Author of 'Raisin in Sun' Victim of Cancer at 34; Saw Opening of 2nd Play

New York, N.Y.—Lorraine Hansberry, whose stage play, "A Raisin in the Sun," catapulted her to literary prominence in 1959, died of cancer Tuesday at the age of 34.

Miss Hansberry had been stricken shortly before the Oct. 15 opening of her second play, "The Sign in Brunstein's Window," and was hospitalized with what publicity releases said was a rare unknown ailment. Tuesday, doctors did not disclose the cause of death, but it had been known the past several weeks she had been suffering from cancer. Miss Hansberry had left her hospital bed for the opening of her play, which was received by mixed critic reviews.

Awards

Miss Hansberry's first play, "A Raisin in the Sun," was about the conflict of segregation on a Negro family and was based on the background of the author's own hometown, Chicago.

It won for her the 1959 Drama

Circle Award as the best play of the season. The screen version won the Cannes Film Festival's special award in 1961.

The stage play which went on a road engagement after its successful Broadway showing, was also seen in Des Moines at the KRNT theater and was warmly received and highly praised.

Acceptance

Miss Hansberry's first also paved the way for acceptance of Negro works for Broadway showing. The success of her first work, is believed to have added much to the warm acceptance and success for a play, "Purly Victorious," by a professional colleague, "Ossie Davis."

Sheriffs Wait: Arrest Four For Burglary Attempt Here

Two men allegedly played a full act burglary scene to an elite audience—a group of Des Moines policemen and county sheriffs here Sunday night.

Arrested were Lewis Busch, 26, of 1222 12th street and Clifford J. Hobbs, 34, of 1132 10th street. They were taken into custody after police officers had watched as the two men pried open a window and then punched a hole in the safe at the Bavarian Haus Restaurant, 5216 E. 14th street. As the two men took money from the safe, the officials called out for them to give themselves up.

Hobbs reportedly ran. Officers fired wounding him in the left leg. He was taken to Broadlawn General hospital for treatment and was reported in fair condition. The second man, Busch, surrendered.

Polk County Sheriff Wilbur Hildreth and Deputies Eldon Lewis and George McCluskey were there, they said, because they had received a tip that the restaurant was to be burglarized.

Others

Arrested in a car as it cruised around outside were Donald Laughton Johnson, 25, of 1175 Third st., and Carrie J. Logan, 32, of 1220 Twelfth st.

All four were charged with breaking and entering.

Busch, Johnson and the Logan woman pleaded innocent when arraigned before Justice of the Peace Alvin M. Hoard. A hearing was set for Friday.

They were held in lieu of bail, $10,000 for each of the men and $1,000 for the woman.

At the time of their arrest, Hobbs and Busch had taken $1,100 from the safe, officers said.

Out on Bond

Police records show Hobbs was sentenced here in 1959 to 10 years in the State Penitentiary for taking part in a $40,000 safe robbery at the Hiland Potato Chip Co. here. He was paroled Dec. 14, 1962.

Hobbs has been free on $2,000 bond pending trial in Polk County District Court on a county attorney's information charging him with another break-in. He pleaded innocent when arraigned Dec. 1, 1964.

Busch also was awaiting District

Court trial on a breaking and entering indictment and was free on $3,000 bond.

Continuances

Busch, indicted last May 13 by the Polk County grand jury, pleaded innocent May 18. He subsequently was granted three continuances of his trial.

Police records show Busch received a five-year prison sentence in 1947 in Kansas City for burglary.

Johnson has served terms in the Polk County jail for larceny convictions.

Senator Ely Outlines Broad Rights Program At Cedar Rapids

Cedar Rapids—State Sen. John M. Ely, Jr., speaking Sunday to the Cedar Rapids chapter of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, outlined a broad civil rights program for Iowa.

Ely predicted that a commission would be created to enforce the fair employment law adopted by the last session of the state legislature. He also indicated that efforts would be made to establish a state rights commission with subpoena power and official status.

