BULLETINS

Tuskegee, Ala.—For the first time in history two Negroes, running in a political campaign against white party opposition were elected to office. They were the Rev. K. L. Buford, a civil rights leader who won a council seat by a margin of 200 votes and Dr. Stanley Hugh Smith, a faculty member of Tuskegee Institute, who defeated his opponent by 250 votes. The new council will thus have two Negroes and three white men.

When he receives a compilation of the various FBI reports, the President said: "I will review those and try to compile them if I find any pattern that is common to all of them, and ask that a further study be made."

In his telegram of Aug. 30 to the Attorney General, Mr. Wilkins noted that "a pattern has emerged from the recent riots" which has given rise to the "suspicion . . . that they have been planned and that persons have been paid to start and to keep them going."

8 Schools Paired

Initially paired were eight elementary schools—six in Queens and two in Brooklyn, with a total enrollment of 5,033. Absenteeism in these schools was reported at 39.4 per cent.

In addition to pairing, rezoning has had a similar effect of forcing the busing of some children.

If you're planning to borrow money or buy on time, be sure you're familiar with the following points:

- No matter what interest rate is quoted, find out the actual cost in money.
- Before signing any papers, check the figures as to their accuracy and don't leave spaces to be filled in later.
- Question extra charges that would increase the total cost of the loan.
- If you're to owe a firm other than the dealer you're buying from, find out if they are reputable.
- Find out what the penalties are for late payments.
- Don't skip the fine print. Read and be sure you understand.
- What does the contract say about repossession?
- Understand what security you are giving.
- Do not sign away legal rights or guarantees such as the right to refuse merchandise which is not as promised.
- Is there a provision for refund of interest on payments ahead of schedule?

HEALTH FOR ALL

Air Pollution: A Rural Problem, Too!

Question: How do you wall out dirty air? Answer: You don't.

Kentucky can't tell Tennessee to keep its air pollution problems on its own side of the line (or vice versa). Nor can farm areas avoid the industrial halitosis that belches forth from more than 10,000 communities across the country. Air knows no boundaries.

Crop Damage

ITEM: Southern California farmers lose more than $3,000,000 in crop damage in a single year because of air pollution.

ITEM: A farm area in Washington supported 2,000 dairy cattle before a nearby industrial plant went up. Present cow population: 100. Reason: Air pollution.

Legislature

ITEM: Heavy damage to wheat, timber, and vegetables found in Idaho, Montana, Florida, Tennessee, Utah, New Jersey, Washington. The cause: Air pollution.

ITEM: Polluted air is associated by scientific investigators with lung cancer, asthma, chronic bronchitis, emphysema, and other respiratory diseases.

The problem cuts across city, county, even state lines. Yet more than a score of state legislatures have so far failed to enact any air pollution control measures whatever . . . What can be done?

Local Groups

First: Support the activities of local organizations fighting air pollution (two examples: your Christmas Seal Organization, the health department).

Second: Don't dirty the air yourself. Have fume control devices put on your car. Make sure your furnace doesn't contribute to the problem.

Third: Cooperate with local authorities to control air pollution.

Fourth: Take an active part in the battle in your own neighborhood. Talk the problem over with friends. Work for needed legislation.

Remember—cleaner air is your job, too.

Novel Table for Cottage Folds Against Wall

A COMPACT, out-of-the-way table and benches suitable for a camp cottage will be a pleasure to build and a delight to the family because of its novelty.

The table top, when folded up, serves as a door for the wall cabinet. Because it will wear long and is easy to keep clean, Masonite 1/2" Tempered Presdwood is used to surface the lumber framing of the table top. The same material covers the planks serving as benches.

The cupboard is built of 1-inch lumber framing, covered with Tempered Presdwood. Shelves are similarly constructed.

Note the hinges which permit the table and benches to be pushed out of the way, against the wall, to which they are fastened with hooks.

Panels of Presdwood can be used effectively in other ways at the summer cottage—to cover unsightly interior walls, for converting a large room into smaller ones, corner closets, floors, fish cleaning and bait cutting boards, sunshades at the beach, or resurfacing old picnic tables.

DEADLINE WEDNESDAY

THRIFTY HAM AND CORN CASSEROLES

Second-day ham takes on wonderful new flavor in these casseroles which include corn, green pepper and onion in a well-seasoned white sauce. With crusty rolls, a green salad and zesty beer, they're perfect for a family or party meal.

