Negro History

Week To Be

February 7-14

The theme for this year's Negro History Week is "A Century of Negro Freedom 1865-1965—A Half-Century of Scientific Negro History 1915-1965," with the week of Feb. 7-14 designated for the annual observance.

C. A. Jackson, state chairman of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, said material on hand at the present time is being mailed to all donors of last year. Persons who did not make a contribution will be mailed copies on request.

Dr. King Assaulted By 'Nazi' Leader, Inside Hotel at Selma

Selma, Ala.—A fistful and kicking assault on Nobel Peace Prize winner, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., the jailing of some 67 Negroes and the use of electric cattle prods by police officers on Negroes who refused to stand in an adjacent alley to the county courthouse, highlighted the initial efforts for a massive voter registration drive here early this week.

The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King was punched and kicked by a white man Monday while he was registering as the first Negro guest of a hotel built more than a century ago by slave labor.

The attack, which came without warning, set off a brief disturbance that over turned a lamp and tingled the crystal chandelier in the lobby of Hotel Albert, a magnificent old building copied after Doge's Palace in Venice. The white man was identified as a "Nazi" party leader in the U.S.

Sheriff James G. Mark jailed more than 60 Negroes Tuesday when they refused to go through an alley entrance into the Dallas County Courthouse to apply for voter registration. "All the registration business is being done in the alley," the sheriff told the Negroes who had lined up on the sidewalk in front of the courthouse.

When the group refused to go into the alley where Negroes stood Monday while waiting to take voter tests, Clark told them they were under arrest.

Prodstick

The sheriff, armed with a club and an electric prod stick, ordered Mrs. Amelia Boynton, a Selma Negro leader, to move down the sidewalk toward the alley.

Sheriff Clark also grabbed three other civil rights workers on the sidewalk before the group of Negroes was arrested.

The three were booked on suspicion, the charge used in Alabama without specific violations alleged.

King had arrived here Monday to lead a drive against segregated public accommodations and to register Negroes to vote.

quest. Jackson said he hoped that every community in the state will set a time and hold open meetings or discussions about the history of the Negro, both past and present.

Contributions should be mailed to C. A. Jackson, P.O. Box 460, Okmulgee, Okla.

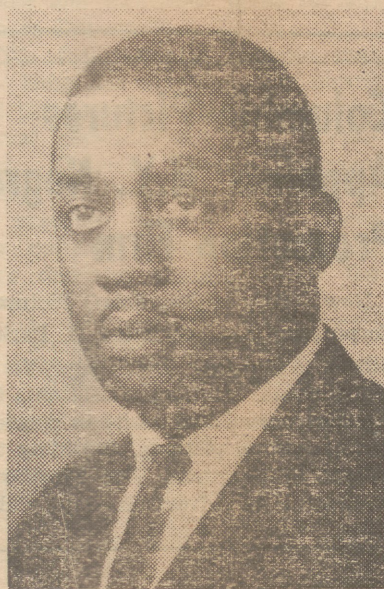

Mrs. Septima Clark to Be Honored at Public Reception Sunday; Will Speak at Youth Rally

The rally will be held at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Jan. 25 at the YWCA, 9th and High streets. Mrs. Clark will speak on the national civil rights problems, from a title, "It Isn't Enough to Talk."

Also appearing on the program will be Ernest Russell, executive secretary of the Des Moines Commission on Human Rights, and Jim Dunn, program worker at Willkie House.

Mrs. Clark also will speak next Sunday at the Y. W. during a 3 p.m.

Rainey, Deputy Arrested Again in Mississippi Rights Workers' Deaths; 14 Jailed

Meridian, Miss.—Neshoba County Sheriff Lawrence Rainey and his chief deputy were among 16 men arrested again Saturday in connection with the slaying of three civil rights workers last June.

Rainey had been anticipating arrest since noon Friday, Jan. 15 when a federal grand jury in Jackson returned two indictments charging 18 men with conspiracy to violently deprive the victims of their civil rights.

The 225-pound, tobacco-chewing sheriff and his deputy were brought before U. S. Commissioner Esther Carter here and later released on $5,750 bond each. Fourteen others were released under similar bonds.

2 Arrests Uncertain

The whereabouts of two of the 18 men indicted was not known. They are Horace Doyle Barnette, 25, who moved to Cullen, La., from his former home in Meridian, and James E. Jordan, who moved from Meridian to Gulfport, Miss., but later was believed to have moved out of state.

