FBI Arrest Sheriff, 19 Others in Mississippi

Philadelphia, Miss.—Twenty men, ranging from 17 to 71 years, and including the Neshoba county sheriff, his deputy and five Ku Klux Klansmen, were arrested last Friday and charged in connection with the slaying last summer of three civil rights workers.

Surrender Revolvers

Sheriff Lawrence Rainey, 41, and his deputy, Cecil Price, 26, surrendered their revolvers quietly to FBI agents at courthouse.

A sullen crowd stood silently in the town square as the county's two law enforcement officers were whisked away. A photographer attempting to take a picture was threatened with a knife.

Arrests

The arrests climaxed an intensive investigation triggered when Michael Schwerner and Andrew Goodman, two white New Yorkers, and a Negro companion, James Chaney of Meridian, Miss., disappeared. The three came here to investigate the burning of a rural Negro church.

One of those arrested, the Rev. Edgar Killen, is a fundamentalist Baptist minister.

Among others arrested here were Herman Tucker, foreman of the construction crew at the earthen dam; James E. Jordan, a construction worker, and Jerry Sharp, a used car dealer.

Charges

Nineteen of the 21 were charged with conspiring to "injure, oppress, threaten and intimidate" Schwerner, Chaney and Goodman in the free exercise of their constitutional rights.

Conviction on this charge carries a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison and a $5,000 fine.

The other two were charged with being accessories, an offense that carries a maximum penalty of three years and a $500 fine.

Oslo, Norway—Speaking from what he himself termed a "lofty and historic platform," Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., winner of the 1964 Nobel Peace Prize, declared that "racial injustice, poverty and war" are the most pressing problems of mankind.

In the tradition of Nobel Prize winners, the American human rights leader followed up his five-minute acceptance speech of yesterday with a lecture at the Aula of the University of Oslo before distinguished guests and members of the Nobel Prize Academy.

Dr. King received the Nobel Prize today here.

Bishop Ensley Hurt In Ohio Car Crash; Still on Critical List

Columbus, Ohio—Bishop Francis Gerald Ensley of the Ohio West area of the Methodist church was in Riverside hospital Saturday after suffering injuries in an automobile accident north of Marysville.

The Methodist prelate remained in critical condition for several days but following surgery it was announced that he would recover.

Bishop Ensley, 57, who took over the church area with Columbus headquarters last July, after serving for 12 years as Iowa area Methodist Bishop at Des Moines, suffered four fractured ribs and possible internal injuries.

Bishop Ensley left Des Moines Saturday afternoon after a chest specialist had been summoned.

Bishop Ensley left Des Moines last June after serving more than a dozen years as spiritual leader of the Iowa Area Methodist church. He was succeeded by Bishop James S. Thomas of Nashville, Tenn.

Pleads Guilty to Shooting after Fuss

Marvin Edward Cheatom, 47, who gave his address as 1319 Laurel street, pleaded guilty Friday, Dec. 4 in Polk County District Court to a charge of assault with intent to commit murder.

Cheatom was charged with firing several pistol shots at Willie Flagg, 1060 12th street, last June 1 after an argument over $1.45 in a dice game. Flagg was wounded in the left arm.

Sentencing was deferred until Jan. 4 at Cheatom's request.

SEEK REMOVAL OF SHERIFF WHO DELAYED SEEKING KIDNAP-MURDERED

Topeka, Kans.—William Frederick Zimmer, 45, white railroad engineer, was formally charged with the kidnap-murder in first degree of Gladys Johnson, 7 year old Negro girl, at preliminary hearing in Shawnee County district court and is being held without bond for his trial set for early January.

Intensive Search

After a week of intensive searching in which hundreds took part and with helicopters overhead in addition, the frozen and battered body of the child was found about 25 miles from here in a patch in St. Mary's, Kansas.

The child's skull was crushed and her only garb was a summerweight dress. The wound was made with a blunt instrument, probably an ax, according to police.

