Thrown from Careening Car; G. Bryson Injured As R.I. Rocket Train Derails

Six Des Moines residents, with two children who had spent the Memorial day weekend in Missouri, were only a few miles from home on their return trip when tragedy struck—leaving in its wake, one dead and another injured.

Victim

Mrs. Edna Thomas, 42, of 1625 Mondamin street, was killed when she was thrown from the car in which she was riding about 6:10 a.m. Tuesday along Highway 28, about four miles south of Norwalk. Her sister, Mrs. Kathryn Jackson, 939 23rd place who also was thrown from the car, was hospitalized at Broadlawn Polk County hospital but was reported in fair condition.

Later Tuesday the Bystander contacted Charles Lewis Jackson, driver of the late model Cadillac car.

Don't Know

"I don't know what really happened," Jackson replied, when questioned about reports of Warren County Sheriff William Matthews saying he had dozed at the wheel.

"The car went off the road and I was trying to keep it under control, to keep it from turning over. There was a kind of ditch and as it came back toward the road, something happened to the door and it flew open. My wife and her sister were thrown out. They were riding up front with me.

Lot of Dips

"The car had a lot of weight. There were three others and the children in the back. There are a lot of dips in that road (Highway 28). I have made them before but . . ." and his voice trailed off.

Mr. Jackson identified his other passengers as Mrs. Thomas' husband, Earl Thomas, Al Smith of 1410 13th street, Mrs. Thomas' daughter, Mrs. Wanda Downing, and two sons, five and two years, 1620 E. 16th street.

In Kansas City

The group had spent the weekend in Kansas City, Mo., where they were guests of Mrs. Myrtle Woods, another daughter of Mrs. Thomas. They had left Des Moines on Saturday afternoon for Kansas City and left there about midnight for the return trip.

Marseilles, Ill. — A Des Moines man who has been working on the Rock Island lines for 32 years experienced his first railroad accident last Friday morning. He is Gerald Bryson, chair car attendant, who was one of two Des Moines persons injured when the Corn Belt Rocket derailed in downtown Marseilles about 8 a.m.

Mr. Bryson who arrived back in Des Moines Tuesday night from Ottawa, Ill., where he had been a patient in Ryburn Memorial hospital following the accident, told the Bystander a personal account of the derailment.

Something Wrong

"A few minutes before it happened you could tell there was something wrong, because there was an awful lot of dust flying. I was sitting down in the third coach back. Before the impact, I got down in the seat, with my arms around my head. When I felt something hit me in the back and I looked around and saw a suitcase beside me. I couldn't move at all. I was just paralyzed.

Couldn't Move

"There happened to be an ambulance first aid place just by, where the derailment was and in a matter of minutes they were there asking if anyone was hurt.

"A lady was sitting in the seat next to me and she told them, 'This man is hurt.' They put me on a stretcher and took me to a hospital. I couldn't move for 12 hours and I was in bed two days. The doctors told me my back wasn't broken but I was injured. They took x-rays and gave me medications. I was having headaches and pains. I still feel stiff and my head aches and I feel other complications."

Box Cars

Mr. Bryson said nine other persons were taken to the same hospital and he was the last to leave. Others were treated but were not hospitalized.

"There were some boxcars along the siding. If they had not been there we would have tipped over and it would have been far worse," he said.

The train, enroute from Omaha, Nebr., to Chicago, Ill., left Des

Rep. Powell: Negroes Must Control Own Power Groups

Chicago, Ill. — Representative Adam Clayton Powell (Dem., N.Y.) last Friday urged American Negroes to seek "Audacious power"—control of their own organizations and businesses—and thus alter the course of history.

The fiery Harlem congressman and pastor of America's largest Negro church, Abyssinian Baptist church in Harlem, outlined 15 steps he said would help Negroes achieve success in their battle for self-betterment.

Formula

The formula included an insistence that Negroes lead and finance their own fight, elect their own public officials, defy "The laws of man when such laws conflict with the law of God" and take pride in their race.

"Audacious power begins with the stand-up-and-be-counted racial pride in being black and thinking black," said Powell in remarks prepared for delivery at a banquet of the Ebenezer Baptist Church in Chicago.

