New York Times, 4 Negroes Win Libel Case

U. S. Supreme Court Kicks Out $500,000 Damage Suit Monday

Washington, D.C.—A constitutional landmark of freedom of the press and speech came Monday when the United States Supreme Court ruled that a public official cannot recover libel damages for criticism of his official performance unless he proves that the statement was made with deliberate malice.

Defendants

The decision threw out a $500,000 Alabama libel judgment against the New York Times and four Negro ministers, the Reverends Ralph D. Abernathy, Fred L. Shuttlesworth, S. S. Seay, Sr., and J. F. Lowery.

The justices were unanimous in reversing the libel award.

The court's opinion, by Justice William J. Brennan, Jr., was joined by Chief Justice Earl Warren and Justices Tom C. Clark, John Marshall Harlan, Potter Stewart and Byron R. White.

Justices Hugo L. Black and Arthur J. Goldberg, in separate opinions, said the court should have gone further and established an absolute privilege for criticism of officials, even for malicious statements. Justice William O. Douglas joined in both opinions.

Freer Atmosphere

Observers said the case could have an immediate impact on press coverage of race relations in the South. The New York Times now faces a total of $5 million in libel suits in Alabama. The Columbia Broadcasting System is being sued there for $1.5 million.

The Times had argued that the purpose and effect of these suits was to discourage news coverage of the racial situation.

That view was supported in friend-of-the-court briefs by the Chicago Tribune, the Washington Post and the American Civil Liberties Union.

"Pall of Fear"

The court did not limit its discussion to the racial context. It said that freedom of comment on official conduct, protected by the free speech and free press clauses of the First Amendment to the Constitution, would be endangered by unlimited libel awards.

"Whether or not a newspaper can survive a succession of such judgments," Brennan said, "the pall of fear and timidity imposed upon those who would give voice to public criticism is an atmosphere in which the First Amendment freedoms cannot survive."

Even false statements about public officials were given protection by the decision. Brennan said it would put too great a burden on free speech to make a person who had been sued for libel prove the truth of every statement.

Not Limited

Nor is the decision limited to newspapers or other media of communication. It bars libel or slander suits against anyone for comments on official conduct—as long as they are not malicious.

The court made no distinction between editorial and advertising matter in protection from libel suits. The fact that all alleged libel appeared in a paid advertisement, Brennan said, was "as immaterial as the

Three Brothers Take Out Life Memberships

Fort Madison, Ia.—Three brothers, all of them medical physicians, recently took out $500 life memberships in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Harry Harper and Dr. George Harper, also of Fort Madison.

Speaking for the brothers, Dr. H. Harper stated that the "NAACP is doing such a splendid job and realizing its great financial obligations they wanted to help alleviate some of the financial responsibility and at least show their appreciation by taking out life memberships in the organizations."

All three brothers were born in Fort Madison.

Many Sign Petition For Open 'Occupancy'

About 100 persons have signed their names to petitions asking the City Council to pass "an open occupancy ordinance". The petitions were placed on file Friday, Mar. 6 in the city clerk's office.

The petitions were circulated by Citizens for Fair Housing, a group of about 25 residents who organized after the council last October voted down two versions of an ordinance to outlaw racial discrimination in housing here.

More to Be Sent

Chairman of the group, the Rev. Edward Heininger of Drake University's United Campus Christian Fellowship said Friday that more petitions will be sent to the council as they are prepared and signatures obtained.

The city-wide group, according to the Rev. Mr. Heininger, is a part of the Co-ordinating Council for Human Rights of which Atty. James B. Morris, Jr., is chairman.

The petitions state that "in the American way of life all citizens are guaranteed equal opportunities by law. We are convinced that the time has come to extend this protection into the area of the rental and purchase of housing."

Breakthrough in Miss. School Bigotry Scored

Jackson, Miss.—Another crack in Mississippi's wall of segregation was scored here this week when three school boards were told to submit school integration plans by July 15th.

Attorneys of the NAACP Legal Defense Fund won a preliminary injunction, from U.S. District Court Judge Sidney C. Mize, affecting all white schools in Jackson, Biloxi and Leake County, Mississippi.

Judge Mize decreed that their integration plans must include a minimum of one grade integration a year. Legal Defense Fund attorneys were thus able to score a major step toward integration here.

Derrick Bell of New York City, Legal Defense Fund assistant counsel who is arguing the case, said that 63 Negro children are involved.

Among them are Darrell Kenyatta and Reene Denise Evers, children of slain NAACP Field Secretary Medgar Evers.

Bell is being assisted by Legal Defense Fund cooperating attorneys R. Jess Brown and Jack Young, both of Jackson, Miss.

Man Grabs Registered Letters from Mail Truck; Still at Large

Police were still seeking a man who snatched three registered letters, one of them containing $754 in cash and $136 in checks, from a mail truck here Friday while the driver was collecting mail from a nearby collection box.

The driver, Keith Gilchrist of 3840 11th street, chased the man, described as Negro, about 5 feet, six inches tall, 18 to 25 years old, with long, bushy hair, around the corner of Dahl's supermarket, site of the theft.