Barnette, according to the FBI, gave a confession in the case but its contents were never made public because Commissioner Carter ruled it was "hearsay" evidence at the December hearing.

New Name

Four men who had been included in the December round-up were not named in the new indictments.

The only new name was that of Philadelphia Patrolman Richard Andrew Willis.

The two indictments revealed for the first time a government charge that Price had held the victims in the Neshoba County Jail while the mob gathered.

Then, the indictment claims, Price and an accomplice, gas station attendant Billy Wayne Posey, 26, drove the three out of town, where Price put them in a sheriff's car and took them down a lonely road.

INEZ KAISER FIRST NEGRO NEWSPAPER WOMAN TO WIN TOP SHOE AWARD

Inez Kaiser, editor of "Fashionwise and Otherwise," a syndicated column published in Negro newspapers throughout America, won the top award presented by the National Shoe Institute to a newspaper woman. Mrs. Kaiser's entry "Shoes Comfort the Sole" was selected for the first place Golden Slipper Award, based on its comprehensive and imaginative coverage of news about footwear. She was the first Negro fashion editor to win this honor.

Mrs. Kaiser's entry was chosen as the best in the newspaper category from hundreds of entries submitted by fashion editors who attend the semi-annual Press Week sponsored by the New York Couture Group in New York. On three previous occasions the Kansas Citian has been runner-up in the contest.

The Fashion Editor received a round trip flight to Paris and London, a pereboam of vintage cham-

NEWS In A Nutshell

Jonesboro, La.—Five local young men became the first Negroes to receive library cards from the Jackson Parish Library in Jonesboro, La. Springfield, Ill.—A record number of Negro lawmakers—11—were sworn in last week as the 74th biennial session of the Illinois General Assembly got underway here. Ten Representatives—nine Democrats and one Republican—along with one Senator, mark the largest number of Negroes ever to be seated in the Illinois State Legislature for a single session.

Former SUI Cage Star Is First Negro Appointed to Iowa State Legal Position

In Nolden Genty, 27-year-old former University of Iowa basketball star, Iowa now has what is believed to be the first Negro ever to be appointed to the position of Assistant Attorney General in the history of the state.

Genty, a former law student at SUI who played some outstanding basketball for the school's team several years ago, was named to the position by Atty. Gen. Lawrence Scalise, who made the announcement Tuesday.

Genty, whose salary will be $10,000 a year, will represent the Department of Public Instruction, the Board of Social Welfare and other state agencies.

Bar Exam

Formerly of Rockford, Ill., he played basketball for the Hawkeyes in 1957-60. He took the bar examination while still in school and was an assistant city attorney for Iowa City during his senior year in law school. He was graduated last year and since has been an FBI agent in Newark, N.J.

Genty's appointment in Iowa is just a small sample of some of the political plums that are falling into the laps of well-prepared Negroes, who a generation ago would have been passed by. Just as the recent general election swept many into political offices for the first time, so have others received many top-pay-

Negro Secretary

Among other employees at the Statehouse are Mrs. Helen D. Wimberly, 2720 Amick who is tourist guide; Mary B. Johnson, 1302 13th street, who is supply clerk; Evelyn Smart Loggins, of 1160 14th street place, Chief Bill clerk.

Gov. Hughes Inaugerated; Asks for Permanent Iowa Human Rights Commission

Inauguration ceremonies for Gov. Harold E. Hughes were held on Wednesday, Jan. 13 as he began his second consecutive term as chief executive of Iowa.

The ceremonies began before a packed crowd in the House chamber as Sergeant-at-arms intoned, "Ladies and Gentlemen, The Honorable Gov. Hughes." Giving invocation for the event, was Bishop James S. Thomas, Iowa Area bishop of the Methodist church in Iowa, of which Gov. Hughes is a member. Sergeant-at-arms is Robert A. Jackson of 1450 Buchanan.

In his 45-minute inaugural address Gov. Hughes emphasized many of the points he had stated in his "state of the state" address before the joint-legislature a week earlier. In addition he also urged that a human rights commission be established and given money to hire an investigative and educational staff.