But Powell warned against violence in any protest activity by Negroes. "Violence, even when it erupts recklessly in anger among our teen-agers must be curbed and discouraged," he said.

Major Address

Making what he called one of the major addresses of his 22-year career in politics Powell frequently adopted the tones of the pulpit as he exhorted his listeners, "sitting in the glittering majesty of your black skins," to "glory in the golden legacy of our shackled and tortured past."

His speech, entitled "Marching Blacks: A Black Position Paper for America's 20 million Negroes," was a clarion call to Negroes to "cleave

Iowa Senators, 75 Others Pass Voting Rights Bill

Washington, D.C.—After a 25-day debate in which it survived a bitter assault by southern senators, the Senate passed the Negro voting rights bill, 77-19 and sent it to the House. The bill had been labeled 'top priority' by President Johnson, who hailed its passage saying, "triumphant evidence of this nation's resolve that every citizen must and shall be able to march to a polling place and vote without fear of prejudice or obstruction."

Iowa Senators

Iowa's two senators, Jack Miller and Bourke B. Hickenlooper, joined the majority with 'aye' votes after casting their ballots against invoking cloture two days before.

Despite his vote, Miller expressed considerable misgivings about some of the bill's provisions. He said a "close-minded attitude toward amendments" is responsible for "shortcomings in the bill."

Miller said he was particularly displeased by provisions for suspending literacy tests, and the provision requiring states to go to court to avoid the use of federal examiners.

Major Terms

Major terms of the bill are: —State literacy tests would be suspended and federal registration of voters authorized in Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and South Carolina; sections of Virginia, North Carolina and Alaska; and in one county in Arizona.

—Federal registrars could be sent to any county where a special census survey showed less than 25 percent of the adult Negroes were registered to vote.

—The attorney general would be instructed to challenge in federal court the poll taxes required of state and local election voters in Mississippi, Alabama, Texas and Virginia.

—Congress would declare that state poll taxes are used to discriminate against Negroes and the poor.

Ellender said the Johnson bill violates the Magna Carta, the Bill of Rights, the Declaration of Independence, and the Constitution.

A similar bill has been recommended by the House Judiciary Committee. Its terms are not identical. House leaders have been marking time on the bill, awaiting Senate action.

House leaders said they would bring their version of the bill to the House floor in the week of June 7. Senate passage came after a final chorus of Southern opposition.

200 Volunteers Recruited For Summer Vote Project In Three Southern States

New York.—More than 200 applications have been received for the NAACP summer project in three southern states, Gloucester B. Current, the Association's director of branches and field administration, has announced.

The Association is recruiting young people to spend eight weeks this summer in Alabama, Mississippi and South Carolina assisting local NAACP units in stepped-up voter registration drives and in other civil rights projects such as tutorial work and school desegregation. The NAACP is seeking 800 to 1,200 volunteers to participate in the program.

Alaska, Canada

According to Miss Althea T. L. Simmons, coordinator of the summer program, applications have been received from Alaska, Hawaii and Canada as well as from the West Coast, the Midwest and the East. NAACP branches in the non-southern states have been sponsoring task force volunteers to send to particular branches in Alabama and Mississippi.

1,000 Youths

In South Carolina, 1,000 members of NAACP youth groups have pledged to conduct a door-to-door voter registration campaign in cooperation with the task force volunteers. I. DeQuincey, NAACP field director for South Carolina, will be in charge of the project in that state which gets under way on June 7.

Office

Administrative offices for the summer project will be set up in Jackson, Miss.; Birmingham, Ala.; and Columbia, S. C. In Alabama, area offices will be established in Anniston, Huntsville, Mobile, Montgomery, Sheffield, Tuscaloosa and Tuskegee. The project will begin in that state, June 21. The Alabama project will be under direction of W. C. Patton, NAACP voter registration field director.

District

An area office will be established in each of the five congressional districts in Mississippi at Clarksdale, Hattiesburg, Jackson, Meridian and West Point. Miss Simmons will direct the Mississippi operations. The Mississippi kick-off date is July 5.

