Hundreds Arrested in Atlanta

26 Little Rock Students in Operation Friendship

Fourteen Ia. Churches Contribute $700 for 574-Mile Trip Here

Rev. James Harris, a Des Moines schoolteacher and minister, with his family toured the Southland last summer and somewhere along the way the germ of an idea began for bringing an interracial group of young people to Iowa for a weekend.

Last weekend that germ was full grown when 26 white and Negro boys and girls and five adult chaperones made the 575 mile trip by bus from Little Rock, Ark., to Des Moines and several other Iowa cities. The event was called "Operation Friendship" and from all reports—was a resounding success.

$50 Each

Helping "Operation Friendship" come true were 12 Des Moines churches and one each from Pella and in Mason City, who contributed $50 each to pay transportation expenses of the guests from Little Rock. The visitors were guests in homes of church members during the weekend. They left Little Rock about 8:30 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 23 and arrived at Callanan Junior high school, Thursday morning, where Rev. Mr. Harris teaches. They spent the morning at the school, visiting classes and attending a school assembly.

Tour

After luncheon their hosts picked them up at school and then took the visitors on a tour of the state Capitol and Des Moines Tech high school.

Rev. Harris who preaches at Mt. Zion Baptist church in Mason City, was also assisted in planning the trip by the Arkansas Council of Human Relations. Outstanding Negro and white young people from Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist churches were selected.

Churches

Churches participating were Corinthian Baptist, Union Baptist, Grace Methodist, Indianola Heights Christian, Plymouth Congregational, Glen Echo Christian, Highland Park Christian, St. John's Lutheran, First Baptist, Westminster United Presbyterian, Central Presbyterian, East Side Christ & Missionary Alliance in Des Moines and First Baptist in Pella and Mt. Zion Baptist in Mason City.

Hosts

Among host families were Mr. and Mrs. Silas Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Redd, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Carter, Rev. and Mrs. James Harris, Rev. and Mrs. Seymour Gaines. —Photo courtesy of Des Moines Tribune.

A Follow-up Story on the Rev. Ernest White Family

By Frances E. Hawthorne
"Tell the people thank you for me please."

This was the simple but emotionally grateful request of the Rev. Ernest White, 1102 7th street, of this reporter earlier this week when he reported how various churches, organizations and individuals had come to the aid of his family after publication of a story telling of their needs last week.

"They really have been nice and we had a good response and many have pledged to help. I wish I could say it better, but please thank them for me," he said.

The followup story however had its distressing part, though. During the interview Rev. White unintentionally and without realizing he had done so, gave the wrong minister's name as the donor of the $15 check. It was Elder E. A. Tindrell of Mission Temple who had come forward with the check.

"I felt real bad about that because

Cedar Rapids Set Date for 'Mail-in' to Congressmen

Letters and post cards urging prompt passage of the Civil Rights bill in Congress will be sent to President Johnson, Senator E. B. Hickman, Senator Jack Miller and Iowans in the U. S. House of Representatives in a mass 'Mail-in' at the Cedar Rapids post office on Sunday, February 9th at 3 p.m.

Speakers on the brief 'Mail-in' program will be Reverend John I. Thomas, Rev. J. Robert McDonald, Rabbi Isaac Neuman, Dr. Francis W. Pritchard, and State Representative John M. Ely, Jr.

Sponsoring the letter-writing and 'Mail-in' campaign is the Emergency Coordinating Committee for Civil Rights, which was formed by eight concerned organizations in the Cedar Rapids-Marion area.

The committee recommends that citizens have their messages in hand at the 'Mail-in' calling on the President and Iowa Senators and Congressmen in Washington for speedy action on meaningful federal Civil Rights legislation.

Organizations represented on the Cedar Rapids Emergency Coordinating Committee for Civil Rights are: The Archdiocesan Council of Cath-

NEWS In A Nutshell

Hollywood, Calif.—A man who has been smoking since he was 13; who is a practical chain-smoker and who uses the cigaret as a trademark and gimmick to aid him in earning a lucrative living, is not likely to give up the habit easily. Yet, comedian Dick Gregory made that dramatic decision here recently.

New York—Robert G. Trott, of Teaneck, N. J., who has served in several key positions for CARE in New York headquarters and overseas, has been appointed mission chief in Israel.