Gov. Hughes and family were in Washington, D. C. this week for the Houston—A Negro ambulance operator asked to have a new city ambulance law declared unconstitutional this week, on the grounds that it orders ambulances to be segregated. Jimmie H. Carter told a federal court the city ambulance law forbids white or Negro ambulances from going to the aid of persons of the other race, and restricts Negro ambulances to calls in Negro neighborhoods.

Asks Rights Act

Amendment for Schools

Washington, D. C.—The Massachusetts State Advisory Committee to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights today requested that the Civil Rights Act of 1964 be amended to provide technical assistance and other Federal aid to school systems "undertaking to correct racial imbalance in public schools."

The recommendation was included in Report on Racial Imbalance in the Boston Public Schools, an 80-page study by the Massachusetts group. The Committee also recommended that Federal housing officials be advised that "racial discrimination in public housing contributes to segregation in Boston public schools."

Louisiana Public Schools Must Integrate Or Lose 2,000,000 in U.S. Funds

Washington—Southern schools and colleges stand to lose millions of dollars in federal funds if they do not agree to wipe out every trace of racial discrimination.

This was the essence of a letter to colleges, universities and state boards of education recently by the United States Office of Education. The letter advised that no new funds will be available without an assurance of compliance with the civil rights legislation.

All Facilities

For the colleges this means not only open enrollment but integrated dormitories, swimming pools and college-sponsored social events.

Schools and colleges have been generally aware of this for several months. Only last week, however, did the details become clear.

While this is regarded primarily as a Southern problem, there may also be an impact on some Northern and Western schools and colleges.

Compliance

Unless they comply with the letter of the law of the 1964 civil rights legislation, the government will not support a wide range of activities.

These include the school lunch program, research grants, aid to federally impacted areas, student loans, the purchase of science equipment, adult education, classroom and dormitory construction, vocational education, library services and programs for handicapped children.

Local Boards

Local school boards, on the other hand, have been given some leeway in completing desegregation.

At the elementary and secondary school level there are three ways in which a local school board may apply for federal assistance:

- By pledging there is no racial discrimination.
- By showing they are operating under a court order to desegregate.

Other

- By filing with the commissioner of education a plan for desegregation which meets the commissioner's approval.

A spokesman for the Office of Education said last week, "no one, of course, is required to take any federal money."

"But when the Congress passed the 1964 Civil Rights law, it said in effect that the federal government will no longer subsidize racial discrimination in any form."

Will Observe National YMCA Week With Open House, Special Programs

National YMCA Week, Jan. 24 through 30, will be observed by the Des Moines Association with a week-long open house featuring special programs, which in addition to all the regular group activities will be open to the public without charge.

The week also will mark the opening of the YMCA's annual enrollment, when 200 YMCA members will be engaged in a contest to gain 1,900 members with a total membership value of $84,000. West Des Moines branch will conduct a separate enrollment but will make reports at meetings with Central workers at Central YMCA.

Open House

Opening Sunday of YMCA Week will be marked by participation with many Des Moines churches. Members and YMCA leaders will speak.

Columbia Pictures Appoints N.Y. Negro Promotion Firm

New York—Columbia Pictures Corporation has appointed D. Parke Gibson Associates, Inc., New York Negro public relations consultants to provide counsel and assist in promotion of motion pictures, according to Robert S. Ferguson, Vice President in Charge of Advertising and Publicity.

It marks the first time a motion picture company has retained Negro counsel to work on all motion pictures, and not just those with particular interest to Negro movie-goers.

Negro Stars

Columbia Pictures scheduled for 1965 release that do have Negro stars, however, include: "Major Dundee" with Brock Peters; "Synanon" with Eartha Kitt and Bernie Hamilton; "Genghis Khan" with Woody Strode; "Cat Ballou" with Nat (King) Cole; and Bedford Incident", currently in production with Oscar-award winner Sidney Poitier. Other films the Gibson firm will help promote are: "Lord Jim"; "The Collector"; "Ship of Fools"; "King Rat"; and, "Born Free".

League Supports Changes in Housing Legislation

The League of Women Voters of Des Moines supports changes in the state housing law that will obtain public housing for Des Moines, Mrs. J. Y. Foster, president, said today. The Des Moines League began a study of low income housing in 1961, and after thorough study, arrived at a consensus of its membership supporting public housing.

It is significant, said Mrs. Foster, that the Mayor's Housing Action Committee, after its own study of the problem, concluded that private groups could not solve the problems of low income housing in Des Moines and that some form of governmental assistance was necessary. Many groups which had opposed the housing referendum in 1961 are represented on this committee.

