Racial Violence Erupts in Florida

Two Candidates File for State Representative

Both Seek Place on Polk Democrat Ticket

Two Des Moines women, both whose community records reflect more than a minimum of civic-mindedness, and sense of responsibility, announced Monday that they are Democratic candidates for state representatives in the June primary. They are Mrs. Willie S. Glanton, 818 15th street, Des Moines attorney and wife of Municipal Judge Luther T. Glanton, Jr., and Mrs. Virginia G. Hamilton, 929 16th street, who has led efforts to build more favorable public attitudes toward recipients of aid to dependent children (ADC).

A former assistant county attorney for 2½ years Mrs. Glanton said "I have been interested in Democratic politics since I was 16, when I worked with my father in Hot Springs, Ark., in getting people to the polls."

Two Degrees

Born in Hot Springs, she received a bachelor of science degree from Tennessee State University, Nashville, Tenn., and a bachelor of laws degree from Robert H. Terrell Law School, Washington, D. C. She has been practicing since 1955. She has been a committeewoman six years.

The Glantons have one son, 7, Judge and Mrs. Glanton traveled in

Mrs. Hamilton, whose three children, aged 10, 6, and 4, have been eligible for ADC funds for the last four years, said, "We poor people are being governed without being represented."

"Having received public aid, I recognize the need for changes in Iowa's laws," she said. "Poverty is not understood."

Right to Dignity

"It is my conviction that people like me who have had no singular advantage or privilege, people without stature, have the right to a fair share of common dignity and common power."

Mrs. Hamilton said she favors a state minimum-wage law; reorganization of public-welfare programs under an administrator; development of technical schools; and modification of the divorce laws regarding child support and alimony payments.

She was instrumental in organizing the ADC Council of the Y. W. C. A. and Parents for Action of Willkie House, groups which she said enable aid recipients to "exercise responsible citizenship."

Attended Drake

Born in Kansas City, Kan., Mrs. Hamilton was graduated from Fort Dodge High School and attended Capitol City Commercial College and Drake University.

She formerly was a department-store personnel secretary and a medical secretary in a hospital.

She is a member of St. Paul Methodist Church and the Order of the Eastern Star.

Iowa's D.A.R. Sets Precedent; Declares Against Racial Bias

Cedar Rapids, Ia.—In a precedent-setting move, the Iowa Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution Friday approved a civil rights resolution calling for "an end to the equivocation that tolerates denial to any fellow American citizen of the ordinary rights and opportunities enjoyed by any other citizen of our nation."

Mrs. F. E. Corey of Cedar Rapids, chairman of the resolutions committee, called the resolution a "new departure" in that the D. A. R. never has enunciated a policy in the civil rights area.

"We felt that, here in Iowa at any rate, we ought to take a stand," Mrs. Corey said.

The resolution called attention to constitutional guarantees of equal opportunity and urged those rights be recognized "beginning with the right to gain recognition as an individual on his personal merit."

NEWS In A Nutshell

Jackson, Miss. Negro leaders announced last week they will put up two Congressional candidates in Mississippi this year and that they will bring in 1,000 northern college students to work in a "Peace Corps" for voter registrations this summer. Candidates will be Mrs. Fannie Lou Hamer of Ruleville who will run for the second district and the Rev. John Cameron of Hattiesburg, in the fifth district.

Xenia, Ohio — Embattled barber Lewis Gagner last week closed his nearby Yellow Springs barbershop indefinitely to "preserve law and order" in the wake of a mass demonstration against his refusal to cut the hair of Negroes.

Detroit, Mich. — A transplanted Washington, D. C. citizen, who was formerly a local city councilman, has been picked by President Lyndon B. Johnson to serve as advisor for the new federal anti-poverty agency. He is Atty. William T. Patrick, Jr., who vacated his council seat last Jan. 1 to become assistant general counsel for Michigan Bell Telephone company.

Washington, D. C.—The brother of famous entertainer Sammy Davis, Jr., plans to enter the State Department as a liaison specialist following his discharge from the Army this year.

