IN STATEHOUSE CHAMBERS SATURDAY

Civil Rights Rally Called Success

Shown above are some of the 350 persons who filled the gallery and main House chambers at the statehouse civil rights rally here last Saturday morning. The rally sponsored by the Iowa State Conference of Branches of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was held to gain support for President Kennedy's proposed civil rights legislation. Speakers included Iowa Congressmen Neal Smith and Fred Schwengel and Edward Carter, Region IV executive secretary . . .

Following the rally a mass march was conducted through downtown Des Moines from the statehouse to Veterans auditorium with James B. Morris, Jr., as parade marshal. At the extreme right in the forefront is Robert A. Wright, president of the Des Moines NAACP branch. The marchers chanted repeatedly: "Two bits, four bits, six bits, a dollar. All for freedom, stand up and holler." And then they cheered. The marchers, both white and Negro, carried small American flags and signs with the inscriptions: "No more Negro ghettos," "Job opportunities for all Americans," "Unrestricted Fair Housing," "Human Rights over Property Rights," and

"No more Promises, We Want Action."

A small Negro girl carried a sign almost as big as herself. It read: "Des Moines: What About My Future." —Photos courtesy of Des Moines Register and Tribune.

Unemployed? Want a Better Job? Fill Out Questionnaire On Specific Skills, Abilities

Frances E. Hawthorne

Are you unemployed or looking for a better job? Have you been watching the various job openings that are opening up for Negroes everyday but have hesitated to apply for fear you won't qualify?

Take heart. There's a new plan afoot. Come in and fill out a General questionnaire. They will be available at the Willkie House, 900 17th street; Iowa Bystander, 223 1/2 Locust and the Des Moines Commission on Human Rights, E. 1st and Des Moines street.

Information you will fill out on the questionnaire includes special job skills, abilities or qualifications in a certain field, name, age and address, of course, job experience, if any, educational background, and kind of job or employment desired. The questionnaires will be kept on file by the Des Moines Human Rights Commission and as new job areas open up, if there is an opening, those fitting the particular general criteria standards of the employment firm, will be referred to them. Naturally, it will be up to the prospective employer to do the final screening.

For instance, there is an opening now for a skilled typist who can type 55 words a minute. Those who have applied, when tested could do no more than 45 to 50 words a minute. When the openings occurred at the dairies recently, several applicants whose questionnaires were on file, were referred to the companies, and subsequently were hired.

There is a need in Des Moines for a Negro organization to take up the task of getting every unemployed person on file and serve as a job clearing house and do the initial screening to determine the general abilities of Negroes unemployed or seeking better jobs. It's an ironic dilemma that jobs once closed to Negroes are now opening up but there seems to be no Negroes to fill them, yet there are bound to be some somewhere in the city. Are you one?

Maryland Attorney Case Overturned

Baltimore, Md.—The U.S. Court of Appeals has set aside a lower court order that sent Herman Taylor to jail.

Taylor is a North Carolina civil rights attorney who was charged with income-tax evasion after he filed a suit to speed school integration in Raleigh, where he lives.

He was sentenced to two years in prison but was granted probation on condition that he pay a $20,000 fine in 30 days. When it came time to pay the fine, he did not have the money.

U.S. District Judge Edwin M. Stanley, Greensboro, N. C., immediately revoked the probation and sent Taylor to prison. There was such an outcry that the Court of Appeals ordered Taylor's release and agreed to review Stanley's order.

NEWS In A Nutshell

Chicago, Ill.—"Now they are picketing my church. Can you imagine a more un-American thing to do?" These were the bewildered words of Rev. D. J. Jackson who aroused criticism at the recent NAACP national convention when he agreed with President Kennedy and asked for a moratorium on civil rights demonstrations. "In all my years in the ministry I never heard of picketing a church," he added. "I doubt if even the KKK ever picketed a church."

Detroit, Mich.—Edward M. Swan, a Negro and former executive secretary of the NAACP, here last week was named employe and community relations manager for the Allied Super Markets, Inc., a grocery chain operating in Michigan and Ohio, and became one of the company's leading executives.

Chicago—Some 500 life insurance officials will examine the role of Negro managed business in the civil rights contest during the 43rd Annual convention of the National Insurance Association at the Sheraton-Chicago hotel, Aug. 19-22.