Philadelphia, Penn.—Mrs. Ann D. Anderson, mother of the great contralto Marian Anderson, the first Negro to sing at the Metropolitan Opera House and recipient of 24 honorary degrees, died here last week.

Port Norris, N. J.—A 34-year-old oyster fisherman had the horrible experience of returning home from one of his trips and find his entire family of nine wiped out and his home completely destroyed by fire. He is David Daniel Johnson, who was working on an oyster boat in the Atlantic Ocean.

Denver.—When the K-Alpha corporation opened for business here last week, company officials said it made history as the first Negro-owned and operated electronics plant in the United States. K-Alpha, which will manufacture an electronics signaling device for rescue direction, was founded by Orville Slaughter, Jr., president, as the result of the disappearance of a young Air Force officer on a flight over the Pacific ocean in 1959.

Birmingham.—The slaying of one of six young Negroes who died here on Black Sunday, Sept. 15, was disposed of last week when a 16-year-old white youth was convicted of killing 13-year-old Virgil Ware. An all white jury found Larry Joe Sims, white, Eagle Scout, guilty of second degree manslaughter in Ware's killing which was an aftermath of the bombing of Sixteenth Street Baptist church in which four teenage Negro girls were killed. Another Negro youth was killed by a policeman the same day.

Miami, Fla.—"I'm delighted that Sonny Liston is moving into the neighborhood, and I want to go on record saying so," Lester Nelson of Miami was quoted as saying last week. Nelson had just learned that the world's heavyweight boxing champion has rented a house in the "white" section, a block away from him. Liston will live in the house until his Feb. 26 title fight with talkative Cassius Clay of Louisville.

Mrs. Novella Langford Honored as OB Tech.

In its story of women who were awarded certificates as obstetrical technicians at Iowa Lutheran Hospital, the Bystander failed to report and run the picture of Mrs. Novella Langford, 42, 1130 8th street. Mrs. Langford made the second highest rating in the class.

Demonstrators Defy Police, Lie Down in Street in Front of Restaurants

Atlanta, Ga.—"People have been creating a false image of Atlanta; so we want Atlanta to face a moment of truth." These are the words of Leon Cox, Georgia director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, in explaining the reason for the recent demonstrations that have resulted in more than 200 persons being jailed by policemen here.

Rumors

Despite action by city officials which declared all public places and facilities open to all races, there had been rumors in the past few months that all was not well with Atlanta's racial picture of perfect harmony. Many Negro leaders who had cooperated over the past several years with city officials and white civic leaders, had given fair warning that progress had not been made as promised, that the Negro citizenry would have no recourse except demonstrations in the streets, such as had taken place in Birmingham, Ala., and other Southern cities.

Younger Negroes

James Forman, executive secretary of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, representing the view of younger Atlantans, said "We plan demonstrations until all restaurants in Atlanta are open to Negroes. There are many instances of segregation in the city and for many long years people have tried to negotiate a settlement without success. Therefore mass action is necessary."

Another longtime Negro leader in the community, Atty. A. T. Walden, who was appointed to a municipal judgeship Monday, disagrees with Forman's viewpoint saying, "I am afraid there will be serious trouble or a real setback to progress unless the present disorders are stopped."

100 Arrested

On Monday, more than 100 Negroes were arrested by police. Many of the demonstrators participated in an around the block march, then lay down in front of restaurants and entwined arms and legs as police moved in to order them to move. Tuesday, about 60 demonstrators demanding a public accommodations law, met to sing and pray on the steps of City Hall. Miss Pratheia Hall, a leader of the group, read a statement to Mayor Ivan Allen, Jr., demanding an immediate end to segregation and discrimination in Atlanta.

In the wake of the trouble, Mayor Allen said: "We have made steady progress with some 12 major steps in the past three years. The overall record is ahead of that of any other Deep South city and equal to most other cities even in the balance of the nation."

Once a segregationist Allen has been pushing for non-discrimination in public accommodations since his

Race Relations

Sunday Set Feb. 9

Iowa Methodist churches will join others across the nation Feb. 9 in observance of Race Relations Sunday. Many churches will hold special services, including pulpit exchanges with pastors of other races. All are expected to receive an offering for the denomination's Negro colleges. Money collected in Iowa will go to Rust College, Holly Springs, Miss.

Rev. Seymour Gaines Participates in Drake U. Mid-Commencement; Son Gets Degree, Com.