Family Gives Bishop College $250,000 Gift

Dallas, Texas—A gift from a single family Jan. 5 enriched the Building fund campaign currently in progress for Bishop college, in Dallas, Texas, by $250,000. This was announced at a campaign report meeting by the general chairman of the campaign, Carr P. Collins, Sr., who is chairman of the board of the Fidelity Union Life Insurance Co.

The gift, said Mr. Collins, was from the family of Morris Zale, who heads the huge Zale Jewelry company, largest retail jewelers in the world.

The drive has an overall goal of $1,845,000, to be used for the construction and equipping of a library and a science-mathematics building for the rapidly growing college. However, a further gift of $700,000 has been offered on the basis of a challenge from an anonymous Dallas business man—if the campaign goal is reached, the $700,000 will be given for the building of a chapel-auditorium.

Players Back Negro Stand

Houston, Tex.—The Players Association of the American Football League, in effect, gave unanimous endorsement Thursday to a decision by 21 Negro players not to compete in the league's all-star game in New Orleans.

Saturday's game between East and West squads from the league was transferred to Houston after the 21 Negroes left New Orleans after charging discrimination by some taxicab drivers and night club operators.

Future Sites
The players association asked that future sites for pre-season, all-star and any other games sponsored by the league be investigated for discriminatory practices before the game sites are chosen.
"A report on the degree of such practices should be made available to the players," the statement said.
Tom Addison, Boston linebacker and president of the association, said his group prepared the statement after conferring with 10 Negro players.
Addison said the vote by the eight-member association was unanimous.

FEDERAL JUDGE BANS SEGREGATED SCHOOLS IN SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

Springfield, Mass.—The Springfield School Committee has been ordered by U.S. District Judge George C. Sweeney "to eliminate to the fullest extent possible racial concentration in its elementary and junior high schools."

The opinion, handed down on Jan. 11 in response to a suit filed in behalf of Negro parents and children by attorneys of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, gave the School Committee until April 30 to submit a desegregation plan "within the framework of effective educational procedures, as guaranteed by their equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution."

17 Per Cent
The court stated that "the question is whether there is a constitutional duty to provide equal educational opportunities for all children... While Brown answered the question affirmatively in the context of coerced segregation, the constitutional fact—the inadequacy of segregated education—is the same in this case."

Approximately 17 per cent of the Springfield school children are Negro. The vast majority of these students attend either entirely Negro or predominantly Negro elementary and junior high schools.

Judge Sweeney further held that "it is neither just nor sensible to proscribe segregation having its basis in affirmative state action while at the same time failing to provide a remedy for segregation which grows out of discrimination in housing or other economic or social factors.

Pepper, Spice, Everything Nice Goes Into Mexican-Style Rice

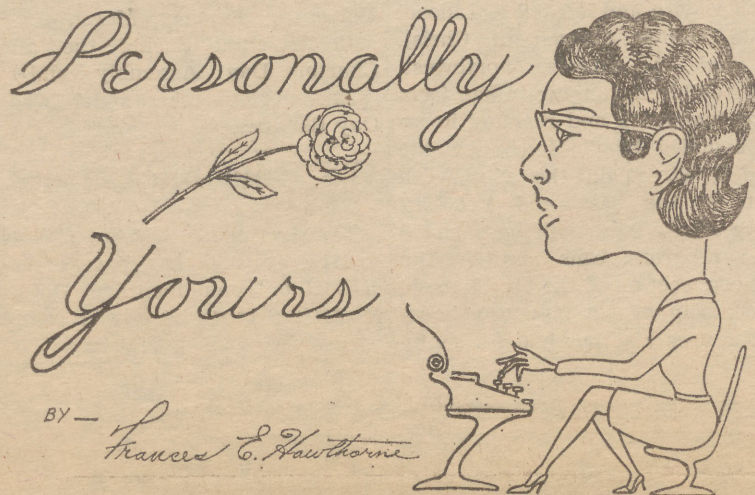

You don't have to go south of the border for this exciting dish! Chili powder and beans add the Mexican touch! Ac'cent brings out all the food flavors... wonderful too with chicken, meat, fish and vegetables. Display the filled rice ring on a platter surrounded with golden fried banana quarters. Serve along with a big salad and your favorite hot bread.

