Mahalia Jackson Recovering Nicely, But Needs Long Rest

By Joseph Turner

Chicago—Doctors at the Little Company of Mary Hospital report that Mahalia Jackson, famed gospel singer who entered the hospital last Sept. 15, suffering from exhaustion, is recovering nicely. However, she needs a long rest and most of her concerts have been canceled.

"Miss Jackson was also found to have a mild heart reaction, (not a heart attack), with her exhaustion," said Mr. Nelson, the hospital's public relations man. "She is recovering nicely now, the doctors say, but because of the nature of her illness, she needs a lot of rest. Her visitors and telephone calls have been limited somewhat as a result."

Message from President

The president's message noted, "You have always given generously of your talents and energy to our country and your voice has gladdened and uplifted many a heart." Miss Jackson was to have sung at a dinner in the White House Oct. 5. President Johnson's note added "wishes for your renewed good health."

Nelson said, "Miss Jackson has had her secretary mount the cards on the wall of her room. 'The walls are almost completely covered, and there still is a drawer full of mail to be opened.'" the YWCA. Speakers will be Leonard Carter and La Polis Ashford, from the National office in New York City.

The Des Moines branch will be represented at the conference by a large delegation who will pay all their own expenses, attendant to the convention.

Edward Bayles Promoted in Air Force

Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Bayles, Sr. of 3004 Bowdoin received word from Major Robert H. Hudson, the commander of the 507th Air Police Squadron, Kincheloe Air Force Base, Michigan of the promotion of their son A/2C Edward F. Bayles, Jr. to Airman First Class.

Major Hudson in his letter to the parents of A/1C Bayles, who was in competition with all of the Airmen in the Squadron that was in his former grade, stated that, "Your son proved to the Air Force that he is outstanding in his job knowledge, military bearing, courtesy and dress."

A/1C Bayles before entering the United States Air Force, graduated from Tech High School in Des Moines in 1961 and was also a student at Iowa State College in Ames, Iowa.

Doctors' Grants by Medical Fellowship

Chicago, Ill.—Fifty-six New York area Negro physicians and medical students who have received awards from National Medical Fellowships, Inc., totalling $160,000 to assist them with their careers in medicine and allied sciences were honored at the group's 20th annual meeting held on Oct. 5, at the New York Academy of Medicine.

NEWS In A Nutshell

Hallandale, Fla.—Emanuel Ruffin, Jr., of this city is featured in the October issue of Ebony magazine as the only Negro lion tamer in America. He works in Jungleland in North Miami Beach.

Baltimore, Md.—Completion of "quiet and peaceful transition" to integration in Maryland's biggest seaside resort has brought a letter of congratulation to Mayor Hugh Cooper from James Griffin, chairman of Baltimore CORE.

Richmond, Calif.—This city's first Negro mayor, George Donnell Carroll, is reported to have turned down a judgeship to take the mayor's post in Richmond, a city of 80,000, with 25 per cent Negro population.

Accepts Keys to New Convertible

Wesley Crawford (seated) happily accepts the keys to the 1964 Mustang convertible he won at a drawing held recently during a free music festival in Chicago sponsored by the Miller Brewing Company of Milwaukee and its Chicago distributor. Titled "Blues Under the Stars," the show featured Sam Cooke and was held in Chicago's White Sox park, playing to a packed house of 50,000 people. A natural mink stole and a high-fidelity radio phonograph combination were also awarded to lucky ticket holders. Presenting the keys are Paul Waga (left) and Robert Geary, both representatives of Miller High Life.

Ia. Republicans Grab State Spotlight; Statewide Party Honors Hultman, Wife

BY FRANCES E. HAWTHORNE

The Republicans in Iowa took over the state spotlight this week as their front-line candidate, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, came to town Tuesday afternoon, was properly gilded and presented some 'gold dust' from the heartland of Iowa to the enthusiastic delight of some 50,000 persons.

The size of the crowds, including about 6,000 who greeted the GOP presidential candidate at the airport, was considered excellent by party officials, in light of the fact that it was not known until late Monday if Sen. Goldwater would come down town in a motorcade.

Off-on-Again

At first it was planned that Sen. Goldwater would arrive and travel persons, six of them Negroes, met death as Hurricane Hilda swept into Louisiana from the Gulf of Mexico recently.

Jackie Robinson, former Brooklyn Dodger baseball star, was appointed as National vice president of Republicans and independents for President Johnson. Robinson said he favored the election of President Lyndon B. Johnson not only because of Mr. Johnson's civil rights stand but "because, first and foremost, I am interested in the continued existence of our nation and of civilization."

