Mahalia Jackson Thrills Des Moines Audience

'Great Lady of Gospel Music' Portrays Her Artistry, to 2,000

BY FRANCES E. HAWTHORNE
It cannot be said more impressively than to say, Mahalia Jackson came to town. For nearly two hours Sunday night the Great Lady of Gospel Songs with masterful artistry of voice, personality and serene charm, thrilled an eager, reverent crowd of over 2,000.

To hear the noted singer in concert is a double-fold experience — emotional and aesthetic. She sings as if she is in personal communion with God—at one time pensive, nearly sobbing, at another chuckling happily in a lively, rhythmic rendition, at other times almost whispering as if into the secret ear of an unseen being. And yet the celebrated singer simultaneously seems to be at one with her listeners, drawing them in, too, to the secrets, the sadness, the joy and happy amusements.

Applause

The applause was deafening, particularly for such old and new favorites as "Joshua Fit the Battle of Jericho," "Come On Children Let's Sing," "Wonderful," "I Just Couldn't Keep It to Myself," "Just A Closer Walk With Thee," "Elijah," and "He's Got the Whole World in His Hand."

Powerful Voice

Her expressive voice and powerful yet sometimes gentle delivery left nothing to be desired by the audience, unless it was a 24-hour concert by the singer, who has won international acclaim. She carries the crowd on a wave of emotion reminiscent of old time revivals, yet there is a great difference. Her concerts and her audiences are under her control.

Following the concert the Great Lady was besieged backstage by hundreds of autograph seekers and admirers who wanted to shake her hand. Afterwards, she consented to an interview by this writer. Her humility and belief in God is even more apparent in a first-person contact.

When we asked how she feels after a demanding concert such as Sunday's she replied, "I am just glad when the Lord can use me."

We remarked about her style of delivery as though she is in personal contact with a higher being and she emphasized, "It is not me but God expressing himself through me. Otherwise I would not get it over."

Miss Jackson who just returned from an European tour, and from Los Angeles, to Des Moines, appeared in Chicago, Ill., for the National S.S. and B.T.U. convention, on Tuesday.

23,000 Heard Her

Comparing American and European audiences Miss Jackson said, "The Europeans are more emotional, maybe because of the rhythms. They really like spirituals and gospel music, you know. There was one concert I gave in Brussels where 23,000 attended. They also applaud you more over there."

Jester Hairston Wins National Music Award

Jester Hairston, Los Angeles, Calif., an expert in Negro folk music, has won the National Federation of Music Clubs' 1964 $1,000 award for furthering "international understanding through the medium of music."

Mrs. Sam Shloss of Des Moines, national chairman of the federation, made the announcement Saturday. Hairston was honored for work he did from 1961 to 1963 with the U. S. State Department. He taught American folk songs to non-English-speaking choirs in Germany, Yugoslavia, Norway, Denmark and Sweden.

Hairston was the director of the "Hall Johnson" Choir and went to Hollywood in 1936 to do the music for the motion picture "Green Pastures."

He has since conducted, composed and arranged music for motion pictures, specializing in choral music. He has his own chorus.

Plan Fund Dance to Aid Iowa Students on Bail Bond in Miss.

A fund-raising dance sponsored by the chapter of CORE will be held here Saturday to provide bail for Iowa students going to Mississippi to participate this summer in a Negro vote-registration drive.

Proceeds will go into a trust fund available as cash bail, said Mrs. Stanley Griffin, chapter president.

The dance will be 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Saturday at Knights of Columbus Hall, 644 24th street. Tickets are $1.50 per person and will be sold at the door. The orchestra will be Spates and His Buddies.

Jamaica, N. Y.—The Black Muslims organization he once served as No. 1 spokesman last week hailed Malcolm X into civil court here in an attempt to evict him from his home. The Muslim sect owns the home and feels that since Malcolm X has broken with the organization to form his own group, he no longer is entitled to the home.

Texarkana, Tex.—The local school board of trustees decided last week to follow the lead of its Arkansas namesake in desegregation of its elementary schools.

New Haven, Conn.—Yale university, predicting that "generations of Americans yet unborn will echo" its admiration, conferred an honorary degree upon Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Over 10,000 students gave him a

Demonstrations, Reverse Marches End 4-Day Strife In Heavily Policed Areas

St. Augustine, Fla.—Despite heavy police guards, demonstrations mixed with some violence reigned over this oldest city in the nation, climaxed Thursday with the arrest and jailing of Dr. Martin L. King, Jr., noted integration leader.