Violators

Ely visualized an expanded public facilities law to include nursing homes, barber colleges, beauty schools, beauty shops and taverns. He also suggested increasing the fines for violators to $300.

A third point he discussed was the empowering of cities and towns to establish official civil rights commissions with subpoena powers and official status.

Election

The newly-elected senator said he plans to introduce state legislation to prevent discrimination in renting and selling apartments and homes because of race or creed.

During Sunday's business meeting at the Jane Boyd Community House, Emmett Collins was elected second vice-president of the chapter. Dr. Percy Harris is president.

ROOSEVELT-BETHUNE WORLD CITIZENSHIP HONOREES

The National Council of Negro Women has initiated a series of awards known as The Eleanor Roosevelt-Mary McLeod Bethune World Citizenship Awards, honoring the memories of the two internationally respected humanitarians. The first annual presentations of the awards were made to His Excellency Alex Quaison-Sackey, President of the 1964 United Nations General Assembly and UN Ambassador from Ghana, The Honorable Edith Green, Member of the U. S. House of Representatives from Oregon, and Mrs. Daisy Lampkin, Pittsburgh, Pa., who is chairman of the NCNW's Educational Foundation.

U. S. Ambassador to the UN Adlai E. Stevenson, left photo, made presentation for Mrs. Lampkin which was received by Miss Lena Horne in Mrs. Lampkin's absence due to illness. In center, James A. Farley, Chairman of the Board, The Coca-

Cola Export Corp., and former U. S. Postmaster General, at mike, delivers citation to Ambassador Quaison-Sackey, while at right, Whitney Young, Executive Director, National Urban League, makes presentation to Mrs. Green. Awards ceremony was made during the Council's International Debutante Citizenship Cotillion at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City. The pre-Christmas social event was held as a benefit for the NCNW's campaign to erect educational memorial in honor of the late Mrs. Bethune, the Council's founder, who also founded Bethune-Cookman College at Daytona Beach, Fla. Miss Dorothy Height is NNCW president, while the Cotillion event was co-chaired by Mrs. John Mosler and Mrs. Charles Buchanan. The Coca-Cola Company, Atlanta, Ga., was a co-sponsor of the affair.

Ex-Grambling Gridders On AFL, NFL Pros

BY COLLIE J. NICHOLSON

Grambling, La. (Special) — Ex-Grambling College gridders provided substantialness for both the AFL and NFL all-pro teams as five-count 'em—former Tigers were selected on all-loop teams representing the two circuits.

Grambling was mentioned in the AFL with considerable respect as tackle Ernie Ladd, San Diego Chargers; corner back Willie Brown, Denver Broncos; and tackle Buck Buchanan, Kansas City Chiefs, generated enough zam and bam to garner top pro honors.

In the NFL, the touchdown-stopping maneuverability of veteran Willie Davis, Green Bay Packer end, earned him all-league honors for the third straight year.

Roosevelt Taylor's blinding gait and fine defensive efforts in the Chicago secondary highlighted an otherwise disastrous campaign for the Bears and landed him an all-pro berth.

REPORT RECORD YEAR FOR PHONE CO.

Northwestern Bell's report on its 1964 operations in Iowa is highlighted by a net increase of 34,000 telephones in service, an expansion and improvement program of $38 million and a $1,130,000 reduction in charges for Iowa long distance calls, according to T. S. Nurnberger, vice president and general manager of the company.

Service

Telephones served by the company, in the 227 communities in which it operates, reached 875,000, an increase of 34,000 from a year ago—the largest annual gain in all but one of the past 10 years.

Telephones in service in the Des Moines area have increased from 101,743 ten years ago to 159,157 at the end of 1964. During 1964, 6,527 telephones were added, 1,200 more than were added in 1963.

Construction

The company's construction program was by far the largest in history as $38 million was used to expand and improve the service. In addition to the facilities for the added telephones and calling, the program included the complete modernization of the telephone systems in 10 communities, stormproof lines along 2,200 miles of route and service improvements for thousands of individual customers throughout the state.

