Another Attorney Steps in Polk County Race

James B. Morris, Jr. Will Run for GOP State Representative

James B. (Brad) Morris, Jr., Des Moines attorney for 15 years, Monday announced that he is a candidate for the Republican nomination as a State Representative. Morris, 45, is a longtime resident of Des Moines, and is presently Chairman of the Polk County Republican Central Committee's Resolutions Committee.

"I have long been active in various phases of government on state and local levels but feel that I can best be of service to the community by making myself one of the candidates to represent Polk County in the State Legislature."

Iowa is ready for a dynamic increase in industrial attraction, growth and development, and is the development of its system of institutions of higher learning. It is, therefore, incumbent upon government to help create the atmosphere to help bring about these developments.

"One of Iowa's problem is the lack of local opportunity which has confronted the students that our colleges and universities are graduating. I believe that this loss of our human resources in Iowa is a situation which the state must and can help remedy."

Reapportioned

"With the legislature having been reapportioned, at least on an accepted temporary basis, I believe that as a member of that body I can help our state government become responsive and more responsible to all citizens of the State of Iowa."

"If elected, I intend to take a firm and forthright stand on each issue, dictated by law, ethics, good conscience and the wishes of the voters. This, I believe, the voter is entitled to expect and to receive from his elected representative."

Education

Born in Washington, D. C., Morris is a graduate of the Des Moines public schools and holds Bachelor of Arts, Master of Arts and Juris Doctor degrees from the State University of Iowa. During World War II he

Rules Negro Woman Must Not Be Called by First Name

Washington, D. C.—Negro women had their day in court Monday when the highest court in the land ruled in essence that Negro women must not be addressed by their first names in court proceedings.

First Name

The ruling came when the United States Supreme Court reversed a contempt violation in an Alabama court of a Negro woman who refused to answer questions unless she was addressed as "Miss Hamilton" instead of just "Mary."

The woman, a field secretary for the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), had been called into court with a large number of Negroes who faced charges growing out of 1963 racial demonstrations.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (N. A. A. C. P.) appealed to the Supreme Court on behalf of the woman. It

Iowa NAACP Plan Spring Board Meeting Here Apr. 11

A meeting of the Executive Board of the Iowa State Conference of N.A.A.C.P. Branches has been called for Saturday, April 11 in Des Moines at the Y.W.C.A., at 1 p.m. The Board meeting was announced by Russell E.W. Nash, N.A.A.C.P. State President.

"With 1964 another crisis year for Civil Rights, the time has come for representatives from throughout Iowa to consult on mutual problems and to plan for progress," Nash declared.

"In view of our deep concern for the fate of the Civil Rights bill in the Senate, a fair housing ordinance in Des Moines, improved job opportunities for Negroes, and equality in education in Iowa and throughout the nation, we must review our organizational and promotional efforts to advance the struggle," he added.

To help achieve this goal, the 1964 Annual N.A.A.C.P. Region IV Leadership Training Conference will be held in St. Louis, Mo., April 24-26, at the Hotel Coronado.

"This is a most important conference," Nash said "and representation should be planned by every Branch, youth and college chapter. The foes of equal rights have been especially vigorous in recent weeks, and it is hoped that the State NAACP Board meeting in Des Moines on April 11 at the YWCA will be part of a suitable response."

Man, 23, Dies; Struggles with Brother, Fell, Struck Head

A 24-year-old Des Moines man who while wrestling with his brother, fell and struck his head on the fender of a car, died six days later in Broadlawn Polk County hospital after undergoing surgery.

He was Jessie C. Townsell, of 1331 8th street. Investigating officers went to the home of Nedion Townsell, 31, of 1430 Maryland avenue about 5 a.m. on Friday, Mar. 20 after Jessie Townsell had been taken to the hospital.

They said the brothers and three other persons had gone to Nedion's house to play cards and that because Jessie was intoxicated his brother was trying to get him to go home.

