City Manager Meets the 'Public' at Willkie House, Reiterates 'Merit Hiring'

About 100 civic minded, eager advocates of equal rights welcomed City Manager Chenoweth in a "Special Public Affairs" meeting at Willkie House Sunday afternoon.

After giving the audience a resume of his personal background and ambitions, Chenoweth referring to the pressures by civil rights groups for hiring a Negro meter maid, emphasized that all hiring by the city would be by merit only.

Studies

He also reported that he would request the Des Moines Commission on Human Rights conduct a study of the problem and progress in the city with respect to equal opportunity and report the findings and make suggestions and recommendations to him. He also noted that a special study group from the State University of Iowa had been asked to make a study of the structure of city government in Des Moines with an emphasis to streamlining the governmental bodies.

(The day following Chenoweth's speech a Negro was among two meter maids hired by the city, as announced.)

Questions

During his talk and answering questions which ranged from equal hiring and treatment by the city to garbage clean-up to teaching assignments in the public schools, Manager Chenoweth continually reminded his audience that he had only been in the city 10 weeks and had not had time to study all the aspects of the city's problems with respect to human relations and ordinances related to them.

"However, all my staff members and department heads, know my feelings on the matter," he added. "I want to assure everyone that as long as I am city manager I will do my best to help make it a city that will be a good place to live, to make a living, play and all the things for natural, normal life."

Negro Newspapers Celebrate 137th Year; Bystander Planning for 70th

This week—Mar. 15-21—marks the 137th anniversary of the founding of the first Negro newspaper, Freedom Journal, by John B. Russwurm in New York City on Mar. 16, 1927.

Today there are nearly 200 Negro newspapers, two of them dailies in the United States.

The Iowa Bystander, which is the only Negro newspaper in the state of Iowa, will be celebrating its 70th year of publishing in Des Moines in June. The advertising and news staff are getting plans underway for a banner edition, one that they hope will be kept by its readers for posterity.

Everyone in Iowa will have a chance to help the Bystander make its 70th anniversary a memorable occasion. Civic, fraternal, religious and social organizations and groups as well as individuals will have an opportunity to join in the celebration. Any person or group in the state who is interested in participation is asked to call or write the Bystander for additional information or contact the Bystander news correspondent in your city or area.

Corinthian Baptist Gets Life Member Plaque

Last Sunday morning at the 11 a.m. service Mrs. J. B. Morris, Sr., presented Ike Smalls, life membership chairman of the NAACP, who in turn presented the life membership NAACP plaque to Corinthian Baptist church.

In receiving the plaque Rev. Norman R. Olphin said, "It is true that divine justice supersedes the justice of men, but, if we are to love one another in this world, then the church is to manifest an interest in the secular organizations dedicated to fairness, equal rights and justice for all people. The NAACP has proven itself to be such an organization. Thus, Corinthian goes on record as giving aid to the cause of racial elevation that has been so ably championed by the NAACP throughout the years."

Making the presentation above to Rev. Olphin is Ike Smalls (right). Watching the proceedings is Vernon K. Ashford (left) chairman of the deacon board and A. P. Trotter, chairman of the trustee board.

According to Mr. Smalls, Corinthian Baptist church is the only church in Iowa that has a life membership in the NAACP.

Mrs. George Broadus Is First Negro Named to Force in Des Moines

By Frances E. Hawthorne

On May 1 Des Moines' first Negro meter maid will begin her tour of duty with the city. She is Mrs. George Broadus, 33, of 102 Hull avenue, one of two new meter maids hired Monday.

"I am real pleased and will do my best so there will be no regrets about my being hired," Mrs. Broadus said in a telephone interview. "I always try to do my best on any job I have."

When questioned about the "walking elements" of her new job Mrs. Broadus said with a laugh, "I won't mind the walking. I'm used to that. I was a store detective for a local department store and I walked up to 50 miles a day and got no where."

Family Proud

Referring to the reactions of her husband and two sons, 15 and 11, Mrs. Broadus stated, "My family is really proud."

Mrs. Broadus said she applied for the meter maid position about a year ago for "no special reason" but because she thought she would like the type of work.

"I have always liked dealing with the public," she ended.

