Dr. DuBois Life, Works Lauded in Commemorative TV Program, Carnegie Hall

New York—The life and works of Dr. W. E. B. DuBois were lauded in two commemorative programs held here on Feb. 23, the 96th birthday of the late leader and generator of the modern Negro protest movement.

Dr. DuBois, a founder of the NAACP and founder and, for many years editor of "The Crisis," the Association's monthly organ, died last Aug. 27 in Accra, Ghana. He was 95 years old.

Spark Plug

In an NAACP-sponsored television program on Channel 13, YNDT, NAACP Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins hailed Dr. DuBois as "the father not only of the NAACP, but of the whole protest movement in the 20th century" of which the NAACP is "the spark plug and standard bearer."

Carnegie Hall

Addressing a packed Carnegie Hall meeting, Arthur B. Spingarn, veteran NAACP president, recalled his long association with Dr. DuBois spanning more than half-a-century. The meeting, held under auspices of a sponsoring committee headed by Ossie Davis, heard tributes to the memory of Dr. DuBois also from Dr. John Hope Franklin, chairman, department of history, Brooklyn College; Arna Bontemps, Fisk University librarian; and Mrs. Eslanda Goode Robeson.

Repeated

In a moving invocation, Bishop Stephen G. Spottswood, chairman of the NAACP Board of Directors, hailed Dr. DuBois as the "prophetic voice of our age to the ages and founding father of the modern fight for freedom."

On the television program, which was repeated on Feb. 27, Mr. Wilkins observed that "at the very first conference of the NAACP in 1909 the note of desegregation of schools was struck. Those people who say that getting rid of segregation has been the goal of later years simply haven't read history from Dr. DuBois's first pronouncement on down."

93,000 Skip Classes in Boston; Boycott Successful

Boston—An NAACP-led boycott of the public schools here on Feb. 27 was termed "100 per cent successful," by Thomas Atkins, executive secretary of the Boston NAACP branch.

"We had anticipated 10,000 students to stay out," he said. "Instead, 20,000 stayed out."

The one-day boycott, called to protest de facto segregation in the city's schools and the complete failure of the Boston School Committee to even recognize the existence of the situation, was under the direction of Rev. James P. Brendon, chairman of the NAACP Community Coordination Committee and a member of the branch's executive committee.

88,000 Absent

Approximately 22 per cent of the city's 93,000 public school students were absent from school, about twice the number of normal absences. A total of 35 Freedom Schools were set up for the day, the majority of which were staffed by NAACP members to teach 10,000 boycotting pupils the meaning of the demonstration.

The boycott, jointly sponsored by the NAACP, CORE, the Boston Action Group and the Greater Boston Ministerial Alliance, was the climax of nine months of fruitless efforts by the NAACP to get the Boston School Committee to take action on segregated conditions in the schools. Last June a boycott of junior and senior high school students failed to stir the Committee to action.

The NAACP will call for further demonstrations by the Boston community unless the School Committee takes immediate action, Atkins said. The Association also plans to file suit unless remedial steps are taken.

Asks Training for Iowa School Dropouts

The State Advisory Committee on Vocational Education recommended Wednesday that Iowa's existing school shops and classrooms be put to use during summers, Saturdays and evenings to train drop-outs for jobs.

The committee asked the State Board of Public Instruction to act on increased use of school facilities to prepare out-of-school youths, age 16 and over, for employment.

The Advisory Committee also asked the State Public Instruction Department for a "complete survey of existing programs and courses in technical and vocational training" in Iowa.

100 Attend Midwinter Elks Meeting Here

Hawkeye Elks Lodge No. 160 and Rose Temple No. 33 were hosts to over 100 guests at a mid-winter meeting of the Mid-Western Association of Elks on Feb. 22 at the Elks Lodge Hall here.

The local group submitted its program for the 64th session of the Mid-western Elks convention to be held in Des Moines on June 21-24. Eight states comprise the association, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Minnesota, Colorado, Wyoming, Canada and Ia.

