F.B.I. Climax Case After 3 Disappeared Mysteriously

Jackson, Miss.—Two white men were arrested here Friday and charged with the murder of two Negroes whose torsos were found in an arm of the Mississippi River last July—nearly two months after they mysteriously disappeared near Philadelphia, Miss. Friday's arrests have been anticipated for weeks, with various reports that the names of the alleged killers were known.

Identification

Making the arrests were the F.B.I. who identified the white men as James Ford Seale, 29, and Charles Marcus Edwards, 31, a Ku Klux Klansman, both of Meadville.

Roy Moore, head of the Jackson FBI office, said local and federal officers arrested the two at their homes.

They were charge in the deaths of Charlie Eddie Moore and Henry Hezekiah Dee, whose bodies were found in Old River, an arm of the Mississippi, in Madison Parish, Louisiana.

Search

The bodies were found during the search for three civil rights workers, who disappeared near Philadelphia, Miss., earlier in the summer.

On July 12, a Tallulah, La., fisherman found the lower half of one of the bodies, its feet bound with a rope, in the muddy slough 15 miles south of Tallulah.

Sereachers for the missing rights workers converged on the scene and began a mass dragging operation that located the second body next day. Both of the bodies were badly mutilated.

College Student

Moore was a college student at Alcorn A. & M. College; Dee was a local laborer. They were last seen May 2 hitchhiking near Meadville.

Seale and Edwards were charged before Justice of the Peace Willie Bedford in Meadville. Located in Seale's home was a sawed-off pump shotgun.

The FBI announcement gave no reasons for the slayings and no hint of how officers connected Seale and Edwards with the cases.

Both are married. Seale has three children, Edwards four.

Reverse Conviction of Over 200 Alabamans

Montgomery, Ala.—The Alabama Court of Appeals has reversed the contempt convictions of over 200 nonviolent demonstrators arrested in Gadsden during the summer of 1963 in a local desegregation campaign led by CORE and marked by brutality on the part of cattle-producing state troopers.

Accused

Accused of violating an injunction against protest marches, the demonstrators had been summarily arrested and jailed without being charged and without bail. The NAACP Legal Defense and Education Fund, under an agreement with CORE, handled the Gadsden cases, then sought habeas corpus writs. These were denied, but the judge finally agreed to set bail.

Small Fire in Rev.

George Parrish Home

Fire destroyed several articles of clothing in the home of Rev. George Parrish, 1643 Walker street on Thursday, Nov. 5. Fire Lt. Al Maupin said a cigarette probably started the blaze. There was some smoke damage to the house.

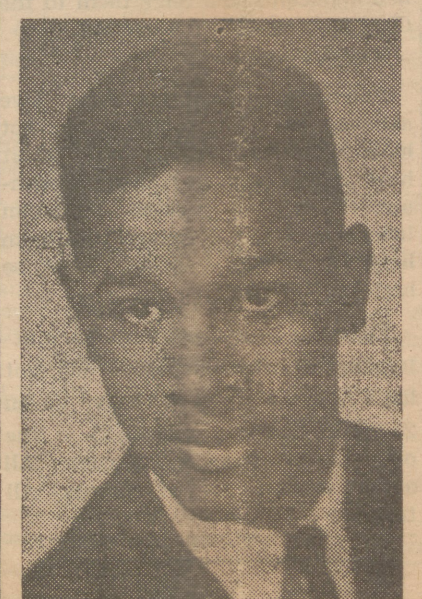

License Suspended

Levi Henry McGuire, 21, of 933 18th street, pleaded guilty of driving while his license was suspended and was fined $200 or 20 days in jail Wednesday by Municipal Judge Ray Harrison.

McGuire was given until Dec. 4 to pay his fine. He was charged Oct. 19.

Outstanding Airman

Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Kelso, 1413 16th street, recently received a letter from Col. Commander C. B. Munson, 6901 Special Communications Group, announcing that their son, Airman 1/C Richard W. Kelso had been selected as "Outstanding Airman from July 1 through Sept. 30.

Col. Munson wrote the Kelso:

"He was highly recommended for this honor, and was selected from other candidates of the 6901 Special Communication Group.

"As an airman assigned to this organization, he demonstrated his leadership abilities and conducted himself in an exemplary manner at all times. He has shown attentiveness to his work and has constantly discharged his duties in a manner far superior to that ordinarily expected of an airman of his grade.

"Not only has Richard gained the stature which accompanies the outstanding status, but he will also receive a check for $200.00, a Certificate of Recognition, a three-day pass and an individual trophy.

"We are proud, as you must be, of the qualities of leadership and initiative which your son has demonstrated."

Democratic National convention last August.

Iowans

At least 10 Iowa students and 22 Iowa clergymen took part in the Mississippi Summer Project which aimed at voter registration and education for Mississippi Negroes.

The meeting here will be at Grace Methodist Church and is open to the public. Students from several colleges and universities are planning to join in the tribute to the Iowa volunteers.

The sponsors of the meeting are the Iowa Civil Liberties Union, Des Moines Branch of N. A. C. C. P. and the Des Moines Chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE).

Many Negroes Gain Political Offices Around the Nation

New York—Negroes scored the most spectacular political advance since Reconstruction in the national elections, Tuesday, November 3. Negro office seekers, for the first time, won seats in four state legislatures and gained additional spots in other state houses where they had previously served, while latching on to several state judgeships, county and city posts.

The top Negro officeholder, Massachusetts Attorney General Edward W. Brooke (Republican), was re-elected by a 2-1 margin.

Detroit

Detroit voters sent the sixth Negro congressman to Washington and the second from that city when they elected John J. Conyers (Democrat) to the U.S. House of Representatives.

Mr. Conyers will join the other five whom voters reelected, which include Charles C. Diggs, Jr., of Detroit; Adam Clayton Powell of New York City; William L. Dawson of Chicago; Robert C. Nix of Philadelphia; and Augustus F. Hawkins of Los Angeles. All are Democrats.