New Orleans—The board of administrators of Charity hospital last week voted to charge patients a registration fee and a daily in-patient charge to go into effect Jan. 1, 1965. The board also voted a phase of patient integration in the TB wards which went into effect immediately.

Johannesburg, South Africa—The first African to head a major church in this country, the Rev. Seth Mokitimi, took office Tuesday as leader of South Africa's Methodists. The Methodist church is among the nation's biggest, with more than a million African (Negro) members and 250,000 whites.

Charleston, S. C.—Harvey Gantt, 21, and Lucinda Brawley, 20, the first Negroes admitted to Clemson University in South Carolina, were married at the home of her father in Hopkins, a community near Columbia, S. C. Gantt, a native of Charleston, transferred to Clemson in 1963 from Iowa State University at Ames where he was a top architectural student. When he entered Clemson under a court order, he became the first Negro to break the racial barrier in South Carolina since Reconstruction times.

the same route as his opposing candidate, President Lyndon B. Johnson, and go to the statehouse for a significant address to the midwest farmers. Later in the week it was reported that plans had changed and that Sen. Goldwater would speak only briefly at the airport before going into a huddle with farm representatives of the midwest states. It was speculated that the GOP's decision rested on the pivotal item—the crowds.

Placards

The crowds began gathering around the Republican headquarters at 5th and Walnut streets, where the Senator spoke from a flatbed truck, shortly after the noon hour. Many school students, most of them teenagers, took up favorite spots, with their placards in hand long before the Senator was due to arrive.

National Figure

As last week there were many in the crowd who just wanted to get a look at another national figure, particularly a personality who is running for the highest elective office in the land.

Delegation

Leading the large delegation of GOP officials and candidates who greeted Sen. Goldwater on his airport arrival were Iowa Senator Bourke B. Hickenlooper, and Iowa Republican chairman, Robert Ray, and Polk County Republican chairman Harold Goldman, who cancelled three business engagements to attend the downtown rally. State Atty. Gen. Evan Hultman, GOP candidate for governor, missed Sen. Goldwater's arrival at the airport, because he was scheduled to speak at a corn-picking contest at West Union, but he arrived at the airport shortly

Dr. Martin King Awarded 1964 Nobel Peace Prize

Wins World Highest Civilian Honor for Rights Non-Violence

Oslo, Norway—Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., internationally known integrationist leader, has been awarded the 1964 Nobel Peace prize. Thus the Atlanta, Ga., born civil rights leader becomes the 12th American and the third Negro to have the world's highest honor for civilians bestowed upon him.

The announcement came Wednesday morning from the Nobel Prize award committee which said Dr.

Rev. Martin Luther King

King was cited because he has "consistently followed the precepts of non-violence in the Negro civil rights fight."

In Hospital

Dr. King learned of the honor from his hospital bed at St. Joseph's hospital in Atlanta where he is a patient. He recently returned from a tour of Europe where he spoke in Germany and held a private audience with Pope Paul in Rome. It was termed the longest closed interview ever granted by a Catholic pope to a Protestant leader and was called the first to a Negro civil rights leader.

Brilliant Career

During his brilliant career, Dr. King, who is both a scholar as well as a leader and minister, has won many citations here and abroad. He has written many books, articles and is a noted lecturer, traveling to nearly every country on the globe.

Boycott

However, he first captured international acclaim for his leadership of the Montgomery, Ala., bus boycott and later for his non-violent tactical leadership in boycotts, sit-ins, and other forms of demonstrations in the south.

Dr. Ralph Bunche, was the first Negro to win the Nobel Peace prize in 1958.

UC Drive Past $1,000,000 Mark

The United Campaign passed the million mark and the half-way point as new reports brought totals to $1,000,500.17 or 51.9 per cent of goal.

Chairman Ray E. Cassell and co-chairman Kenneth J. McCarthy expressed optimism that United Campaign would make its goal. "If everyone continues to make their calls, we feel that U.C. will reach its goal of $1,929,195. We feel that this is a critical year, and it is important to make the goal if the 41 U.C. agencies are to continue meeting health, welfare and character building needs of over 96,000 people yearly."

NYC Municipal Employees To Raise UNCP Funds for

New York—The Honorable Paul R. Screvane, President of the City Council of New York, addressed the New York City Municipal Committee of the United Negro College Fund at the Americana Hotel today. Representatives from 73 departments of the City of New York attended the opening meeting of the committee, which seeks to raise money for the Fund's 32 independent Southern colleges from municipal employees in New York City.

Setting Right

"The Fund is a means of setting right the tragic imbalances that have kept one-tenth of our nation from self realization," Mr. Screvane said. "I see the Fund, which is supported, after all, by all parts of our community—white and black—as an expression of the wish to redress the injustices of past centuries and to give the Negro, as swiftly as possible, the opportunity to participate fully in the American dream."