Detective James Thompson said while they were wrestling or struggling beside a car, Jessie fell and his head struck a fender. Nedion was not arrested, and no charges were filed.

Services were held for the victim at 1:30 p.m. Monday at Estes and Son Funeral Home with burial in Glendale Cemetery.

Born in Demopolis, Ala., Mr. Townsell had lived in Des Moines six years. He was a janitor at Katz Drug store.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Townsell, of Parkdale, Ark., seven sisters, Rosie, Betty, Evora, Kelly Mae, and Salama Townsell, and Mrs. Carrie Bonds, all of Parkdale, and Mrs. Bessie Welch of Los Angeles, Cal.; and six brothers, Grant, Jr., Richard, Nedion and Frank, all of Des Moines, and Johnny and Joe, both of Parkdale.

New York Bans Racial Bias in Job Training

Victim Believed to Be Out; Another Man Escapes; Estimate $6,000 Damage

A Des Moines man whom a fellow tenant "thought was not at home" died of asphyxiation in an early morning fire Wednesday that destroyed the upper portions of a two-story house.

The victim was Julius Hunting, about 42 years, who occupied a three-room apartment at 1418 Maryland Ave. Firemen had fought the blaze about 1½ hours before bringing it under control. They then discovered Hunting's body on the floor of the second-story bedroom.

A second tenant identified as Ben Bonner, escaped the blaze. Visibly shaken he told newsmen at the scene that he had awakened about 4 a.m., glanced out the window, and saw what he thought was lightning flickering. When he looked closer, he saw it was fire. He ran to the foot of the stairs and yelled up to Hunting that the house was on fire, before he remembered that Hunting had told him the evening before that he was going out. Bonner said he assumed Hunting was out and ran outside yelling, "Fire, Fire."

Neighbors called firemen and when they arrived the upper part of the building was almost totally engulfed.

A third tenant in the house, Henry Carson was not at home.

John M. Estes, Sr., 3500 27th street, owner of the building said that fire damage to the upstairs in addition to smoke, and water damage to the lower floor is estimated at about $6,000. He said the building was insured.

Retrial Begins April 6 for Evers' Assassin in Mississippi

Jackson, Miss.—Byron De La Beckwith, a 43-year-old white fertilizer salesman of Greenwood, Miss., will be tried for a second time on charges that he shot and killed Mississippi NAACP Field Secretary Medgar Evers.

Circuit Judge Leon Hendrick, who presided at Beckwith's first trial, set April 6 as the date for the new trial.

Hung Jury

The first trial, following a week of testimony, ended in a hung jury on Feb. 7. The judge ruled a mistrial after jurors split 6-5 following nearly 12 hours of deliberation.

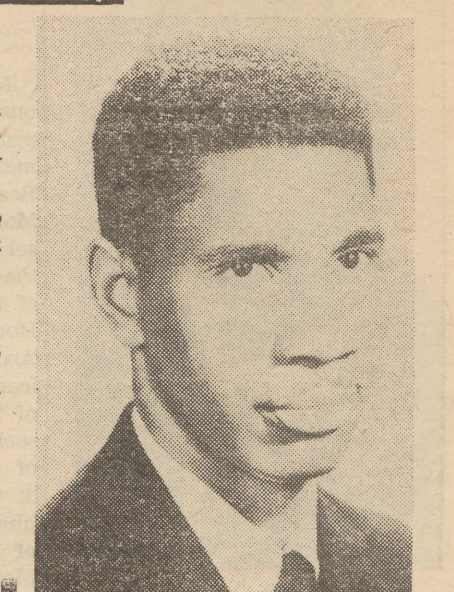

Beckwith is charged with murder in connection with the June 12, 1963 ambush slaying of Medgar Evers, Mississippi field secretary.

Judge Hendrick has called a special venire of 300 persons to be selected from registered voters in order a new jury may be chosen.

Beckwith has been held without bond since his arrest June 22 by FBI agents in Greenwood.