Your family may not be large enough to consume a whole ham, or even a half, in one meal, but you'll find that it's smart planning to bake a ham occasionally. It's such a decorative asset to any table and it is delicious hot or cold.

With the portion left after the first meal, you will want to save some for slicing and serving in sandwiches or with the breakfast eggs. For a dinner menu, you might grind the meat for a ham loaf or cut it in cubes for a casserole combination such as this one:

Baked Ham and Corn

- 1 No. 2 can kernel corn
- 1 small onion, grated
- 1/4 cup minced green pepper
- 2 cups cubed cooked ham
- 3 tablespoons butter
- 3 tablespoons flour

- 1 1/2 cups milk
- 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1/4 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1/2 cup fine bread crumbs
- 1/2 cup grated cheese

Combine corn, onion, green pepper and ham; mix lightly. Place in 4 to 6 individual casseroles. Melt butter in saucepan over low heat; blend in flour. Gradually stir in milk and cook, stirring constantly, until sauce is thickened (about 2 minutes). Stir in mustard, Worcestershire sauce, salt and pepper; pour over mixture in casseroles. Combine crumbs and cheese; sprinkle over casseroles. Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees) 25 minutes, or until lightly browned. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Many other courtesies were extended them; breakfasts, luncheons in the homes of his friends. A visit to an interior decorator shop was shared delight, since purchases were made there for Gretchen's dormitory room. While in Dayton they stopped in to see Dr. William H. Harmon at his office. A niece of Mrs. Gertrude Wagner, Mrs. Gertrude Pendleton-Grubbs they also saw. These persons formerly lived here. After leaving Dayton they stopped in Rock Island, Ill. to spend over night with another brother, Rev. Thomas Cooper and his family. On the last lap toward home they went to see a cousin in Cedar Rapids. On Sunday afternoon, Sept. 13, Mr. and Mrs. Holt accompanied Gretchen to Waverly, Iowa where she entered Wartburg College to begin her freshman year.

the Camera Guild

Hobbies and photography go together. Take pictures of various members of the family working at their hobbies, as well as close-ups of the items they make or collect.

Collect With Your Camera

It's fairly safe to say that practically everybody has some kind of pet hobby—whether it's collecting rare stamps and coins or just old fishing hats and string! And we've always felt that one of the nicest things about photography is the way it can aid and complement the pursuit of almost any other hobby.

In fact, it is only by means of picture-taking that many hobbies can become "collecting" hobbies at all. If you're interested in bridges, old buildings, art treasures, railroad engines, aircraft, sailing vessels or old automobile models, your camera is the only method by which you'll be able to bring home items for your collection.

Many "collector's items" are fairly small objects, and you'll be shooting them indoors. The easiest method of providing the artificial light you need is using a synchronized flash attachment on your camera. But, if you prefer, you can illuminate your collection with photoflood lamps or ordinary household light bulbs and then make a time exposure.

In either case, if the items are small, you will want to take close-up shots. With a box-type camera, you'd normally be shooting at a distance of about six feet from your subject. If, at this distance your subject seems lost in the middle of the viewfinder, you'll do well to get a simple close-up attachment that will allow you to move in to three and a half feet.

Cranberry Jelly is the easy, flavorful filling of these double-deck pastry tarts.

Look to your cookie cutters and other gadgets to make novel tarts from tender pastry. A star cookie cutter and a small round cutter (from biscuit cutter) were all that was needed to shape the star-bright pastries pictured here.

Different fillings as well as different shapes may be used to vary an assortment of crisp tarts. Bright preserves and jellies, or mince-meat, are especially good.

Odd pieces of pastry will be left after cutting the tarts. Pile the pieces in layers, about three or four to a layer, as this seems to keep pastry very flaky when it is rolled a second time. Sprinkle rolled-out pastry with a cinnamon and sugar mixture, then cut into individual pie-shaped pieces or squares, and bake.

Cranberry star pastries make attractive refreshments for the holiday whirl as well as dessert tidbits for the family.

CRANBERRY TARTS

2 cups sifted enriched flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups cranberry sauce
3/4 cup shortening
3/4 to 1 tablespoon cold water

Sift together flour and salt. Cut or rub in shortening. Add water. Mix to a dry crumbly dough. Toss on lightly floured pastry cloth. Press dough together. Roll out one-eighth inch thick. Cut with floured star-shaped cutter. Place half of stars on ungreased baking sheet. Put about one tablespoon cranberry sauce on each star. Cut small holes in remaining stars. Place on top of other stars. Seal edge together. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) 12 to 15 minutes. Makes about 18 tarts.