Long Distance

Beginning on Sept. 13, reduced long distance rates on calls within Iowa became effective. The lower rates were expected to save Iowa phone users $1,130,000 a year. Late in the year a reduction in interstate long distance rates to be effective February 1, 1965 and later was announced. They are expected to save Iowa users about $1 million a year.

Planned Projects

Nurnberger said the year ahead would also see significant progress. A construction program about the same as that of 1964 is planned. The largest projects under way at year end are the addition to the Des Moines 10th Street building, a new building and dial equipment center at Ames and major service modernizations at Iowa City, Sioux City and for a group of communities in Humboldt and Monona counties. Ranging in cost from $1.2 million to $5.3 million, each is expected to complete within the year he said.

CORE STARTS CLEANUP CAMPAIGN

Cedar Heights, Md.—Prince George County CORE has initiated a campaign to rehabilitate this dilapidated Negro slum which, literally, is "on the other side of the fence."

It was thus described in a recent Baltimore Sun feature article and CORE Regional Secretary Louis Smith has characterized the eight-foot high fence dividing Cedar Heights from the white community of Seat Pleasant as "another Berlin wall." Though the Seat Pleasant shopping center is only two blocks away, Cedar Heights residents have to circumvent the fence by a mile-long walk to get there. Following CORE threats of nonviolent direct action, the county commissioners presently are negotiating with CORE on plans to break through the fence.

Jehovah's Witnesses Get New Overseer

The new year means the making of new acquaintances for the Walnut Creek congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, according to Herman Aalders, presiding overseer. He announced that Harry C. Good who has been district overseer for the Witnesses in the Midwestern States for the past two years has been transferred to Ohio, and Andrew Laguna of Brooklyn, N. Y. has been assigned to this area.

"We'll meet him at Newton, when we have our semi-annual 3-day circuit assembly on Jan. 22-24," said Aalders. "We're looking forward to meeting Mrs. Laguna, who is a native of Canada. She was assigned to the full time ministry in Quebec, Canada in the 1940's when so many of Jehovah's Witnesses were arrested for exercising their right to preach freely in Canada.

Louis Cutwright, Jr. of Des Moines will address the opening session of the assembly on the subject, "Jesus and the Remnant Prove the Devil a Liar." Cutwright recently received an assistant ministerial assignment in the newly formed Walnut Creek congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses in Des Moines.

HEALTH FOR ALL

OUT OF THE FOG

Words, words, words. Thousands, millions of them have tumbled from the printing presses about cigarette smoking and its dangers. The printers are still at it. And so, sad to relate, are many smokers.

Cigarette sales did take a mild nose-dive about a year ago, after an expert advisory committee turned in its report to the U.S. Surgeon General. Its findings are well known: cigarette smokers die earlier than non-smokers; cigarettes are a major cause of chronic bronchitis and lung cancer; their use is associated with lung-crippling emphysema; and so on.

Mrs. Annie L. Bailey To High Church Office

Memphis, Tenn.—Mrs. Annie L. Bailey, of Detroit, Mich., has been consecrated to the highest office in the Women's Department of the Church of God in Christ. She is the new International Supervisor.

Mother Bailey was officially elevated to the office, on Dec. 8, 1964, during a beautiful, but tense ceremony. As Bishop O. T. Jones officiated, sounds of joyous weeping blended with the words of commission.

Mother Bailey brings to the office of General Supervisor a long history of fruitful experience. As Bishop Jones said during the ceremonies, "Mother Bailey started at the bottom and came up to the top." She once worked as a "street corner evangelist." Step by step, Mother Bailey climbed the ladder of success. Her achievements have been won over many disappointments and problems.

Habit

But such is the hold of this habit on the human body and psyche, that as yet all the publicity given the findings has brought no dramatic change. Industry reports show cigarette sales back at their earlier levels or higher. The best advice of doctors and health educators, the best intentions of many smokers, tend to get lost in a fog of cigarette smoke.

Bleak?

Is the picture altogether bleak? Serious researchers in the field say no. A number of them compared experiences and ideas during a recent meeting of the American Public Health Association, and came up with some hopeful indications.

