Maddox Cafe Capitulates After $200 a-Day Fine; Puts Business Up for Sale

Atlanta, Ga.—U.S. District Judge Frank A. Hooper held Lester Maddox, avowed segregationist, who fought a losing battle to keep his restaurant segregated, in civil contempt. It was the first such ruling handed down under the Civil Rights Act.

Maddox, who had been found in contempt Friday and fined $200 each day that he kept Negroes from entering his restaurant, announced to a packed, tearful clientele of his restaurant that he would open his cafeteria to Negroes. He also asked them not to make trouble for Judge Hooper who handed down the ruling.

Maddox, who had laid in a supply of ax handles after the passage of the Civil Rights Act, autographed them and sold them to his clientele. There was no effort made by Negroes Saturday to obtain service at the restaurant. But Sunday a lone Negro appeared and sought service. Maddox met him at the door and told him the restaurant was closed. He then closed the door and put up a sign which said: "Closed. Out of business resulting from an act passed by the U.S. Congress, signed by President Johnson and inspired and supported by deadly and bloody Communism."

Asked what he would do now, Maddox said "I'm going to travel across the South to areas under invasion by Communists—and continue my fight." He said his cafeteria was worth "a half million dollars."

PRESIDENT JOHNSON APPOINTS DR. A. BRIMMER

Washington, D.C.—President Lyndon B. Johnson last Friday appointed Dr. Andrew F. Brimmer as Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Economic Affairs.

Dr. Brimmer becomes the first Negro to hold this position in the Department of Commerce. He has been serving as Deputy Assistant Secretary of Commerce since May 1963. One of his major responsibilities in this position has been the preparation of the Commerce Department's testimony supporting the Public Accommodations Section of the Civil Rights Act.

350 Hear Speakers Relate How Civil Rights Agencies Work to Resolve Complaints

Two federal government consultants and four human rights officials from four states served as resource persons at a day-long human relations conference at Hotel Savery Saturday.

Main emphasis of the sessions was to show how a human relations commission works, what recourse a complaint may have with federal agencies and to indicate the experiences of human rights groups, state or city, already in existence.

Keynote

Samuel J. Simmons, director of Field activities of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, gave the keynote address to 10:30 a.m. crowded Terrace room audience of educators, religious, civic and civil rights, who came from all over Iowa and several surrounding states.

All Branches

"In regards to eradicating discrimination Simmons declared, "for the first time all three branches of government are committed to affirmative action."

Referring to the U.S. Civil Rights Act, he stated, "There are signs that the act not only will have impact on all southern states but on northern states like Michigan, Iowa and Minnesota."

Proposed Law

Donald E. Boles, chairman of the Iowa Governor's Commission on Human Rights, the sponsoring group, presided over the morning sessions. Boles also explained the proposed legislation for Iowa.

Deltas Select Omaha for Major Negro History Library

Washington, D. C.—One of the major public library collection of books on Negro life and history in the midwest will be established in Omaha, Nebraska this year by a grant from Delta Sigma Theta, national women's public service organization.

Announcement of the new "Delta Collection" was made in Washington trative positions in Philadelphia's city government since 1952, and before that operated her own business in that city.

In her new position, she will administer the affairs of the 35,000 member organization with 277 undergraduate and alumnae chapters in the United States and overseas from the sorority's headquarters building at 1814 M Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

Selection

The grant resulted from Delta Sigma Theta's drive to "place books by Negroes and about them on shelves of libraries" across the country. The midwest was selected as the site because major Negro library collections already exist in the east and far west. In addition to the grant by the national organization, each of its 277 chapters are planning to contribute collections of books and periodicals on the Negro to their local libraries.

"We hope that these library collections will help correct the lack of understanding by the average American child and adult on the place of the Negro in American history and destroy myths and stereotypes that haunt the life of the American Negro and the American White," said Dr. Woods.

Great Interest

She said that Omaha had been selected as a result of the great interest in the project by Mr. Gibson and the Board of Trustees of the Omaha Public Library and a wide range of community leaders and organizations. The Omaha chapter of the sorority had contributed greatly to the planning, she stated.

Mr. Gibson was presented a check for $1,700 Feb. 5 by Miss Allene Joyce Tookes, executive director of Delta Sigma Theta, as the initial installment toward the purchase of 1,000 books relating to the Negro in the area of history, education, sociology, politics, literature, biography, religion, art and children's books.

Pledge Emphasis on U.S. Political Action This Year

New York—The major emphasis of the civil rights movement in 1965 will be on political action.

Agreement upon this goal was reached during a two-day conference here, Jan. 30-31, on the "State of the Race," called by A. Philip Randolph and attended by 45 Negro leaders representing 26 civil rights, church, labor and fraternal organizations.