Tight Security

Hinds County Sheriff Fred Pickett said the second trial will be held

He said all persons entering the courtroom will be searched for weapons, no standing will be allowed in the courtroom or hallways, and no recording or photographic equipment will be allowed in the courthouse.

The home visit program which originated in Chicago, in 1955, as an experiment in interracial dialogue among Catholics, has been expanded this year to a national movement of all races and faiths. Davenport became one of the first cities to imitate the Chicago plan when the Catholic Interracial Council began a similar visitation program, on a limited basis, in 1961.

General Chairmen

General chairmen for the Quad-city program are the Rev. Donald Bautz, executive director of the Council of Churches of Scott and Rock Island Counties, the Rev. Arthur Perry, instructor at Assumption high school, Davenport, and the Rev. John Real, assistant pastor of Sacred Heart Church, Rock Island.

Racial Tensions Ease in Jacksonville, Fla. Flare-Up

Mayor Praises Bi-racial Commission; Demonstrators Arrested in St. Augustine

Jacksonville, Fla.—Racial disturbances which kept this North Florida city in turmoil for two days last week apparently subsided over the Easter holiday weekend following an announcement by Mayor Haydon Burns of the formation of a biracial committee to help resolve the racial crisis. Meanwhile, Rutledge Pearson, president of the NAACP branch, made a public appeal for the end of violence in the city.

President Johnson

Mayor Burns made his announcement on March 25 after President Johnson had conferred in the White House with Deputy Attorney General Nicholas Katzenbach, Assistant Deputy Attorney General Joseph F. Dolan and Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall, head of the Justice Department's civil rights bureau. The President indicated no immediate Federal intervention although it was made known that FBI men were in the city.

During the hectic two days of rioting 265 adults and 200 juveniles were arrested; a Negro woman was slain by gunfire from a passing car; a white man was seriously injured by a hurled brick; and Sheriff Dale Carson exposed the hoax of a white man who claimed that he had been chained to a tree and slashed by youthful Negro assailants. The man's wounds, the sheriff said, were self-inflicted.

The rioting was set off, local Ne-

"I care, and deeply, about the problems that affect the lives of the men and women and children of the four counties in the heart of Iowa which comprise our district. I am also concerned with the profound and fundamental problems which challenge all our nation and, indeed, our very civilization."

"Because of these problems, immediate and local, far-reaching and deep, I believe the serious citizen of this district is entitled to a clear choice when he casts his ballot in November."

He and his wife have five children. They live at 4137 Greenwood drive.

BULLETIN

St. Augustine, Fla.—As racial tensions died down in Jacksonville, Fla., over the weekend, sit-in demonstrations flared up in another city of Florida, St. Augustine—the oldest city in the United States.

Police using dogs arrested scores of Negro youths Monday and put them in jail, along with several white demonstrators. Among the white sympathizers was the mother of the governor of Massachusetts and a member of one of the nation's oldest families—Mrs. Malcolm Peabody. Her son, is Gov. Endicott Peabody. Mrs. Peabody remained in jail overnight for the experience but said she would arrange bail Wednesday morning for her release and would return home.

In a talk with newsmen, Mrs. Peabody said "This (integration) is the No. 1 problem, not only in the U.S.A. but all over the world. Demonstrations have brought improvements."

gro leaders say, by a "tough political talk" by the Mayor who went on television, March 21, vowing a crackdown on peaceable desegregation demonstrations conducted by the NAACP. The NAACP has been trying to desegregate hotels and restaurants in the city.

FIGHT FOR FREEDOM TO CONTINUE DESPITE FILIBUSTER — WILKINS

Washington—Whatever happens to the civil rights bill in the Senate, "the Negro drive for freedom from humiliation and inequality will not cease," Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, warned in an address before the annual forum of the Capital Press Club here, Tuesday, March 24.

