Discloses Mahalia Jackson Is Seriously Ill in Chicago

MAHALIA JACKSON

Chicago, Ill.—Famed gospel singer Mahalia Jackson, 50, is seriously ill with a heart ailment. She was taken to Little Company of Mary Hospital on Sept. 15 with what doctors then described as exhaustion due to overwork.

She since has been ordered to remain in bed for another four to six weeks. Visiting was restricted and no telephone calls to her room were permitted.

Miss Jackson cancelled all scheduled appearances through October and has turned down a personal invitation from President Johnson for a White House dinner Oct. 6.

Miss Jackson gave a concert in Des Moines last June shortly after she returned from a triumphant overseas tour. Miss Jackson married Ministers Sigmond Galloway, a contracting firm salesman last July.

NAACP Resume Activities In Alabama After 8-Yr. Ban

New York—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, barred by an Alabama court injunction from operating in that state since 1956, will shortly resume activity in the one state of the Union in which it now has no local organization.

Papers registering the Association as an out-of-state corporation, the first step towards resumption of activity, were filed with the Alabama Secretary of State and the State Department of Revenue in Montgomery, Wednesday, Sept. 23, NAACP General Counsel Robert L. Carter announced today.

Success Hailed

NAACP Executive Director Roy Wilkins hailed the successful termination of the case and expressed confidence that the Association will soon regain its "position of leadership" in Alabama.

An order from the Circuit Court of Montgomery County, handed down on Sept. 10, dissolved a permanent injunction banning NAACP activity in the state and cleared the way for reorganization of local Association units to resume the NAACP civil rights program in Alabama.

Landmark

This order, issued in compliance with a United States Supreme Court decree, brings to a close one of the landmark cases in constitutional law. The final verdict in NAACP vs. Alabama gave "constitutional support and protection to organized civil rights activities and thwarted attempts to destroy the NAACP and the civil rights movement," Mr. Carter pointed out.

The NAACP, Wilkins said, "will continue its long and hard-fought Fight for Freedom in that state as it has throughout the other 49 states where it has functioned continuously for 55 years.

Statewide Meeting

"Our people in Alabama, while unable for the past eight years to be actively connected with the Association, have remained loyal and steadfast and we look forward to quickly regaining our membership and our position of leadership in the campaign to rid Alabama of the evils of racism."

Services Held for Mrs. Virginia Williams, 53, Consultant to State Service for Crippled Children

Services for Mrs. Virginia Williams, 53, of 1062 38th street, were held at 1 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 29 at Grace Methodist church with burial in Glendale cemetery. Mrs. Williams, who was a consultant to the State Services for Crippled Children, died of cancer Sunday in Iowa Methodist hospital. She had been ill several weeks.

Born in Des Moines, Mrs. Williams was graduated from North High school and obtained her nurse training at Kansas City (Mo.) General Hospital. She later earned a bachelor's degree at the University of Minnesota and did postgraduate work at the University of Tulsa in Oklahoma.

She was associated with the Des Moines Public Health Nursing Association and was secretary of the Iowa Welfare Association. She was a member of the American Nurses Association, the National League of Nursing, the Central Nurses Association, Grace Methodist church and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Surviving are three daughters, Sheila and Verda Williams, both of Des Moines; and Mrs. Beverly Perleet of St. Paul, Minn.; two grandsons, Darek and Daren Perleet; a sister, Dora Mackay, Des Moines; her father, Ernest M. Mackay of Des Moines and a brother, Clifford W. Mackay of Baltimore, Md.

Appeals Court Upholds Ruling Outlaw Urban Renewal Bias

Cincinnati—The U. S. Court of Appeals, this week ruled that a Nashville motel must accept Negroes.

The case has direct implications for all Urban Renewal programs, built before 1962, which exclude Negroes. Attorneys of the NAACP Legal Defense Fund won this action.

The Holiday Inn Motel, which refused Negroes in Nashville, Tenn., was built on land cleared, in part (two thirds) with federal funds, as part of Nashville's urban renewal program.

Relocation

Acting under Tennessee laws, the Nashville Housing Authority "condemned or purchased the 72 acres of land needed for the project" (the Capital Hill Redevelopment Project).