Los Angeles, Calif.—A trio of Negro real estate brokers filed a $400,000 suit in Superior court here last week against the Los Angeles Realty Board, Inc., charging it with racial discrimination in denying membership to Negro realtor, was described as first action of its kind in the United States.

Orange, N. J.—The first Negro to head the Orange Board of Education was elected unanimously last week. He is Dr. John W. Alexander, 45-year-old pediatrician.

Atlanta, Ga.—The City of Atlanta got what was described as a new economic posture when eight Negro-owned businesses joined its chamber of commerce.

Houston, Tex. — Huey P. Mitchell was recently hired as an Assistant City Attorney by the City of Houston Legal department. Mitchell is the first Negro to fill such a position in Houston municipal affairs.

New York—Whitney M. Young Jr., executive director of the National Urban League, called for a "Domestic Marshall Plan" last week to aid the 44 percent of American Negro families that are poor.

New York — Malcolm X, evicted lieutenant of the Black Muslims, has predicted that by June a massive convention will be held here to decide whether to start a "black nationalist party or a black nationalist army." He made the prediction Sunday night before a Harlem rally of more than 1,000 applauding Negroes.

Woman Killed; 400 Jailed As Mobs Roam City With Fire Bombs, Rifles, Rocks

Jacksonville, Fla. — One woman was killed and nearly 400 persons, most of them juveniles, have been arrested as racial violence continued to rage here with roving bands terrorizing the city with small firearms, rocks and fire bombs. The racial clashes erupted when Jacksonville's Mayor Haydin Burns went on Television last Saturday and delivered a message which said in part, that there is no legal or civil right permitting anyone to "force their presence at certain hotels, restaurants and other businesses."

Police

Since then the police have been kept busy to try and contain the sporadic clashes between whites and Negroes. Law enforcement officers have been particularly handicapped at nights when Negroes have been attacked by whites and white versa.

Killed Monday was a Negro woman, Mrs. Johnnie Mae Chappell 36, who was shot and killed as she walked along U.S. Highway 1 north of the city. Police said the shot was fired from a passing automobile. On the same day a white man standing in front of a bar near where Mrs. Chappell was killed was shot in the head and is in critical condition.

Violence

There were reports of other attacks by individuals and small groups. White persons reported their automobiles were pelted with rocks, bricks and other debris. Rifle bullets cracked display windows at three businesses. Fire bombs started minor fires. A bomb scare was reported at an all Negro high school, forcing mass evacuation of the school. It was a false alarm. The bus company discontinued service to the Negro community early Tuesday.

And in it all, the arrests continued. About 242 were arrested Monday. Over 100 more were jailed Tuesday.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People denied the organization was responsible for the demonstrations. Mayor Burns charged it was motivated by some of his opponents in the current race for governor.

All Races Will Be Hosts in Home Vote Drive in Miss.

Des Moines citizens will participate in a second annual "Exercise in Understanding" on Sunday, April 26. Negro and white families will be hosts to people of differing religions and races. With the help of discussion leaders, the participants will probe various aspects of interracial relations. Coffee will be served by the hosts.

This person to person, informal technique for promoting interracial understanding originated at Friendship House, Chicago, Illinois. In the nine years since it was first tried there, it has been used with enthusiasm in over fifty cities.

Sponsor

The home visit day will be under the auspices of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, the Des Moines Commission on Human Rights, and the Des Moines Coordinating Council on Human Relations. Chairman of the event are Mrs. Ben Hall and Mrs. Joseph Wimberly.

For further information or registration, persons may call the Commission on Human Rights office, at 283-2611, ext. 226.

Last year 580 participated with 75 Negro families as hosts.

C. of C. States It Will Work With Rights Group to Help Eliminate Job Bias in D.M.

A segment of businessmen and leaders in Des Moines went on record here last Thursday, Mar. 19 as being in favor of eliminating racial discrimination in jobs.

Thirty of the 52 members of the Des Moines Chamber of Commerce who attended the meeting voted unanimously to endorse the principle of equal employment opportunity regardless of race, creed, color or national origin.

Jerome Wolf, Chamber of Commerce president, said:

"The Chamber of Commerce wants to participate in fair employment practices and all other areas in which the Commission on Human Rights is concerned.