Rev. Seymour Gaines, pastor of Union Baptist church, returned to the campus of his alma mater, Drake University Sunday afternoon, and participated in the mid-commencement and proudly watched as his oldest son, Bernard Thomas, received his degree and also second lieutenant commission in the U. S. Air Force.

Sharing the podium with commencement speaker, Dr. Ralph C. John, president of Simpson college, and Drake president, Henry G. Harmon, who conferred the degrees. Rev. Gaines gave the invocation.

Lt. Gaines achieved a signal honor at the school. He will leave Feb. 28 for Offutt Air Force Base, Omaha, Neb., (well-known Strategic Air Command base) where he will be a mathematician.

In addition Lt. Gaines will be married on Friday evening to Miss Sharon Tillman.

CORE Continue Drive for First Negro Meter Maid

Delegations from the local chapter of CORE have begun to make representations to officials at the Des Moines city hall to end racial exclusion of Negro women as meter maids. There have been no Negroes hired in this capacity since the program began in April 1959, though several qualified Negro women have applied when opening occurred.

Personnel Director

David M. Griffith, city personnel director, told the six-man delegation on Jan. 14, that he was unable to see how he could be charged with systematically excluding Negro women on racial grounds. Most of the discussion centered on the lack of written requirements for the job and the testing procedures.

A second formal delegations, on Jan. 24, included Dr. S. J. Williamson, a Des Moines psychologist. He pointed out that tests given by Griffith failed to measure necessary qualities for a meter maid.

3rd Delegation

On Jan. 27 a third delegation met with the administrative assistant for public safety. James Dalton explained that his department is responsible only for the objective report of its investigation into past employment, character references and police record, if any. The decision as to who is hired is not within the scope of the investigation, he said.

Mrs. Stanley Griffin, local CORE chapter chairman, reported that representatives will continue to visit with the new city manager, James Chenoweth, concerning the hiring of a Negro woman to fill the current vacancy on the meter maid staff.

PEOPLE YOU KNOW

Kenneth Johnson, YM Chef, Cited As 'Employer of Year'

By Frances E. Hawthorne

This is the first in a series of feature articles on "People You Know" who have interesting, or unusual hobbies, occupations or interests or have achieved some worthwhile citation or recognition in their lives.

(First in a Series)

Kenneth Johnson, 1424 E. 16th street, was named Y.M.C.A. "Employee of the Year" at the Y's all-employee Christmas party in late December. He was presented with a W. Lindberg, General Secretary, in recognition of sincere performance of his duties and his ability to work with others in the interest of the Y.M.C.A.

Kenny, as he is known to co-workers, has been chef in the Y.M.C.A. coffee shop for four years and has been cooking since he was 9 years old. As the youngest of six children in a motherless family in Quincy, Ill., he took his turn at K.P. duties—and liked it. While attending Quincy High school he was enrolled in the foods courses, and whipped up many a tasty dish.

In 1946 he came to Des Moines to attend Drake University and got a part-time job at Bishop's Cafeteria, later going to the Randolph Hotel, where he was second cook for 10 years. He still is enrolled as second semester junior at Drake, although cooking creeps in as a career. He was a M.P., stationed at Fort Custer, Mich., for two years; fourteen years ago he married the former Gertrude Crumb of Des Moines and now has two daughters, Sharmen, 12, and Kathy, 7.

"I'm going to complete work for that business and law degree some day," he says, "but this Y job is full time. I don't even have time for chess, tennis, table tennis or hunting. I just cook."

Undoubtedly that devotion to duty is one reason for his being acclaimed "Employee of the Year."

Enrolls at Clinton Junior College

Ray Lee, Jr., of Clinton, Ia., returned to his home after visiting his mother, Mrs. I. F. Lee, 1205 Sampson street, for two weeks and enrolled in Clinton Junior College to major in medical technology. He plans to take a year's internship at a hospital in Minnesota.

NAACP CLAIMS ERROR IN DANVILLE, VA., DECISION

Richmond, Va.—Claiming that a Danville court decision convicting 66 demonstrators arrested last summer was legally incorrect, the NAACP has filed a petition for a writ of error in the Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals.

The sentences by the Corporation Court of the City of Danville of both fines and jail terms followed conviction of the 66 on charges of parading without a permit, July 14 and July 28.