Mrs. Broadus

Background

Mrs. Broadus currently is employed at Katz drugstore at 19th and Carpenter and for the past four months has been a department head. She attended East high school but quit six months before receiving her diploma. She is 5 feet 3½ inches tall and weighs 125 pounds.

Born in New London, Mo., Mrs. Broadus is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Caldwell, 1623 Walker st.

Rights Groups

For the past several months The Des Moines chapter of Congress of Racial Equality and other civil rights organizations have held meetings with city officials, appeared at Council meetings and wrote letters urging that a Negro be named to fill one of two meter maid vacancies. City officials had repeatedly stated that all hiring would be on merit only.

Ticked Pink

Patrolman Tony Mihalovich, Meter Maid maid supervisor, said, "I'm tickled pink that we have two fine girls to add to our force."

The two new meter maids will bring the force to eight. They will begin work on May 1. Their starting salary will be $279 a month.

Count 1,683 Letters to Iowa Senators During D.M. Mail-in mailed to Senators Jack Miller and Bourke B. Hickenlooper in the "Write-in" drive held here Sunday sponsored by the Des Moines branch of the NAACP in co-operation with other civil rights organizations.

This was the report given late Sunday afternoon by Frank B. Robinson, assistant superintendent of collection and delivery of mails at the main post office.

Satisfied

According to Robert A. Wright, NAACP branch president, this count fell short of the minimum of 2,000 hoped for. "But we are satisfied," he added. "We appreciate the effort of those who participated in the drive. This is answer to the Senators of Iowa as to what we wish them to do about civil rights legislation."

4,500 MARCH FOR RIGHTS THROUGH SNOW IN ALBANY

Albany, N. Y. — Approximately 4,500 persons from every part of New York State braved snow, freezing rain and slush this week to demonstrate for their rights in the state capital.

The march, sponsored by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and backed by other civil rights and union organizations, was held, March 10, to press demands for strong civil rights and labor legislation.

Dr. Eugene T. Reed, NAACP State Conference president, and labor leader A. Philip Randolph headed a committee that presented a list of seven demands in a meeting with Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Justice Department Urges Ala. be Required To Desegregate All

Washington, D. C.—In a precedent setting action Friday, Mar. 13 the U. S. Justice Department asked a Federal Court to require Alabama to take positive steps to eliminate racial segregation in its public schools.

The request came in a brief filed in a suit pending in a Federal District Court in Montgomery, Ala., calling for state-wide desegregation of public schools. It marked the first time the department had taken so broad a stand in a court action.

Questions

The brief stated the government's views in reply to six specific questions asked by the court. The pending suit is against the Macon County School Board, urging that it be prohibited from blocking integration of the county's three high schools.

The department contended that state officials led by Gov. George Wallace repeatedly had demonstrated their power over local school boards in enforcing segregation.

By the same token, the department said, the court should order Wallace and the State Board of Education "to take affirmative steps to eliminate the dual school system, based on race, which now exists in Alabama."

Negro Publishers Report Russwurm Winners for 1963

Philadelphia, Pa.—A comedian turned Civil Rights fighter, and the assassinated Mississippi NAACP Field Director topped the list of ten individuals named by the National Newspaper Publishers Association to receive its 1964 Russwurm Awards.

Dick Gregory, who recently has seen more of jail cells than footlights, and Medgar Evers, slain Mississippi civil rights leader, were unanimous choices of the association's board of directors to receive the awards.

They were announced Sunday by E. Washington Rhodes, president of the organization and publisher of the twice-a-week Philadelphia Tribune.

Other winners were the late President John F. Kennedy; Clarence Mitchell, chief of the NAACP's Washington Bureau; Carl Rowan, former Ambassador to Finland and recently named director of the U.S. Information Service.

Also, Martin Luther King; A Philip Randolph, who spearheaded the March on Washington last August; Dr. Aaron Henry, president of the Mississippi NAACP; Jomo Kenyatta, premier of newly independent Kenya; and Thurgood Marshall, associate justice of the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

These citations, named in honor of John B. Russwurm, founder of the first Negro newspaper, "Freedom's Journal," in New York City on March 16, 1827, are awarded annually by the publishers of the nation's Negro newspapers.