Organized

The sponsoring group for the Municipal Committee is composed of the majority of City Commissioners, Borough Presidents and other departmental heads. Nearly every city department has one or more active committee members.

The committee was organized for the first time in 1962 when $12,375 was raised. In 1963 the committee raised $16,415. The goal for 1964 is $25,000.

Chairman

Mayor Robert F. Wagner is Honorary Chairman of the committee. The Chairman is Lloyd Peterson, Secretary of the New York City Transit Authority. Deputy Fire Commissioner Robert O. Lowery is Secretary. Others at the speakers table were Dr. F. D. Patterson, President of the UNCF and Randolph C. Rankin, Assistant to Mr. Screvane.

The National UNCF goal for 1964 is $3,000,000. Nearly $2,000,000 has been raised so far this year.

LP Album Highlights Great Negro Americans in Dramatic Stories

The lives and accomplishments of great Negro Americans are documented in dramatic stories in a new high-fidelity, long-playing record album just released. Narrated by two of the theatre's most noted performers, Frederick O'Neal and Hilda Simms, the album, entitled GREAT NEGRO AMERICANS, will be released under the Sands label.

The theme of the album, according to producers Alan Sands and Robert Deutsch, is concerned with the courage, ambition and strength of character of great Negroes whose lives are dramatically portrayed—each of whom rose to greatness from humble beginnings and despite racial and other handicaps.

The prominent Negro Americans whose lives and achievements are profiled are Marian Anderson, the great concert singer; Jesse Owens, sports hero voted "the greatest track star of the century"; A. Philip Randolph, dean of labor leaders and spokesman for civil rights; Charles Spaulding, insurance executive and banker; Dr. Ralph Bunche, Under-Secretary General of the U.N. and Nobel Prize winner; Mary McLeod Bethune, first lady of Negro America and founder of Bethune-Cookman College; Louis Armstrong, famous trumpeter-singer; Dr. Daniel H. Williams, the first surgeon to perform a successful heart operation; Robert A. Cole, Chicago business executive.

TV RALLY FOR 35 CANDIDATES

All Polk County candidates for the Iowa Legislature have been invited to participate in a TV Rally Wednesday, October 21. The rally at Des Moines Technical High School auditorium is open to the public and also will be televised on KDPS-TV, Channel 11, starting at 7:30 P.M. Members of the audience are asked to be in their seats by 7:15 P.M.

Participating will be 13 Republicans, 13 Democrats, and 9 Conservatives. Jack Shelley will be moderator. Each candidate will give a one-minute presentation. After the talks, questions from the audience in the auditorium will be answered by the candidates.

The program is co-sponsored by the League of Women Voters and the Department of Adult Education of the Des Moines Public Schools, with the assistance of a large number of civic organizations in Des Moines.

Jamaica Farm Queen—Her Talent Is Cooking

New York—For 17-year-old June Scott, selected by the Jamaica Agricultural Commission to be this year's Jamaica Farm Queen, the reward of a trip to New York—her first—became the most exciting event in her life. Along with it came all the trimmings—a look at the World's Fair, a tour of Manhattan and the chance to see a Broadway show.

Exciting

But to June, who loves to cook, one of the most exciting events was visiting a Madison Avenue test kitchen and demonstrating her favorite recipe—Jamaica Chicken Fricassee—for a professional home economist.

As a farm girl and one of nine children in the family, June has had plenty of opportunity to practice the culinary arts. Other points on which contestants are judged include appearance, personality and the extent to which they actively help out on the farm.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Scott, own a small 25-acre farm in the York Pen district and the principal crop is sugar cane.

