own Charm and Modeling School here in Chicago is called "Mr. Sepia Model" since he won such a title in 1959, and he is one of Ebony's top 10 male models. He holds an A. Gov. Hughes: We Must Rid Ia. of Its Discrimination, Too

"I have felt for a long time that a lot of our civil rights problems could be solved if all people could for a few days be made to share the feelings of a person who is a victim of discrimination."

Face Facts

These were the words of Iowa's Governor Harold Hughes, in a radio speech here Saturday, in which he emphasized that "discrimination retards the growth of Iowa's economy."

Recalling that Iowans were among the leaders in helping slaves escape on the "underground railway" in the Civil War, Hughes said it is easier to criticize the Southern states than "to face the facts about racial discrimination in your own home town and in your own home state."

"It leads to a dismal and distressing squandering of human resources. It does not allow many Iowans to fulfill their economic potential, thus making all Iowa the poorer for it. "A large proportion of the cost of unemployment expenditures, aid-to-dependent-children payments, law enforcement costs and other state health and welfare outlays are made necessary by prejudice," he added.

Two Aids

Hughes cited two acts by the 1963 Legislature that he said should help combat discrimination in Iowa.

One is the Home Rule Statute, which will permit cities and towns to establish civil rights commissions with authority to take legal action against persons practicing discrimination in employment or housing.

The other is the Fair Employment Practices Act forbidding job discrimination by employers or labor unions.

Rights Probe

The Governor said he plans to reconstitute a Governor's Commission on Human Rights to investigate and possibly mediate complaints of violations of human and civil rights in Iowa.

Plan Meeting to Gain Additional Support for Housing Ordinance

A meeting of all individuals and representatives of organizations interested in fair housing will be held Thursday, July 25 at 7:30 in the Leon Smith room of the YMCA.

A tentative draft of a Fair Housing Practices Ordinance will be presented by the sponsors of the meeting, the housing committee of the Des Moines Commission on Human Rights.

Positive Action

The commission was instructed by the City Council to prepare for its consideration such a housing ordinance.

Arthur A. Davis, housing committee chairman said, "We are greatly encouraged by this positive action by the City Council and we feel the climate is such, both nationally and locally, that the ordinance may become a reality."

Imperative

"In the meantime, it is absolutely imperative that all possible community support be activated. We are aware that there is already much support . . . but obviously the more support we garner now the more effective we will be when the time comes for actual City Council vote."

Education

At the July 25th meeting plans are to establish an organization which will be able to work constructively and effectively for the passage of the ordinance and continue as an educational group after the anticipated passage.

Orlando, Fla.—A young girl visiting here went to a department store to buy a swim suit. Selecting a blue one, she went off toward the dressing rooms marked "Colored" and "White."

"Why did you go to the wrong dressing room?" The salesgirl asked when the girl, apparently unfamiliar with the Southern way of life, emerged.

The customer replied, "I bought a colored bathing suit. Where was I supposed to go?"

Liberian Police Trainer Sues Over False Arrest

Kansas City, Mo.—A suit seeking $150,000 punitive damages and $150,000 compensatory damages has been filed here by Leon Jordan, a former member of the Kansas City, Mo., police force, who helped set up a department in Liberia.

NEWS In A Nutshell

Shelbyville, Ky.—The last of Shelbyville's recreational facilities were integrated last week when Mayor Jesse Puckett and the City Council opened the municipal swimming pool to Negroes. Six teen-agers swam in the pool without incident.

Kansas City, Mo.—The highest position yet to be attained by a Negro in a local police department went last week to Clifford A. Warren, a 24-year-old veteran of the force who was named a major in charge of the night patrol and administrative assistant to C. M. Kelley, chief of police.

Dallas, Tex.—Dallas quietly took another step toward peaceful complete desegregation recently, when all municipal parks and facilities were opened to all people.

Jackson, Miss.—The first two Negro policemen in Jackson since Reconstruction days have been sworn in by Mayor Allen C. Thompson in the presence of Negro leaders, as the protest demonstration staged by Negroes here recently began to pay off.

Chicago, Ill.—Two of the nation's leading publishers went into the merchandising business last week. John Sengstacke, publisher of the Defender and S. E. Fuller, publisher of the Pittsburgh Courier, announced the purchase of the South Center Department store for an undisclosed sum. The building houses a four floor department store, the famed Regal theatre, another large clothing store, several other stores and several floors for offices.