News Conference

Announcement of the 1965 program of accelerated political action and political education was made by Mr. Randolph during a news conference at the Interchurch Center where the sessions were held. Joining Mr. Randolph in the news conference were NAACP Executive Director Roy Wilkins; Whitney Young, Jr., executive director, National Urban League; George Wiley, associate national director, Congress of Racial Equality; Miss Dorothy Height, president, National Council of Negro Women; James Forman, executive secretary, Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee; and John Lewis, deputy exalted ruler, Improved, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the World.

The Rev. Andrew Young, representing the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, attended the sessions and concurred in the principles of the statement but, before the press conference, returned to Selma, Ala., where he is assisting Dr. Martin Luther King in the voter registration drive.

New Climate

The Conference recognized that the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Economic Opportunity Act make possible a new climate in which the first responsibility of civil rights groups is to consolidate the political consciousness of Negro Americans gained through the effective use of their vote in the 1964 Presidential campaign. Of equal importance is their responsibility for undertaking an intensive educational campaign to acquaint Negroes with their rights and expand opportunities under the new legislation. It is a fact that, despite its gains, the Negro community is still faced with the crushing burden of disproportionate unemployment, low wages, inadequate and segregated education, police brutality, the miseries of slum living and continued stubborn resistance to the right to vote.

National Alumni Council of UNCF Holds 19th Annual Conference in Dallas, Texas

Dallas, Texas — The National Alumni Council of the United Negro College Fund climaxed its 19th annual conference with a dance and banquet Feb. 6, in the Dallas Statler Hilton.

Carr P. Collins, chairman of the board of Fidelity Union Life Insurance Company, was banquet speaker. In his address geared to the conference theme, "The Impact of the United Negro College Fund in a Changing Society", Mr. Collins stressed the need for a stepped-up program to strengthen and expand the Fund's member colleges.

The Mayor of the City of Dallas extended the conference welcome at the opening conference on Friday. Dr. Hollis F. Price, president of LeMoyne College, Memphis, Tennessee, delivered the keynote address.

The United Negro College Fund conducts a nation-wide appeal on behalf of its 33 independent, accredited, southern colleges and universities each year. Alumni and students on UNCF campuses take an active part in the annual campaigns. The National Alumni Council Conference is held on a college campus or in a different city each year to explore ways and means of improving alumni participation in UNCF appeals.

The program, in which Harry and Dinah sing in nine languages, is a tribute to the Peace Corps. The show was Harry's original idea. He is a member of President Johnson's Advisory Committee for the Peace Corps and he has traveled at his own expense to many lands in this capacity.

The TV program to be aired Feb. 15 was taped a few days ago in New York. Dinah came east from Hollywood to do the show as a courtesy to Belafonte because he lives in New York. Her other programs this year have emanated from Los Angeles.

5 Hard Pressed Negro Farmers Among First 11 Get USDA Loans Under Anti-Poverty Program

Washington, D. C. — Five hard pressed Negro farmers whose mortgaged farms were about to be lost have been rescued and placed on the road to better living through loans from the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Farmers Home Administration under provisions of President Johnson's War on Poverty Programs.

The five are: Jesse B. Davis, Long Branch, Texas; Jesse Eaddy, Effingham, S. C.; Ernest E. Lawton, Hammon, N. J.; Miss Lois Mae Reid, Griffin, Ga.; and Elton Wilder, Carthage, Miss.

These farmers were among the first of 11 rural persons to receive such loans under the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964 which includes a rural credit service with $35 million in Federal lending funds. By last week, the total number of borrowers — of whom about half are colored — had reached 258. Forty-eight of the borrowers obtained loans to establish or improve business enterprises such as barber and beauty shops, television repair and shoe shops.

During Lincoln's early manhood, he made a trip down the Mississippi river on a flat bottom boat where he gained his first contact with slavery. So incensed over what he saw that in one of his memorable statements he said "If I ever get a chance to hit that thing, I will hit it hard."

The upsurge for civil rights and equality of opportunity in every corner of the nation is a fulfillment of the admonition Lincoln gave at Gettysburg that the living should finish the work started by the dead.

Pineapple Cereal Cheese Cake

Pineapple Cheese Cake with Crunchy Cereal Crust solves the dilemma of the hostess who wants a dessert for evening refreshments that is filling, satisfying, but not too sweet. The crispy texture of the wheat and barley kernels makes a pleasing combination with the soft, pineapple-flavored filling. Breakfast cereals are excellent for ingredient use in recipes, because they are inexpensive, add flavor and texture, and make important nutritional contributions of protein, the B-complex vitamins, minerals.