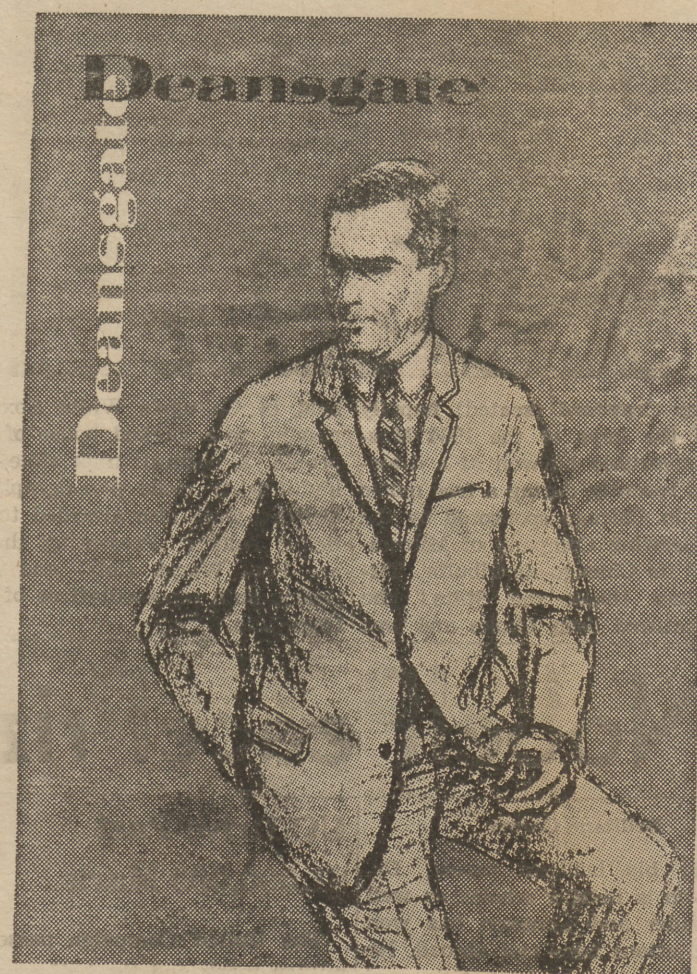

Just over two million assumes pivotal importance in carrying such key states as Florida, North Carolina and South Carolina—states where President Johnson needs to muster only 40 to 45 percent of the white total, if he gets the expected solidly Democratic Negro vote.

Negroes now comprise 13 percent of the Southern electorate.

21 Attorneys Defend 600 Negroes Arrested During Philly 'Rioting'

Philadelphia—Twenty-one attorneys, all NAACP volunteers, have agreed to provide the legal defense of hundreds of Negroes who were arrested as rioters during the recent North Philadelphia disturbances.

Illegal Arrests

Atty. Cecil B. Moore, Philadelphia NAACP President, who is seeking reelection to a second term, said: "Many of those Negroes were arrested illegally long after the riots were over. These arrests were motivated out of revenge and racial bias as demonstrated by racial epithets and racial innuendoes used by the officers involved."

A lot of the arrests for burglary and looting were made in haphazard, scattergun approach and in a lot of cases without any private prosecutors.

More than 600 accused rioters have been slated to face trial in batches of 50 or more daily.

He was represented in the suit by Atty. Chauncey Eskridge, who also handles the legal affairs of Heavyweight Champion Cassius (Muhammad Ali) Clay.

Author-Playwright Lorraine Hansberry Reportedly Suffering Strange Malady

New York—(NPI) — Author-playwright Lorraine Hansberry, who penned the Broadway hit show, "A Raisin in the Sun," last week was reported suffering from a strange illness that hampered her activities.

The ailment was not officially diagnosed and was said to have puzzled her physicians. Unofficially, however, it was described as somewhat of a mixture of a serious case of nervousness and physical exhaustion.

The ailment was reported to have caused her to lose her appetite. Therefore, her personal physician was trying to build her up physically to the point where she can again enjoy her meals.

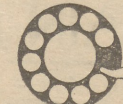

Miss Hansberry checked into a local hospital recently to undergo daily tests and receive treatment. In addition, X-rays have been taken in an effort to exactly determine her illness.

Her condition does not, however prevent her from leaving the hospital. Miss Hansberry grossed more than $125,000 from the film and script rights to "A Raisin in the Sun." Success is also predicted for her new play.

She is currently married to Robert Nemroff, who is white. A Negro, Miss Hansberry is a native Chicagoan whose parents made considerable sums of money in the real estate business. Lorraine Hansberry, who penned the Broadway hit show, "A Raisin in the Sun," last week was reported suffering from a strange illness that hampered her activities.

17 states are solidly behind the Johnson-Humphrey team, with 14 other states leaning in that direction. And optimistic Goldwater supporters are banking on the next weeks to show a reshifting of forces, once aligned with them.

Strategy

One thing the Goldwater camp will admit, and that is that they are still running behind in the campaign. They are seeking the "winning" strategy that will enable them to catch up and forge ahead between now and the dawn of election day.

Vote Drive

However, the most striking thing about the current election campaign has been, not the No. 1-2 candidates of the major parties, but the unparalleled drive to get out the vote, especially among Negroes.

Never before in the history of the country has there been an all-out drive as is currently going on to get every eligible Negro to register and to show up and vote on election day.

In the South

Particularly is this evident among Negroes in the South. At last count, in 11 southern states, the number of registered Negro voters has just about doubled since the 1960 campaign. During the past two years especially, both white and Negro eligibles have been registering in heavy numbers along the Southern tier of states from Virginia to Texas. The white voters now total 13.6 million.