Oklahoma

States sending Negroes to their legislatures for the first time included Iowa, 2; Oklahoma, 4; Delaware, Kansas and Tennessee one each.

New York and New Jersey voters picked additional Negroes to represent them. In New York, Arthur J. J. Brown, Jr., of Buffalo; Kenneth N. Browne of Queens; and William Thompson of Brooklyn were the three selected. A total of nine Negroes were among those elected to the New York State Legislature. This included the reelection of Mrs. Constance Baker Motley to the State Senate.

Georgia voters not only sent Leroy Johnson back to the State Senate but elected another Negro—Horace Ward—to that body also. Other states re-electing Negro incumbents included Washington, Ohio, Arizona and Nebraska.

Negroes also picked up more seats in the Legislatures of Indiana, California and Massachusetts.

Colorado Judge

First's were scored when a Negro was picked for a district judge in Colorado and when two Negroes gained seats on the New York State Supreme Court bench. The New Yorkers were Edward R. Dudley, former Manhattan Borough President, and Darwin D. Telesford.

In Illinois, Theodore A. Jones was elected a University of Illinois trustee by more than 1,800,000 votes.

Four Negroes won offices in Macon County (Birmingham), Alabama. Elected were Rev. V. A. Edwards, Board of Revenue; Charles C. Gornall, School Board; William C. Allen and William J. Childs, Justice of the Peace.

And Savannah, Ga., gained its first Negro city councilman in recent history.

Wins in D.C.

Washington, D. C.—Because her party—the Democrats—won, Mrs. Patricia Harris, won as Presidential Elector here last week even though her name and that of her opponent did not appear on the ballot.

Try Outs For Willkie House Variety Show

Persons or groups interested in appearing at the Willkie House Variety Show on Wednesday evening, November 25th, are invited to try out on Monday, Nov. 16th at 8:30 p.m. in the Willkie House gymnasium. Instrumental music, choral groups or individuals, skits, dramatic readings and dance numbers will be included in the program. For further information call James Dunn at 243-4169.

NEWS In A Nutshell

New York—Dr. John D. Morsell, assistant director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, disclosed last week that the Library of Congress in Washington, D. C., has been designated as the official repository of NAACP Archives.

Pittsburgh, Pa.—Henry R. Smith, 47, president of the Pennsylvania State Conference of NAACP branches, assumed his duties Nov. 6 as head of the local anti-poverty drive. An attorney, Mr. Smith was appointed to the newly created full-time $15,000 post on Oct. 6 by Allegheny County commissioners.

New Orleans, La.—By supplemental complaint filed with the United States District Court here Rev. Avery C. Alexander asked to be awarded $150,000 in damages for his unlawful arrest on Oct. 31, 1963 when they sought to be served at Johnson's Cafeteria in the basement of the City Hall building. Rev. Alexander was dragged from the cafeteria, feet first.

Baton Rouge, La.—Edgar Labat and Clifton A. Poret both of New Orleans continued their 11-year-old fight last week to escape the electric chair on a 1953 conviction for a 1950 rape of a white woman.

Chicago, Ill.—Nobel Peace Prize winner Dr. Martin L. King, last week received the John F. Kennedy award of the Catholic Interracial Council of Chicago.

St. Louis, Mo.—An issue over racially mixed swimming in a public school has resulted in the suspension and transfer of a 13-year-old white boy from one school to another, parents of the boy said. James L. Boyer, 32, meter repairman and his wife and five children live in a mixed neighborhood, but said their son was transferred because they did not want him taking part in a swimming class at a recreation center with Negro students.

Washington—A new chaplain has been appointed at George Washington University, it was disclosed here recently. He is the Rev. Richard Cornish Martin, a Negro, of Philadelphia, who will also serve on the staff at St. Paul's Church.

Tampa, Fla.—The U. S. Civil Rights Commission has been asked by the local NAACP branch to look into complaints of job bias in the state employment office and the McDill Air Force Base. Robert Gilder, branch membership chairman said the complaints were filed on behalf of five men who had become disturbed at the way Negroes were handled at the employment office.

Betty Lee Returns Home to Waterloo Citizens Donate Funds for Plane Trip

Waterloo, Iowa—Betty Lee hopes that she can go back to St. Ann's Hospital in Fall River, Mass., where she spent more than four months of loneliness.

Those long weeks hundreds of miles from her home have ended. Betty Lee's tears of heartache and sadness turned to tears of joy Friday night when she arrived in Waterloo via air ambulance.

Betty, the youngest of Mr. and Mrs. Lee's eight children, left her home at 332 Webster St. on Oct. 2, 1963, to go to Providence, R. I., to help her sister care for a new baby.

Four months before, she had graduated from Columbus High School here.

The Fatal Accident

Last June 21, two weeks after she had secured a job as an elevator operator, Betty was riding in a car with a friend.

Their car jumped a dividing island on a four-lane bridge and collided with an on-coming auto.

Four persons, including the driver of the car Betty was in, died. Betty, one of only two survivors, received a fractured pelvis, back injuries, multiple fractures of the left thigh, compound fracture of both bones in the right leg and bone damage in one ankle.

Crash a Blank

She was placed in full body and leg casts.

"I just don't remember a thing about the accident."

But she does remember long days and nights in the Fall River hospital. Visits by her sister and one by her mother were the only contacts she had with the home she had known for approximately 18 of her 19 years.

"The people (at the Fall River hospital) were wonderful. Many of the patients I got to know came back to visit me after they got out of the hospital."

"But, it was nothing like home. I was kinda sad."

Tells of Depression

Her physician in Fall River, Dr. S. R. Manelis, confirmed this. "Her condition is medically satisfactory but she is extremely depressed. . . . This is inhibiting her recovery. If she can be returned to her local community, recovery will be hastened considerably," Dr. Manelis said.

Then, one day—Oct. 22—Betty got a telegram from Waterloo. Betty's nurse asked if it was her birthday. "I said no. Then she told me the Waterloo Jaycees (Junior Chamber of Commerce) were going to try to get me home.

