Why I Went to Jackson

By Ralph J. Bunche

Jackson, Miss.—Medgar W. Evers, the slain NAACP field secretary for Mississippi, was eulogized by NAACP Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins, and others as a hero and martyr of the civil rights struggle at funeral services here Saturday morning, June 15.

Negro citizens of Jackson, augmented by NAACP and other civil rights leaders from all sections of the country, crowded the huge Masonic Temple in sweltering 100 degree heat to pay tribute to Mr. Evers. More than 4,000 were jam-packed in the auditorium and additional thousands were unable to gain admittance.

Southern Political System

The southern political system, Mr. Wilkins said, put the assassin behind the rifle that was used to shoot Mr. Evers in the back as he returned to his home early on the morning of June 12. "The lily-white southern governments, local and state; the senators, governors, state legislators, mayors, judges, sheriffs, chiefs of police, commissioners"—all these, he said, bear a responsibility in this slaying.

"In far-away Washington," he continued, "the southern system has its outpost in the Congress of the United States and by their deals and maneuvers they helped put the man

Fifteenth Anniversary Banquet AD-LOY-HO Club, Waterloo, Iowa

By Vaeletta Fields

The captain and crew of Ad-Loy-Ho Club took 124 on "A Safari Into Our Heritage" recently. Mrs. Samuel Davis acted as Safari Guide. The trip was chartered and there was singing along the way which included the African Folk song "Kum Ba Yah" by the group, and a medley of folk music rendered by Mmes. Ross, Henderson and Davis. As "Our trophies" Rev. Owen D. Pelt, pastor of Shiloh Baptist Church, Chicago, was presented as guest speaker; and "a light for uncharted ways" was the awarding of a scholarship to a deserving girl by Mrs. Cuba Tredwell.

Rev. Pelt in his address reminded that the "Negro in America is the most American of Americans; there is a difference between history books and history. Negroes have been identified with all the struggles of this country and that this land belong to us by birth. "The desire for human dignity is not new; this nation can never be free until every one in it is free." Lastly, we must keep faith; must not get bitter.

Special guests were Clement Ezeani and Boniface Emarar, Nigerian students attending State College of Iowa, Cedar Falls; and the Rev. Msgr. Duane Brady of St. Joseph's Catholic Church. Out of town guests were Mr. Otis Smith of Eldorado, Ark.; Mr. and

MEDGAR W. EVERS

SEE FRONT PAGE the harder to hold our nation to the concept" of equality for all men.

"Medgar Evers," he said, "was the symbol of our victory and of the defeat" of the system which denies equality to Negroes. "Contrary to the view of a Jackson City official, Medgar was more than just an opponent. In life he was a constant threat to the system, particularly in his great voter-registration work. In the manner of his death he was the victor over it. The bullet that tore away his life four days ago, tore away at the system and helped signal its end."

Also speaking at the services were Reverend R.L.T. Smith, who spoke on behalf of the Jackson community and Reverend G. C. Hunter, pastor of the Baptist church which Mr. Evers attended.

Early NAACP Worker worked as a volunteer with the Mississippi Council of Negro Leadership headed by Dr. T.R.M. Howard, then of Mound Bayou. Dr. Howard came down from his Chicago home to eulogize Mr. Evers. The best tribute the people of Mississippi could pay to the memory of Mr. Evers, he said at the services, "would be to enroll 50,000 members in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People within the next 30 days." The NAACP, he pointed out, is "the granddaddy of all the other organizations that have come along. Without the groundwork laid by the Association, they would be unable to operate today."

Presiding at the services was the

United Federal Savings and Loan Open Branch Office at Merle Hay Plaza

James M. Camp, president and founder of United Federal Savings and Loan Association of Des Moines, has announced the opening of the association's second location in Des Moines. The new office will be at 3839 Merle Hay Road, across from the Plaza, in the new Merle Hay Mart Building. The grand opening will be Saturday, June 22 and open house will continue through July 10.