Washington, D. C.—For the first time in the 110-year history of the American Pharmaceutical Association the name of a Negro has been placed on the official ballot as a candidate for national office. He is Dr. Henry R. Pettis, chairman of the District of Columbia Pharmacy board.

Birmingham, Ala.—Negro leaders here last week hailed as a real "breakthrough" the reopening on an integrated basis of three of the city's four golf courses, closed with other public facilities since Jan. 1961 by the old city government headed by arch-segregationist Eugene (Bull) Connor.

Washington, D. C. — A Negro woman graduate from Harvard university in the field of engineering became the third woman to be hired by the Department of Interior and assigned as an electrical engineer at the Bureau of Reclamation Design and Research center at Denver, Colo. She is Irene White, 21, who was graduated after winning national student honor awards from the American Institute of Electrical Engineers and the Institute of Radio Engineers.

Negro Training As Stewardess

Dallas, Tex.—A 23-year-old Arizona girl may become the first Negro stewardess for American Airlines.

Joan Dorsey of Flagstaff, Ariz., is in her third week of training at American's "Stewardess College" in Fort Worth.

Martial Law Remains As National Guardsmen Stand By; 5 Whites Shot Friday

Cambridge, Md. — Racial violence which took on the aspects of guerilla warfare last week was brought to an abrupt halt here Tuesday when a 24-hour truce was called.

1. Negro leaders decreed a 24-hour moratorium on marches, picketing or other demonstrations. They said they wanted to give a new biracial committee a chance to start operating.

2. The National Guard chief here announced to an uproarious crowd of businessmen, enraged by curbs under militia law, that curfew rules were being relaxed. Businesses can stay open until 9 p.m. instead of 7, and citizens can be on the streets until 10 p.m. instead of 9.

There was no immediate change in the ban on sales of alcoholic drinks, a prohibition that has disrupted the city's economy, but it was announced that relaxation was being considered.

Five Whites Shot

The city which had been under control of National guardsmen off and on for nearly two weeks, had been rocked by a race riot last Thursday when five whites including two guardsmen and a boy, were shot. State police with tear-gas and dogs entered the Negro district to disperse mobs gathering after a day-long series of violent incidents. Far into the night bands of whites and Negroes sped through the city sniping at people not of their race.

The next day, Friday, about 250 white and Negro sympathizers gathered for a rally and later began marching toward the white section in defiance of a ban on demonstration. They were stopped without incident by nearly 400 guardsmen.

25-Day Tour

The outbreak of violence began Thursday shortly after the guard left the city on Monday after a 25-day tour resulting from previous violence.

Demonstrations began again Monday after Negro leaders had served notice on Saturday.

Nigeria Cooperating With Ghana For Oil Refinery

Lagos — Nigeria is cooperating with Ghana in the launching of the first oil refinery at Tema harbor in Ghana. The refinery is expected to go into production next month.

It was reported that the first oil to be processed at the refinery will be Nigerian oil.

There's no doubt about it — The Modern Harlem Girls appearing in Larry Steele's musical production at A Century of Negro Progress Exposition, August 16 through September 2 at Chicago's McCormick Place, are among the most beautiful girls in show business. They'll be seen daily performing on an aquatic stage on Lake Michigan, just behind McCormick Place. The exposition is being sponsored by THE AMERICAN NEGRO EMANCIPATION CENTENNIAL AUTHORITY, INC.

New Civil Rights Group Includes 8 Negro Lawyers

Philadelphia—At least 11 Negroes are among the more than 100 leading lawyers who have volunteered to serve as members of the Lawyers' Committee on Civil Rights Under Law established in response to a recommendation by President Kennedy.

Announcement of the formation of the new committee was made here, July 10, in a joint statement issued by Bernard G. Segal, Philadelphia lawyer, and Harrison Tweed, a New York attorney, who serve as co-chairmen of the committee at the President's request made at a White House conference on June 21.

New Acting Dean Of Bishop College

New Acting Dean of Dallas' Bishop College is Dr. Charles L. Knight, a graduate of Fisk University with a doctorate in education from the University of Denver. This was announced by Dr. Milton K. Curry, Jr., President of Bishop.

DR. KNIGHT

Dr. Knight will occupy the post of Dean during the absence of the permanent Dean, Dr. H. C. Sun, who is on leave. He plans to remain at Bishop in other capacities after the return of Dr. Sun.

Mrs. Annabelle Blaney Sues for Divorce

Mrs. Annabelle Blaney, a deputy Polk County auditor, filed a divorce petition in Polk County District court here Monday against her husband, John W. Blaney, a city street maintenance worker.

