Five Omaha Residents Killed in Crash

On Rain Swept Hi-way
Near Missouri Valley

Missouri Valley, Ia. — A car-truck crash which killed five Omaha residents—all Negroes—added to Iowa's goriest traffic week here Thursday night.

The victims—three women and two men were fatally injured when their car spun into the path of a meat truck driven by William LeRoy Woods, 32, of Des Moines. Iowa Highway Patrolman Carl Lentz, who investigated the crash, said there had been a heavy rain earlier and water covered the spot where the accident occurred.

Missouri Valley police identified the victims as Fanny Young, Ada L. Fuller, 52, Joe Stuart, 43, Homer Drew, 56 and Janice Grayson, 33.

They were said to be enroute to a dog race.

33 Dead

A total of 33 persons died in highway fatalities in Iowa over a seven-day period ending Sunday. More than 70 persons have lost their lives in the past month, bringing Iowa's death total on the highways to nearly 100 more than at the same time last year.

In an effort to prevent car accidents highway patrolmen have instituted intensive crackdowns in various heavily traveled portions of the state.

AKAs to Contribute
$440,000 to NAACP

Philadelphia—Delegates to the 41st Boule of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, meeting here Aug. 9-15, voted to contribute $440,000 to the NAACP by August, 1966.

The contribution plan, termed the Alpha Kappa Alpha-NAACP Freedom Project, calls for each chapter to purchase or secure at least three NAACP Life Memberships by the time the next Boule convenes in Los Angeles two years hence.

Morris DeLisser, NAACP life membership secretary, drew up the plan and presented it to the delegates. Mr. DeLisser said when the project is completed, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority will have contributed more than $494,000 to the NAACP through the Life Membership program. To date, the figure stands at $50,000, he added.

Before the delegates voted on the ambitious donation plan, DeLisser presented to Mrs. Julia B. Purnell, Supreme Basileus, two plaques representing NAACP Life Memberships which were purchased in memory of Mrs. Ethel Lyle, AKA founder and Miss Nellie Luander, First supreme basileus.

Negroes Enter,
Library Closes

Hattiesburg, Miss.—This south Mississippi city closed its library after the second attempt to integrate it in four days.

Mayor Claude Pittman, jr., said he did not know when the library would reopen. Authorities need time "to study the situation," he said.

Seven Negro and three white rights workers tried to integrate the library. Police arrested two white men, a white woman and a Negro man, all on vagrancy charges. All were released on bond.

2 Doctors Became Friends
In College; Now Taking Their Residency at Vets Hospital

By Frances E. Hawthorne

Two doctors who met during classroom days at Tennessee State university are in Des Moines taking their residency at Veterans hospital. And the wives of both doctors are in closely allied medical fields; one is a dentist, the other is a nurse.

The medical men are Dr. Arthur R. Anderson who lives at 945 17th street with his dentist wife, Dr. Vera Anderson and their two children, Arthur Jr., 8 and Lisa, 6.

Their friends are Dr. Chauncey O. Daugherty, who lives at 1808 Francis street with his registered nurse-wife, Bernia and three children, Chauncey Jr., 2½ years, Vincent, 1½ and a baby girl, less than three weeks old.

Interview

In a telephone interview with Dr. Vera Anderson we learned that her husband and Dr. Daugherty first met when they were attending Tennessee State U. Following their graduation from Meharry Medical College they both interned at Detroit Receiving hospital in Detroit, Mich.

Then their paths parted. Dr. Daugherty, who is a native of Clarksdale, Miss., went first to California and then to Veterans hospital at Tuskegee, Ala., to work on his residency.

Dr. Anderson went into general practice for three years in his home town of Memphis, Tenn.

Dentist

Mrs. Anderson, who also attended Tennessee State and received her B.S. degree, went onto Meharry Medical college for her D.D.S. and interned at Cambridge, Ohio. While her husband practiced medicine in Memphis, she opened her dentist office there, the first Negro woman to do so.

