dissension," the NAACP said.

Wright and the Rev. Mr. McNeil said, however, "this is not a matter of racial discrimination, but a problem of human relations."

and Christian workers.

Mrs. Hoggard announced Sunday at the grand opening that the Federal Government had approved and issued a statement exempting the Retirement Savings Fund from income tax. The program is contingent upon the raising of a $2,000,000 reserve fund which would be used to underwrite the membership dues of participants.

Mrs. Hoggard expressed confidence and pleasure Sunday upon receiving a wire from Dr. J. H. Jackson, president of the National Baptist Convention, that the program would be successful. Mrs. Hoggard said the convention had raised and set aside $40,000,000 for this retirement program, with an efficient Board of Directors to govern the project. Only the interest from membership dues go toward the permanent fund, and no expenses will be paid out of dues. All of the assets of the National Baptist Convention guarantee membership dues that one pays into the fund.

Membership

Certificates of membership are in three denominations: $25.00, $100 and $500, and can be paid monthly, quarterly and/or annually. The initial joining fee is $25.00 and annual dues or premiums shall be 12 percent of the pastor's salary, to be paid by the church and minister.

POWELL SAYS HE'S ONLY NEGRO LEADER ENTIRELY FREE OF CONTROL BY WHITES

New York — Harlem Congressman Adam Clayton Powell asserted today that he is the only Negro leader entirely free of white control because he is not dependent on whites for financial support.

"All my strength, all my money comes from Negroes," Powell declared, "and therefore I cannot be controlled by whites."

Powell's remarks were quoted in an article, "The Audacious World of Adam Powell," in the current issue of Look Magazine.

The controversial Congressman stated that there is no other Negro leader or organization that does not get "substantial money" from whites and added: "I don't need it."

Powell described himself, according to the article, as "an irritant" who "rubs and rubs until something gives."

Recently critical of the NAACP for letting whites hold positions of leadership in the organization, Powell was asked to comment on reports that many of his ancestors were white.

"If I have all white blood, and I'm doing what I am for the Negro," he told Look, "then I deserve all the more credit!"

Baptist Church, Nashville, leader of the Nashville Christian Leadership Council, who directs currently the three-week old boycott of the downtown and shopping center areas of Nashville with the goal of complete open employment practice in Nashville. The boycott is reportedly from 25% to 75% effective, so far as the Nashville Negro community's participation is concerned.

Also included was an interview in the Scarritt College Social Rooms with Dr. Ina Corinne Brown, noted anthropologist. Saturday evening, Miss Whittaker, who is nationally known as "Miss NAACP, 1963," entertained the group with a party at her home. She invited a number of Nashville students, home for the holidays from Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga., and from Tennessee State College.

Sunrise Service

A sunrise Easter service with ancient play, "Quem Queritas" presented by Scarritt Students in beautiful Scarritt Chapel, was attended followed by traditional "Southern breakfast." Dr. Holt, president of Scarritt, welcomed the group.

Then the group attended 11:00 a.m. church services at famous Fisk Chapel. The glorious rendition of Handel's "Alleluia Chorus" by the well-known Fisk choir will be remembered by all of the group. Dr. Lawrence Jones, dean of the chapel, preached. The group enjoyed formal Easter dinner at Scarritt as guests of The Methodist Board of Education with Dr. and Mrs. Bollinger. They visited the well-known "Upper Room" of the Methodist Board of Evangelism and toured The Methodist Board of Education building. They visited Francis Asbury's first American "meeting house" preserved on the Scarritt Campus. Easter afternoon they toured "The Hermitage," Andrew Jackson's famous southern mansion.

Wesley Foundation

The Wesley Foundation, Lincoln University, Jefferson City, Mo., entertained the group overnight Monday, April 15, and for breakfast, Tuesday, April 16. Several students from Lincoln, the psychology professor Mr. Bryant, joined with the Rev. J. O. Irwin, former Garrett classmate of the Thinkers, for a dynamic discussion with the group. Des Moines arrival was 6:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Program

An interesting program is being prepared by members of the group for any organization who would like to schedule it.