Jackson, Miss.—In a rare action by the Mississippi Supreme Court, state NAACP president Aaron Henry now stands convicted again of a morale charge. Henry, a Clarksdale druggist was convicted of making advances on a white teen-aged boy but his conviction was overturned June 3, by the Supreme Court but it reversed itself last week.

New York — The generosity of singer Johnny Mathis in donating half of his earnings from a series of concerts in Chicago and New York to the NAACP and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference was praised last week by the leaders of the two organizations as a notable contribution to the fight for freedom.

Oklahoma City, Okla.—For the first time in the 16-year history of the Casady Middle school, a Negro will be admitted for the fall session.

9 Boys Arrested as Members of Bicycle Theft Gang Here

Nine boys between the ages of 11 and 15, calling themselves the "Bloody Dragons" were arrested last week accused of operating a gang for thefts of bicycles. Their case will come before the Juvenile court judge this morning (Thurs.)

Reports of bicycle thefts in Des Moines have been running seven or eight a day in the general neighborhood of an abandoned house located at 914 School street, later discovered to be the headquarters for the boys. There they brought the stolen bicycles, took them apart, mixed the pieces, reassembled various parts and then painted them.

Parents

Capt. Nick Kerper, head of the police juvenile bureau, said all nine Bloody Dragons and their parents appeared in the bureau Thursday morning, July 25. They were then referred to Polk County Juvenile Court. Kerper said the parents were extremely co-operative and all the boys readily admitted their parts in

400 Hear 3 Congressmen On JFK Proposals; Mass Parade in Downtown

At the civil rights rally Saturday morning held at the statehouse two things were apparent: "the new Negro" had arrived in Iowa and three congressmen were confident that some sort of civil rights bill would be passed in this congressional session.

More than 350 persons, whites and Negroes, including whole families filled the gallery and main house chambers, listening attentively to Congressmen Fred Schwengel (Rep., Davenport), Neal Smith (Dem., Altona), a statement sent by Senator Jack Miller (Rep., Sioux City), Iowa Senator George E. O'Malley, Des Moines, official representatives of Governor Harold E. Hughes and Leonard Carter, Regional IV Executive secretary of the NAACP, Kansas City, Mo., who brought a fiery, main address.

Sponsors

Sponsored by the Iowa State Conference of NAACP Branches, the rally culminated in a mass rally through downtown Des Moines. Mrs. Wilmer C. Johnson, vice president of the State NAACP, was rally chairman. Russell Nash, Cedar Rapids, state president, presided.

Youth Council

The program was interspersed by the singing of Freedom songs and yells by the Des Moines NAACP Youth Council, directed by Mrs. Clara Bayles. Songs included the widely known "We Shall Overcome," "We Shall Not Be Moved," "Want My Freedom," and the yell, "To bits, four bits, six bits, a dollar. All for Freedom, stand up, and holler."

Censored

The resolution of censure referred to Senator Bourke B. Hickenlooper (Rep., Cedar Rapids), Representative Ben Jensen (Rep., Exira), Representative John Kyl (Rep., Bloomfield), Representative H. R. Gross (Rep., Waterloo), Representative Charles Hoeven (Rep., Alton) and Representative James Bromwell (Rep., Cedar Rapids).

Wright and Russell Nash, of Cedar Rapids, state NAACP president, said they were criticizing the six congressmen because they failed to answer the invitation to attend and because they failed to state their position on the public accommodations part of the civil rights bill.

Jack Miller, State Senator (statement read by his administrative assistant, Stanley Brown): "I think that civil rights legislation should have top priority. Iowa is far ahead but action at the national level is long overdue."

Representative Schwengel, speaking of the goals of human rights: "Because not enough has happened you have come here to demonstrate and speak of your impatience. You not only have a right but an obligation to do what you can, within the boundaries of common sense and reason to bring about an improvement for yourselves and for your country. CONGRESS UNITS HEAR WILKINS IN PLEA FOR ANTI-BIAS LAWS

Washington—Spearheading the big legislative push for enactment of meaningful civil rights laws this year, NAACP Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins has made four appearances here before three different congressional committees within a five-day period.