She alleges cruel and inhuman treatment. They have no children.

ABA Blasted

The announcement came for failure to name a single Negro to its Committee on Civil Rights and Racial Unrest. A resolution adopted at the Chicago convention charged that this failure revealed a "lack of understanding of the basic issues involved in the problem with which this committee is intended to deal."

In New York City, Mr. Tweed said that the two committees are separate but expressed the hope that they will seek the same objective in cooperative harmony. He pointed out that the ABA represents only about one-half of the nation's lawyers.

RECEIVES DONATION FROM N. Y. GIRL FRIENDS

Chicago, Ill.—In continuing support of the NAACP the New York Chapter of the Girl Friends, Inc., made additional contributions during the Association's 54th annual convention here July 1-6.

The New York Girl Friends, who have two life memberships in the Association, donated $1,400 to assist the Jackson, Miss., campaign. In addition they gave $500 as a contribution to the NAACP-Evers Scholarship Fund. Miss Lydia Waters, 1963 debutante of the Girl Friends, Inc., made a personal contribution of $100 to the NAACP.

Oscar Jones Asks Divorce

Oscar E. Jones, a Des Moines attorney, has sued Mrs. Dorothy L. Jones for divorce in Polk County District court.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones, who live at 989 27th street, were married June 12, 1947, at Centerville and have four minor children, the petition said.

Jones accused his wife of cruel and inhuman treatment. He asked the court to award his wife custody of the children, a reasonable amount of child support, the home and household furnishings.

He said he should be awarded a car and his equity in an office building he is purchasing.

Mrs. Blaney asks the court to award her weekly alimony and title to their home, 1125 14th place and furnishings.

This was the weekend of orange blossoms, wedding refrains and happy newlyweds. The weekend which began with the steady downfall of much needed rain, threatened to mar the happy occasion for a Des Moines bride, the former Barbara Oliver, on Saturday at high noon. Shortly after the formal wedding began the clouds lifted and like a bright omen the sun shone through the remainder of the day.

It was a beautiful and impressive ceremony and relatives, friends and wellwishers packed the church sanctuary and spilled over into the balcony.

Among those in the audience was a couple, who just three days earlier had celebrated their first anniversary. They were Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Parks, 940 16th street. With them were two visiting nieces.

Also attending the wedding and reception were two brides-to-be who will walk down the aisle next month. They are Misses Evanette Mays, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Mays, 701 Hull avenue and Mary Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holmes, 6224 Forest avenue.

Miss Mays, who taught in the public schools in Milwaukee, Wis., last year, will teach in Syracuse, N. Y. this fall. Her husband-to-be will return to school to get his law degree. Their wedding date is Aug. 24. Miss Holmes and her fiancé will wed on Aug. 31.

As we have mentioned from time to time we still meet people with whom we have talked to frequently over the phone but never had chanced to meet in person. Two such persons Saturday were Mrs. Theodore Martin, Jr., 3500 27th street and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Theodore Martin, Sr., 1305 Ascension street. They talked proudly of how they expect to be grandmother and great-grandmother respectively, sometime in November. The mother is Mrs. Lester (Marjorie) Benning, 336 E. Broad street. Another daughter, Mrs. Loranzie (Coleen) Williams, Gary, Ind., was in the receiving line as a bridesmaid.

Speaking of August weddings, other brides-to-be are Rosemary Johnson who plans to wed Terrance Jackson on Aug. 3 and Janice Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wallace, 2722 Amick avenue, who plans to be wed on Aug. 17.

Last week when a lady called identifying herself as Mrs. Parker and asked for newspaper coverage of her wedding on Sunday, July 14 at Bethel A.M.E. church, we did not at first connect the name. However,

Boy, 14, Sentenced To Eldora 4 Years For Shooting Incident

Terry Lee Gilbert, 14, accused of the fatal shooting of his 14-year-old playmate, was committed Tuesday to the State Training School for Boys at Eldora. Acting Polk County Juvenile Judge Dring D. Needham recommended that young Gilbert remain there until his 18th birthday, Dec. 2, 1966, "because in my mind you are not the kind of person who should be free in our community."

Judge Needham noted that in the three times the Gilbert boy has appeared before the court, "I have never heard you say you were sorry" about the shooting.

TERRY GILBERT

Terry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Gilbert, 1012 Enos avenue, fatally shot Otis Godfrey, son of Mrs. Gertrude Godfrey, 925 Forest avenue with a combination .22-caliber rifle and .410 shotgun in the Gilbert home last June 22.

