Couple Found Dead; Ruled Murder and Suicide

Landlord Discovers Bodies; Two Came From Youngstown, O.

The death of a man and woman, who came to Des Moines from Youngstown, Ohio about three months ago, were ruled a murder and suicide by the Polk County medical examiner. The couple had been dead about two days.

Police identified the two as Clifford Colvin, 30 and his common-law wife, Gladys Cooper Jones, 28. Both had come here earlier this summer from Ohio, where they left behind a wife and husband respectively, and 10 children.

The bodies were found by the Rev. E. A. Galters of 1135 10th street, owner of the apartment house, at 1157 10th street, in which the couple lived on Friday.

Landlord

The Rev. Mr. Galters told police that he went to the apartment at 7:30 a.m. Friday, Aug. 28 to collect rent and when no one answered he unlocked the door and went into the apartment.

The Minister said he called police after he discovered the bodies of the dead couple lying on a bed in the apartment. A small-caliber pistol was found on the bed. Police said the woman had been shot several times and the man once.

Sister

Louise Jamison, of 1111 12th street, a sister of the dead woman told police she last had seen the couple two days before their bodies were found.

Police said other occupants of the apartment house reported they had not heard any shots. The bodies

Curtis Wilson Gets 25-Yr. Sentence for Robbing a Postoffice

A Des Moines man who reportedly committed an armed robbery because he worried about his mounting debts, last Friday, Aug. 28 was sentenced to a 25-year indeterminate sentence.

Curtis Wilson, 37, of 1223 78th street, pleaded guilty Monday, Aug. 24 to robbing at gun point Waveland Super-Valu, 4808 University avenue on Aug. 3. About $500 of the $2,000 taken was from the contract post-office at the market.

Wilson was arrested a short time after the robbery following a running gun battle with police.

Federal Judge Roy L. Stephenson told Wilson he made the sentence indeterminate so Wilson can be released as soon as the Parole Board feels he is rehabilitated.

Robert Ray, attorney for the accused said Wilson "had debts far beyond his ability to pay". He said Wilson had assorted loans and installment purchases that required minimum payments of $86 per week. He said concern over the debts caused Wilson to commit the robbery.

Wilson is reported as having only a eighth grade education but was employed at a local grocery earning $85 to $100 a week.

Glanton, Russell Named to Speakers Panel

JUDGE GLANTON

Municipal Judge Luther T. Glanton, Jr., and Ernest Russell, executive secretary of the Des Moines Human Rights Commission, have been named members of the National Speakers Bureau of the Foundation for Freedom and Democracy in Community Life, Inc.

RUSSELL

Speakers representing the foundation will be available to speak before civic and church groups on techniques to eliminate the practices of racial residential segregation.

5,000 Attend Elks Grand Conclave, Re-elect Reynolds

Miami, Fla.—Re-election of the Hon. Hobson R. Reynolds as Grand Exalted Ruler of the IBPOE of W. highlighted the great fraternal order's 65th annual convention, held here Aug. 21-28.

A parade of distinguished speakers, whose subjects touched on many aspects of the "social revolution" now taking place throughout the country . . . a mammoth mid-day parade a surprisingly large number of some 2,500 Elks' delegates and more than 3,000 Daughter Elks, opened last Saturday and immediately suspended business, after the report of the Grand Exalted Ruler, to re-elect him for two more years, without opposition.

Watch for Bishop Thomas' Interview

The next issue of the Iowa Bystander will carry an interview story of Bishop and Mrs. James S. Thomas and their family. Bishop Thomas is the newly appointed spiritual leader for some 300,000 Methodists in Iowa. Bishop M. T. Ensley who was transferred to Ohio.

The interview story has been delayed because the new bishop and his family have been busy moving in to their new home at 3500 Kingman boulevard and he had to make a business trip out of town earlier this week.

NASH

Miami, Fla.—A small Negro boy, mentally retarded and suffering malnutrition, has been freed from a filthy room where he had been imprisoned for more than two years. Police investigating a complaint of neighbors, found the boy, between 5 and 7 years old, lying nude on a bare mattress in the room. Screaming at the unaccustomed sight of lights and people, the boy was taken to a hospital where his condition was listed as fair.

Jackson, Miss.—The office manager of the "Goldwater for President" headquarters here has refused to allow any Negroes into the office, Charles Evers, NAACP Mississippi field secretary reported last week.