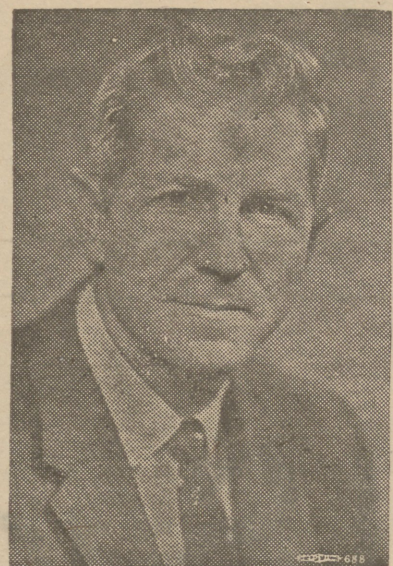

He urged early Congressional approval of President Kennedy's packet of anti-bias measures with strengthening amendments where needed and passage of a strong FEPC law.

Eloquence

In an eloquent and deeply moving plea before a subcommittee of the Senate Commerce Committee, he outlined the "intensely human and personal" nature of the affronts encountered by Negroes seeking access to commonplace public accommodations. This testimony, presented on Monday, July 22, on behalf of the President's public accommodations measure was the first in the series of Mr. Wilkins' appearances before Congressional committees during the week.

wasting human resources in America as well as loss to the individual. He predicted that the proposed civil rights bill before congress is 'one in a series of bills that will come over the years but that some kind of bill will be passed this session.' It will emerge . . . the '60's will bring great progress. . . ."

Leonard Carter, Region IV Executive Secretary: "Time is running out for America and for people to indulge in the evil system of discrimination. Negroes across the land want their freedom and they want it now."

Demonstrations

Relating to the background of the demonstration and sit-in movement, he noted, "The mood of the Negro today is to demonstrate, to dramatize the problem . . . we must all move today in the traditional American way. We need the support of our white friends and all persons in this effort."

Carter also noted that since the 1954 public school desegregation ruling only a "trickle of the southern schools are integrated." He also touched on voting rights, public accommodation laws, and job opportunities for minorities.

Later that afternoon he testified before a subcommittee of the House Judiciary Committee in support of the President's civil rights proposals and called for expanding and strengthening these measures.

The following day, Friday, July 26, Mr. Wilkins was scheduled to appear before a subcommittee of the Senate Education and Labor Committee to urge approval of an FEPC bill with strong enforcement powers.

Dr. King to Address Insurance Assn.

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., leader of the integration movement, will address the 43rd Annual Convention of the National Insurance Association in the Sheraton-Chicago Hotel, Aug. 21.

Some 500 officials of 47 Negro-managed life insurance companies and another 500 Chicago leaders will hear Dr. King at the Presidents' Banquet, traditional highpoint of the four day meeting.

People Behind the Scenes

There were many people behind the scene who performed various duties to help make Saturday's civil rights rally a success. Hostesses posted at doors reported to the planning committee that many persons milled around on the first floor and due to difficulty in climbing, decided to return to their homes when they learned the elevator was not operating.

Members of the planning committee were Russell Nash, Cedar Rapids, state president, Mrs. Wilmer Johnson, chairman, Mrs. L. J. Tinker, co-chairman, Mrs. Marta Maine, secretary, Ike Smalls, national vice president, Mrs. J. B. Morris, Sr., president-emeritus, Judge Luther T. Glanton, Jr., past state president, A. P. Trotter, past president, William Bell, treasurer, Mrs. Clara Bayles, Robert Wright, Mrs. Beverly Trout, Ankeny, Mrs. Marjorie Smith, Ernest Russell, Miss Betty Jones, Youth NAACP supervisor and Bonnie Tinker.

Bridgeport, Conn.—As an increasing number of sit-ins, march-ins, pray-ins and wade-ins sweep the nation (racking up unprecedented gains of equality for the Negro) this sobering question increasingly pops up: "After integration, what must the Negro do to shore up the bastion of freedom for himself and his posterity?"

Contribution

More and more (as time marches) swiftly reverberates the answer: "The Negro must look to his economic future to insure his full participation in the pleasures offered by the new freedoms he most assuredly will gain from his impressive, militant efforts. That is to say, the Negro must have something to contribute, once he achieves this equality, so say the Negro leaders and sympathetic believers of the Negro cause."

Negro Organizations

Scattered across the nation are a number of Negro organizations and individuals intent upon studying the economic plight of the Negro, who are also mapping plans to harness some of his wealth, to help the Negro fit more easily into the mainstreams of American life, once there is no longer a need for them to silently march on picket lines or to fight off the horrifying fangs of police dogs.