"I cried all day long. "I was so happy. But I kept saying, 'I can't go home like this, with these casts on.'"

Didn't Believe News

The next day Betty's doctor told her that she would be flown home.

"I didn't believe him," she said yesterday.

But it was true. Several people in Waterloo, and some in Fall River, had seen to that.

The Waterloo Jaycees, after they had been informed of Betty's plight by Mrs. Anna Marie Weems, of 525 Helmet St., went to work.

Fund Campaign Begun

They set up a campaign for funds to cover expenses for flying Betty back to Waterloo. Reuben Ewert, of 750 River Forest Rd., Evansdale, chairman of the campaign, said that up to yesterday about $550 had been collected and the drive was continuing.

It cost approximately $450 to fly Betty back Friday in a Niederhauser Airways plane that had taken another patient from hereto Boston. Fall River Jaycees arranged for an ambulance to take her from the hospital to the airport there.

Greeted by 150

When she arrived about 9 p.m. Friday at Municipal Airport, a crowd of 150 persons was there to greet her.

The Waterloo Ambassadors and a contingent from Betty's graduating class as Columbus were among them, along with Ewert and other Jaycee officials. A group from the Youth Achievement League, an organization Betty actively participated in when she lived in Waterloo, was there to unfurl a "Welcome Home, Betty" sign.

A Waterloo ambulance whisked Betty to Schoitz hospital where she will spend many weeks convalescing.

$13,000 Expense

Medical and hospital expenses in Fall River total more than $13,000. Schoitz hospital has agreed to accept Betty as a patient without an initial guarantee of funds to cover her expense.

Several other persons have offered their services to aid in her recovery and in the fund drive. A trust fund in Betty's name has been established at the National Bank of Waterloo.

Brooke Calls Another GOP National Convention Next Yr.

New York—Atty. Gen. Edward W. Brooke of Massachusetts who escaped the national Democratic landslide in last week's general election, called for another Republican National convention next summer to write a new platform for the defeated party.

Brooke, a Republican who was re-elected by 750,000 votes, said Sunday on the nationally televised program "Meet the Press," "Obviously the American people have rejected the Republican party and its salesmen and its principles in 1964.

Get Ready

He said on the television program, "Meet the Press," that a new Republican platform is needed before the 1966 congressional elections and "to get ready for 1968."

"If they don't then we will come rather perilously close to losing the vital two-party system in government," he said.

Brooke said he believes the Republican program should include a stand against extremism, for civil rights, and for specific plans to meet the people's needs.

Ia. Beauticians Present Best Clinic Ever; Top Technicians, Shows Latest Skills, Products

BY FRANCES HAWTHORNE

Beauticians from four states converged on Crescent School of Beauty, 1407 Center street, Sunday through Tuesday, eager to see demonstrations of new products and learn the latest techniques and skills in their profession.

Companies

Expert technicians from Hair Strate, Clairrol, and Helene Curtis, surrounded by the various wares and products of their respective companies, demonstrated with skillful fingers and interspersed their verbal spiels with candid banter and quips. And they answered questions. Most of them were beauticians before they were technicians, so they can anticipate as well as answer many of the small but numerous problems that beauticians encounter with individual customer's hair coiffures and styles.

Guests Artists

Holding his own among the women technicians, was Mr. Demetrius, guest artist from Detroit, Mich., who has won numerous first place awards for his original designs in hair styles. Many attending beauticians had seen his firstplace winning entry in Beauty Trade, known as the top beauty profession magazine, were looking forward to watching his talented, skillful fingers. He did not disappoint them.

With controlled skill, he created before their eyes, flamboyant, casual and formal hair designs, on the various waiting models. In fact, he had more models, than time to create hair style. He created intricate, elaborate as easily as most women comb straight strands.

We spent several hours Sunday at the standing room only event, interviewing and watching the demonstrators at work. We garnered a few important facts.

Permanents

Permanents, scornfully looked upon as a flash in the pan a few years ago, ARE THE THINGS. Permanents are creating a revolution in the Negro professional beautician's hair dressing art. Techniques and products, heretofore undreamed of, are being tested and perfected. Chemists and scientists are trying to eliminate problems and beauty schools are vainly in search of textbooks on the era in their profession.

Products are being devised that will add to or maintain the "moisture and protein balance." Interpretation of this technical language would be seeking means to deter dryness and lack of silken sheen in the coiffured hair.

New Products

Technicians were quick to point out the new or improved products for their companies. A small but not important portion of their companies' success rests on their sales abilities.

Mary Bridgers, Prairie View, Tex., representing the only all-Negro permanent products company, Hair Strate, pointed out her company's products, Lano-jel, a built in conditioner to keep oil in the hair at all times and Mend, a moisturizer combined with protein to maintain balance. Mrs. Bridgers, who has been wearing a permanent six years, stressed "a series of reconditioning for hair that has always had the heat treatment before switching to permanents."

Making History

She is also acutely aware that she "is making history, working in an era of new techniques, products, for which there is not precedent in her field."

Wearing a light auburn tint, Doretha Dunn of Cincinnati, Ohio represented Helene Curtis whose new products include Ever Perm, Smooth Away Relaxer, for regular or tinted or bleached hair and Color Essence, which develops and lightens in one process in about 25 minutes.

Relaxers

All products are geared to the professional beauticians, thus lecture work is needed, she pointed out, particularly in the field of hair relaxing. The technique is so different.

Sporting an attractive "cherry silver" hairdo, Peggy Bailey of St. Louis, Mo., represented Clairrol. Her company's newest products include Kindness, conditioner, Five-Minute Color, and Born Blond, a non-peroxide toner. She pointed out that Kindness and 5-Minute Color can be used successfully where the customer does not want a tint and can get a conditioner while drying.

Most, if not all, of these products may be purchased through the Crescent Beauty Supply.

Among cities represented at the clinic which began Sunday morning and ended Tuesday afternoon, were Cedar Rapids, Waterloo, Ia., Galesburg, Ill., Davenport, Ia., St. Paul and Minneapolis, Minn., Centerville, Ia., Omaha, Nebr., and Des Moines.