In an obvious attempt to thwart civil rights demonstrations a city ordinance was passed in Danville on July 10, 1963 requiring a permit for any kind of "parade" which the ordinance defined as any "march, ceremony, show, exhibition, pageant, or procession of any kind."

PARENT-CHILD RELATIONSHIPS CLASSES

Two adult education courses of special interest to parents will be offered starting Tuesday evening, Feb. 4, at North High School and Thursday evening, Feb. 6, at Franklin Junior High, co-sponsored by the Department of Adult Education, Des Moines Public Schools; the PTA Council, and the City-County Health Department.

The classes, a five-lesson series, on "Parent-Child Relationships," will be offered, at no charge, at North High and Franklin Junior High from 7:15 to 9:15 P.M. beginning Tuesday, Feb. 4. Walter Nutt will be the coordinator at North High and Robert E. Wilson at Franklin Junior High School.

Sees Increased Negro Protests

Atlantic City, N. J.—Racial demonstrations will increase in 1964, says the executive director of the National Council of Churches' Committee on Religion and Race.

The Rev. Dr. Robert W. Spilke of New York City told an assembly of the United Church of Christ Sunday that 1963 brought to the Negro "a new self-appreciation of his worth and power."

Heretofore, he said, "the Negro deep down has believed himself to be inferior," but now "thousands of young Negroes are . . . no longer afraid of us."

election with the help of a large Negro vote. Negroes comprise 40 per cent of the city's population and about the same percentage of the vote.

Background

Mrs. Terrell served two terms, totaling 11 years, on the Washington Board of Education between 1895 and 1911. A much sought after speaker and consultant, she was a delegate to the International Congress of Women at Berlin in 1904, represented the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom at the League for Peace meeting at Zurich in 1919, and as late as 1937 addressed the World Fellowship of Faiths in London. A Republican politically, Mrs. Terrell served the Republican National Committee as supervisor of work among colored women in the eastern states from 1920 to 1936.

A distinguished lecturer, who spoke both French and German fluently, Mrs. Terrell was also an author of some note. Her numerous articles appeared in publications throughout America and abroad. Her only book, an autobiography, "A Colored Woman in a White World," was published in 1940.

charitable projects administered by NACWC, including its National Scholarship Fund, according to Dr. Gragg.

1st Leader

In selecting Dr. Terrell as its honoree, the Association chose the person who is generally considered to be the nation's first Negro woman leader in the civil rights movement. Dr. Terrell gained national prominence as early as 1896, when she helped found and was named president of NACWC. During the late 1940's and early 1950's, while an octogenarian, she was still active, picketing the then segregated hotels, restaurants, and theaters of Washington, D. C. and providing leadership in the effort to desegregate public schools in the Nation's Capital. She died in 1954 at the age of 90.

NAACP Asks Final Decree On Eight Year Alabama Ban

Washington—In a brief filed with the United States Supreme Court on Jan. 23, the NAACP seeks a final resolution of an eight-year-old Alabama injunction which has barred the Association from operating in that state.

Argument on the case, tentatively set for March 5, marks the fourth time the NAACP has appealed to the Supreme Court for relief from the Alabama ban. Inaction in the state courts and questions of jurisdiction as between state and federal courts have required NAACP attorneys to return to Washington again and again.

Attorneys

Heading the battery of NAACP lawyers filing the petition is Robert L. Carter, the Association's general counsel. Associated with him are his assistant, Mrs. Maria L. Marcus; Fred D. Gray of Montgomery; and Arthur D. Shores, Orzell Billingsley and Peter Hall, all of Birmingham.

Review

Reviewing the course of proceedings in this case, the NAACP brief points out that "the doggedness of the Supreme Court of Alabama in refusing to follow the mandate of this Court makes it clear that if "the Association's" claims are vindicated, neither it nor its members will enjoy in Alabama in the foreseeable future any of the rights sustained here, unless this Court fashions a detailed decree that will permit petitioner and its members to assert those rights, without the need of further recourse to the state courts of Alabama."

Asks Invalidation

The NAACP asks the high court to vacate the injunction and issue a decree entitling the Association to revive its program in Alabama forthwith.

Since the injunction was first granted in 1956 the case has been argued in court, state and federal, 14 times including appeals to the Supreme Court. A $100,000.00 contempt-of-court fine levied against the Association was voided by the Supreme Court in 1958.