Bridgeport Firm

A commercial firm whose creation in Bridgeport last year launched a business which is spiraling into a nationwide success is also providing economic security for Negroes through creation of numerous avenues of employment.

Known as The Regal Lady Elegance, Inc., the new firm deals in luxurious stainless steel waterless cookware, china, stemware and table service appointments which not only has social circles a-buzz but which also holds the germ of providing economic security for countless Negroes across the nation.

Actor's Kin

Led by hard-driving Osborne T. Poitier, a first cousin of movie, stage and television star Sidney Poitier, Regal Lady Elegance was first shunted into the news last summer and fall when media across the nation carried the success story of the firm's leading officer—Poitier.

Supplies

Boyden, whose multi-million dollar firm supplies the Bridgeport company with merchandise in Connecticut and New England, generally, and the Honorable Sidney J. Clark of Wilmington, Del., that state's first and only Negro judge, were credited with Poitier's phenomenal achievements with The Regal Lady Elegance. Clark is also Poitier's legal adviser.

Branch Office

The firm is moving swiftly to set up branch offices along the Eastern seaboard and plans are steadily advancing for ultimate expansion into the interior and on to the West Coast.

Have You Checked Your Social Security Eligibility Lately?

Times change—and laws change too. There have been several changes in the social security law in recent years, including the amount of work required to be eligible for social security benefits.

Leo W. Smith, manager of the Des Moines Social Security District Office, said today that there may be many people in this area who have in the past inquired about their eligibility to social security benefits and been told that they had not worked long enough to meet the eligibility requirements, but because of the revisions in the law may now be eligible.

Cannot Reach All

Smith said that the Social Security Administration is attempting to reach persons throughout the United States who, according to their records, may be eligible for social security benefits. But, he added, it is of course impossible to reach every such individual.

Smith urges any person who, because of insufficient work, has been disallowed in the past to contact their social security office again—they may now be able to draw monthly benefits.

The Des Moines Social Security District Office is located at 205 12th street.

Volunteers Needed For Eye Research

Many volunteers are still needed to participate in the new research study of the eye disease glaucoma, to start Sept. 9 in Des Moines, according to Dr. James F. Speers, city-county health director.

"Volunteers over 21 with normal vision should call the Council of Social Agencies, CH 4-1181, at the Hawley Building immediately," Dr. Speers said. The tests will take about one hour to complete.

Pre-School Registration For Handicapped

Pre-school registration for handicapped children is now taking place at the Easter Seal Center. Groups will start on Sept. 4 for those who are from 3 to 7 years old but whose registrations will be accepted any time. The purpose of the program is to prepare and evaluate youngsters for their future school activities. While they are in class; physical, occupational, and speech therapy are furnished to help attain these goals. Those interested may call CR 4-1529 for further information.

Boy On Bicycle Injured By Car

Virgil White, 10, son of Mrs. Jean White, 1615 13th street, suffered body bruises about 10 a.m. Friday when the bicycle he was riding was struck by an auto in the 1200 block of Clark street.

Police quoted Viola Krutsinger, 64, of 1536 30th street, driver of the car, as saying she was driving east on Clark when the boy rode into the street from an alley between 12th and 13th streets. She said she was unable to stop in time to avoid the accident. No charges were filed.

House Unit Votes Ban on Bias Funds

Washington, D. C.—The House Education Committee has voted to stop federal support for racially segregated education programs. But the bill, approved Thursday, July 25 by a 27-1 vote, faces a possible roadblock in the House Rules Committee. Under the proposal, funds would be cut off after June 30, 1964, for segregated programs under the National Defense Education, the Vocational Educational, Land Grant Colleges and Impacted Areas Acts.

Set 'Off Limits' to Biased Areas for Servicemen; Curbs Job Bias in Apprenticeships

Washington, D. C. — The United States government continued to use its power in the civil rights area when it issued two orders Friday designed to eliminate or curtail federal participation in discrimination.

It issued tough new standards designed to root out racial discrimination in apprenticeship programs, immediately provoking a storm of protest among labor and management leaders in the construction industry.

In another action the Pentagon authorized military commanders to designate as "off limits" to servicemen areas near military bases that practice "relentless discrimination" against Negroes.

Legal Attack

Training programs that do not adhere to the new standards will lose their federal registration. This will stigmatize them as discriminatory and would make them vulnerable to legal attack in the 24 states with enforceable fair employment practices laws.