However, Dr. King and two companions, the Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy and a white chaplain, the Rev. William England of Boston university pleaded innocent Friday to charges of trespassing, intent to breach the peace and conspiracy. Bonds totaling $900 each were set and paid later Saturday with a hearing set for July 7.

Attacks

The demonstrations began Tuesday night, June 9 when 300 persons, most of them Negroes, marched through the white resident area and on restaurants attempting to integrate them. The next night the Negroes marched again while some 100 angry white men milled about in a city park. Later the men broke police lines and attacked the demonstrators. Nine or 10 demonstrators required hospital treatment. Dr. King was arrested on Thursday when mixed demonstrators returned to the restaurants, seeking admission.

Integration leader Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., vowing a massive assault against segregation here, said a few hours before Wednesday night's march that he was asking President Johnson by telegram to send in federal marshals to help keep order.

Police officials had responded with a promise that demonstrators would be protected.

Reverse March

On Friday, in a reverse anti-segregation march, about 400 white persons marched through the Negro residential section, under a heavy cordon of police and led by a vanguard of Negroes who cleared the way and saw that no one started any violence against the marchers.

The marchers were greeted by large signs reading: "Welcome, Peace and brotherhood to you."

As the marchers headed back downtown about 50 Negroes applauded; some shouted, "Hurry back."

"We whipped them right there," one Negro said. "They encountered no violence."

A rock was tossed once in the darkness, but no one was hurt. The Ku Klux Klan leader, J. B. Stoner

Dr. Patterson, UNCF Head, Will Be in D.M. on June 24

Dr. Frederick D. Patterson, president and founder of the United Negro College Fund, will arrive in Des Moines on Wednesday, June 24, to meet with leaders of the Fund's Des Moines campaign.

They include Dr. Robert M. Johnson, Chairman, and Richard S. Levitt, Co-Chairman. Local headquarters are Suite 917, Des Moines Building.

Founder

Founder of the Fund in 1944, Dr. Patterson is making his first visit to Des Moines since becoming president in January, 1964. Re-organization of the Fund at that time made the president the chief executive officer.

Des Moines Goal

The Fund's 1964 campaign for $3,000,000 began on April 1st. The goal for Des Moines is $10,500. At the end of May about 40 per cent of this sum had been secured in cash and pledges.

Dr. Patterson said he will emphasize the necessity for exceeding the quota set for Des Moines. Ten years after the Supreme Court decision on desegregation, only three and one-half per cent of the 96,000 Negroes attending college are enrolled in for-standing ovation. The honorary degree was the second awarded Dr. King in two days. Springfield College at Springfield, Mass., honored him Sunday.

mer all-white institutions. Negroes need to prepare for opportunities opening for them, and education is the key to richer life.

Emancipation

The Fund recently distributed $7,000,000 to all affiliated schools from funds collected in its capital funds campaign, known also as the Emancipation Centennial Development Campaign. Initiated by President John F. Kennedy in a White House ceremony on September 2, 1963, the campaign raised $30,000,000 in six months. Money raised in this campaign will be used for erecting or repairing buildings or other facilities.

Negro Elected In Richmond

Richmond, Va.—Voters have elected the second Negro in this century to the Richmond City Council.

B. A. Cephas, jr., a real estate man, ran second only to Richmond's first woman mayor, Mrs. Eleanor Sheppard, in Tuesday's municipal election. Nine council members were elected.

Cephas was a member of a nine-member Richmond Forward slate formed to oust the present council majority. The new organization, which also backed Mrs. Sheppard, won six seats to three for incumbents.

Wright who will be attending the national convention, the Rev. Jesse Hawkins, first vice president, will preside.

Cloture Vote 'Historic,' NAACP Leader Asserts

New York—Hailing the imposition of cloture to close the Senate debate on the civil rights bill, Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, today (June 11) called the action "an historic legislative achievement, both in the unexpectedly decisive margin of the victory and in being the first time cloture has ever been effected on a civil rights measure."

The NAACP leader paid tribute to the "Senate's bi-partisan leadership (which) deserves our thanks and congratulations." He noted "with particular gratification that 27 of the 33 Republican Senators voted in favor of cloture."