Current and Miss Simmons met recently in Jackson with representatives of Mississippi NAACP branches and in Birmingham with Alabama branch representatives. Plans for the project in the respective states were outlined.

A third feature of the law provides for a new permanent GI insurance called "modified life". This policy, Mr. Christensen said, will particularly interest term policy holders.

18 to 22 years, represent a wide range of academic disciplines and professional aspirations. Five of them are mathematics majors, five are English majors and others are majoring in history, social science and chemistry. Ten want to become teachers, one looks forward to a career in commercial art, another wants to be a writer, another a doctor.

Housing

Each student will be the guest of a local family and will participate in regularly scheduled family activities as well as the program outlined by MSP members.

The students are expected to arrive in Iowa City June 13 and will return to Mississippi Aug. 1. While here, they will attend special academic classes taught by volunteer faculty members and graduate students from the U of I. Some will also work at part-time jobs and all will have the opportunity to attend social and cultural events in Iowa City and on the campus.

MSP members estimate the cost to be $160 per student for the seven week program. This amount includes transportation to and from Iowa City, lunches five days a week at the Iowa Memorial Union cafeteria, medical insurance, books and supplies.

Goals

The project has three primary goals, according to MSP member John Huntley, associate professor of English at the University and coordinator of the summer project. They are to promote cultural exchange between the people of Iowa City and the students of Rust College, to provide these students with the basic tools of learning that might have been denied them in earlier educational experiences, and to make them more effective members of their community.

Beginning

The project began early this year when W. A. McMillen, dean of Rust College, suggested the framework of the plan to Iowa City MSP members. The idea caught on and then Rust College president Ernest A. Smith, introduced the plan to the college's 550 students. About 10 percent of these students indicated interest in taking part in the plan.

Next, MSP members went to Rust College and on the basis of standard college aptitude test results and personal interviews chose 21 students and six alternates.

The academic classes planned for the students will be held in University classrooms. Students will also have the chance to use all University facilities, including its libraries.

Funds

Funds for the project are administered through the University of Iowa Foundation. Persons interested in supporting MSP may send contributions to: MSP, Box 880, Iowa City, Iowa.

The MSP idea began in Iowa and there are groups similar to the Iowa City organization in Davenport, Waterloo and Cedar Rapids.

together in the building of the great society.

The main emphasis was on what he sees as a need for Negroes to shun outside control of their organizations.

"Jews control Jewish organizations," he said. "Poles control Polish-American organizations. But the moment a black man seeks to dominate his own organizations he's labeled a 'racist'."

Citizens March In Mississippi

Jackson, Miss.—Negro citizens in the northern section of the fourth district of Mississippi marched 20 miles to present a petition to the mayor at the courthouse in Brandon.

The petition asks for federal registrars in each sub-division of the county, elimination of the interpretation test and seating of Mrs. Annie Devine, the FDP 4th Congressional District candidate.

The march began Friday morning at 7:00 a.m. at the Goshen-Fannin School on Highway 471 near Fannin, Miss.

This is the town where 6 people registered at the courthouse and a few days after their church mysteriously burned to the ground and when people went to the courthouse a few days later to register, the deputy told one of the men, "you came to see us today, we'll come to see you tonight."

Bethune Commemoration Month Proclaimed

New York.—A Proclamation declaring May 18 to June 17, 1965 as Mary McLeod Bethune Memorial Month was presented to Miss Dorothy I. Height, President of the National Council of Negro Women, and Miss Wilhelmina Adams, member of the Council's Executive Committee by Mayor Robert F. Wagner at New York's City Hall on May 18th—the 10th anniversary of the death of Mrs. Bethune.

HEALTH FOR ALL

SPEAKING HEALTH-WISE—

Here are timely tips on a variety of health topics—some new, some old, all worth a place in your mental file of keep-well practices:

SEAT BELTS? YES, BUT—People who have hernias shouldn't use auto seat belts, according to Dr. Benjamin Payson, an internist. The pressure produced by a crash could be disastrous, he warns.