Accompanying the boy in court were his mother, a cousin and his attorney.

Young Gilbert was examined recently by psychiatrists at Iowa City, who reported that the boy is "not psychotic, is not mentally deficient and knows right from wrong."

Beware! Looking Directly at Eclipse Of Sun on Saturday

WARNING!!! About the partial eclipse of the sun on Saturday, July 20! Have you warned your children or others about the dangers of looking at the eclipse directly?

"Permanent eye damage can result if the eclipse is viewed directly. Sunglasses, smoked glass, welder's goggles or exposed photographic film do not protect the eyes sufficiently to avoid eye damage. It is especially important not to look directly through binoculars or telescopes. But an image projected on white cardboard can be viewed safely.

One method of making an eclipse viewer is suggested by the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness. It involves fastening two blackened pieces of cardboard together at right angles, and punching a pinhole in one of the pieces. Then stand with back to the sun, and hold the pinhole side of the cardboard up until the rays of the sun pass through the hole and are reflected back from the other side of the viewer.

Iowans are expected to see the eclipse about 3 p.m. Saturday.

Spellman: Race Bias Is Outrage

New York, N. Y.—Francis Cardinal Spellman says racial discrimination is "an outrage which America can not tolerate."

Dedicating a public housing project in Harlem, New York City the Cardinal said, "There is simply no reason—there never was and there never can be—why the color of a man's skin should limit his opportunities in a society that boasts of freedom."

ICED-TEA-MENU-OF-THE-MONTH Low-Cost Low-Calorie Foods

WOMEN WHO HAVE THE SLIM, TRIM FIGURE IN MIND for both waistline and pocket book this season, will do well to keep in mind the iced-tea-menu-of-the-month. Low-cost, low-calorie foods and beverages are the highlights of this complete menu which has been rounded out to provide a family of four approximately 357.3 calories per person at a cost of about 42 cents per serving.

THIS MONTH'S MENU IS:

BEVERAGES	Approx. no. of calories per six fluid ozs.
Iced tea (unsweetened)	4.0
Iced coffee (unsweetened—without cream)	11.0
Sugar-free carbonated beverages	18.0
Beer	59.0
Cola beverages	82.0
Lemonade, frozen	86.0
Carbonated, fruit-flavored beverages	91.0
Grape juice	111.0

ICED TEA on the other hand, when sweetened with a non-calorie sweetener, is non-fattening, non-filling. It's thirst-quenching because it has no sweet, cloying after taste—and leaves you refreshed. To make about 10 servings of ICED TEA pre-measure 5 tablespoons loose tea (or 15 tea bags). Bring 2 quarts fresh, cold water to a full rolling boil in saucepan. Remove from heat. Immediately add tea. Brew, uncovered, 5 minutes. Stir and strain into pitcher. Cool at room temperature.

To make Jellied Beef Consomme—simply chill and serve with a slice of lemon or chopped chives.

To prepare Mock Chinese Dinner for four, combine and cook for five minutes, 1 No. 2 can pineapple chunks (drained) with 1 teaspoon butter and ½ cup drained pineapple syrup. Combine 2 tablespoons cornstarch with remaining ½ cup cold pineapple syrup, to make thin paste. Gradually stir into pineapple mixture. Add 2 tablespoons soy sauce, 2 tablespoons vinegar and 3 non-calorie sweetener tablets. Cook, stirring constantly till thickened and smooth. Add 1 7-ounce can solid pack tuna (flaked) and 1 3-ounce can sliced mushrooms. ¼ teaspoon salt and a dash black pepper. Heat. Prepare 1 5-ounce package pre-cooked rice, according to package directions. Place rice in deep platter. Top with pineapple-tuna mixture. Serve immediately.