NEWS In A Nutshell

Goal-Flood Two Iowa Senators with Letters to Demand Rights Support

Atty. Robert A. Wright, president of the Des Moines branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, disclosed that the organization will sponsor a "mail-in" demonstration on Sunday, Mar. 15 at 1 p.m. on the west approach (2nd avenue) at the Main postoffice.

Wright stated that the intent of the demonstration is to "flood both Iowa senators with thousands of letters demanding support of the Civil rights legislation now pending before the senate."

Votes Crucial

In case of inclement weather the mass assembly will be held inside the lobby.

Wright remarked that "votes are crucial for the civil rights legislation. The record of Sen. Jack Miller is good, but that of Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper is not good."

"But this is not the time for name calling or condemnation," he added. "We must win the votes of both senators on the civil rights bill. This is a critical time for mobilizing pres-

"We would like to see a long caravan of cars depositing mail," on Sunday Wright said. "Stamps and stationery will be available for those who wish to write."

Sponsors

Wright also encourages everyone to write letters prior to Sunday church services and then proceed to the Postoffice immediately after services to participate in the mail-in.

The Des Moines chapter of Congress of Racial Equality, civic, social, fraternal, religious and other civil rights organizations are co-ordinating their efforts for Sunday's demonstration.

This should be an excellent opportunity to meet the new City Manager and to get his views on important issues through questions and discussions. Residents are urged to participate in the "Mail-in" demonstration at the Main Postoffice, go home for their Sunday meal and brief relaxation, then go on to the Willkie House for this meeting.

Dr. S. J. Williamson is president of the local fraternity.

Moderator will be Don Eagle, regional director of the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

Beer 25c With A Letter To Senator Hickenlooper

Jeri, Jessie Mae and Carole stopped in their tracks to stare at the big sign in the O-Be-Joyful Tavern. BEER 25c WITH A LETTER TO HICKENLOOPER!

Carole poked Jessie Mae with an elbow to remind her to keep her big mouth shut as they entered.

"What'll it be, girls?" Gus asked cheerfully. Carole's elbow touched Jess again to remind her mouth to stay shut.

"Three beers, Gus," Carole replied. Gus came from behind the bar and laid three ball-point pens and three sheets of paper on the table.

"Come on, Gus," you know we'll write our letters!", Jessie Mae objected. "The NAACP says Sunday, March 15th is the day to mail in".

"Ladies," Gus announced sternly. "You know I don't sell no beer ON CREDIT." Carole picked up her pen as a cue to her friends. Jeri was suddenly inspired with a bright idea.

"Gee, Gus, why can't we write and drink at the same time?"

The bartender frowned upon this 'dead beat' inspiration. "In God we trust. All other do pay cash in the O-Be-Joyful Tavern", he stated flatly as he returned to his place behind the bar. Gus watched with crafty pleasure the favorite three caught in his snare for Freedom Now.

Jeri sounded positively pitiful,

"What shall I say? I can't think."

"What shall I say?", Gus imitated Jeri's plaintive tone and exploded all over the tavern. "What shall you say? Tell that man my income tax pays his salary in Washington to represent me in Iowa, my mother in Mississippi and the whole United States. Tell him them Dixie-crut senators have been talking for three hundred years and I want 'em to quit just long enough for the civil rights bill to pass."

Is that too much to ask?", Gus roared at Jeri.

"Gus, I got my letter done. How about a beer?", Carole pleaded.

"That's mighty fast, Sister, Let me see it", Gus double-checked and began to read aloud:

Dear Senator Hickenlooper:

I write to ask you to vote for the civil rights legislation so that my brother in Mississippi will be protected by the same democracy as we have in Iowa. I respectfully remind you that as a senator of the United States you have a sworn obligation to defend and protect the southern Negroes who are beaten, shot at, and murdered for trying to register to vote. I am satisfied that Mississippi is not even trying to protect or uphold the rights of either Negro or White who seek justice, equal opportunity and human dignity.

Very sincerely,

Carole Freemason

Predicts Hastie Will Be Considered in Next High Court Vacancy

Chicago, Ill.—Negro Judge William H. Hastie is certain to be considered "for the very next vacancy" on the U.S. Supreme Court, predicts the March issue of Ebony.

It would make him the first Negro on the Supreme Court bench.

Judge Hastie of the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, Third Circuit, Philadelphia, is frequently mentioned as a prospect for elevation to the Supreme Court, and, says Ebony, "His backers are not the kind to give up easily."

FREED AFTER 47 DAYS IN JAIL—JOIN PICKET LINE

St. Louis, Mo.—Without even taking time out to shave after leaving jail, five of the 15 local CORE leaders imprisoned since Jan. 15 joined the picket line on March 2 at the Jefferson Bank & Trust Co., where St. Louis CORE is pursuing its campaign for fair employment.

These five, along with 10 other leaders of the bank campaign were released earlier in the day by a three-judge panel of the U. S. Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals pending appeal of their writs of habeas corpus.

New Rights Unit

New York, N. Y.—A new civil rights organization, formed Thursday, has endorsed a march on Albany next Tuesday to urge appropriation of funds to help school integration. It is called the Conference for Quality Integrated Education.

fact that newspapers and books are sold."

Advertisement

Monday's decision arose from an advertisement published in the New York Times on Mar. 29, 1960.

A full-page advertisement entitled "Heed Their Rising Voices" sought to raise funds for the defense of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., the Negro leader, and for other civil rights causes. The advertisement attacked conditions in many parts of the South in strong terms.