Hazards

POST-CRASH CHECKUP—Speaking of traffic hazards, people who have been involved in accidents are advised to undergo a thorough chest examination even if there is no visible sign of injury. At least one out of four such persons turns out to have some degree of heart damage.

ICY DIP—With hot weather in the offing, here's a quick-and-easy recipe for relief. Immersing the hands in ice water will bring down the body temperature, says Dr. William L. Bolton, of Today's Health Magazine. It's simpler than an alcohol sponge. (Of course, if you can get the man to fix the air conditioner...)

CIGARETTES IMPEDE SMELL—Excessive smoking of cigarettes can damage the sense of smell. The more cigarettes smoked, the less accurate the smelling function, it was indicated by a recent study of 500 industrial workers.

Smell

GOOD EATING—No really dedicated health seeker will neglect any of the "fundamental four" food groups in his diet. Here they are: (a) milk and milk products; (b) meat, poultry, fish and eggs; (c) vegetables—green and yellow—and fruits, especially citrus; and (d) bread—preferably whole grain—and cereals.

GOOD THINKING—Give frequent thought to the hazard of home accidents. Keep an eye out for exposed wiring, slippery floors, riving razor blades, rickety stepladders, broken glass, fire hazards. Home accidents rank high as a cause of injury and death.

Summer Peach Treat

'Peach-upside-down cake is a perennial family favorite but it reaches new heights of flavor and popularity when fresh peaches form the golden fruit topping. So for a perfect summer treat let's serve fresh peach shortcake with a snowy crown of fluffy whipped cream.'

The basis for the upside-down cake must equal the perfection of the sun-ripened peaches, so select the cake ingredients with care. A good tested recipe, the finest of ingredients and following instructions exactly will give you the velvety-textured cake you desire and your friends envy.

PEACH UPSIDE-DOWN-CAKE

Yield: 6 to 8 servings

1/2 cup Swift's margarine
2 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons double acting baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons sugar
1 egg

1/2 cup milk (about)
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 teaspoon almond extract
2 to 3 cups sliced peaches
Whipped cream

Put egg into measuring cup. Add enough milk to measure three-fourths cup. Stir together. Add to flour mixture to form a soft dough. Turn onto lightly floured board. Knead six times. Roll out to form an 8-inch square. Cut several gashes in dough.

In a heavy skillet, combine butter, sugar, and almond flavoring. Cook until sugar is melted, stirring constantly. Pour into 8-inch square baking pan. Lay peach slices over sirup in pan. Top with biscuit layer. Bake in a hot oven (450° F.) 25 minutes or until biscuit topping is well baked. Turn upside-down out of pan onto serving platter. Serve warm or cold with whipped cream.

Des Moines residents witnessed one of its gloriest holiday weekends over the Memorial day weekend although compositely around the nation it proved to be one of the goriest . . . in traffic fatalities. You couldn't have asked for better weather despite the damaging squall storm that swept across some portions of Des Moines on Monday afternoon.

The family got in a bit of tennis, playing doubles which is not possible unless the head of the family is home. After returning from a strenuous session on the courts Monday he delighted the family by demonstrating his outdoor culinary art on barbecued ribs. Our high spirits were slightly dampened when we arose to the torrential deluge flooding from the gray cast skies on Tuesday morning, June 1.

Our neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. John Grant and two children, of 1210 10th street, were among the hundreds who planned an all day outing at the park. They were just preparing to get a ball game with others, under way when Monday's squall swept Water Works park where they were.

Undaunted by the curtains of rainfall, Mr. and Mrs. William Montgomery and daughter, 1214 11th street planned a day's outing at one of the state parks. They had wanted to go to the Ledges but relatives Mr. and Mrs. Clark Jeffers and four children had planned to go to Lake Acquisti. So joined by Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hoffman and four children, the group drove to the lake cooking their dinner along the way. Mr. Montgomery, who is outdoor cook for the summer, prepared the barbecue on covered barbecue in the back of his panel truck and about halfway to their destination in Pleasantville, they stopped, he turned the meat over and when they arrived at the lake the meat was done to its succulent best.

Washington Irving junior high held its annual music festival last Thursday evening, featuring vocal and instrumental groups. The auditorium was not filled to capacity but it was gratifying to see that only a few vacant seats and that parents and others who came were dressed as befitting the occasion.