Denver, Colo.—Atty. George G. Ross, veteran Colorado lawyer and former editor and publisher of the Denver Star weekly newspaper, was praised in eulogies for the work he had done in civil rights to improve the status of Negroes in the state. His last rites were held Aug. 7.

Washington, D. C.—A third loan, totaling $100,000 to assist in the development of Nigeria has been authorized by the Export-Import Bank of Washington.

Pelican Beach, Fla.—Something new on the American scene—an exclusive country club community devoid of all racial or religious bias—is getting set to open its doors to all with a gala ceremony here on Sept. 13. Both white and Negro families are to be counted among the first residents of Pelican Beach, with some 200 homes, with FHA approval, already available. Price ranges from $8,000 to $20,000.

Washington—Dr. Russell A. Dixon, dean of the Howard University College of Dentistry, has been appointed to the Veterans Administration's special medical advisory group, becoming the first of his race to hold the position.

New York—Benjamin J. Davis, 60, former national secretary of the American Communist party and a one time New York city councilman, died of lung cancer on Aug. 22.

Lagos, Nigeria—Accompanied by his wife and son, James Meredith, the first Negro alumnus of the University of Mississippi, arrived in Nigeria last week to begin a three-year course in political science at the University of Ibadan. His wife, June, will lecture in English at the same university.

Conference of N.A.A.C.P. Branches, will attend a special meeting of the Region IV Executive Board in Kansas City, Mo. on Saturday, Sept. 19. The meeting, called by Leonard H. Carter, Regional Secretary, will take up questions of policy, public relations and development of the N.A.A.C.P. in the United States of the 1960's. The 1965 National Convention, the 1964 State Conferences, and action on the National Anti-Poverty program and the Civil Rights Act of 1964 in Region IV will also be considered.

Mississippi, Rural Georgia Admit Negro Pupils With 'No Trouble' Anywhere

Biloxi, Miss.—Ten years after the precedent-setting U. S. Supreme Court school desegregation decision and after intervening years of anti-integration tactics by school officials and white citizens group, the Deep South finally yielded to the inevitable and quietly integrated its schools in this state.

No Trouble

Mississippi which has long been looked upon as the last bastion of segregation, had several cities to enroll Negroes in classes. Four white schools in this famed resort city accepted 16 Negro children, the state's first desegregation below the college level.

There was no trouble and the mayor said none was expected. The streets were empty and the city of 60,000 seemed languid.

Racial barriers also tumbled in Americus, Augustus and Marietta, Ga.; Panama City, Fla., Richland and Beaufort Counties, South Carolina, and rural Amelia County, Virginia. There was no hint of trouble anywhere.

Rural Georgia

Even in Americus, Ga., a rural-orientated city beset last summer by large-scale demonstrations and arrests, the unannounced entry of three Negroes to the white high school produced no immediate sign of resistance.

The Americus school board had given no hint of the desegregation. In a statement for the board, Superintendent Clay Mundy said, "This was done in compliance with the newly enacted civil rights law."

The peaceful pattern was repeated at August, Ga., where 10 Negroes attended classes at four white elementary schools under a voluntary desegregation plan. In Marietta, Ga., two Negro girls entered 10th grade classes without incident.

In Atlanta, Negroes picketed a white elementary school where some were turned away since desegregation has not reached the lower grades. More than 800 Negroes, however, enrolled in formerly white Atlanta schools in grades eight through 12.

Louisiana

Five Negro children were admitted to Amelia school in Amelia, Va., without trouble. In South Carolina about 20 Negro children desegregated 10 schools in Richland county.

In Baton Rouge, La., Negroes attended four previously white Catholic high schools without incident in the first desegregation of the East Baton Rouge Parish parochial schools.

At Little Rock, all 12 grades will be desegregated this year with an increase of from 121 to 229 Negroes. Nine new school districts are being desegregated in Tennessee this fall. The state will have 54 of its 154 school districts desegregated.

Chief Test

The chief test was expected to come Tuesday in Leake County when several Negroes were scheduled to enroll in the white school of Carthage, a small town 40 miles northeast of Jackson.

Riots Rage in Philly; 150 Injured; Widespread Damage; Mayor Clamps Quarantine

Philadelphia, Pa.—Riots which had not married the American scene for nearly two weeks after the violent incidents in Chicago, Ill. suburb, erupted the uneasy quiet, breaking out in the city of Brotherly Love—Philadelphia.

150 Injured

Over 150 persons were injured, including 27 policemen, one of them with a skull fracture. There was heavy damage from smashed store windows which was further heightened by looting. Bottles were thrown from roofs along with other debris. The looting and damage were heavy over a four mile area. Police made 35 arrests ranging from disorderly conduct to burglary.