Pointing out that nearly $10 million had been appropriated to help the Cuban exile in their educational adjustment to the U.S., Wilkins noted that "nothing had been done for the Negro child to help him adjust to a desegregated school program."

Iowa

Commenting on the progress of civil rights in Iowa, Wilkins noted that "overt and cruel discrimination has just about petered out, with the exception in housing and employment."

Overall, Wilkins maintains that a "vast improvement has been noted in civil rights. 'It is no longer fashionable to discriminate,' he said.

Small, Appreciative Crowd Hear Jamal

By Frances E. Hawthorne

A small but highly appreciative audience of 680 persons heard the Ahmad Jamal Jazz Trio at the KRNT Theater Friday night.

Jamal, whose light, often intricate piano style has won him high acclaim in plush nightclub dates and record sales, sat down and for two hours, broken by intermission, and by turns, communed with and coaxed his Baldwin piano interspersed with humorous bits from well-known popular tunes.

JAMAL

Challenging his bassist, Ralph Evans, and percussionist, Chuck Lamkin, jazz stars in their own right, the trio rendered an entertaining program that included such numbers as "Autumn Leaves," "Jeepers Creepers," "Speak Low," "Green Dolphin Street," "Gone with the Wind," Bossa Nova Do-Re-Mio and an exotic Poinciana.

The Jamal Trio was sponsored by the Des Moines Junior Chamber of Commerce, which will sponsor Louis Armstrong May 24 at the same place.

The Grand Lodge and Courts of the Knights of Pythias of the state of Iowa observed Community Day April 20th. The purpose of Community Day is to "Unite our Negro Community to greater mental efficiency, financial security and spiritual development. We know if our community is to prosper, we must be mindful of these principles." Highlight of the day was a banquet at Payne A.M.E. Church which was attended by nearly one hundred fifty enthusiastic guests. Speaker for the banquet was A. G. Gaston of Birmingham, Ala. Mr. Gaston is a national officer of the Knights of Pythias, a general officer of the African Methodist Church and secretary-treasurer of the Board of Church Extension. He stressed the importance of not overlooking the responsibility of first class citizenship; for with it comes responsibility. Churches and fraternal organizations have blazed the trail for the Negro. Mr. Mack Butler is Grand Chancellor. K. of P. Mrs. Joy Lowe is Grand Worthy Councillor, Court of Calanthie.

Seen in town Community Day was Rev. Thomas Lighon and Mr. Gus Smith of Des Moines.

Born on April 20th to Rev. and Mrs. I. V. Tolbert, a daughter. She has been named April Lorraine. The Tolberts also have a son, Daryl.

Mrs. Bernadine Campbell and her sister Mrs. Celia Williams of Chicago are visiting in the parental home of Mr. Ovie Gooch, 2151 Lafayette.

Men's Day was observed Sunday at Payne. Dr. Warren Nash was guest speaker. Theme for the day was "Unity Today And Tomorrow."

Style Show, Bridal Parade Successful

Story-book Fashion Show and Parade of the Brides was presented by the St. Paul A.M.E. Sunday school, Sunday, April 21 at 4 p.m.

The show opened with a scene from the Mother Goose story "The Old Woman Who Lived in the Shoe." Edith Carey who represented "The Old Woman" was surrounded by a large group of children. A huge wooden shoe house stood in the background. The children were attired in play and dress-up clothes. Sub-teens, teen-agers and young adults modeled attractive dresses, suits and coats with appropriate accessories.

Mrs. E. P. Williams and Mrs. Ontario Thompson sang two duets. Mrs. Eleanor P. Archer, Home Ec and clothing instructor in the Des Moines public school system, served as mistress of ceremonies, narrated this portion of the show.

Miss Alberta Bates sang just before the parade of the brides, narrated by Mrs. Georgeine C. Morris, well known Bridal gown specialist.

Old and modern bridal gowns were modeled. Among the interesting and lovely gowns was the wedding dress of Mrs. Arthur Propes modeled by her daughter, Arthurlene, and the beautiful one of Mrs. Charlotte Parks modeled by herself attended by one of her bridal attendants.