Girl Crying

Charles C. Guillory, airman at Forbes Air Force base here, saw a man whom he identified later as Zimmer, with a Negro girl in his car and noticed that she was crying. He notified law enforcement authorities who delayed action because they had no record of a child missing.

Gladys and her younger brother, Elmer, 5, were waiting for someone to pick them up and take them to school. Zimmer, police say, came along in the meantime and offered the children candy to get in his car. The girl resisted but was forced into the machine.

Seek Ouster

The Topeka branch of NAACP is circulating petitions calling for ouster of Sheriff Lew Falley and others involved in delay which may have aided in causing death of the girl.

Preston Cobb Saved After 3 Years in Georgia Death Row

New Orleans—Three years of unremitting effort on the part of NAACP attorneys to save the life of Preston Cobb, a 19-year-old Georgia youth, finally paid off this week when the U.S. Court of Appeals here overturned his conviction by a Jasper County, Ga., all-white jury.

Young Cobb, who was only 15 at the time of his conviction in 1961, was found guilty of the murder of an aged white man, Frank Coleman Dumas.

Negroes on Jury

In setting aside the conviction the Court of Appeals concurred with the NAACP which has consistently maintained that the boy's constitutional rights had been violated through the systematic exclusion of Negroes on the grand jury that indicted him.

George Wiley Named Associate National Director of CORE

Y.—George Wiley, Assistant Professor of Chemistry at Syracuse University and a founder of the CORE chapter in that upstate New York city, has been named Associate National Director of CORE. He succeeds Richard Haley, who now heads CORE's southern office in New Orleans and directs the staff throughout the south.

Gilbert Randle

Elected to His 3rd

Term by Hawkeye Elks

Gilbert Randle was elected exalted ruler for the third consecutive year by Hawkeye Elks Lodge No. 160 at a meeting Wednesday, Dec. 2 at the Lodge Hall, 873 12th street.

Other new officers are Leading Knight, Albert Winfrey; loyal knight Odell Bullock; lecturing knight, James Davis; secretary, John Williams; treasurer, Lefe Fowler; esquire, Joe Wallace; inner guard, Harry Miller; tyler, Harry L. Robinson; honorary trustee, Calvin G. Pruitt; trustees, Travis Fowler, Alvah Edmonds, Robert Thompson and Leo Clark; educational director, N. E. Tillman; and civil liberties, R. A. Jackson.

and the trial jury that convicted him.

Re-Trial

In its appeal the NAACP pointed out that there have been no Negroes on any Jasper County juries for the past 30 years.

The Court stated that "Cobb is subject to reindictment and may be retried, but he is entitled to be retried within a reasonable period."

The State of Georgia had opposed the NAACP petition on the grounds that Cobb's court-appointed original attorney, before the Association entered the case, had not challenged the composition of the jury.

No Waiver

The higher court held, however, that "there was no express waiver by Cobb either of his right to challenge the grand jury indictment or the trial jury."

The NAACP entered the case at the request of Cobb's mother after the Jasper County jury had found the boy guilty following only 45 minutes of deliberation and made no recommendation for mercy, despite his youth.

Children

At the time of his conviction, Georgia law permitted execution of children as young as 10 years old. Because of his youth, Cobb's death sentence aroused world-wide concern. Numerous petitions were circulated asking for clemency and a Dutch delegation came to this country to plead with the governor of Georgia on Cobb's behalf.

Early in 1963 Georgia revised the law on execution and the minimum age was set at 16.

FAMU Law College Gets Scholarship Grant

Tallahassee—The Florida A&M University College of Law has been allocated $2,250 by the American Bar Association for loans to deserving law students over the next year and one-half, according to an announcement today by Atty. Thomas Miller Jenkins dean.

The amount allocated is to be used for law school student loans during the period, Jan. 1, 1965 to June 1, 1966, over a three-trimester period.

The FAMU College of Law was one of 91 approved law schools in the United States to which funds were allocated.

Kansas City, Mo.—James H. Taylor, owner of a real estate firm, is the first Negro to become a member of the Kansas City Real Estate Board. His membership was approved after his credit rating was checked and three board members vouched for him. Board officials stated his application was first to be made by a Negro real estate dealer here.