They then "relocated 301 families and 196 individuals," the Court of Appeals pointed out.

Of the families moved out, 228 were Negroes as were 180 of the individuals moved. Subsequently Holiday Inns of America, Inc. purchased its property.

Project

The Court further pointed out that the Motel was conceived by the Capital Hill Redevelopment Project, "its creation was made possible by the execution of the project, and its existence is now governed to a great degree by the project's pre-determined design and controls."

The judicial order comes as a complement to the Civil Rights Act of 1964, which does not specifically cover housing among its provisions, although it does cover motels.

The court waited before deciding this case to see whether the Motel would voluntarily comply after Congress passed the new rights legislation.

The suit was filed by Dr. Vasco A. Smith, Jr., a Negro dentist from Memphis who was refused a room on Dec. 4, 1962.

Cites Publisher for Aiding Negro Heritage Studies

Washington, D. C.—A United States Senator, last week, on the floor of the Senate cited a New York publishing firm for producing the first volumes of a contemplated 20-volume set on the history of the Negro.

New York Republican Senator Jacob Javits, who had his remarks inserted in the Congressional Record for Monday, Sept. 14, told his colleagues that "too little is known about the Negro heritage in the United States—especially about the history of the Negro in this country."

He added that "a central fact in our concern over improving the Nation's climate on race relations is the need for all Americans to know more about their own interrelated role in our national heritage."

Publisher

The New York Senator lauded

emphasis on the drive to secure the Des Moines quota of 1200 members.

Delegates from the Des Moines branch who will attend the 24th annual Iowa State conference of Branches in Waterloo, will personally pay all their convention expenses.

Also named was the Fighting Fund for Freedom committee, which includes Mrs. Rose B. Johnson, chairman, Mrs. Thelma Clark and Mrs. Bessie L. Greene.

Noel N. Marder, president of Educational Heritage, Inc., a Yonkers, N. Y., publishing firm which is producing the multi-million dollar set called the Negro Heritage Library.

The set, which will be made available primarily on a door-to-door basis throughout most communities in America, is authored by some of the most outstanding literary figures in the nation, including Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Tribute

Javits also paid high tribute to leading Negro educators and Negro newspapers who consistently, through the years, have kept alive the heritage and contributions of the Negro through their writings and publications.

Robed Procession Began Ceremonies at Standing Room Only Crowd of 2,000

Bishop James S. Thomas of Des Moines was formally inducted as the episcopal leader of 300,000 Iowa Methodists on Tuesday. With the ceremonies at First Methodist Church of Des Moines he publicly assumed leadership over the nation's second "most Methodist" state and became the second Negro ever to lead a predominantly white Methodist area.

A standing room only crowd of 2,000 witnessed the ceremonies which included special greetings, the charge, a sermon and Bishop Thomas' response.

Procession

Ceremonies began at 7:30 p.m. with a procession of nearly 500 Iowa Methodist leaders marching from First Baptist Church to the First Methodist Church. Taking part were robed ministers and lay officials representing the 916 churches and 14 districts of Iowa's oldest and largest Protestant denomination.

Minnesota

Bishop T. Otto Nall of St. Paul, head of the Minnesota Methodist Area, preached the induction sermon and delivered the charge of office. Bishop Thomas was presented by Dr. John O. Gross of Nashville, Tenn., the general director of the Division of Higher Education of the Board of Education of The Methodist Church. pansive Fourth Congressional District is beginning to produce results. The drive, under way for several weeks, is being conducted by Civil rights organizations on behalf of S.W. Tucker of Emporia, chief legal counsel for the Virginia State Conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Tucker is running as an independent against Rep. Watkins Abbutt of Appomattox, state Democratic chairman, in the 18-county, four-city Fourth District which covers most of Southwest Virginia. The district takes in what is sometimes called the state's "black belt." It had, in 1960, 113,400 white adults and 84,900 Negro adults.

Only 61,100 whites were registered and about 16,100 Negroes in the 1963 State Board of Elections tabulation. However, Levin Nock Davis, board secretary, said reports of heavy Negro registration activity have been coming in lately from his Fourth District registrars.