"Merely to pass a resolution to relieve us from pressure is not our objective.

"We don't want to pay only lip service, but want to work with the Commission on Human Rights to see that something actually is accomplished.

"To that end, the directors have asked the Civic Affairs Committee to work closely with the Commission on Human Rights and to make appropriate recommendations about what can be done.

"I think this is a big step in the right direction toward creating a better community and making Des Moines a better place to live."

Encouraging Sign

Ernest Russell, executive secretary of the Commission on Human Rights, said he welcomes the opportunity to work with the Chamber of Commerce committee.

Based on Merit

The resolution passed by the directors states:

"The Greater Des Moines Chamber of Commerce fully endorses the principle of equal employment opportunity based on qualifications—regardless of race, creed, color or national origin.

"The Civic Affairs Committee of the Chamber of Commerce is to work with the Des Moines Commission on Human Rights and Job Discrimination and make appropriate recommendations to the board as to ways and means for implementing the above policy."

Rights Groups Map Strategy For Vote Drive in Mississippi

Jackson, Miss. — A massive voter registration campaign designed to penetrate every county in Mississippi was announced here Sunday, March 15, following an all-day conference of NAACP branches and representatives of other organizations affiliated in the Council of Federated Organizations.

Dr. Aaron Henry, president of the Mississippi State NAACP and chairman of COFO, announced the program and reported an initial contribution of $1,000 from the NAACP national office to get the project under way. Some 350 delegates from 61 counties attended the conference.

In a telegram to Dr. Henry, NA-

ACP Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins hailed the campaign as one of "significance in demonstrating that Negroes are determined to gain the right to vote despite the most difficult obstacles.

The other organizations participating in the campaign include the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, Congress of Racial Equality, and the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee.

The NAACP, Dr. Henry announced, would take responsibility for conducting voter registration drives in Cleve-

New Father Helps Stork..... ...Deliver Own Baby Son

There are very few fathers, even doctors who can lay claim to delivering their own offspring. There are even a lesser number of brand new fathers who would have the nerve to tackle the job and give the stork and assist. But Robert Johnson, 21, of 1226 11th street, is one of that number.

Early Wednesday morning, Mar. 18, he was awakened by his wife, Mary Ann, also 21, and told him "We'd better go to the hospital."

Mr. Jackson, who had only been home about four hours from his drumming job at the Urban Lounge at 936 6th avenue, started to get dressed when his wife told him "to wait a minute."

"And before they knew it the baby was here."

Jackson said he "didn't even get my shorts on" before he realized it was too late to reach the hospital or get a doctor."

"I went in and scrubbed my hands," he said and returned to make the delivery; his wife "told me what to do."

About 4:58 a.m. he had delivered his first born, a son, weighing seven pounds eight ounces.

Family Doctor

The family doctor, Dr. Eustace Ware, arrived about a half hour later, but Mrs. Jackson was feeling so good she elected to remain at home. They named their new baby, Robert, Jr.

ARTISTS RESPOND TO NAACP BOYCOTT DRIVE IN SOUTH

New York—The newest phase of the NAACP campaign to force Southern theatres to desegregate their audiences is showing marked success as several musicians this week stated their intention to boycott such performances.

Vladimir Horowitz, the pianist; Leonard Bernstein, conductor of the New York Philharmonic orchestra; and Erich Leinsdorf, music director of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, indicated their willingness to support the NAACP campaign to obtain pledges from concert artists against playing before segregated audiences.

Personal appeals have been sent to approximately 70 performing artists including such celebrated persons as Van Cliburn, Jascha Heifitz, Shirley Veret, Leontyne Price, Isaac Stern, Eugene Ormandy, Artur Schnabel, William Warfield and many other famous names in the music world.

DEFENSE FUND ATTORNEYS SECURE QUICK RELIEF FOR SHUTTLESWORTH

Washington, D. C.—The U. S. Supreme Court this week reversed an Alabama conviction against Rev. Fred Shuttlesworth, Birmingham integration leader.

The high court ruled within 11 days after the oral argument presented before it by Jack Greenberg, director-counsel of the NAACP Legal Defense Fund.