Jessie Mae entered the O-Be-Joyful Tavern, sat down at the bar, set her 'carpet bag' on the floor against the counter without greeting a living soul. "One token integration on the rocks," she called out to Gus, the bartender, busily serving beer to his customers.

Customers in the immediate vicinity wondered secretly what Gus could be selling 'on the rocks' in a beer parlor and kept an eye on the outcome. Gus glided down to Jess with a beer.

"What's this Token Integration On the Rocks stuff?" the bartender concealed his amusement behind a solemn face.

"You see, Gus, I need a strong drink before I go down and kiss 'Massa Charlie' on all four cheeks for hiring one Negro meter maid after seven years including one year of investigation," Jess confided in Gus. Beer went down the windpipes of two eavesdroppers as they coughed and choked with laughter at the vision of this Negro woman cordially embracing a segregationist and thanking him for his generosity.

Jess continued explaining to the bartender, "I wouldn't want 'Massa Charlie' to be thinking we're ungrateful or pushing too fast," she added in mock seriousness.

"Woman, ain't you never satisfied?" Gus threw up his hands and walked away.

"Guess what?" Jess Mae prodded the bartender. "We are gonna be real happy when Negroes are less than 50 percent of the unemployed in this country and 15 percent of the population. I'll even buy you a beer or two, Gus."

"You might mention that to 'Massa Charlie' while you are downtown," Gus suggested to Jess.

"Facts stir up trouble, 'Massa Charlie' is interested in peace—not progress," Jess explained. The conversation was rudely interrupted by the entrance of Wide-mouth and Knot-head.

"Hi, Jessie Mae. I heard we finally got a Negro meter maid. Congratulations."

"Yeah, that CORE is 'out of sight' Girl!" Wide-mouth joined Knot-head in approval. "Bring the lady a beer, Gus," Knot-head asked as he sat down to chat with Jessie Mae. "Tell me, what's new now that we've got the meter maid?"

"It's the same old story," Jess answered. We dare not close our eyes in sleep at night or the discrimination will go right on. You know that, Knot-head."

"You mean to tell me," Wide-mouth questioned indignantly, "they gonna be hiring all them unqualified Negroes 'Massa Charlie' talks about?"

"Don't be stupid," Knot-head cautioned his friend. "They're gonna hire the most qualified."

Gus studied his watch closely and held it to his ear, took it off and began to wind it ceremoniously before addressing Jessie Mae.

"You better be on your way downtown, Sister. Maybe that long line of folks trying to explain how they don't believe in preferential hiring has thinned out a little so you can get in and be grateful," the bartender suggested with a sly grin.

The Rev. E. A. Galters, 59, of 1135 10th street, was fined $50 Friday, Mar. 13, by Municipal Judge Harry B. Grund on a charge of failure to leave his name and address at the scene of an auto accident.

Warning

Sometime this year you may find yourself coughing on and off for days or weeks on end, as lots of people do. And if you do, it really isn't a subject for guessing games. A chronic cough may be nature's warning that something worse than a lingering cold is involved. In fact a chronic cough is, like shortness of breath, a common symptom of RD. What does RD stand for? Respiratory Disease—sickness of the breathing system.

Chronic

A chronic cough is one that lasts several weeks, or that goes away but keeps coming back. Even if you cough only in the morning or at night, if it goes on for a month or more you have a chronic cough and your Tuberculosis Association advises you to have it looked at. And the person to do the looking is the real umpire—your doctor.

BREAKING LILLY WHITE CITY JOBS

City Manager Chenoweth had an opportunity to hear from many Negro citizens Sunday complaints concerning the hiring policies of the city over the years, which, to say the least, have been most unsavory; that even though these conditions had been brought to the attention of city officials, nothing had been done to correct them.

The manager, seemingly impressed, promised to give the matter attention and stated that already work had commenced in that direction.

Monday, the manager hired the first Negro meter maid. The appointment followed a series of protests by Core and the NAACP charging that there had existed a policy of excluding Negroes from these jobs.

For this, the manager is to be congratulated. The appointee should be congratulated for she qualified for the post which placed her in a position to be considered for appointment.

There are other departments which have been all-white for forty years—in fact the fire department which hires more men than any other department.