Under federal law, employers are not allowed to pay apprentices in unregistered programs less than the regular journeymen's wage on federal building work. Apprentices customarily are paid a percentage of the journeymen's rate.

Deny Opportunities

The practical effect of loss of registration would be to deny apprentices work opportunities on federal projects. The new regulations will involve some 150,000 apprentices.

The opening up of opportunities for Negroes to enter these programs has been high on the agenda of civil rights groups.

Merit Basis

The new standards provide that existing programs, to retain federal registration, must pick apprentices on the basis of merit unless the selections made otherwise show equality of opportunity.

Programs that operate on a merit basis must provide for selection of apprentices in accordance with objec-

Servicemen

A directive issued by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara pointed out that commanders were responsible for opposing discriminatory practices affecting their men not only on bases but "also in nearby communities where they may live or gather in off-duty hours."

Memo

In a memorandum to President Kennedy, McNamara said that "military effectiveness is unquestionably reduced as a result of civilian racial discrimination against men in uniform."

He also said: "Certainly the damage to military effectiveness from off-base discrimination is not less than that caused by off-base vice, as to which the off-limits sanction is quite customary."

The directive and memorandum were in response to a request June 21 by the President to the defense secretary to report within a month his action on complaints of discrimination cited by a special committee.

Kerper said the boys also told of existence of another gang, "The Flyers," and said the Flyers keep beating up the Bloody Dragons.

HEALTH FOR ALL

It's now about a decade since that famous malefactor known as cholesterol started getting itself recognized as one of the major health menaces. Not all experts have seen eye to eye on the importance of the fatty substance, which has a way of depositing itself along the inner lining of blood vessels. But all agree that it can be a vital contributing cause of arteriosclerosis (or hardening of the arteries) and heart disease.

One of Many

What many authorities are now insisting on is that cholesterol is only one of the many factors that can lead to these major health mishaps. And they're afraid that unless the current fashion of emphasizing it is brought under control, those other factors are apt to get lost to the public view.

Exercise

They point out that even if the cholesterol blood level is normal in a given person, he can still be subjected to hardening of the arteries or heart disease if he doesn't get the right amount of exercise, keep his weight within bounds, avoid excessive smoking, and in general "live right" from the health standpoint. Heredity, too, can be important in determining who is susceptible to these diseases—but so far nobody has figured out what you can do about that, once you've been born.

Needed

As the fellow said who tried to build a 40-foot yacht in his 30-foot barn, it's all a matter of proportion. Everybody has some cholesterol in his blood. And everybody needs it, because for one thing it's involved in the production of certain hormones.

So, if you're going to worry about cholesterol, better worry about it as part of the total picture. And if you should wonder about the need of dieting to control it, don't go by hunches or gossip. Serious dieting should be undertaken under the supervision of a doctor.

N.Y. Judge Gives Stiff Sentences to Sit-Inners

New York — Judge T. Vincent Quinn gave 30 and 60 day sentences to five New Yorkers who had attempted to block construction at a building site here. According to informed sources, the usual sentence for "disorderly conduct" is one to ten days. Two additional persons were tried July 25 on charges of disorderly conduct and "intrusion onto real property." They are scheduled for sentencing Friday.

More than 300 demonstrators have been jailed throughout the city in recent weeks. They have been protesting discrimination in employment in New York where there are laws which preclude discrimination, but where it exists despite the laws. CORE National Director James Farmer has asked Governor Nelson Rockefeller to pardon the convicted sit-inners.

This weekend club women from all over the state will converge on Des Moines for the 51st session of the Iowa Association of Club Women. Many will remain for the four day session of the Central Association of Colored Women's Clubs, which will headquarter at the same place, Hotel Savary. Those who are in charge are issuing a blanket invitation to all clubwomen, whether they be members of the federation or not, to attend the sessions, with the exception of executive board meetings. So if you have some free time and want to sit in on the sessions, they will be more than glad to have you.

The convention is also posing a little problem for some women members who also are beauticians by professions. The annual convention of National Beauty Culturist League, Inc., convened in Chicago, Ill., Sunday and will last through Aug. 8 including the trade fair, school training sessions and other activities and festivities. The event will climax with an European tour. Mrs. Pauline Humphrey, owner-manager of Crescent Beauty school, will have to bypass most of the club women's convention here, although she herself is very active in the Modernistic federated club, the Des Moines Association of Federated clubs and the IACW. She also is the chairman, as in past years, of the Chosen 100 banquet for the NBCL.