Background music was furnished by Mrs. Marian Morrison throughout the show. The affair closed with a fellowship tea of which Mrs. Stanley Proctor and Katherine Stewart were chairman and co-chairman. Mrs. Dorothy Kaiser and Phyllis Sharp poured. Mrs. Dorothy Campbell and Mrs. Marian Carter chairman and co-chairman were assisted by the entire Sunday school staff.

400 Attend Western Iowa Senior Girl Scout Conference in Council Bluffs Apr. 19-20

The Moingona Girl Scout Council of Iowa recently participated in the Western Iowa Senior Girl Scout conference of 1963 in Council Bluffs, Apr. 19-20.

Four hundred senior girl scouts took an active part along with their leaders. Attending also were some foreign students who participated on a panel. Theme of the conference was "International Dreams."

Handicrafts of the senior girls were exhibited. Group singing, games, talent programs and other discussion groups along with a banquet were the highlights.

Buses were chartered to bring the girls to the conference. Moingona Council has the distinction of having the only Negro Senior troop in it . . .

Troop 82 under the leadership of Mrs. Samuel A. Payne, 1409 2nd pl. Mrs. Louis Metcalf, 1120 13th street, assistant leader, was unable to attend the conference, but does a marvelous job of assisting Mrs. Payne in the Senior scouting program. Brr . . . it's cold outside. The mercury hovered around the freezing mark as Central Iowans ran to retrieve those heavy spring coats, jackets and long sleeve shirts and sweaters. Looks as if it is toughening up for the traditional weather for Drake Relays. However, maybe the weather forecaster, as at Easter, can rig up some warmer temperatures and sunny skies for the annual mid-west track classic. Local residents are busy making plans for the post relays events and to entertain relatives and guests who wouldn't miss it despite all the cold in the world.

Another annual event was held here last week, the oratorical contest sponsored by Elks and its auxiliary. Miss Edna Wyatt, who took third place in the event, came down from

EDNA WYATT

Muscatine, Ia., where she is attending high school, to take part.

While here she also went out to the Camp Sunny Side for talks and picture taking on behalf of the Easter Seal campaign. Miss Wyatt is chairman of the youth division of Easter Seals in Muscatine this year and with her co-chairman will make her annual report in July in Des Moines before a meeting.

Miss Wyatt resigned her job as a disc jockey at the radio station there and is working full time as a cashier at a supermarket in Muscatine.

Miss Wyatt who is quite talented and adept with canvas, easel and paint brush, plans a career as an artist. But she is also interested in psychology.

We couldn't help noticing the dust that covered the furniture in the suite at Hotel Fort Des Moines occupied by Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the NAACP, New York City, when he held a press conference there last Friday.

We always thought that rooms were dusted thoroughly before being occupied by new guests, but in this instance, the dust had settled again.

SUPREME COURT BACKS EMPLOYMENT ON MERIT

In the far-reaching decision affecting the economic status—employment of Negroes—the U. S. Supreme Court held Monday that a state may forbid discriminatory hiring practices by interstate carriers.

The case involved a former Air Force captain, Marion D. Green who had sought a job with Continental Airlines, Inc., of Denver, Colorado. He met all the tests successfully required by Continental but was denied a job based—on the surface—upon the objection that Green had commenced lawsuits against other firms which refused to hire him.

Colorado has a law banning discrimination in employment on the basis of race.

Green complained to the Colorado Anti-Discrimination Commission which order Continental to enroll him in its next pilot training class.

Colorado's Supreme Court overturned the commission order, holding that the commission lacked authority over Continental because it is an interstate carrier. Green and the commission next appealed to the high tribunal.

Captain Green was good enough to serve the country in time of war as a flyer to protect the very people who attempted to deny him his rights. The company attempted to use sanctions against him because he dared to stand up and fight for his rights.

But the Supreme Court overlooked the dust with which the company attempted to stifle Green and protected his right to employment in the position of his choice.

NO CHANGE IN RACE RELATIONS IN NAACP

Speaking at a mass meeting, a kick off for the Des Moines Branch NAACP membership drive, Roy Wilkins said the organization would follow its usual course of complete integration of its membership and staff as had been the program since its founding; that individuals and organizations which attempt to separate one group of people from another performed a disservice and contributed nothing of value to the solution of the race question.

