Claims South Making More Progress Than North

Farmer, Natl. CORE Director Addresses Ia. Union Convention

"There is more progress being made on integration in the south than in the north, even though the south has a longer way to go," claimed a leading civil rights leader here last week.

The statement was made by James Farmer national director of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) during an interview last Thursday.

Farmer, who was in Des Moines to address a closed meeting of the United Packinghouse Workers of America, the most integrated union in the nation, on Thursday afternoon at Hotel Savery and later addressed a public meeting that night in the same place. Farmer held a press conference early Thursday morning.

Farmer also commended religious leaders for their stand on integration, citing their response to the Dr. Martin Luther King's call to Selma, Ala., but criticize churches as not making as much progress as they could.

Sunday Morning

"There is still more integration between 11 a.m. and noon on Sunday mornings than all the other days put together," he said.

Referring to the local scene, Farmer noted that "even in your city of Des Moines, I am told there is segregation in housing and jobs. So there is still a lot to be done everywhere," he said.

At the public meeting Thursday night attended by 350 persons Farmer noted that Negroes "showed some political muscle" in the 1964 election of President Lyndon Johnson. "But

Foundation Awards $325,000 to UNCF

New York, N. Y.—The W. K. Kellogg Foundation has awarded $325,000 to strengthen and expand the library services of 33 colleges and universities affiliated with the United Negro College Fund, it was announced today by Dr. Frederick D. Patterson, UNCF president.

The grant is earmarked for the purchase of books in the field of teacher education, and will be used during the next three years to increase library holdings above and beyond normal acquisitions.

Sixteen of the Fund's member institutions will receive $15,000 apiece, and seventeen will be allotted $5,000 each. The smaller sum will go to those colleges and universities which received library acquisition awards of $10,000 from the Kellogg Foundation in 1962.

BEAUTICIANS HONOR THREE

Dr. Katie E. Whickam, upper left, president, National Beauty Culturists' League, Inc. presented the Group's outstanding achievement award to three national notables. Upper left, Louis E. Martin, deputy chairman, Democratic National Committee, politics; lower left, Cage S. Johnson, vice president, Schick

Safety Razor Company, marketing and sales; and lower right, Simeon Booker, Washington Bureau Chief, Johnson Publishing Company and author of "Black Man's America," journalism. Presentations were made during the League's 46th annual convention, August 1-5, Washington, D. C.

EXEC. V.P. OF UNCF

New York, N. Y.—The appointment of James William Bryant (left) as executive vice president of the United Negro College Fund was announced today by William T. Gossett, chairman of the Fund's board of directors.

Mr. Bryant, who has served as an administrative officer in six Southern colleges, will assume executive responsibilities as the Fund's administrative head on September 1.

He is currently president of the American Association of College and University Business Officers and business manager of Hampton Institute in Hampton, Va.

Officers Chosen By Accountants

Raymond Lutjen, controller of the Pioneer Hi-Bred Corn Company, has been elected president of the Des Moines Chapter of the National Association of Accountants. He succeeds Cecil Abarr of the Frye Manufacturing Company.

Other officers are: John Northrup, Nels Bergstrom and Ward Swanson, vice-presidents; Richard Sexton, secretary, Howard Anderson, treasurer; and Robert Gorsche, George Grote, James Rose, Walter Phillips, Donald Meadows, Richard Larson, Paul Norris, and David Hopley, directors.

Over 375 accountants belong to the Des Moines Chapter of the NAA.

Mrs. Cothorn Receives Ford Motor Award

Mrs. Marguerite Cothorn, executive secretary of the United Community Services Council of Social Agencies, has been awarded a Planning Institute scholarship by the Ford Motor Company Fund. It was announced by E. J. Pritchard, chairman of the Des Moines Community Relations Committee.

Mrs. Cothorn received the scholarship to pay costs of attending a one-week planning session at Michigan State University at East Lansing, beginning Sunday.

The institute will provide instruction in the methods of initiating, constructing and completing long-range plans for community health, welfare and recreation services.

