Ferguson, Former Ia.U. Football Captain, Injured Under Federal Court Order But Without Fanfare or Previous Undue Incidents

Bulletin—A second charge of involuntary homicide was filed against Larry Ferguson in connection with a car accident near Chicago, Ill.

Chicago, Ill.—Larry Ferguson, halfback with the Detroit Lions, was hospitalized from injuries sustained in an auto collision Saturday night in which a women passenger was killed.

Ferguson, 23, a former All-American star with the State University of Iowa, was reported doing well at suburban Chicago Heights hospital. He suffered abrasions around the head and contusions of the right shoulder. Ferguson also was Captain of the Hawkeye football team.

Ferguson was thrown from the car he was driving in a near-head-on collision in rural Park Forest.

Killed in the mishap was Mrs. Renee Birch, 21, of Chicago. Her husband, Frederick, was injured. Also injured was Jerry Foster, 24, of Madison, Ill., a passenger in the Ferguson car.

Ferguson, also of Madison, told police he was headed for Chicago to see about an off-season job in boys' camp in Ottawa, Ill. He was charged with improper lane usage.

During the past several years, Ferguson has been plagued with injuries, having broke his left in the first game of the 1961 SUI football season and also bears a scar on his right forehead from a previous injury.

Wilkins: Putting Voters on Books Is Main 1964 Task

New York—For the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People "the most important basic task of 1964 is putting names on the voting books," Roy Wilkins, the Association's executive secretary, asserts in a memorandum dispatched to all state and local NAACP units throughout the country.

Every unit of the Association is called upon to begin its registration campaign now. "Do not wait until three weeks before election time," Wilkins admonishes.

Politicians

Politicians pay close attention to any change in registration figures, the memorandum, sent out on Jan. 3, says. "By increasing registration totals early in the year, you may very possibly influence the policies of parties and candidates this year, not in 1965. You can influence voting records of congressmen, all of whom must be elected next November."

Next November

Moreover, Wilkins' call to action points out, "with a built up registration, you will be ready next November to campaign for the defeat of all those who vote against the civil rights bill in Congress."

While not neglecting the South, the campaign will place "special emphasis on the under-registered northern cities and towns. There are at least a half-million, perhaps even a full million, Negro citizens of voting age in the North who are not registered," the memorandum asserts.

Other Points

"Under stimulus of the election year," the Wilkins memorandum points out, "we should multiply many times our 1963 total of 82,733 new registrations by NAACP workers. In addition, 108,313 persons were quali-

NAACP ENLARGES NATIONAL STAFF

New York—Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins this week announced the appointment of four persons to the NAACP national staff and the promotion of another to a newly created position.

Miss Mildred Bond, formerly the Association's life membership secretary, has been named administrative assistant in the Executive Secretary's office. A graduate of New York and Columbia universities, Miss Bond also studied at the University of Paris and the University of Mexico. She originally joined the NAACP staff as field secretary in 1945.

She was replaced last year as life membership secretary by Morris M. DeLisser who has had extensive sales experience in private industry.

Bar Admits Negroes

Fort Worth, Tex.—Members of the Fort Worth-Tarrant County Bar Association approved a resolution Friday that will permit admission of Negro lawyers to membership.

NEWS In A Nutshell

New York—Jackie Robinson, former Dodger slugger and now vice president of the Chock Full 'O Nuts Food chain and his wife, spent six days at Kingston, Jamaica as guest of the Jamaican government.

Atlanta, Ga.—While other Americans joyfully celebrated Christmas in their homes, Mrs. Lillian Gregory, pregnant wife of nationally famous comedian Dick Gregory was languishing in an Atlanta city jail after her arrest on Christmas Eve for participating in an anti-segregation sit-in demonstration at the Toddle House restaurant.

Little Rock, Ark.—Perry Johnson, who was said to be 113 years old, was found dead last week in the yard behind his home.