United Federal filed their application for a branch in March, 1962, which was approved in February, 1963, making United the first federally chartered savings and loan association in Iowa to open a branch.

Complete Savings and Loan Service Camp said the new office would offer complete savings and loan service, including the receiving of savings, payments on loans, and applications for mortgage loans.

Mrs. Pacia A. Rogers, senior vice president and member of the board of directors, has been named manager of the Merle Hay office. She has been with United Federal since 1936. Louis J. Platt has been appointed assistant manager.

The opening of United's new facility is another on the long list of "firsts" for United Federal. Chartered in 1934, it was the first federally chartered savings and loan association in Iowa; the first to make a GI mortgage loan, improvement loan and construction loan; the first offering drive-up teller service.

5000 March

After the funeral services a procession of over five thousand persons followed the body back to the Frazier & Collins Funeral Home from which it was shipped to Washington D.C., for burial with military honors in the Arlington National Cemetery.

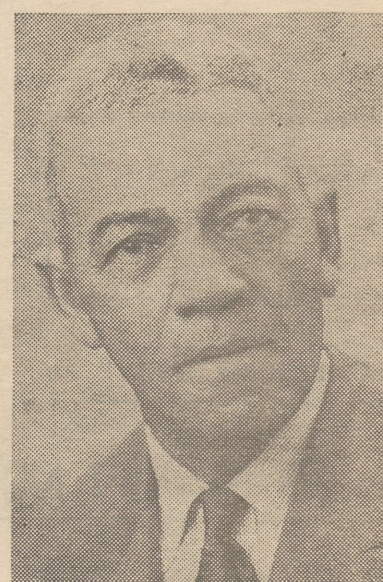

Following the funeral procession for which the city had granted a parade permit, a group of the marchers proceeded from the funeral home towards Capitol Street, the city's main thoroughfare. They were met by police who herded them into a side street. A potentially dangerous situation was averted when John Doar, a Department of Justice attorney in the civil rights division, prevailed upon the demonstrators to disperse. Negro clergymen joined him in a plea for dispersal. Meanwhile police clubbed, beat and arrested 27 of the demonstrators. A Negro woman was reported bitten by a police dog.

Among hundreds of out of town visitors who came to pay final tribute to the slain NAACP leader were NAACP Board Members: Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, C. L. Darden, Alfred Baker Lewis, Dr. H. Claude Hudson, James Stewart, Dr. Eugene T. Reed, Jack E. Tanner, Kelly Alexander, Mrs. Daisy Bates and William R. Ming. Robert Wright, president of the Des Moines branch attended.

Picnic Time Again!

ANYONE can have a picnic right in the back yard, providing there's a picnic table and benches. Now available is a free plan that makes this furniture for outdoor dining a simple acquisition.

With materials obtained from the lumber yard, the home craftsman will find this project a pleasure to build. Unlike the old style benches, the ones described in the free plan are separate, so one needn't climb over them to sit down. When the picnic's over, they fit neatly under the table!

The table is rugged and sturdy. Its smooth, splinter-free top is made of Masonite Tempered Presdwood, which will never split, splinter or crack. Rain, wind and snow won't affect it.

Another advantage of the design shown is that winter storage is made simple because one merely unbolts the "X" frame legs, folds them together and stores them. The table top can be hung on a nail in the garage or storeroom. Benches can be carried inside and used for wintertime or bad weather gatherings in the recreation room.

For a copy of the free plan, write Home Service Bureau, Suite 2039, 111 West Washington St., Chicago 2, Ill., requesting Plan No. AE-279. With it comes information for making comfortable lawn chairs.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Mow "Photogenic" Are You?

Do you get high marks on your camera test?

Let's assume that your eyes, nose, mouth, chin and hair are strictly photogenic. How about your chest—the inside of it, that is? Had a picture taken lately?

Tell Doctor

A chest X-ray, no matter how good-looking, will never get you a movie contract. But it will tell your doctor a lot of things he ought to know about you. It will tell him how healthy your lungs are.