Mrs. Laurence (Mildred) Graves, 1054 16th street, is getting the vacation of her recent dreams when she gets to take in all the sessions of the Beauty convention in Chicago . . . In the recent newsletter from Prof. Russell Nash, Cedar Rapids, Ia., president of the Iowa State Conference of Branches, we noted a paragraph concerning employment for minorities in Council Bluffs, as reported by Mr. and Mrs. George Cooper. He is a past president of the state NAACP. They report the employment picture reveals a Negro bank teller, four Negro school teachers (two in high school) and a Negro male clerk in the People's Department store. They report the housing problem is the most pressing problem confronting Negroes in Council Bluffs.

Everyone likes a surprise birthday party but our neighbor, Mrs. Darlene Simon, 1227 street, had a surprise birthday party in reverse Monday afternoon when she came home from work. Her oldest son, Alvin, Jr., who celebrated his eighth birthday, greeted her with the announcement that he had invited 14 young neighborhood friends for his party at 4 p.m. It was a few minutes after four when Mrs. Simon arrived home from work, and it was the first news she knew of the party.

However, she rose to the occasion with the help of the youngsters who gathered tables and chairs, set them up in the yard, and sat down to await patiently while Mrs. Simon gathered the party fixings, including hot dogs, potato chips, ice drinks, cake and ice cream.

Enjoying the festivities were Mary, Jose, and Rafael Prieto, Eddie and Edna Scales, Victor, Vance, Venita and Valerie Hawthorne, and Alvin's sisters and brother, Dawn, Lynelle and Phillip and his cousin, Tommy Law.

LEMON ICED TEA BRACER— A REAL THIRST QUENCHER

WHO hasn't wished, at one time or another, for a drink that would really quench a thirst? Try this recipe for a Lemon Iced Tea Bracer and you'll never have to worry about a drink that really relieves that parched, seemingly insatiable thirst. Make a lemonade mix, according to your favorite lemonade recipe, or dilute a 6-ounce can of frozen lemonade concentrate according to can directions. Pour into ice cube trays and freeze. If you use fresh lemons, put a thin slice of lemon rind in each ice cube before freezing. Prepare iced tea according to the new open saucepan method by bringing 1 quart of water to a full, rolling boil. Remove from heat. Immediately add 6 tablespoons of tea (3 tea bags equal 1 tablespoon of tea). Brew 2-5 minutes, depending on how strong you like iced tea. Stir and strain into a pitcher or container of cold water. These measurements make about 2 quarts of iced tea. To serve, add 1-2 lemon ice cubes in tall glasses and fill with tea. A sprig of mint on top will add eye-appeal—and note, too, how the frosty glasses make the iced tea look and taste better—to help quench that thirst!

Lemon Ice Cubes
Thin strips of lemon rind
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 cups water

Cut thin strips of lemon rind into 1-inch lengths. Prepare 1 for each ice cube.

Mix lemon juice and water. (Some ice cube trays may hold more liquid. If so, increase the amount of lemon juice and water.) Pour liquid into ice cube trays. Place a piece of lemon peel in each cube section. Freeze solid. Serve 1-2 lemon and 1-2 regular ice cubes with each glass of iced tea.

Note: Lemon and water may be sweetened to taste before freezing, if desired.

ACTIVITY NEEDED IN CITY AND SCHOOL
ELECTION CAMPAIGNS

The city council has set September 9th the date for the election to decide whether Des Moines shall retain the manger-council plan of government. The board of the Independent School District has fixed the same date for the election of three members of the board.

These two taxing bodies spend most of the taxpayers' money in Des Moines; they also hire more people. Thus, what form of government Des Moines shall live under is at stake; the direction the school board will follow depends greatly on who is elected.

So far, there is no activity among Negroes in either campaign. And yet here is an opportunity to use the ballot to get something done in two governmental agencies which have not and do not come near offering and giving equal employment.

The employment record by the city of Des Moines is miserable. In fact, except in the police department, Negroes hold but two jobs above that of an ordinary clerk. Whenever a Negro retires from the street or garbage department he is not replaced by another Negro. The atmosphere of the fire department and its allies has successfully flunked every Negro who has taken the examination.

The independent School District does a pretty good job in the employment of teachers but in maintenance, not so well.