New York—Harlem tenants who have refused to pay rent because of what they call unlivable and dangerous housing conditions brought dead rats into a courtroom last week to prove their point. Rats were brought to the entrance to civil court by two dozen angry Harlem apartment dwellers in an attempt to dramatize eviction proceedings brought against them by their landlord.

Denver, Colo.—A 40-year-old man Dec. 27 marked the end of his first week with a pair of transplanted baboon kidneys in his body. The patient was not identified at Colorado General hospital.

Atlanta, Ga.—Anti-segregation demonstrations led by comedian Dick Gregory, forced closure of at least five Dobbs House restaurants Monday, Dec. 8 during a day long sit-in campaign. No one was arrested.

Tallahassee, Ala.—Dr. Herman H. Long, director of the race relations department, United Church of Christ, became the ninth president of Talladega College on Jan. 1.

Detroit, Mich.—A group of 60 Negro leaders began a search last week for candidate for the City Council seat vacated by Councilman William T. Patrick on Jan. 1.

Pasadena, Calif.—A Negro float, sponsored by the Centennial Rose Parade Committee, was among other floats typifying the "Four Freedoms" entered in the Rose Bowl Parade here Jan. 1.

Evreux, France—Two American Negro soldiers were convicted of unpremeditated murder last week in the death of a white U. S. airman in a barracks brawl at the U. S. Air Force Base here. Sentence will be fixed later.

To Enter New Hampshire Race

Grady O'Cummings III, chairman of the National Civil Rights Party, said in New York he would enter New Hampshire's Mar. 10 primary in quest of the Democratic presidential nomination. O'Cummings, 34, a Negro, said he wants to "focus attention on the civil rights fight in this country." He is editor and publisher of an east Harlem weekly newspaper, "New York Speakout."

Auburn, Ala.—Without fanfare or undo incident, the first Negro enrolled Saturday at Auburn university for the first time in the 113-year-old history of the institution. In the same quiet manner and amosphere he attended his first class Monday.

The young man who brought about the history making event is Harold A. Franklin, 31-year-old graduate student. His first class was in Russian.

The Air Force veteran did not finish high school. He attended Alabama State College at Montgomery after taking an entrance examination in lieu of a diploma.

Seek Volunteers

University authorities withheld comment on whether Franklin was assigned to a dormitory area with white students or whether he was put on a floor by himself.

It was learned, however, that volunteers among the white students in the dormitory were asked to move into rooms near Franklin. Some reportedly agreed.

The volunteer approach was designed to surround Franklin with students less likely to be antagonistic.

No Interviews

Franklin declined to talk with reporters about his feelings, his court-ordered admittance to the university and the dormitory, or his planned activities.

"I'm not sure what I'm going to do," he told a reported by telephone. Newsmen were barred from all campus buildings.

Franklin, 31, registered Saturday together with other graduate students in the new university library which faces Auburn's main street.

Crowd

A crowd of about 100 white students stood in light rain across the street at the back entrance to the ultra-modern library building. Some jeered. Others laughed as Franklin walked alone.

He had walked to the library from Magnolia Hall, one of the men's dormitories where he was given quarters under a federal court order requiring the university to allow him to live on the campus.

200 Jailed at Chapel Hill, N. C. Scene of First Major Racial Struggle in New Year

Chapel Hill, N. C.—Chapel Hill, N. C. long known as a mecca of southern liberalism and site of the University of North Carolina, has become the scene of a bitter racial clash involving efforts of the Chapel Hill CORE group to integrate over 25 public establishments which do not admit Negroes. After fruitless negotiations, Chapel Hill CORE began demonstrations over two weeks ago involving sit-ins and mass marches.

Over 200 demonstrators have been arrested and charged with disorderly conduct and resisting arrest. Fifteen

Sniped Shot

In a parallel action, some 30 miles south in Sanford, N. C., a 15-year-old Negro girl was shot in the leg by an unseen sniper during a protest march led by Chapel Hill CORE leader John Dunne. Efforts to end outright segregation in the Chapel Hill area will continue indefinitely until a satisfactory settlement is in hand.