Rev. Shuttlesworth faced 180 days in jail and a $100 fine for allegedly interfering with Birmingham police during the Freedom Rides of May 1961.

The Justices delivered their swift ruling in three terse lines.

This case grew out of an incident in the Greyhound bus station in Birmingham on May 17, 1961 when Rev.

Shuttlesworth accompanied a group of freedom riders to the terminal.

All had tickets to Montgomery and were slated for a 3 o'clock departure. However, they were forced to wait for a later bus because the driver of the 3 p.m. bus refused to accommodate them.

The Birmingham police then appeared to take the riders into "protective custody." Rev. Shuttlesworth is reported to have inquired as to what was taking place.

He was advised that such was not his concern.

However, Rev. Shuttlesworth insisted on accompanying the riders to the local jail and was arrested. He was the only one of the group against whom charges were pressed.

Des Moines Residents Witness Organization of Harmony Court No. 10 in Council Bluffs Mar. 15

On Sunday, Mar. 15 the Grand Royal Matron Gladys Brown and the Grand Royal Patron, Gus Smith of Des Moines motored to Council Bluffs, Ia., to set-up "Harmony Court No. 10"

Accompanying them were Messrs. and Mmes. Australia Grace, Lawrence Graves, Lowell Bush, Frank Hogan, Albert Garrett, John Danforth, Byron Haytor, William Sharp;

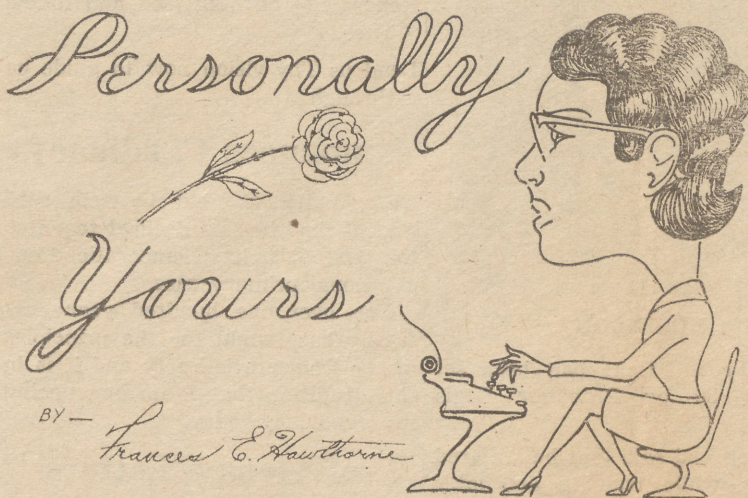

Also, Mesdames Haley D. Johnson, Barbara Peoples, Bertha Wolfer, Osceola Sims, Helen McCraven, Myrtle Taylor, Elizabeth Jackson, Emma Williamson, Felice Rhodes, Henrietta Coates, all of Des Moines and Helen Johnson, grand secretary of Marshalltown, Ia.

Two degrees were conferred, the "Queen of the South" by the Administrative Council, made up of past matrons and patrons of the Eastern Star of Des Moines and the "Amaranth degree" by members of Theodosia Court No. V of Des Moines.

Then the Grand Royal Patron and Matron constituted and dedicated the court. Installation of officers were held. Installed were Mrs. A. Page, Royal Matron; George Garrett, Royal Patron; Mrs. Mary Garrett, Associate Matron; other officers were appointed and installed.

A delicious dinner was served by the ladies of Council Bluffs at the YMCA where the ceremony was held. Corsages were presented to Mrs. G. Brown, G. R. M. and Mesdames Helen Danforth and Leslie Garrett, P.G.R.M., Mrs. Helen Johnson, G. Sec'y., and Mrs. Emma Williamson, Grand Charity. Red and white carnations were presented to others in the visiting group.

It was a little ironic that on the first official day of spring Des Moines had one of its "biggest" snow falls of the winter this year. A few days later, what began like the real thing, turned out to be the tail end of a blizzard and severe storms that hit other sections of Iowa and other states. But like one resident said of last Friday's white carpet, "It was a clean snow; that means we will have one more."

