Gov. Hughes Signs Executive Order

Strengthening Fair Employment Practices

Governor Harold E. Hughes, as has been expected, signed an executive order Thursday, May 14, in which he threw the weight of his office behind the state's Fair Employment Practices Act.

Several weeks ago Gov. Hughes indicated that he would sign such an order after he had been urged to do so by the Governor's Committee on Human Relations, of which Donald Cole, Ames, Ia., is chairman.

Gov. Hughes' order adds strength to the FEPE law in that by doing so he is promising that no person or department, committee or state organization under his jurisdiction shall practice discrimination in employment, hiring or promotion.

A two-year-old tot, Tana Mitzie Colbert, was fatally injured Monday when she apparently got in the path of a bat being swung by an older child. The child was struck in the chest while playing in the street in front of her home at 1316 14th street. The incident happened about 12:40 p.m.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Lee Colbert, Dr. Jack Hatchitt, assistant Polk County medical examiner, said Mitzie suffered a broken collar bone and injury to her windpipe which caused suffocation.

Besides her parents, she is survived by seven brothers, three sisters, and five grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Jackson, the Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Piggee and Mrs. H. D. Colbert.

The Des Moines appearance of the celebrated gospel singer Mahalia Jackson, has been postponed from Sunday, May 31 to Sunday, June 14 at 8 p.m. at KRNT Theater.

Mrs. Helen Wilson, president of the Hi Span Federated club, sponsoring group, received a telegram earlier this week advising her of the postponement and giving the reason as an extension of Mahalia Jackson's tour in Europe.

Miss Jackson, who is international-ally known, was born in New Orleans, La., and after moving with the family to Chicago, Ill., started on her road to gospel singing fame.

Tickets are on sale at KRNT box office and at the New Utica. Tickets are being sold for $3.50, $3.00, $2.50 and $2.00. All seats are reserved. Miss Jackson will be making her first appearance in the city.

Notify the Bystander of any changes in club or lodge officers for the 70th Anniversary edition.

D.M. Gets Weak Housing Ordinance; Affects Only Half of City's Rental Units

Des Moines has a housing ordinance. It will only apply to about half of Des Moines rental units. It has no penalty clauses. The only deterrent to those who might be inclined to disregard the ordinance—will be public censor—in the form of a public hearing.

By a 5-0 voted for passage for the weakened ordinance but rejected a plea to dispense with the remaining two readings.

Exemptions

The exemptions are for rental of all duplexes; rental of fewer than four rooms in owner-occupied dwellings; and rental of apartment in buildings with six or less units.

There also is an exemption for religious institutions, pertaining to religious qualifications, but not to race or color.

City records indicate there are 13,507 rental units in Des Moines. Of these, 6,539 are in buildings with six units or less.

3 Opposed Penalty

The compromise proposal was drawn by Mayor Iles after the council failed to agree on an ordinance with a penalty clause.

Councilmen opposed to an ordinance with penalty clause are Wallace Buss, Grothe and Whitmer. Nahas and Iles favored an ordinance with a penalty clause.

Compromise

The compromise proposal would give the staff of the city's Human Rights Commission the duty of receiving complaints about alleged housing sales and rentals.

Authorize the staff to investigate the complaints and make a confidential finding of fact to the commission. Give the commission the power, if facts in a case indicate discrimination, to work out a conciliation.

Give the commission the right to conduct a public hearing in a case if conciliation effort fail.

The compromise is actually an ordinance amendment adding to powers of the Human Rights Commission, which has been limited to fair employment practices enforcement.

The compromise provides that all proceedings of the commission will be confidential except for the public hearing.

Will Rule

In the case of a public hearing, the proposal says:

"Upon the completion of a hearing, the commission shall forthwith poll its membership and announce (its) findings as to whether, in fact, a

100 Went on 'Grudge Rampage,' Break Windows Of Some Firms; 5 Jailed

About 100 persons participated in a brick-bat, bottle throwing, window breaking, "grudge" melee near 10th and Center street early Saturday morning, which was precipitated when a white police officer stopped two Negro men from fighting and arrested one of them. The disturbance lasted about 45 minutes. Most windows in eight business places owned by white persons were broken, causing several thousands dollars of damages. Six persons were arrested and charged with intoxication.

Pot Boiled Over

It was the consensus of opinion of persons who operate businesses on the street, the Center Street Improvement Association and Chief Vear Douglas, that the incident was not "racial" in nature, but rather was a case of the "pot boiling over" in what Negroes on the Street consider as unnecessary police brutality on the part of certain police officers.