Reinstates Beer License to Empire Club Here Monday

The City Council Monday voted 5 to 0 to reinstate the beer permit of the Empire club, 790 12th street.

The club, operated by Robert Edmonds, had its beer limit revoked two weeks ago by a 3-2 council vote, and last week the council refused to reconsider its original action.

Robert Wright, Edmonds' attorney, last Monday, Dec. 30 had asked reconsideration because, he said, he had "some new evidence" to present.

The council, which voted to revoke the permit after being presented "confidential reports," indicating that Edmonds didn't own or operate the business, told Wright to present the new evidence in affidavit form which he did.

Wright indicated last week that the new evidence he would present showed that no person other than Edmonds has an interest in the Empire Room.

Trailways Agree to Employ 16 Negro Drivers in March

Philadelphia—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has secured a pledge from the Trailways Bus Company, one of the nation's largest, to take on 16 Negro drivers when hiring is resumed in March.

The agreement was reached last week at a conference attended by representatives of the local NAACP branch, headed by President Cecil B. Moore, and officials of the bus company.

Plans

Earlier, in New York City, Safeway Trails, a division of the nation-wide Trailways system, announced plans to "aggressively seek Negroes and other minority group members as employees."

A spokesman said that the line initially plans to hire nine Negro drivers, six ticket agents, six mechanics, four or five information clerks and additional porters in New York City.

Following the agreement here, Mr. Moore called off a boycott of Trailways initiated Dec. 7.

N. Y. Runs

A company spokesman said the men to be hired would be employed on the New York-Washington runs.

In the effort to break the discriminatory hiring practices of Trailways, 30 members of the NAACP were arrested December 15 when they picketed the company's terminal.

Clash

When the demonstrators were brought into court, charged with standing in front of Trailways buses, blocking them, the magistrate clashed angrily with Moore, who is also an NAACP attorney.

Obviously referring to Mr. Moore's successful leadership in pressing for civil rights advances for the past two years, Magistrate John P. Walsh told Mr. Moore, "You've been getting away with murder."

Northwestern Bell In Year's Report

Northwestern Bell is planning the largest construction program in Iowa telephone history. T. S. Nurnberger, vice-president and general manager of the company, said the $36,500,000 program for 1964 involves improvements and expansion of service in most of the 225 cities and towns which the company serves and improved long distance facilities for them and for hundreds of the independent telephone companies of the state.

The 1964 program follows a year of significant progress—a $31,500,000 construction program that added 25,700 telephones to the system, stormproofed lines on 2,300 miles of route and made service improvements for thousands of individual customers throughout the state.

In the Des Moines area telephones in service have increased from 97,752 ten years ago, to 152,630 at the end of 1963. During 1963, 5302 telephones were added.

The year's end saw a start on one of the biggest projects in the company's history, a $4,000,000 addition to the telephone office building at Tenth and High streets in Des Moines scheduled for completion in 1965. The added space, to house telephone people now in rented quarters in several locations throughout the city, will make it the largest office building in Iowa.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Much Ado About Something

At least once or twice a month some starry-eyed citizen comes forward and proposes to hold funeral rites for an ancient and malevolent disease. The notion that tuberculosis has been "conquered" and now belongs wholly to the past is such a tempting one that some people are reluctant to let mere medical facts stand in its way.

Facts

Yet the medical facts are there, and so are the public health statistics: more than 50,000 new cases and nearly 10,000 deaths from TB in the United States every year. Fortunately, there are still plenty of people aware of this not altogether rosy picture, and eager to do something about it. Even a cursory look at some of their activities shows that vigorous action is being taken against this disease.

Campaign

In Indianapolis, for instance, a group of dedicated people working through their local tuberculosis association recently carried out an intensive campaign of neighborhood chest X-ray examinations, during which more than 5,500 persons availed themselves of this form of TB checkup. In Kentucky an emergency fund was established so that indigent TB patients could get free transportation to and from clinics and hospitals.