Then her husband decided to get his residency, so he went to California where he spent a year, and then back to Nashville for another year, before coming to Des Moines earlier this summer where he will spend the next three years.

His friend, Dr. Daugherty, has only another year to go before he completes his residency at Veterans hospital here.

Affiliations

Dr. A. Anderson is affiliated with Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity and she with Delta Sigma Theta sorority. Both are members of the C.M.E. Church. Dr. Daugherty is a member of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity and he and his wife members of the A.M.E. Church.

Dr. V. Anderson was born in the all-Negro town of Mound Bayou, Miss., and her mother, the late Mrs. Charlotte Strong, was the first girl born in the town. Her father still lives there.

Jackson Schools
Integrate Today

Jackson, Miss.—Jackson public schools register first grade pupils for 38 elementary schools on a nonracial basis today under a federal court order ending segregation in this deep south capital.

Negroes were expected to apply for admission into several previously all-white schools and both police and school officials ordered tight security measures.

There was no estimate of how many Negroes would apply.

NEWS
In A Nutshell

Biloxi, Miss.—Mississippi calmly took its first step toward classroom desegregation Friday when at least 17 Negro first graders registered at previously white schools in this resort city.

Jackson, Miss. — Entertainers Harry Belafonte and Sidney Poitier left Mississippi Aug. 11 after presenting integrationists with a $70,000 check to carry on the civil rights project.

Tuscaloosa, Ala.—This university city of 70,000 was without bus service this week, the result of a Negro boycott. The Druid Transit company said 90 per cent of its passengers were Negroes.

Washington, D. C.—A manpower report expected to be released soon will probably show that Negroes now form the bulk of employees on the payroll of the District of Columbia government.

Cairo, U.A.R.—Informed sources said last week that another son of Elijah Muhammed, head of the Black Muslims, will separate from the movement and denounce his father's leadership. The son is Akbar Muhammed, 25, who is making the break because his father allegedly failed to answer charges levelled against him by another son, Wallace.

Paris, France—Ray Charles, the American jazz singer said last week he would give up singing to help newcomers to the craft. "I'm going to stop singing very soon and play with my orchestra," he said. "I want to become a manager and help newcomers."

New York—Langston Hughes, author and poet, has accepted an invitation to attend the Berlin Festival of the Arts, Sept. 22-27. Hughes will go to Hamburg, Germany on Oct. 12 to receive the bronze medal from the city's Free Academy of Art.

New York—Mrs. Michael H. Schwerner, widow of the three civil rights workers killed in Mississippi, has accepted the position of field secretary for the Congress of Racial Equality.

Jacksonville, Fla.—A federal court judge entered the first convictions for contempt under the Civil Rights Act Wednesday, Aug. 19. William Chew, manager of Palms Congress Inn at St. Augustine and his corporation were ordered to pay $400 toward attorney's fees for the integrationists who brought the complaint.

Oxford, Miss.—U. S. District Judge Claude Clayton Aug. 19 ordered public school first grades at Clarksdale desegregated this fall. Clayton also directed that the delta city's second grade lower racial barriers next Feb. 1 at the beginning of the second semester.

Compromise on Delegate
Seating Rejected by Both Groups; Regulars Go Home

Atlantic City, N.J. — Two opposing Mississippi delegations dropped a time bomb in the middle of the Democratic National Convention and the Credentials committee fought desperately for five days to delay the fuse lighting. When it exploded Tuesday the immediate damage was negligible but all agreed the percussion tremors would reverberate for the next years —into the 1968 Convention.

Seating

The time bomb originated when the "regular" all-white Mississippi delegation came to the convention demanding the seating space allotted to the recognized state's delegation. However, the Mississippi Democratic Freedom party, mostly Negroes, came, too, declaring that they were the rightful delegates and would represent the state more completely.

Credentials

They presented their case to the Credential committee. Though legally their case was weak it carried a powerful emotional impact which received complete televised, national coverage. Led by the eloquence of Aaron Henry, their leader, the Mississippi Freedom Democratic party delegates told a story of murder and threats of murder, beatings, intimidations, and the denial of voting rights by all kinds of subterfuge that followed them in their daily activities at home in Mississippi and all the way to the National convention.