Boca Raton, Florida—Texas Governor John B. Connally addressing the Southern Newspaper Publishers Association here, declared that Southern leaders "must adjust themselves to inevitable change" wrought by the Civil Rights Act and "redouble efforts to establish reasonable relationships among men."

Kansas City, Kansas—The AME Bishops and Connectional Council is expected to draw more than five thousand delegates and visitors here February 23-25 where sessions will be held at First A.M.E. Church, the host congregation of which the Rev. Elmer W. Newton is minister. The Right Reverend H. Thomas Primm, Nashville, who presides over the 5th Episcopal district, which takes in Kansas and California, is president of the Bishops Council.

New Delhi—Air India has undertaken to train Kenyans in aircraft maintenance at their engineering bases in India. Four Kenyans have been selected and training is scheduled to begin in January.

Tuskegee Institute, Ala.—Dr. T. S. Williams, dean of Tuskegee Institute's School of Veterinary Medicine, has been appointed a commissioner on the City of Tuskegee Housing Authority. The five-member commission serves as the governing agency for the low-cost housing projects in Tuskegee, Ala.

Flint, Mich.—A native Chicagoan has been named director of the Flint office of the Michigan Civil Rights Commission. She is Mrs. Olive R. Beasley, who is a vice president of the Michigan State Employees Union. In assuming the post Thursday, she succeeded George F. Taylor, who has been transferred to the commission's Detroit office.

Saginaw, Mich.—A young attorney, Henry Marsh, has been appointed assistant to the prosecutor of the Welfare Department. The appointment was made by Robert Currie the prosecutor-elect. Marsh, who is also a City Councilman, thus becomes the first Negro to serve on the Saginaw prosecutor's staff.

New York—Election last week of J. Raymond Jones as the first Negro head of the Democratic New York County Committee not only marked a notable milestone in political history but laid the groundwork for further political developments even more far-reaching. Leadership of Tammany Hall, as the New York County Democratic organization is traditionally known, is a post with political power and influence extending far beyond this city's Borough of Manhattan which comprises New York County.

Former Bystander Agent Accused of Masquerading Under False Record 10 Yrs.

Detroit, Mich. — A Wayne (Detroit) representative charged with masquerading under the name and educational background of a deceased white New York lawyer, also is a former employee of the Iowa Bystander, it was learned here earlier this week.

The story about Daniel W. West, 54, first broke in print in a copyrighted story in the Detroit News and was picked up over the weekend by wire services.

According to the Bystander publisher-editor, West worked for about three months for the Bystander during the winter of 1940-41. Soon after he was charged with forgery and uttering a forged instrument. He was tried, and convicted on Mar. 14, 1941 and sentenced to 15 years in the State penitentiary at Fort Madison. He appealed his case to the Iowa Supreme court but was denied.

Insane Ward

While in prison he was transferred to the insane ward temporarily, in 1944. He was released on Jan. 30, 1948 because federal courts had a hold on him for forgery in another area.

While in Des Moines West was married to the former Mrs. Alice McCraney of Des Moines. She is now deceased.

Currently Charged

Representative West currently is charged before Wayne County recorder's court judge Arthur J. Koscinski with aiding and abetting the false registration of voters in the primary. Representative West is free on $500 bond pending trial.

The complaint was signed by John A. Smith, city election director. Smith's complaint said Representative West induced a group of voters in his old sixth district who were not in his new twenty-fourth district to register as if they lived in the twenty-fourth.

The shift in districts was caused by Michigan's 1964 legislative reapportionment.

New Charge

Monday when West showed up in a Detroit court to post bond he was arrested by federal agents on a new charge, filing false information on income tax returns for more than 1500 Detroit area victims. It could be a $250,000 tax swindle the agents said, adding that the unsuspecting victims may have to pay "thousands of dollars" in taxes and penalties.

NAACP Wins on Virginia School Tuition Grants

Richmond, Va.—The NAACP has successfully halted the Virginia system of paying tax-financed tuition grants to white students in segregated private schools.