Presiding over the mid-winter meeting was convention chairman, N. E. Tillman of Des Moines, Convention president, Russell Smith of Denver, Colo., and Auxiliary president, Mrs. Aretta Butler, Sioux City, Ia.

Des Moines hosted the Midwest convention 10 years ago. Gilbert Randall is Exalted Ruler and Mrs. Helen Williams, Daughter Ruler.

The meeting is open to all Junior and Senior High School students and out-of-school youth. Adults also are invited.

Program Series On Spare Time

"Making Your Spare Time Worth-while," a program series designed to introduce a variety of leisure-time interests to retired men and women, will begin Friday afternoon, March 6, 1:00 p.m., in the Main Lounge of the First Baptist Church, 8th and High Streets, Des Moines. Miss Helen Spencer will demonstrate "Making Things—Using Your Hands to Give Pleasure".

The program, open to the public without charge, is sponsored by the Council of Social Agencies, the Downtown Kiwanis Club, and the Department of Adult Education of the Des Moines Public Schools.

Jackson (Miss.) Shows Effect Of NAACP No-Buy Drive

Jackson, Miss.—Capitol Street, this town's business center, is showing the effects of the selective buying campaign which the local unit of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People initiated over a year ago.

Windows of five stores are plastered with "Going Out of Business" signs. Informants say two others will soon announce that they too are closing up for good.

Food Markets

Two white-owned food markets located in Negro neighborhoods, which refused to hire Negro employees and to cease selling products of companies that also discriminate, have already gone out of business.

Four of the downtown stores, which at one time did a large volume of business with Negroes, are dealers in shoes, jewelry, clothing and dry goods. The other is a tailor shop.

A bill now pending in the State Legislature seems to further testify to the effectiveness of the no-buy drive not only in this city, but in

SHOP-IN TIES UP SUPERMARKET

San Francisco, Calif.—A technique described by San Francisco CORE Chairman William Bradley as a "shop-in" has proved effective in the action campaign by Bay Area CORE groups and the Baptist Ministers Union to make Lucky Stores adhere to a 4-month-old fair employment agreement.

When the shop-in was tried for the first time—at the company's Lakeshore Plaza store, one of the policemen summoned by management told the press that the technique had "tied up the store's operations for two hours."

Canton and Clarksdale also.

Handbills

The proposal would make it unlawful for any person or group to advocate the withholding or no spending of funds with places that practice discrimination or segregation. Also, anyone caught passing out handbills encouraging a boycott of discriminatory business would be subject to arrest. Under this measure, a person or group could be arrested upon the sworn affidavit of another person. Penalty would be a fine or imprisonment.

Agitators

In another move, Jackson Mayor Allen Thompson has asked state lawmakers for $1,000,000.00 with which to build a compound for "agitators and others who do not go along with the Mississippi way of life."

Charles Evers, NAACP field secretary, said the Mayor wants to build the enclosure in anticipation of the protest demonstrations being planned for Jackson this summer.

Stan Musial Cancels Miss. Jim Crow Date Spingarn Medal Nominations Sought

Jackson, Miss.—Stan Musial, former star of the St. Louis Cardinals Baseball Team, cancelled his scheduled appearance at a "whites only" sports banquet here, Feb. 24.

In a letter to the sponsors of the affair, Musial is said to have given as his reason for breaking the engagement his recent appointment as director of the President's physical fitness program. However, in view of the refusal of other nationally prominent people to perform or appear at functions in Jackson at the urging of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, observers think this had more to do with the Musial decision than any other factor.

Charles Evers, NAACP Mississippi field secretary, in a letter on Feb. 11 appealed to the former player who is now an executive of the Cardinals, to cancel his Jackson speaking date because Negroes who had sought to buy tickets to the "public" function were turned away.

Special NAACP Meet Slated for Friday

A special called meeting of the Des Moines branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, will be held on Friday, Mar. 6 at 7 p.m. at Willkie House, 900 17th street. Atty. Robert A. Wright is president.