Compromise

For five days the Credentials committee (which included a Des Moines attorney, Sherwin Markman) struggled to solve the problem—that is, to reach a compromise that would be acceptable to both sides. Tuesday evening they presented their decision to the convention.

Loyalty

The regular Mississippi delegation would have to sign loyalty pledges to support the party candidate for the November election. Two members of the Freedom Party delegations would be seated in the Mississippi delegation seating area with voting rights as delegates at large. The remaining delegations of the racially-mixed party would be admitted as honored guests.

Rejected by Both Sides

The proposed compromise—adopted by the convention body—was rejected by both groups. The regular

Vows He Cannot Vote
To Seat "All-White"
Mississippi Delegation

Atlantic City, N. J.—Forest Evashevski, who as former football coach gave so many Negro players an opportunity to play football at the State University of Iowa, made it known Monday that he could never vote "to seat a political convention delegation selected on the basis of racial prejudice."

Evashevski, who is now SUI Athletic director, and delegate-at-large to the Democratic National convention, here, referred to the hottest battle of the convention, between the all-white "regular" Democratic delegation from Mississippi and the largely Negro "Freedom Party" delegation from

When the Iowa delegation was polled it disclosed Evashevski was true to his word. He voted against the proposed compromise.

Mississippi delegation—with the exception of three—stated they were "going home" because the party had "deserted them and not they the party." The Freedom party delegates remained, they were held back for a time outside the convention gates by police. Later they were admitted, and when some sat in the Mississippi seating area, the three regular Mississippi delegates (who had signed the loyalty pledge) reportedly got up and were not seen afterwards.

Alabama

Another bomb, though small but with the impact of a grenade—fizzled for a time, when the Alabama delegation were told they would not be seated unless they sign the loyalty pledges. They refuse to sign but pushed to their convention seats, anyway. When some members of the Freedom party (the number was as high as 21 at one time) filled the Mississippi seats, members of the Alabama and Louisiana delegations threatened to walk out if the Freedom party members were not removed. However, the threat was not carried out.

Civil Rights Leaders

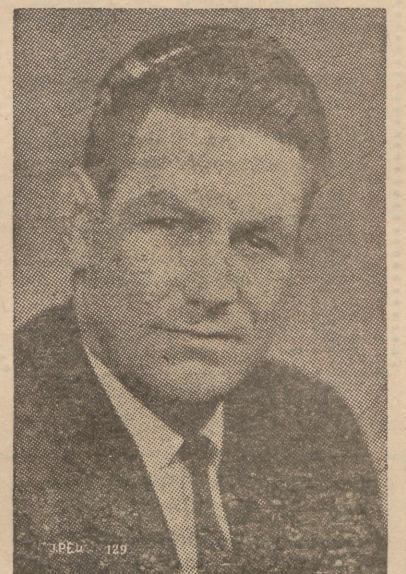

Prior to the convention's official opening, many civil rights leaders, including Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the NAACP, had urged that the Mississippi Freedom party be recognized as the rightful delegation.

There Is No Law in Miss.--- Waterloo Job Clinic Told

Waterloo—About 70 persons last Saturday night heard speakers familiar with the racial strife in Mississippi speak at a session of the Youth Achievement League's day-long seminar at Local 46 UPWA Union hall.

Mike Kenny, staff representative in Mississippi for the student Non-Violent Coordinating committee told listeners:

"There is no law in Mississippi."

He said Holmes county, where he works, is 73 per cent Negro, has only one theater, which is segregated, and is not represented in any way in government.

As an example of Mississippi violence, Kenny said that a 17-year-old Negro boy was shot by a white drug store owner in Tchula, Miss.

Follows Him

He said the white man was not brought to trial but was put out of business through boycott.

"Now I see this man riding in the sheriff's car as he follows me about as I go about my job of getting voters registered," Kenny said.