U.S. Supreme Court Rules Sweeping Reapportionment

Washington, D.C.—The U.S. Supreme court Monday handed down a sweeping ruling on re-apportionment before adjourning for the summer. The mandate, based on an Alabama case, the highest court ruled that both legislative branches shall be based on population with little deviation in equality.

The sweeping political reforms promises to speed racial change and the growth of a two-party system in the South. In many southern states, the shift in representation called for by the court will transfer the balance of legislative power from the country to the city. This will decrease the influence of conservative Democrats while boosting the power of Negro city dwellers, and white suburbanites.

Monday's ruling will affect the reapportionment laws of Iowa but will not change the general election this fall.

The written opinion said in part, "A citizen, a qualified voter, is no more nor no less so because he lives in the city or on the farm. This is the clear and strong command of our Constitution's equal protection laws . . ."

" . . . the equal constitutional clause requires that the seats in both houses of a bicameral state legislature must be apportioned on a population basis."

3,000 Attend Rites of Mrs. L.B. Coffey, Church Leader

Chicago, Ill.—Some 3000 persons attended the funeral services of Mrs. Lillian Brooks Coffey, who was head of the Women's Department of the Church of God in Christ, Saturday, June 13, at Tabernacle Baptist Church.

Bishop O. T. Jones, Senior Bishop of the Church of God in Christ, delivered the funeral eulogy. Bishop A. B. McEwen, chairman of the executive board, delivered the invocation. Other main speakers included Bishop E. Lennox, Bishop J. O. Mason, and Bishop L. H. Ford, all of Chicago.

Before the services, the body of the internationally known church leader had lain in state in Detroit and Chicago. An estimated 8000 Church of God in Christ members and friends of Mrs. Coffey, viewed the body.

Steel Industry Signs Race Vow

Pittsburgh, Penn.—Eleven steel companies and the United Steelworkers Union (AFL-CIO) said Sunday they have signed an agreement to promote racial equality in the steel industry.

The move followed recent individual signings by the companies of the "plans for progress" with the President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity.

The agreement pointed out that the last several steel contracts contained racial equality provisions, adding that "the parties . . . voluntarily pledge that they will continue to encourage objective, non-discriminatory attitudes within their respective organizations."

The signing companies were U. S. Steel Corp., Bethlehem Steel Corp., Republic Steel Corp., Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp., Armco Steel Corp., Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co., Inland Steel Co., Colorado Fuel and Iron Corp., Wheeling Steel Corp., Great Lake Steel Corp., and Pittsburgh Steel Co.

Florida Riots

of Atlanta, Ga., urged the marchers to keep moving and remain non-violent.

Grand Jury

A grand jury in special session moved swiftly Friday to open biracial talks aimed at ending racial troubles even as more Negroes went to jail in an integration attempt.

This was the most significant step toward halting violence-marked street marches since demonstrations resumed on June 9 in St. Augustine, Fla.

Mutually Acceptable

Urging citizens to help relieve racial tensions, the St. Johns County grand jury said it would try "to establish meaningful lines of communication through which the diverse groups involved may establish mutually acceptable solutions."

A subcommittee of the grand jury called for any individual desiring to be heard to come before it.

NEGRO 'VP' TOPS LIST AS DEAN OF TV ART DIRECTORS

His work as graphic arts director was credited with raising the standards of graphic arts in TV and he was two first awards at the American TV Commercial Festival. And as winner of more than 50 major awards, his work was given recognition by the Japanese magazine, Idea, which chose him as one of the first 15 graphic designers in America. Noteworthy of mention is the fact that he was selected by our Postmaster General to design a special commemorative postage stamp for the Emancipation Proclamation Centennial.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Some Biting Truths

The good old pastime—or vice—of ducking dentist's appointments can result in something more than just a toothache or a lost incisor, especially for the young. In fact, it can give rise to something so unpleasant that an Oregon doctor has come up with a special name for it.

Outcome

"Crippled faces," according to Dr. R. W. Kullberg, a public health official in Portland, can be the outcome for children who fail to receive proper corrective treatment for malformed teeth or jaws. This involves a special kind of dentistry called orthodontia; and the sad fact is, Dr. Kullberg adds, that only one child out of five in the United States who needs it is now getting it.

Causes

For this situation he blames a variety of causes, including ignorance or apathy on the part of parents, inability to pay for treatment, a lack of available dentists, and difficulties of transportation in rural areas.

"Displacement or crowding of teeth, or a grossly disturbed relationship of one jaw to another, are conditions of malocclusion which are found much too often," Dr. Kullberg said. He described malocclusion, a condition in which the upper and lower teeth fail to close evenly, as "one of the most neglected types of dental defects."