New York — Nominations for the 1964 Spingarn Medal, awarded annually to a Negro American for distinguished achievement, are now being accepted, NAACP Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins announced this week.

The award was first started in 1914 by the late Joel E. Spingarn, then chairman of the NAACP Board of Directors, as an inspiration to Negro youth and to publicize the existence of distinguished merit and achievement among American Negroes.

Spingarn's will left funds to continue the award to indicate "the lifelong interest of my brother, Arthur B. Spingarn, of my wife, Amy E. Spingarn, and of myself in the achievements of the American Negro."

The medal will be presented at the NAACP 55th annual convention to be held in Washington, June 22 to June 27.

Des Moines Physician Explains Ramifications of Statute in South...North

Washington, D.C.—The U.S. Supreme Court Monday upheld a lower court's decision that hospitals constructed with federal aid many not segregate their patients or their staffs.

The Fourth United States Court of Appeals had held unconstitutional a provision of the federal hospital aid law authorizing separate but equal facilities.

2,000 Affected

The Legal Defense Fund of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, which handled the case, hailed the Supreme Court's action, saying it would "affect 2,000 hospital and medical facilities throughout the south."

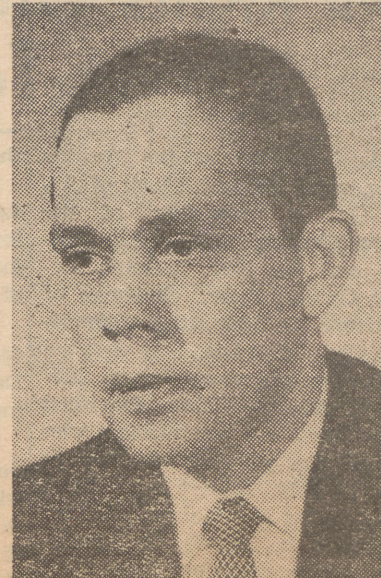

Jack Greenberg, director-counsel of the fund, said the decision would "put an end to keeping Negroes out of white hospitals or segregating them within the hospitals, and requiring them to give up their Negro doctors and hire white doctors if they wanted treatment."

Des Moines Doctor

Although there is no problem in Des Moines The Bystander contacted Dr. Robert M. Johnson, Des Moines physician, who explained how segregation might work against Negro doctors and patients in the south.

Dr. Johnson, who is on the staff of all five Des Moines hospitals, stated that the federal court ruling would have "ramifications not only in the south, but also in some cases, although not in Des Moines."

"Negro doctors in Chicago and Detroit, particularly, have been notably discriminated against in policies to admitting Negroes on the staffs. This has worked a financial hardship on them as well as prevented staff privileges and specialty practice and resident training," he continued.

"For instance, before 1954 there were only several training centers in the nation where a Negro could get special training in surgery. I feel that I have been particularly fortunate in Des Moines."

"And of course Negro doctors have been tremendously handicapped in the south where they have not been able to treat their own patients or secure additional training in a special field. This ruling as I said has tremendous ramifications in the south."

95 Per Cent of Davenport Negroes Live in 3 Ghettos

Davenport, Iowa — The Davenport Catholic Interracial Council released today its findings on Negro residence in the city of Davenport.

From first-hand observation, verified by reference to the findings of Dr. William Ward, Augustana sociologist, in his analysis of the 1960 Census Reports, it is estimated that 95 per cent of the almost 3,000 Negroes who reside in Davenport live in three localities.

All three localities are south of Locust street and between Esplanade and Warren streets, east and west.

Largest Concentration

The largest locality of concentrated Negro residence is between West Eighth and West Twelfth streets from Harrison to Warren, south to Sixth street between Warren and Brown streets. The next largest area is in east Davenport between Locust and Kirkwood boulevard, from Belle avenue to Eastern avenue, and between Kirkwood and East Twelfth street from Eastern to Esplanade. The third and smallest concentration is between Ninth and Tenth streets from Farnam avenue to Bob avenue.

Gradual Demise

"The fair housing ordinance we have asked the city of Davenport to enact will not erase these ghettos," C.I.C. president Charles W. Toney noted on releasing the group's findings, "but such a law will provide for their gradual demise."