Kenny, who's white, said, "The Negro in Mississippi is open to death, beatings and bombings, simply because he is a Negro."

Newspaper Publicity

Kenny added that when Negroes succeed in registering to vote they "have their names published for three weeks in newspapers."

The group also heard from Robert

E. Kendricks, who was an undertaker in Philadelphia, Miss., who handled services for the Negro member for the trio of bodies recovered recently by FBI agents.

Kendricks was subsequently asked to leave the city of Philadelphia, he said. He is also a partial owner of another mortuary in Meridian, Miss.

35 Youths

Some 35 Waterloo youths took part in the morning activities at an employment seminar at the Union hall.

The League recognized a number of employers as practicing what was termed fair hiring.

They included: Titus Manufacturing Co.; Rath Packing Co.; John Deere Waterloo Tractor Works; Viking Pump Co.; Tate Cadillac-Olds; Wonder Pump Co.; May's Drug stores; Kresge Co.; the Super Chef restaurant; Cutler store; Northwestern Bell Telephone Co.; North Waterloo Market.

Also, Holly Shop; Carl Neubauer Confectionery; W. T. Grant Diskay; Miller Construction Co.; Landgraf Drug; F. W. Woolworth Co.; Whitey's Drive-In; Atlantic and Pacific Tea Inn.

Mrs. Anna Marie Weems, Youth Achievement League advisor, said object of the morning seminar was for youth to learn qualifications for various jobs and examine themselves to see if they qualified for one in particular.

Negro Insurance Association Meets

Chicago — The National Insurance Association, a trade group of 47 Negro owned life insurance companies, has called on members and their employees to support voter registration drives among Negroes.

The action was authorized in a resolution adopted during the organization's 44th annual convention in Philadelphia last month. It got underway with the appointment of a ten member committee by Atty. Benjamin J. Johnson of New Orleans, president.

Jesse Hill, Jr., actuary of Atlanta Life Insurance Co., Atlanta, was named chairman. Atty. Earl B. Dickerson of Chicago, president of Supreme Life Insurance Co., and author of the resolution, was named co-chairman.

Intensive Voter Drive Planned In 68 Cities by Urban League

Washington, D. C.—The National Urban League Monday announced plans for an intensive, non-partisan voter education campaign in 68 cities to register and turn out Negro voters at the polls.

According to Sterling Tucker, Director of the League's "March to the Ballot Box" Project, the vote drive will concentrate most heavily on 14 large "target" cities in which 5,199,000 Negro citizens—about one fourth of the nation's total—reside. Of these, he said, 3,023,342 are of voting age but he expressed doubts whether even half of them are registered.

Young Statement

At a press conference in the National Press Club, Tucker issued a statement by Whitney M. Young, Jr., the League's national Executive Director said that 12-man organizing teams headed by a director and deputy responsible to the local Urban League affiliate will swing into action during the next two weeks to mobilize the "full resources of the Negro community" in each target city.

John Harvey Simmons of 1602 12th Streets, was the lucky winner of the "HAM GIVE AWAY," sponsored by the Capitol Democratic Women's League, which was held Friday, Aug. 14, at 930 11th Place.

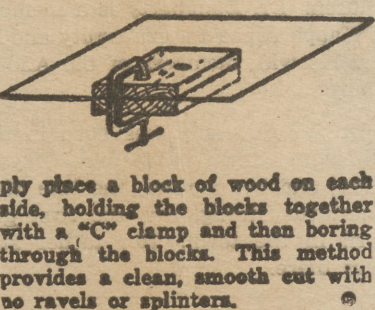

The winner's name was picked by Little Rowenda Carter, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Carter of 1617 Carpenter Ave.

A check from this fund raising project was turned over to the Des Moines Local Chapter of CORE, to benefit the efforts of Freedom Schools and Voter Registrations in Mississippi.

Swedish Tea Ring

Slices of warm Swedish Tea Ring teamed with hot spiced tea or coffee lend a festive air to holiday entertaining.