Sponsoring the event were the Cosmetists club No. 2 of Waterloo and No. 1 of Des Moines.

Scholarship Director

Evanston, Ill.—Hugh W. Lane has been named director of the National Achievement Scholarship Program for outstanding Negro students, it was announced today by John M. Stalnaker, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, which is administering the program.

Lane, 38, came to the National Merit Scholarship Corporation from the University of Chicago, where he was Research Associate in the Office of the University Examiner, and an instructor in the Graduate School of Education. His special fields of interest are educational measurement and assessment.

Arrest C.O.R.E. Bus Pickets in N. Y.

New York, N. Y.—The Congress of Racial Equality staged a noisy demonstration inside the Port Authority Bus Terminal Saturday, Nov. 17 to protest alleged discrimination in hiring practices by the Trailways bus company.

After about 40 minutes, the Authority's police broke up the picket line and carried 22 demonstrators off to the West Thirtieth Street Station House. There, four teen-agers were released and 18 were booked on charges of disorderly conduct.

It was the largest number of arrests in a civil rights demonstration here since the opening of the World's Fair last April.

Those who were booked were given summonses and released. An attorney for the authority, Mrs. Rosemary Skehan, said they would receive court summonses for unlawful intrusion.

Patrolman and Matron Exam Slated Here Nov. 21; Says 2 Firemen Applicants on List

On Nov. 21, entrance and promotional examinations for police patrolman and police matron will be given at the Armory Building, East First and Des Moines Streets.

It is necessary that applicants file their applications with the Civil Service Office, located in Room 106, City Hall, not later than Thursday, Nov. 19. The office is open between 8:00 A.M. and 4:00 P.M. Monday through Friday.

Ernest Russell, executive secretary of the Des Moines Commission on Human Rights disclosed, "We have also been advised that there are two names presently on the eligibility list for fireman. This list will expire on March 4, 1965. However, if there are openings in the Fire Department between this date and March 4, in all probability the two people on the list will be hired. Should they be employed by the City prior to March 4, it is possible that the examination for fireman will be given at an earlier date."

"We are suggesting that in the interest of finding qualified nonwhite applicants for positions with the

Christmas Postage Stamps 1964

The United States Christmas postage stamps for 1964 depict the traditional holiday symbols. This year four different five-cent Christmas stamps are printed on the same sheet. The four vertical regular size stamps portray holly, mistletoe, poinsettia and a sprig of conifer. They are issued in panes of 100 each containing 25 blocks of four different stamps, printed in traditional red and green on white paper.

Special Christmas stamp will be placed on sale Nov. 10 at the main post office and all classified stations. All cards sent by five-cent postage may include a personal handwritten message, and they will be forwarded or returned if that becomes necessary.

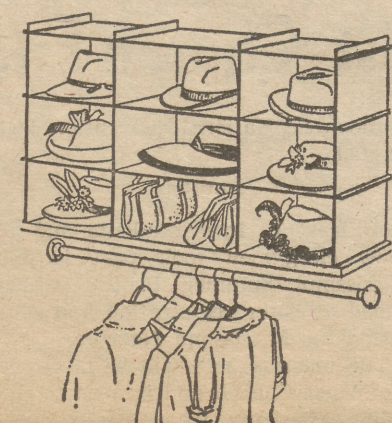

Be sure to put your return address including your Zip Code, on your Christmas card envelopes.

Pigeonholes for Hats

A HANDY pigeonhole file for men's and boys' hats and caps, women's small hats, gloves and purses can be placed on the closet shelf. This collection of separate compartments is simply constructed like the dividers in an egg-crate.

Use sheets of long-wearing Masonite one-eighth inch. Presdwood that's smooth on both sides. It may be obtained at any lumber yard. Cut slots with a power saw the thickness of the boards so they will fit together at right angles.

A good width for each compartment is 13 inches. The height may be varied, depending on the closet.

This pigeonhole storage rack should be made to fit the available space quite snugly, so that it will be steady. Slots for the "legs" may be cut into the wood shelf as an additional brace.

Howard U. Law School Gets $1,800,000 Ford Grant

Washington, D. C.—Howard University President James M. Nabrit, Jr. Nov. 6 announced the receipt of a $1,800,000 grant from the Ford Foundation to assist in the growth and development of the University's School of Law. The grant will be used during the next five years to strengthen the law school's instructional program and to provide additional scholarships for law students, Dr. Nabrit said.

Student Aid

Under the terms of the grant, $900,000 has been designated for student aid and the remained for implementing various aspects of the institutional development plans of the School of Law. In addition to the Foundation's gift, the University will allocate funds of its own for the development of the law school, President Nabrit stated.

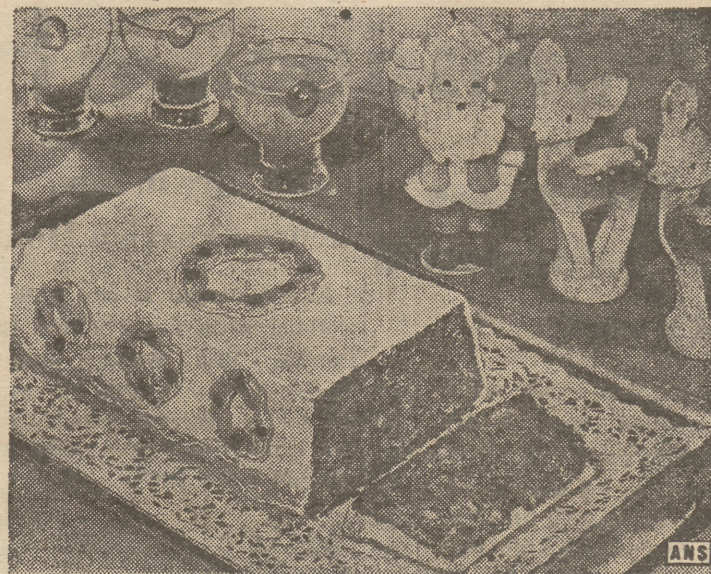

"This grant will enable Howard to add several outstanding legal scholars to its faculty and to improve its law library," Dr. Nabrit said. "The quality of law school training will be greatly strengthened," he added.