Woman Arrested

Many believe Saturday morning's incident may have been building up since the arrest of a woman in the 10th and Center vicinity the night of May 8. That incident started when Police Detective Ray Steiner arrested a woman after a fight in the Empire Room, 790 12th street. Reports are that the woman was handcuffed, and then pulled by the hair to a patrol car after she bit the arresting officer. It was Detective Steiner who arrested Harold Lee, 27, 1046 10th Street early Saturday morning. In reconstructing the scene the Bystander learned that Lee was handcuffed, and placed in a patrol car. Lee jumped out a window, landed on his head as the arresting officer leaned through another. When the officer walked around to grab Lee, he was bitten on the hand by Lee. The officer slapped him alongside the head to make him turn loose. Meanwhile, the crowd had been pouring out of taverns and apparently when they saw the blow alongside Lee's head, remembered the May 8 incident, and began to threaten Steiner and two other officers who arrived on the scene.

Pulled Revolver

Steiner, pulled his service revolver to hold back the crowd, radioed for more help, and then pulled his riot gun, a heavy gauge shotgun—and fired several shots in the air. Someone in the crowd yelled "You'll have to kill us," and the brickbats and bottles began filling the air, breaking windows of businesses and several windows of police cars.

The pattern of a "grudge incident" SEE PAGE TWO

A delegation from the Center Street Improvement Association, an organization of Center Street businessmen, met Saturday morning with Chief Vear Douglas and several police officers at the police department, to see what could be done to avoid a repeat of the early Saturday morning brick-bat throwing incident.

In the delegation were Rozenting Hardaway, Sr., president of the organization, A. P. Trotter, Mel Boyd, William Taylor, Willie Wells, Gene Cheatom. They conferred for nearly two hours with Chief Douglas, Captain Wendell Nichols, Detectives Jim Thompson, Paul Thomas and Patrolman Thomas Spencer.

Walking Patrolmen

Mr. Hardaway stated that the delegation was told that a walking patrolman and three others in patrol cars would be on duty in the Center street area that night. Patrolman Richard Sanders was assigned to walk the area, the first time in more than a year that a policeman has walked the area.

Hardaway said he saw no walking patrolman on duty Sunday or Monday night, but he emphasized that the delegation had been promised a patrolman for only "Saturday night." Patrol cars patrolled the area, he said.

The Bystander ran a story several months ago in which the association had met with Chief Douglas and requested "walking patrolmen" but were denied.

Rev. Hawkins

Previous radio and wire service reports that Rev. Jesse Hawkins, Polk County juvenile officer, had been called to the scene and had pleaded with the crowd over a megaphone were false. His wife, Mrs. Jesse Hawkins, contacted the Bystander to state that her husband was never at the scene, and never left his home at 1182 9th street.

"We had been up to Jester park with a Boy Scout group and arrived home about 1:30 a.m. She said her husband was contacted by a policeman who asked him to go down on Center Street and "see what they did" but that Rev. Hawkins, after thinking it over, did not go.

Long Distance Calls

"The next thing we knew, we heard that radio report Saturday morning about him being down there.

Mrs. Hawkins said that they received long distance calls from friends in Florida Saturday morning and from Jackson, Miss., Sunday afternoon, "wanting to know how we were. They had heard wire service reports about him being down on Center Street."

Inciting to Riot Charge

Latest development in the aftermath of the disturbance on Center street early Saturday was the arrest Tuesday of William Winfred Byrd, 26, 847 10th street, and charging him with inciting to riot. Byrd pleaded innocent and was permitted to sign his own $300 bond. Preliminary hearing will be held June 1.

Later, Byrd also filed a charge of assault and battery against Patrolman Robert Rote in connection with an incident that occurred Apr. 30.

Rote was one of the officers at the scene during Saturday's melee.

In addition Byrd was taken before traffic court and was fined $20 or four days in jail on a charge of having a loud muffler. He also was fined $15 or three days in jail on a charge of speeding 40 miles an hour in a 30-mile zone May 7. Byrd went to jail seven days when he failed to pay the fines.

Police Captain Wendell Nichols said several police officers will testify that Byrd "at least added to the problem" at the Center street scene.

Former U.N. Official Says Demonstrations "Are Good"

A Cleveland, Ohio Sociologist, lecturer and member of the U. S. Delegation to the 15th General Assembly of the United Nations said in Des Moines Sunday night that because "we haven't solved the problem of race, we are having difficulty selling democracy."

Dr. Zelma George told the State Convention of Christian Churches, meeting at University Christian Church in Des Moines, that "we will not get anywhere selling democracy to the newly developing countries until we do something with our race problem in the United States . . . because all of these people are colored."