Early setbacks are inevitable, it seems in the nationwide effort to reduce cigarette consumption. A longstanding habit of many years is hard to break. The best of books, pamphlets, classes and clinics by themselves cannot have a very successful effect on many grown-ups with such a lifelong smoking habit. A few have been helped and more practical aids are in the experimental stage.

Best Answer

But the best answer still lies in persuading young people never to start the practice—so that in the future the habit can be expected to die out.

Specific programs along these lines are being developed. And further news, especially on how to lead youngsters away from the cigarette urge, can be expected.

Plan Your Cleaning Closet

from SMALL HOMES GUIDE

A closet engineered to fit your assortment of cleaning supplies and odds-and-ends will save you time, energy and temper. Properly planned, it need take up little space.

First, plan what you want to store in the closet: vacuum cleaner, pail, mops, brooms, ironing board, table leaves, or whatever. Perhaps you will also want to use the closet for sports equipment such as fishing rods, golf clubs and guns.

Next, measure the tallest and widest item you want to store in the closet. Your vacuum cleaner will probably be the most awkward. That should fit in without any skew-hawing. Above it you can place a shelf to hold cleaning equipment—cloths, newspapers, paper bags and dust bag filters for the cleaner.

Shelves of special shapes like the L, U and the half-shelf might be the answer to how best to use the space available. The U-shaped shelves shown above hold small items; the center leaves divider for tall bottles. Vertical dividers nailed below the lower shelf will keep everything in its place.

An important point is plan to store what is most frequently used at finger-tip length with no reaching and no stretching. Adequate ventilation at top and bottom is also a must, for safety reasons. Oily mops and rags can be dangerous otherwise.

Finish the interior of the closet with a grease and dustproof finish. Glossy or semigloss paint, linoleum or oil cloth fill the order.

La Demoiselles Club Hold New Year's Eve Party

The La Demoiselles club held their New Year's eve gala festivities on Dec. 31 at the Harper House. Music was provided by James Brown on the drums and George Clinton on the piano. Various songs were sung by Gayle Ashby, Carolyn Clinton, and Edward (Babe) Holt. Ella Ruth Riffe also expounded sounds from the piano.

A comical strip-tease act was given by Patricia Johnson; a jerk demonstration was given by Miss Johnson, also and cohorts. Favors were given at the door to about 200 guests.

Members present at the dancing party were Leslie Ann Johnson, Phyllis Sharp, Nina McKee, Gayle Ashby, Jo Ann Henderson, Bobbette Brown, Darlene Cooper, Linda Hunt, Georgeann Tywater, Patricia Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barnett. Members not attending were Lynda Walker, Linda Hawkins and Joye Hawkins.

A meeting was held Jan. 10 at the home of Darlene Cooper. Plans are being made for a Valentine affair. The club also welcomes Miss Juanita Whitney as a new member.

An all damsel po-ke-mo and game party will be held Friday, Jan. 29 at the home of Nina McKee. Each member is to invite another damsel.

Joye Hawkins, a student in the Broadlawn School of Nursing, is taking a leave of absence from the club until after her graduation.

Newly appointed secretary is Bobette Brown, and newly elected assistant secretary is Nina McKee. Next meeting will be Sunday, Jan. 24 at the home of the supervisor, Mrs. Delphia Barnett, of 1638 Maple street. Phyllis Sharp is president.

The first month of the new year is fast kaleidescooping on its history-making way. Curious as we as human beings are, we often wish we knew what is just ahead in the next few days, weeks or years. But as a kind old sage of wisdom once admonished it's just as well we don't. Perhaps we couldn't muster the courage to face it.

We have often chatted over an improved model of Alexander Graham Bell's invention—with one of the Bystander's longtime readers, Mrs. Joburness Kelso. We are always intrigued by the manner in which she reports the elegant activities. She just makes your mouth water with her sumptuous description of the club's menu.

Anyway she says she saw yours truly and our youngest downtown during the pre-Christmas holidays. But she wasn't sure, as she had only met us in person on one other occasion. So after an exchange of description it turned out to be us.