The ordinance requested by the Davenport C.I.C. and other civil rights organizations outlaws discriminatory practice in the "sale, lease, rental and financing of housing." It is intended to be preventive as well as remedial, Toney observed.

Prevention

Toney and other civil rights leaders are presently working closely with city and school officials to prevent a recurrence of the recent juvenile racial disorders.

SCHOOL INTEGRATION WILL CONTINUE IN BIRMINGHAM

Birmingham, Ala.—Forward movement of school integration was assured here this week when the U.S. Supreme Court declined to consider a school board effort to block desegregation.

NAACP Legal Defense Fund attorneys secured some school integration even though the U.S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals is still considering aspects of the case.

Talk To Me, Brother!

Knot-head and Wide-mouth were having a red hot argument at the bar of the O-Be-Joyful tavern. "Who needs him?" Knot-head shouted at Wide-mouth who was sitting on the stool next to him. "Do I need somebody from Nebraska to come over to tell me I've got a problem?" "What I want to know is what to do about gettin' a job," Knot-head grumbled as he picked up his glass. It was Wide-mouth's turn to 'blow his top'. "Man! Don't be no fool!" The good Reverend got up and said out loud, in public, what needs to be done for a Negro to get a job. Man, were you sittin' up sleep in the meetin'?" Didn't you hear that man say his organization got 75 jobs in one big super-market chain in one day?" Wide-mouth was beginning to wonder if Knot-head was sober until his friend spoke what was really on his mind.

"Who was that young woman from the South? She really got to me, Brother! She said more than all the rest of 'em put together for my money," Knot-head announced as Gus, the bartender, set another glass of beer in front of him.

Gus, whose only news of the outside world came from listening to his customers exploded with curiosity, "Will somebody kindly tell me what is happening?"

"Gus, you shoulda been there last night!" Knot-head replied.

"Now, how in the world could I be there?" Gus answered impatiently.

Wide-mouth spoke up. "Man, a Negro minister from Omaha and a young Freedom Fighter from the South had all the trumps last night. That young woman told us we were nowhere in the Freedom Movement on account of fighting among ourselves on who gonna get their picture in the paper and who gonna be on television."

"By the way, Knot-head, is Miss Freedom Fighter white or colored?" "Man, you know you ain't never heard no white person talk about 'Gettin' down to the nitty-gritty of it'," Knot-head doubled over with laughter at his own joke. He recovered and went on with the good news for Gus.

"The good Reverend says just go-go-go. You don't need no lot of people. Get with it and watch the Freedom Movement snowball! The Reverend was tellin' us about singin' in the Omaha Council Meeting to let the white folks know we is very tired of their talk about 'wait' and 'later'—and 'what can't be done'," Knot-head explained.

"I nearly fell off my chair, Gus," Wide-mouth reported. "When Miss Freedom got to talkin' about Uncle Tom missin' the Freedom Train."

Civil Rights Group Hear Non Violent Techniques

held Monday night at the Hawley building, were Septima Clark of Atlanta, Ga., a co-worker of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and the Rev. Rudolph McNair of Omaha, Neb., chairman of the Citizens Co-ordinating Committee for Civil Liberties.

Other speakers were Salynn McCollum of the Des Moines American Friends Service committee who spoke for the youth movement in the south; Atty. Robert A. Wright, president of the Des Moines NAACP; Atty. James B. Morris, Jr., chairman of the Co-ordinating Council on a racially mixed audience of about 75 persons heard various techniques of non-violence and how these techniques might be used in the civil rights movement in Des Moines.

Main speakers for the meeting Human Rights and Mrs. Stanley Griffin, president of the Des Moines chapter of CORE.

Mrs. Clark said, "do not betray the youth who are daring to do things we never dreamed of doing."

Rev. McNair, pointing out how supermarket jobs had been secured for Negroes by picketing and singing, said "it only takes a hand full of people to do what we are doing."