Dr. George said in an interview that "in our way of life, in our society, nobody should have to demand freedom or demand his rights. Equality is a right of every citizen."

"One hundred years after emancipation," she said, "the Negro has to take his plea to the streets in order to press his rights on the white society which denies him this equality."

Dr. Bunche

Dr. George, a Negro, continued that in 1960 when the United Nations took in 16 new countries from Africa and they took their places at the conference table of the world, the Negro looked around and didn't have a single ambassador or a diplomat anywhere.

"No one paid any attention to Ralph Bunche until he got to the United Nations and proved his value there."

Leaders

Dr. George said that the "Negro thought maybe his leaders hadn't done enough for him and he should take it into his own hands from now on."

"The leaders, if they are still in there, are following the people—not

Those actively seeking a fair housing ordinance have been the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Congress of Racial Equality, Citizens for Fair Housing, several ministerial groups and others.

"How do you forgive those who neither ask nor feel the need to be forgiven?" Carole demanded to know from Jeri who was washing a back-log of pots and pans at the kitchen sink. Jeri scoured vigorously the bottom of a pot in search of an answer. "I suppose we could make four or five dolls and stick pins in them to give every trouble-maker lockjaw," Jeri suggested as she reached for another pot.

"Wouldn't that make about as much sense as forgiving those who would be outraged by the very thought of me forgiving them?" Carole scoffed at her friend who immediately sensed how badly her friend's feelings were wounded. Jeri reached for a towel, thoughtfully dried her hands, plugged in the coffee pot and took a seat beside her friend. "If I woke you, Carole, in the middle of the night and asked, 'What does it mean to forgive?' You would tell me it means to understand, wouldn't you? You are the very one who once told me that. I've thought about it many times."

Carole rested her head on the table to release the floodgate of tears and uncontrollable sobs. The gentle touch of Jeri's arm resting on Carole's shoulders comforted her.

The sudden urge to do something reminded Jeri of the unpoured coffee. She first brought a cold wet towel and then the coffee. "Have a cup of coffee, Carole, and a cold towel. Let's see what we can make out of this problem," Jeri encouraged Carole.

In Iowa... after a swim, beer is a natural

On a hot summer day, a dip in a cool stream can be wonderfully refreshing. Equally refreshing when you're relaxing afterwards with friends is a hearty glass of beer. There's hardly another beverage around that suits what you do for fun as much as beer. Camping, hiking, or just lounging on a lawn chair—beer brings to each just the right touch of extra good living.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom — and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.

In Iowa...beer goes with fun, with relaxation

PAULINE B. HUMPHREY, Manager

The school year is fast drawing to a close and children are just counting the days before the last classroom minute. However one youngster was taken aback when he learned that the fall school term will begin a week early on the last day of August. In consternation he yelled, "Oh no, I'm not going to school in August!" However, when it was explained that this was being done so that pupils and teachers could have a week's vacation around Easter, he was slightly appeased but not completely amenable to the idea.

It is rather heartening to see the extreme interest that is being taken in youth, what with forming new organizations for their benefit and holding special debutante dances for their enjoyment. For instance there are at least three new organizations—a youth group formed by the Masonic groups for boys, another young auxiliary by the V.F.W. organization and of course, the Negro Four H group. Then there are several Debutante balls being held. Things are living up. And of course, there are added interest in scholarship although this has been done always. And we must commend the year-long job opportunity clinic series at Willkie House with various members of sororities, fraternities and other organizations pooling their resources, experiences and time and energy for the benefit of Des Moines youth who are in school. We also do not want to leave out the Des Moines chapter of Jack and Jill, Inc., with mothers committed to cultural and recreational interest and development of the various age groups.

One club has adopted a Day care center to support with donation of volunteer work where it is needed and financial help. The Elks have long given support and encouragement to youth.

We are realizing more than ever that our wealth in tomorrow's world will be the minds and preparedness of our youth—educationally, physically, emotionally, and spiritually. And from all reports we are doing a good job, although there is always room for improvements.

While we are on the related subject, we would like to commend those who started the ball rolling and those who have contributed or are planning to do so, for organizing the Iowa Track club, a fund raising campaign to send Clyde Duncan to the Olympics. Little can be added in the way of applause and acclaim than those who do something to help a deserving person—youth or older.

We checked with one of the bowlers in the 40 and 1 League and learned that two busloads went to Minneapolis, Minn., several weeks ago with the championship team. Several entire families made the trip. Some however, did not get to bowl.