17 Win Case Reversal
In State Court

Tallahassee, Fla.—Seventeen Negroes convicted of desegregating demonstration in Miami won reversal of their cases in the Florida Supreme court recently.

The 17 Negroes were placed on one year probation in 1960 for refusing to leave a restaurant on request of the owner.

The State Supreme court action sends the case back to Dade Court of Record.

In other action, the court upheld the death sentence given to Ellis Thomas, Jr., a Highlands county Negro farm worker, for raping an elderly white woman.

The court said the evidence was sufficient to support the sentence.

Visits Elks Auxiliary in Canada; Interviewed There

Mrs. LeRoy Carter, 911 16th St., with her husband, combined a family vacation in Winnipeg, Canada with an official visit to Queen Victoria Temple, the only branch in Canada of the Improved Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the World.

MRS. CARTER

While there Mrs. Carter was interviewed about the organization's words by both daily newspapers there, the Winnipeg Free Press and the Winnipeg Tribune. Both newspapers wrote long stories accompanied by pictures of Mrs. Carter, whose official title in Elksdom is vice president of the Midwestern Elks Auxiliary, of which the Canadian chapter is a member. Mrs. Carter also holds the highest honor that can be bestowed in Elksdom, Grand Past Daughter Rulers honor. She was making one of about a dozen official trips to visit Midwest association chapters, during a year.

Modesty

Back in Des Moines Mrs. Carter was somewhat modest about the spotlight attention she received while in Winnipeg, but she said, "Nothing like this ever happened to me before. It was a wonderful trip."

Enroute to Canada by motor car on Sept. 28 Mr. and Mrs. Carter breakfasted in St. Paul, Minn., at the home of Mrs. Elsie Radcliff, sister of Mr. Carter. Mrs. Radcliff joined them on their trip to Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada.

Courtesies

While in Canada Mrs. Edith G. Simmons, Daughter Ruler of Queen Victoria, commandeered her daughters and took them on tours to a shirt factory where she works; Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Bailey took them through Million Dollar Airport and many other cities. They were guests at Chicken Shack, only Negro owned establishment; and were entertained at a smorgasbord at the home of Mrs. Simmons. A "get-acquainted" meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. Lewsey. After three days in Winnipeg and one in Ontario, the Carters motored down the coast line of Lake Superior to St. Paul where Mrs. Carter attended the Beauty show at Hotel Radisson in Minneapolis, Minn. Sunday and Monday Mr. Carter joined his brother-in-law, Mr. William Radcliff and friends and went fishing in Minnesota and Wisconsin. Many other courtesies were extended in St. Paul before they return to Des Moines.

Brazil Nuts In Poultry Stuffing

Brazil nuts chopped with all their creamy richness contribute a provocative flavor and texture to poultry dressings. This dressing truly creates as much interest and praise as the turkey.

When baking one of the smaller turkeys this holiday season, part of the dressing can be served as a side dish. The turkey cavity will probably not hold an adequate supply for all guests. This extra portion can be baked in aluminum foil the last hour the turkey is in the oven. Put the envelope of dressing in the corner of the roasting pan with the turkey.

Just as there is news in the smaller turkeys, there is new interest in a Brazil nut, raisin and bread crumb stuffing. The nuts and raisins give moistness to the bread crumbs, and this fruit-nut addition doubly steps up the flavor.

BRAZIL NUT RAISIN STUFFING

1/4 cup butter or margarine
1/2 cup finely chopped onion
3 quarts soft bread crumbs
2 cups finely chopped Brazil nuts
2 cups finely diced celery

1 8-10 pound turkey

Melt butter, add onion and cook until onion is tender, but not brown. Add bread crumbs, Brazil nuts, celery, raisins, parsley and seasonings. Cook about 5 minutes over medium heat, stirring constantly. Add water or stock, as lightly. Stuff turkey with part of the stuffing. Put remaining stuffing in center of square of aluminum foil. Fold and press sides lightly together. Roast turkey. Place aluminum-wrapped stuffing in oven during last hour of roasting. YIELD: 10 cups.

The Des Moines scene received another dash of national political seasoning when Sen. Barry Goldwater, the Republican presidential candidate came to town. We agree with an editorial that appeared in one of the local dailies that there is nothing that takes the place of personal appearances in an election year—particularly that portion of the appearance where the candidate rides in a parade or steps down to shake hands with the crowd.

We rarely see parades or stand in land for hours to see motorcade but last week when the president came to town we made an exception prompted by our own desire to get a glimpse of the highest official in the United States as well as urged by our youngsters who wanted to do likewise.