The institute is being jointly sponsored by the Continuing Education Service of Michigan State University, the Community Services Council in Lansing, and United Community Funds and Councils of America.

Mrs. Daisy Bates III In Little Rock Ark.

Little Rock, Ark.—Mrs. Daisy Bates, heroine of the Little Rock school desegregation struggle of 1957, is reported to be improving in the Arkansas Baptist Hospital here.

Stricken while in the midst of a statewide NAACP voter registration campaign she had organized, Mrs. Bates was removed to the hospital on July 10.

As president of the Arkansas State NAACP, Mrs. Bates was the leader in the successful drive to desegregate Little Rock's public schools. It was she to whom the nine Negro boys and girls who pioneered the desegregation of Central High School looked for guidance and inspiration in that trying time.

In 1958 Mrs. Bates and the Little Rock Nine were awarded the Spingarn Medal for distinguished achievement. Two precedents were broken: it was the first multiple award of the medal and the first time it went to a juvenile.

Subsequently she was elected to the NAACP Board of Directors, a position she retains. During 1964 she was employed by the Democratic National Committee to conduct voter registration campaigns.

Leather Craft Pix Planned at Fair

Seventy of the best leather pictures selected in the National Craftsman's Magazine contest will be a part of the Iowa State Fair crafts and hobbies department display Aug. 20-29 in Des Moines.

NEWS In A Nutshell

Washington, D. C.—The Rev. Ernest B. Cunningham, pastor of Unity Baptist church, last week was appointed chief chaplain of the District of Columbia Department of the American Legion. He is the second Negro to hold the office in the 46-year-old history of the Department.

New York—The American Bar association last week cancelled two dinners scheduled to be held during its annual convention at the Bath club in Miami Beach this month. The cancellation came after a stream of protests was registered—including one from a U. S. Congressman—against the club's membership ban against Negroes and Jews.

Greensboro, Ala.—A Negro clergyman, the Rev. A. T. Day, charged that white bystanders—armed with bats, wrenches, and clubs—were deputized by police to attack Negroes participating in a march on the Greensboro courthouse last week.

Tallahassee, Fla.—In a significant development last week, Leearla V. Davis, 47, of Gainesville, Fla., a teacher and a graduate of Florida A. & M. university and Tuskegee institute, was hired to fill the newly created post of equal opportunity coordinator for the Florida Industrial Commission at a $8,200 a year salary.

Washington, D. C.—Rev. Adam Clayton Powell, chairman, House Committee on Education and Labor last week called on presidents of the nation's 116 predominantly Negro colleges and universities to help find qualified Negroes and women for top professional jobs in that office.

New York — Death last week claimed one of the world's legendary songwriters, Spencer Robinson, 75, who succumbed to cancer in his Flushing, Long Island home, after being ill for several years.

Pontiac, Mich.—A squad car has been patrolling a racially mixed neighborhood after threats of death were received following the election of a Negro dentist to the local board of education.

Cleveland, Ohio—More than a quarter million investors owned shares of stock in the principal industries of the United States at the end of 1964, according to a survey made by a Cleveland investment brokerage firm.

Kansas City—Sen. George W. Haley of Kansas City, Kans., who for the past 10 years has been an assistant city attorney last week resigned his position.

panel for other entries. The 10x12 inch pictures cover a variety of subjects, Mayse said.

Also represented at the fair will be three among the world's top five leathercrafters, Mayse added.

Scheduled are 10 10x14 inch pictures done by Al Stohman, Hemet, Cal., a professional who is recognized, Mayse said, as the world's greatest leather designer and artist.

He said other additions to the exhibit will be 10 pictures by Ken Friffin, also a professional who tours much of the time; and six by Christine Stanley, Santa Monica, Cal.

Poll Tax Repeal Stay in Statute; Senate Passage Expected on Thursday

Washington, D. C.—Through committee conferences the house yielded to the senate on two key issues of the bill that will insure southern Negroes the right to vote guaranteed to them by the 15th amendment 95 years ago. Four days later on Tuesday the House gave its official o.k. to the bill by a vote of 328-24. The Senate is expected to cast its routine ballots on Thursday. The President's signature is expected shortly thereafter.