Miss McCollum said, "there is really no civil rights movement in Des Moines because of disagreements among various groups."

Atty. Wright, stating that he believes the Des Moines City Council will pass a fair-housing ordinance this month, said "We think the form of the proposed ordinance is workable, feasible and constitutional."

Mrs. Griffin pointed out the "grave responsibility that Iowa has to see that Sen. Bourke Hickenlooper votes for cloture" when it comes up in the civil rights debates.

The meeting was sponsored by the American Friends Service Committee, the NAACP, CORE, and the Des Moines Co-ordinating Council on Human Rights.

Mother snaps a picture that will keep her memory ever-fresh of the little girl starting off on that big adventure—the first day of school.

It's School Time!

For the past few days we've been hearing bells ringing in our ears—and you know what kind, don't you? That's right—school bells! Practically everywhere across the country summer vacation is drawing to a close, and very soon now hoards of youngsters will be reluctantly setting forth for their annual battle with the 3R's.

School is a word that covers many activities and people. At your house, school days may mean a well-scrubbed, neatly combed six-year-old who's entering Class 1-A. Or it may refer to a daughter who's on her way back to high school or a son setting off to college. And to a teacher—if there's one in your family—it will mean readying the classroom for a new group of youngsters.

But no matter what new activities school days bring to your home, one thing is certain: It's no time to put away your camera just because vacation has ended. The school year brings with it many moments when you'll be awfully glad you had a camera handy. And remember, something as simple as a shot of the children poring over their homework projects or perhaps dressing up for the school pageant may turn out to be the most cherished picture of your collection in years to come. The opening of school spells "camera" in another important way, too. It marks a time when junior members of the family especially appreciate having a camera of their own. Friends and classmates' school activities and events belong in any youngster's pictorial record—and he'll enjoy taking those snapshots himself, recording his own impressions just as he wants to remember them.

It won't require expensive equipment either for a simple box-type camera is all that's necessary. With a flash attachment and a supply of flash bulbs Junior can take pictures under almost any conditions—indoors, day or night, in clear weather or cloudy. In early morning or after the sun goes down, in fact, don't be surprised if he's named official photographer for his class in school as well as for his Scout troop!

and Memoriams

CARD OF THANKS

Dear Friends:
Although I'm very much aware that my family in Des Moines has expressed their thanks and gratitude for the kindness and sympathy extended to us during our recent loss, I also wish to let you know of my appreciation.

The fact that so many of you made yourselves, your time, your cars and other efforts available to us, only proves more than ever, that we do not walk in this world alone.

In addition I would like to acknowledge the expert accommodations given by Hammit & Robinson Funeral Home, the simple dignity of the service provided by Rev. Kenneth McNeil and associates, and the extreme thoughtfulness directed to us by the women of Burns Church.

Even though it was a very sad occasion, it was made a memorable one by your individual and collective contributions.

They said that "time takes care of all things", your condolences are helping to pass this time.

From the daughter of the late Rev. L. H. Smith, Sr.
Nancy Windsor

Game for Young or Old

IT'S FUN for youngsters and grown-ups alike - the tumble-bug game. For the bugs, get some capsules from your druggist. Drop a ball bearing into each, close the capsule and mark it with a colored tape, so that each player will know his own bug.

The only other equipment needed for the game is a playing board. Cut a piece of Preswood about one foot

Up to four players can participate with a board the size of the one described. Each player holds his capsule in an upright position at the top edge of the playing board. At the signal to "go," the bugs are released to tumble end over end down the ramp. The one reaching bottom first is the winner.

'A Cake to Please Hobgoblins

BE SURE TO FEED THOSE HOBGOBLINS well this All Hallows Eve. Then good luck and fortune will follow you the rest of the year, or so the saying goes. And, of course, everyone knows that their favorite feast is cake—golden rich layers made instantly with a cake mix. In the picture above a flavorsome apricot-coconut filling is spooned between the layers, the top of the cake dusted with confectioners' sugar and an amusing face, made of the filling, grins away atop the cake. Try it—see if your hobgoblins don't approve.