These taxing bodies need to be dealt with during the election—not after it is over. Other groups, with far less voting strength, hold many important city posts because they make their votes count.

Negroes must pool their strength in the election if there is to be a change. For this reason, the Bystander suggests a meeting of parties interested in improving the lot of Negroes in Des Moines and recognize that some positive action must be taken to see that the situation is corrected.

PEOPLE MUST HAVE A CHANCE TO TRAIN

In an effort to cooperate in the program of President Kennedy to improve the employment status of Negroes, some companies are in the process of recruiting Negro employees and have expressed concern over their inability to find trained people.

We are not surprised; the recruiters should not be surprised if they are acquainted with the apprenticeship training offered Negroes heretofore and their exclusion from jobs thus robbing youngsters of an incentive to train for better jobs. People without training can't be just dropped in jobs without it with the exception of making good.

An excellent example of this is the lack of bartenders in Des Moines today. Iowa has not had legal liquor for forty years and since it did come July 4th, spots serving drinks have had a difficult time finding help to prepare and serve them. The first weeks have found service slow and poor.

These companies must hire people and permit them to work up. It takes more time but will work out in the end.

Negroes must remember that trained workers are needed to run any institution—any plant. They must be willing to start wherever opportunity offers a chance, do a good job and seek promotions.

Just as they are seeking new employees they must be willing to promote those who show progress and a desire to improve that lot.

The program calls for cooperation from both sides to make it work. However training is needed as well as incentive.

To Our Readers

News from out-of-town correspondents should reach the Bystander no later than Wednesday morning. If you can possibly get your news in earlier the staff would greatly appreciate it.

Our annual trip to the Iowa open tennis meet in Cedar Rapids was a rather interesting experience. There was this guy from Jamaica, Lance-lot Lumsday, who won the Men's singles, shared the men's doubles title and was runnerup in the mixed doubles. He plays on the Jamaican Davis cup team and is here in Iowa as a guest of his men's doubles partner.

Clara Johnson

His winning the thing caused mixed reactions; most of the kids swamped him with autograph requests. But the older folks just sort of mumbled because nothing like this had ever happened before. A top tennis player who wasn't white. Some of them were just getting over the shock seeing Esther Myers almost win the Women's title a couple of years ago. Then there was a girl, Clara Johnson of Iowa City, who played a good match but lost in the women's singles. Miss Johnson and Lumsday both played mixed doubles but not together. This caused some raised eyebrows and mixed comment, but again the kids thought nothing of it.

To yours truly that was just about the most important feature of the meet. Oh yea, our poker players dreamed up a whole lot of new games and we were hard pressed to get our gas money. Almost didn't make it.

Hotentots

Here at home the Hotentots playing on three straight nights finished second in the city meet and now enter the sub state. The fellows had to play Friday, Saturday and Sunday and with their limited pitching staff did well.

Hilltop Open

Our Hilltop Tennis Open starts this week with a large entry and people from several states. This meet could be the biggest around here with a little support. The thing has become established and some players arrange their schedules to fit it into their plans so it is being looked forward to by a lot of people. More than most of us realized.

Boxing

So the Senate committee is going to investigate the promotion firm of Sonny Liston and will also look into the rematch clause of championship fight contracts. Wonder what they will come up with and when the bill which places boxing under federal control will be passed.

Negroes Again
Swim at Omaha

Omaha, Neb. — About a dozen young Negroes swam without incident Sunday at Peony Park, the privately owned amusement park that has been the scene of Negro anti-discrimination demonstrations.

Most of the youths were members of the Youth Council of the Omaha chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. They said they encountered no threats or open hostility.

Graveside Rites Held
For Mrs. Stapleton

Graveside services for Mrs. Emma Stapleton, 76, were held at 10 a.m. Saturday in Laurel Hill cemetery. She died Thursday, July 25 at Brown Nursing home, 1039 Harding road after a six-year illness.

Born in Missouri, Mrs. Stapleton had lived in Des Moines 42 years and was a member of Mt. Olive Baptist church.

Surviving are four nieces and two nephews.

Bishop Orders
Desegregation

Baton Rouge, La. — Desegregation of four Roman Catholic high schools in East Baton Rouge Parish county) will begin in 1964.

Bishop Robert Emmett Tracy of the Baton Rouge Diocese made the announcement Sunday. He said the eleventh and twelfth grades will be integrated.

Public schools of the parish are to begin accepting Negro twelfth-grade students this fall under a Federal Court order.