Citing the wide bi-partisan support the bill received in the House, which passed it by a vote of 290 to 130, as well as the firm call for its enactment by both Presidents Kennedy and Johnson, and the backing of religious organizations, Mr. Wilkins told the newsmen and their guests:

"If the small Senate minority, centered in the former slave-holding states, persists to the point of maiming the bill beyond usefulness, it may have destroyed confidence in the legislative process as a channel of redress. Not impaired, but destroyed."

will hold a Spring Carnival at Roadside Settlement. There will be games, booths, prizes, rummage and other items.

Family Finances

Are you planning to buy a new car on credit? Before you rush into installment buying, ask yourself, "Do I really need a new car immediately?" Then consider saving until you have enough money to pay cash.

Borrowing is an expensive business these days. For example, say you had $800 on hand and wanted to buy a $2,400 car. You'd have to borrow $1,600. If the interest rate were only 5%, the loan would cost you $120 over 18 months. The car would actually cost you $2,520, and you'd have payments of $95.55 a month.

On the other hand, if you put your $800 in a savings account, and added a deposit of $95.55 each month, at the end of 18 months, you'd have the $2,400 cash you need for the new car, plus over $220 in accumulated interest.

If you can, put off buying that car until you can pay cash. You'll be money ahead.

Chrysanthemums and Collard Greens

Rows of tulips absorbed the loving attention of white-haired Mrs. Joseph, bent gently over the first signs of spring in her flower bed. She straightened and turned around at the sound of a familiar voice.

"Good morning, Mrs. Joseph. Have you decided on collard greens or chrysanthemums this year?" Jeri greeted her friend and slammed the car door.

Mrs. Joseph smiled in pleasure and surprise at her visitor. "You wouldn't know a collard green from a chrysanthemum!" she twitted Jeri.

"How can you stand there and insult your guest, Mrs. Joseph? You know I got honorable mention for the fastest growing crab grass in 1963, Jeri evened the score as she put her arm around her favorite golden-ager. "I could have won first prize if you had helped me keep the weeds out of it," Jeri frowned at Mrs. Joseph.

"Come in the house, Child. The sun is affecting your head", Mrs. Joseph commented as they went up the front steps together. Jeri addressed her remarks to an imaginary third person. "Did Mother Joseph offer me coffee or even a cigarette while I'm a guest in her home?"

The gentle lady straightened to formal dignity and righteousness as she sought refuge from the very thought of 'booze' and cigarette smoke in her house. Mother Joseph rallied quickly.

"Stop that lying, Jeri Swanson! You know you didn't come here for no cigarette . . . and if you can set in one place long enough, I'll make you some coffee. That ain't the reason you come here nohow", Mother Joseph made her 'move' boldly and disappeared into the kitchen. Her tone of voice made Jeri conscience-stricken. She had not meant to be so rough in the battle of wits which Sister Joseph thoroughly enjoyed.

Mrs. Joseph returned from the kitchen with silver service, coffee and a cloth napkin. Jeri looked up and gave her friend a pious wink.

"May I confess before you poison me for rudeness that I came to ask you to be my critic?", Jeri asked.

"Your what?", Mrs. Joseph gasped.

"I want you to sit in the middle of the auditorium and listen to what I say to high school young people. I want you to tell me if I make any sense to you and what—if anything, the students think of my speech".

"Now, you know you don't pay a bit of attention to old folks!", Mrs. Joseph pointedly reminded Jeri to cover surprise at the invitation.

Jeri was already thinking about her speech for the young people and didn't hear Mrs. Joseph's complaint. Her guest looked at her and explained, "You know, Mrs. Joseph, the Freedom Movement is bigger than CORE. You told me you were too old to join. O.K. You can sit down and be a critic of my freedom speeches instead of preaching about how many cigarettes I smoke."

"You mean I can sit down on the Freedom Train," Mrs. Joseph grinned in understanding.

"You won't sit-in for freedom. I figured out how you could sit down for freedom", Jeri stood up and offered her hand. "Is it a deal? I'll give you the time later."