The latter part of his prediction came true Tuesday morning. But whether it will be the last one, remains to be seen. As all wary, veteran Iowans say, "You can never tell about this state."

Of course the white stuff and chill in the air is putting a decided damper on the Easter plans of some residents. How awful it would be to have to fall out in old winter togs.

For P.T.A. volunteers, nurses, doctors, pharmacists, school principals, Junior Chamber of Commerce members and others who assisted in the 71 polio clinics in the Greater Des Moines area, it is a relief to put the Mar. 22 date behind them. But it is only temporary at least. There will be a second go around on May 17 for all the same ones and plus other volunteers.

It was not the best time that a clinic such as last Sunday could be held but it was the only time available. Palm Sunday was a bad time to ask a lot of volunteers to give two or more hours of their time to help with the clinic. But from all reports most of the clinics had good response from those who had volunteered.

We especially would like to thank and commend members of Senior Girl Scouts Troop No. 82, who gave of their time, two hours or more to help with the registration and directing traffic flow at Moulten school clinic. Troop leader is Mrs. Leona Payne.

Most of the troop members came out in their uniforms complete with white girls and they looked very good indeed. Members of the troop are Debbie King, Cecelia Carter, Helen Payne, Suzette Haynes, Reta Dixon, Joan Robinson, Joyce Edwards, Denise King, Pamela Lewis, Billie Metcalf, Colleen Holt, Rosalind Miller, Diana King and Linda Hart. Moulten P.T.A. volunteers were assisted also by two teachers, Mesdames James Morrow and Geraldine Wilson. For the teenage girls it was a worthwhile sacrifice because there aren't too many who would give up their Sunday afternoon for community efforts.

Yours truly took off time from the clinic at Moulten to run over with our family to Willkie House to partake of a delicious buffet dinner sponsored by the teenage group of Jack and Jill of America, Inc. Luckily for us, and several other volunteers who are club members, we had an opportunity to see that the family got good nourishment and still not have to cook or wash dishes. Of course, those of us who were left off from dish washing, our times will come again, when we will have to do KP duty. The teenage members must be commended for such a splendid idea, and for carrying it through.

We attended the city-wide spring roundup for kindergarten school health chairman and officers at Lucas school. While there a lady came up to us and introduced herself as Mrs. Ruby Rogers, who will be president of the Lucas P.T.A. next fall.

Fourth, fifth and sixth grade members of Moulten school put on a play production of "Snowwhite and the Seven Dwarfs" at the school last Thursday, which proved to be the talk of the town. Many school officials and school board members had been invited by several class members and they expressed the delight at seeing such poise and vigor among elementary school children. This of course will give those who are going into the junior high schools next fall some previous experience. There was nearly a capacity house as grandparents and other relatives as well as parents, came out to see the colorful presentation. The production was an hour long. It was presented the next day for the benefit of children in lower grades who had not seen it.

And of course, we were struck by an incident after the play, that reminds us that the teacher will always be the teacher, whether she be retired or not. The former music teacher, now retired, went around among the children, extending them smiling congratulations. Her first glance, handshake and words were to the children, and then to the parents.

Can't Go South? Try Ham Tropical!

NOW THAT THE COLD WEATHER IS HERE, we yearn for warmer climes. But not all of us can pick up stakes and trek for the yellow sands. However, we can create an illusion of sun and color on our dining room table in the foods that we serve and the ways that we serve them. For instance, what could be more gay or provocative than a slice of pink succulent ham, garnished with golden pineapple, yellow bananas and crunchy white coconut? Try this for Sunday dinner next week, and banish thoughts of the cold outdoors!

BROILED HAM TROPIC STYLE

- 1 slice smoked ready-to-eat ham, 1" thick
- 2 green tipped bananas
- 8 slices canned pineapple
- ¾ cup melted butter
- ¾ cup New Orleans molasses
- 1 teaspoon prepared mustard
- ¾ cup pineapple juice (from canned fruit)

Cut fat on ham and stick with cloves. Place in center of broiling pan and surround with bananas cut in sections and pineapple slices. Brush all with melted butter. Combine real New Orleans molasses, mustard and pineapple juice. Spoon molasses mixture over ham and fruit. Place in pre-heated broiler and broil ham 4-5 minutes. Turn ham and pineapple slices, spread with more molasses mixture and broil another 4-5 minutes. Remove banana sections and pineapple rings to warm plate as soon as they appear done. Serve ham surrounded with fruit. Makes 4 servings. (ANS)

DISORDERLY PROTESTS

LOSE US FRIENDS

Civil rights leaders have warned that unless definite progress is made in ridding the country of segregation and racial injustices, picketing, sit-downs and sit-ins would continue. In many places they would be stepped up.