Supreme Court to Hear Civil Rights Arguments

Washington, D. C.—The U. S. Supreme Court granted a stay last Wednesday, Sept. 23 holding up a lower court decision which struck down a section of the Civil Rights Act and it applied to a Birmingham restaurant. At the same time the high court also announced it would hear arguments on the Civil Rights case on its opening day, Monday, Oct. 5. This in itself is unusual as arguments are rarely heard by highest tribunal on the day it reconvenes.

The effect of the stay is to compel enforcement of the law pending the Supreme Court's view of the lower court's ruling.

At the same time, Justice Hugo L. Black said he had been authorized by the five other justices here to say the court is willing to hear arguments on the case on Monday, Oct. 5.

Black, who supervises the circuit where the cases were heard, said "it is an established rule of law that courts of equity will not exercise their power to enjoin the enforcement of an act of Congress except under the most imperative or exigent circumstances."

Aug. 10 Refusal

On Aug. 10, Black had refused on the same ground to block enforcement of the civil rights law in the Atlanta case, in which a three-judge federal tribunal held the public accommodations section of the act constitutional.

The Atlanta case involves a motel owned by Moreton Rolleston and a restaurant owned by Lester Maddox.

Different Situations

The Birmingham case, in which the result was the opposite, involves Ollie's Barbecue.

But the situations are different. The Atlanta restaurant is located adjacent to an interstate highway, close to interstate commerce, while the Birmingham establishment is several blocks from the nearest type of interstate travel.

The owners of Ollie's—Ollie McClung, sr., and his son, Ollie, jr., started the Birmingham suit after refusing to serve Negroes at the restaurant. A three-judge federal court upheld them and the Justice Department filed notice of appeal.

A Safe Way To Smoke Cigarettes?

"Never say die."

That seems to be the attitude of many cigarette smokers today. They're convinced that cigarette smoking is a health hazard. But they're still puffing away.

Are you? If so, you'd probably love to find a safe way to smoke. Columbia University doctors think they've discovered one. They recently described their technique to physicians meeting in New York City with the American Thoracic Society, medical arm of the National Tuberculosis Association.

The Columbia doctors believe that inhaled cigarette smoke is what damages lungs. So their method enables you to smoke without inhaling.

Here's how . . . in five easy steps. 1) Take a puff. 2) Don't swallow. 3) Hold the smoke in your mouth with your lips closed. 4) Breathe some air in through your nose. 5) Let the air and smoke out through your nostrils.

CRANBERRY DIXIE.

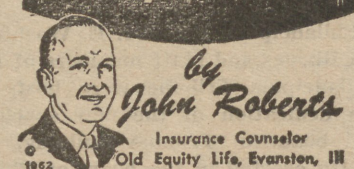

To give your meals holiday flavor throughout the year, try adding color and flavor with this tempting sauce. Your guests will forever appreciate the festivity and glamour this dish will bring to the occasion. Your family will thrill to the flavorful goodness of fresh cranberries blended with a popular beverage food (Dr. Pepper).

1 pound raw cranberries
1 1/2 cups sugar
2 bottles Dr. Pepper

Wash and pick over cranberries, then combine in 1 large kettle with sugar and Dr. Pepper. Cook over moderate heat until all the berries have popped.

To make Dixie Cranberry Jelly from this same recipe, just use the same process, doubling the amount of sugar and putting the sauce through a sieve before allowing to set.

Family Finances

Rugs and carpets probably take more of a beating than any of your other home furnishings. However, there are several things you can do to make your carpets stay beautiful and last years longer—and save yourself the money it would cost to replace them.

Use an inexpensive carpet sweeper every day to pick up lint, crumbs and dirt from the surface of your carpet. A few minutes a day will keep dirt from being ground deeply into the carpet. Use a vacuum cleaner once a week. A good vacuum cleaner removes deep-down dirt, as well as surface material. When the carpet begins to look dull, use a rug shampoo to get rid of dirt that your vacuum cleaner can't get to. Modern rug shampoos require little work and are well worth the effort to keep your rugs and carpets beautiful. Once a year is the minimum for shampooing every carpet in the house.