A decision by the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, Dec. 2, struck down the payment plan in Prince Edward and Surry counties as "a transparent evasion of the 14th Amendment."

2 Districts

Although the decision applied to only two of the state's 10 districts which have organized all-white "private academies" supported by state aid, the court opinion, written by Chief Judge Simon E. Sobeloff, will probably invalidate the entire tuition-grant plans in the other districts.

S. W. Tucker of Emporia and Henry Marsh, III, of Richmond were the NAACP attorneys in the proceedings.

Entire State

The NAACP will challenge the constitutionality of the entire statute authorizing tuition grants in a suit to be argued here before a three-judge Federal Court. The results of this case may have broad application in other southern states such as Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi and North and South Carolina which have attempted similar plans to thwart court-ordered school integration.

Schools in Prince Edward County were closed for five years until this September when the U. S. Supreme Court ordered them reopened on an integrated basis.

Maneuvers

In Surry County after a Federal Court had ordered the admission of seven Negro students to a white school, a "private" segregated school for white students was opened and the "integrated" school closed, relegating those students to the Negro public schools which remained open.

$180,000

In a specially convened meeting, the Prince Edward Board of Supervisors paid out to white parents checks totalling approximately $180,000 which were cashed the following morning. The NAACP claimed that this was in violation of Judge Lewis' ruling as part of the funds constituted an indirect reimbursement for tuition costs in 1963-64 and further because the state had effectively destroyed the subject matter of the suit.

While the Court did not rule on the contempt citation, it ordered the District Court to examine the facts and to make a determination.

UNCF to Distribute $500,000 to Colleges

New York, N. Y.—The United Negro College Fund will distribute $500,000 to 32 member colleges and universities in 11 Southern states during the coming week. James R. Smothers, Jr., vice-president for development, announced today. This will be the fourth distribution of proceeds from the annual campaign this year.

The United Negro College Fund has been conducting annual campaigns for member colleges and universities since 1944, when it raised $765,000. The goal for the 1964 campaign is $3,000,000. Money from annual funds is used for scholarships, faculty salaries and operating expenses.

Pittsburgh Urban League Gets $99,000 for MP Training

Pittsburgh, Pa.—The Urban League of Pittsburgh has been allocated $99,552 under the Manpower Development and Training Act and through the Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training to cover the expenses of staff and training for about 100 workers in the Pittsburgh area in shortage occupations.

Skilled

The Project proposal developed from the Urban League Skills Bank which registered the skills of some 800 people in the community. Almost 50 percent of them lacked the skills demanded in the Pittsburgh area, so the On-the-Job Training program was devised. It will focus on applicants who have never had stable employment; those working at a low skill level; and those who have been displaced by automation.

Work Shortages

The Urban League will be responsible for the supervision of the program, the counseling of trainees, and any needed follow-up activities for both trainees and employers. Employers will be selected from among those who are experiencing worker shortages.

Arthur J. Edmunds, executive director of the Urban League of Pittsburgh, hailed the project as "a significant step in breaking the poverty cycle and getting off the merry-go-round to nowhere." He stressed that the "success of the project depends in a large measure upon the businessmen and employers who show willingness to help provide training opportunities that are mutually beneficial."

HEALTH FOR ALL

GOOD PACKAGE DEAL

When it comes to exterior decorating, it's hard to beat the folks who design the gay cards and envelopes, the colorful wrappings that brighten up everybody's mail around this time every year.

It's hard but not impossible, because—have you noticed?—those holiday messages and parcels don't that's needed. Compare the next is—a row or a block of smiling, sparkling 1964 Christmas Seals! The warm, cheery red and green colors, the jovial faces of the tiny moppet and the little girl and the tubby Santa Claus, add just the festive quality that's needed. Compare the next seal-less letter or package you get with one that's well festooned with Christmas Seals, and the distinction will be crystal clear.

These committees help administer federal farm programs, including price supports, crop controls, and related farm-aid activities. The committeemen are not employed full-time.