Present Plans

According to present plans, the developmental phase of the program will begin Jan. 1. The increase in scholarships is expected to begin with the start of the spring semester next February.

In commenting on the Ford award, President Nabrit said that, among other things, it will enable the School of Law to extend its research activities in the area of community problems.

Magic Fruit Cakes For Holidays

FRUIT CAKE IS SOMETHING OF A TRADITION at the holidays. In "the old days" this delicacy took hours in preparation, with chopping of fruit and meat and suet, grinding of spices, shelling and chopping of nuts, and slicing of fruit peel. Nowadays you can make a perfect fruit cake in just a few minutes, by using packaged condensed mince meat and sweetened condensed milk, and buying nut meats and candied fruits ready to use. To add to the beauty of your taste-tempting cake, top with snowy frosting, decorate with green wreaths and cinnamon drops for candy holly. This fruit cake would make a welcome gift as well as good eating at holiday celebrations.

MAGIC FRUIT CAKE

1 9-ounce package mince meat 1 can (1½ cups) sweetened condensed milk
¼ cup water 1 egg, beaten
1 cup (8-ounces) mixed candied fruit, coarsely chopped ¼ cup sifted flour
½ teaspoon baking soda

Break mince meat into small pieces and put in a two-quart saucepan. Add water. Place over heat and stir until lumps are thoroughly broken. Boil briskly one minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and cool. Add egg, candied fruit, sweetened condensed milk and nuts. Blend well. Stir in flour and baking soda until just blended. Pour mixture into 9 by 4 by 3 inch loaf pan which has been greased, lined with waxed paper and greased again. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 1 hour and 30 minutes or until center springs back when lightly touched with finger.

Mrs. Naomi Watson, noted contralto of Quincy, Ill., presented a concert in the Bethel A.M.E. church Sunday, Nov. 8 at 4 p.m. to a large audience.

Reginald South remains a patient in St. Joseph's hospital.

William Webb is convalescing at home after several weeks in St. Joseph hospital.

Mrs. De Edwin White, Mrs. Clyde White and Mrs. Birdie White of Burlington, Ia., were Keokuk visitors on Nov. 8.

Wendy Eston of Quincy, Ill., a 14-year-old talented pianist accompanied Mrs. N. Watson, in her concert.

Mrs. Lorenzo Clark is convalescing at home after spending some time in the hospital.

by North Carolina Negroes to speed the desegregation process in Statesville and Buncombe County. Legal Defense Fund lawyers James M. Nabrit III and Derrick A. Bell, Jr. presented the arguments Nov. 5.

Teacher assignment on the basis of race has been repeatedly declared unconstitutional by other Federal Courts. Last spring the U. S. Supreme Court upheld this view when it refused to consider a similar case from Florida, thus supporting the Legal Defense Fund's contention teacher segregation has ill effects on both the pupils and their mentors.

Old-Fashioned Plaything

EVEN in this streamlined age of television and jet planes, the child of two to six enjoys a toy that's quite primitive, like a hobby horse. It makes no difference if you can't purchase one, because making one is a cinch for the proud Dad.

The only parts needed are an old broom stick, two pieces of Masonite 1/4" Tempered Presdwood, a four-inch wooden or metal wheel from an old wagon, a piece of rope, and some paint—white, red and brown.

Following the diagram shown here, Dad can lay out the head pattern on the Tempered Presdwood. He will cut out two heads with a coping or jig saw and glue their screened sides together so that only the smooth faces will be exposed.

He'll select the desired length of broomstick and cut slots into which the head and wheel are bolted. After applying a prime coat of paint, he can cover the various parts with colors as shown. The youngster will thoroughly enjoy this old-fashioned plaything.

For a free plan showing other toys that can be made in the home workshop, write Home Service Bureau, Suite 2039, 111 West Washington St., Chicago 2, and ask for Drawing No.

Sunlight and Snow Make Dramatic Pictures Easy

FLOWING brooks bordered by snowy banks have won an endless array of ribbons and prizes in photographic contests. Snow pictures, whether taken for artistic effect, or to show people having fun with winter sports . . . on vacation trips or in your own backyard . . . are pictures you shouldn't overlook. The subject material can make any of us an artist with the simplest camera if we treat it right.

Snow comes to life under bright sunlight. It isn't photogenic in the usual sense on dull days. But when the sun sets it aspartle—that is certainly time for picture taking. On days like that, snowy landscapes are filled with contrasts, offering ideal picture-taking conditions for either black-and-white or color film.

Sunlight and shadows bring out the texture of the snow and add appeal to your pictures. Don't just snap a picture and let it go at that. Look over your snowy landscape in the viewfinder of your camera . . . look at it from various angles, to see what forms the best picture.

Concentrating on what is framed in the viewfinder is important—just as in any type of scenic shot. If you shoot too fast, you may be disappointed. You may expect the camera to see everything that you saw with your eyes—and it can't, not all in one picture. Your eyes move, sweep the scene. The camera's eye doesn't. It sees just exactly what you can see in the viewfinder. Keep that in mind and make beautiful snow pictures this year.

Fai-Ho-Cha Club Presents Lovely Fashion Show For "2 to 92" Sun. Afternoon at Hotel Kirkwood

BY FRANCES E. HAWTHORNE

Although they have been organized just six months members, (just six of them) of the Fai-Ho-Cha club believe in doing things in a big way. Last Sunday afternoon, before a small but high appreciative audience, they presented a very lovely fashion show with fashion wear for "2 to 92."

The latest in distinctive fashions, many of them geared to budget wise pocketbooks ranged from toddlers, ladies in waiting, teenagers and adults, depicting sleepwear, playtime, sports, casual, after five and formal. Many of the current fads such as ski jackets, the layered look, low belts, tweeds, plaids and fashionable colors, were in evident.