Make your holiday baking a "foreign affair" with a Swedish Tea Ring.

This sweet yeast dough coffee cake is filled with spicy cinnamon sugar and topped with confectioners' sugar icing after baking. "Fancy" this bread further by arranging chopped nuts and Christmas-like candied cherries and citron or angelica over the icing.

Serve Swedish Tea Ring on Christmas morning as a special family treat. Or, feature fresh, warm slices anytime during the holidays when you're serving coffee or spiced tea to guests. Home-baked products add a note of hospitality.

Your baker's coffee rings, cookies and pastries for the Christmas season also ring an inviting note. So, when you want to serve something sweet and festive but haven't the time to "do-it-yourself," take a look at your baker's shelves.

Baked goods you buy, like those you make yourself, contain enriched flour for added nutritional value. Enriched flour provides extra amounts of three essential B vitamins and food iron at no extra cost.

SWEDISH TEA RING

1 package yeast, compressed or dry	2 tablespoons shortening
¾ cup water (lukewarm for compressed yeast, warm for dry)	1 egg
½ cup milk	8 cups sifted enriched flour (about)
¼ cup sugar	Melted butter or margarine
1 teaspoon salt	Cinnamon sugar
	Confectioners' sugar icing

Soften yeast in water. Scald milk. Add sugar, salt and shortening. Cool to lukewarm. Stir in 1 cup flour. Add softened yeast and egg. Beat well. Add enough more flour to make a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board or pastry cloth and knead until smooth and satiny. Place in greased bowl, cover and let rise until doubled (about 1½ hours). Punch down. Cover and let rest 10 minutes. Roll out to rectangular sheet about 12 inches long and 6 inches wide.

Brush with melted butter or margarine, and sprinkle with cinnamon sugar. Roll up like jelly-roll and seal edge firmly. Shape into ring on greased baking sheet, pressing ends together to seal. With scissors, cut through roll almost to center, in slices 1 inch apart. Turn each slice slightly on its side. Let rise until doubled. Bake in moderate oven (375°F.) 25 to 30 minutes. When cool, frost with confectioners' sugar icing. Makes 1 tea ring.

Vice President

The fight between the Mississippi factions did more than any other single event or individual to demonstrate the role of the Negro in the political scheme of things in forthcoming years. It also eclipsed somewhat another big convention decision—who would be the vice presidential candidate for President Lyndon Johnson—who technically must be nominated for his first term of office.

Citizenship Class

The Department of Adult Education of the Des Moines Public Schools announces that the fall class in American citizenship for the foreign born will open on Monday evening, Aug. 31, at 7 p.m. at Slinker School, 1440 Center Street. The class will meet one evening a week for 14 weeks with the possibility of an afternoon class for those persons who cannot attend at night.

Any foreign born person who has completed 5 years of residence in this country or 3 years if married to an American citizen for 3 years is eligible to make application for citizenship.

Play ball! Ten-year-old Jim is out on the field. Whack—the crack of bat against ball. Thud-blackness. Jim's been hit. He lies still—out.

What's going on inside Jim's injured head? Tissues, damaged by the impact of the heavy baseball, have begun to swell. Injured blood vessels are slowly discharging blood into his brain. No wonder Jim has gone into shock and lost consciousness. Whether there's a skull fracture remains to be determined.

Best Off

A doctor and an ambulance have been called. What to do in the meantime? Most likely, nothing. Jim is best off lying flat on his back, head resting on a very low pillow or other soft object. Anybody who gets the bright idea of "slapping him awake," and tries it, deserves to be slapped.

silly. What Jim needs right now is to be kept warm, comfortable, undisturbed.

If no ambulance or doctor proves handy and Jim simply has to be moved, best way to do it is with the lad flat on a stretcher and with the least possible movement of head and body. Bedded down at home, he should be kept quiet without a pillow—or with a very low one.

Do Not Neglect

Jim's head injury, resulting in hemorrhage and shock, is on the more severe side. Children's head injuries are often a lot less troublesome than Jim's. At their mildest, only a simple concussion is involved; the victim is as good as new after a brief period of unconsciousness or just grogginess.