HEALTH FOR ALL

Contagious diseases aren't the only kind that have yielded ground to advances in medicine and surgery. While gall bladder disease continues to be a fairly common ailment, the death rate resulting from it has dropped 45 per cent since 1950, according to figures published by a leading life insurance company.

Better surgery, applied earlier, is the chief reason. Progress has been made in the development of anesthesia and in techniques of administering it. Progress likewise has been made in preventing and controlling infection. As a result, more people who part with their gall bladder retain their lives.

Mature People

Gall bladder disease is an ailment mainly of mature people. It is almost never seen in infants, and rarely occurs in children. For some reason not wholly clear, fewer women seem to have it now than formerly. It seems to happen most often to women who have had children; but since this group includes the great majority of women, the fact may have little significance.

The chance of developing gallstones increases with age, to a degree where one out of three people have them by the age of 75. But only in a minority of cases does severe infection result. More often there are no worse results than an occasional spell of indigestion.

Liver Damage

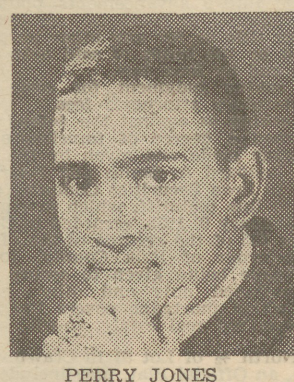

However, when gallstones and gall bladder infection are present, some doctors maintain that the liver also may become involved and suffer serious damage. Some believe that total liver failure is a genuine threat in such cases. Because of this hazard, doctors usually advise prompt surgery if an infected gall bladder becomes severely painful. If you have repeated attacks of abdominal pain, your Christmas Seal Association suggests that you see a doctor and find out whether any serious disorder may be threatened.

A LOVE LETTER CAKE

VALENTINE'S DAY IS THE DAY to be frankly sentimental. And this cake in the shape of a love letter "sealed with a kiss" is just the way to express those romantic thoughts. One package of white cake mix does the job for you, and a velvety chocolate frosting envelopes the wonderful contents. It's fun to take care of this kind of correspondence, and so wonderful for the receiver, too!

VALENTINE LOVE LETTER

1 package Swans Down White Cake Mix
1 cup water
2 egg whites, unbeaten
Chocolate Frosting
Decorating Icing

Empty contents of package into large bowl. Add $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of the water. Blend; then beat 2 minutes at medium speed of electric mixer or 300 vigorous strokes by hand. (Scrape bowl and beaters or spoon often.) Add egg whites, blend, and beat 1 minute in mixer or 150 strokes by hand. Then add remaining $\frac{1}{2}$ cup water gradually and beat 1 minute longer in mixer or 150 strokes by hand.

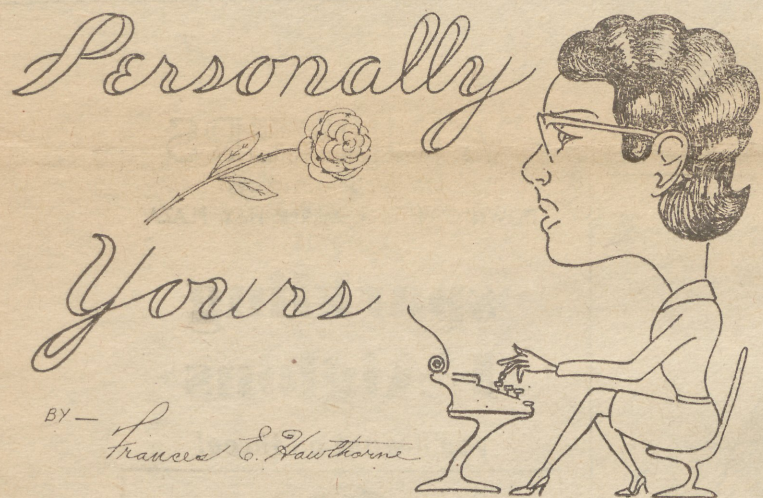

Pour batter into 13x9x2-inch pan, lined on bottom with paper. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) about 30 minutes or until done. Cool. Frost with Chocolate Frosting. Make Decorating Icing and tint pale pink with a drop of red vegetable coloring. With a cake decorator tube, decorate cake with lines to resemble back of an envelope and write "From Your Love" and "SWAK."