2 Perky Packages

Two little perky female packages, Tina Hicks and Rhonda Carter, shyly but with encouraging nods from their "Moms," nearly stole the show who modeled for the pre-school set. Not to be outdone was a lone "young man," another pre-schooler, Dwayne Myers, who modeled what the well-dressed young boy wears.

Star

Star of the show was Minnette Copeland, talented designer and veteran model, who opened and closed the show with exclamation marks of distinctive fashions. She and Sonny Mitchell brought down the curtains on the show with formal wear, he in a midnight blue tuxedo and she in a beaded gold and black formal with a black velvet lined jacket and upper bodice, that she designed and fashioned herself.

Supporting Cast

Giving wonderful support to the modeling cast were poised young ladies, Eranie Griffith, Vickie Webb, Renee Smart and two gentlemen, Sonny Mitchell and Billy Foster. Others modeling for the young school age set were Paula Campos, Frances Campos, Melody Campos, Carol Jackson, Carmilita Smart, and Cheri Lynn Smart. Donna Williams modeled maternity wear for the "Lady in Waiting."

Modeling smart, fashionable wigs from Barbara's Wig shop were Frances Scales, Velma Raleigh, Eranie Griffith, Donna Williams, Benola Foster, Minnette Copeland, and Cheri Lynn Smart.

Gloria Miller gave the show a professional "mistress of ceremonies" touch while a local young talent pianist, Kenneth Parkey, Jr., played soft music for the occasion. John Hickey of Key Photography took pictures, including the one show on this page.

Many of the fashions modeled may be purchased at stores and firms whose advertising have appeared in the Bystander. These included Kucharo's, Skeffington, Wolf's and Barbara's Wig shop.

WE PRESENT THE FAI-HO-CHA CLUB MEMBERS

The striking young matrons above are members of Des Moines newest social-service organization—the Fai-Ho-Cha (meaning faith, hope and charity). It's also the only club of its kind in the city. You see all are secretaries or office workers to Des Moines Negro professional men.

Raleigh, club president and secretary to Dr. Eustace Ware; Benola Foster, club treasurer and secretary to Atty. Robert A. Wright; Frances Scales, club secretary and secretary to Atty. Willie S. Ganton and bookkeeper to Dr. Lewis A. James, dentist; Clementine Berry, club vice president and cashier and officer worker to (Marion) William Pharmacy; and Mary Campos, club critic and assistant to Dr. Stanley Griffin. They were introduced at intermission.

Not pictured is Mrs. Donna Rumley, secretary to Atty. W. Lawrence Oliver. The club was organized last May.

Iowa's beautifully spectacular weather continues with wonderful blue, blue skies and sunny days . . . mixed occasionally with early morning fog or cloudiness. Many years at this time the browning turf would be covered with deep, white snow. And the fires would be crackling in the fireplaces. Now the very thought is a little too much to even contemplate. But Beware!

The past weekend was a full one indeed. It also pointed up quite poignantly, the crying need for some organization or group to compile a yearly club social calendar that would include all or most groups in the city. There are some weekends where little or nothing socially is going on; and then along comes a weekend like the one just past. Somewhere along the line residents who would like to participate in a particular event, cannot do so, either because of having purchased tickets to an earlier-announced event, or because of other commitments. Then, too, if there were such a calendar compiled, the various organizations could co-operate with each other better in setting dates for their particular events that would not clash with another; and thus divide the crowds, where each have some of the expected benefits withdrawn. This is very important to money-making events. It is quite heart-breaking to plan events, secure a place in advance that can hardly be called off, and then perform to only a small crowd.

Two youngsters who nearly stole the fashion show at the Hotel Kirkwood Sunday afternoon were little Tina Hicks and Rhonda Carter. We happened to be seated next to Rhonda's mother and we had quite a chat before the show got underway. It seems that Mrs. Carter and we have four children, two boys and two girls, and in both our families, our sons are the oldest.

HERE AND THERE: New neighbors are Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Colston and children, who now live at 3117 Elm street, located in the general area west of 72nd street . . . Mr. and Mrs. William Western of 913 Crocker street have a new baby in the family born several weeks ago.

While at the Fashion show we also talked briefly to Mrs. Essie Brewer, 1336 11th street, who told us her daughter, Ada Tripplet, had received a promotion to sales representative with Northwestern Bell Telephone company. Miss Tripplet formerly worked at the YWCA.

We spent several hours at the annual state convention of beauticians at Crescent Beauty school Sunday afternoon and chatted with several familiar faces and old friends. Among the mwas Mrs. Leola Anderson of Waterloo, Ia., former president of the co-sponsoring groups for the clinic. We also had a delightful talk with Mrs. Murlean Estes of Minneapolis, Minn., who was wearing a most becoming, and stunning wig, from her own shop. And of course it drew admiring remarks from many attending.

She told us her son, Craig, who is just a few months older than our oldest, had accompanied her to Des Moines. Her husband had planned to make this trip, but at the last minute, had to change plans.

Mr. Demetrius, award-winning guest hair stylist, also made his second appearance at the clinic, this time accompanied by his wife. They motored by car from Detroit, Mich., making the trip under 10 hours.

Have you ever wondered how long your hair grows in a month. According to one of the technicians on permanents at the Beauticians clinic here, your hair grows an average of one half inch a month. The technician went on to explain that most of us don't notice it because the ends of our hair break off and thus it

GOLDWATER FORCES
HERE AND THERE
MUST BE REALISTIC

Much will continue to be written for months to come about the November 3rd election. And while the Democrats are rather quiet, Republicans of different shades of thought are volunteering opinions of "why it happened and what should be done to gather up the pieces and try again."

Poor losers, as the Goldwater forces are, seldom admit that their short comings caused that defeat. Rather they blame someone else complaining that the bottom was not passed to them correctly when, as a matter of fact, in the inception, they were incapable of running the race.

Senator Goldwater and his forces said that his conservatism and the liberal President Johnson forces offered a clear choice for the American people to select an administration which would do the best job. Most people did not agree in the beginning, some for purely partisan reasons, others thought that President Johnson did not measure up and consequently it made little difference who was elected.