Family Finances

Rugs and carpets probably take more of a beating than any of your other home furnishings. However, there are several things you can do to make your carpets stay beautiful and last years longer—and save yourself the money it would cost to replace them.

Use an inexpensive carpet sweeper every day to pick up lint, crumbs and dirt from the surface of your carpet. A few minutes a day will keep dirt from being ground deeply into the carpet. Use a vacuum cleaner once a week. A good vacuum cleaner removes deep-down dirt, as well as surface material. When the carpet begins to look dull, use a rug shampoo to get rid of dirt that your vacuum cleaner can't get to. Modern rug shampoos require little work and are well worth the effort to keep your rugs and carpets beautiful. Once a year is the minimum for shampooing every carpet in the house.

AME Prelate Hailed 'Distinguished Churchman'

200 Attend Banquet For Bishop, Wife

BY FRANCES E. HAWTHORNE
More than 200 persons including ranking clergy from all over Iowa gathered Saturday evening at a prime rib banquet in the holiday festively-decorated Younkers tea-room and listened with warmhearted approval as civic, business, youth and religious representatives paid tribute to Bishop Joseph Gomez, presiding bishop of the Fourth episcopal district of the A.M.E. Church.

Double Anniversaries

The occasion honored double golden anniversaries—of Bishop Gomez in the Ministry and the marriage of the silver haired prelate and his silver haired wife, Hazel Thompson Gomez.

Bishop James S. Thomas, Iowa Methodist area bishop, who brought the main address, capsuled the problems of all speakers of the evening with, "We are deeply honored at this occasion. We have come to express . . . what poor words can do . . ."

Distinctions

"Bishop Gomez has brought distinction not only to his denomination but to the world. He is soundly prepared in the institution of life, combining academic preparation with understanding and love of people," he continued.

"He has served with distinction. I wish we had time to do justice to all the things in his life," he added. Prior to Bishop Thomas' brief but moving speech, other speakers paid verbal homage to the honorees.

Rev. James Lenhardt, of Plymouth Congregational church, and a long-time personal friend of Bishop Gomez, declared, "Some men serve their time by what they are; others by what they do; but Bishop Gomez does both. He is a distinguished churchman of America . . . I have known great men, none more dedicated than your bishop."

Other speakers included Jack Wessenberg, representing civic; Owen Crist, Business-professional; Eddie Eugene, Music; Neil Williams, youth and Arthur Propes, layity.

Response

Bishop Gomez responded eloquently to the evening's formal praise by saying, "To these distinguished friends who have gathered and spoken so meaningfully I say, Thanks. Tonight has been my crowning experience."

"1964 has been the most significant except the year I got married." He referred briefly to some of the high-point events of the past year such as his return to Edin Seminary where he gave the commencement address and was awarded a honorary doctorate; the tribute in Chicago several weeks ago attended by up to 3,000 persons; and his sitting at high mass with the African Archbishop in Ghana, and the thousands of gifts, letters and telegrams.

Well Done!

"I shall—when I get old—(and he paused to smile) sit down and read them. All helped to say to us in words more eloquent—'Well Done.'"

The Pastor Aid will hold its Christmas dinner at the Commodore hotel on Friday, Dec. 11 at 7 p.m. John Michael is at Mercy hospital in Room No. 552 and Sylvester Forrester is in Methodist hospital in Room No. 322.

BISHOP AND MRS. GOMEZ

Rev. William H. Burnette, Jr., presiding elder of the Des Moines-Quincy district presented Bishop and Mrs. Gomez to the audience. A miniature wedding ended the program with Bishop Thomas in charge of the ceremonies. Rev. E. P. Williams of St. Paul presented Bishop Gomez with an elegant gold chain and cross and Mrs. Gomez with a wedding ring. Earlier two youngsters, Jeanne Rae Perry and Richard Henderson, Jr., presented the honorees with a bouquet of deep red roses and a boutonniere. The honorees were also presented with a gold wrapped gift.

Atty. James B. Morris, Jr., served as master of ceremonies. Maurice Johnson played dinner music.