Merits of Charge

Not until 1961 was any argument held on the merits of the Alabama charge that the NAACP had willfully refused to register as an outside corporation and to disclose the names of its members and contributors. The temporary injunction was then made permanent by the Montgomery County Court. This ruling was upheld by the Alabama Supreme Court.

The present appeal from that ruling contends that the lower court judgment was in violation of the First and Fourteenth Amendments.

Student of the Week

BY FRANCES E. HAWTHORNE

This series is open to junior and senior high school students in Iowa who are in good standing with their school and community.

(Eighth in a Series)

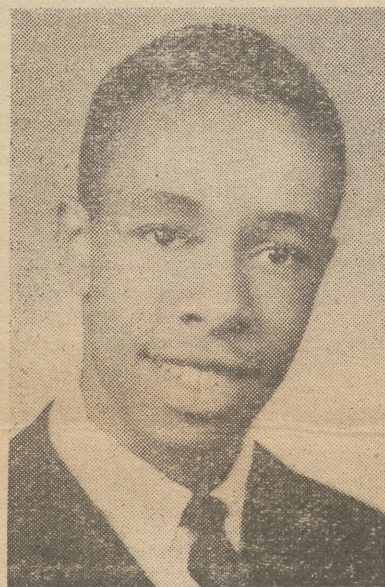

John R. Broadus Jr., 17 year old, Tech High senior, had a very exciting weekend just before Xmas. He and two other Tech seniors were interviewed and given a series of tests on Math and Electronics for employment with the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. John's scores qualified him for the position, and he was flown by jet to Omaha, Neb., all expenses paid to be interviewed by the District Superintendent.

He was informed that he would be the first part-time employee to be hired by the Company on the Coop plan which enables Seniors to attend school half a day and work half a day. Presently he is undergoing training at the Telephone Bldg., to be a telegraph service man.

He is also employed at station KIDPS-TV one evening a week, as a Film and Tape Machine Operator.

At Tech he is a member of the Track and Cross Country teams, and was captain of the Tech City champion Cross Country Team for 1963. He earned his fourth letter last fall.

John is a member of Maple St. Baptist Church where he has served as attendance clerk of the Sunday School. He is the son of John R.

Drake Theater Play Saturday

The Drake University Theatre will present a readers' interpretation of James M. Barrie's play Dear Brutus Saturday, Feb. 1, in the Drake Auditorium. Curtain time will be 8 p.m.

The production, to be given in a unique oral manner, is fantasy in which the characters are given a chance to live an episode from their lives over again. The characters revert back to a scene in their lives with the circumstances changed to what might have been.

The play, an innovation for the Drake Theatre, will be open to the public at no charge.

Mrs. Price Commended by Police; Gave Police Whispered Running Account of Prowler in Home

A young Des Moines housewife was commended by police last week when she gave them a whispered minute-by-minute account over the telephone of a break-in at her home.

Mrs. Bessie Price, 23, of 1409 McCormick street, called police about 9:40 p.m. on Jan. 20 when she heard the sound of breaking glass in her basement. Speaking in low tones Mrs. Price gave Police Lt. Cleatus Leaming an account of the progress the burglar was making through her house, as Leaming and other police prowled cars sped to her home.

When Mrs. Price saw the reflection of a man in a mirror as he entered the hallway leading to her bedroom she screamed "George" thinking she might mislead the burglar into thinking her husband was home. Her husband was at work at the time. Her scream apparently frightened the prowler and he ran out of the house after picking up a transistor radio from a table.

A few minutes later a man identified as Melvin Lundy, 34, who gave his address at 1344 Fremont street, was picked up and taken to the Price home where Mrs. Price identified him as the man whose reflection she had seen in the mirror.

Lundy was arraigned before Municipal Judge Luther T. Glanton, Jr. and was ordered held in lieu of $5,000 bond, pending a hearing on Feb. 7.

Lt. Leaming praised Mrs. Price's action saying that she "remained cool despite the fact that you could tell she was really scared." —Photo courtesy of Des Moines Tribune.

By the time most of you read this 1964 will have pulled down the curtain on its first month, and ushered in the romantic month of the year —February—called romantic because of Valentine day. Besides the birthday of St. Valentine there are the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln and Frederick Douglass. Also there are Race Relations Sunday and Negro History Week and the birthday of George Washington.

The Youth from around Iowa who convened in Des Moines last week for a statewide meeting came in for some commendable comments. There were many nice comments about the decorum, good manners and good taste in dress of delegates who attended.