HALLOWE'EN CAKE WITH COCONUT FRUIT FILLING
 1 package Instant Swans 1/2 cup sugar
 Down Devil's Food Mix 3 tablespoons orange juice
 1 cup cooked dried apricots 1/4 teaspoon grated orange rind
 1 cup drained canned 1/4 cup shredded coconut crushed pineapple Confectioners' sugar
 Prepare cake mix as directed on package. Bake in 9-inch layers. Cool.

Combine apricots, pineapple, and sugar in saucepan. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, 5 minutes, or until fruit is clear. Cool; then add orange juice, rind, and coconut. Chill well.
 Set aside 3/4 cup of the filling. Spread remaining filling between layers. Cut a pumpkin shape from waxed paper; place in center of cake. Sprinkle confectioners' sugar over cake—around paper pattern. Carefully remove pattern and fill in center with reserved filling. Use finely chopped coconut to make eyes, nose, and mouth on pumpkin face. (ANS)

You Can Make Meringue Cookies

By Betty Barclay

"MAKE 'EM Yourself!" You can. These glamorous meringue cookies that you used to have to buy from a fancy bakery, you can now make yourself in less than half an hour! Three dozen of them, too; enough to serve with elegance at an evening card party.

Chocolate Meringue Cookies
1 cup chocolate chips; 3 egg whites; 2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar; ½ cup saltine cracker crumbs; ½ cup chopped pecans; 1 teaspoon vanilla. Melt chocolate over hot water. Cool. Beat egg whites until stiff. Add sugar gradually, beating after each addition until blended. Then fold in cracker crumbs, nuts, vanilla, and melted chips. Drop from teaspoon on lightly greased baking sheet and spread slightly. Bake in moderate oven (375°F.) about 10 minutes. Makes about 3 dozen 2-inch cookies. Store in tightly covered container.

Well, Easter is just around the windy corner of March, the month which usually signals the mid-way point between winter and spring. You cannot ask for anything better weatherwise than Monday, unless it is too see green, green shoots on the wintered-bare trees. Of course, Iowa's weather, as capricious as it is, turned the other cold, cold cheek a few hours after the balmy spring offering.

Once again, we are asking for someone from Des Moines Tech high school to advise us of all the Negro graduates who will be in the June class this year. We have the list and have checked off some we know, but we are sure we have missed many, and of course we don't want to do that.

We are planning a very special anniversary edition this year to note the 70th year that the Bystander has been publishing in Des Moines. We hope to make it an edition that you will want to keep for posterity.

If you have the opportunity some weekend it will be a wonderful idea to tour the Egyptian Tomb exhibits at the Des Moines Art Center that will be open to the public from now until August. When you are driving around after church, or whatever, take advantage of the opportunity to drop in. We are sure you and your children will thoroughly enjoy it.

All the members of the 8 to 10 year old group of the Des Moines chapter of Jack and Jill of America, Inc., reported for a bowling party Saturday morning at the aYn Ginkel lanes. Attending were Lewis James, Jr., Deborah Lewis, Harold Morrow II, Ronnie Sharp, Edith Spriggs, Steven Wells, and Venita and Vance Hawthorne. They were accompanied by Mesdames William Wells and Harold Morrow. David Lewis served as a scorekeeper.

After getting copy ready for this week's Bystander we attended the March meeting of the Des Moines P.T.A. council Tuesday afternoon at the YWCA. The state president, Mrs. Robert Crook, of Atlantic, Ia., was guest speaker. Mrs. Woodrow Lewis, who is serving her second term as president of the Washington Irving PTA, was one of the hostesses.

We recall a rainy-cold-snowy day in January when we walked into the PTA headquarters to order a historical book for the Moulten PTA. After a moment a lady walked in, greeted with much surprise by staff members in the office. Just as we were about to leave, she walked over to your truly, smiling and extended her hand, and introduced herself. She wanted to know about the PTA and asked something about us personally. It was quite a touching, gracious gesture, that so many people, in a position of leadership lack. Many will do only what is required.