Teeth

There are many things a child can't do for himself. One of these is seeing that his teeth get proper attention.

While he is young, a child won't thank his parents for taking him to a dentist regularly. Far from it! Indeed, no child ever recognizes all that his parents have done for him. But—with or without thanks—the wise parent will try to find regular dental care. If money stands in the way, free or inexpensive care sometimes may be located by asking the doctor, health department, or dental society.

(1) The sum of $1,566.00 with interest at 7% from April 30, 1964, being the amount due plus interest upon the promissory note in the principal sum of $3,700.00,

21.5 feet of Lot 98 and the North 20.5 feet of the East 92.3 feet of Lot 97 in 3rd Plat of Prospect of a receiver to take charge of the mortgaged premises and to collect the rents, issues and profits arising or which may be had therefrom and to apply them as by court directed. No money judgment is asked except against such persons who executed said note and mortgage.

For further particulars see the petition on file.

You are also hereby notified to appear

New York—Japanese citizens will soon have an opportunity to see a television report on the NAACP National Office at work. Jiro Maeda and Jamio Kawakami of the Mainichi Broadcasting Company, Tokyo, recently took silent films of the NAACP headquarters for broadcast in Japan with Japanese language commentary.

Among scenes filmed was one of a meeting in the office of the executive secretary where Bishop Stephen
G. Spottswood, chairman of the NA-ACP Board of Directors, was in conference with Roy Wilkins and his assistant, John A. Morsell, and other staff personnel.

Wilkins delivered the commencement address in which he called the 150 graduates to the dual task of speeding the "attainment of freedom and dignity for their own people" and of protecting and expanding the "democratic freedom of all people."

Janice Carter, a 1964 North High graduate had won the Queen Contest "Miss Association of 1964" and runner-up had been Jennifer (Ginger) Miller, a student at Grand View College who had won the award as "Princess." After the crowning of the queen by Ronene Parkey, a 1964 East High graduate, a dance around a gaily colored May-pole was given by "Association girls" Ginger Miller, Billy Wade, Arthurline Propes Robylin Hawkins, Joyce Jackson and Bobby Patterson.

Now that you have survived Iowa's soggiest weekend yet this summer, we will get on with imparting a few items. There was one bright spot during the past weekend with the appearance of the celebrated Mahalia Jackson, gospel singer.

Prior to her heartwarming concert your truly and other patrons seated near, were fascinated by a gadget a lady sitting in front of us held in her hand. Yielding to our vast curiosity we tapped the lady on the shoulder and expressed our curiosity about the gadget.

The lady, Mrs. Ida Guy, 1108 10th street, told us it was battery-operated fan, a little larger than a pocket pen-flashlight. It was chrome colored with an ivory tip and two blue fan blades, which when not in use, snapped down at the sides for storage in a purse or pocket.

Mrs. Guy said a 12-year-old friend, Audrey Crayton had sent it to her from California.

There were two particular disappointments at the Mahalia Jackson concert. One—the many empty seats which did not show tribute to the Great Lady of Gospel Songs; and two—the crowding of autograph seekers backstage after the concert. The crowding and pushing was regrettable since it had been announced in advance that she would sign each and every photograph. The noted singer had just finished a very demanding concert, which left her hot and a little exhausted. The crowding around her did not help.

The celebrated singer proved to be as gracious and kind as her pictures and television appearances indicate. After signing hundreds of autographs, we asked for a brief interview, and she graciously consented. There were about a half dozen standing near before we began and someone in the group introduced Mrs. Mable Roman to Mahalia Jackson, as "The Mahalia Jackson of Iowa."

Miss Mahalia Jackson expressed pleasure and gave Mrs. Roman her address of her church in Chicago saying that "Often revivals are conducted there where guest singers are used" and promised Mrs. Roman that she would get in touch with her.

It was a kind, thoughtful gesture, from one gospel singer to another. Miss Jackson also inquired about Mrs. Anna Weems of Waterloo.

Miss Lynda Walker stopped by to bring some news and told us about her impending trip to Indiana where she will serve as a camp counselor. It will be her first extended time away from home, but she will arrive back only for two days before she will have to leave in September for Wilberforce university.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cushingberry of 827 E. 24th street, celebrated their 22nd wedding anniversary on Wednesday, June 10.