It seems the group also got together and decorated the gym at the Brotherhood Center for the dance that evening.

As you will notice in this issue we are beginning a new feature series, "People You Know," which will be written about people with unusual hobbies, occupations or interests or perhaps have received some sort of worthwhile citation or recognition in life. If you know of some one or even an organization that qualifies, please let us know by a phone call or letter.

When the children of Rev. and Mrs. Earnest White, 1102 7th street, joined their parents about the first question they asked was "Where is the snow?" Their father had written them about the deep snows that fall in Iowa and of course the children had seen very little snow. They had been told that some winters the snow is on the ground most of the winter. When the children arrived in Des Moines it was late spring and of course, they wanted to know where the snow was.

Anyway, they got their share of it this winter, especially of the cold weather. One of the children was somewhat allergic to the extreme cold and would break out in pimples, but has since adjusted to it.

A followup story, that was scheduled for last week's issue, but could not be included because of the shortage of space, is being published in this issue.

Last week we had a good-natured laugh on our friend, Mrs. Betty Jones, but not for long before she had an even better one on us. We had been discussing books and what each had read recently. She happened to mention the book, "Let No Man Write My Epitaph," and told us what a good story it was. Somehow the last three words of the title stuck in our mind and when we went to the library we had got it down to Write Not My Epitaph or something similar. Anyway to make a long story short, when we went to the library to get the book we got the librarians almost as confused as we were. When we related the incident to Mrs. Jones naturally she got a big kick out of it.

What Kind of Bone Are You? At least that's what the title of a little article we saw recently. It was written about union members but as we read it could apply to members of almost any organization or group. For instance there are Wishbones, they know the organization could be better and wish it would be but wishing is as far as they get. Then there are Jawbones. They wish the organization could be better and will let you know in a minute. They never cease to criticize the membership, policy and just about anything the organization tries to do. They do so much jawboning but when it comes time for meetings and carrying a project through they always have some else to do, such as take the family somewhere, watch their favorite sport on TV or radio or do anything but show up at meetings. They jawbone and criticize but leave more destruction behind them.

Then there are Backbones. They

CORE COMPLAINT
AGAINST CITY HIRING IS JUSTIFIED

Representatives of Core in Des Moines have been carrying on a hassle with the employment offices of Des Moines with reference to the employment of meter maids in the city of Des Moines. Meter maids have been employed since 1957. To date, no Negro woman has been hired.

A vacancy exists in the department. Ten women have applied; five are Negroes.

Core contends that discrimination has been practiced in hiring for the job. The employment office retorts that no racial discrimination has been carried on; that the best applicant has been hired on each occasion. No Negro woman has been so placed.

If the whole record of city employment was better, that report might be taken as true. But on the contrary, the record of employment of Negroes by the city has been miserable in spite of the large number of new departments that have been created and the rise in number of city employees generally in recent years.

There are few departments where Negroes are employed today. And in those departments, where heretofore the number has been fair, streets and garbage, it gets smaller even in those departments year after year.

In the selection to fill a vacancy in a department the officer was asked to take someone from the pool of unassigned employees stashed away to be placed when a job comes up. No Negroes were in this pool.

It's a smooth answer to say we pick the best qualified candidate for the post. But somehow that best qualified is seldom a Negro. The fact that none has been selected over the years is strong evidence that a manipulation of applicants has succeeded in keeping Negroes out. The Bystander has so stated on many occasions.

Others have made complaints of the hiring policy of Negroes by the city but nobody seems able to place his finger on the road block. The new city council seems to be in a mood to correct some of the evils that have grown up in city government over the years. Here is a place where attention should be given.

WHY LET A FEW SPOIL
A WHOLE PROGRAM

Following a basketball game between East and Roosevelt High schools, a few selfish boys were involved in fights. One student was beaten severely. His father appeared before the school board of education in protest of the affair. He did not advocate a discontinuance of the games but asked that something be done so that such does not occur again.

Some members of the board advocated a discontinuance of the games; some agreed that the games should be held during the day. The principal of East High school opposed each of these proposals and suggested measures that should be taken to prevent fighting among the students.

The advice of the East High principal seems more sound. It is ridiculous that the misconduct of a few students should force a program upon the great majority who have nothing to do with these fights.