Carried out in legal fashion, this should be done, but in some instances, Negroes have carried their protests beyond the law which not only embarrass their leaders but also lose a lot of friends.

The situation in Jacksonville, Florida is an example. It has gone beyond reason necessitating a call by the NAACP that the picketing be more in line with legal protests.

Twenty-five years ago, Negroes would not have been willing to brave bullets, dogs and water in order to protest to the government against the injustices they suffer. But times have changed. They no longer fear the law that is attempting to treat them unlawfully. With this, most right thinking people will agree. But when those protests get to the point when attempts are made to do the same illegal acts as the unfair white, then we part company here.

It is well to fight fire with fire. But in this quest for full citizenship, the situation does not apply.

IOWA DAR MOVES

AHEAD ON CIVIL RIGHTS

The Iowa Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, meeting in Cedar Rapids last week, passed a resolution unanimously calling for support of the civil rights campaign.

Emphasizing that they spoke for the Iowa members only, the delegates said they felt the time had come when, not only should every American citizen have an equal opportunity, but also that the definite steps must be taken to assure them.

The stand is far from where the national organization has approved from year to year due, of course, to the conservative make-up of the organization and the great influence wielded by southern members.

Its action is similar to the American Legion national organization, which while leading off in its preamble with high sounding words, steered clear of any condemnation of lynchings and other injustices to minorities following world War I.

On the other hand, the Iowa convention condemned lynching and other injustices and invited full participation by Negroes in the Legion and its auxiliary. This can best be exemplified by the honors Negro youngsters have been given in the girl and boys states.

The DAR resolution could not have come in a better time for a rotten campaign is being waged against the Negro's bid for full civil rights throughout the country. Decent people need all the help they can muster so as not to let the rabble be the spokesman on human rights.

CLAY AND LASSMAN

TALK TOO MUCH

Cassius Clay makes a fool of himself in many ways. But the suggestion Ed Lassman, President of the Boxing Association does the same thing when he asks the organization to declare the heavyweight championship vacated because he has become a detriment to boxing. (Recently, Lassman has changed.)

This is a strange move, one which will not hold water with the average person. It must be determined whether or not Clay's conduct is detrimental to boxing and whether any such thing can be done under the rules of the organization.

Clay's conduct at the weighing in before he fought Liston was disgraceful. His association with the Black Muslims along with the advice he gives Negroes to stay among themselves make no contribution to the effort of millions of Americans to solve the race problem with equality for all citizens.

Of course, there are extremists

Commission Threatens to Lift Cassius Clay's World Heavyweight Boxing Title

Miami Beach, Fla.—A poll is being conducted among the 20 member executive committee of the World Boxing Association seeking to support the organization president's demand that new world heavyweight champion Cassius Clay be divested of his crown.

Despite verbal opposition from boxing commissions in New York and Illinois, who say they will not recognize such a ban on the loquacious champion, President Ed Lassman stated Tuesday that he is going ahead with the poll.

Detriment

Lassman claims that the organization seeks to dethrone Clay because "he is a detriment to boxing," and a "poor example to youth." Lassman also pointed to a questionable contract in which the former champion Sonny Liston is reported to have authority to promote Clay's first defense of his title. In addition Lassman points to Clay's recent public announcement that he is a member of the Black Muslim movement. Several days after the Feb. 25 championship fight here in which Clay stopped Liston in a T.K.O. in the 7th round, Cassius said that the next time he appears in the ring he will demand to be announced as "Cassius X, or else he will not answer the bell."

The poll and any action following it is expected to be completed later this week.

in every group. The majority of the people seldom follow either side unless into a situation as as existed in Germany under Hitler.