No Names Used

No Southern official was mentioned by name in the ad. Nevertheless, four present and former city officials of Montgomery, Ala., and the governor of Alabama at the time, John P. Patterson, claimed they were defamed. They cited two paragraphs.

One of these paragraphs mentioned Montgomery. It said leaders of a Negro college student protest they had been expelled, the campus ringed with police and the college dining hall padlocked to starve the students "into submission."

The second paragraph said "Southern violators" had bombed King's home and, among other things, arrested him seven times.

Errors Conceded

The one defense left was absolute truth. The Times could not argue this defense because it had conceded certain errors in the advertisement. For example, the college dining hall had never been padlocked, and King had been arrested four times, not seven.

NDEA Loans Available To SUI Freshmen

Iowa City, Iowa — High school seniors who plan to enroll at the State University of Iowa next fall and who need financial aid may be eligible for federal loans of up to $1,000 a year, the SUI director of student financial aid reports.

Charles Mason, Jr., said applications for National Defense Education Act loans will be available from his office beginning Mar. 9. The deadline is June 1. Action will be taken on the loans as soon as they are returned with a grade transcript and application has been made to the University. The application deadline is June 1.

A high school student's rank in his graduating class and scores on the American College Tests will be used in determining academic qualification. Students must rank in the upper one-half of their class and have an ACT standard composite test score of 22 or higher.

Under the federal program, students may borrow up to $1,000 a year for five years, with repayment in 10 equal installments, delayed until two years after they finish their full-time college work. The exact amount of the loan will depend upon financial need.

Students bound for SUI who are interested in applying for a federal loan may write for applications from the Office of Financial Aid, Old Dental Building, State University of Iowa, Iowa City.

★ Movies for Christmas

If there is any season of the year that calls for "lights, camera, action" it's Christmas! While home movies are good the year-around, they're never better than when they show the family observance of the holiday season.

We've got a suggestion today—a suggestion for the families that don't have movie cameras. It's that you give one to yourselves for Christmas, and do it a little ahead of the big day. You know, the fun of Christmas is getting ready for it. No matter what type of picture record you shoot, it ought to cover the days in which the air is tingling with anticipation of happy surprises and good things coming up. The favorite people in your life are at their best—and that's the best time for picturing them.

But getting back to the movie camera as a gift from the family to the family. It needn't be an expensive gift, you know, because not only are there movie cameras as simple to operate as the familiar box camera, they're equally low in cost, comparatively speaking.

For less than $50—you can be all set for both indoor and outdoor movie making with a kit including camera and light bar.

The light bar makes your indoor movie making as easy as flash snapshotting. It is simply a bar with a screw in the center that fits into the tripod socket of the camera. On either end is a big photo-flood reflector bulb.

As you shoot, you carry your light right with you. You know that there's always enough illumination to cover whatever action you see in your viewfinder.

Willkie House Guild Is Organized; Seeks Volunteers

The Willkie House Guild, a nucleus organization of 20 women, has been created at Willkie House, 900 17th street and will offer an opportunity to learn about and help a growing social settlement. The organization will meet on Thursday, Mar. 19 at 2 p.m.

The 20 women who set up the organizational meetings are already involved in volunteer services themselves at the United Campaign agency. Co-chairmen of the guild are Mrs. E. P. Jackson, 1155 Enos avenue and Mrs. Richard Klefer, of 2519 53rd street. Mrs. Donald E. Johnson of 4200 Foster drive is secretary. Meetings of the guild will be quarterly. Periodic orientation and training sessions for volunteers are scheduled. Applications for volunteer service are available at Willkie House.

Goals

Goals for the Guild are: First, interpretation of the Willkie House program to the community.

Second, recruitment of volunteers for the many activities for children and adults conducted at the neighborhood center.

Some of the opportunities for volunteer services, Mrs. Jackson said, are:

Leadership for children's recreation groups after school, on Saturdays or in the summer; also for youth, adult and Golden Age groups.

Leaders with various skills who would instruct groups of persons wishing to learn to knit, play bridge, participate in music appreciation, drama, sports or homemaking activities.

Assistance with three major Willkie House programs: Its well-baby clinic, its project to combat school dropouts, its annual membership drive.

Volunteers to supervise the center library, tutor small groups, conduct field trips keyed to different interests.

A number of women, and also some men, already are finding enormous satisfaction in volunteer work at Willkie House, Mrs. Jackson said.

One young Des Moines mother, an active registered nurse before her marriage, is serving several hours a week at the Willkie House well-baby clinic.

Knitter

Another woman, an expert knitter, is sharing her skill with a group of women who attend the center's weekly Mothers' Coffee Hour.

A young man who is an artist on skates is directing the center's skating hour.

Another group, some young mothers who bring their own small children along, take over the care of youngsters of women attending the Mothers' Coffee Hour.

The Coffee Hour

The Coffee Hour—actually a two-hour session—offers child development films, discussions of parenthood problems, craft instruction, weight-control advice—whatever the interests and needs of the group may be.