We told her we understood and sympathized with her. We too have thought we knew someone, only to have the person turn out to be a complete stranger—and not always, a courteous, understanding one.

We have often been curious to know if there are any members of Zeta Phi Beta sorority in Des Moines but never have tried to find out through this column. If not in Des Moines, are there any in Iowa, who might read this column? If so will you let us know, just to satisfy a personal curiosity. Yours truly became a charter member at our alma mater, Lincoln, University at Jefferson City, Mo.

If you feel as if you are stranded at sea when you attempt to help your child with his assignment in the new math and being a conscientious parent, wanting to keep abreast, you might try tuning in to KDPS-TV, which carries program, with professors explaining and giving examples of the new math. It is really quite challenging, but not nearly as hard as you think, once you decide to forget completely, the way you were taught and approach the problems as if they are entirely new. Then too, there are some school teachers who will gladly hold sessions with you to explain what your child is learning. Of course, this depends on the school, and teacher.

What must have been a record was set recently during a noon hour game of young basketball players in a junior high gym. It seems the youngsters on one team, rebounded the ball against the back boards, some 28 consecutive times without making a basket. This really happened, we are told because the gym leader counted as each rebound effort was made.

While we are at it we would like to satisfy our curiosity about one other matter. Who was the young mother who rang the Salvation Army fund raising bell at 7th and Walnut

The names of two guests were unintentionally omitted from the list of holiday party guests of the Ten Key Club when the story was reported to the Bystander. They are George Daniels and Robert Hayes.

Wilma Lyghtner, Former Mason Citian, Visits in Calif.

Wilma Lyghtner, 4119 2nd avenue South, Minneapolis, Minn., flew to California and spent the holidays with her oldest brother, Louis Sheriffe, Jr. After a week together in Oakland, they motored to Gallup, N. Mex., to visit another brother, Maurice Sheriffe and his wife. They were met by Mrs. Jim Thomas and husband from El Paso, Tex. Highlighting the trip all the family met Mrs. William Lyghtner of Mason City, Ia., at the station.

Old-Fashioned Plaything

EVEN in this streamlined age of television and jet planes, the child of two to six enjoys a toy that's quite primitive, like a hobby horse. It makes no difference if you can't purchase one, because making one is a cinch for the proud Dad.

The only parts needed are an old broomstick, two pieces of Masonite 1/4" tempered Presdwood, a four-inch wooden or metal wheel from an old wagon, a piece of rope, and some paint—white, red and brown.

Following the diagram shown here, Dad can lay out the head pattern on the Tempered Presdwood. He will cut out two heads with a coping or jig saw and glue their screened sides together so that only the smooth faces will be exposed.

He'll select the desired length of broomstick and cut slots into which the head and wheel are bolted. After applying a prime coat of paint, he can cover the various parts with colors as shown. The youngster will thoroughly enjoy this old-fashioned plaything.

For a free plan showing other toys that can be made in the home workshop, write Home Service Bureau, Suite 2039, 111 West Washington St., Chicago 2, and ask for Drawing No.

HAM AND MUSHROOMS IN YAM RINGS

- 1 egg, slightly beaten
- 2 tablespoons milk
- 2 tablespoons butter, melted
- 2 cups mashed cooked Louisiana yams
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 cup Log Cabin Syrup
- 1-1/2 cups sliced fresh mushrooms

Combine egg, 2 tablespoons milk, and 2 tablespoons melted butter. Add to mashed yams. Mix well. Add salt, pepper, and maple-blended syrup and mix until well blended. Shape yam mixture into rings on greased baking sheet, using a pastry bag or spoon. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees Fahrenheit) 20 minutes, or until delicately browned.

Meanwhile, saute mushrooms in 3 tablespoons of butter until browned and tender. Add flour, mixing to a smooth paste. Add milk gradually, stirring constantly. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture is thickened. Add ham and heat thoroughly. Serve creamed mixture in center of each yam ring. Makes 6 servings.