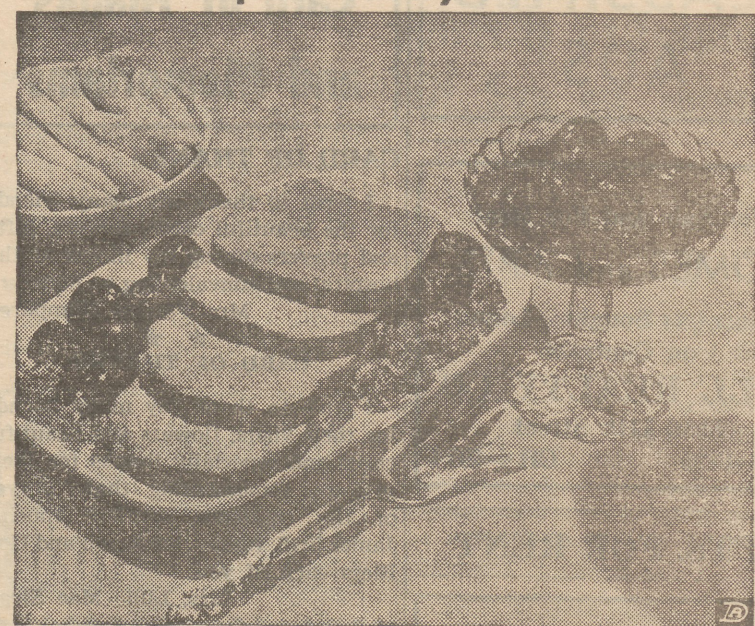

Spiced Cling Peaches make a dessert that is full of spice and everything nice, especially when served with crisp crunchy whole wheat wafers. Drain 1 No. 2½ can cling peaches. Simmer syrup gently with 1 teaspoon whole cloves, and 1 stick cinnamon for 10 minutes. Pour over peach halves. Add 2 tablespoons lemon juice. Cover. Allow to cool. Chill before serving. (ANS)

Spiced Purple Plums Assure Piquant Savory Relish

*This easily prepared and versatile recipe for Spiced Purple Plums deserves a prominent place among meat accompaniments in daily menus. To complete a meal, a simple relish is often needed but for lack of variety, it is often omitted. Washington State canned purple plums provide the variety with this wholesome and appetizing relish.

A clear piquant sauce is poured over the tender purple plums making the blue-red skins sparkle. As the fruit stands, this spicy sauce penetrates into the flesh of the canned plums and the whole fruit takes on a delightful tang. Fresh Washington State plums are picked at the peak of maturity and processed while they are still fresh and sweet. They are packed in a heavy syrup and processed under specifications insuring high quality. In this way, Washington State canned purple plums are always available and always reliable.

For a spiced fruit to accompany a main dish, whether it is meat, fish or fowl, there is nothing more zesty than Spiced Purple Plums. A combination of sweetness, sharpness and with a hint of spice, this recipe is a perfect way of serving a piquant relish.

SPICED PURPLE PLUMS

1 No. 2½ can Washington State purple plums
¾ cup brown sugar
¾ cup white sugar
2 tablespoons whole cloves
2 tablespoons white corn syrup
1 small stick cinnamon
¾ cup cider vinegar

Drain purple plums and set aside. Combine remaining ingredients in saucepan and bring to a boil. Remove from heat and strain out spices. Pour hot syrup over drained canned purple plums. Let stand several hours or overnight. Serve as a main dish accompaniment.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Breathe Easy—Or Know The Reason Why!

Some startling information usually gets unearthed when groups of people start giving out with their autobiographies. And of course everybody does just that from time to time, whether in the form of an income tax return, a survey questionnaire, a job application, or an insurance benefit bid.

Not long ago, when disabled persons were declared eligible for Social Security benefits regardless of age, the resulting applications touched off a medical surprise. A disease few people had ever heard of, and practically nobody could pronounce, was found to be the second ranking ailment among all those listed as causes of disability.

Lung Disease

This unpleasant little item, a lung disease called emphysema, affects chiefly men over 50. As it progresses, it results in the obstruction of air spaces in the lung, causing severe difficulty in breathing. The condition comes on gradually, and at first may take the form of a slight shortness of breath that is mild but disproportionate to any physical effort expended. Eventually it can progress to a point where the affected person is short of breath on waking up in the morning.

Trivial Discomfort

As a matter of fact, shortness of breath that comes after no special exertion can be a sign not only of emphysema but of any one of a number of ailments in the group called RD — Respiratory Disease. Shortness of breath may seem a trivial discomfort, easy to brush aside with excuses and a hope that it will go away and stay away. And yet, if not investigated, it can turn out to fit the slogan made popular by Milt Gross, satirist of a generation ago: "From this come the worse diseases."

For anybody who finds himself afflicted by shortness of breath out of proportion to effort, an immediate visit to the doctor is a logical "must."

The full skirt of peau de soie and alencon fell into a cathedral train. Her flowing veil was of chantilly ivy and alencon.