If you're planning to borrow money or buy on time, be sure you're familiar with the following points:

- No matter what interest rate is quoted, find out the actual cost in money.
- Before signing any papers, check the figures as to their accuracy and don't leave spaces to be filled in later.
- Question extra charges that would increase the total cost of the loan.
- If you're to owe a firm other than the dealer you're buying from, find out if they are reputable.
- Find out what the penalties are for late payments.
- Don't skip the fine print. Read and be sure you understand.
- What does the contract say about repossession?
- Understand what security you are giving.
- Do not sign away legal rights or guarantees such as the right to refuse merchandise which is not as promised.
- Is there a provision for refund of interest on payments ahead of schedule?

HEALTH FOR ALL

Genial Germs

Some types of germs are a good deal like people. At least they share one of our outstanding traits—sociability. Like many humans, they can move in on some one and be discreet "house guests" for quite a while without committing any overt offense that would get them evicted. Again like many humans, the longer they hang around the harder they are to get rid of.

Serious Harm

It's these deceptively friendly intruders that often make it possible for people to look and feel a lot healthier than they actually are for a considerable time. All too often the invader's presence is completely unsuspected until he's managed to work serious harm on his innocent host. That's what can happen—and frequently does—in the case of the tuberculosis germ.

Greatly Reduced

Although its toll in the United States has been greatly reduced, TB is still one of the worst killers on a worldwide scale. Even within our own borders there are more than two million people who have had the disease in active form and an estimated two million more who will develop it during their lifetime unless some effective action prevents it.

Early Detection

Next to prevention, the best safeguard against disastrous effects is early detection and treatment. But this is often less easy than it may sound. By the time the effects of TB are felt, it usually has advanced to a point where cure is difficult and time-consuming. Your Tuberculosis Association emphasizes that detection, to be most useful, should come long before the stage where symptoms appear.

TB Inspection

A tuberculin skin test won't prevent TB infection, but it's Step One in your answer to that highly important problem of early detection. If test reaction is positive, implement Step Two—an immediate chest X-ray to find out whether the germ found in the body has become active.

Medicine and Old Age

2 Elderly Citizens have the same health problems as younger persons, but...

3 the incidence of these ailments is greater as bodily energy tapers.

4 Science works to increase strength and energy in over 65's. Hormones and vitamins may be the answer.

by Science Features

More people are reaching old age than ever before—some 14 million today as compared to three million in 1900. These elderly citizens present new problems, economic, sociological and medical, many of which are interrelated.

Over-65s suffer the same ills as younger persons, but they are more susceptible to them. High blood pressure, diabetes, cancer, arthritis, heart diseases, hardening of the arteries, and even pneumonia, a disease that is on its way out in younger age groups, thanks to antibiotics, exact a heavy toll among our senior citizens.

Many of the new drugs have helped old and young alike. Anticoagulants prevent the dangerous blood clots which so often appear in old age. Several new drugs have helped cut down high blood pressure, which hits more than 60% of our senior citizens. Much has been done to combat heart disease—the greatest killer—which strikes more frequently both in the winter of the year and in the winter of life.

Important as these advances are, at best they only cure—they do not prevent. The real challenge to medicine is to build up the human machine that begins to wear down as old age advances. Vigor must be improved, tissues revitalized, outlook brightened and strength regained, lest vital organs fail in their functions.

Two types of agents—vitamins and hormones—offer the best chance of building up energy and resistance. Male and female hormones—androgens and estrogens—have been used with considerable success in brightening the outlook and increasing the vigor of old men and women. Often they are used interchangeably to fight a specific malfunction or waning strength. They have even been combined into a single drug, as in the case of Combindrin, to revitalize tired tissue and improve general well-being of male and female alike.

Vitamins, too, are playing a more important role in old-age therapy. Tests on animals have shown that vitamin A increased life span 10%, and that B complex vitamins lengthened life 25%. If the outlook for over-65s looks better today than before it is due in large part to the gains made in hormone and vitamin therapy.

Screen for Nursery

A FOLDING screen is mighty handy to have in the nursery, where it can be used to keep drafts off the crib and as a shield against light, noise and activity.

Like the one in the illustration, the screen may be made in the home workshop and neatly decorated by means of decalcomanias or stencils. Panels without the nursery characters may be finished with blackboard slating material, so the pre-school child will have a place to draw.

Materials for this simple device may be obtained in any lumber yard—1 by 2-inch lumber for the framing and crossbars, Masonite

Tempered Duolux, a durable hard-board that's smooth on both sides, and the hardware. The panels, after being cut to size, are inserted in grooves which have been cut in the framing with a power saw.

The stick-on pictures are available at paint and hardware stores, which are sources also for stencils used in hand-painted work. Major paint companies make slate surfacing material, which simply is brushed on the Masonite Duolux with a brush after the panel has been prepared with two coats of clear sealer.

SOCIETY

Cake of the Month

It's a Happy Easter indeed when bonnets and cakes alike can be decorated with lovely and colorful flowers. Plenty of time to see the Easter Parade, too, when you bake your cake with the new instant yellow cake mix that's unbelievably faster to mix than ever before. A Lemon Cream Frosting covers tops and sides of the layers, while hyacinths bloom around the sides of the cake in pale green and lavender frosting. A lovely tribute to a very special day!

Hyacinth Easter Cake
1 package Instant Swans Down Yellow Cake Mix
Lemon Butter Cream Frosting

Prepare cake batter according to package directions. Pour batter into two 9-inch layer pans, which have been lined on bottoms with paper, and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 25 to 30 minutes. Cool.