It was quite an experience standing in a crowd, that stretched as far as the eye could see both to the left and right of us. There was a decided holiday atmosphere about the surroundings and many who had waited two and three hours were still in a jovial mood. There were no impatient, angry phrases, "Why doesn't he come on." It was as if everyone recognized that it was the heroine of her sixth grade class at Moulton school, the next few days.

Mr. and Mrs. James N. Bethel, 1326 11th street, had their wish come true. Their new baby, born Friday, Oct. 9 was a boy.

Don't forget about the old telephone books. Some youngster will be calling on you to collect them for the drive for the Children's Zoo. So save them until they come, won't you?

Also don't forget that Mrs. Bertie Harris, 1227 10th street, will observe her 90th birthday on Oct. 23.

well he must be kind of crazy. Another explained that the first speaker had referred to the Yankees baseball skipper. Then she looked a little embarrassed, herself.

The crowd passed much of the time watching the various security guards posted atop many of the tall buildings and the helicopter that flew over the parade route. Several had field glasses and of course kept their youngsters and others informed as to the type of rifles the guards were carrying and if they had walkie talkies. Then some time was also spent trying to pick out the various plain clothes detectives and security agents who mixed with the crowd at intervals. It seems they all had a tiny white button in the left lapel that easily identified them to one another. It seems a Des Moines attorney had been over to the courthouse earlier that morning and noticed when the small white buttons were handed out.

One Des Moines girl we know was among the fortunate few who got to shake the President's hand. She was Ruthie Waylon, daughter of Mrs. Jeannette Waylon, 1163 9th street. Needless to say she was the heroine of her sixth grade class at Moulton school, the next few days.

Church Plan $4 Million Home for Aged

Los Angeles—The Rev. Maurice A. Dawkins was issued a permit last week by the city department of building and safety to build a $4 million seven-story home for the aged, which will be owned by the People's Independent Church of Christ, the minister's congregation.

The "T" shaped building will contain an 804 occupant recreation area over three levels of parking, 124 apartments and 80 guest rooms, 20 of which will be used as hospital units. The structural frame will be reinforced concrete, while the exterior will consist of open balconies, precast panels and concrete walls. Total will be $4,310,000.

DANGER TO PRESIDENTS POSES SERIOUS PROBLEMS

During President Johnson's stay in Des Moines last week, the people witnessed the greatest arm of protection for a citizen ever seen here.

Fresh from the loose protective measures which surrounded the late President Kennedy's assassination in Dallas, Texas, here every building along the route traveled by President Johnson was checked thoroughly. Helicopters hovered over the area hours before the appearance of the President and hundreds of local and federal officers were stationed in every spot which might offer a nook where dangerous individuals might lurk.

Threats on the President's life have been made before and since his appearance generally by young men.

This is a sad commentary on the country that the head of government finds it unsafe to move among the people; that young men have developed hate that brings them to wish to murder someone simply because his beliefs are not as they wish to have them. They know that they too are certain to be killed which emphasizes that their hate is exceedingly deep.

Somehow the country seems to be dividing into cliques more and more, some of which have no patience with the others to the extent that they will risk almost certain death to remove those opposed to their views. America must not be an armed camp of one group against the other or a place where citizens cannot travel over the country without being the object of assassins.

CHURCH WOMEN CONDEMN RIGHT WING FORCES

Among the resolutions adopted by the United Church Women at its meeting was one condemning the John Birch Society, Klu Klux Klan and other right wing organizations.

In spite of the fact that the delegates consisted of leading women religious leaders over the country, no doubt the debate was tense at times. Many of these women, while parading under the cloak of Christianity, are strong believers in the un-American principles for which those organizations stand.

It is encouraging that the delegates arose to the occasion and named groups that teach following un-Christian principles; organizations which attempt to divide our country and deny men the equal protection of the law and the constitution.

No matter how ridiculous an organization, somebody will join. These groups, parading under the cloak of Americanism and keeping minorities in their place, have grown because too many people considered them harmless or were unwilling to stand up to be counted in any attack on them.

For years, Negroes were lynched in the South under the guise of protecting white women. Eventually, fearless white women refused to be made the cats paw for a pulling the chestnuts out of the fire of lynchings and in many cases joined anti-lynching crusades. Today, lynchings are carried out to intimidate Negroes from enjoying their civil rights.

The United Church Women have done a great service by joining those forces opposed to right wingers who mean no good to anyone.

DON'T DESERT THE NAACP, IT DESERVES FULL SUPPORT

The Des Moines Branch NAACP has not met the 1964 quota assigned by the national office. As usual, the drive began last spring with ten teams each pledged to solicit one hundred members.

To date barely more than half the quota has been met with some teams contributing very little to the total effort.

Memberships should have come without extraordinary effort because civil rights have been the top news most of the year and the NAACP has been the leader in the forefront most of the time.