Des Moines has a Commission on Human Rights and Job Discrimination. It has had some type of commission since 1951. However, its pressure has been resented by many department heads showing that they felt exempt from its operation. But with the advent of the national equal opportunity drive and the pressure from groups which call upon both business and government to respond, changes do come.

NEGRO NEWSPAPER WEEK MARCH 15-22

The week of March 15 to 22 is being observed as Negro Newspaper Week. The number of special observance weeks has become so great that it takes an observance calendar to keep track of them.

Negro newspapers have had a hectic history due to many causes. The early ones were started when the owners had little to work with; either money, know how or advertising. Their primary activity was propaganda.

Lacking the tools which make for a newspaper, they came and went. Some managed to build good circulation and advertising clientele.

During the last quarter century, many Negro newspapers have prospered—particularly in centers where there is a large Negro population. Advertisers have come to realize that Negroes have money to spend just as any other groups and that Negro newspapers were an excellent medium through which to sell their wares.

Subscriptions among white people have grown considerably due to the general interest in the improvement of the status of the Negro.

The day may come when Negro newspapers are no longer needed but as long as racial prejudice and discrimination prevail in America, their pressure in the struggle to eliminate them must go on.

BAD CONDUCT BY MEN IN HIGH PLACES

The full page ad against the civil rights law now pending in Congress which has appeared in many newspapers discloses information which the public should know about.

First, the secretary of Fundamental American Freedom's, Inc. is a former president of the American Bar Association.

Second, most of the money expended by this sponsoring organization comes from the state of Mississippi public treasury raised by taxes paid by Negroes as well as whites.

Newspapers have a right to publish the views of the public even though at times, they are disagreeable; But the doings of a former president of the American Bar Association should be on higher grounds.

But he comes from Mississippi and southerners get away with some unsavory things in racial manner in which most southern manner in which most other states have complied with the school segregation decision.

Drake Beats Pittsburgh, Then Edged Out of N. I. T. by New Mexico

By Staff Writer

New York City—Drake, accustomed to pulling game after game out of the fire, was not quite hot enough here Tuesday night to quench New Mexico university who were on fire themselves, as they muffed chance after chance.

The Bulldogs who in their initial game in the N.I.T. tourney here Saturday beat a tenacious Pittsburgh by five points, 87-82, were themselves subdued by the same number of points by the Lobos, 65-60.

Not Up to Par

Not quite up to par the Bulldogs trailed throughout the entire game and only tied it at several points during the contest. In the last few minutes they seemed headed for inevitable defeat, the Bulldogs who often caught fire in the last minutes of their game, caught fire again, but it was soon extinguished as they pulled within a point of New Mexico only to be smothered by their opponent who would not be panicked.

Statistics

Highpoint man for the Bulldogs who had carried themselves and their Missouri Valley Coach of the Year, Maurice John, to national acclaim, was McCoy McLemore who garnered 28 points. Team Captain Billy Foster who had carried the team most of the year, on spectacular last minute-efforts, reached the point of diminishing return. In the clutch his usual accuracy at the free throw line failed him. He left the game with 11 points.

Thus the night put an end to the basketball hopes and dreams of the 1963-64 Drake team.

Ring Mag Names Clay, 'Fighter Of The Month'

New York—Ring Magazine last week announced what Cassius Clay said he already knew. It named the loquacious heavyweight champion from Louisville as the Fighter of the Month.

The Ring's accolade appeared somewhat belated, however, because Clay had already proclaimed himself to the world as "The greatest, and most beautiful heavyweight."

At Coaching Clinic

Atlantic City, N. J.—Florida A & M's Rattler coach Jake Gaither will serve on the staff of the 14th annual National Football Coaching Clinic here in Convention Hall, March 16-19.

The nation's winningest football coach will speak on "The Psychology of Coaching" and "Spread Your Way to Victory."

The season between indoor basketball and outdoor track is just about on us. The various all-star basketball teams are being picked. It would seem that the pickers are determined not to make the same whatever it was a few years back when about seven of the first 12 squad members were Negroes. Now one finds two or three on most of the teams and they aren't always the same group. So there must be a lot of good Negro cage talent around.