Senator Strom Thurman of South Carolina put the whole thing in proper perspective when he said he was joining Senator Goldwater's Republican party. The electorate said on Nov. 3 that it did not want that brand of Republicanism and voted against it.

Republicans who want a new Republican party unhesitatingly want a new image at its head. They know that a majority of the American people will not tolerate a doctrine which thrives on opposition to human rights; they have been awakened to the tremendous improvement in the exercise of civil rights during recent years and are not willing to turn the clock back.

At one time, the Negro vote represented a strong segment of the Republican party. During the 1964 campaign no Negro served as representatives campaigning for Goldwater. And we met none who supported or voted for him. In fact, the Negro was more united in this than any issue since that of slavery.

Unfortunately, a lot of fine Republicans were defeated; a lot of fine Democrats elected and in some instances undesirable were on each side.

The Republican party can get back on the track and win some elections. But it won't if the party is led by Senator Goldwater and the ruthless cohorts who got him nominated and defeated.

Both Senators Hickenlooper and Miller urge a cooling off period; that Republicans not cut each other up. If they had been defeated, their tune would be different. As two of the leaders of the party in Iowa both must look results of the election in the face and quit butting their heads against a wall that won't give.

LESS OUTSIDE OWNERS
WANTED HERE

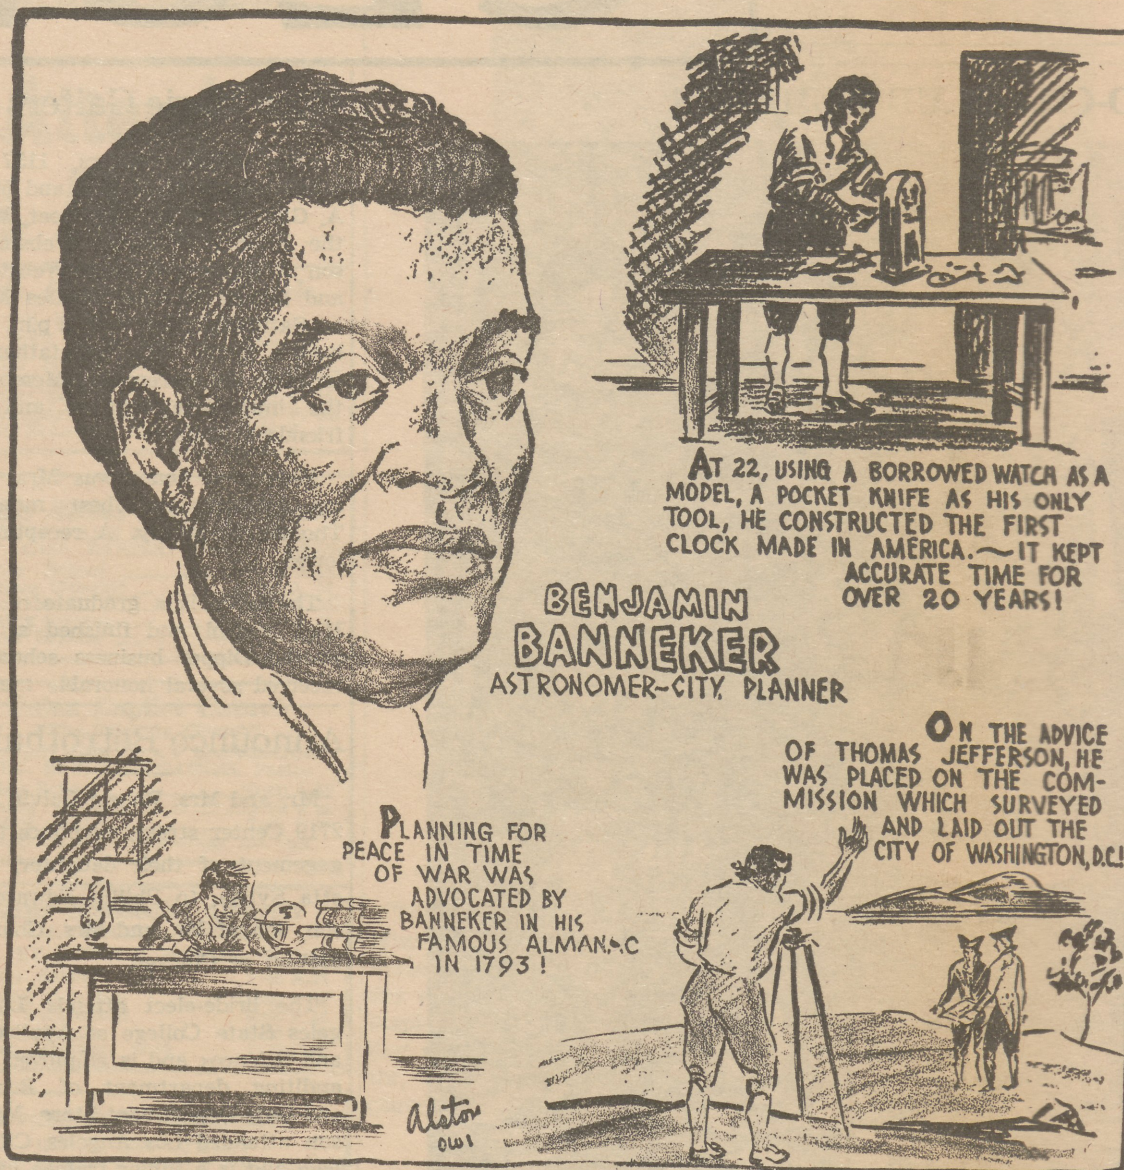

The urban renewal program in Des Moines has done little in comparison with that of other cities. It has run up blind alleys from which it has been forced to back away. It has added little "renewal" in the years it has drifted along.

Today, very little of the land cleared for renewal has been developed. And about the only bids for land have come from motels and apartment owners.