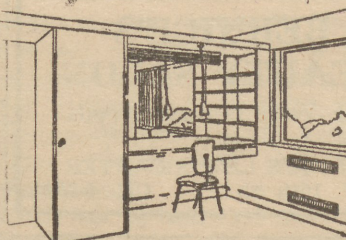

As a rule, the majority of the American people are sound and given an opportunity to hear and consider the facts usually come up with the right answer. We have no objection to Clay keeping his title. While he has a right to his religious beliefs and his brand of citizenship it is hoped that somebody can convince him that he will do well to stick to boxing.

A Room for Two Children

WHEN two youngsters occupy the same room, ordinarily they have little privacy. However, by using a bit of imagination and ingenuity, the fix-it-them-selves family can create a room that has two of everything, plus built-in privacy.

First, the room is divided by means of an extra-wide divider desk and closets. This way, there'll be a separate study and clothes storage area for each child. The separation of the space is completed by a sliding door.

Other features may include a radiator enclosure, fluorescent lighting, spacious drawers in the desks and an attractive soffit. Use of Masonite hardboards for the closet walls, desks, soffit and as underlayment for the flexible floor covering makes such a room improvement both economical and easy. A large variety of hardboards for these purposes are available at lumber yards.

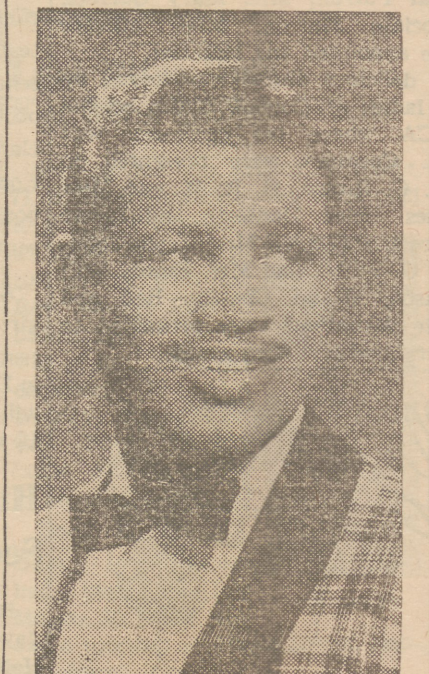

Hardboards made by Masonite Corporation, the pioneer producer, are made by exploding clean wood chips in huge guns and then compressing the fibers into thin, strong panels under extreme heat and pressure. Being all wood, these panels may be worked and finished like wood.

For a free plan detailing how to create a youth room for two, write the Home Service Bureau, Suite 2037, 111 West Washington St., Chicago 2, Ill., requesting plan No. AE-265.

Canadians Suspend Sugar Ray Robinson

Montreal, Que.—Sugar Ray Robinson, former middleweight champion was suspended by the Montreal Athletic Commission Tuesday night and his twice-re-scheduled boxing bout with Joey Durelle was canceled.

The latest and perhaps the silliest episode of the boys who say who shall be who in the boxing business is the attempt to take away the heavyweight boxing title from Cassius Clay. The president of the International Boxing something or other says Cassius is a detriment to boxing.

We always thought the loud talking youngster had to be given a chance because of his national boxing ability. But we didn't care for his manner of self promotion, although we admit it hurt no one and was good for an occasional laugh. We thought Clay's antics before the championship fight were to say the least in bad judgment. But we guess they were typical of Clay.

Harmed How?

Now we have to ask the high Mogul of the game of self defense in what way has the fellow harmed boxing? The guy doesn't drink, smoke or gamble. Would that be a bad example for anyone in or out of the boxing picture? Outside of a couple traffic tickets he hasn't had any trouble with the law.

Contrast

There hasn't been one bit of evidence brought up to show that Clay or whatever his name is now, didn't win the thing fair and square.

We have read that the former champ, Sonny Liston, was suffering from arthritis before the fight. Now we know from painful experience that if this fact were so, Sonny couldn't have done too much fighting and those who say he shouldn't have quit have never experienced the pain of arthritis bursitis, or any of the ritis family.