In fact, the NAACP has been the level head throughout the riots in the North which have done much to alienate the support of a lot of people who were at least dormant on civil rights.

The Bystander is not convinced that the teams have done a good

Iowa Hawkeyes Survive 21-20 'Squeaker' As Indian Hoosiers Come Back Fighting Saturday

Bloomington, Ind. — The Iowa Hawkeyes played 'give-away football' with the Indiana Hoosiers and almost gave away the game in the process here Saturday afternoon before some 48,000 fans. The Hawkeyes who went into the final period with a 21-6 lead saw it melted before their eyes as the Hoosiers staged a furious comeback, closing the gap at 21-20, almost eclipsing the one they played against Iowa a year ago.

Sweet Victory

In spite of the heart-rending climatic last minutes, the win was a sweet victory for Iowa, who were competing for their first Big Ten victory and their third win in a row. At the opening of the season it had been speculated if Iowa could win three all season.

Passes

As expected, Gary Snook of Iowa and Indiana's Rich Badar put on a rare display of passing in the free-wheeling affair.

Snook, the Big Ten passing leader, hit 18 of 40 attempts for 263 yards. Gary scored the first Iowa touchdown on a short plunge and passed nine yards to Rich O'Hara for another.

Speedy halfback Dalton Kimble tallied the other Hawkeye touchdown—his fifth of the season—on a 35-yard dash around end in the second quarter.

Nowtazke Misses

Badar connected on 15 of his 27 throws to gain 197 yards. He scored one and Tom Nowatzke barged across for the other two Hoosier touchdowns while piling up 101 yards in 30 carries.

job as a whole. Every Negro should pay his membership without being asked. The organization has done a great job.

There are many stragglers who ought to do better and have not paid. Many of them hold good jobs in the city. This should not be the case for it was the NAACP which has done a great deal in opening opportunities for employment and the enjoyment of the civil rights.

The NAACP deserves the whole hearted support of the citizens of Des Moines. Its record at the national office has been good over the years.

World Series

St. Louis, Mo.—True to most sports predictions, the 1964 World Series went into its sixth game here Wednesday with the Cardinals leading the veteran Yankees, three games to two.

Bob Gibson, former Creighton university star at Omaha, Neb., gave the National League pennant winners the one-game edge with a commendable pitching performance in the last game of the three-day series in the American League park. The Cardinals won that game in the 10th inning, 5-2 when Tim McCarver hit a three run homer. Gibson had struck out 11 and held the Yankees scoreless for 8 and 2/3 innings behind a 2-0 lead, when Tommy Tresh of the Yankees tied it up with a two-run homer.

Previous Game

In previous games the scoring went like this:

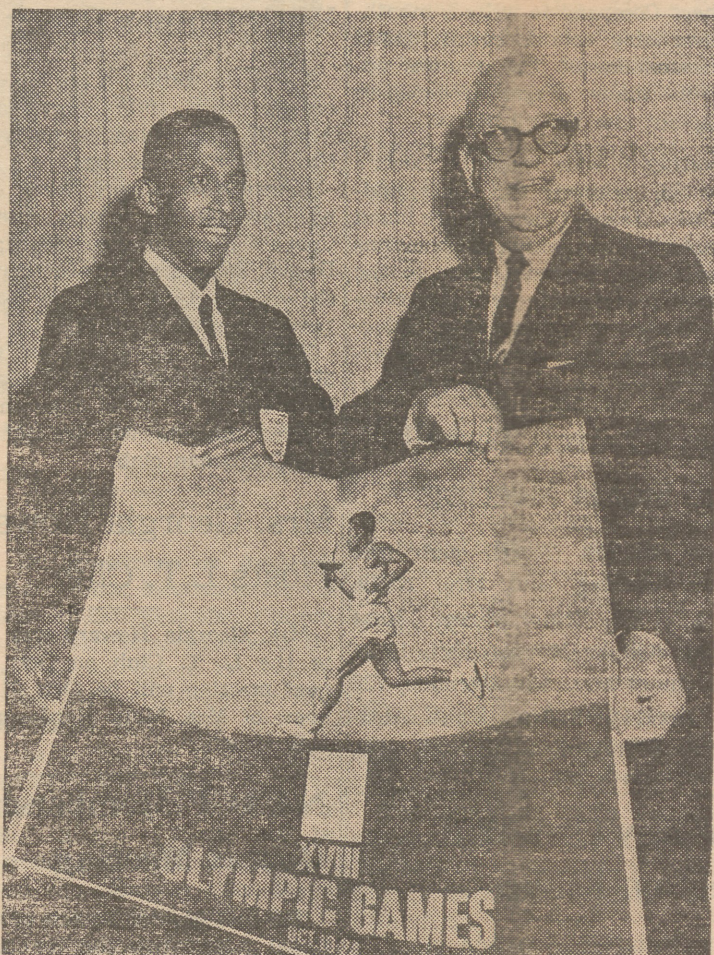

The Cardinals won the opener, 9-5 with young Ray Sadecki the winner and Whitey Ford the loser; The Yankees came back in the second game to beat Bob Gibson, 8-3 with ace-pitcher, Ron Stottlemire going the distance.