One of the sandlot baseball victims this summer was Wyman Savage, son of Sgt. and Mrs. David Savage, 1312 11th street; he was hit in one eye with a baseball bat, the injury requiring several stitches in his eye, but luckily causing no further damage, other than severe pain and a huge black eye for several weeks.

IOWA REPUBLICANS

Governor Scranton of Pennsylvania, a late announced candidate for the Republican nomination for President, came to Iowa Monday. Here, he had an opportunity to meet Republican delegates to the national convention as well as a fine representation of party leaders who indicated in no uncertain manner that they are impressed with the governor.

Fortunately, Governor Scranton takes the high ground on national and international issues. He pulls no punches in his discussion of human rights. He endorsed the civil rights bill pending in Congress, recognizing that it will not cure all ills which Negroes suffer but would provide legal backing for the enjoyment of rights and privileges heretofore denied them in many parts of the country.

Reminding the public that the Republican party was born during the great struggle over slavery, he said the party had always been a champion of human rights for all. This is one of the great differences between the thinking of Governor Scranton and Senator Goldwater.

The Democrats nominated Gov. Stevenson and Senator Sparkman of Alabama in 1952, the latter representing the extreme segregationists view, the latter representing the Sparkman is helping the fight on the civil rights bill. If the Republicans nominate Senator Goldwater in an effort to please segregationists they may play the Democrat game by naming a liberal for vice president.

It is unfortunate that Senator Goldwater was not taken seriously earlier leaving him unhindered for delegates until too much ground had been covered.

Gov. Rockefeller has removed himself as a candidate for the nomination and asked that his supporters join the Scranton forces. It was the right move. Rockefeller could have been elected in 1960. It is doubtful that he could do so in 1964. However, his campaign did spur someone to enter the race whose views square more nearly with those of the Republican party.

Scranton could have carried California. He could have picked up many votes had his intentions been known earlier. Goldwater is not nominated YET and it is hoped that somehow the majority of the delegates to the national convention will come to the rescue of the party for the nominee in 1964 will determine the future of the party for a long time.

DISREGARDING ORDERS OF THE COURTS

The Supreme Court ruled last month that Prince Edward county, Virginia, which closed its public schools rather than comply with an earlier decision to integrate, must open the schools and levy taxes to maintain them. The district court in the area was directed to enforce the decision of the court.

The district judge sought suggestions from the county board of education as to how best to carry out the decree. They offered none, indicated that the board would refuse to comply and inquired what the penalty would be for non-compliance.

This is just another of those arrogant acts of disobedience to law and order when it comes to the enforcement of court decisions in some areas when the rights of Negroes are at stake. It is the type of boasts that the governors of Alabama and Mississippi made when Negroes were being admitted to their state universities; and the filibustering senators prior to the cloture vote who called the tune on what would be done on the civil rights bill.

Laws are the embodiment of the moral thinking of people designed to protect the rights of society. Courts interpret the laws and the executive branch enforces them. Whenever there is mass disobedience to law and order, anarchy prevails; we make no progress.

Eventually the Virginia officials will comply, and it may come the hard way as Faubus, Wallace and Barnett can testify. To fail to comply sets a poor example as leaders of government in the community.

We weren't much surprised that Clyde Duncan finally lost a 100 yard dash. We were a bit surprised at the time. We thought that the guy who finally beat Clyde would have to run at least a :09.5. But the guy was beaten in a :09.8 or :09.9. Well you just can't have it every day and the loss had to come sooner or later. We still think the 220 or 200 meter is Clyde's best race.

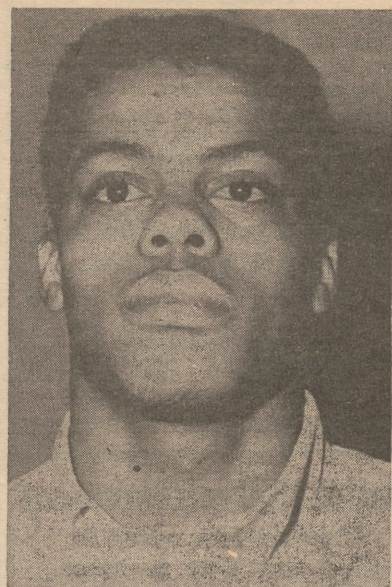

Last week's anniversary edition reminded us that we have doing this bit of nonsense for at least 30 years. How time does fly. Of course then just about anything a Negro athlete did made news. Sometimes we got a story just because some guy got into a game for a play or two. "He wasn't in there long but he raised Cain."