CHOCOLATE FROSTING

4 squares unsweetened chocolate
2 $\frac{1}{2}$ cups sifted confectioners' sugar
6 tablespoons butter
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup hot water
1 egg and 1 egg yolk

Melt chocolate. Remove from heat, add sugar and water, and blend. Add egg and egg yolk, beating well. Then add butter, a tablespoon at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition.

Decorating Icing. Beat 1 egg white with 1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar until smooth. Add additional 1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar gradually, beating until stiff enough to use for decorating. (ANS)

Easter Sunday 1964 will be one that goes down in the history annals—weatherwise—and perhaps will also be one that many Iowans and many other Americans will want to forget. The tragic earthquakes on Good Friday in our 49th state—made the problems of those who were shivering in one of the winter's worst freezes, rather mild stuff.

Returning to the city in time to greet Des Moines snowiest and chilliest weekends this year was Mrs. Jessye Bell Davis, 1629 Walker street, who spent the winter in sunny California.

Mrs. Davis reports that Mr. V. S. Jones of Los Angeles, Calif., a former mortician in Des Moines, has been seriously ill at Veterans hospital in L. A. She says his condition is improved and he has been removed to his home where he is convalescing.

Mrs. Davis, also reports that Miss Henrietta Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dixon, Sr., 2300 Center street, who is now a student at University of California, is getting along fine and sends her love to her parents, her church and her many friends.

Several boys in the fifth grade class of Mrs. Wilson at Moulton school got together before Easter and decided to hold a party at the home of one of them.

They decided on the Saturday afternoon before Easter. They decided what they were going to have and who would bring what. Their menu included pop corn, hot chocolate with marshmallows and cup cakes. They gathered at the home of David Clinton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Clinton, 1089 10th street, and prepared everything themselves, even to baking the cupcakes.

Afterwards they got together and made Mrs. Clinton a pretty speech of "thanks" and then sat down to talk about things as boys will. Much of the conversation centered about the earthquakes in Alaska. This was heightened by the reports of one youngster who was a guest—La Marr Hayes, who with his mother and sisters and brothers will be joining their father, who has been in Fairbanks, Alaska, since Christmas.

Others at the party besides David and La Marr were Vance Hawthorne, Franklin Flanagan, Wyman Savage, and Rodney Price.

Later that evening Mrs. Clinton took time out to call all the mothers to compliment them on "what nice sons" they had. "They were so clean and courteous. I expected something to be burned, but they didn't even burn a cupcake."

Mrs. Thomas (Beatrice) Bailey, 825 10th street, who returned recently from a 10-day visit at Waterloo, Ia., called us to report that "Mother Hattie L. Green, with whom she stayed received one of the 9,000 thank you notes sent out by Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy, widow of the late president.

Mother Green, who is pastor of Rosedale Church of God in Christ in Waterloo, reported she had received a long distance phone call from Washington, D. C. the day following the president's death, inquiring what Mother Green felt of the nation's loss.

Mrs. Bailey said the note had the official seal of the White House on it and was personally signed by Mrs. Kennedy.

Mother Green, has lived in Waterloo nearly 40 years and travels from coast-to-coast and has an integrated following in her church.

Mrs. William (Edith) Sharp, 1718 Crocker street, took advantage of the school holiday last Friday to take her turn chaperoning the members of the 8-10 group of Jack and Jill of America, Inc. She took them to see a local movie to the delight of the group. They had refreshments at her home when they returned.