Just North of Freedom

Sojourner Truth

Here I am, one mile above sea level in the Rocky Mountains in Colorado. This is the first time my family has gone west for a vacation. Mother is supposed to relax. No cooking, no dishes, no television and NO TELEPHONE! My husband was a little concerned about the amount of gear and junk our compact station-wagon would have to pull up the mountains. It was my Iowa "soapbox" he flatly refused to haul to Colorado.

How do you explain to a husband that the "soapbox" would have made me tall enough on the mountain-top to look out and see what was happening in my home town last Saturday at the Legislative Rally. Did the Deltas really turn out in person at 10 a.m. or did they go to their respective hairdressers? Did Des Moines respond in spirit required by the times? Did we really let Mrs.

Medgar Evers know we are pulling our share of the load? Did we let Mrs. Rose Johnson and her co-workers know that every ounce of energy to make the Rally possible was well-spent?

Should the response not be up to our need and expectations, it is well to remember that Des Moines isn't all of Iowa. There will be another opportunity for us to try again. Iowa does not belong on the side of the Dixiecrats.

Guess what! We are staying at "Mrs. Murphy's Boarding house." "Mrs. Murphy" is doing nicely. The Dixiecrats don't speak for even all the "Mrs. Murphys."

Let us stand with conviction and confident that what we believe is right and just. There are many yet to be found standing with us if we are not running ourselves, without faith, to compromise.

Send Yours Today

Open Letter to D.M. Negroes

This Letter is directed to all Negroes, even the few hundred that attended the Civil Rights Meeting and subsequent parade Saturday, July 27. Those of you that attended are not being commended for going. It was your duty to be present.

Thank God you saw fit to honor your own obligation. Last Thursday the Bystander headlined this event, pamphlets were sent out, and spot radio announcements were made also.

But to those of you who did not take time to go, words are hard sought to express my feelings. This affair was more important than anything else that you might have been doing that day.

Even those of you that were scheduled to work that day should have appealed to your employers for time off to attend. I am sure that you would have been surprised at his understanding and response. What are you waiting for to arouse you? To help your race is mans biggest obligation. When you do this, you are helping yourself.

Let's not forget our children, who we love dearly. We owe them a better life. We need better jobs, segregated housing, and more freedom of movement, in Des Moines. Let's not shirk our duty. Attend these meetings in the future, participate in everything that may help our cause. It is your cause and your children's cause too. Never forget that united we stand, divided we fall.

INTEGRATIONISTS TO DEMAND
EQUAL TIME ON SOUTHERN TV

New York—The Federal Communications Commission will launch an investigation of integrationists' claims they are not getting equal time to present their views on Southern television, The Insider's Newsletter reported today.

Meredith News Coverage

The first blow expected to be struck will be news of an earlier, hushed-up Federal probe of Mississippi's radio and TV coverage of James Meredith's admission to the University of Mississippi last fall.

The Newsletter said hat complaints were filed and a report prepared last year, but public hearings were postponed at the request of hard-pressed Department of Justice officials, fearful that FCC action would lead to more trouble.

Complaints Basis

Complaints against Southern stations are based on the FCC doctrine which holds that when a station editorializes on any controversial subject, the opposing view is entitled to a fair hearing over the air. Mississippi broadcasters have answered demands for equal time by claiming there are no integrationists in the state.

Teen-Age Gripe

Last night my boy friend came over to sit and watch television with me. We thought for once, we'd be alone, gay, happy and free.

But our dreams went floating away as Mother, the parlor walked through.

And then my Dad came stomping by as if on a given cue.

I remember when Ma used to tell us about the parlor that they once had.

It was cut off from everything in the house, away from their Mother and Dad.

They could sit and laugh and enjoy themselves in their secluded spot. But now-a-days when anyone comes, through the parlor they most trot.

Oh, my friends, you'll never know how that parlor I long for.

For now-a-days, to be alone has become a tedious chore.

—by Elaine Sayles, St. Paul, Minn.

Laugh Lines

A prim little old lady was telling her friend about her awful shock upon finding two empty whiskey bottles in her garbage can. "You can imagine my embarrassment," she said. "I got them out fast because I didn't want the garbage man to think I drink."

"What did you do with them?" inquired her friend.

"Well, the minister lives next door," was the reply, "so I put them in his garbage can; everybody knows he doesn't drink!"