Warm Puddings for Cold-Weather Meals

Fancy desserts are fun to do—sometimes—but our fondest memories of good food often center around the old-fashioned dishes we grew up with. Simple warm custards and puddings are among these—so light, yet satisfying, especially for supper on cold winter nights. A packaged pudding and pie filling mix, served hot or warm instead of chilled, is the modern way to make such desserts. Here is one of those old-fashioned loves made of chocolate pudding and pie filling mix, served warm over crisp triangles of cinnamon toast. Easy to make—even at the last moment—and of a deliciousness to please all members of the family, young and old.

JELL-O CHOCOLATE TOAST PUDDING

1 package chocolate flavored pudding and pie filling mix
2 1/4 cups milk

Combine pudding mix and milk in a saucepan. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a full boil. Remove from heat. Cover bottom of serving dish with toast pieces, saving out part for top of pudding. Pour pudding into serving dish. Dot with remaining toast. Serve warm. Makes 6 servings.

Note: 1 teaspoon grated orange rind may be substituted for cinnamon.

The Christmas holiday season fast kaleidoscoping to its climax with all its accompanying parties, festive gatherings, good cheer and rejoicing. With each passing day the children's eager anticipation heightens and the lists for Santa Claus either change with each passing hour or lengthen.

The past weekend was a full one for many Des Moines residents. One Des Moines mother, Mrs. Herman (Dorothy) Wallace, 2724 Amick avenue, was named "Bowler of the Week" at Van Ginkel's lanes last week and the citation gave her a chance to try out for the televised "Make That Spare." She went down on Saturday morning for the try-out, dashed back home to supervise the 11-13 group of Jack and Jill at a craft meeting, got ready to accompany her husband to the banquet at Youngers tearoom for Bishop and Mrs. Joseph Gomez. By the way Mrs. Wallace missed qualifying for the bowling event by some 50 pins.

HERE AND THERE: Mrs. Gloria Tentemle, bookkeeper and general office worker at the Bystander returned to work this week after nearly two weeks' stay in Broadlawn Polk County hospital. . . . New employee at the Iowa Bystander is Mrs. Patricia Jackson. . . . Word is that the picketing and leaflets sponsored by the Des Moines chapter of Congress of Racial Equality, is quite effective against the A. & P. stores, particularly at 19th and University. . . . Another store, one of the local Super Valu chain has hired a Negro carry-out boy; guess they decided to move before their hand was forced, or perhaps no one had applied previously. . . . Local seamstresses are really being kept busy with designing and making formal gowns for their patrons for the various dances. Never recall when so many formal dances were being held in one holiday season. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Grant Townsell, 1331 8th street, are parents of a new baby boy, born recently. . . . Mrs. Robert Carson, 1181 10th street spent a few days in Mercy hospital for observations this week. Before she left she cooked up a lot of good food for her family. . . . Mrs. Bertha Griffin, 835 9th street, released from Broadlawn hospital after a two-week stay. . . .

Among jazz-loving couples attending the recent private concert of Count Basie in Des Moines were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Harper, Atty. and Mrs. Robert A. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Spates. Another invited couple, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest (Speck) Redd was unable to attend. The concert was arranged by three wealthy Des Moines jazz-lovers who paid for the ballroom at Hotel Savery out of their pockets and also for the refreshments. Count Basie charged $1,000 for the concert, a reduced rate, since it originally was an open date before their concert the following night in Fairfield, Ia. The three sponsors invited the 100 couples by phone, explaining their only charges would be $10 per couple for admission.

After supervising five very active members of the 8 to 10 year-old group of the Jack and Jill, we went to the banquet for Bishop and Mrs. Joseph Gomez. We sat at a table with Mrs. Mary E. B. Smith and Rev. and Mrs. John B. Isom. Mrs. Smith, who is a charming conversationalist, is a Bystander subscriber and was quick to tell us she reads this column quite regularly. She also is well traveled and is well known among civic and community organizations. She was quick to point out various civic and religious leaders seated around the room. It was an enjoyable and an inspiring evening.