If the bill works as planned, it will strike down, once and for all, the legal barriers erected by some southern states to Negro voting.

It would do this by suspending literacy tests and by providing for the federal registration of Negroes who had been disfranchised by the discriminatory use of these tests.

House Yields

The Senate passed its version of the bill May 26 by a vote of 77 to 19. The House approved its bill, 333 to 85, on July 9.

In order to reach agreement, House conferees finally yielded on two issues which represented the only substantial differences in the two bills.

The first of these was a provision in the House bill banning the payment of a poll tax as a prerequisite for voting in state or local elections.

Only four states—Alabama, Mississippi, Virginia and Texas—now have such a tax. A poll tax for federal election is proscribed by the Twenty-fourth Amendment to the Constitution.

In the compromise reached Thursday, the ban would be dropped.

Congress Finding

There would, however, be a finding by Congress that a poll tax "does not bear a reasonable relationship to any legitimate state interest in the conduct of elections," and that it has had the "purpose or effect" in some areas "of denying persons the right to vote because of race or color" in violation of the Fifteenth Amendment.

Furthermore, the attorney general is directed to institute suit immediately in order to get a Supreme Court ruling on the constitutionality of such a tax.

Graduate of West Point Named White House Interne

Washington—Major Ronald B. Lee, 33, chief of the Electronic Systems Section at the U. S. Army Material Command (AMC) here, has been selected by President Johnson as a member of the first group of 15 White House Fellows.

Chosen from 3,100 nationwide applicants, they will work for one year at the top level within the Federal Government.

The winners were named in a White House ceremony, while 30 other finalists looked on. They were later entertained at a reception in the State Dining Room with a buffet and dancing on the South lawn.

First

Major Lee, the first Negro from New England to graduate from the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, was the only military service winner. He took pre-med courses at Springfield College in Massachusetts and studied languages (Japanese and Spanish) at the University of Maryland. He holds a master's degree in business administration from Syracuse University (he completed two years' work in 11 months) and is now enrolled in a Ph.D. program at American University, Washington, D. C.

Beginning

The White House Fellows program is designed to give young people (ages 23 to 35) with top leadership potential the opportunity to work directly with either the Vice President, a Cabinet member, or four Presidential assistants. It is not a recruiting effort for civil service positions.

President Johnson started the White House Fellows program last fall. Sponsored by the Carnegie Foundation and administered by the Brookings Institute, the competitions got under way last January with the review of voluminous records and background investigation of the applicants.

Garment Union Sets Million For Loans to Negro Buyers

New York, N. Y.—The International Ladies Garment Workers Union has earmarked $7,650,000 to help provide low-cost private homes for Negro families in the south, the mid-west and the central states.

David Dubinsky, president of the 363,000-member union, disclosed Thursday that arrangements for the financing had been made with mortgage banking firms serving the Negro housing market.

One-Family

The union has stipulated that the money be used solely for construction of one-family homes for Negro families in desegregated neighborhoods.

A primary purpose of the loan, Dubinsky said, was to foster the development of more integrated residential sections, and to avoid the creation of additional Negro ghettos.

$18,000

The homes financed by the I. L. G. W. U. will be in the $15,000-$18,000 price range, he said.

The mortgage brokerage firms through which the money will be channelled are the Atlanta Mortgage Brokerage Co. of Atlanta, the Sivart Corp. of Chicago and the Mid-Central mortgage and investment company of Kansas City, Kan.

Loans

These firms will use the money for loans to Negro purchasers of homes. All the mortgages will be government backed, either through

President Johnson Announces Washington Conference for Fair Employment Aug. 19-20

Washington, D. C. — President Johnson announced Monday that the first White House Conference to plan fair and effective administration of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 will be held at the Department of State Aug. 19-20.

Title VII, establishing the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission under the chairmanship of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., went into operation July 2, this year.