PINEAPPLE CEREAL CHEESE CAKE

Wheat and Barley Kernel Crust
2 cups ground wheat and 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon barley kernels 1/2 cup melted butter or 1/2 cup sugar margarine

Combine ground wheat and barley kernels, sugar, cinnamon, and melted butter or margarine. Mix thoroughly. Press 2/3 of mixture into bottom of 9-inch spring form pan. Reserve remaining crumbs for decorating top of cheese cake.

Filling

2 envelopes unflavored 1 (8 ounces) package cream cheese gelatin 2 teaspoons grated lemon rind,
1/2 cup cold water optional
2 beaten eggs 1 cup well-drained crushed
1 1/4 cups sugar canned pineapple
1 teaspoon salt 2 cups small-curd dry cottage
1/2 cup milk cheese
2 teaspoons vanilla 1 cup heavy cream
1/2 cup pineapple juice

Soften gelatin in cold water. Combine eggs, sugar, salt, and milk in top of double boiler. Cook over hot water, stirring constantly, until mixture coats a metal spoon. Remove from heat. Add gelatin; stir until dissolved. Cool. Add vanilla and pineapple juice to cream cheese; stir until smooth. Blend in lemon rind, pineapple and cottage cheese. Whip cream and fold into mixture. Pour into crumb lined spring form pan. Sprinkle top with reserved crumbs. Chill overnight. Garnish. Yield: 12 servings or fills one 9-inch spring form pan.

PAULINE B. HUMPHREY, Manager

After an easy pre-Christmas winter, the first months of the new year have made up for the lack and have hit Iowa and surrounding states with everything it can muster.

The more serious of Iowa's two ice storms through the city into a cold torpor. Yours truly, who ordinarily listens religiously to the morning news, was diverted Tuesday morning, and was about to send the youngsters off to their daily desks when the phone rang, and the message from a P.T.A. friend, advised us what the elements had wreaked during the sleeping hours of the night.

The civil rights conference held at Hotel Savery last Saturday was one of the most well planned and well-attended ones held here in recent months. It also boasted some speakers who not only are well-informed on their field, but had an ability to impart that knowledge.

When we arrived shortly after dropping our youngest son off at his Saturday morning science class at Warren Harding junior high, we were surprised at the large crowd, some nearly 300 already assembled.

We met for the first time Mrs. Anna Mae Weems of Waterloo, Ia., one of the top community leaders in her city who introduced us to Harris Ceaser, who is just venturing into the journalism publishing paper with his tabloid weekly, the Waterloo Defender.

In addition a former high schoolmate, Herbert Pearl, now living in Davenport, Ia., came up and introduced himself. In the brief moments we reviewed the past 20 years; we learned that he and his high school sweetheart-wife, the former Bessie Wommack, are now proud parents of a son, Herbert, Jr., 18; a daughter, Serenda, 12; another son, Gary 6, and another daughter, 5.

Mr. Pearl introduced two others in the Davenport delegation, who included Charles Toney, president of the Catholic Interracial Council and Powell Owens who is human relations chairman of the Quad-cities Federation of Labor, AFL-CIO.

Spotting a lady with a Mississippi tag, we inquired and learned she was from Holly Springs, Miss., and is a sociology teacher at Rust College. At first there was some mix-up as to what school she was presently visiting, but we straightened it out and she was representing Rust College at the University of Iowa in Iowa City and had come down on the invitation of a Chinese graduate student, whose name, alas we did not get.

Because of the local interest in the President Johnson inauguration we had been anxious to get an interview with Mrs. Willie S. Glanton who with her husband, Judge Luther T. Glanton, attended four days of the festivities.

When the Glantons left Mrs. Glanton, now an Iowa legislator, said she was close to being incapacitated by the flu and upon their arrival Sunday night in Washington, D. C., went to bed, and not to the lavish party given by Congressman

RIGHTS MEETING
EVIDENCED INTEREST

Saturday, the Iowa Commission on Human Rights in cooperation with local groups, sponsored a meeting on the operation of the 1964 Civil Rights Law and its relation to local civil rights and fair employment measures.

The committee did an excellent job in its presentation of material and speakers. However, the most interesting aspect was the widespread attendance. About 300 people were present.

The attendance was particularly encouraging in that it evidenced a wide interest in human rights today. Thirty years ago, no such audience would have assembled at a meeting with human rights as the topic. But people realize more today its importance to the whole American economy.

As one person who had worked in the human rights field for many years said, this attendance indicates that the struggle of years gone by are paying off in increased interest and far more results than could be foreseen a few years ago.