Three-Fold Screen
THE folding screen in the illustration is made of Masonite Tempered Preswood over frameworks of lumber. Side frame pieces, bottoms and braces are 1 by 2-inch lumber, respectively 57 1/2" and 12 1/2" long. The top piece can be cut to shape before assembling the framework, with a scroll or jig saw. Cut square 1/4" vent slots in the center braces and bottoms to prevent warping.

ing caused by changes in humidity. After the lumber is cut, check the lengths to make sure there is no variation. Nail and glue the frames together, checking to see that all parts are square. Then lay the frames on the Tempered Preswood and trace the outline. Cut the Preswood slightly larger than the outlines so that it can be trimmed to exact size when the units are completed. Glue and brad the panels to the frames. When the glue has set thoroughly, trim the panels to size with a plane and file. Minge the finished panels with double-acting hinges or leather straps if you cannot obtain metal ones. Decorate the panels with paint, enamel, lacquer, varnish or wallpaper.

Homemaker's Budget Helper

Flavorful ham chowder made with instant nonfat dry milk is a real stick-to-the-ribs mealtime suggestion and one that is so good it positively calls for seconds. And once homemakers try instant nonfat dry milk, they call for it again and again for it provides high nutrition at low cost. Instant nonfat dry milk is rich in protein, calcium and riboflavin, the important nutrients of regular top-quality pasteurized milk, needed for good health. Only the fat and water are removed. Yet instant nonfat dry milk is so inexpensive. A family-size package makes 12 quarts (three gallons) of nonfat milk for as little as seven cents a quart. It comes in two other sizes also—a one-pound package which makes five quarts and a pre-measured package with three individual envelopes, each making one quart of nonfat milk. Instant nonfat dry milk mixes immediately, even in ice water. Just takes a jiffy to have nonfat milk for drinking, baking or for cooking as in our Ham Chowder recipe:

Ham Chowder
(Makes 8 servings)
4 tablespoons butter
2 medium size onions, chopped
2 cups cubed, cooked ham
4 cups diced potatoes
1 cup water
1/2 cup flour
1/2 teaspoon pepper
Salt to taste
1 quart liquefied instant Starlac nonfat dry milk
Melt butter in 4-quart saucepan. Add onions and ham; sauté until onions are tender and lightly browned. Add potatoes and water. Cover; cook over medium heat, stirring occasionally, until potatoes are tender, about 10 minutes. Sprinkle flour, pepper and salt over liquefied instant Starlac nonfat dry milk. Beat with rotary beater until just blended. Add to ham mixture; cook over very low heat, stirring constantly, until thickened.

OVEN FRIED CHICKEN
A LA CREOLE
Buttered Spinach
Mexican Corn
Hot Biscuits
Fruit Compote Cookies

INGREDIENTS:
1/4 cup butter or margarine
1/3 cup all-purpose flour
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 teaspoon paprika
1/4 teaspoon poultry seasoning
1/2 teaspoon black pepper
1 ready-to-cook young chicken,
2 1/2 to 3 1/2 pounds, cut up.
1 cup uncooked white rice
1/4 cup chopped green pepper
1/4 cup chopped onion
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon black pepper
3 cups hot chicken broth made by cooking backs and neck
in water
2 large tomatoes, cut into wedges

METHOD: Light the oven and set at 400°F. Place the butter or margarine in a large all metal skillet, baking pan or baking serving dish about 12"x9"x2". Place this in the oven until the butter or margarine melts. While the butter or margarine is melting, wash the chicken in cold water. Pat dry. Put the flour, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, paprika, poultry seasoning and 1/2 teaspoon black pepper in a paper bag. Add one piece of chicken at a time. Shake bag to thoroughly coat each piece of chicken with the flour mixture. Place the chicken in the hot melted butter or margarine, skin side down. Bake, uncovered, 25 minutes at 400°F.