Des Moines will be the poorer a few weeks from now when Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sims and family leave the city to return to Detroit, Mich. Mrs. Simms has been head of the nursing teaching staff at Broadlawn Polk County hospital and while there did so much to bring the teaching staff up to its present standard of excellence.

Her husband will continue his medical career in Detroit.

The family, while here, resided at 1141 8th street. Their children went to Moulton school.

Troop 82 of Girl Scouts, under the leadership of Mrs. Samuel Payne, must be commended again. They gave up another Sunday to participate as volunteers in the Polio clinic at Moulton school. Thanks to the able directorship of Mesdames John Brocksmith and Rufus Waylon, yours truly was able to really relax; we spent only a few hours at the clinic, unlike the long stint of service on Mar. 22, but was available all day by phone.

DON'T BRUSH THIS
UNDER THE RUG

It often happens that problems are not solved because those in authority fail or refuse to tackle the issues. This is true of the riot which occurred on Center Street. It is reported that about 300 people gathered following the arrest of one of the participants in a fight.

The angry crowd became unruly breaking out windows in several establishments in the neighborhood.

The explosion was the outcome of feelings built up against officers who had far exceeded reasonable conduct in the arrest of accused persons and often beating them while handcuffed.

Business places, suffering broken windows were those which had called the police department to have cars hauled from parking lots at night and/or made derogatory remarks about Negroes.

Prior to this incident, the Center street area got little protection from the police department, the generally accepted theory being that Negroes could do anything they would as long as white men and women were kept out. Today, the area is heavily patrolled.

There are many excellent officers on the police force who, while performing their duty properly, use the same standard of law enforcement for all groups.

This situation presents a special problem—one which should not be pushed under the rug but dealt with the cooperation of the police department, public spirited citizens and people of the area.

Those who violate the law should be punished including those who broke out windows and incited the riot. But it does no good to punish them and let go, without serious question, officers who exceed their authority and practice brutality on handcuffed prisoners.

WALLACE CONTINUES TO EMBARRASS DECENCY

By capturing 42% of the Democrat vote in Maryland Tuesday, Governor Wallace of Alabama continues to demonstrate that in the sanctuary of the ballot box many American people are casting their vote against civil rights for the Negro in great numbers.

Reports indicate foreigners from eastern European countries voted for Wallace while Negroes representing 17 per cent of the total population voted solidly for Senator Brewster, stand in for President Johnson, which provided the margin of victory against the segregationists.

This Wallace campaign is showing America up in a rather bad light before the world as a leader of democracy; the refugees who came to this country to escape oppression are themselves engaged in oppression.

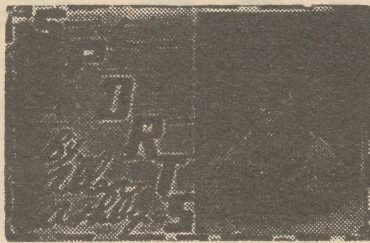

On the other hand, there is hope in the strong endorsement given the civil rights bill by the Episcopal convention in Iowa, the annual conference of the Methodist Church and other organizations. All took high ground calling for complete integration within their own organization and the daily living of the people.

There are always extremes on both sides of any question tending to hold the other in check. However, on the final settlement, most questions are finally decided between the two positions for the best interest of all the people.

Tan Bridge Player
Becomes 1st To Win
2 Major ACBL Events

Albuquerque, N. M.—Alvin Arnold is the Jackie Robinson of American Bridge.

Arnold made history in bridge last week when he became the first Negro ever to win two major championships in an American Contract

From the way the Clyde Duncan fund is growing there will probably be enough money to send the guy to China and the Olympics. It is gratifying to see the public response to such appeals.

It looks as if there will be a whole host of sprinters trying for the Olympic spots, and all of them will be capable of a top performance.

We have always argued that the United States has very seldom sent one of the best sprinters. Just the one who were best in the trials. Given the same trials on another day and there might have been some outstanding changes among the fellows who finally made the big trip.

There is a consistency about distance running so that your best distance men rarely lose. But there are so many things that can go wrong in a short dash a late stand. One guy jumping off a split second before the others, a slip, to just any number of similar things can foul up a dash man.

Oh well, so much for that.

Baseball

It seems as if the Dodgers can't win for losing. If they intend to keep their national league honors to say nothing of their world's title, they had better start hitting or doing something. The Yankees are rolling and it probably won't be long until they lead the American league again. But, nobody in his right mind would hazard a guess at that national league race. There are so many Negroes in that league that you just don't bother to mention too many of them. It would take a book to list all of them. One could pick an all-Star team of just Negroes and we don't know who would beat them. They would be a little shy on the mound but they would probably get their hurlers so many runs it wouldn't matter who pitched.