SOUTHEAST ASIA

A TOUGH PROBLEM

America has committed itself to preventing the spread of Communism in Southeast Asia. It has promised to help free nations maintain their freedom. That's why our men and weapons are there today.

Ostensibly, our forces are there to train the Vietnamese people in the use of modern weapons much of which we have supplied. But in spite of this claim, the very fact that our troops and weapons are in this war zone, for whatever purpose, subjects them to be shot at, killed and wounded as was done over the weekend. The latest casualties came in a surprise raid by North Vietnamese which caught our forces off guard and inflicted heavy damage on lives and property.

Several high American officials have made recent surveys for President Johnson of the situation in southeast Asia. Their findings have produced little in coping with the situation. It is unfortunate that we are stuck with this problem which may get a lot worse before it is better.

LINCOLN AND DOUGLAS

Abraham Lincoln was born February 12, 1809. We celebrate that day Friday. Every year we learn something new about what he said and did.

It is said that during a stroll through the white house lawn, a man walked in front of him and as he darted through the hedge, caught his feet and fell to the ground. As he got up Lincoln was standing close by. He shouted to Lincoln, "a southerner cannot walk in Washington without being knocked to the ground," to which Lincoln replied, "The fellow who is doing the blocking is within you."

It was a homely remark putting his finger on the complaints of some people who are quick to gripe about their ills of which they themselves are the architects.

Fred Douglas, who ran away from slavery and later bought his freedom, was a contemporary of Lincoln, contributing immeasurably to the anti-slavery movement and the solution of problems of reconstruction following the Civil War. His birthday is celebrated during the same month as that of Lincoln.

The work they did in the field of human rights continues to bear fruit, as Negroes elevate themselves in all fields of endeavor which this country has to offer and more people join the ranks of those working for an even better status of all of its citizens.

Jackson, Miss.—Plans to raise one million dollars for the legal defense of 16 men indicted in the summer lynching of three civil rights workers, James Chaney, Andrew Goodman and Michael Schwerner have been revealed.

Hawks Fail to Topple Mich.;
Lose to Big Ten Leaders, 81-66

Ann Arbor, Mich.—The Iowa Hawkeyes' bid to knock the Michigan Wolverines from their No. 1 perch in the nation failed as the top basketball squad shot an incredible 60 per cent, thwarting the Iowans by a score of 81-66.

The Hawkeyes went into the game with four consecutive wins to their credit including toppling U.C.-L.A. from the top spot. The Hawks started off in the first nine minutes as if they meant business. They were leading by a margin of 20-15 when the Hawks went stone cold. More than eight minutes passed before the Hawks were able to score. And during this cold, dry spell, the Michigan Wolverines were making hay—19 baskets in all, surging from their trailing deficit to an almost indomitable lead of 32-20.

Valiant Hawks

The Hawkeyes, who never say die, valiantly fought to the end. At times they pulled to within eight points of the Wolverines who have won five straight conference games. But as they came in sight of the front-runners, they were turn-aside by All-American Cassie Russell and company. Russell and Bill Buntin of Iowa scored 19 points each. Jerry Jones, a former high school teammate of Russell at Carver high in Chicago, outscored everybody with 26 points.

George Peoples who has an average of 15 was held to 13 points. Russell fell far below his average of 28.4.

HEALTH FOR ALL

WHATEVER BECAME OF

BREAKFAST?

If you have teenagers in your house, it's probably no news to you that breakfast nowadays has become the most ignored meal of the day. Your son would rather take that extra twenty minutes in a frantic attempt to erase the fatigue of last night's cram session. Your daughter would rather use it to comb out the curls produced by last night's session with the rollers.

As for you, when you aren't engaged in a desperate search for sneakers, lunch money, signed permission slips, all involved in getting young people off to school on time, you may wonder vaguely, "Whatever became of breakfast?"

Perhaps you collapse wearily with a cup of coffee after the early morning hubbub is over. Perhaps you feel guilty because you couldn't get the children to "sit down to breakfast" before they left. Maybe you managed to get a glass of milk and a sugar bun into one of them. If so, give yourself a blue star for the day.

The fact is, a large majority of young people in the crucial health years—of body growth, greater strains and pressures, less sleep and more study—either eat a scanty breakfast, or ignore it altogether these days. Yet at no time in their lives are they in greater need of a substantial, balanced breakfast with a good protein base. It can mean the difference between a good day, better grades, a happier outlook on life, and the ability to "last out" the day . . . or the opposite.

Your Christmas Seal association suggests that a little preparation the night before may help—like setting the breakfast table, and laying out those things that don't require refrigeration—dry cereal, jams or marmalades, waffle syrup, etc.