Arrange rice, green pepper and onion under the chicken, turning the chicken so the skin side is up. Sprinkle the rice with the 1 1/2 teaspoons salt and 1/2 teaspoon black pepper. Slowly pour the hot chicken broth over the rice. Make certain all the rice is under the broth. Arrange the tomato wedges over the chicken and rice.

Return to the 400°F. oven and bake, uncovered, 45 minutes or until the rice is tender. If the mixture becomes too dry, add a small amount of chicken broth or water.

If desired, serve from the dish in which the chicken-rice bakes. This recipe makes 6 servings.

Have you been able to survive Iowa's jumping jack weather? Perhaps you took in a stint at the Iowa State Fair to forget about the up and down temperatures. It's like winter time in the summer, as one lady was overheard to say.

We had a pleasant weekend visiting with our mother and brother and his wife and children, who motored here to take in the fair and to visit. This was the first trip here for our brother and his wife since they were married, six years. And of course our youngsters had a ball with their little visiting cousins.

We are gradually getting back into the harness for our nine-month activities. Monday afternoon, like many P.T.A. units, Moulton P.T.A. held its first board meeting and formulated a few plans after the summer vacation. As the principal said, "It hardly seems as if I have ever been away."

Of course, that's what most of us are saying. "Where has the summer gone?" It has been a wonderful one, for most Iowans, we think.

Naturally everyone had to exchange stories of their summer activities. Mrs. Holt (Caroline) Mitchell, Sr., who is publicity chairman for Moulton P.T.A. this year, reports she had a delightful summer in her hometown of Louisville, Ky., plus a trip to California.

Mrs. Josephine Fraser, who is hospital chairman, underwent surgery at Doctor's hospital last Friday morning but expects to be back in the harness in the next few weeks. Luckily, the surgery was not of a serious nature. She also got married again and this we did not know (having been out-of-touch all summer) until we called her and made the blunder of calling her by her former last name.

Gail Austin, daughter of Betty Austin, 1318 16th street, is back in the city after spending the summer with her grandparents and other relatives in Mt. Pleasant, Ia. She also made side trips with them in Missouri and Illinois. Her mother's vacation consisted of a June trip to Michigan.

Among new neighbors are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Griffith, and family who have moved to 3004 Bowdoin street. Also residing at a new address are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Black and family.

The story that appears on the front page about the two doctors who have been friends since college days and are now taking their residency at Veterans Hospital here was first pointed out to us by Mrs. Korinne Jackson, 1155 Enos avenue.

Mrs. Jackson is from the same place, Mound Bayou, Miss., as Dr.

FREEDOM DELEGATES WIN CONCESSION IN MISSISSIPPI CONTEST

Like every national political convention some delegations have developed contests between rival groups generally because of the exclusion of Negroes from the regular party organization. It occurred at the Republican convention at the Cow Palace in San Francisco; it occurred in the Democratic convention in Atlantic City.

However, no contests have developed equalling the Mississippi delegation. Two delegations sought to be seated; one the regular Democratic group; one the freedom delegation which had organized the group because they had been excluded from the regular organization.

The contest presented a difficult situation; the regular group had the law on their side but their position was morally wrong. The freedom delegates had the moral issue on their side. It is not easy to oppose a legal position even though riding on an unsound moral basis.

A compromise was adopted seating the regular delegates who signed the pledge to support the national ticket; the freedom delegates were admitted as guests with two seated as delegates at large; the compromise further provided that a commission be established to see that future election of delegates must make it possible for minorities to be included in delegations.

It seldom happens that both sides are satisfied with the compromise of a hard fight. This one is no exception to the rule. But a distinct victory was gained in that some freedom delegates were seated and, better for the future, that machinery has been set in motion to see that such tactics don't occur again.

The South knows that if Negroes gain the vote and political recognition there will be less inclination for mistreatment of minorities. In the meantime, Negroes must not lose their posture and commit acts which will alienate the support of friends or demonstrate that they are not capable of conducting themselves as well mannered citizens.