Quarantine

The rioting which began Friday night over a comparatively minor incident, as had been the patterns for previous violent incidents, raged into early dawn Saturday.

Mayor James H. J. Tate, invoked emergency powers and clamped a quarantine placed on 125 blocks in the riot-torn Negro section. Reinforced police numbering some 1,400 appeared to have the situation under better control Saturday night than when rioting broke out the night before.

Mayor

Mayor Tate, who rushed back from a vacation in Ocean City, N.J., warned that all persons who were on the glass-strewn streets without pressing errands would face immediate arrest. He declared that penalties for defying his order could range as high as two years in jail.

"Minor" Spark

It was the first major Negro disturbance in Philadelphia this summer and, as had been the pattern elsewhere, it started over a comparatively minor incident:

Negro policemen answered a call to remove a stalled car, occupied by a Negro man and his wife, from an intersection.

The wife, identified as Mrs. Odessa Bradford, 34, of Philadelphia, protested when police tried to move the car. In the argument, she punched an officer, police said, and was arrested on assault and battery charges.

Bystanders moved in on the police when they tried to take her to the police station. They radioed for help. The husband, Rush Bradford, was not accused.

Spread

Rioting spread throughout the north side as additional police moved in. Perhaps two-thirds of the city's 600,000 or so Negroes live in the area and most of them live in row

Three Return from D.C. Study Use of Civil Rights Law at Meet

How can—or should—the nation's civil rights law be applied to Des Moines?

This question is to be answered by three Des Moines residents, members of President Johnson's "Citizens Community Relations Committee." The three, Mrs. Golda Sands of 721 55th street, Municipal Judge Luther T. Glanton, Jr., of 818 15th street, and Mrs. Elizabeth Kruidenier of 3409 Southern Hills drive, returned earlier this week from a meeting of the nationwide committee in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Sands said the initial meeting was an "exploratory session" on how the advisory committee would work. She said the ultimate objective of the committee is to educate persons in local communities on the civil rights act so court actions will not have to be taken.

LeRoy Collins, former governor of Florida, is director of the Community Relations Service set up under the Civil Rights Act to aid communities in solving discrimination problems.

Nothing makes a young girl feel more grown-up than playing hostess to her chums. Now's the perfect time for it with the back-to-school march in full swing. Without any help from you, she can prepare this simple but tasty menu for her Saturday night jam session or club social. Chop Suey's an all-time favorite with the blue-jeaners and you can add stature to Sister's socializing by letting her serve coffee—the caffeine-free kind that young folks can take in stride. This kind of kitchening pays double dividends... gives you more free time and helps her impress the lads with her housewifely as well as her attributes. Menu includes orange fruit soup, chop suey, tomato wedges and Mocha Frosted.

Chop Suey with Almonds

1/4 cup butter or other fat
1 pound lean pork, cut in thin strips
1 cup chopped onions
2 cups celery, cut in thin 1-inch strips
2 1/2 cups (No. 2 can) mixed Chinese vegetables, drained
1 1/2 cups liquid from vegetables plus hot water
Dash of pepper
2 tablespoons cornstarch
2 tablespoons cold water
2 teaspoons soy sauce
2 1/2 cups packaged, pre-cooked rice
3 cups cold water
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup toasted almonds

Melt butter in hot skillet. Add meat and brown quickly for 2 minutes. Add onions and sauté for 5 minutes, stirring frequently. Add celery. Drain liquid from canned vegetables and add water to make 1 1/2 cups. Add liquid to meat mixture. Add salt and pepper. Cover and boil gently 6 minutes. Add drained vegetables, mixing well. Bring to a boil and add water, cornstarch, and soy sauce that have been blended together. Stir lightly and cook 1 minute. Serve on hot rice. Garnish with almonds.

*Combine rice, water, and salt in saucepan. Mix just until all rice is moistened. Bring quickly to a boil over high heat, uncovered, stuffing rice gently once or twice with a fork. (Do not stir.) Cover and remove from heat. Let stand 10 minutes before serving. Makes 6 servings.

*An equal amount of bean sprouts or cooked green beans and mushrooms may be substituted.

Mocha Frosted

2 1/2 teaspoons instant caffeine-free coffee
2 teaspoons sugar
2 cups chilled milk
1 cup chocolate ice cream

Combine ingredients in shaker, glass jar, or bowl. Shake or beat until thick and fluffy. Makes 2 servings.