The time factor? Set the alarm a little earlier—and the radio to their favorite music!

Bills Introduced By GOP Senators

While the Johnson Administration has been filling the airways with a State-of-the-Union Message, an Inauguration speech, and other messages to Congress, Republican Senators have been quietly introducing legislative programs in a wide variety of fields which, without benefit of a White House forum and free prime television time, may not be widely publicized. In order to provide a handy list to show the extent of Senate Republican activity and the efforts being made to provide the country with constructive plans of action, we are listing the following:

S. 15 by Senator Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania: to increase to $2400 the amount a Social Security recipient could earn annually without losing Social Security payments. The present amount is $1200.

S. 50 by Senator Milton Young of North Dakota: to provide federal cost sharing for needed reservoir projects under the Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act.

S. 56 also by Senator Young: to provide aid for the construction of Indiana educational facilities.

S. 180 by Senator Milard Simpson

Emlen Tunnel Named
First Negro Pro-Grid
Coach in NFL League

New York, N. Y.—Emlen Tunnel, former college football great at the University of Iowa, last week became the first of his race to be named coach in the National Football League.

Tunnell was named among two defensive coaches for the New York Giants. Also named was Pop Ivy, former head coach in three pro leagues.

Tunnell, former Giant and Green Bay defensive back and more recently a scout, will be Ivy's assistant, concentrating on the defensive backs.

Tunnell, a former Iowa star, played with the Giants from 1948 through 1958 and with Green Bay from 1959 through 1961. He became a scout for both the Giants and Packers in 1962 and 1963.

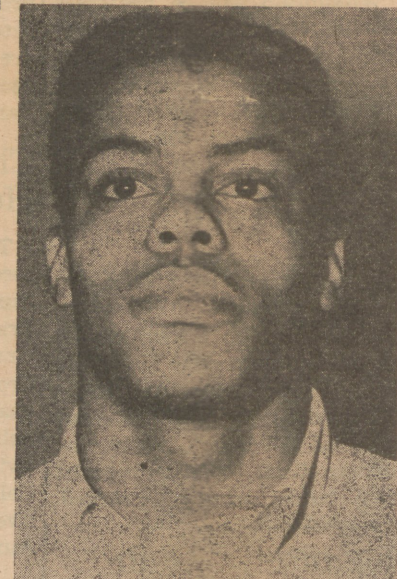

Last year he scouted for the Giants after serving as a coach in training camp.

TO LINCOLN

Out of a lowly cabin,
After a humble start,
You carved your name forever
Deep in your country's heart.
Vision and love of freedom
Burned in your stalwart breasts;
Love for your fellow mortals,
Freedom for all oppressed.
Lincoln—it is your birthday.
E'en though your day has sped,
You are a mighty beacon
Lighting the road ahead.
—Nick Kenny, in N.Y. Daily Mirror.

Clyde Duncan Comes
In Second in Indoor
Dash Effort in N. Mex.

Albuquerque, N. M.—Clyde Duncan, former North high sprinter who made track history in Iowa last year, came second to Bernie Rivers of New Mexico Saturday night in the 60-yard pass at the Albuquerque Invitational indoor track meet.

DUNCAN

Duncan, who now attends Texas Southern University, was timed in 6.2 seconds—one-tenth behind Rivers.

Gayle Hopkins of Davenport, Ia., finished third in the long jump. Ralph Boston of the Southern California Striders won with a leap of 25 feet 8½ inches and beat Hopkins' record in the process.

Hopkins, now a member of the Pasadena Athletic Association team, jumped 25-3½. Clarence Robinson of New Mexico was second at 25-4½.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN SAID:

(1) Most people are about as happy as they make up their minds to be.

(2) To ease another's heart ache is to forget one's own.

(3) With malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right, let us strive on.

PEOPLE WILL TALK

You may go through this world, but t'll be very slow
If you listen to all that you hear as you go,
You'll be fretted and worried and kept in a stew,
For meddlesome tongues must have something to do.

AND PEOPLE WILL TALK

If you are a christian you will have it!
Presumed your humble position is only assumed.
You are a sheep in wolf's clothing, or else you are a fool.
But don't get excited, keep perfectly cool.

FOR PEOPLE WILL TALK!

And then, if you show the least boldness of heart,
Or a slight inclination to take your own part
They will call you an upstart, conceited or vain!
But keep straight ahead, don't stop to explain!
If threadbare your dress or old fashioned your hat,
Now someone will surely take notice of that.
And hint rather strongly you can't pay your way.
But pay no attention to whatever they say.

FOR PEOPLE WILL TALK

If you dress in the fashion, they'll criticize then,