AN EXAMPLE OF RESPONSIBLE CITIZENSHIP

A group of Negro youngsters in Albany, N.Y., smarting under the justifiable criticism that their neighborhood was terribly run down and unclean, organized a team and cleaned up the area. So impressed were city officials over the project that they gave the youngsters every assistance to make the effort a success.

This one act did more good than a thousand marches around the town singing "we want freedom". Not that marches have been unsuccessful in the past. They had their place. But the marching time is over and Negroes must go about preparing themselves and demonstrating that they are useful citizens.

The Albany youngsters have set an excellent example for groups in other communities to follow for all too many areas have been allowed to deteriorate because of the lack of pride of a few and an overwillingness of others to take the lead and encourage careless people to realize that their laziness hurts others as well as themselves.

Recently, the city council created a department aimed at beautifying the city. Just how much authority it has to do the job has not been spelled out. It is a step in the right direction and should receive the cooperation of all sections of the community.

URBAN RENEWAL BOARD PROBLEMS

Des Moines is overstocked with hotels and motels. Guests at the good hotels have declined during the past few years indicating that the situation has reached the saturation point.

The Des Moines Urban Renewal Board has found it difficult to sell land cleared for new projects. The expected taxes from the area are not forthcoming.

About the only bids that are coming in are motels and apartment houses. And while they will be paying taxes if their bids are accepted, the price originally asked has been reduced and worse of all, going businesses will be penalized if they come in.

Banks are not allowed to come into a community unless there is sufficient population and business to justify them. And while no such restraint is placed upon motels and hotels, authorities should take the overstocked hotel and motel situation in mind before they themselves let in new ones.

It appears that the urban renewal administration has not been able to come up with desirable firms to help make more work available for Des Moines people rather than those which simply live on those who are here and syphon money out of the city.

SUSPICIOUS OF CRITICS OF SUPREME COURT

Many of these people who are pecking away at the Supreme Court for its decisions on apportionment of legislatures and prayers in public schools are dire states righters in which also includes those decisions on civil rights.

The Bystander has become suspicious of some of its former "friends" who are lining up with or playing ball with too many of the die hard states righters.

Ralph Boston Sets Incredible Record; Hayes in Comeback

Los Angeles, Cal.—A near-incredible series of broad jumps by Ralph Boston—including a world record 27 feet 4 1/4 inches—a record-matching 44.9 second 400 meters by 30-year-old Mike Larrabee and sprinter Bob Hayes' comeback highlighted Saturday's final U. S. Olympic track trials.

The meet in Los Angeles Coliseum concluded Sunday.

Boston had a fantastic series of jumps—so good that his world record was only his second best of the afternoon.

He went 27-10 1/4 on his first jump.

Named Outstanding Player in Babe Ruth League in France

Orleans, France—During recent ceremonies ending the 1964 Babe Ruth baseball competition here, Robert Phillips, former Grandview (Des Moines) player and member of the 1963 Grandview Senior All Stars which won both the city and district championships, was named the Most Outstanding player in the 4-team

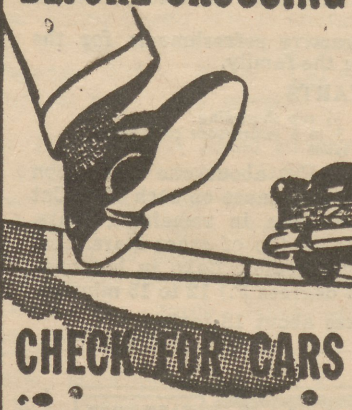

ROBERT PHILLIPS JR.

Orleans Area Command's League. The honor climaxed a brilliant season for the 15 year old diamond star, who competed for the coveted award against more than 70 other young hopefuls during a 12-game season.

Robert, popularly known among his many Des Moines friends as Punchy, is the son of M/Sgt. and Mrs. Robert D. Phillips. He and his mother (the former Evelyn Brooks of Des Moines) resided at their home, 1501 E. 29th street, before joining their father and husband here in September, 1963.