Others

In Essex County, Mass., public health nurses were given a five-week education program on problems related to tuberculosis. And down in the Southwest a "Resource Manual for Tuberculosis Control in Arizona" was published by hard-nosed TB fighters in the redoubtable state. The list of such vigorous anti-TB activities around the country could be expanded almost at will.

All of which invites two conclusions: that there is still far too much TB around, and that enough people still know it and are concerned about it to justify hopes of ultimate, though far from immediate, victory for our side.

New Upside Down Cherry Bran Bread

Cherry Bran Bread is no ordinary quick bread. It's chock-full of red maraschino cherries, fine 100 per cent whole bran and pecans. But, its delicious caramel-like cherry nut upside down topping makes it a truly distinctive bread.

A mixture of cherries, nuts, butter and brown sugar is spread in the bottom of the baking pan and covered with cherry bran batter. When the bread is baked, it is turned from the pan and cooled upside down so the cherry-nut mixture becomes a tempting topping.

To prevent quick breads from cracking on the top, try this trick of food experts. Be careful not to overmix the batter and cover the loaf pan with an inverted bread pan or cover with aluminum foil. At the end of 20 minutes of baking, remove pan or foil and continue baking.

Cherry Bran Bread

Topping:
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
¼ cup light brown sugar
Melt butter or margarine in bottom of loaf pan and sprinkle brown sugar, cherries and nuts evenly over bottom of pan. Let stand while mixing the bread.

Batter:
2½ cups sifted all-purpose flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
¾ cup sugar
½ teaspoon salt
1 egg, beaten
1¼ cups milk
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
1 cup whole bran
½ cup chopped maraschino cherries
¼ cup chopped nuts

Sift together flour, baking powder, sugar and salt. Combine egg and milk and stir into dry ingredients. Add melted butter or margarine, whole bran, cherries and nuts and mix until well blended. Pour into the prepared pan and bake in moderate oven (350°F.) for 1 hour to 1 hour and 10 minutes. Remove at once from pan onto rack. Cool before slicing. Yield: 1 loaf.

Built-In Kitchen Ranges

from SMALL HOMES GUIDE

Today an oven can be tucked into a wall of the kitchen and located at the height that is most convenient. Burner units can be as close to or as far away from the oven as the housewife desires. Built-in ranges, in either gas or electric models make this possible. They offer more flexible kitchen planning, allow the creation of the type of cooking center best suited to the individual's work habits.

The picture at left shows two electric ovens and a warming drawer located on one side of the kitchen. Opposite is the four burner and griddle surface unit. An important safety device is the controls on top of the unit and out of the youngsters' reach. Griddle top swings down when griddle is not in use.

Pictured here is a built-in oven and electric model burner unit placed side-by-side. Burners are built into a counter-top which means storage space close at hand. A split-burner arrangement affords in-between work space. Oven has anodized copper finish on the door. Also available in stainless steel or baked enamel.

Turn breakfast into an event—serve hot Jiffy Coconut Ring with butter or margarine and marmalade.

In just about the time it takes to turn out a batch of rolled biscuits, you can also make this Jiffy Coconut Ring.

Made from a biscuit dough, the simple coffee cake has the glamorizing touch of a luscious coconut, brown sugar and nut filling. Appealing also is the ring into which you shape the coffee cake.

When you bake or buy products made with enriched flour, you gain a nutritional advantage of three B vitamins and food iron. Breads are just one part of a healthy breakfast. They fit right in with fruit or fruit juice, milk, eggs or meat, and enriched, restored or whole grain cereals.

Your baker's enriched breads are stand-bys for good breakfasting, too. Enriched white bread is almost indispensable for toast. Make a point to add occasional variety to the morning fare with raisin, cinnamon or whole wheat bread and with sweet rolls and coffeecakes.