Workshop

The Conferences will bring together in a series of workshops the EEOC Commissioners and key staff members with more than 300 representatives of employers, unions, employment agencies, public and private organizations, state and local fair employment commissions to discuss the various EEOC programs.

Comments

In commenting on the Conference, the President said:

"Basic to our national goal of equality of treatment and opportunity for all Americans is the assurance that employment will be on the basis of the applicant's ability and qualifications to do the job rather than on irrelevant factors of race, religion, national origin or sex. It is clear to all that economic strength is essential to achieving equality of housing, education and public accommodation.

"The genuine progress of the past few years in this field convinces me that American industry is anxious to assist in achieving equality of employment opportunity. I hope that the new Commission under the Chairmanship of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., will benefit by this recent change in national attitude. We expect to obtain from the Conference advice and guidance which will enable the Commission to discharge its responsibilities more effectively.

Vice President Hubert Humphrey will open the conference, welcoming the conferees at 9:00 a.m. Thursday, Aug. 19. Chairman Roosevelt will introduce the EEOC Commissioners and state the objectives of the meeting.

The conference will consist of seven workshop sessions, followed on Friday, Aug. 20, by a two-hour report session presided over by Mr. Roosevelt and concluding with a 4:00 p.m. press conference.

Presses Pupil, Faculty Integration in Va. Schools

Washington—NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund lawyers today asked the U. S. Supreme Court to review pupil and teacher assignment practices in two Virginia school systems in an effort to bring about more positive action towards desegregation.

The attorneys appealed two decisions by the Fourth U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals which last April upheld lower court approval of desegregation plans in Richmond and Hopewell, Va.

Perpetuates

The appeals, which will be heard in the Supreme Court's October term if the high court decides to review the cases, question Richmond's "freedom of choice" policy as a means of abolishing school segregation, and contends that Hopewell's system of geographic attendance areas perpetuates segregation.

Teachers

Both cases also raise the question of assignment of Negro teachers only to schools predominately attended by Negroes, and white teachers to schools predominately attended by whites.

The Richmond case dates back to Sept. 5, 1961, when a group of Negro parents and their children filed a suit in a federal district court charging that the school system had not "made a reasonable start to effectuate a transition to a racially non-discriminatory system . . ."