Orange Fruit Soup

2 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
1 1/2 cups water
1 tablespoon sugar
Dash of salt
1/2 cup quick-frozen, concentrated orange juice
2 1/2 cups diced fresh fruit*

Place tapioca and water in saucepan. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add sugar, salt, and concentrated orange juice; blend. Cool, stirring once after 15 to 20 minutes. Cover and chill. Before serving, add fruit. Makes 5 or 6 servings. *Use fruits in season, such as grapes, cantaloupe, peaches, and bananas.

It's in the cards

Dad is in for more than his fair share of ribbing come Father's Day, June 18.

The studio type greeting cards, for example, proclaim all sorts of true things about Dad. For example:

"To Dad who is always calm, cool, and... collected from!" Or, "Happy Father's Day to the man who has everything..." Inside caption reads: "Mortgaged to the hilt!"

And then there is always the Dad "who fixes everything... so that we have to call the repairman!"

Dad rates an "A" for effort in all endeavors, however, and come his big day, many Dads will be receiving special recognition with this card from Rust Craft. "Dad, you deserve a special award." Inside is a cut-out gold leafed medal inscribed with: "A-1 type Daddy-O, Winner of Bread, Lender of Automobile, Doer-of-it-Yourself, and Long Suffering Martyr."

Apple Pie

Cool weather calls for hearty desserts—such as this tender, juicy Apple Pie—served warm.

Serve the all-time favorite, Apple Pie, for dessert tonight when hungry children trip in from school. It doesn't take long to make—and how pleased your family will be.

The recipe for the crust makes golden color and tenderness as easy... well, as easy as pie. The pretty design is no trick at all. Make one like it or draw upon your imagination plus a cookie cutter for your own version. Be sure, though, that there are openings in the top of the crust to let out flavor-laden steam from the baking apples. Press the top and bottom layers of pastry together and there'll be no spilling over of savory juices.

If you are hurried, order a baker's pie and pop it in a low-heat oven just before dinner is called.

Everyone is convinced that Apple Pie is good eating. Ever consider, though, that it has important nutrient contributions? The enriched flour in the crust contributes extra B-vitamins, food iron and protein. The apples add more vitamins and minerals.

Feature Apple Pie at your next dessert party. Trim the pie with wedges of sharp Cheddar cheese and serve along with a bowl of grapes and a dish of salted mixed nuts.

APPLE PIE

2 cups sifted enriched flour
1 teaspoon salt
Sift together flour and salt. Cut or rub in shortening. Sprinkle with water, mixing lightly until dough begins to stick together. Divide dough in half and let stand while preparing Apple Filling. Roll out half of pastry to circle 1/4 inch thick and line pie pan with it. Fill with Apple Filling.

1 1/2 quarts apples
1/2 cup shortening
5 to 5 tablespoons cold water
Roll out other half of pastry to circle to cover pie pan. Place on top of Apple Filling. Trim and flute edges. Cut design in top pastry. Bake in hot oven (450°F.) 15 minutes. Reduce to a moderate oven (350°F.) and continue baking 30 minutes, or until apples are tender.

Apple Filling

1 1/2 cups apples
1/2 cup sugar (about)
1 cup water (about)
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 cup sugar (about)
2 tablespoons enriched flour
Peel and slice apples. Mix lightly with butter or margarine and lemon juice. Combine sugar, flour and cinnamon and mix well. Makes 1 9-inch apple pie.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Good Old Golden Rule Days

"Funny thing," Ma said. "When we took that trip down to the World's Fair we got the old jalopy tuned up right good beforehand."

"What's funny about it?" Pa demanded. "And why ain't the soup on yet?"

Ma ignored the question and the soup. "Another thing," she mused. "Come plantin' time we furbish up the tools and mend the fences and all. Somehow it jest don't seem right!"

"What in thunder is it that don't seem right?" Pa sputtered. "And how long has a man got to sit around and starve in his own house?"

"Don't seem right to go doctorin' the car and prettifyin' the truck garden when we don't do nothin' for our own flesh and blood that's about to face another year in school."

Toe to Toe

"Have you bid goodbye to reason, woman?" Pa bellowed. "Didn't we take young Lem and Daisy to town last Saturday and get 'em all fitted out from top to toe?"

"Clothes ain't what I'm thinking of and you know it, Pa. What about their poor young bodies? Who knows if their eyes or ears or teeth or whatever don't need lookin' after?"