JIFFY COCONUT RING

2 cups sifted enriched flour
1 tablespoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup sugar

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Cut or rub in shortening until mixture is crumbly. Combine egg and milk and add to flour mixture, stirring only enough to moisten flour. Turn out on lightly floured board or pastry cloth and knead gently 30 seconds. Roll out to rectangle 1/4 inch thick. Brush with melted butter or margarine and sprinkle with Coconut Filling. Roll up like jelly roll, sealing edge. Form into ring on lightly greased baking sheet. With scissors cut through ring almost to center, in slices about 1 inch thick. Turn adjoining slices of dough in opposite directions and stand on end. Bake in moderately hot oven (400 degrees Fahrenheit) 20 minutes.

Coconut Filling

2 tablespoons enriched bread crumbs
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine

Combine all ingredients and mix until well blended. Makes 1 coffee cake.

Now that we are limping well along into the first month of the New Year we will give you a few new nibbles of the goings-on of the past few days, and those who are looking forward to a generous helping of life's blessings in 1964.

We had a talk with Mrs. Charles (Dorothy) Cherry, 842 16th street, and she told us her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Uzodenma of Iowa City, Ia., are expecting double blessings some time this month. They are expecting twins. Mrs. Cherry has been keeping two other children for the Uzodenmas until the birth of the babies.

Mrs. Cherry, who has four daughters, says her daughter is head of the pediatrics department at University hospital there.

Mrs. LeRoy Slaughter, 1056 11th street, noted that Christmas was "a little lonely" for her and her husband this time. The reason: it was the first Christmas the couple have had without any of their children with them.

If you saw the halftime performance last Sunday of the Florida A & M 132-piece marching band on television, it must have done your heart good, as it did ours, to see such a sleek, fast-stepping, precision group and know you were looking at a band that has won international acclaim. They performed for the N.F.L. Playoff Bowl game held at the Orange Bowl in Miami, Fla.

By the way in case you don't know it, either, the director of the band is William P. (Pat) Foster, formerly of Kansas City, Kans.

While we are on the subject, seeing the FAMU band made us think of a former teacher of ours back at Lincoln University (Mo.) (Mrs. Thelma Thurston Gorham, also a native of Kansas City, Mo., but who is head of the Public Relations department at FAMU now.

Two days later we had a newsletter from her bringing us up to date about the activities and experiences of herself and son, Darryl.

With some amusement and a lot of pride Mrs. Stanley Proctor, 1111 11th street, was recalling some of the antics of her grandchildren, who with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Long II of Knoxville, Tenn., spent Christmas holidays in Des Moines.

The family arrived here about five days before Christmas when the thermometer was down about 10 degrees below zero. And of course the snow was real deep, something the Long children had not seen in their lives and they were itching to get out in it and have a good time.

However, when the Longs left the temperature had dropped to an almost record low in Tennessee and of course, soon after their return, they had quite a bit of snow of their own to brag about.

While they were in Des Moines the youngest, Matthew III celebrated his third birthday on Dec. 29 and kept worrying his parents and grandparents about his birthday cake. When he finally got that and had blown out the candles, he turned and inquired about where the kids were. He knew from previous experiences of birthdays for his sisters that a lot of children were supposed to be there.

He finally was appeased when he was promised that he would have a big birthday party with all the trimmings on his next birthday.

We try to avoid it, but every now and then we leave the wrong impression without intending to do so. We did just that in our story about the 11-13 year-olds of the Jack and Jill, Inc. The party was given by the group at the home of the Atty. Robert Wrights.

The two mothers who chaperoned the attending members and guests were Mesdames Turner Bell, 680 27th street and Mrs. Wright.

Had a call from Mrs. Ralph Parker, 1326 DeWolf who informed us that activities and plans are getting underway for the 1964 presentation of Potential Debs. Unlike last year the event will not be sponsored by a club this year, but by a committee, as yet unnamed, of parents of previous Potential Debs and other interested civic adults and teenagers whose sole activity will be to promote the event annually.

The age group will be changed to 14 through 16 this year and Mrs. Parker has hopes of eventually working up to the Debutantes in a few years.