In their campaign to defeat low rent housing, the real estate interest advanced figures purporting to show that great housing and apartment vacancy existed. The hotels contend that their occupancy is down 30 to 40 per cent. And yet non-resident owners are encouraged to come in an already oversupplied territory, syphon money out of Des Moines and make other towns rich.

Des Moines is already oversupplied with motels and eating places, many operated by big corporations which squeeze the little operator out of making a going business.

West Virginia became a poor state because most of its industries were owned by outsiders who cared little about the people of that state but only the dividends they could collect from their holdings in the great corporations. Des Moines is selling too much of its business to these same people who place a cashier

HEALTH FOR ALL

CAN WE "VACUUM-CLEAN"
OUR DIRTY AIR?

It's too bad we can't take the modern housewife's cleaning method out of doors, because air pollution has become an increasingly serious problem in many areas of the country. And not just in the cities, either. Farm areas have been affected more and more, for air has a willful way of traveling wherever it cares to.

Badly Hit

Crops and cattle alike have been badly hit by the slow spread of this "dirty" air in such far flung states as Southern California, Washington, Florida, Tennessee, Utah, and New Jersey.

To say nothing about the damage it does to our human population! On the other hand, let's say something about it. Polluted air is associated by medical and scientific investigators with lung cancer, chronic bronchitis, emphysema, and other respiratory diseases.

Failed to Enact

Still, more than a score of state legislatures have failed to enact any effective air pollution control measures. Your state may be one of these, or your "neighbor" states may not be "good neighbors." What to do to halt the spread of airborne poisons.

SUPPORT the activities of local organizations active in the fight for air pollution control.

Obey Regulations

DON'T dirty up the air yourself. Have your car exhaust checked. Your furnace and chimney may be among the belching villains in this sorry drama.

here to collect their profits and ship them to the owners while poor Iowans toil in their owners' business.

The urban renewal can do something to bring a type of business that will not only renew but also serve as an addition rather than driving others already here deeper in the mire.

THERE'S NOTHING "MEASLY"
ABOUT THE MEASLES

Measles are mean, as anyone who has cared for an unhappy, measles-ridden child knows. High fever, chills, cough, and headache are some of the symptoms which precede the outbreak of the rash for about four days. It is usually about a week more before convalescence starts, and the young patient begins to feel that life is worth living after all.

Vaccination

It is good news to learn that a measles vaccination campaign has been remarkably successful in a West African region where it has been an extremely serious disease in the past. When epidemics struck in the villages of this Upper Volta region before the development of a measles vaccine, up to half of the children died from the disease or the resulting complications. Measles was the single biggest killer of children. Following a vaccination campaign, the next year's record showed only 133 cases and no deaths among the vaccinated children.

Less Serious

Measles is less serious in the United States, but it is nothing to ignore. It does cause deaths; its complications can be quite serious. But now that the measles vaccine has been studied and approved in the United States as well as abroad, all parents should want their children to have its protection.

Be Alert

If your child is exposed to the disease before he has been vaccinated, be alert for symptoms during the incubation period (about two weeks). Better still call your doctor and ask whether he would like to suggest an injection right away. The gamma globulin injection which he might use at this time would not give the same long-term immunity as a vaccination, but it probably would either reduce the severity of the disease or avoid it altogether.

We are fortunate to live in an age when we can be protected against a number of diseases like measles, polio, and smallpox. If your children or grandchildren do not have this protection, what better time is there to act than now?

Named to All-Suburban
Conference Grid Team

Jason Smith, guard for the Ankeny high school football team, last week was named to the first team of the Tribune's all-Suburban Conference football team.

He was second to John Danks, guard of Southeast Polk, in the number of first place ballots.

Another teammate of Smith's Bruce Hokel, tackle, made the first team also. Only underclassmen on the first unit were Smith and Bob Chase of Saydel. Both are juniors.

Two Cans of Beer
Brings Two Months
Jail in Miss.

New Orleans—NAACP Legal Defense Fund lawyers today Nov. 9, 1964 asked the U.S. Court of Appeals here to release a Negro citizen from a Mississippi jail where he has been held for two months for "possession of intoxicating liquor."

Clyde Harvey, active in Civil Rights in his native Leake County, Mississippi, was arrested on July 10, for having two cans of beer in his refrigerator.

Mississippi is allegedly a "dry" state.

Harvey was released the same day of his arrest. However, he was re-arrested Sept. 9th and advised that he had been convicted of possession of beer subsequent to his earlier arrest.

Telephone calls go astray, too, when numbers are not dialed right. Just one number dialed out of order and you'll get a wrong number—or no number at all.

SEEK SPEEDIER INTEGRATION OF NEGROES IN DURHAM, N.C.

Richmond, Va.—The NAACP Legal Defense Fund asked this week that the Durham, North Carolina school board be ordered to redraw gerrymandered school zone lines to end teacher segregation, and to build new schools in locations that would speed integration.

The U. S. Court of Appeals here was asked to amend a Federal District Court August ruling so as to include these new provisions.

The District Court, in its August ruling, concluded that there was no need for the Durham School Board to redraw school zone lines since pupils can freely transfer.

The Legal Defense Fund attorneys countered by pointing out that initial placement of Negro children, in predominantly Negro elementary schools, indicates that assignments are still made on basis of race.

The attorneys add that segregation is being carried out even though the Durham school board complied with a 1963 Appeals Court order to end dual school lines.

Negroes make up 45 per cent of the Durham school population.

Witness

The case was submitted to the grand jury after a witness to the stabbing, Mrs. Betty Jane Logan of Burlington, testified in Mayor's Court that Lee was defending himself from the attacks of two white men, who had been abusive in both word and actions.

Self Defense

She said Lee was backed against the window of the train by William Marshall, 32, of Alabama and Robert Troff, 23, of Swea City, Ia. She said Lee used the knife in self-defense after the two men started hitting him.

Lee stabbed Troff in the chest three times, authorities said. Troff was treated at University Hospitals at Iowa City. Marshall was charged with intoxication and served 20 days in the Louisa County jail.