LAWLESSNESS AMONG NFO FARM ACTION

The National Farmers Organization is conducting a campaign to withhold livestock from processors until prices are raised to the point they think adequate. This is the second such campaign and for a while seems to have some success.

Many members of NFO and sympathizers have surrounded packing plants in various livestock centers urging farmers to take their loads of cattle home rather than sell to the packers. Of course, even though loyal to the cause of higher prices, livestock is taken to market when they arrive at a point to bring the best prices. To prevent them from doing so often brings losses.

Like most groups seeking to foster a cause, some NFO members have attempted to be a law unto themselves, molesting farmers with loads of livestock, abusing and using physical violence and in some cases slashing tires on the trucks.

This is most unfortunate. It happened before and there was no reason to expect that it would not happen again. N. F. Staley, the president, has appealed for law and order; governors in some states have threatened to call out the national guard to control the situation.

The Bystander has spoken of the conduct of NFO members before knowing that lawlessness has crept into the organization even though the heads of the group advise against it. Such conduct cannot be condoned here any more than it can by the Negro demonstrators who lose their heads and commit crimes which add nothing to their cause.

Maybe, those who have criticized Negroes for disorderly picketing their rights can spend a little time giving lawless NFO members a verbal blast because of unlawful conduct. This situation shows that all groups, without regard to race, creed, color or religion, operate about the same way under the same circumstances.

Bob Ferguson Cut By Vikings

Bemidji, Minn.—Fullback Bob Ferguson, heralded as potentially another Jimmy Brown when he entered the National Football League in 1961, was placed on waivers Thursday, Aug. 20 by the Minnesota Vikings.

The Vikings had acquired Ferguson, former Ohio State all-American, from Pittsburgh in mid-season last year. Ferguson left here by plane for an unannounced destination without commenting whether he planned to join another team. Being placed on waivers now three weeks before the N. F. L. season opens gives him a chance to try somewhere else.

Ferguson was the Steelers' No. 1 draft choice in 1961.

Mother snaps a picture that will keep her memory ever-fresh of the little girl starting off on that big adventure—the first day of school.

It's School Time!

For the past few days we've been hearing bells ringing in our ears—and you know what kind, don't you? That's right—school bells! Practically everywhere across the country summer vacation is drawing to a close, and very soon now hoards of youngsters will be reluctantly setting forth for their annual battle with the 3R's.

School is a word that covers many activities and people. At your house, school days may mean a well-scrubbed, neatly combed six-year-old who's entering Class 1-A. Or it may refer to a daughter who's on her way back to high school or a son setting off to college. And to a teacher—if there's one in your family—it will mean readying the classroom for a new group of youngsters.

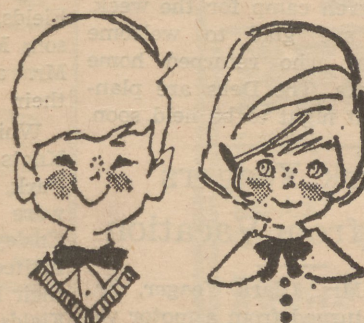

But no matter what new activities school days bring to your home, one thing is certain: It's no time to put away your camera just because vacation has ended. The school year brings with it many moments when you'll be awfully glad you had a camera handy. And remember, something as simple as a shot of the children poring over their homework projects or perhaps dressing up for the school pageant may turn out to be the most cherished picture of your collection in years to come. The opening of school spells "camera" in another important way, too. It marks a time when junior members of the family especially appreciate having a camera of their own. Friends and classmates, school activities and events belong in any youngster's pictorial record—and he'll enjoy taking those snapshots himself, recording his own impressions just as he wants to remember them.

It won't require expensive equipment, either, for a simple box-type camera is all that's necessary. With a flash attachment and a supply of flash bulbs, junior can take pictures under almost any conditions—indoors, day or night, in clear weather or cloudy, in early morning or after the sun goes down. In fact, don't be surprised if he's named official photographer for his class in school as well as for his Scout troop!