Of course, there are a lot of white boys who play the game also and one could pick a formidable team of either race leaving the other one out entirely.

Girls Basketball

As we watched the girls basketball meet here we found ourselves comparing the boys and girls high school meets here. The girls come to town on Monday and make a week of it. They have a chance to meet each other in a social way and we would guess that a lot of the girls form lasting friendships because of this contact. Our only complaint about the girls meet is that we wish the larger schools would take up girls basketball so some Negro girls could get to appear in the meet. As near as we can recall we can't think more than four who have appeared in the meet.

Boys

The boys on the other hand come to play and do just that. They don't have too much time to make friends or do anything else but play basketball. Theirs is a hurried pace and there isn't anytime for anything else. But there have been some brilliant Negro performers through the years because of the larger schools, being in the final meet.

Other States

In the other states there is a good chance that one of the numerous good all-Negro teams out of Chicago may take the state cage meet; in Illinois there are so many good Negro teams there that it is hard to say which is best out of a given day anyone might beat any other of the clubs.

Football Game

Tallahassee, Fla. — The annual Orange and Green Football Game will be played here in Bragg Stadium Saturday afternoon, March 21. The contest will be spring football practice for the Florida A&M University Rattlers.

In Iowa... after bowling, beer is a natural

After you've bowled a game or two, or when you're winding up the evening at the neighborhood bowling center, it's good to relax with friends and compare scores. What better way to add to the sport and the sociableness than with a refreshing glass of beer? However you take your fun—skiing, skating, or at your ease in the game room—beer always makes a welcome addition to the party.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom — and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.

In Iowa...beer goes with fun, with relaxation

Pro Grid Star Scores As An ABC Commentator

Miami Beach, Fla. — One of the few persons—besides Cassius—scoring a hit at the Cassius Clay-Sonny Liston abbreviated heavyweight title fight, was Jim Brown, football ace and lately a movie star.

Brown, who recently began work on a western film in Hollywood, scored heavily with radio listeners throughout the nation as a commentator handling commercials for a soft-drink company, over the American Broadcasting Company's network.

In Indiana a couple of Negro teams are driving for their state meet honors with a fair chance of making it. And so it goes all around us. How many, if any, of these good boys will Iowa U get?

Boxing

Couldn't help noticing the Jack Dempsey blast at the Liston-Clay fight and also at Liston. As we recall it there were no super men in nempsey's era. Maybe then the code called for a boxer to go out like a champ with one hand if he had to. We aren't trying to establish anything except that boxing isn't quite as impervious to injuries as it was in Dempsey's day. There is too much fuss about a fellow getting seriously injured in the ring for anyone to let a fellow go on with any kind of a handicap, title or no title. The very fellows who said the fellow shouldn't have quit would have howled to high heaven had the thing resulted in permanent injury to either man.

As surely as, the sun fades away—
Tomorrow, YOU—may not, see the break of day—

So make your peace, with God and pray—

Get down on your knees, without delay—

One thing, we know—we all must die—

And in the earth, we all must lie—
So while we can—bow down your head—

Who knows—for tomorrow, YOU may be dead—

For surely as—a tree may grow—
Our day, will come, this we know—

And no one knows, the hour or day—
"IT'S YOU, I WANT" the "GOOD

So while there's life, don't hesitate,
After death, will be too late,

Instead of Heaven, YOU'll go to hell—

NOW—say your prayers, and say

them well—
You may feel, you have a long life to live—

And later, in life, your devotion, you'll give—

BUT—HE may have, other plans for you—

AND—YOU may not, be one of the chosen few—

Now—while we're young, let's give ourselves—

To GOD, and ask his help—
To lead a better life, which, won't be hard to do—

And—maybe YOU'LL be, one of the Bob is a very important part of our modern and highly technical Data Processing Center.

In fact, Bob has had special training in preparing wiring boards required for the various types of processing in our electronic equipment. He acquired this "know how" at the IBM training center in Des Moines before coming with us at Des Moines Savings.

When you take a tour through our newly modernized and expanded offices, you'll probably meet Bob. (And, by the way, group tours are always welcome with advance arrangements made through Ron Hallock's office).

We're mighty proud to have Bob Parks on our staff. He's a great addition to our really nice-to-know folks.