But, now as we have often said there really isn't much need for a column to tell about Negroes. If they are good they don't have to worry about publicity. Then there are so many of them in so many sports that one could devote an entire paper to the doings of Negro athletes in any major league baseball or football. Not to mention the many in colleges. Then a fellow wouldn't have enough space to carry all of the Negroes.

But now the writing of this weekly drivel has become a sort of habit or hobby and we enjoy doing it. We have met some of the world's greatest athletes through this column. To mention boxing alone there would be Primo Canera, Max Baer, Joe Louis, Jim Braddock, Jack Dempsey, and that ain't all. There were so many track stars that we would fill a column with just names. Then there were football players and stars of other sports. It has been a rewarding task and maybe we can keep at it another 30 years.

Cats Clocked in Fast 100 Yard Dash

Beaumont, Tex.—Two members of the Southern university track team, James Guy and Peter King, were clocked in the fast time of 9.4 seconds, as Guy won the 100-yard dash in the Gulf Federation Track Field meet here recently.

Both runners were clocked at the identical time, although Guy managed to push forward to win the race by a whisker.

Both sprinters have consistently covered the distance in 9.5 in the past.

Richard Ross, another Southern star, performed below par but had no difficulty winning the high jump event by scaling 6 feet 8 1/2 inches. He has twice jumped over 7 feet.

Ross, rated second nationally among college high jumpers, is being given a good chance to make the U.S. Olympic team.

In Iowa... after bowling, beer is a natural

After you've bowled a game or two, or when you're winding up the evening at the neighborhood bowling center, it's good to relax with friends and compare scores. What better way to add to the sport and the sociableness than with a refreshing glass of beer? However you take your fun—skiing, skating, or at your ease in the game room—beer always makes a welcome addition to the party.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom — and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.

In Iowa...beer goes with fun, with relaxation

Letter to Editor

Mr. James B. Morris
Editor and Publisher
The Iowa Bystander
Des Moines, Iowa

Dear Sir:

I, too, want to congratulate you on your 70th Anniversary. The edition is most interesting.

The items about the Clarks were good. Mr. Clark, Jr., made his home here for a number of years. I knew him personally, as I did some stenographic work for him when he was getting material together for the publication of an historic document concerning Negro Masonry in Iowa. At that time, he was Grand Master. He really had a brilliant mind. Another brilliant Iowa mind was Mrs. Laurence (Grace) Jones, (Burlington) of Piney Woods, Miss. I also did stenographic work for her when she was State President of the Mississippi Federation of Colored Women's Clubs. She was a woman who accomplished so many worth-while things. On the order of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

Mrs. Louise Glass article, started me to reminiscing. I was a little girl when I visited Ft. Des Moines but was thrilled at the sight of seeing so many fine looking men becoming officers.

About Mr. Alexander Clark, Sr., he made it possible or I should say was instrumental in getting an Iowa Law passed for colored children to attend the public schools in Iowa. Since you are a lawyer, you probably can find the exact year this became a law. Mrs. Alexander Clark, Jr., had all the books in her library pertaining to this law.

Prof. Clyde LeRoy Glass, who completed a musical course at Drake university, was a musical genius. He traveled about the country, giving recitals, when he was only 16 years old. I suppose he was Mrs. Louise Glass' uncle. He studied abroad and was an outstanding pianist. I studied music under him at Western university in Kansas City, Kans.

I didn't intend to write so much and do hope I haven't bored you. Wishing you continued success with your newspaper.

Mrs. Leonard D. Ford
Oskaloosa, Ia.

Father

I did not know when I was young. How very much my father cared—How all the problems of my youth were by him, wisely, gladly shared. I did not know, I could not know. How many thoughtful hours he spent Planning and praying for my good, As on my way I blithely went. The years have passed; a parent now, I watch my children live and grow; The love my father gave to me, At last I know—ah, yes, I know!

—Gladys Derr Brill

Television in Heaven

I used to think, "How can Our God, The Eternal Father, hear us pray, If He is on His Throne in Heaven, Far above the Milky Way?" But now my television set Makes it easier to understand How God hears us pray, even though, He is in a far distant land. Often, while sitting in my home, On television I can see, And also hear our President, Who is in Washington, D. C. I am sure there's television In Heaven, far above the moon;