Before we left we had a word or two with Rev. and Mrs. I. V. Tolbert of Waterloo, Ia. The couple with several others drove down and left for home immediately afterwards. They had with them their little son. We inquired about Mr. and Mrs. Cuba Tredwell, who were our Waterloo hosts several years ago and Mrs. Tolbert told us that the Tredwells had adopted an infant baby recently.

We enjoyed a festive ham dinner at the all-family Jack and Jill party Sunday afternoon at Willkie House, but we had to leave to go on to the Hoyt Sherman place where we attended the annual party stage show for postal employees with national

ARREST OF MISSISSIPPIS HAS TELLING AFFECT

The decent people of Philadelphia, Miss. must feel a sense of deep regret that the F.B.I. has pieced together sufficient evidence to cause the sheriff and his deputy to be arrested for crimes growing out of the murder of three civil rights workers.

It has been generally considered that the Negroes in Mississippi had little protection from the ravages of many of the white people. In fact, they have been intimidated, beaten, shot and otherwise abused. Nobody fears arrest or prosecution. And when arrested, the jury or judge often finds them not guilty or parole them.

Of course, there are many white people in Mississippi who deplore the abuse that has been and is now being handed out to the Negro. But they are in the minority, and like the bold Negro who stands up for his rights is penalized either in business, employment or socially.

Negroes have taken on courage and are trying even harder to improve their lot. They are voting more, learning more and otherwise improving their states which many white men fear challenges their states.

It will not be easy to convict these men for every trick in and out of the book will be employed to confuse the issue; jurors may consider this a fight of whites against Negroes and will side with the former.

But the very fact that somebody had the courage to run down evidence, arrest a sheriff, his deputy and a host of Ku Klux Klansmen will make others less likely to commit crimes against Negroes fearing that they too may be caught up in the net.

And eventually, somebody will go to jail for misusing others simply because they have all the power in their hands.

GOLDWATER AND BURCH
STILL GROGGY

Senator Goldwater and Dean Burch, his campaign, are evidently still too groggy to know what knocked them out on November 3. The senator states that he would study the reasons and come up with a plan of unifying the GOP.

Up until a few days ago, Senator Jack Miller of Iowa was somewhat fuzzy on whether Burch should resign as National Chairman. The senator spent a few days in Iowa last week where he had an opportunity to talk to some of his constituents and sound them out.

The senator said in an interview this week that he favored Burch's removal.

The conservatives begged for a chance to head the party and got it. They almost destroyed it, so why give them a chance to finish the job.

MORE REDICULOUS
LAWS STRUCK DOWN

The U. S. Supreme Court, in a decision handed down Monday, held unconstitutional a Florida law making it a crime for white and Negroes to occupy the same room at night. There are laws on the subject in other states but they apply to intermarriage.

Most people who know what the situation is smile when such laws are mentioned in view of the record on the subject during and after slavery.

The court has consistently struck down every law aimed at second-class citizenship for Negroes. Its position is that it does no good to emphasize the differences between the races. They tend to keep alive old situations which have produced enmity between the race.

MING SUPPORT
GROWS IN BID FOR
NAACP NATL BOARD

Chicago—Three nationally prominent NAACP leaders called on the Association's 1,700 chapters across the country to re-elect William R. Ming, Jr. to the organization's National Board of Directors.

Raymond E. Harth, president and Dr. L. H. Holman, immediate past president of the Illinois conference of NAACP chapters expressed "widespread concern at the failure of the nominating committee to nominate Attorney Ming" for reelection.

They were joined by Albert Brooks, president of the NAACP's Chicago chapter—largest in the entire nation who "heartily concurred" in the endorsement of Ming.

Congressmen
In letter sent to branch officers across the nation, Messers, Harth and Holman noted Ming's "successful defense of Dr. Martin Luther King in the Alabama tax case" and numerous responsibilities carried out as a member of the Association's National Board since 1957.

Mr. King is also of counsel in the NAACP's case seeking to eliminate 21 southern congressmen under section 2 of the 14th amendment, of the Constitution.