A definite date will be announced later for a meeting with parents of previous Potential Debs and the interested adults who wish to be associated with the committee in promoting the event, which also is non-profit. The event also is open to persons of all races.

When one Des Moines resident checked the calendar and noted that 1964 is a Leap Year, he commented "That's one extra day of the year we won't get paid for." Since we know he gets paid every two weeks we were at a loss to figure out the future loss in pay. Maybe you can figure it out.

Des Moines youngsters who got skates, sleds and toboggans for Christmas were mighty pleased to see the Christmas day mild weather turn back to icy winter a few days later.

Our oldest son was among those who got a chance to try out skates at the natural rink at Good Park where Cecil Brewton was kept busy watching after skaters especially those who couldn't resist, either out of forgetfulness or a mischievous urge, slamming the door of the hut where a pot-bellied stove was going red hot to warm skaters as they came in and out of the cold.

Other youngsters in our family enjoyed themselves with various occupations. Venita, our oldest girl, who

SENATOR GOLDWATER WOULD SINK THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

Senator Barry Goldwater of Arizona, as was expected, announced Friday that he is a candidate for the Republican nomination for President. This brought good news to the conservative element of the party. Those people interested in the Republican party take no encouragement from the announcement in that the Senator, while a brilliant, successful business man preaches doctrines which will alienate the independent and liberal voter.

Registration figures show that there are millions more Democrats registered than Republicans. This means that if the Republican party expects to win, it must secure a majority of the independent votes. Senator Goldwater cannot.

And it is no consolation to have a clear cut ballot of a conservative and liberal representing their respective parties.

The Bystander hopes that delegates to the Republican convention in San Francisco will recognize that the platform Senator Goldwater offers certainly alienates the liberal voter, also the Negro voter. He believes and so states that the matter of segregation and civil rights generally should be left to the states for solution. That is what has happened for almost a hundred years after emancipation with the result that the states thickly populated with Negroes went backward rather than forward on civil rights. Some other states made progress but it was only after the federal government, including the Supreme Court, moved ahead did results follow.

It is said that the government does for the people what they cannot do for themselves; it also does for people what they won't do themselves.

The Republican party cannot win with Senator Goldwater and it would be a mistake for the future of the party if he headed the ticket.

GOV. HUGHES MOVES BACKWARD IN JOB OPPORTUNITY

Governor Norman Erbe appointed the first Negro, William Parker, to the position in Iowa requiring senate confirmation. The post was that of membership on the Board of Parole. Parker performed well on the job and both he and Governor Erbe were congratulated and deserved commendation.

Last fall, Parker was elected judge of the Municipal Court in Waterloo. The board of parole consists of three people; only two people can be members of the same party. Parker was the only Republican on the board and under the law Governor Hughes was bound to name a Republican to succeed him.

Governor Hughes has been making some good speeches about equal opportunity and racial justice. Here, he had a clear opportunity to put into practice what he has preached. But instead of appointing a Negro to serve Parker's unexpired term, he chose to ignore his beautiful talk and appoint a white member.

The Bystander recognizes fully and believes that there should be no such thing as a Negro job or certain jobs for a Negro only.

It certainly recognizes that Governor Hughes has a right to appoint whom he pleases to office. But in view of the fact that he has appointed no Negro to a position of responsibility, he has set the Negro back in Iowa. His words mean nothing, so far.

Governor Hughes has appointed many people to office since Parker's election. If he did not have in mind filling the parole board post by a Negro, he could have made one to another. Iowa has done a poor job placing Negroes in high jobs and when the first one appointed resigns, we hope, Governor Hughes does not do credit to Iowa or his party by reverting to the old cliché that Negroes need not be considered for high posts in government. His thinking is far behind the times.

Jimmy Brown Says Change of Coaches Helped His Football Success in Cleveland Last Year

Chicago, Ill.—Jimmy Brown, the player of the year in professional football this season, attributes some of his success to the change in coaches at Cleveland.