We are aware that very few will read this or ever know of it, but we would like to give each and every student participant a bouquet of commendation. A more neater and well groomed group in clothes and behavior, you could not find anywhere. This was not a extra special effort to be that way you could not find if you drop in to visit any school day you will see the same unless it happens to be green day, clash day or stripe day. This comes from the student body's dress code, promoted by the school's student council and adopted by the students and their faculty members.

It is so unfortunate when any school gets a 'black eye' or name for being 'below par', which is usually communicated mostly by adults in the community.

At last Thursday's concert you never saw so many pretty white blouses and neat hairdos, white shirts and ties and dark trousers and skirts. But go any day of the week and you see neatness.

A reader said recently that something should be published about the extreme hairdos and ridiculous hairdos of a few teenagers. But she acknowledged that only a few, a dozen or less, are addicted to the extremity. However, this is how any school gets its so-called black eye - by the chronic rebellious behavior of a half dozen that make the news headlines, whether it be a 'rich school of kids who don't care' or 'a fighting school.' The hairdos come from a current fad. But the behavior is more deep seated.

Sadly and unfortunately, the hundreds of nice, average and well behaved students who attend that same school, are harmed by that reputation.

Recently we read a passage which went like this: "Scum always comes to the top; clear away the scum and there is plenty of clear water beneath." This adage can be applied to the society of mankind.

At the Shriners Potentate's ball, the ladies who fill the offices of "Inside Spy" and "Outside Spy," came in for some ribbing. Teasing salvos, "What does an inside spy do?" could be heard but one of the ladies received quite a laugh when she replied, "We work for the F.B.I."

By the way we are accustomed in most cases to courteous consideration and treatment when attending most functions in the role of news reporter. However, we have to concede that the Shriners surpassed all in their gracious hospitality to my husband and myself.

KEEPING IOWANS
AT HOME

Iowa has lost a number of its fine trained young people to other states because they find no opportunity here. In recent months, state officials and business executives have tried to reverse the trend because 1) taxpayers are educating young people for service in other states, 2) the population decreases, 3) reducing standards for those left in the state.

This has been true of all classes of youngsters. The Independent School District of Des Moines has named James Bowman, a product of the Des Moines school system, coordinator of the federal project. He has prepared himself eminently by pursuing further education training at Columbia University.

Of course, the appointment of Bowman will mean that qualified applicants will be utilized and that Negroes will get a fair opportunity to participate in the project—no more, no less.

Several recent high school graduates are planning to go to other states for study; others for work. A youngster should be allowed to fulfill his inclinations in education and work as long as the choice is in the bounds of reason. But judging from some of the positions trained Negroes are receiving in Des Moines today, there is good soil in Iowa to plant ones roots.

Competition is terrific today. Whether he stops in Iowa, California or New York he finds the field pretty well crowded and those who do the best job get the breaks.

Bowman, along with some others, are an inspiration for the youngsters to follow who question whether they have a chance to reach the top.

GOVERNOR APPOINTS
RIGHTS COMMISSION

Governor Harold Hughes has named the members of the Iowa Civil Rights Commission. No set of names that could be put together can escape all criticism. The commission was provided for in the recent law passed by the legislature setting up the Civil Rights Commission.

Successful human rights commissions have been composed of Negroes and whites; capital and labor; social workers, teachers and ministers—pretty well divided among each class. Labor and management, at which most of the work will be directed, have been overlooked from the group.

The power structure of a community has much influence on just how well and good a commission functions. Left out of the picture and that group can fill the path with obstacles.

The BYSTANDER is acquainted with some members of the commission and knows that they are sincere. How well the group does its job counts as a body fulfilling its responsibilities of eliminating racial discrimination or they can be a debating society fearing to take bold action to accomplish their work. We hope it succeeds.

BYSTANDER ANNIVERSARY
NEXT WEEK

Next week, the BYSTANDER will publish its 71st anniversary edition. This points up a long period of operation and shows that it has made some contribution to the people it serves.