Bridesmaids Attire

Her bridesmaids wore formal length gowns of incandescent rose and chiffon with bell shape skirts of chiffon over peau de soie and long sleeve button-back jackets of alencon, and matching headpieces. The bride's mother was attired in rose chiffon and the groom's mother in pink lace.

Music

The altar was decorated with huge bouquets of white gladiolas and spider mums in gold vases and two tall tapers in gold candlesticks. The pews were decorated with large satin white bows. Music included vocal solos by Misses Janet Hatchett, Detroit, Mich., Annie Ruth Lee, Flint, Mich., and Mrs. Phyllis Harris, Detroit, Mich., and a violin solo by Miss Berta Lou Winston, Ottumwa, Ia. All were accompanied by Mrs. Lauretta Reeves, organist.

After the couple exchanged vows the famed Richard Allen chorus gave a stirring rendition of the "Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Reeves.

Reception

Following the ceremony, a fabulous reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The receiving line including the bridal party was in the lovely living room whose picture window looked out on the patio and spacious lawn where tables were spread under huge tents. Champagne constantly flowed from spouts in a silver fountain. Assorted exotic hors d'oeuvres including caviar were arranged on ice on another table. On the center table was the beautiful five-tiered wedding cake (composed of intricately decorated individual cakes) topped by the silver marriage symbols of the A.M.E. Church.

Tempting Terrace Fare

Eating out of doors doesn't necessarily imply cooking out of doors. The home terrace plus simple picnic fare can equal just as much out-of-doors atmosphere as a picnic in the park.

Frankfurters and rolls by all means. With beans of course. But with a flourish or two. The "Flourishes" are simple. Diagonal gashes in the frankfurters look nice and prevent unsightly splitting. Onion, green pepper, tomato sauce, a few drops of Tabasco, and a whisk of Accent* do wonders for the canned beans. Toasted frank rolls lend crispness. And the mixed pickles go without saying.

RIGHT WINGS MUST NOT BE ALLOWED TO DOMINATE THE G.O.P.

Gov. Rockefeller of New York has announced in no uncertain terms that he disagrees with those who think Senator Goldwater is the logical candidate for the Republican nomination for President. And while he does not mention the senator by name, his attack on the philosophy of the right wing element of the Republican party, of which Goldwater is the leader, points him out.

Senator Goldwater has said that civil rights matters should be left to the states—the position of most advocates of rightists. This policy was pursued soon after reconstruction up and until the past twenty five years. This period brought the country all kinds of Jim Crow laws and restrictions against the civil rights of Negroes which were reversed only after Negroes and a few far-sighted white people became sufficiently strong and vocal to change the tide.

The extreme right wing of the Republicans is silly enough to feel that it can win by catering to the south and some of the mid-west states. By interference, this position means that they would sacrifice the Negro vote. In other words, they propose to soft peddle Negro rights or outbid the Stinnes and Russells in their opposition to civil rights.

Should Senator Goldwater receive the nomination, it would reverse the position of the Republican party as the party of Lincoln. It would drive out millions of independent voters—a group it must win in order to be elected—away from their ranks and slap the Negro in the face.

The Republican campaign managers toyed with the idea in 1960 reasoning that the south would not vote for a Catholic for President and that their platform, as Nixon said, "was more nearly like their way of life." They lost and will do the same thing again in 1964 with such a position.

The election of a right wing President would set the country back a hundred years not only in the great strides that have been made in solving social and many economic problems but also in its position as the leading world democratic nation.

This element of the party cannot be allowed to prevail.

CITY MANAGER HAS NOT MET PROBLEMS SUCCESSFULLY

Monday night, a group of citizens presented to the city council a petition calling for an election to determine whether Des Moines should continue under the council-manager form of government.

Anticipating the presentation of such a petition and in view of the many criticisms which have been heard in recent months, Mayor Iles read a statement chastizing those who dared oppose the present form of government branding them prejudiced and narrow, opposing everything that is presented for consideration.

Mayor Iles attacks the people rather than the issue, a trick of the trade of the lawyer who has no case hoping to divert the attention of the jury away from the main question at hand. Citizens have a right to protest to the government against the government—a constitutional right which Negroes are doing today to gain their rights. Others have done it in the past.

When the city manager plan first came before the voters, the Bystander supported it and lined up with the good government committee, which spearheaded the successful second campaign for adoption. While somewhat skeptical of any government which removes authority too far from the people, the backers pledged that the wrongs Negroes suffered under the council system would be rectified.