Fire Prevention Week—Next Week

Oct. 4 through the 10th will be observed throughout the United States and Canada as National Fire Prevention Week. This is by presidential proclamation, governor's proclamation for the State of Iowa and the Mayor has so proclaimed it in the City of Des Moines. October 9 commemorates the great Chicago fire of 1871 and it is this date and week that we wish especially to remind people of the dangers of fire.

11,800 people lost their lives by fire in 1963. Many thousands will be scarred and disfigured for life because of that. This means that each day 32 people died because of fire. 17 of these 32 died in homes. 6 of these 32 were children. Therefore, the people of this nation are urged to be more thoughtful of fire.

We often state that fires are caused by carelessness. This is not true. People do care for their lives and their property. Fires are caused by thoughtlessness.

We don't think that pile of papers under the stair will catch fire. We don't think that those frayed wires could cause a fire.

We don't think an overloaded circuit or a penny in the fuse box could cause a fire.

We don't think careless smoking habits could cause a fire.

We don't think flammable liquids in the basement could cause a fire.

We don't think our children will play with matches.

We don't think of the fact that many things can cause fires. Just a few minutes thinking of the safe way of doing things could keep you from having a fire in your home and those protecting your loved ones.

A few seconds thought could keep you from having a fire in your place of business or where you work and thus assuring you that your pay check will not be interrupted.

A few seconds spent in thinking of fire safety could even keep you from being killed, injured or suffering loss from a fire.

THINK AND PRACTICE FIRE SAFETY AND HELP PREVENT FIRES.

Visits Parents in Ft. Worth, Tex.

Mrs. Charlie Mae Allen, of 955 17th street, journeyed to Fort Worth, Texas to visit relatives last weekend. She was with a breakfast in the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Green the first family of the True Light Missionary Baptist Church. Rev. Green was the chef for the occasion.

A dinner was prepared by her sister Mrs. Roy Wilson Bivins, first Lady of the Sweet Home Missionary Baptist Church. The guest were the children of Charlie Mae: Miss La-Andrylene Allen, Ollie Wilbert Allen, Perry William Allen 3rd, and Quynston Wallace Allen; her neices: Gina Mabelle Bivins and Roslyn Green; her nephews: Row Wilson Bivins, Wayne Green, Joe Daniel Green, and Michael Green and her brother-in-law Rev. Roy Wilson.

Au Fait Club to Elect New Officers

The Au Fait club will meet on Friday, Oct. 2 at the home of Mrs. Delores Bailey, 1136 8th street. Officers will be elected. All members are urged to attend.

Iowa's jumping jack temperatures really dipped residents low into the front zone here over the weekend. We who have enjoyed such excellent weather with only intermittent extremes, since early last May, were reminded that it won't be long before the snow flies. But the warm hours still allow for some picnics and other outdoor social gatherings.

Mrs. Bertha Harris, better known as "Granny" to young and old alike, will celebrate her 90th birthday on Friday, Oct. 23. She lives with her granddaughter, Mrs. Darlene Simon, and great-grandchildren at 1227 10th street. She is confined to her wheelchair and spends most of her time in her bedroom, unless she is carried down the stairs by two strong persons, to sit in the outdoor sun.

However, she epitomizes the point how emotional and mental outlook can set the tone how one accepts disabilities. She remains good humored and always has a cheerful hello to call out to neighbors out of her window.

We write this here, because we would like friends and neighbors who know her, or even if you don't know her, to send her a pretty card or note of encouragement on her birthday. She is diabetic and is confined to certain foods. All sweet toothed foods, candy and bakery goods are absolutely out. But, she can enjoy good fresh fruit.

She admits there are times when she is tempted to try cake or pie, but her granddaughter sees that she stays with her diet.

Mrs. Simmon is assisted by another sister, Mrs. Claudine Law, 1233 10th street, who brings Granny her lunch while Mrs. Simon is at work. Won't you take a moment to remember and send a card?

FBI REPORTS ON RECENT RIOTS

At the request of President Johnson, the FBI was instructed to investigate the causes of the recent riots in several northern cities and to recommend what steps should be taken to prevent their recurrence.