For most people, the chest X-ray is now considered indispensable as a health index. With regard to certain lung ailments, it's the only reliable means of checkup. A tuberculin test will show whether TB germs are present in the body, but a chest X-ray is needed to find out whether they are actively in business and causing active disease.

Reaction

For anybody whose reaction to the tuberculin test is positive, chest X-rays annually or as often as directed by a physician are a "must." They are also considered routine for people over 45. That's because active tuberculosis and other chronic diseases are more likely to develop in middle-aged and older people than in the young.

Little Time

Over and done with in two or three minutes, a chest X-ray examination adds up to a minimum investment of time and trouble for a maximum return in health precaution. Without it, you can sit for handsome portraits or snapshots—but how can you tell how "photogenic" you really are?

Tasty Summer Treat

• "It's truly a treat—first, to eat; and second, to prepare"—that's a fine description of this hearty rice salad. The base is made in minutes with packaged pre-cooked rice, which means little time in the kitchen. Bologna, carrots, peas and pimento give it unique flavor, and for additional goodness it has a garnish of tomato aspic molds and ripe olives. Serve it with crispy bread sticks, a cooling beverage and a favorite dessert. This new entree salad is a nourishing meal in itself, with plenty of "eye appeal"—yet one that's quick to make. It can happily supply the answer to a luncheon or dinner menu these hot, humid days.

BOLOGNA RICE SALAD

1 1/2 cups packaged pre-cooked rice	1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 1/2 cups water	1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 teaspoon salt	1 pound bologna, cut in cubes
1 to 1 1/2 cups mayonnaise	1 cup grated raw carrots
2 teaspoons grated onion	1/4 cup diced pimento
1 to 1 1/2 cups cooked peas*

Combine rice, water, and 1/2 teaspoon salt in saucepan. Mix just until all rice is moistened. Bring quickly to a boil over high heat, uncovered, fluffing rice gently once or twice with a fork. (Do not stir.) Cover and remove from heat. Let stand 10 minutes. Then uncover and let cool to room temperature.
About 1 hour before serving, combine mayonnaise, onion, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, and the pepper, mixing well. Add remaining ingredients and the rice, mixing lightly with a fork. Chill. Serve on crisp lettuce with individual molds of tomato aspic. Makes 8 cups, or 8 to 10 servings.

*Cook 1 box quick-frozen green peas as directed on package. Cool and drain. Or use cooked fresh peas.

COMMUNITY LAGGING ON RACIAL REPRESENTATION

A few days ago, the Little League baseball boys paraded in downtown Des Moines. Well organized and directed, hundreds of enthusiastic youngsters participated. Group after group came along most of which included one or more Negro boys. They were there because they like the game and had earned a spot on their teams.

As a spectator watched, he could not help but conclude that this community project was open to all; that the only ground rules were that they show an interest by carrying out instructions and develop their talents. In these days of tumult over integration, that spectator must have mused that "we don't have those troubles here."

In fact all community projects are open and free in Des Moines, including health, recreation and general public assistance to citizens who need it. Certainly, no group has been more democratic than the American Legion and its Auxiliary which conduct boy and girl states each year. Negro youngsters have participated each year and held some of the top offices gained by popular election of the boys and girls.

With this sentiment pretty well spread around, it is difficult to understand why the city council and the school board have not used some of the opportunities presented them in recent months to add a Negro member.

This forward step is being taken all around but not in Iowa. And this is true even in some southern states where protest marches are being carried on today. And in keeping with this policy, Negro men find jobs harder to get both on the city crews, the school administration and in industry generally.

Maybe the business leaders feel that to extend full participation in community welfare activities to youth and general welfare to the grownups satisfy the Negro. Look at the work all around town and see what we have in mind. But they are wrong. Grumbling and discontent are heard on every hand. It needs to be solidified and communicated to the powers that be.