Spread Lemon Butter Cream Frosting between layers and over top and sides of cake. Smooth frosting flat on top and sides for decorating.

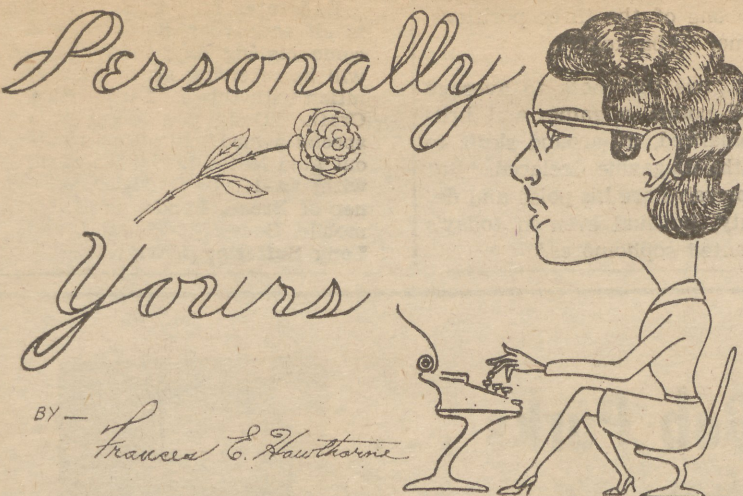

Lemon Butter Cream Frosting

$\frac{1}{2}$ cup butter
 $\frac{1}{8}$ teaspoon salt
 $3\frac{1}{2}$ cups (1 pound) sifted confectioners' sugar

Cream butter until soft. Add salt and part of sugar gradually, blending after each addition. Then add egg yolks and grated lemon rind; blend well. Add remaining sugar alternately with milk, until of right consistency to spread, beating after each addition until smooth. Makes $2\frac{1}{2}$ cups, or enough frosting to cover tops and sides of two 9-inch layers.

Prepare an ornamental frosting by combining sifted confectioners' sugar with a little water. Tint some of this green and some lavender. With the green frosting, write "Happy Easter" across top of cake. Outline hyacinths around sides of cake, using lavender frosting for the flowers and green for the leaves.

MIX TRICKS: You can make this luscious cake quick like a bunny, when you follow new package directions for this truly instant cake mix. With only one mixing step required, you may use either spoon, rotary beater, or electric beater to combine the package contents all at once with fresh eggs and water. The creamy, fluffy batter bakes equally as well in two 8-inch or 9-inch layer pans.

Now that you have recovered from the first really snowstorm of the winter, we will get on to more spring-like subjects. Got all your Easter toys ready? The day is almost here, as you know.

However before Easter Sunday arrives there is another big date to remember in Des Moines and the outlying areas. That is the oral polio clinic on Palm Sunday that will be conducted from 12 noon to 7 p.m. in 64 designated schools and the P.T.A. has been very busy phoning and scheduling volunteers. Mrs. R. Chamberlain who is Polk County director of the clinic for that Sunday complimented our P.T.A. vice president, Mrs. Rufus Waylon who with yours truly will serve as clinic directors at Moulton.

If you live in the Moulton and Sabin areas you are urged to come and take your vaccine at Moulton. Among the schools also is Washington Irving junior high with Mrs. Woodrow Lewis as P.T.A. president.

Moulton is being assisted with volunteers from Sabin school. Members of Girl Scout Troop No. 82, of which Mrs. Samuel Payne, is leader, will assist all day with the registration and will be stationed at the doors in

Among the nurses who will assist at the clinic, are the school nurse, Mrs. Theo Evans, Mrs. Jerome Southers, Mrs. E. C. Cunningham, Mrs. James Wright and Mrs. Robert Sims.

We came across a paragraph in Marie Ross's column, "Around the Town over the Weekend," last week in the Kansas City Call. Miss Ross, who formerly worked with the Bystander, wrote "Recently from a friend in Iowa, I received an invitation to attend the first 'Stay at Home Tea' sponsored by the Kyles A.M.E. Zion Missionary society in Des Moines. In the letter was a tiny tea bag with the information that in the bag, I will find some good tea. No need to dress—But sip your tea—Oh, the fun it will be with guests you cannot see." The invitation included a self-addressed stamped envelope for my contribution before Mar. 6. Mrs. Fay Frazier, the sender, knew that I would appreciate not having to dress for tea—and some other persons might have the same feeling. Now you can enjoy tea with any group you like, in any part of the country by just getting a tea bag from them."

When Mrs. Frazier's sister called in the news this week about the program that will climax the tea on Sunday at Kyles, she said the group had very good response from the "invitations." She said many comments, expressing delight at the idea, had accompanied the contributions, and many had promised they would wait until the appointed day, Mar. 6.

We add our compliments on the idea. It was a unique and refreshing idea. It seems Mrs. Oscar Peavy had given the Society the idea. However, it is not known if the idea originated with her or was given to her by someone else.

Members of the 11-13 year-old group of Jack and Jill met for a business meeting at the home of Mrs. Jeannette Bethel, 1326 11th street, with her sister, Mrs. Nathaniel Morton in charge. Afterwards the group was taken to the Park Fair shopping center where each member selected a craft to work on following business meetings.