In a timely depth study in the January issue of Ebony magazine, Brown, the great Cleveland fullback, says he really has no hard feelings over his ex-coach Paul Brown, but adds: "Nobody is glad he's gone and nobody is sorry."

Muscleman

The 27-year-old muscleman (he packs 228 pounds on a 6 ft. 2 inch frame which tapers down to a 32-inch waist) does reveal in Ebony however that he felt coach Brown ran a mechanical club without any human element.

Jimmy Brown disclosed that once when he suffered a brain concussion in a pileup and spent a quarter on the bench "because I couldn't remember the plays," coach Brown thought the fullback was goldbricking. "He didn't seem to care if you lived or died, so long as you played," Jimmy Brown told Ebony.

No Pads

The team's clubhouse director Morris Kono describes Brown as being "a quiet fellow, sort of on the moody side."

Kono added that Brown never asks for special attention. "He didn't want any pads in his uniform the day he came to camp and he still doesn't wear 'em," Kono disclosed.

Never Asks

He added: "At the start of the season I hand him his stuff and that's it. He never asks for a thing. On a cold day you have to give him a coat. I don't even know if he wants it. He never takes a sip of water during a game. You never know if he's hurt. He doesn't complain. The guy was a spartan the day he showed up and he's exactly the same now."

Salary

The All-Pro fullback, who earns about $40,000 annually for his football duties with the Cleveland Browns, lives modestly in a $19,000 home in Cleveland, with his wife and three youngsters, including twins Kevin and Kim.

He has invested wisely in the stock market, the Ebony article points out, and notes that when his playing days are over Brown plans on moving to New York and continuing on a full-time basis as a marketing expert with a soft drink firm.

$250 Top For Seats In Title Fight

Miami Beach—For $250 you can get a good seat for the long-ballyhooed heavyweight fight between champion Sonny Liston and his gabby challenger, Cassius Clay. The place: Miami Beach Convention Hall. The time, Feb. 26.

Chris Dundee, Miami Beach promoter, who will co-stage the live production in Convention Hall, said he will scale the 16,000 plus seats to produce a gate of $1,300,000. The prime rows will be sold for $250 per seat, he said.

Rugs and carpets probably take more of a beating than any of your other home furnishings. However, there are several things you can do to make your carpets stay beautiful and last years longer—and save yourself the money it would cost to replace them.

Use an inexpensive carpet sweeper every day to pick up lint, crumbs and dirt from the surface of your carpet. A few minutes a day will keep dirt from being ground deeply into the carpet. Use a vacuum cleaner once a week. A good vacuum cleaner removes deep-down dirt, as well as surface material. When the carpet begins to look dull, use a rug shampoo to get rid of dirt that your vacuum cleaner can't get to. Modern rug shampoos require little work and are well worth the effort to keep your rugs and carpets beautiful. Once a year is the minimum for shampooing every carpet in the house.

What would you like to see happen during 1964?

We have made a list of the things we would like and some of them might. One of Chicago's all-Negro teams win the state and city basketball championship again.

★East Waterloo win the Iowa state cage title. Floyd Shade in a state wrestling crown. Clyde Duncan make the Olympics team. He has only to beat out about a thousand other hopefuls.

★Some of our eastern Negro schools in the Drake Relays. We would like to be in the stands during the all-Star pro-football game. The Dodgers and the Yanks play in the World Series again so we can find out if the Dodgers really were lucky or good.

★Esther Myers play in our state tennis meet provided she is in condition to do her best. Our Hilltop Meet twice as big as it was last year.

★The Hotentots win a state football title. Iowa have a winning football season. Would even settle for a five-four mark, Drake finish well up in the Missouri Valley cage race.

★Cassius Clay and Sonny Liston to fight but we don't know if we would want Clay to win or not.

★Floyd Patterson get back in the heavyweight picture again. (Why?).

★Sugar Ray Robinson retired for good.

★East or Tech high schools have an unbeaten football season.

★A play off game between the two football leagues.