In the meantime, it becomes more apparent each day that power in the community is so close knit that the masses don't get any representation. It calls for a change.

DON'T SPOIL WHAT HAS BEEN WON

Give a fool enough rope and he will break his own neck.

Prior to the recent protest parades, Negroes complained bitterly about the unfair treatment accorded them in most southern communities. But those complaints often fell on deaf or disinterested ears.

However thanks to the television and wire photos the world saw dogs being used to goad peaceful citizens, men and women—white and black—beaten unmercifully and now a leader of the citizens seeking their rights is ambushed and shot in the back by an unknown assassin. All of these acts are repulsive to the average citizen and won many over to the cause of the Negro and spurred decent people to do something about this brutality being practiced in the name of "white supremacy."

Admittedly, Negroes have won the sympathy of most people; they have won some of their demands in some cities. They must keep up the pressure for their position for increased enjoyment of their rights is being enhanced every day.

Now that Negroes have attained such a favorable position, there is danger of overplaying the glory—of acts which alienate rather than invite friends such as issuing threats of violence if their demands are not met. Negro leaders have done a successful job bringing the struggle so far. They must not allow a few ignorant hot heads to tear down what has taken years to achieve. There are those who are expecting this. They must be handed disappointment of their hopes.

MISS. SUPREME COURT FREES NAACP LEADER

Jackson, Miss.—In an unusual move the Mississippi Supreme Court recently ruled on the side of justice and reversed the conviction of a low-

While everyone has been watching Clyde Duncan run away with high school honors, it seems that we have overlooked a girl who isn't doing too badly. Mrs. Lester Jefferson stopped us on the street and gave use this interesting item. Carolyn Winston of Ottumwa, who attends Cardinal High of Eldon, has done a lot of running. She holds the state girls' mark for the sixty yard dash and also broad-jump and also runs on relay teams. Her latest accomplishment was competing in the U. S. track and field federation meet in Texas, June 7 and 8. Miss Winston placed 4th in the hundred, third in the two-hundred and ran a number two leg on the Iowa quarter mile relay team that finished second. As we understand it, Carolyn expects to take part in the National A.A.U. track meet which will decide the makeup of the U.S. team going to Russia. Just on second places will go. Sure hope the young lady makes it. This might make an interesting interview at some later date.

Tennis

For the 4th year we are going to have to pass up the All Star football game to help in the Hilltop Open Tennis Meet. Mrs. Esther was in town this weekend and we had quite a time discussing plans with her and Chet Williams, club vice president.

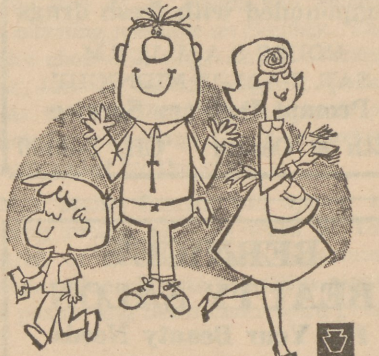

While we were talking about tennis, we suddenly realized that there wasn't anybody to take the places of the old timers who drop out. Why? Wish we knew. We started this thing with the idea that we could develop some good young players. There was a time when we had a few, but they got sidetracked and there wasn't enough to carry on after the drop-outs. We always figure that a tennis class or teacher will develop about six or eight good prospects out of a group. If he can keep one of that bunch going he has done well. But as we look back except for the few years, when the Howard and Knox boys played, there just wasn't too many young prospects. Maybe they thought they couldn't get by the vets. Maybe the vets were so busy playing each other that they didn't try to develop the kids. But whatever the reason, the fact is that we don't have them now.