Chili Rice Mexicali

- | | |
|------------------------------------|--|
| 2 tablespoons butter or margarine | 1 (No. 2) can kidney beans |
| 1 teaspoon chili powder | 2 tomatoes, diced |
| 1 package pre-cooked rice | 1 (12-ounce) can whole kernel corn |
| 1 1/2 cups cold water | 2 tablespoons chili powder |
| 2 tablespoons vegetable shortening | salt and pepper to taste |
| 1 medium onion, sliced | 1 teaspoon Ac'cent* |
| 1 green pepper, diced | 1/2 pound sharp Cheddar cheese, grated |

Melt butter or margarine; blend in the 1 teaspoon chili powder. Add rice and cold water. Bring to a full boil, fluffing rice occasionally with fork. Boil 20 minutes. Remove from heat; cover, let stand 10 minutes. Meanwhile, melt shortening; cook onion and green pepper in shortening until soft but not brown. Add beans, tomatoes, corn and seasonings; mix well. Add cheese; stir over low heat until cheese melts. Pack rice into ring mold; invert on platter and fill center with bean mixture. Serves 6.

Now that we Iowans have been spurred to new fervor by the first real snowfall of the season, we can settle back and relax our way into the next few weeks by checking our individual plans for yard and garden beauty with the various issues of flower and garden magazines and catalogs.

We had a note from Mrs. Theresa Simmons, Bystander correspondent from Fort Dodge, telling us: "I have enjoyed sending in the news for Fort Dodge, so much, although I am inexperienced. Miss Earnestine Benson would like to be reporter for Fort Dodge. I think she is a very nice person. She goes to high school here."

And hard on the heels of Mrs. Simmons letter came one from Miss Benson. We are sorry to lose Mrs. Simmons who has been so competent and prompt with her news, but we do welcome her successor and wish her good luck.

Our attention was called to mix-up in stories for the La Femme club and the Daughters of Des Moines. We are sorry for the sentences which somehow got crossed up. It made for misleading information regarding the two clubs.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Jones, 1512 Guthrie avenue, became parents of a baby daughter, born Monday at Iowa Methodist hospital. Mother and newborn are doing fine.

In a few weeks the Bystander and Morris & Morris law offices will be moved to newly remodeled location—on the first floor level of quarters in the same block. Watch this newspaper for the announcement.

February, the upcoming month will be crowded as usual with national holidays and special weeks and birthdays of famous men and women.

One of the main ones of course, is Negro History Week, which is Feb. 7-14. As a prelude to the week, the life of Frederick Douglass, the great orator and Negro leader-statesman, will be portrayed on the television series, "Profiles in Courage," over the NBC network on Sunday, Jan. 31.

"Scope," the weekly newsmagazine published for and circulated through the nation's junior and senior high school, featured a front cover of the projected program and inside there are three pages of stories and pictures, plus an additional story on

INDUSTRY IN IOWA

Iowa has fared poorly for years in the distribution of U.S. government contracts. Texas, California and Florida have fared exceedingly well. Some other states, east and south, likewise.

There are projects which naturally fare better in some of these states because of weather conditions and location near the sea. For this reason, projects not depending on these conditions and which might well be located in northern states, should not be sent south and west.

As a result of the concentration of projects in the south and west, many people have gone from Iowa and less favored states to other areas. And the favored areas have improved tremendously.

Governor Hughes is collaborating with other midwest governors in an effort to secure more government spending in this area. It is an excellent move and should be aided vigorously by everyone who can help in any way.

After all, every state pays a share of the taxes for the upkeep of the government without regard to which party is governing it. Thus it is only fair that each receives a decent share of the money spent by the federal government which can be parcelled out to them equitably if the administration desires.

But after all much of the allocation of funds is done by wire pulling. It's up to the fellow who scratches hardest who gets the eggs.

FOR REPUBLICANS

Dean Burch, chairman of the Republican National Committee, has agreed to resign his office April 1. He will be succeeded by Ray C. Bliss, who has been the successful state chairman of Ohio for several years and is recognized as an able political leader.

Since the Nov. 3 election, calls from every part of the country have demanded Burch's replacement. Even some ardent Gold-water supporters such as former Rep. Jensen of Iowa, said he must go. Burch himself came to realize that even though he got a majority vote at the National Committee meeting this month, his position would be untenable because of the strong opposition to his remaining as chairman.