Wilkins said further that the NAACP stuck closely to the theory that law and order should prevail and that it would continue to make its fight for equal rights through the courts. This program has been successful and has won many friends; that laws must be obeyed whether the violator is white or black.

The NAACP is on sound ground on both of these methods of operation. Its whole fight has been bottomed upon the theory that all citizens have certain rights under our laws and to deny them whether to vote, to enjoy equal justice in the courts or accommodation in public places on the basis of color was contrary to the fundamental laws of the land.

The Des Moines Branch has commenced its drive for 1200 members. The campaign has been well organized to cover the whole city. The workers should meet a good response.

While here and there, Negroes suffer some injustices, by and large they are very few in Des Moines and aside from the lack of employment for Negro men, no big issues are available to whip up sentiment.

Most of the adjustments in racial understanding have come by mutual cooperation between the two groups. Those favorable adjustments have benefitted our professional, business and labor groups. Thus, all should join in to help make this a successful drive.

Objectives won must be held on to. We must clean out the pockets of discrimination which do exist. We must help people in communities less fortunate than those in Des Moines to raise the level of the Negroes and thus those in the places where they live.

All of this takes money for practically all the revenue of the NAACP comes from memberships. So, it behooves every Negro and every white person who believes in equality of all human beings to join and support an organization which has done more to implement the bill of rights in the constitution than any other group.

It's Drake Relays Time! ---

Texas Southern Flyers, Taylor Brothers Back For Track Classic

Iowa's biggest sports spectacular—the Drake Relays—will see its 54th chapter unfold Friday and Saturday, Apr. 26 and 27 at Drake Stadium.

With ever-increasing interest in the sport of track and field, this year's meet shapes up as "bigger and better" than ever in the eyes of Director Bob Karnes, guiding his eighth Drake classic.

Some of the biggest names in track dot the Drake entry list. The hottest team in collegiate circles—a set of runners from Texas Southern University in Houston will attempt to pick up where it left off at Drake last year. They grabbed four titles in 1962 and appear even stronger this time.

Vaulting

And they've added a 16-foot vault—er to their cast—Gerald Pratt—one of two scheduled for Drake who have passed the 16-foot barrier. The other is Fred Hansen of Rice, defending champ.

Dyrol Brieson, one of the nation's premier milers when he was at Oregon, will be back for a special mile run with a sub-four minute mile as his goal. John Camien of Emporia State, who nipped him at the Texas Relays, provides the top opposition in this blue ribbon attraction.

Milers

Among the top names from the college ranks are Tom O'Hara, the game little runner from Loyola of Chicago who also flirts with the four-minute mile; Omaha's Roger Sayers and Abilene Christian's Dennis Richardson, who can go the 100 in :09.4; and Colin Ridgeway of Lamar Tech, a 7-foot jumper.

Others

As always, the backbone of the Relays are the great relay combines from north, south, east and west. Stanford and Oregon State will uphold the west coast's honor, with the southwest represented by a host of teams like Houston, Baylor, Rice, Southern Methodist, Texas, Texas Southern, plus the great names from the Midlands—Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Notre Dame—to name just a few.

Parade

Adding to the color and pagentry will be the famous Drake Relays parade in downtown Des Moines Saturday morning, the beautiful Relays Queen and her court, and a massed band ceremony involving some 50 Iowa high schools.

Iowa's biggest sports spectacular—the Drake Relays.

Art Ashe Scores 2nd Major Net Triumph In L. A.

Los Angeles—Arthur Ashe, 18, of Richmond, Va., the nation's ranking Negro tennis player, scored his second major triumph of the 1963 campaign when he defeated Dave Reed to win the Southern California intercollegiate net championship.

Flashing top form, Ashe defeated Reed in the finals, 6-2, 6-3, after downing Dennis Ralston in the semifinals, 2-6; 6-0. He defeated Ramsey Earnhart, 6-3; 5-7; 6-4, in an earlier round.