It's in the cards

Dad is in for more than his fair share of ribbing come Father's Day, June 18. The studio type greeting cards, for example, proclaim all sorts of true things about Dad. For example: "To Dad who is always calm, cool, and . . . collected from!" Or, "Happy Father's Day to the man who has everything . . . 9." Inside caption reads: "Mortgaged to the hilt!" And then there is always the Dad "who fixes everything . . . so that we have to call the repairman!" Dad rates an "A" for effort in all endeavors, however, and come his big day, many Dads will be receiving special recognition with this card from Rust Craft. "Dad, you deserve a special award." Inside is a cut-out gold leafed medal inscribed with: "A-1 type Daddy-O, Winner of Bread, Lender of Automobile, Doer-of-it-Yourself, and Long Suffering Martyr."

Jelly Making—Easy and Rewarding

Spend a little time during the summer making jelly to be used on breakfast toast, hot biscuits, between-meal sandwiches for the children, and lop a sizeable food expense item from your next winter's grocery bill!

Excellent jelly is easily made from the juice of tart apples, grapes, currants, blackberries and several other fruits and berries. They contain enough pectin, the substance in fruits which makes jelly "set." But, some fruits are low in pectin, notably cherries, peaches, strawberries and sweet apples, and the amount of pectin in a fruit may vary from season to season. It is also influenced by the degree of ripeness.

You may mix fruit juices known to be low in pectin cup for cup with those known to contain a great deal of pectin, but it is usually better to add pectin—the kind you buy in liquid or powdered form—when making jelly of low-pectin fruits. It is also faster. A one-minute boil is enough for jelly-making when you use either Certo or Sure-Jell, well known brands of natural fruit pectin.

You may even make jelly from canned or frozen juices and fruits by using pectin. This is one of the easiest ways of making jelly because it eliminates preparation of the fruit and permits you to make jelly any day of the year in about 15 minutes time.

Pectin may be bought at the food store in either liquid or powdered form. Be sure to follow the directions which come with the bottle or package when you make your jelly.

Laugh Lines

Two ducks were gazing at another duck who had just left them. "Doesn't she simply slay you?" said one. "She walks just like a women wearing slacks."

The trouble with whiskey is you take a drink and it makes a new man of you—then the new man has to have a drink.

Judging by the TV shows, there wasn't much juvenile delinquency in the old west, although we imagine the kids were always pestering dad to let them take the family guns when they went out on Saturday night.

Take Time to Think

It is the source of power.
Take time to play;
It is the secret of perpetual youth.
Take time to read;
It is the fountain of wisdom.
Take time to pray;
It is the greatest power on earth.
Take time to love and be loved;
It is a God-given privilege.
Take time to laugh;
It is the music of the soul.
Take time to give;
It is too short a day to be selfish.
Take time to work;
It is the price of success.

BE PATIENT

There is no failure, no defeat, Except what we ourselves admit. No barriers can hold us back Through what we have or what we lack;
For lo, the opportunity Within us lies, to do or to be! There is no burden how'er great, But we can rise from 'neath its weight;
No obstacle but overthrown, Will serve us as a stepping stone To far-off heights of mastery. What we determine we can be! No seeming ill can stay the flow Of good to us when we but know That with its Source we are one, That in its course our course is run. God-given opportunity— What we determine we can be!

IS THAT SHOPPING TRIP NECESSARY?

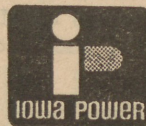

NOT WHEN YOU PUT A SUPERMARKET IN YOUR KITCHEN WITH A NEW REFRIGERATOR-FREEZER

You can say good-bye to those extra trips to the store—to cluttered, unsanitary refrigerators—to messy defrosting—when you get your new refrigerator-freezer.

- Saves time — Half as many trips to the store. With modern thin-wall insulation, today's refrigerator-freezer holds nearly twice as much food in the same floor space.
- Saves money — Buy larger quantities of food at bargain prices and store in your roomy refrigerator-freezer. No spoiled meats or leftovers to throw away, either.
- Saves work — Frozen or unfrozen food keeps perfectly with today's scientific temperature controls. And no cold, soggy hours for you—chipping ice and defrosting.

Why "make do" with a cramped, old-fashioned "ice-box" refrigerator? See your dealer's bargains in refrigerator-freezers today.