We had a little scare over the weekend when our youngest tripped while running, and fell cutting her tongue quite deeply. However, it proved only to be a scare. We were finally able to stop the bleeding, and except for momentary discomfort, she passed the remaining weekend in good cheer.

Earlier this week we had a letter from an African youth who is seeking pen pals in the United States. He is Mussey Joe Adigun, who wrote: "I am a Nigerian boy, 16 years old, 5 feet 2 inches tall and seeking pen pals from the United States of America regardless of age or sex."

"I will like to exchange letters and some African articles for American wear like sports shirts, pants, sweaters, and jackets, but for African wear! I will send Ebony carvings, ivory carvings, brief cases, silk purses, crocodile skins, hand bags, wallets, etc. with anyone who is interested."

"I will be grateful if my letter is published in your widely spread journal. May God be with you and crown your efforts with success. "Awaiting letters from your readers, am Mussey Joe Adigun, 4. Eleive Lane, Via Massey Street, Lagos, Nigeria.

Commissionette Club Plan Meals Sunday

The Commissionette club will serve a pork chop breakfast and chitterling dinner at the Elks club, 783 12th street on Sunday, Mar. 15 from 7 a.m. until.

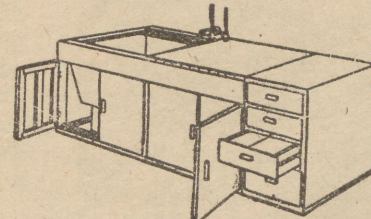

The convention committee will meet at 3 p.m. at the club the same day.

Enclose Laundry Tubs

STORAGE is a "must" in the laundry, but oftentimes it is makeshift and unsatisfactory. Wise homemakers can readily make a combination linen chest and laundry supply cabinet which will serve also to hide unsightly stationary tubs.

As shown in the illustration, the handyman can enclose the tubs, construct a chest of drawers next to them, and create a handy clothes sorting table on top. To do the best job from the standpoint of cost, appearance and long life, he should build a framework of 2 by 2-inch lumber and cover it with smooth Masonite Tempered Presdwood, one-quarter inch thick.

Drawer construction can be simple. Just form the framework of lumber and attach a bottom of Presdwood. Wooden slides attached to the cabinet and sides of the drawers complete that part of the project.

The lumber framework for the enclosures should be no farther than 16" apart. Swinging doors to enclose the tubs may be made, too, as illustrated, or sliding doors of Tempered Presdwood unframed, may be made. They will slide in grooves cut into the cabinet floor and upper framework.

Prime and paint the installation for the best appearance.

BIGOTRY INVESTS IN FIGHT ON CIVIL RIGHTS

The coordinating committee of the Fundamentals American Freedoms, Inc., of Washington, D.C., published a full page ad in the Des Moines Register and Tribune (undoubtedly it appeared in many papers all over the country) calling the civil rights bill now pending in the senate a 100 billion dollar blackmail. It set out numerous things the measure proposes to correct, which in itself is advertising to the world injustices minorities suffer, which many people never thought existed.

The officers, whose names appear in the ad, are lawyers and newspaper men spending their time around Washington gobbling up movements which while lucrative often spare no pains to smear anyone.

If we are to consider the civil rights bill a 100 dollar blackmail, it might be well to attempt some figure on the value of the blackmail Negroes have suffered since they were brought to America in 1620. For 243 Negroes lived in physical slavery. They worked without pay enriching the coffees of their masters. The value of this service cannot possibly be estimated in dollars. (The so-called civil rights blackmail is in the inflated dollar.) A hundred billion is just peanuts.

During the 101 years since emancipation, states with segregated schools spent from 2 to 6 more dollars per child on white than Negroes children. Can this be estimated?

In many backward state over the years, from public parks, libraries and other facilities furnished by tax dollars Negroes were excluded. Here, not only was he excluded but also his tax dollars helped to support them. The cost cannot be estimated.

The latest blackmail is the use of public funds to fight laws which accord Negroes their constitutional rights. In at least one state, the legislature has appropriated funds directly to a board set up specifically to fight integration. Negroes tax dollars are helping to pay for this.

Untold money is spent in areas where whites live, while in so-called Negro neighborhoods very little. Some more blackmail.

This organization is formed not to protect any rights of citizens but to help deny the Negro his rights. Apparently, they are well financed because the ads are expensive. But like the drowning man, they are grabbing desperately at straws which cannot stop them from drowning. Negroes have come a long way and will continue because their cause is just not withstanding Fundamental American Freedoms, Inc.

GOLDWATER DOOMED FOR NOMINATION

The New Hampshire primary vote Tuesday gave Senator Goldwater, the conservative candidate for the Republican nomination 16 thousand votes, Lodge 26 thousand, Rockefeller 15 and Nixon 12 thousand.

It is fair to assume than 16 thousand votes for Goldwater and 53 thousand for other candidates show clearly that most of the voters do not like Goldwater's brand of statesmanship; that they are not prepared to support a conservative.

While the New Hampshire primary is not a conclusive test, most states outside the South will be found supporting candidates whose programs are not in line with those of Goldwater.