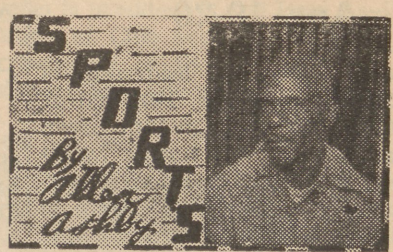

Ashe recently defeated highly-touted Ham Richards, a Davis cupper, in the semi-finals of the Thunderbird tournament at Phoenix, Ariz.

Winning the Southern California championship marked his second outdoor tournament victory of the 1963 season.

Kentucky U. Favors Negroes

Lexington, Ky.—Negroes may be accepted on the athletic teams of the University of Kentucky this Spring or Summer, the school's board of trustees indicated last week.

The board expressed strong support to the suggestion of the university's student newspaper, The Kernel, which suggested recently that U. K. start using Negro athletes in order to raise its prestige in athletics.

The pageantry and color of the Midwest's greatest track show will be displayed at the Drake Stadium this weekend. The show is called the Drake Relays and they have been holding the thing for a whole lot of years.

Just about anybody who has lived in Des Moines and gone to high school or grade school has had some experience at running in the Relays if he could run at all. Some fellows started out in the grand scramble known as the grade school shuttle relay went into the junior high section, moved up into senior high and then ran in a college team or two in those relays. Some of them are family men and have sons who also run in the Drake relays. We haven't heard of any grandson yet but there will be some.

Promotions

The promoters used to use all sorts of gimmicks to build up interest in the races. There used to be what was called a relay for the local hotel, suit case hustlers who ran from fourth to eighth street on Locust with each runner carrying a suit case which he passed on a baton after running a block for his four-man team.

Some fellow went out and hired a bunch of former North and East high track boys, dressed them in bell hop uniforms and put them in the relays. Well, the Negroes led for three blocks until the crowd closed in at the finish line and their anchor man Tommy Avant was still trying to find the tape when the other team shot by him through a hole that suddenly opened and won. The next year the angry hotel owner had a bunch of football halfbacks lined up with the idea that if his team got in first place anybody that tried that stunt again was going to be run over. The officials got wind of the thing and called off the hotel relay.

Texas Southern

Now, about the only gimmick necessary is the presence of the Texas Southern boys and the people will go out to see how many records those guys break.

Bill Taylor will be there to watch his three sons run for Northeast Missouri and they will all be on some relay with an excellent chance of winning at least one race.

Carver High School Cage Coach Honored As Coach Of Year

Chicago—Carver High school, 1963 Illinois State prep basketball champion, concluded a clean sweep of cage honors last week when its coach, 32-year-old Larry Hawkins, was voted Coach of the Year for the third successive year.

Hawkins, a dapper bachelor who teaches folk and square dancing in addition to basketball, was the unanimous selection of the Chicago Prep Sports Writers Assn. for the honor. He will receive the Sid Novak Memorial award, named for the late Crane Tech basketball coach, at next year's city title game.

Tunnell Coach With NY Grid Giants

New York—The New York Giants, who signed Em Tunnell on as a game scout for the 1962 National Football league season, have given the former all-pro defensive halfback additional duties for the 1963 campaign.

Head coach Allie Sherman said Tunnell would be a welcomed addition to his staff. "He has a brilliant football brain" Sherman said "and should be of great aid to our players, especially the rookies and second year men."

Tunnell, who put in 14 years as a player in the NFL (12 with the Giants and two with the Green Bay Packers, had his best season in 1953 when as a spectacular safety man he gained more ground yards on defense than any offensive back or end for New York.

To date Tunnell's coaching duties have not been defined. "We haven't decided where to use him," Giant official said. He can be of use so many ways that we'll have to wait until the training season starts before assigning him."

Bridges Back With Yankees

Fort Lauderdale, Fla. — Marshall Bridges, shot in the leg in a barroom altercation here last month, has rejoined the New York Yankees after a month at home.

During this time a bone broken by a bullet shot from a .25 calibre revolver has more or less healed.

The Yankees expect him to be in tip-top shape by the time the regular American League season opens.

Sifford to Play in Houston Golf Classic

Houston — Charlie Sifford, fresh from winning Jamaica's biggest money tournament, has been given the green light to play in the $50,000 Houston classic that will be played here starting April 18.