CLAY STEPS OUT OF HIS AREA

The championship fight between Clay and Liston is over. Of course, it came out far different from what the odds makers predicted. But it is one of those things, you just can't tell which way the ball will bounce.

No more boastful fighter ever entered a ring than Clay. In fact, his antics have lost him many friends. But after all, he made good his boasts and a fellow is entitled to some respect for accomplishing his ends.

Unfortunately somebody has taught him some strange doctrines. He claims to be a Muslim. A man's religion is certainly his own business but when that religion runs contrary to what we have generally accepted as it is believed Jesus Christ taught them, it becomes a nuisance.

In fact, Clay talks like an Uncle Tom. "I don't want to go where I am not wanted, I don't want to push myself on anybody," he says. Such talk is the result of ignorance currying favor with those who don't want the Negro to move ahead.

Of course, there are those who don't want the Negro around where something good is being dispensed. But no sensible Negro is going to stay to himself on that account. There are those who don't want Clay to make the big money he is getting but Clay himself is not stopping on that account. And yet if Clay followed his religion and kept separate from white people he would not have had the fights that led him to an opportunity to fight for the championship.

We go along with Mr. Clay in his ability as a fighter but when he steps out to advise Negroes what they should do about religious matters it is here we part company. His ideas as well as those of his leaders are doomed and do nothing but stunt the progress Negroes are making in their fight for first class citizenship.

THE DISGRACEFUL CONDUCT IN FLORIDA LABOR STRIKE

The operating employees of the Florida East Coast Railway have been on strike for more than a year. The road runs down the east coast to Miami thus carrying much of the material used by the defense department at Cape Kennedy—formerly Cape Canaveral—where much of the rocket work and launchings are carried on.

The railroad refuses to meet the demands of the union. At present the trains are being operated by non-union help with about half the number required before the strike. The company says it has been able to do this by eliminating the featherbedding.

Somebody has been placing dynamite on the tracks, equipment has been damaged making operation unsafe. The company charges that the railroad is responsible hoping to place them in an awkward position.

Up until President Johnson went to Florida to speak, at which time he announced that the bombing must stop and called upon the FBI to discover the perpetrators, the government was silent other than to try to get the railroads to give in. Some of the very newspaper columnists who have criticized Negroes for parading and sit-ins but whose conduct has destroyed nobody's property, who have been in most cases law abiding, have not raised their voice or written a line about those people in Florida who have carried on a reign of terror, destroyed property and slowed up the defense program because they wanted more money for labor.

History reveals that men have fought pretty hard for the things they wanted. At times, some have gone outside of the law to accomplish them. And while disobedience to law and order hurts their campaign beyond rhyme or reason, it is just what some labor groups are doing on the east coast of Florida. It is what other movements have done. But extremism, in any fight, is not good for its cause.

Drake Bulldogs Share MVC Basketball Title

Will Meet Wichita Friday in Playoff For NCAA Tourney

The Drake Bulldogs, Cinderella team of the Missouri Valley and Wichita, co-holders of the conference title, will square off in a playoff game in Lawrence, Kans., Friday night to determine who will represent the conference in the N.C.A.A. regional tournament.

The Bulldogs, who finished last a year ago and at the beginning of the 1963-64 season were predicted not to finish much higher, clinched their share of the Missouri Valley Conference title when they defeated a scrappy St. Louis team Saturday at Veterans auditorium. The 56-50 finale also created a record for the Drake Bulldogs who notched their 20th victory this season, breaking an all-time high of 19 previous victories.

Worried

The low-scoring game, worried the 10,000 fans who gathered to watch the nationally-televised clash. The Bulldogs failed repeatedly at the free throw line and weren't much better in spots in rebounding.

The game also marked the last appearance for Bulldog captain Billy Foster who has sparked the team in its super-human effort most of the season.

The team was honored at a convocation on the campus Monday.

Althea Gibson Cited As New York State Athlete of Century

New York—Althea Gibson, retired Wimbledon and U.S. national women's singles tennis champion, was presented an award as the "New York Athlete of the Century" at a benefit dinner sponsored by the Nassau County chapter of the National Association for the Help of Retarded Children here last week.