10 Students

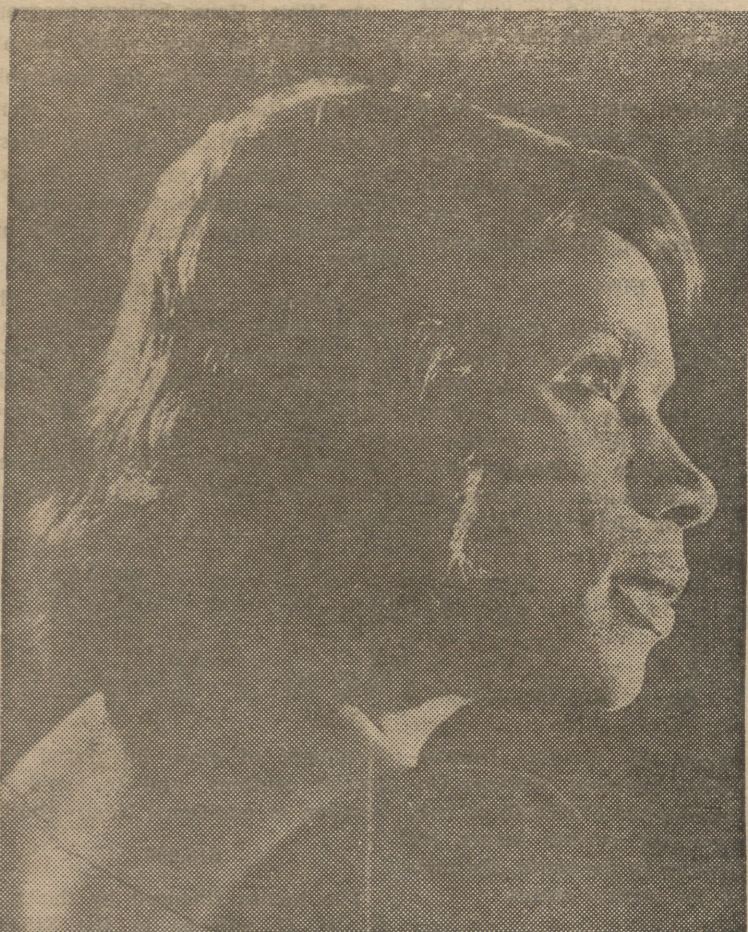

When the case was begun, only 37 of 23,791 Negro school children attended classes with the 17,777 white children in Richmond schools, the suit alleged.

The court subsequently ordered the admission of ten Negro children involved in the suit to a predominately white school, and encouraged the school board to present a desegregation plan.

Legal Defense Fund attorneys contend that the "freedom of choice" plan does not go far enough in freeing Negro pupils from long-established patterns of school segregation, especially when viewed in the context of continuing faculty segregation.

"Faculty segregation," the appeal alleges, . . . racially identifies schools as effectively as a sign over the door and enables the freedom of choice plan to offer parents a choice between a Negro-faculty school and a white-faculty school."

CORE OFFICE BOMBED

New Orleans, La.—CORE's southern office was bombed last Tuesday night. Witnesses report that three white youths, driving past the Dryades Street office, threw a bomb at the CORE office. The bomb fell short of the CORE office, damaging two cars. One of the cars belonged to the late Mickey Schwerner, CORE field secretary murdered last summer in Mississippi.

Earlier last week, Louisiana Governor McKeithen, in announcing the formation of a 40 man bi-racial committee, said that the purpose of the committee was "to destroy CORE in Louisiana." CORE National Director, James Farmer responded to the Governor's statement, saying "The meaning of the biracial committee appointed by Governor McKeithen will be shown by two factors. First, what is to be its composition? Will it include true representatives of the community, such as the Bogalusa Voters League, or will it be the same old tired names? Second, will its purpose be to end racism and bigotry, violence and hatred? Wherever discrimination and segregation continue to exist, there CORE will be." Later, Governor McKeithen said he had been misunderstood.

Fined $50 on 2 Speeding Charges

Maurice Samuel Coakley of 1214 11th street, was fined $50 on two speeding tickets Friday by Municipal Judge Luther T. Glanton, Jr. He was fined for speeding 50 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone on July 15, and $15 for speeding 44 in a 35-mile zone on Mar. 27. Coakley was given until Aug. 5 to pay the fines.

2 Men Charged with Attacking 2 Policemen After Minor Accident

Two men involved in a fracas with police Thursday night after a minor accident at Second and University avenues were charged in Municipal Court Friday.

Vernon Eugene Moore, 38, who gave his address as 1235 E. 16th street, pleaded innocent before Municipal Judge Harry B. Grund on charges of assault with intent to inflict great bodily injury and disturbing the peace and quiet by using loud and profane language.

Moore was ordered released under $3,000 bond pending hearings Aug. 10.

Raymond Douglas, 38, who said he lived at 1221 Hutton street, pleaded guilty before Grund on a charge of intoxication and was fined $50. He paid the fine.

Patrolman James Hoskins, 33, suffered a cut lip and a broken dental plate in the incident. Patrolman Richard Brafford, 26, suffered a bite wound on the left arm and cuts on the hands and fingers.

Both officers were released after treatment at Broadlawn Polk County Hospital.

They said the argument started when the two men were told they were under arrest and resisted police efforts to put them in a squad car.

Organization represented at the public meeting, in addition to the union, were the Des Moines Chapter of CORE, Iowa Civil Liberties Union, American Friends Service Committee, National Conference of Christian and Jews, Des Moines Area Council of Churches and the Des Moines Commission on Human Rights.

Farmer, 45, of New York, N. Y., was one of the founders of CORE 23 years ago and is a veteran of sit-ins, freedom rides, marches, several southern jails and Ku Klux Klan death threats.