Starting his baseball career at the age of seven at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., in 1956, Robert has since been a member of the four All Star teams. In 1959 he was a member of the Little League All Stars at the Missouri Army Post. Moving home to Des Moines in 1960 he made the Fairground Little League All Star nine in 1962. Included also are the 1963 Grandview All Stars and the Orleans All Star team of this year.

BEFORE CROSSING

CHECK FOR CARS

Whoever made up the roster of Iowans who had played pro football that appeared in the Sunday Register recently, left out one guy that we know of. He was Joe Lillard of Mason City; Joe played up there in the early twenties and was probably the first Negro to make the all-state team in both football and basketball.

We think he attended South Dakota University. But we do know that he played as a halfback for the Chicago Cardinals and we believe he made the all-league team one year. We don't think he played more than three or four seasons. But, if you can find the copies of the Chicago papers of the middle twenties you will read about this fellow.

Local

We looked over the results of last weekend high school games. First we thought North must not have anything or East must have a whale of a team. We will know more about that later on. Tech seems to be able to come up with a good replacement group each year. They could be tough before the end of the season. North has to pick itself up and try again. They should have a better ball club than they seem to be.

Dowling seems to be coming back after a couple of lean years. Lincoln may be in for a long season and we would count Roosevelt out yet. There are too many big fast boys over there.

We watched the little league football last week and it seems that Negroes come up in large numbers. So many in fact, that the future high school team will look like the old North or East teams, who used to field from four to six Negroes on a winning club.

Another feat passed by unnoticed. The junior high schools around the state held a track meet a while back and about the only double winner was James Kirby of Woodrow Wilson. Kirby is quite a dash man and we may hear from him later on. A couple of kids said they had already started training for the Golden Gloves party. That would be good because there are some fellows here who could go all the way if they got in shape. This may be the year.

Baseball

Well the shadow of the New York Yankees keeps creeping up on the other clubs in the American League pennant race. Hope either Baltimore or the White Sox can hold them off.

Boxing

So Cassius Clay and Sonny Liston are to do it again. The World Boxing Commission promptly vacates the heavyweight title. Who are they going to give it to? It doesn't matter how Clay won the title. He won it in the ring and should lose it the same way. Return clauses have been a part of heavyweight fights at least since 1930 and maybe before that. And, oh yea, why don't the WBA do something about Willie Pastrano, light heavy crown holder and Joe Giardello, middleweight title holder?

seven inches over the listed record of 27-3 1/4 by Igor Ter-Ovanesyan of Russia and the longest the world has ever seen. However, it was aided by a 5.8 mile per hour wind, well over the allowable, then followed with jumps of 26-11 1/4, the record 27-4 1/4, 26-7 1/2 and 26-8 1/4.

The wind had abated by the time he got off his record leap before a crowd of 18,558.

Hayes, regarded as the world's best sprinter, won the 100 meters in :10.1, finishing about a yard in front of Trenton Jackson of Illinois.

Althea Gibson Appointed To NY State Post

New York—Governor Rockefeller of New York today appointed Althea Gibson, the nation's best-known woman athlete, to an Advisory Committee he selected to counsel the new State Recreation Council.

Miss Gibson, now a professional golfer and community relation representative of Ward Tip-Top Bakers, was the only woman among 12 persons appointed to serve on the committee which will be headed by State Senator G. Eustis Paine of Willboro.

Appointment ranged from one to three years with Miss Gibson receiving a maximum term.

A Student's Prayer

Lord, grant me now an open mind,
Receptive, eager, quick to learn
The truth my teachers would impart;
Give me the wisdom to discern
The right from wrong; give me the power
To concentrate; give me Your sure,

Strong light of Truth to guide my way
Through passages that seem obscure;
And let me know that You are near
When I must go to face a test;
Erase my every thought of fear;
Help me, Lord, to do my best.
Bless my teachers. Speak through them

In clear and loving words and give them the selfless joy that comes From having helped a soul to live. Help me retain what I have learned And use the wisdom I possess To reach my goal, to build a life Of service and of happiness.

In Iowa... after a swim, beer is a natural

On a hot summer day, a dip in a cool stream can be wonderfully refreshing. Equally refreshing when you're relaxing afterwards with friends is a hearty glass of beer. There's hardly another beverage around that suits what you do for fun as much as beer. Camping, hiking, or just lounging on a lawn chair—beer brings to each just the right touch of extra good living.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom — and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.

In Iowa...beer goes with fun, with relaxation