Its backers argued that taxes would be reduced and the scandals of some past administrations would be done away with. Of course, neither of these propositions materialized.

But aside from this, the council-manager plan must take responsibility for the inability to attract industry to the city and thus lose hundreds of citizens for urban renewal program which has made it a disgrace to the city finding itself at a loss what to do next; the poor handling of the

Liston: Floyd Will Fall in 3

Las Vegas, Nev. — Heavyweight Boxing Champion Sonny Liston professed "respect" for former champ Floyd Patterson, but said he still expected to knock out the challenger in three rounds or less on Monday night, July 22.

Liston at the same time shrugged off Cassius Clay, the talkative aspirant for a title bid, with one sentence:

"I even think my wife can beat that guy."

Liston arrived recently to begin training here for the July 22 rematch with Patterson. Sonny won the crown last year from Patterson with a first round knockout.

Respects Patterson

"I respect Patterson," Liston said as he started drills at the main show auditorium of the Thunderbird Hotel. "I think he'll go better than he did last time."

But he added, "I don't expect the rematch to go over three rounds."

Patterson is also here and working out at the Dunes Hotel.

$500 Watch

On the way to the news conference, Liston stopped at a jewelry counter and looked at a $500 watch. Ash Resnick, sports director of the Thunderbird, said:

"If you belt him out in five rounds, I'll buy you that watch, Sonny."

Liston retorted, "If he goes past three, I'll buy you the watch."

Next week comes the big fight. Some people say it won't amount to much. But we know at least one guy who says he knows boxing who picks Floyd Patterson to win. We have heard a lot of guys say Patterson can't take a punch. But seriously what man or animal can take a clout in a vital spot and stand up? Horses, cattle and all manner of animals get knocked down and out. We never yet heard of a man who couldn't be knocked out. If a fighter hasn't been, it is because he has never been hit in one of the knockout spots. So Liston can be kayoed. Maybe the former champ won't do the job, but it isn't impossible.

Golfers

This week the town is flooded with golfers who will have ended their meet by the time you read this. From what we have seen of the local club we would say they really do things up right.

Hotentots

We listened to Bob White, manager of the Hotentots as he argued about officials in the various games. Bob contends that actual experience in having played a game makes one a better official, in that particular game. Some fellows he conceded can become competent even though they have never played the game they are liquor program which fell far behind other Iowa towns.

Negroes have made far less progress in city employment than in industry. The problem has not been attacked with the force required to get the job done and as a result no Negro firemen, few clerical jobs, less men on the streets and trucks. This latter deficiency may be observed daily.

Today, we are not so sure about the manager-council form of government. It has not met the responsibility as its backers pledged and thus the opposition of many is genuine; some, of course, for the purpose of being agin something.

"GIVE THE LADY A BEER, bartender."

"Beer is the last thing I need this hot day, friend."

"Now, Baby, you know I'll give you whatever it is you need."

"You will, eh. Sit down, Wide-mouth, and hear me good."

Jessie Mae set her elbow on the bar to support her clenched fist. She glared at her friend next to her on the bar stool.

"Where were you May 28th? Remember? The NAACP had a demonstration to get us off these bar stools on account of Bull Connor's dogs in Birmingham. Where were you, Wide-mouth?"

Jessie answered for him. "You were sitting on this very bar stool in this exact spot talking about what THEY ain't doin' about your rights."

"Now, darling, if you'd a told me, I'd a been there", Wide-mouth pleaded nervously.

"Shut up!, Jessie Mae demanded. Them Packinghouse workers paid for 20,000 leaflets printed in big letters.

Don't tell me that nobody asked you about that demonstration. You know you were hiding under this bar stool waiting for times to get better!"

Laughter bounced off the ceiling and walls as the crowd took advantage of Wide Mouth with a chorus or two of, "Yeah, Wide Mouth, how come you wasn't at the statehouse grounds?"

He gulped his beer and decided to leave. Jessie Mae suddenly turned to face her friend.

"Sit down. We've got two Iowa senators sittin' with their feet upon their desks and whistling Dixie because their Negroes are so happy!"