This clause says that states denying citizens the right to vote shall lose congressional seats in proportion to the disenfranchisement.

To Lubricate a Lock

If A LOCK becomes stiff and hard to operate, a temporary cure is available in any home in the form of a soft lead pencil. Simply rub the key until it is heavily coated with the graphite, and then turn it in the lock a few times. This treatment should make the lock work like new. Of course, you can use powdered graphite, which is available in most hardware stores. This lubricant is blown into the lock through the keyhole by squeezing the tube. The illustration appeared in The Home Craftsman.

Now that football is on its last legs basketball has begun to take over. And again we have just about every team worth rating having its quota of Negroes ranging from one to five. The polls so far show Michigan university as No. 1 but they are going to have to do something about Bradley and Indiana as both of them as tough. Then there is Minnesota who could surprise the Big Ten by winning the title.

Cage Polls

We place a little more reliance on the basketball polls than we do the football rating. This is because most of the time the top rated teams battle their way through at least one of the college tournaments around the country and prove or disprove their rating. But in football, how could any one possibly rate teams like Mississippi or Alabama over teams like Michigan, Notre Dame, or such. Those Southern teams don't ever play the best in their bowl games. They can't because of their silly state laws. As one writer put it, since those two we mentioned have produced some fine athletes who have made good records as professional players. Possibly they could prove their right to the top rating. But they never get a chance and because of that shouldn't even be considered in the polls.

In this year's All-American teams there didn't seem to be any big Negro line men who rated although we believe there were probably one or two in the Negro schools who should have been picked. Who are they? We don't know yet but as you watch pro games next fall see if a couple of names like Grambling, Florida A. & M., Prairie View don't pop up as the schools of some star rookie line men and maybe a back or two.

Classmates enjoy impromptu reunion

How long since you've enjoyed a chat with your favorite school chum? Pick up the phone tonight and have a pleasant reunion by Long Distance, Northwestern Bell.

We are becoming disenchanted with the All-American and special trophy winners that are picked each year. A boy like say Tom Vaughn of Iowa State makes it one year. The next year he is on a losing team. He is still just as good as he ever was playing his heart out on a weak team. His opponents can beat his team but they can't beat him. So he doesn't make the all star team this time although he may have played better because he had to than he played when he was chosen all star material.

And that happens to so many good players that we think a list of the outstanding players around the country should be sufficient.

3 NEGRO STARS ON
LOOK ALL AMERICA

New York—Three Negro stars have been named to the 1964 Look Magazine All America team.

The 22-man All America squad, picked by the Football Writers Association, was announced today in Look.

The three players are Gale Sayers of Kansas, Clarence Williams of Washington State and Floyd Little of Syracuse.

Sayers has few peers in "open-field speed and explosiveness," Look noted in describing the Kansas speedster.

Williams "rates as the best runner on the coast—from scrimmage, after catching a pass, or returning a punt or kickoff," the magazine declared, "but he is even stronger, possibly, as a defensive halfback against the run or the pass."

Little, the only sophomore to win All America honors this year, "is a threat to go all the way on any play," Look said, and "may rate, before he is through, with such past Orange heroes as Jim Brown and the late Ernie Davis."

SHARING

There isn't much that I can do,
But I can share my bread with you,
And I can share my joy with you,
And sometimes a sorrow, too . . .
As on our way we go.

There isn't much that I can do,
But I can sit an hour with you,
And I can share a joke with you,
And sometimes share reverses, too . . .
As on our way we go.

There isn't much that I can do,
But I can share my flowers with you,
And I can share my books with you,
And I can share my friends with you,

And sometimes share your burdens,
too . . .
As on our way we go.

There isn't much that I can do,
But I can share my songs with you,
And I can share my mirth with you,
And sometimes come and laugh with you . . .
As on our way we go.

There isn't much that I can do,
But I can share my hopes with you,
And I can share my fears with you,
And sometimes shed some tears with you . . .
As on our way we go.

There isn't much that I can do,
But I can share my friends with you,

And I can share my life with you,
And oft times share a prayer with you . . .
As on our way we go.