MONEY COUNTS

IN RIGHTS MATTERS

The American league all-star football game, scheduled to be played in New Orleans Saturday, has been cancelled and moved to Houston, Texas because 22 Negro players walked off because of the discrimination and abusive treatment encountered in the city.

Before the game was scheduled, New Orleans officials assured the American league management that the Negro players would be treated just as the whites in New Orleans. New Orleans' sports officials have been trying to land one of the big football or baseball teams and had counted upon the showing Saturday as to just what could be done.

Joe Foss, president of the National Football League, said the men were justified in the action they took, thus backing them up in their insistence on equality of treatment both on and off the football field.

Responsible people in the South are beginning to use the services of Negroes in athletics and entertainment more and more realizing that they add to the drawing card of gate receipts. This is well illustrated by the reception given Bob Hayes of Florida A&M College, Olympic star and football player in Mobile, Ala., last week.

Many outstanding southerners are urging people of the South to adjust themselves to the civil rights law. Senator Long of Louisiana and Governor Connolly of Texas advised recently that the civil rights measure is the law of the land and should be obeyed.

Businessmen are no longer letting money slip from their hands because some people oppose integrated events. Most people, who like entertainment, want to see good performers and are not interested in the color of the participant's skin.

These incidents have a way of breaking through racial prejudice in the South just as was done in the North. They are signs of the time.

SOME STRIKES GET OUT OF CONTROL

Social workers in New York City, serving 500,000 people, have been on strike demanding higher wages and better working conditions. This is a new wrinkle in employer-employee relations in America. It was only recently that the public school teachers were on strike there.

Years ago, it was considered highly improper for public officials to strike. At least, no organized group hesitates to strike today.

The strikers in New York defied a court order when they struck placing them in an untenable position of defying the orders of the court. And, somehow, they get away with it just as public officials in the South are defying the courts in their efforts to block integration.

Two rather uncomplementary positions have arisen in connection with the strike. Here is a group comprising a large percentage of educated people and yet they could find no common ground with their employers to settle their differences around the counsel table. And second, the defiance of a court order places them in the position of mob action—an attitude which continues to gain ground in America.

Practically every group in any endeavor today has its union. Each grabs to get the most for its group without regard to what happens. And they will go to any extreme they can use to get them. In other words, we are dividing up into group action in every walk of life getting all the traffic will bear and the pressure that can be brought on the public. Most people don't like it but they are caught up in a political dynasty which takes the position that the end deserves any means to accomplish it.

Years ago, when the late President Calvin Coolidge was governor of Massachusetts, the police force in Boston went on strike. He promptly put an end to it. There has been no such in the country since. However, if the present trend continues, we may have the clergy, the courts and other strategic segments of the population striking for higher wages and better working condi-

AFL Pro-Bowl Game to Houston After 20 Negroes Refused to Play in New Orleans

New Orleans, La.—Twenty Negroes who were in the southern city to play on the American Football League's All-Star game to be played Saturday, Jan. 16, held a meeting to discuss their treatment by citizenry and businesses. They learned that all had been discriminated against by the city's taxi service, nightclubs and generally insulted on the street.

Houston

The situation demanded action and they took it. They voted not to play in the scheduled All-Star game. The move threw consternation in to this city's business and civic leaders who had negotiated to get the pro-bowl game and also into various television. The game was canceled for New Orleans on Sunday night. The next day it was announced the game would be played as scheduled but in another southern city, Houston, Tex.

The All-Star game was planned for the 82,500-seat Sugar Bowl Stadium.

There were 20 Negroes on the East and West All-Star units. Each team had a total of 29 players. The twenty-first Negro, defensive back Dick Westmoreland of the San Diego Chargers, was listed as an alternate.

Another Negro, Matt Snell of the New York Jets, was scheduled to show up as an alternate but did not come at the last moment because he faced military service.

Buffalo end Ernie Warlick acted as a spokesman for the Negro players.

He said they met at the Roosevelt Hotel—headquarters for the East team—compared notes on their treatment in New Orleans and took a vote on a walkout.