Unfortunately, the Des Moines river makes a grudge among youngsters. Oldsters have it to a degree. Roosevelt has always been considered the elite among Des Moines High Schools—the favored group. Students from East and even other high schools have resented it. Thus, when the opportunity presents itself often there is an explosion.

At one time parents of the high schools organized to help police the games. They attended in goodly numbers, were in evidence in most places. The program worked well but once a let down, bad blood crops up again.

Somehow, there should be more contact among schools where contests are not involved. Here would offer an opportunity for students of other schools to find out that both student groups are about the same; the apparent hostilities can fade, where one knows more about the other.

Some Roosevelt high students have committed some rather unsavory acts in recent years and have succeeded in getting off quite easy even when referred to

Drake University Adds Two More Victories

By Staff Writer

Drake Bulldogs added two more victories to their winning string here when they defeated a scrappy Air Force Academy at Veterans auditorium Saturday, 56-54 and then on Tuesday night, completed the first season sweep over Iowa State Cy-718 W. 25th street.

Tuesday night the Bulldogs won without their star McCoy McLemore who sat out the entire game with a sore leg. Big man for the night was Gene Bogash who hit for 23 points and 10 rebounds in Drake's sixth straight win.

This marked the first time since 1946-47 that Drake has taken both games from Iowa State. Drake's overall standing is 12-3.

Willie Mays Signs

San Francisco—Willie Mays, baseball's highest paid player, returned his signed 1964 contract to the San Francisco Giants today. Terms of the pact were not announced but it is believed that Mays signed for the same $105,000 he got a year ago.

The Giants boosted Willie's salary to the $105,000 level in 1963 making him the highest paid active player in baseball. Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees is believed to have received $100,000 last year but as yet has not signed for 1964.

"Clay May Go

Distance"—Joe Louis

Las Vegas, Nev.—Former Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis said Cassius Clay might have a chance to go the full 15 rounds when he meets Champion Sonny Liston for the heavyweight title in Miami Beach, Fla., on Feb. 25.

Louis said he felt Liston would win the fight, but "Clay might have an outside chance to go the full 15 rounds."

The former champion watched Liston work out for the first time since Liston arrived here nine days ago.

"Sonny looks like he is a little further along for this fight than he was at this stage for the second (Floyd) Patterson match," Louis said. Liston worked about 10 rounds skipping rope, punching the bags and shadow boxing.

Of course, there are hoodlums in Des Moines schools just as is true in any school. But they should not be allowed to dictate the policies of the schools simply because they don't know how to conduct themselves properly.

These Are My Neighbors

These are my neighbors, those who fall and rise,
Who dream and wake, who dread,
And hope, and yearn,
Who, bound by earthly care, envision
skies;
Whose patience fails, and who are slow to learn.
I see the print of striving on their brow
And sense that they and I are one in quest;

Their soaring hopes and blind despair, somehow,
Find quick response upwelling in my breast.

These are my neighbors, these in whom I see
A spirit proud, rebellious, selfish, vain,
Or nearly noble, all a part of me;
In upward striving runs our common strain.
Against discordant tricks of circumstance

Our human oneness triumphs over chance.

—Florence Jansson, in Think.

Books, but not brains.
Food, but not an appetite.
Finery, but not beauty.

Medicine, but not health.

A church, but not Heaven.

Negro History

Week in February

National Negro History Week this year will be observed Feb. 9-16. The theme, to be released by the national office, and other materials will be mailed to schools, interested persons, churches and other organizations.

At the national meeting last year the association agreed to work on the following: (1) A Negro history joint study group of historians from both races to write the history of our people. (2) On all pictures sent out of the office a short biography will be included. (3) Give closer coverage in the Bulletin on Negro business and accomplishments. (4) Increase contact among our people in order to raise more money to carry on the work of the Association.

Arouse Interest

Since Dr. Carter G. Woodson, founder, was interested in the achievements of the Negro, Negro History Week has helped to arouse in people a keener appreciation of the contribution of the Negro to American civilization.

C. A. Jackson, state chairman, is asking everyone this year, who will, to send a donation to help the national association with its work.

Roy Wilkins, National Executive Secretary of the N.A.A.C.P.

When you take a tour through our newly modernized and expanded offices, you'll probably meet Bob. (And, by the way, group tours are always welcome with advance arrangements made through Ron Hallock's office).

We're mighty proud to have Bob Parks on our staff. He's a great addition to our really nice-to-know folks.