SENATE LEADERSHIP NOT DEMONSTRATING GOOD FAITH EFFORT

"Southerners senators won first round in civil rights battle," heads the news about the debate on the bill now pending in the senate. And victory comes by invoking a simple rule which the leadership headed by Senators Mansfield and Humphrey should be known as well as Senator Russell.

The sessions start off in a leisurely manner as if no extraordinary matter was before the body. Frankly, the leadership is not showing good faith, but shadow-boxing in order to fool the public.

Wichita Stall Beats Drake in Playoff; Bulldogs to N. I. T. on TV Saturday Afternoon

By Staff Writer

Lawrence, Kans.—Drake was up, but Wichita was higher. Or you might say it another way. The Shockers shocked the tenacious Bulldogs by going into a prolonged stall and managed to hold onto the ball and their slim lead until the bell rang ending the game. Anyway when the hysteria had died down the score still remained Wichita 58 and Drake 50, in the playoff game that decided which of the co-holders of the Missouri Valley Conference title would represent the conference in the regional N.C.A.A. tournament which began on the Wichita home court several days later.

To N.I.T.

Drake who came out second best in the playoff stall, . . . beg your pardon, . . . we mean game, will appear in a nationally televised game on Saturday against Pittsburgh in the National Invitational Tournament at New York City.

Foul!

Coach Maurice John who had cried "Foul," when he protested that three vicious fouls against Wichita players had not been called in the final hectic and awakening moments of the game Friday, later announced that the Bulldogs had the better piece of pie after all by getting to appear in a nationally televised game.

Few Facts

Getting down to a few facts and statistics, Gene Bogash played his heart out and was top scorer for the Bulldogs, and Captain Billy Foster, Larry Prins, McCoy McLemore all helped Drake to present a balanced scoring and rebounding effort.

Highpoint man for the Shockers was All-American selection Dave Stallworth.

Back to Normal

When fan fever had got back to normal most admitted that the Shockers had won by better ball handling and through stalling tactics, which is legal in high school and college basketball, and which also was about the only way Wichita could beat a hot Drake team who clung like a leech to their adversary throughout the game.

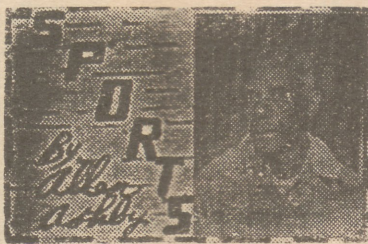

NCC Record Setting Track Team Gets A Hero's Welcome

Durham, N. C.—The Thinclads of North Carolina college erased a record that had stood for 11 years, when they set a new world indoor mark in winning the sprint medley with a clocking of 1:51.3 in the National AAU track and field championships in New York recently.

Coached by Leroy Walker, members of the victorious NCC team who came home to a heroes' welcome last week are:

Andrew McCray of Elizabeth, N. J.; Norman Tate of East Orange, N. J.; Robert Johnson Charleston, S. C.; and Edwin Roberts, Trinidad, West Indies.

The old world medley record was set in 1953 by the New York Grand Street Boys' Club in 1:52.0.

The big news of the week was the playoff basketball game between Drake and Wichita. There isn't anybody around who doesn't know how the thing came out. Most Drake followers are angry at the stalling tactics used by the Shockers. But the team played what they had to play in order to win. As we interpreted the game Wichita tried hard to build up a big lead and failing to do that did the next best thing. As one writer put it basketball is the only sport in which you protect a lead by stalling. The pros changed their rules to end just such games as that. They have to shoot in 25 seconds or lose the ball. The college or high school teams could have a 30 second interval.

Last Minutes

The last three to five minutes of a game now are spent marching to the foul line. The team may be one point behind but if the opponent goes into a stall you must foul a player hoping he doesn't make his free throws. But usually he does and you are farther behind. So the game ends with you losing by seven or eight points because you tried to get the ball.

Boxing

So former champ Floyd Patterson has challenged the new champ Cassius Clay. The Clay handlers will laugh this one off and point to Patterson's two Liston fights. But really the guys who handle the new champion know that in spite of the two Liston fiascos Patterson would have a good chance to give Cassius a good fight and might beat him. It should be remembered that Patterson also knocked Archie Moore when the latter was a few years younger than when he lost to Clay.

And after the Clay-Liston thing we believe anything could happen. But Clay's backers and handlers don't intend to see an anything happen.

The baseball season is on us again. Maybe this year we will get to see if the Dodgers were lucky or really good. But do you know it has been a long time since any national league team won two pennants in a row? Milwaukee was the last club, to win the trick in 1957 and 1958.

This could be the year the Yankees get theirs but we don't think so.

WISHES

Do you wish the world were better? Let me tell you what to do: Set your watch upon your actions, Keep them always straight and true; Rid your mind of selfish motives, Let your thought be clear and high; You can make a little Eden Of the sphere you occupy. Do you wish the world were wiser? Well, suppose you make a start By accumulating wisdom In the scrap-book of your heart.

Do not waste one page on folly,

Live to learn and learn to live;

If you want to give men knowledge,

You must get it ere you give.

Do you wish the world were happy?

Then remember day by day

Just to scatter seeds of kindness

As you pass along the way.

For the pleasures of the many

May be oft times traced to one,

As the hand that plants the acorn

Shelters armies from the sun.