We Wonder

The contract that is said to exist between Clay and a boxing enterprise headed by Liston makes a fellow wonder. If the Liston crowd knew that Clay couldn't win, why would they toss 50 grand out the window for such a contract? The thing ought to have been produced and studied by now. Then we could tell more about it. Maybe such a contract doesn't even exist.

But again is this the new champion's fault? How many people in a business where money means everything would turn down 50 thousand bucks for any kind of contract?

You Can Make Meringue Cookies

By Betty Barclay

"MAKE 'EM YOURSELF!" You can. These glamorous meringue cookies that you used to have to buy from a fancy bakery, you can now make yourself in less than half an hour!

Three dozen of them, too, enough to serve with elegance at an evening card party.

Chocolate Meringue Cookies

1 cup chocolate chips; 3 egg whites; 2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar; 1/2 cup saltine cracker crumbs; 1/2 cup chopped pecans; 1 teaspoon vanilla. Melt chocolate over hot water. Cool. Beat egg whites until stiff. Add sugar gradually, beating after each addition until blended. Then fold in cracker crumbs, nuts, vanilla, and melted chips. Drop from teaspoon on lightly greased baking sheet and spread slightly. Bake in moderate oven (375°F.) about 10 minutes. Makes about 3 dozen 2-inch cookies. Store in tightly covered container.

RESURRECTION

Dear Risen Christ, blest vanquisher of death,
Draw near to us this Resurrection morn;
Shine forth in glory and tranquility,
Lift from our hearts the cross, the tomb, the thorn,
As sleeping earth awakes at dawn of spring
With flowering field and hill, and budding tree,
We would awake from our own dead selves,
Renew our faith in God and follow Thee.
Lend us Thy vision now to guide us through

Announces Candidacy

Dr. James E. Feld, Oelwein, said Mar. 6 that he has decided to enter the 2nd District Democratic Congressional primary race.

For over one hundred years my family has fought for the principles of the Democratic Party and it is in this tradition that I am announcing my candidacy today.

Letters from Our Readers

A bit of prose . . . a line or two of poetry . . . a letter now and then to express thoughts in the minds of our many readers.

Send Yours Today

This wilderness of fear and stubborn greed,
That we may love all nations as our own.
Give us the wisdom we so sorely need
To keep the peace; stand close to our great men—
Our statesmen striving earnestly to build
A better world; they need to hear Thy voice.
As long ago you quelled the storm, and stilled
The sea, and lifted him you loved, so lift
Our troubled hearts, dear Christ; grant us, we pray,
A resurrection of our truer selves
That we may rise to walk a nobler way,
All men united in true brotherhood;

One mind, one heart, the world imperishable

In a renaissance of universal peace. Rise in our hearts today, O Risen Christ!
—Lynn Hamilton, in American Bard.

LENTEN THOUGHTS

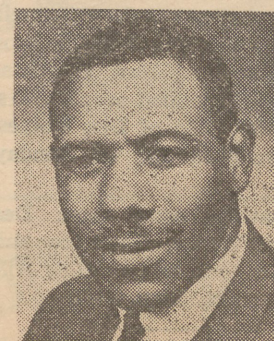

To me this is a comforting thought: God will not look you over for medals, degrees or diplomas, but for scars.—Elbert Hubbard.

Again and again I have been tempted to give up the struggle, but always the figure of that Strange Man hanging upon the Cross sends me back to my task again.—George Tyrell.

We must remember that our anxiety and heartache are only a fragment of the anxiety and heartache of the whole world.—Anon.

Bob Parks . . .

another of our nice-to-know folks at Des Moines Savings

Bob is a very important part of our modern and highly technical Data Processing Center.

In fact, Bob has had special training in preparing wiring boards required for the various types of processing in our electronic equipment. He acquired this "know how" at the IBM training center in Des Moines before coming with us at Des Moines Savings.

When you take a tour through our newly modernized and expanded offices, you'll probably meet Bob. (And, by the way, group tours are always welcome with advance arrangements made through Ron Hallock's office).

We're mighty proud to have Bob Parks on our staff. He's a great addition to our really nice-to-know folks.