More churches, clubs, lodges and business institutions and many individuals take advantage of the columns of the BYSTANDER to see who, why and where they are, and create good will among the customers and friends.

There are groups and individuals with whom we like to do business. There are those who are disagreeable, uncouth and use every excuse to duck their responsibility. Some use the BYSTANDER only when convenience dictates. These differences are to be expected; but in the final analysis, a good share of those who support the paper have remained through the years.

There is still time to insert a greeting provided it reaches the office by June 5.

Of course, subscriptions are the life-blood of the newspaper.

Friends who wish to compliment the BYSTANDER must see that their subscriptions are paid up, suggest to a friend or neighbor to subscribe for the paper or give a subscription as a birthday or other special present. We are always grateful for the cooperation of our constituents.

The big fight (?) is over but the arguments still rage. Did Sonny Liston take a dive, quit, or was he really knocked out? Actually, no matter what people say or think the only person who can truthfully answer that is Liston. If he says he got hit there isn't anyway in the world to prove he didn't unless Cassius Clay says he didn't. We listened to an hour long television show on Saturday that could have been staged in 10 minutes. There was a panel of "experts" and a couple of former champions, Jack Dempsey and Rocky Marciano. The panel agreed that they didn't know the answer and that Clay won.

Headlines

It seems like the best way to make headlines now is to lambast Clay, Liston and boxing in general. You will recall that this was one heavyweight title fight that no one said a good word for at any time. So it would have had to turn into a real slam bang brawl to have got any favorable notices and even then some one would have yelled "FIX!"

The panel of experts failed to point out two things. One, that Sonny Liston is probably closer to 40 than he is 35 and at that age one doesn't shake off even light head punches very well.

Referee Goof

The gigantic goof by the referee who should have held up the count until he got Clay back to a neutral corner can be explained by the fact that his was a new adventure for most of the people in that town who had anything to do with the fight. Jersey Joe Walcott, probably doesn't referee too many fights and certainly never had a fighter act as wild as Clay did that night. But then we would guess that the champ would have won anyway.

Boxing Killed

Did the thing hurt boxing? A one round knockout in a heavyweight title fight doesn't help the game much. But boxing has been killed hundreds of times and bounces back. This is because it is a national sport and the sight of men fighting always draws a crowd, even in the street. We recall that boxing shows flourished here in Iowa where boxing was strictly illegal. This made it good for promoters because if they didn't pay a fighter and they sometimes didn't there wasn't a thing the fighter could do about it. So we would guess that those states that want to outlaw boxing better think again because bouts will be held in those states under one guise or another. There is too much money in the game.

Federal Control?

Should the federal government take boxing over or congress pass laws governing the game? Don't you think the federal government and congress have enough problems now without taking on boxing?

The oratory wasted and the money spent on an investigation could well be used on several other projects that most of us can think about. Who is next in line? Our guess is that the Clay camp will bypass Floyd Patterson giving his glass jaw as a reason but really because Floyd just could beat the champ and Clay handlers know it. So we would pick George Chuvalo, the guy Patterson beat last winter. His style would really make Clay look good.

Gilliam, 36, to Play

Los Angeles, Calif.—The Dodgers reactivated first base coach Jim Gilliam Friday, making room for the veteran infielder by sending third baseman-outfielder Derrell Griffith to Spokane.

Gilliam, 36, played with the Dodgers for 12 seasons before becoming a coach last year. The main reason for Gilliam's return is because third baseman John Kennedy has been bothered for six weeks with pulled leg muscles.

THE POET'S START

I will start anew this morning with a higher, fairer creed;
I will cease to stand complaining of my neighbor's greed;
I will cease to sit repining while my duty's call is clear;
I will waste no moment whining, and my heart shall know no fear.
I will look sometimes about me for the things that merit praise;

I will search for hidden beauties that elude the grumbler's gaze.
I will try to find contentment in the path that I must tread;
I will cease to have resentment when another moves ahead.
I will not be swayed by envy when my rival's strength is shown;

I will not deny his merit, but I'll strive to prove my own
I will try to see the beauty spread before me, rain or shine
I will cease to preach your duty, and be more concerned with mine.