Republican members in the lower house of Congress replaced Representative Halleck of Indiana by Representative Ford of Michigan as minority leader and was critical of Representative Arends as minority whip. And while Senator Dirksen of Illinois remains as minority leader, much criticism has been directed toward Republicans in Congress because many of them collaborated with Dixiecrats in blocking democratic administration measures. Some received favors from the Dixiecrats which have done the party no good.

The first chrystellized opposition to Burch came from the Republican Governors conference. On the other hand, Gold-water strength was in Congress where a hard core of Republicans who succeeded in electing themselves but defeated others, moved to the right gambling that enough people were disgruntled with liberal trends to call a halt. They failed.

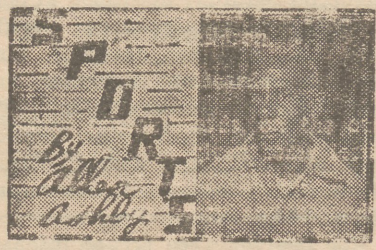

Disposal of Burch and his type of thinkers as leaders of the Republicans will do much to help unite its forces. Of course the Republican party will not dispel them nor has the Democrat party expelled a lot of Dixiecrats at heart but who remained loyal to the party.

LOW INCOME
GROUP TO PROFIT

Writing in the Des Moines Register Sunday, Roy Wilkins, Secretary of the NAACP, reminded his readers that low income families would benefit most by the anti-poverty program because they were those who have been denied the opportunity to move ahead as the upper income class.

This, of course, means that

Negroes will share in the program far out of proportion to the whole population. It is not his fault but that of those who have denied him what the country offered the whole population but gave to the favored ones.

The football season finally got out of the way so basketball could really take over. Now that you have seen the two leagues, do you think the American football league would have a good chance against the National? That question will become increasingly hot as the next two years roll by. We certainly would like to be around to see that game.

Basketball

Guess Iowa has the best college basketball team in the state. We thought the Hawks would get tougher as the season wore on but we didn't think they would jell this soon. This last Indiana game may be the spark that starts a good team on a winning streak.

Drake just can't seem to get off the ground. The pool hall coaches say the Drake coach isn't using his best lineup. That was said of the Iowa coach last year too. But this Miller guy plays them as he needs them regardless of who they are. We thought Bradley might win the Missouri Valley but now we are not so sure. However, having committed ourselves, we will go down with Bradley.

Chicago Preps

The Chicago boys from Carver, Marshall and Du Sable high schools are beginning to show up around the country. Probably the most famous of all is Michigan's Cazzie Russell, a Marshall high grad. Northwestern says they have one who would be as good as Russell if he had two good legs. They even argue that the guy may be yet even on one leg. He is Eddie Pitts, a Carver man. There is one at Iowa also. And everywhere they go they seem to carry good grades.

Eastern Boy

The latest high school boy is a fellow out east named Alcindor. They say he is seven feet tall and still growing. Has been known to double up opponents and stuff them through the basket if they won't let go of the ball. But the best part is that the guy is a real brain and could pass just about any college test.

Reports have it that the kid is so closely guarded that you have to have a password just to walk past his house. He will make some college coach into a great one.

Golf

Hats off to Charlie Sifford who won $1,200 in the San Diego meet over the weekend. This could be Charlie's year. Maybe Arthur Ashe's year in Tennis, too.

Writers are still throwing rocks at boxing and ex-heavyweight champ Sonny Liston gives them some rocks to throw. We would like to see a rematch between Sonny and the champion but we just don't see how it could be arranged through jail house bars. In spite of Liston's antics, we can't think much of the coming title fight for the W.B.A. version of the heavyweight crown between Eddie Machen and Ernest Terrell. That reminds us of the time when Joe Louis was heavyweight boss and a couple of Negroes fought down in Texas for the Negro heavyweight title. They must have booted Joe out of the race. But it was good for a laugh.

Everytime we read about Sugar Ray Robinson we wish he would quit. Why does he keep on? IS it money? Could be. Fame and prestige? Robinson has had probably as much of those things as anybody. Then why? Maybe you can answer it. We can't.