Yankee Stadium

Friday was an open date and the contest resumed Saturday at Yankee Stadium with the Bronx Bombers winning their second in a row, 3-2, with a dramatic homer in the bottom of the ninth by Homerun star hitter, Mickey Mantle. The Cardinals returned the compliments Sunday, when Cleve Boyer hit a grand-slam homer to put the Cards ahead 4-3, and to win.

Tan Quarterback Leads Harvard

Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass., has had some great Negro linemen and backfield in the past, even All-American selections, but never in its long history had they ever played a Negro at the important quarterback slot.

Kenneth Maxey, Carver High School, Chicago, and Arnold C. Frahm, general sales manager, Derby Foods, Inc., Chicago. Derby Foods sponsored the youth on a 19-day trip to the Olympic games in Tokyo.

Ashe Gets Trophy

New York—Arthur Ashe, outstanding tennis player, was voted the Johnston Trophy, awarded for outstanding sportsmanship and excellence of play.

Buc's Clemente, Twins Olivia Win Batting Honors in Baseball

New York—Tony Oliva of Minnesota and Roberto Clemente of Pittsburgh won the major league batting championships last Sunday.

Oliva finishing with a .323 average, became the first rookie in modern history to win a major batting title.

Oliva, 24-year old Cuban, finished six points in front of Baltimore's Brooks Robinson in the American League. Oliva is the first rookie to finish on top in either big league since Abner Dabry of Milwaukee did it in 1878.

2nd Crown

Clemente wound up at .339 to win his second National League crown. The 30 year old Puerto Rican outfielder won with a .351 mark in 1961. Rico Carty of Milwaukee was the runner up at .330.

Willie Mays of San Francisco captured the home run title in the National League with 47. Harmon Killebrew of Minnesota won the American League home run title with 49.

Ken Boyer of the Champion St. Louis Cards took NL's RBI honors with 119. Orioles' Robinson was the AL's RBI leader with 118.

The signal caller is John McCluskey from Middletown. He drove the Crimson to a 20-14 victory over the University of Massachusetts in a real thriller.

He piloted the Harvard eleven to a 63-yard sustained drive in the first period and sprinted 82 yards.

Football

This football season continues to bring upsets and surprises. We were glad to see Mississippi knocked out of the top ten, not because of who they are but because they never play any of the other ranking schools. How can you rate them the best when they never play the best. Well, this year we won't have to worry about it.

Iowa is still shaking after getting away from Indiana by one point. Must have been something with victory that close only to fitter it away. However, humans being what they are a lot of cases where teams and individuals had their goal within their grasp and couldn't close in. But Iowa seems to have a better team than they were supposed to have. They really have a rugged defense and a pretty fair offense. They play another supposedly weak team Saturday and if they get by that one should prove pretty tough down the stretch. They had better be tough. The Hawks meet three of the top 10 teams in their next six games.

proof that luck plays an important part in a season of any team sport. The luck comes in keeping your key men free from injuries. That holds true in baseball and also basketball or any long season. Injuries to key performers threaten to mar or maybe wreck what seemed to be a promising season for East. Maybe their bench can pull the Scarlets out.

North High seems to have finally got rolling and should be hard to stop now. Tech always has a fine Negro back who runs circles around his opponents but who is usually too small for big college football. They have one now and he has everyone talking about him. But at 147 pounds could the fellow play, say at Iowa U or Iowa State?

We continue to look at the host of former high school football players who have graduated from local high schools and think what a waste of a semi-pro team we could field. Anybody have about five thousand dollars to invest? Don't know how he would get it back, but he would have a lot of fun if he likes football.

Negro High School Pair Win Olympic Trip

Chicago—Terry Grant and Henry Jones, two Negro youths, were among six Chicago area high school senior boys selected by a panel of judges, authorities in sports, to participate in a 19-day, all expenses paid trip to Tokyo this month for the Olympic games.

The contest was sponsored by radio station WAAF and several of its advertisers, as a public service to promote better understanding of American youth among the foreign Olympic participants. Grant, a student at Du Sable, and Jones, who attends Hyde Park, were nominated by their schools and interviewed by the judge's panel.