Reports That He
Floored Clay As An Amateur Pug

Chicago—Lippy Cassius (Muhammad Ali) Clay, the world heavyweight champion, is unbeaten in his professional career, but to Chicago last week came a fighter who reportedly flattened Cassius when they were both amateurs.

The fighter is Bob Foster, a light-heavyweight, who was matched with Chicago's Allen Thomas in a 10-rounder at the Coliseum here, Friday, May 8.

One of Foster's fans reported this incident, which was confirmed by Bob's manager, Billy Edwards. "Clay was taunting Foster, so they decided to have a sparring session and Bob knocked him cold with a left hook in the first round."

The incident was supposed to have taken place while Cassius and Foster were training for the Pan-American Games here several years ago. Edwards said the story is true, but added that Foster "would rather not talk about it because he and Cassius are friends now."

Clay was unavailable for comment.

Baseball Greats, Campanella,
Robinson Have N.Y. Re-Union

New York City—Two baseball Hall-Of-Famers who have had their difficulties in the past, had a reunion this morning.

Roy Campanella and Jackie Robinson got together today and reminisced about their days in baseball as members of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The meeting took place at Campanella's Harlem Liquor Store, 134th Street and Seventh Avenue. Robinson traveled uptown from his midtown office at 521 Fifth Avenue, where he is one of six National Deputy Directors of the Rockefeller For President Campaign, to take Roy an autographed copy of his new book, "Baseball Has Done It." Campanella is one of the score of noted baseball stars who contributed chapters to the book, telling about the progress of integration since 1947 when Robinson became the first Negro in the major leagues.

For a number of years stories have been published in the press indicating that Campanella and Robinson disagreed on civil rights.

In the Robinson book, published by J. B. Lippincott, Roy acknowledged these reports and stated:

"Jackie and I were different kinds of people, so was Pee Wee Reese: his personality was different from Jackie's and Duke Snyder's. These are all different people. They think different, they act different, but all of us had one objective-to win, and that brought us together no matter what color."

In the book Campanella pledges himself to the civil rights struggle.

Wake Forest Signs
Third Negro Grid
Star From High School

Winston-Salem, N. C.—A third Negro high school football star has been signed to a grant-in-aid by Wake Forest, establishing it as the most active predominantly white southern college in the recruitment of Negro athletes.

A school official announced last Wednesday that the Demon Deacons had signed Robert Grant, a 6-foot, 2-inch, 217-pound end from Georgetown High school in Jacksonville.

The official described Grant's acceptance by the school as "routine."

Wake Forest has now recruited more Negroes than any other Atlantic Coast Conference school. Maryland was the first ACC member to break the color line.

Patterson And
Machen May Make Financial Killing

New York—Because of the liberal terms at the low taxes involved, ex-heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson and challenger Eddie Machen stand to make a financial "killing" in their scheduled 12-round, nationally televised bout in Stockholm's Solna soccer stadium, July 5, according to reports reaching here from Sweden.

According to the terms, Patterson will receive a flat 40 per cent of the net receipts from the gate and television. Machen, who fights out of San Francisco, will get a $50,000 guarantee, plus 30 per cent of the auxiliary rights (movies, television, etc.)

YM Swim Course

Reservations now are open for the YMCA Lad-Dad swim course, which will start June 13 and run for 10 consecutive Saturday mornings. The program is designed for boys too young to have "Y" memberships, which start at 8½ years old. Each boy-enrolled must take the instruction with his father.

Three separate classes, for 6, 7 and 8 year olds, will be given. Fathers who are members of the "Y" may enroll sons for $2.50 each; non-members will pay $15 for both father and one son, with an additional $2.50 for other sons.

A FRIEND'S

I'd like to be the sort of friend that you have been to me, I'd like to be the help that you've been always glad to be, I'd like to mean as much to you each minute of the day As you have meant, old friend of mine, to me along the way. I'd like to do the big things and the splendid things for you.

To brush the gray from out your skies and leave them only blue; I'd like to say the kind things that I so oft have heard And feel that I could rouse your soul the way that mine you have stirred. I'd like to give you back the joy that you have given me, Yet that were wishing you a need I hope will never be; I'd like to make you feel as rich as I, who travel on Undaunted in the darkest hours with you to lean upon. I'm wishing at this time of year that I could but repay A portion of the gladness that you've strewn along my way. And could I have one wish this year, This only would it be; I'd like to be the sort of friend that you have ben to me.