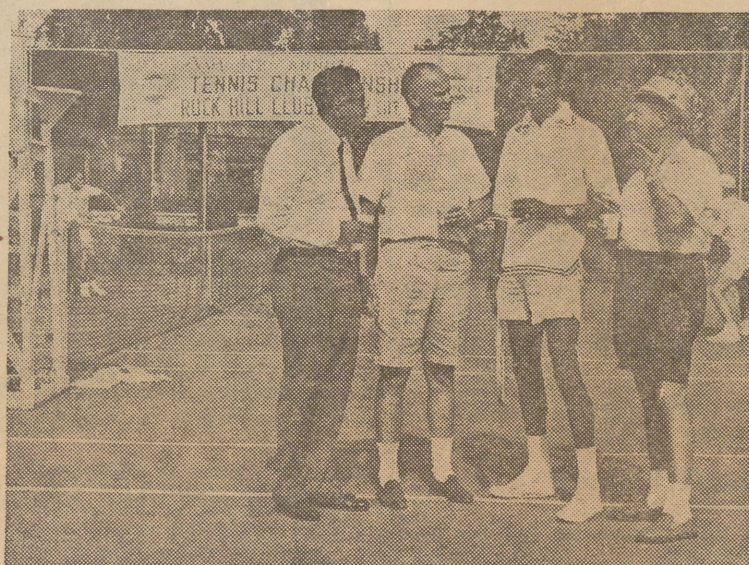

Here's a piece of paper, pen, stamp and an envelope. Start writing, Wide-mouth," Jessie Mae ordered. Dear Senator Hickenlooper:

I have been sittin' in this bar complainin'. I ain't registered and I don't vote because whichever knot head I vote for ain't interested in helping me get out of this foundry before my back breaks in two.

This woman here ain't gonna get off my back, I can plainly see, 'til I get off this bar stool and go register to vote and march clean to Washington for civil rights all over this country now.

Wide-mouth looked up. Now what do I say, Jess?"

"Put very truly yours. W. M. Anderson."

officiating. But White says those fellows are few and far between because it takes actual experience to understand the various situations and problems that arise in any team game. Maybe the fellow is right.

Young Team

We also heard Bob say he was building a young team and that it was a year or two away from its peak. But we thought he is going to have to have some pitchers and so far he hasn't got too many. The Tots are still in the city softball meet so maybe they will make the state meet yet.

Young Golfers

We haven't made a check to see how many young golfers there are but there must be quite a few. We wonder how many of them are really making good at the game and how many just play for fun. Playing for fun is fine but somebody has to replace the old guys as they pass out and who will? Hope there are at least a few youngsters who like the game well enough to work hard at it.

Keep Cool

When others think the day is hot and that the weather's bad,

Just try to think of other things, the things for which you're glad.

In summer days when others fret, just find a shady pool.

Refresh your mind and rest your soul. In other words: Keep cool.

And, if there is no pool at hand, not even a shady brook,

Just look about for any place that'll make a quiet nook;

Scottie for House Number

A TIME TRIED method of displaying a house number in an attractive manner is illustrated. Either the Scottie-dog cutout or some other animal will serve the purpose. Set in a parkway, on the lawn or at the curb, the jaunty puppy, with its sparkling eyes, will prove to be an attractive addition. Scottie is 15 inches long and his height is 11½ inches. Cut him from two pieces of Masonite 3/16"

Tempered Presdwood, holding the panels, screen sides together, with C-clamps and following a pattern with a coping, keyhole or hand saw. Slightly round the edges with a file or sandblock.

Reflector-type bolts used for car licenses serve as eyes and reflect the light from passing cars. The numbers are sawed from the Tempered Presdwood and glued to each side of the cutout.

Two wooden stakes, shaped from 1 by 2-inch lumber, are laid between the two cutouts and fastened with screws applied through holes drilled in the hardwood. Paint Scottie in appropriate colors, first using a primer. Push the stakes into the ground, and your new house number will be in service. All the materials needed are available at lumber yards.

If you're determined to keep cool, there's naught can make you hot.

You do not need thermometers to tell you when it's cold;

When others say, "It's hot today," be sure you do not scold;

You'll never mind the summer days or be the weather's tool,

If you can stay all cool inside and let your thought keep cool.

Tony Yates May Coach Cincinnati

Cincinnati—Tony Yates, captain of the University of Cincinnati basketball team, runner-up for the national championship last season and winners of the two previous campaigns, has been mentioned in the speculation as the next coach at U-C.

Yates was the play director for the Bearcats in the years they twice conquered Ohio State to win the National Collegiate Athletic Association championship and were nipped in the final second by Loyola for the title last March.

Yates, drafted by the St. Louis Hawks of the National Basketball Association, has expressed a desire to play pro basketball.

But Al Heim, executive sports editor of a local paper, wrote:

"If he's given a choice, however, we're betting he'll take the U-C job."