"I can buy 'em pretty good spectacles at the five and ten," Pa said.

"You'll do no such thing! Likely they don't need spectacles at all, but what about them booster shots the doctor talks about, and that thing they do to find out if there's any TB germs—"

Before School

"Tew-berculin test I think they call it," Pa said. "Hey, might not be a bad idea if they got checked up before school starts. You know, sort of top to toe."

"My land!" Ma giggled. "You do get the smartest notions, Pa. Can't jest figure out how they strike you." Ma picked up the telephone. "Hello, Louisa, get me the county TB association folks, please? No, nobody's sick, honey, jest want to ask 'em where to go for a checkup. Yeah—top to toe!"

It happened as we all knew it would. Just as soon as you outfit school youngsters with long sleeved shirts, it turns real summery hot again. Streets and schoolyards, which all summer had been almost vacant of youngsters that early in the morning, were filled to overflowing. In their pretty new school outfits they made a rainbow of colors on an ideal beautiful day.

Now that school has begun yours truly will not be able to take phoned in news calls before 9 a.m., after we have gotten our three youngsters off to their respective schools—our oldest for his first year to Washington Irving Junior high and the two younger ones to Moulton Elementary. Our baby has another year to go before she will enter kindergarten. Somehow, she accepted with the philosophy of four-year-olds, the fact that she would not be going along with her sister and brothers to school.

Monday, Labor day will be a holiday and naturally the Bystander office will be closed. Of course, we will not be available to take news by phone on Sunday or Monday, as we want to take advantage of our holiday weekend too. However, if you should have news early on Thursday, Friday, or Saturday, feel free to call us as it will help to assimilate the news for next week's edition. The news deadline remains the same—Tuesday noon.

Mrs. Valetta Fields, Waterloo news correspondent for the Bystander and a friend, Mrs. Thelma Powell of the same city, were in Des Moines last Saturday and Sunday. They visited with Bystander publisher-editor, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Morris, Sr., and spent most of Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Joan Bullock. We had tried to contact them at the YWCA where they stayed over night, but they were out to church and visiting; so when Mrs. Fields finally returned our call it was about a hour before departure time by Greyhound bus. However, our husband drove down, brought them out to the house and we had a brief but very delightful visit.

We had a call from Mrs. Ralph Parker, 1326 DeWolf street, who told us about their first vacation trip to Canada. It was raining when they entered Canada and raining when they left, she said, but they did have at least five good days out of the 10 day-trip.

SILLY REASONING

George Mills, political writer for the Register and Tribune, wrote from the Democratic Convention that there was "white backlash" among Iowa delegates in Atlantic City. This, of course, is not surprising for some are unlike the reasoning of those delegates, all white people in the South are not bad; neither are all white people in the North good.

Quoting from one of the anonymous backlash delegates (they did not have the courage to own these statements), their remarks were: "It all started with Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt. She patted the Negroes on the back and we have had trouble with them ever since."

Commented another: "It isn't the Negroes themselves but these kids working on their Ph.D.s who are stirring them up. I want the Negroes to vote but I don't like the idea of these young people going down South."

"How would we like to have people from other states come to Iowa and tell us they didn't like what we're doing?"

If this delegate heard the testimony given by some of the Mississippi Freedom delegates reciting the most uncivilized conduct of riots, killings, burnings, bombings of churches and homes simply because Negroes want their rights as American citizens and still feels like he spoke, then he too is not a good citizen and needs outside help to shape his morals as much as those who disrespect the law in Mississippi.

Another said: "Some people believe civil rights means a Negro can come into a place of business and raise a rumpus and get by with it. I don't believe in that kind of civil rights."

None of these Iowans would be quoted by name.

Responsible Negroes, the great masses of Negroes don't believe in it either.

Does he remember how irate at LeMars, Iowa, placed a rope around Judge Fuller's neck, drug him out and threatened to lynch him because he had signed decrees (it was only his official duty) foreclosing mortgages on their farms.

Has he read about some members of the National Farmers Organization who in those withholding campaigns to stop the flow of livestock to market, cut the tires of some trucks, beat and otherwise assaulted farmers who dared take their stock to market requiring legal action by law enforcing officers.

Of course, this not right, neither do all NFO farmers approve such conduct. However, this irrational few, just like the lawless rioters, tend to make bad news for the other members.

No sane man can approve acts such as irresponsible Negroes are carrying on in northern cities. Nor that of those who attempted to lynch Judge Fuller or the reckless actions of some NFO members.