There are those who branded the disturbances as race riots; some they were communist inspired. The Hoover report submitted to the President last week does not agree with either view. Reporting underlying causes, the report said a general disregard for law and order was the primary cause; that no communist and single organization had a part in starting them. It said:

"They were not riots of Negroes against whites or whites against Negroes. And they were not a direct outgrowth of conventional civil rights protest.

"Victims of the rioting were often Negro store owners as well as white. Their assaults were aimed at Negro as well as white police officers struggling to restore order."

Many people felt or wished that communist infiltration could be traced to the disturbances but the report says no.

With this we fully agree. Many people have gotten the notion in their heads that they don't need to obey the law; that the law was made for the other fellow. More than one person has cautioned that America moves toward disobedience to law and order, the very foundation of this government.

A striking example of this prevails in Iowa today. The United Electrical Workers are on strike at the Iowa Power and Light Company plants and offices. Upon petition by the company, Judge Cullens of Council Bluffs issued an injunction against the strike. Union members have ignored the injunction. We raise no question about the validity of the injunction. But we do know that ignoring the order of a court is not an act of good citizenship. There is a place to test that validity and that is in the courts.

The report further criticizes the cloak thrown around juveniles to protect them from public when many of them should be dealt with just as any other criminal. To do otherwise makes the young bully a hero thus encouraging others to do likewise. The report further attributes the disturbances to poor surrounding, poor opportunity and unemployment.

These conditions have gone on in some of the communities for many years. But the public has ignored them. Most of these people have been left without the help of those who should encourage and lead them to a better life rather than welfare, old age assistance and ADC which in many instances, have tended to encourage shiftlessness. They have created a frame of mind of many that they need not work because Uncle Sam will take care of them.

Not that the aid of the public given by these agencies is bad per se but here again many people get in the habit of getting by spending more time doing this than trying to make an honest living.

Just how much good the report will do in the long run we must wait and see but it certainly puts the finger on the causes of the disturbances.

BISHOP THOMAS ASSIGNMENT PRODUCT OF RACIAL INTEGRATION

In spite of the clamor for integration in American life, there are those who oppose it on other than racial grounds. Many Negro leaders in southern schools do so because some would lose their jobs. And while this is true, generally speaking many of the better ones are retained.

The same thing has prevailed in the Methodist church. Many Negro clergymen felt they would have little chance to become a bishop or hold other high offices in the churches fearing that all such places would go to white members.

At one time all Negro churches were in the central district, a combination of north and south Negro churches. It served to keep the Negro churches in one group and at the same time provided jobs for the fearful clergy.

Tuesday night Bishop James S. Thomas was formally welcomed as the bishop of Iowa's 300,000 Methodist, a predominately white diocese.

His assignment has been heralded as a long step toward the full integration of every department for the church, will demonstrate that Negroes are fully capable of measuring up to their great responsibilities and that white congregations will accept Negroes.

Iowa has been the proving ground of many social changes. This one will succeed because the people want it.

The college gridiron season really got underway last weekend. Here in our home state Iowa University pulled out a game that was probably exciting to watch. But as Coach Jerry Burns said, "Iowa will just have to improve if they are to stay out of the Big Ten cellar. The Hawks did uncover a pair of good running backs and then it remains to be seen if they can run in Big Ten competition. This next week might give us a line on them.

Cyclones

Iowa State really came a cropper at Oklahoma State. They say they might have won if they could have kept Tom Vaughn in there all the way. Vaughn was kayoed by the Aggies in a manner that brought unpleasant memories. Coach Clay Stepleton of Iowa State says he doesn't think this was intentional. Let us hope he is right. Of course, we all realize that in every game Vaughn plays the opposition knows they have to stop him in order to beat the Cyclones. So he can look forward to some rough afternoons. But not many as rough as the one last Saturday. Drake had a good ball game against South Dakota and may get much tougher as the season wears on.

High School

Among the high schools, that Tech win over Roosevelt must have been easy to take. There isn't any school in the city the other teams want to beat as badly as they do the Rough Riders.