Iowa-Born G. Hopkins Voted
Tucson's 'Athlete of Year'

Tucson, Arizona—Gayle Hopkins, whose fabulous jumping ability carried him as far as Tokyo in one direction and to West Africa in the other direction, is Tucson's Athlete-of-the-Year for 1964. He topped selections in a year-end poll conducted by the Arizona Daily Star.

"Hoppy," the University of Arizona's athletic star from Davenport, Iowa, put together one of the world's greatest broad jumping performances this year. His NCAA record-breaking leap of 26 feet 9 1/4 inches still stands today as the third longest broad jump in the world history of the event. Only Ralph Boston of the United States and Igor Ter-Ovanyan of Russia have jumped further.

Quarterback

Hopkins, a slender, but heavily muscled youth, came to the University of Arizona from Trinidad, Colo., Junior College where he was a quarterback and fullback. He came to Arizona thinking he would try out for quarterback.

"But that was when they had 13 quarterback on the squad and Eddie Wilson was one of them," Hoppy recalls. "Instead I concentrated on track."

Beginning

From that start under Coach Carl Cooper, the Iowan began an already fabled career. He hit the national headlines in the Drake Relays when he broke Jesse Owens' 29-year-old record by sailing 26 feet, 2 inches. Then he set another Drake record by winning the triple jump at 51 feet 8 inches.

At the NCAA championships Hoppy got off the world's third greatest leap—26-9 1/4—and he was on the way to the Olympic Trials. In the semi-final trials in New York he qualified easily by leaping 26-2 1/4. But in Olympic Games in Japan Hoppy failed to make the grade on a wet day. A week later in a three-way meet with Japan and the British Commonwealth in Osaka, Hopkins won the broad jump at 26-4 1/4—a distance that would have won him the silver medal in the Olympics.

Double Win

Hopkins also can look back on his remarkable double win in the U.S. Track and Field Federation championships when he broad jumped 25-5 and triple jumped 50-6 1/4.

Hopkins returned home soon after a six-weeks tour for the U. S. State Department to West Africa where he taught track and field. He enrolled at the University of Arizona the second semester and will work-out all spring with the Wildcat track squad. He is scheduled to compete in several indoor meets and he'll be wearing the uniform of the Pasadena Athletic Club, his new sponsor.

Speaks in Iowa

Hopkins recently was the guest of honor at a dinner at Hotel Blackhawk. He spoke to Central High School boys during the day.

Attending the dinner was Roger Berry of Central who was Hopkins' principal at old Davenport High School, his former coaches, and members of the Lettermen's Club.

He was introduced at the Central-Moline basketball game Friday night in Marshall gym.

HEALTH FOR ALL

WINTERY WOES

It's hardly surprising that the rate of acute respiratory diseases ailments of the breathing system) rises in the winter. Windy gusts, cold and stormy weather cause many people whose resistance is low to "catch cold". And people are apt to be lavish about sharing with others the coughs and colds they "catch". By the time discomfort (or good sense) makes you stay home with your coughs and sneezes, you may well have passed out generous samples of germs to others with whom you've been in contact.

No Cure

There is no cure for the common cold, but there are sensible precautions to observe, and there are ways to alleviate distress. Bed rest is desirable; if there is a fever, it's a "must". In any case, plenty of rest will help. A large amount of fluids are a good idea. The use of a vaporizer to restore moisture to the air in your room (winter heating often dries the air) will provide some comfort.

"Baby It?"

Why should you "baby" a cold when you don't really feel that sick? For several good reasons. A public-spirited one is to keep the infection to yourself until it has run its course. A sensibly selfish one is to keep your minor infection from jumping its tracks and becoming something more serious. Complications—like bronchitis or pneumonia—can result from a neglected illness of the breathing apparatus that didn't seem serious in itself.

Temperature

Call the doctor if your temperature is above normal, or if your throat is painful or your chest hurts. If a cough develops and hangs on after the symptoms of cold have cleared up, it may mean that you have a more serious respiratory disease. (An informative leaflet, "Chronic Cough and Shortness of Breath—The Facts", has been published by the National Tuberculosis

"IF"

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowances for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies
Or being hated, don't give away to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise;
If you can dream—and not make your dreams your master;
If you can think—and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two imposters just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools:

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch—and toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on where there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold On!"

If you can talk to crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings—nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving Friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds worth of distance run
Yours is the Earth and Everything that's in it,
And—which is more—You'll be a Man, My Son."