★The Cleveland Browns get some help for Jimmy Brown. Everybody in the ball park know when he is going to carry the ball. It is a wonder he gains as much as he does. Some of our better Negro football teams tackle some of the white schools in their class.

★We would like to see the finals of the N.C.A.A. basketball meet.

★So much for that!

★Has any Negro ever made the Olympic wrestling team? We would like to see one make it.

★We would also like to see Arthur Ashe win the national tennis singles honor this year. Singles or doubles, it wouldn't matter.

★Now, we are through!

Jim Marshall, Minn. Viking, Shoots Self

Cleveland, Ohio—Jim Marshall, defensive end for the Minnesota Vikings of the National Football League, shot himself in the abdomen Sunday while unloading a revolver in his automobile. The 6-foot 4-inch, 235 linemen was reported in fair condition at Cleveland hospital where he underwent surgery for removal of the bullet.

Liston Talks

Denver—Sonny Liston, world's heavyweight boxing champion who will defend the crown against Cassius Clay in Miami, Feb. 26, was asked to comment on the bout last week and he did.

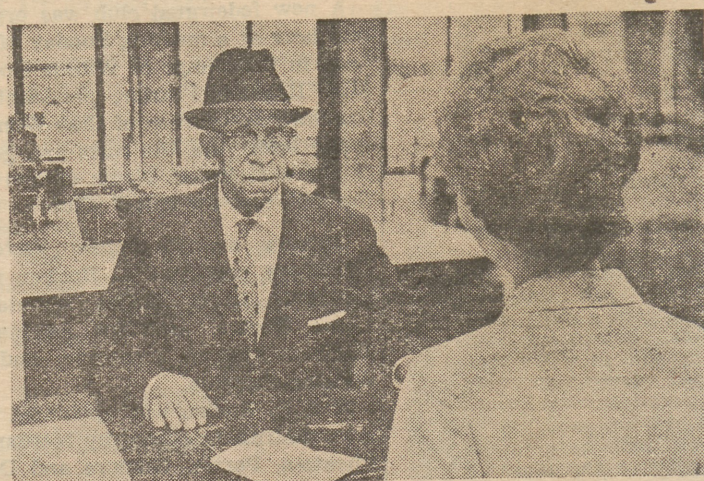

Said Liston: "I feel the same way about this fight as I did before the two Patterson fights, that I would win by a knockout. Sure Clay does a lot of talking, makes big promises, but can he fight? I am sure he will be unable to accomplish much, certainly not victory, when we meet for the title."

Negroes Offered Law Scholarship

New York—The State Association of Trial Lawyers has established a three-year law-school scholarship worth $3,600 to be given annually to a Negro.

The scholarship, to be known as the Thurgood Marshall award, was announced Thursday. Judge Marshall was formerly legal counsel of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Judge Marshall, now a United States Circuit Court of Appeals Judge, said at a news conference that large and small law firms are clamoring for qualified lawyers, and that he would say that "you could place 25

DEAR "J. B."

We are deeply moved by your editorial in the current issue of the BYSTANDER relative to our late father.

He held you, "J. B.", in the highest esteem, and was always pleased to hear me relate our visits at lunch together.

He passed away quietly and with many fond memories of the friendships that he had enjoyed over the years.

THE NEW YEAR

I shed the old year with a tear
I live in hope that the new will bring cheer

Saddened moments of the past
Often make me fear the task
Thinking back I had tried hard
Oh how I thank the Lord
Hoping now for better days
I accept this year without dismay

THIS YEAR, PRAY

This year let us pray... for common things:

For common peace, for peace has wings

To soar across high mountain-sides,
To find the fields where hate abides.
For common love, for love spreads far
To gather mankind, like a net,
Together in a common groove
Of happiness, without a threat.
For common homes where men they live

Quiet and content, and dare to bring
His inner dreams at close of day
And name them without whispering.
For a common Faith that beacons men
In peace and love beside His throne,
Humble, awakened, brothers all,
Never more lost... never more alone.