Besides Warlick and Westmoreland, the players involved are Cookie Gilchrist, Elbert Dubenion and George Byrd of Buffalo; Larry Garmon and Houston Antwine of Boston; Sherman Plunkett, and Winston Hill of New York.

Also Sid Blanks of Houston; Art Powell and Clem Daniels of Oakland; Abner Haynes, Mack Lee Hill, Julius Buchanan, Bob Bell and Dave Grayson of Kansas City; Ernie Ladd, Earl Faison and Frank Buncom of San Diego, and Willie Brown of Denver.

Galimore Named to Fla. Hall of Fame

Jacksonville, Fla. (FAMU)—Willie Lee Galimore has been posthumously named to the Florida Hall of Fame by the Florida Sports Writers Association.

The former great halfback for the Florida A&M University Rattlers and running back for the Chicago Bears pro football club became the third person from Florida A&M honored and the 24th entered in the shrine. Rattler coach Jake Gaither became the first of his race to be honored in 1962. FAMU's double Olympic gold medal winner Bob Hayes was admitted in 1963. Fred Hutchinson, former major league star pitcher and manager, was the FSWA's 25th choice.

MIAMI NORTH-SOUTH GOLF TOURNAMENT SET

Miami, Fla.—The 1965 Miami North-South Golf Tournament will be held Feb. 24-28 over the beautiful Miami Springs Golf Course, according to an announcement made this week by Richard Gardner, N-S tournament director.

The famous winter golfing event will feature championship contests in professional, and men's and women's amateur divisions as well as flighted amateur contests for men and women. Lee Elder and Joe Louis, former heavyweight champion, both of Los Angeles, are defending titleholders in the professional and men's divisions, respectively. Mrs. Myrtle Patterson Hudgins, New York City, three-time champion of the event, is the current women's titleholder.

They see others get it, why not them?

While no person should be required to work if he wishes to refuse, the tools which helped better working conditions are being abused today far out of proportion to the best interest of the country.

One doesn't really realize how many Negroes are in the two football leagues until a story such as that one about New Orleans breaks. With almost half of the teams composed of Negroes there wasn't much else to do but move the All-star game or cancel it.

People are becoming increasingly resentful over the fact that Negro athletes think as men and most of the time act as men. Negroes are prone to be thought of as simple childlike but gifted with great natural or inborn ability. As scouts call it. Then why do they have to work just as hard as the other guys to get good enough to make the various teams? Of course, the various city officials had nothing else to do but let loose with a blast that could be heard around the country.

But if the fellows had been told to expect incidents they might have avoided them by not going to some of the places they went. Well, you argue they are Negroes and as such should expect to run into unpleasant situations in the south. True, we answer. But then why were they told they had complete freedom to come and go as they pleased?

Our hat, if we had one, goes off to A.F.L. Commissioner who backed his men and was big enough to risk a financial beating for the pension plan. One doesn't run into fellows like that often. Not in these days of hypocrisy.

CHARITY

Perhaps my faith is like my race.

An accident of birth

Determined only by the place

Where first I came to earth.

So, for the faiths of every land,

Though many they may be,

If some I cannot understand,

Lord, give me charity.

The faith my fathers died to keep,

The quest for God and life,

Took them o'er mountains high and steep;

Through struggle, stress and strife,

They served their God as they knew how,

In fashion strange to me;

But if I cannot take their vow,

Lord, give me charity.

And if my neighbors go to church

To learn a different creed;

For God in other ways to search,

And seek the help they need;

Although their forms to me seem odd,

Their ways too far to see,
If through their prayers they come to God,
Lord, give me charity.
Had I been born 'neath China's skies,
To ancestors I'd pray;
Had India met my opening eyes,
I'd bow to Brahma's sway;
The creed I hold derives its plan
From where I chance to be.
So when I judge my fellow man,
Lord, give me charity.

Avoiding

Since that time the Commission has conducted further field investigations and has continued to receive reports if voting denials, and of serious and unredressed incidents of violence principally against Negroes. More recently, some indications of progress, particularly in the area of law enforcement, have come to the attention of the Commission.