The same group will meet Saturday afternoon at the home of yours truly for a craft making session to be

NEW LEGISLATION BRINGS
NEW CANDIDATES

Under the reapportionment bill passed by the special session of the Iowa legislature, Polk County is entitled to 11 seats in the lower house.

It has brought forth a number of candidates for the nominations on both Republican and Democrat tickets. Among them are three Negroes and possibly others will follow.

Heretofore Negroes have not entered state political races partly because the vote at large gave them little chance for election. This has been true of legislative races even in Polk County, which, heretofore has had two members in the lower house.

In recent years, Negro candidates for municipal judge have been elected in Des Moines and Waterloo giving encouragement that a lot of white people would support qualified candidates regardless of race.

The late George H. Woodson was the only Negro to run for a legislative post in Iowa. He was nominated on the Republican ticket in Monroe county in 1916 but failed at election in the fall.

These later moves are good signs. Negro candidates cannot and won't be elected by Negroes except in close contests but must appeal to the white voter on their merit.

If nominated and elected, Negro legislators will not represent Negroes only but the whole of their constituency. Thus, it will be necessary to show themselves before all the voters and demonstrate that they are qualified to represent those who send them to the legislature.

POLICE CHIEF DODGES

REAL CAUSES OF
INCREASE IN CRIME

A recent editorial appeared in the Des Moines Tribune on the annual report of Chief of Police Douglas to the City Manager in which he attempts to explain why the crime rate in Des Moines has increased.

Primarily the report charges that the recent U. S. Supreme Court decisions restricting the use of evidence in court which had been secured illegally; also a requirement that persons charged with crimes shall be entitled to phone for help upon his arrest are the cause.

With this position, the By-stander does not agree. First, it is admitted that robbery, break-ins and larceny accounted for much of the increase. And there is a reason why. When many people are unemployed and the number of people without money increases these crimes occur more often. And in spite of the growing reports about increased employment and bank accounts, many people are out of work or are under employed. This group is responsible for many of the crimes of stealing.

The court ruling about which Douglas complains are the result of high handed methods practiced by some law enforcing officers which violate constitutional rights. And a criminal does have rights. We dare say less than 1/2 of 1 per cent of the criminal cases prosecuted in Polk County during the period covered by the report involved the use of evidence secured illegally by officers.

The right to phone for help is a God send for many a person who has been arrested, held for investigation simply on suspicion but whose cases fell flat. And of course the party arrested got little comfort for being released without charge.

An excellent example of this is that of young man from Waterloo, Iowa, accompanied by his lady friend, who was picked up by the Des Moines police in the downtown district simply because he drove a car similar in color and make of one involved in a recent robbery by a Negro.

He was required to get out, stand with hands upon his car and be searched. The man had no weapons. He had left his driver's license in Waterloo so the able officer carted him off to jail.

The man phoned for help. It developed that he is an excellent young citizen, regularly employed without having been arrested before. He later produced his driver's license. All this required that he hire a lawyer to get out of jail, post a bond, pay toll charges and subjecting him to the embarrassment that unscrupulous officers inflicted on this innocent man.

These safeguards are for the protection of the innocent and must be available. Otherwise some unscrupulous officers go far beyond the requirement to sort out the guilty from the innocent.

And judging from some of the crimes that have gone unsolved in recent months, our officers need to do a better job digging up those who commit them.

Cassius Clay Officially
Rejected by Army

Washington—The Army announced officially that heavyweight boxing champion Cassius Clay "is not qualified for induction into the Army" under the draft.

In announcing his rejection the Army said it is satisfied that "Clay put forth his best efforts" when he was given physical and mental tests on two occasions.

It was reported that Clay failed the mathematics tests given inductees.

The tests included measurements of aptitudes for various skills needed in military service, the Army said. The second set of tests was given Clay when the first results were found "inconclusive."

Kentucky Seeking
First Negro Cager

Lexington, Ky.—Kentucky already has its first Negro football player, and now is making a concerted effort to sign its first Negro basketball player.