LABOR CAN HELP THEIR SUPPORTERS

America observes Labor Day Monday in recognition of the contribution made to this country by labor. And labor has come a long way in recent years to the point where it ceases to be the underdog, but in many ways more powerful than industry, particularly in the cities.

Negroes have supported the labor forces regularly during their ascendancy to power. They have done so in spite of the fact that, in most cases, they have not shared the benefits that have come as a result of that close knit cooperation as a whole.

Much criticism has been directed at the showing made by anti-Negro forces in great labor areas. In other words labor has accepted the Negro in building their dynasty but run from him when he was seeking his rights.

Labor leaders are pleading with their members to stay with the Democratic party in order to defeat the Republican candidate for president. Unless they can have more influence with the rank and file in this instance than they have had stopping segregation in the locals, the group Negroes have supported in the past will be deserting them at the polls November 3.

We watched the tall Jamaican, Lance Lumsden, get set back in straight sets by a fellow he had beaten a week ago in the Missouri Valley meet, in Kansas City, Mo. This was in the Hawkeye Open finals at Birdland Sunday and the guy, Gene Land from Oklahoma, reversed the score and general contour of this match.

Lumsden has those fits of error that could be costly and Sunday they were. As we recall, it has been three years since there was a Negro in the Hawkeye open meet. This might not include veterans. It maybe six more before another Negro makes it there because most of them don't take the game seriously.

Baseball

As the pennant races go into the final month we have to give up on the Dodgers. They will likely set some sort of a record, going from first to eighth in one season. We have to give the Yankees an outside chance yet. They have a lot of home games in this month and they are really tough at home. Then this could be an American League year for the World's Series. If the White Sox win it we would like to be there for a couple of games.

Football

Made our usual rounds of the local high school teams. About all we could do was look at the size of the boys and watch them drill a little. Looks as if Lincoln and Roosevelt are the local teams to beat. But just about all the other schools are going to be tougher than they were last year.

Drake could have a very good year if they can play Iowa State even a close game. Would like to see that one. Iowa University has a problem. Looks as if there will a scarcity of Negroes at Iowa this year. What kind of season will the Hawks have? Frankly we can't see much in store for them. Looks like another long season for Coach Burns and his boys.

We have enough former football players around to have a pretty good Sunday club. About all they need is someone to organize them and a couple of thousand bucks to set them up. Anybody got that kind of change?

Rugs and carpets probably take more of a beating than any of your other home furnishings. However, there are several things you can do to make your carpets stay beautiful and last years longer—and save yourself the money it would cost to replace them.

Use an inexpensive carpet sweeper every day to pick up lint, crumbs and dirt from the surface of your carpet. A few minutes a day will keep dirt from being ground deeply into the carpet. Use a vacuum cleaner once a week. A good vacuum cleaner removes deep-down dirt, as well as surface material. When the carpet begins to look dull, use a rug shampoo to get rid of dirt that your vacuum cleaner can't get to. Modern rug shampoos require little work and are well worth the effort to keep your rugs and carpets beautiful. Once a year is the minimum for shampooing every carpet in the house.

Floyd Not Yet Ready To Hang Up His Gloves

New York—Floyd Patterson, back from Europe, disclosed Wednesday: "There are only two people who keep me from hanging up my gloves—Cassius Clay and Sonny Liston."

The former two-time heavyweight champion, who flew in from Switzerland, Aug. 24, announced that he will begin training Monday at his Marlboro camp in upstate New York for Cassius or some other good opponent.

During his two months in Europe, 29-year-old Floyd made a long stride on comeback highway by soundly trouncing Eddie Machen of Los Angeles before 40,000 at Stockholm, Sweden, on July 5.

MY HOME STILL!

They may treat me mean you know they will,
But America is my home still!
The torture I've suffered in body and mind
Showed me the road to freedom,
I'm about to find
God never mean for people to live this way

And as sure as the stars some have to pay.
I have faced vicious animals in my face.
Just because I want my place
A look at the sunlight so I can see
Just what it means to be free.
Even with all the hate that's here
I want to stay a many year
I have the strength and strongest will

Because it's my home still.
I've been told to come and go another way.
To leave this country another day.
But I listen not to words of such.
For this my home, I've sacrificed much.
In time I know, that I will see.
The Civil Rights Bill working for me
So why should I interfere with a man
Doing his duty in this land.
Law is right, for you and all
If not enforced we all will fall
So let's think it over I know I will Because America is my home still!