Houston's classic attracts most of the top pros and ranks high with the big money tournaments. This will mark the first time a Negro has played in a big money golf tournament in Houston, according to Lee Powell, public relations coordinator for the Houston distributors of Pearl Beer.

The Houston Open will be played on Memorial Park golf links.

Drake Basketball Star & Freshman Suspended

Ray Quinn, 21, Drake University basketball player, and Bonnie Bisnow, 19, a freshman majoring in business administration, have been suspended from school indefinitely.

The suspension, said Paul A. Bioland, dean of students, came for "conduct unbecoming a Drake student."

Quinn, a senior, whose address was given as 2717 Carpenter ave., and Miss Bisnow, of 2900 Forest ave., were arrested in a car in Beaverdale Park, Thirty, fourth street and Adams avenue, at 1 a.m. Saturday, Apr. 6.

Quinn pleaded guilty in Municipal Court to a charge of violating the city park curfew ordinance and paid a $10 fine. Miss Bisnow's hearing was set for Tuesday.

BY NAACP YOUTH

Jackson, Miss.—Despite the arrest of four of their members by over 75 Jackson city police the North Jackson NAACP youth council is continuing its protest against discriminatory practices in the stores here.

Police arrested the youths who

The Cross

The Cross of Christ is a symbol to me Of Faith, and love and victory Our Savior bore it up the hill His precious blood for us to spill. The sky protested, sinners fled While on the Cross our Saviour bled His blood beneath the cruel crown Mingled with water, trembled down, While evil men their God defied And speared the Savior in His side. The Thunder rolled to no avail The lightning split the temple vail And dead men broke forth from the grave And sadly roamed, while madmen raved.

The women kneeling at the Cross Thought all was ended, all was lost They hurried down on Easter morn The Blessed Saviour's death to mourn But Lo!! An Angel standing by, Stretched forth his arms toward the sky

And in a glorious voice he said The Lord has risen, as He said! As we stand now, in stunned dismay "Come See, the Place!! the Angels say Where Death and Hell ripped wide And deep lay vanquished at our Saviour's feet Where faith, and love and victory Chained death and Hell and set men free.

Editor's Note: The foregoing poem which was composed while the writer "went about her daily duties during the Easter season," arrived at our desk last week. Though Easter was past we thought you might like the poem for remembrance.

Thoughts for Today

Pessimists are just average people who can't kid themselves.

The Negro Press believes that the United States of America can best lead the world away from racial and national antagonism when it accords every man, regardless of race, color, or creed, his human and legal rights. Hating no man, fearing no man, the Negro press strives to help every man in the firm belief that all are hurt so long as any one is held back. —The Negro Press Creed.

Laugh Lines

It was a lovely day and some of the asylum inmates were permitted to go outside. Strolling along a staff doctor spotted one of them with a fishing rod, casting the line into a flower bed. He approached the man and asked, "How are they biting today?" "Darn good—you make the seventh!"

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Horse sense is that added sense a horse has which keeps him from betting on people.

This is the land of opportunity. Everyone can become a tax payer!

Laugh Lines

An aircrew trainee was sitting at a table explaining his importance to a visiting girl friend. The young lady asked him what rank he held.

"Section T' optician," he replied. "I have never heard of that before. What are your duties?" she asked. "Scraping the eyes out of potatoes," he replied softly.

QUIPS AND QUOTES

Greensboro, N.C.—"Strive for excellence while you are young, before mediocrity and complacency set in." Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, of Atlanta, Ga., declared in his address at the first annual spring honors convocation at Bennett College, Sunday.

Dr. Mays, president of Morehouse College, and himself a member of Phi Beta Kappa, said "Whether you like it or not, this race of life is to the strong, not the weak; to the competent, not the incompetent and to the courageous, not the cowardly. The weak will be crushed to the bottom and the incompetent, in this age of automation, will be found on relief."

were picketing the stores on Capitol Street and all are being held on $500 bond.

The youth council launched a selective buying campaign shortly before Christmas against the downtown stores which have consistently refused to desegregate their store facilities, refuse to hire Negro personnel and will not extend even the elementary courtesies to their Negro customers.