The award was presented by sportscaster Howard Cosell to the smiling Althea.

Miss Gibson, now an avid golfer, is currently a community relations representative for the Ward Baking Company, producer of Tip Top bread.

White Sox Sign Rookie Don Buford

Chicago, Ill.—Chicago White Sox officials last week signed the man they have selected to replace second baseman Nellie Fox, the team's former "Mighty Mite."

He is tan Don Buford, one of the most highly regarded rookies to join the Sox team in a long time.

The International League's Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player in 1963, Buford's credentials are impressive. They include:

The IL batting championship with an average of .336; leader in runs scored, with 114; hits, 206; doubles, 41, and stolen bases, 42.

mixed up by saying, "Consistency, thou art a jewel." This could well apply to those poor souls who wanted the champ to go out fighting with one hand.

Old Warrior

Yet, there might have been something majestically defiant in the picture of the old warrior battling to the last with nothing but raw courage while his younger and faster opponent cut him down.

There is only one catch to that fine picture. This thing was paying nearly a million and a half dollars to the old warrior and if he could escape with a semblance of a whole skin there will be another pay day almost as big.

Fight for glory? To prove you are the best or the most courageous? For two million bucks what would you have done?

PAINTING ART

My husband got a painting streak, He likes the barnyards looking sleek, The barns, the sheds and fences neat From bottom side to cupola's peak.

The windows, doors and frames to trim In pure white beside the red therein; White for cleanliness, red for vim; All speak of his labors, perseverance of him.

True by nature he'll oft times murmur, As he has to stop, reach for the hammer; But happy-go-lucky . . . never bad grammar, When nails between cause him to stammer.

Speaks to himself in his own way, As thoughts so many come within the day; As he walks with the ladder and talks away,

'Tis this one day I heard him say: "When I paint barns, the sheds and such,

I spread it freely to soak up much; Folks will agree I paint all three, The barns, the ground, and also me."

"My pants, my cap and blue shirt too, Get colors mapped in every hue; And almost like some stucco new, That almost now lets no air through."

"I like this job I have often done,

But do confess it's more work than fun; And may my efforts show my son 'Tis satisfaction to finish the job begun."

"To tolerate some obstacles of work, Some big, some little particles of dirt; That come between and often irk One's desire to finish the job and shirk."

"But let's not falter e'er we start, There's a beginning to each ending's part; That when 'tis done, you'll sing in heart, I'm grinning . . . 'tis fun . . . Painting Is an Art!"

White Tennessee Colleges Integrate Football Teams

Johnson City—Johnny Russaw, star halfback of Langston high school, last week became the first Negro to receive a football scholarship from East Tennessee State university here, as the school joined Austin Peay State in Clarksville, Tenn., in integrating their gridiron teams.

The name of the Negro football player at Austin Peay State was not disclosed.

East Tennessee State also has a Negro basketball player, freshman Tommy Woods from Alcoa, Tenn.

LISTON WINS ONE FIGHT —DESEGREGATION OF TELECAST SHOWINGS

New Orleans, La.—Though Sonny Liston lost the heavyweight title, he helped win one important struggle—barring of the closed-circuit fight telecasts from segregated theaters here and in other deep south cities.

Liston decided to take action and as a result, showing of the TV telecast here was shifted from Loew's State Theater to the municipal auditorium. Showing of the TV telecast at segregated theaters was cancelled in Jackson, Miss.; Montgomery, Ala., and other deep south cities. CORE National Director James Farmer wired Liston congratulations on his stand.

Archer, Mims In Rematch

New York—Middleweight contender Joey Archer and veteran Holly Mims doubtless will be re-matched for a return fight at Madison Square Garden on March 20, because of Archer's unpopular controversial victory over Holley there recently.

Promoter Harry Markson said "both fighters and their managers have indicated their willingness to the bout since champion Joey Giardello would not consider a defense against either until late summer."