It is the close observation of little things which is the secret of success in business, in art, in science, and in every pursuit in life.—Samuel Smiles.

HAZZARD, STALLWORTH AND RUSSELL NAMED BASKETBALL ALL AMERICA

New York—Three outstanding Negro collegians—Walt Hazzard of UCLA, Dave Stallworth of Wichita and Cazzie Russell of Michigan—have been named to Look Magazine's ten-man All America team, picked by the United States Basketball Writers Association.

The All America selections, made through the basketball writers' nine-man voting committee (representing each of the nine NCAA districts), were announced today in Look Magazine.

Some Of Liston's 'Former Friends' Says: 'He Threw It'

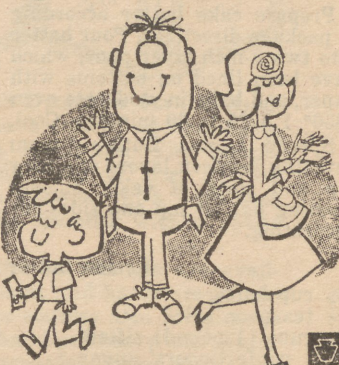

Jefferson City, Mo.—Dethroned heavyweight champion Sonny Liston's poor showing against Cassius Clay, the man who divested him of his title, so upset inmates at the Missouri State Penitentiary, where Sonny once served time, that some of them even felt he "threw the fight."

Prison officials said inmates reacted with a mixture of howls and angry statements when Liston failed to come out for the seventh round complaining of a dislocated shoulder.

WILKINS TO SPEAK IN CANADA, VA., N. H.

New York — NAACP Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins' continuing heavy schedule of public appearances in behalf of the Fight for Freedom calls for addresses at the Association's Southeast regional conference in Macon, Ga., March 8; a luncheon meeting of the Osgoode Legal and Literary Society, Toronto, Canada, March 10; and a mass rally of the newly organized NAACP branch, Manchester, N.H., March 15.

It's in the cards

Dad is in for more than his fair share of ribbing come Father's Day, June 18.

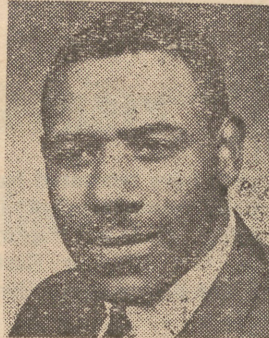

The studio type greeting cards, for example, proclaim all sorts of true things about Dad. For example:

"To Dad who is always calm, cool, and . . . collected from!" Or, "Happy Father's Day to the man who has everything!" Inside caption reads: "Mortgaged to the hilt!"

And then there is always the Dad "who fixes everything . . . so that we have to call the repairman!"

Dad rates an "A" for effort in all endeavors, however, and come his big day, many Dads will be receiving special recognition with this card from Rust Craft. "Dad, you deserve a special award." Inside is a cut-out gold leafed medal inscribed with: "A-1 type Daddy-O, Winner of Bread, Lender of Automobile, Doer-of-It-Yourself, and Long Suffering Martyr."

Bob Parks . . . another of our nice-to-know folks at Des Moines Savings

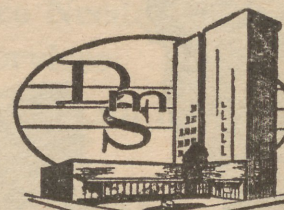

Bob is a very important part of our modern and highly technical Data Processing Center.

In fact, Bob has had special training in preparing wiring boards required for the various types of processing in our electronic equipment. He acquired this "know how" at the IBM training center in Des Moines before coming with us at Des Moines Savings.

When you take a tour through our newly modernized and expanded offices, you'll probably meet Bob. (And, by the way, group tours are always welcome with advance arrangements made through Ron Hallock's office).

We're mighty proud to have Bob Parks on our staff. He's a great addition to our really nice-to-know folks.

A wallet designed to hold favorite snapshots is an excellent Mother's Day gift. Let the whole family join in helping her pick out just the right pictures for it.

Focusing on Mother

Mother's Day is one dear to the hearts of all families, and one which just naturally makes everybody think about pictures—pictures to take and pictures to give.

Each family's own special way of honoring Mother is worthy of record. Your own version of the whole "Queen-for-a-day" story—from Dad's serving her breakfast in bed to the children's goodnight kiss—will make a series of wonderful pictures that Mother can enjoy over and over all through the year.

Among the gifts that Mother will treasure are pictures of various members of her family in an album especially compiled for her. So, this week is a good time to collect the family snapshots from their hiding places in odd drawers and boxes and make up an album as a surprise for Mother. Other gifts will be doubly welcome if they carry an extra dividend of pictures, too. A leather wallet for Mother will look twice as handsome to her if its transparent identification pockets hold snapshots of the family. And so will a locket or one of the new watch bands with place for tiny pictures of those she holds dear.

An enlargement of an especially good picture of Dad and the children—framed appropriately for her desk or dresser—is another gift that says "I Remember Mama" in a way that's sure to please any mother. Or perhaps you might want to take a series of small snapshots—one of each member of the family—and arrange them in a long narrow frame to grace her dressing table.

As you can see, the day set aside to honor Mother is one on which pictures really have their day, too! —John Van Guilder