The grimmer, 200-pound fullback Steve Mathews, a transfer from Detroit, was on hand when the Wildcats opened spring drills Wednesday.

The cager sought is Westley Unseld, a 6-foot, 8-inch center from Seneca High school in Louisville.

There's one catch, however, Unseld's brother, George, is at Kansas and Westley just might wind up there.

We are often asked why we don't write stories about the various athletic events around the city. We suppose the askers mean news stories. When we started this corner a few years ago anything that Negroes did was news. Sometimes they made news just by showing up. One could write an entire story about the doings of the Negro athletes in any game, no matter who won or lost.

But, today there are so many Negroes in just about every branch of athletics that one wouldn't have space enough to record all of their feats. Then the daily press in most cities doesn't designate the race of an athlete so one would have to actually be there to know who was who.

The stars get all the recognition they deserve in the daily press and really there isn't much one could add. Our Negro schools are always a good source of news and now they are getting some top teams in all sports so they rank with the leading white schools and are rarely called Negro colleges in the papers.

We figure that in the local games around Iowa or in the case of a world championship boxing match that just about everyone who is interested in this particular game knows all about it by the next day or two. By the time our corner hits the street the sports fans are off on another game so we merely comment on the things as we see them and leave the reporting to others.

Others named to the first team was Elgin Baylor and Jerry West of Los Angeles and Wilt Chamberlain of San Francisco and Bob Pettit of St. Louis.

Robertson, previously named the most valuable player, was on the first team ballots of all 83 who voted.

Coach Joseph Dulin
Had 48-62 Record
At West Point School

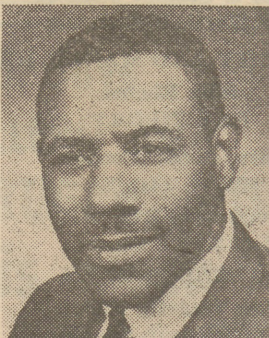

West Point, Ia.—Joseph Dulin, believed to be the first Negro high school coach in Southeast Iowa, recently resigned his post after six years and reportedly has received several applications in the mail.

During his six years as basketball coach at St. Mary's High school his team won 48 games while losing 62. This year his team finished with a 6-12 record. In addition to his coaching duties Dulin was athletic director and taught social studies.

Dulin says he has replies from several of the applications he has sent to some 20 schools.

"The favorable replies have encouraging earmarks," Dulin said, adding that he is welcome to stay at West Point and said "I just might end up here this fall."

how Clyde Duncan was kept eligible at North. We informed them that if the boy were not eligible the other schools would soon find out and Mr. Duncan would go the way of all failures.

Bob Parks ...
another of our nice-to-know folks at
Des Moines Savings

Bob is a very important part of our modern and highly technical Data Processing Center.

In fact, Bob has had special training in preparing wiring boards required for the various types of processing in our electronic equipment. He acquired this "know how" at the IBM training center in Des Moines before coming with us at Des Moines Savings.

When you take a tour through our newly modernized and expanded offices, you'll probably meet Bob. (And, by the way, group tours are always welcome with advance arrangements made through Ron Hallock's office).

We're mighty proud to have Bob Parks on our staff. He's a great addition to our really nice-to-know folks.

Iowa's Burgess
Meredith To Direct
Baldwin Play

New York, N. Y.—James Baldwin, novelist, essayist and militant spokesman for racial integration, has become a playwright.

A cast headed by Rip Torn and Pat Hingle began rehearsals at the ANTA Theater in New York Tuesday on Baldwin's work, "Blues for Charlie."

Baldwin told a reporter the play is "the reconstruction of a crime"—the murder of a Negro boy in a southern town. It's about ancestral crime—one crime covers another crime, which covers another crime, which dooms people."

Director Burgess Meredith (of Iowa) said the play will open Apr. 21, announced by F. W. Capper, president of the Polk County Tuberculosis and Health Association.