East must have put on a parade between goal lines, but must have thought they were not supposed to use those last lines. So they got a tall tie. There goes that number 1 rating. Just as North seemed to be bouncing back they ran into a buzz saw at Mason City. Now no one knows what they will do. And, oh, yes East high could use that big Craig DeVau, the Dowling defensive end. Those guys haven't given up too many points yet.

As you no doubt watched the Baltimore Colts smothered the Chicago Bears last Sunday. You may have realized how fine is the line between a close game and a crushing defeat. Passes that just miss the receiver's outstretched hands suddenly fall in. That key block is always thrown at the right time. Penalties don't come when they would hurt. Add all these together and you have the ingredients for last Sunday's rout. A few of those key passes or blocks missed and you might have seen a really tight battle.

Hayes Wins 2 Berths on Olympics

Los Angeles, Calif.—Florida A & M's fleet-footed sprinter, Bob Hayes of Jacksonville, has won two berths on the '64 United States Olympic track and field team.

Bob, who holds or has world records pending for three dashes—60, 70, 100—qualified in the 100-meter dash and will be entered in that event and as a member of the American 400-meter relay team. He tied the American 100-meter record of 10.1 in the final trials here last week.

Joining Hayes on the 400-meter relay team will be Trenton Jackson, Illinois; Mel Pender, Philadelphia Pioneer Club; and Jerry Ashworth, Southern California Striders.

Hayes' hopes of winning three gold medals during the Olympic Games were dampened when he finished third in the 200-meter dash. He may be used as an alternate in the 200-meter.

Simple Meal for Saturdays!

WE'RE FOR WORKING WIVES who, when Saturday rolls around, like to forget about work . . . and have fun! However, we like good food, and we don't choose to deny ourselves that pleasure . . . so we plan ahead to make Saturday's meals EASY and QUICK. Here's one menu we'd like to share: Meat loaf . . . mix it the night before and refrigerate; bake it on Saturday while you play! Poppy seed rolls . . . wrap in foil and pop into the oven during the last few minutes of baking the meat. A big green salad . . . wash greens and leave them in crispier during day; add dressing at the last minute. And for a delectable dessert—these maple peaches, that can be baked with the meat loaf, too, and served warm. If you like, pass a pitcher of thick cream to top the fruit.

MAPLE PEACHES
(using fresh peaches)
5 whole fresh peaches, peeled
1 tablespoon butter
½ cup Log Cabin Syrup
2 teaspoons lemon juice
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon mace
¼ teaspoon salt

Place peaches in greased baking dish. Combine remaining ingredients and pour over peaches. Cover and bake in moderate oven (375°F.) 15 minutes. Uncover and bake 15 minutes longer, basting occasionally. Serve warm. Makes 5 servings.

Love Is the Answer

TO THE EDITOR:

I am a Negro who never clamored for civil rights; knowing this that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless, and disobedient. Now that the bill is law; where do we go from here? With demonstrations getting out of hand in many parts of our great country; it's evident the stringent laws of men have not the answer to the perplexing problems of our day. Yet there is cause for rejoicing that love; which is of God, for God is love; is the answer. It was He who in life spared not His Son, but delivered Him up for us all. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

All in Vain

No matter how many enforcers of the law, how much money is spent, what talk by our legislators, what good intentions, or even how many may lay down their lives for such; it's all in vain unless the law of love reigns in the heart. "Though I give my body to be burned, and have not love, it profiteth me nothing". Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it.

Real Issue

Many make the issue skin; the real issue is sin, and it's the cause of broken lives, homes, and (history in making) a broken nation. Only Jesus Christ, God's Beloved Son who came into the world to save sinners, and His love prevailing in the hearts of people of every race and color will end the hatred so prevalent. It's not so much; what party, but rather what person, for apart from Him there is no hope.

THINK RIGHT

Think hate, and it darkens your life; Think love, and it brightens your days.

For me make or break on the word we take

As our motto along life's ways.

Think lies, and you fall to the pit; Think truth, and you soar to the skies.

For we rise or sink by the words we think;

Then choose your thoughts and be wise.

Think fear, and it curdles your blood;

Think courage and it builds you anew.

For the thoughts we have can sink or save

As life's way we pursue.