"I am not one of those who believe the fight is almost over," he said.

HEALTH FOR ALL

TB "HAMS IT UP"

They did it in the old-time melodramas. They still do it today on TV. The villain is cornered and dealt his mortal wound. Does he expire neatly and quietly? Not a bit—he rants around, chews the scenery, knocks off a few enemies en route, and delivers his own funeral oration before finally lying down to die.

The same sort of lurid performance is enacted in real life from time to time. Not by individuals but by outworn customs, fashions, trends. They rarely expire all at once; it happens gradually, with periods of waxing and waning until the moment of final surrender. It's been happening with other disease scourges such as VD; and it's happening right now with tuberculosis.

Years Ago

About a dozen years ago this ancient enemy received what looked like a quick death blow. Potent, reliable drugs against it were developed for the first time—notably streptomycin, isoniazid, PAS (para-aminosalicylic acid). Sickness and death tables began swooping downward. Then the seemingly conquered enemy turned and fought back. Small local epidemics broke out; the tide seemed to be turning; in many cities the sad statistics were climbing again.

Agencies

Just the same, anti-TB workers remain convinced that the disease can and will continue to be reduced and eventually banished. Public health officials, Christmas Seal Associations and private medical specialists are combining to zero in on the problem. Witness the project recently launched in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, where the National Tuberculosis Association, its local affiliate, and the Montgomery Medical Society Foundation are jointly conducting a three-year study to determine exactly what is needed for the eradication of tuberculosis.

The wounded villain, like a stage "ham" of old, still flails around. It will take years—decades—to finish him off. But the day will come, hastened by efforts like the Montgomery County project.

What is electricity? MAKING OLD THINGS NEW

Electricity is the convenience of power tools. It's the automatic dishwasher that gives you more time for the family. It is probably 30 to 40 household servants in and around your home . . . five or six times as many as you had just a generation ago. With electricity doing so many useful things for you, it stands to reason that your bill is higher today. But the unit cost of electricity is a full 30% lower than it was a generation ago. Electricity . . . it's your biggest household bargain, faithfully yours from

OF CANCELLATION AND FORFEITURE OF REAL ESTATE CONTRACT

TO: NORMA T. CULLY, now known as NORMA T. FAIRMAN, and ROBERT L. FAIRMAN, Wife and Husband, Contract Purchasers;
RUTH V. McDUFFEY and BON B. McDUFFEY, Wife and Husband;
ROBERT J. SIMPSON and VELMA SIMPSON, Husband and Wife, Tenants in Possession

YOU AND EACH OF YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that default has occurred in the provisions of a real estate contract, dated April 9, 1962, which was executed by Jack Bill Homes, Inc., as Vendor, and by Norma T. Cully, single, as Vendee; that the said Jack Bill Homes, Inc. has assigned and conveyed its interest in said contract to the Trustees of the Hofesalo Fund, who are now the legal titleholders of the real estate involved herein, and owners of the Vendor's interest in said contract; that the said Trustees of the Hofesalo Fund have been advised that since purchasing said real estate, the said Norma T. Cully had been married to Robert L. Fairman, and that the said Norma T. Cully, now known as Norma T. FAIRMAN, and Robert L. Fairman, wife and husband, assigned and conveyed their interest in said contract to Ruth V. McDuffeY and Bon B. McDuffeY, wife and husband; that such assignment does not appear to have been filed of record; that the Trustees of the Hofesalo Fund have been further advised that Robert J. Simpson and Velma Simpson, husband and wife, are tenants in possession of said real estate, which is described as follows:

The West 50 feet of the South 176.6 feet of Lot Thirty-two (32) in CERTAINTY ACRES, an Official Plat, now included in and forming a part of the City of Des Moines, Iowa, locally known as 832 S. E. McKinley, Des Moines, Iowa; that the payments on said contract are $55.00 per month, plus one-twelfth of the annual taxes and insurance. That you have failed to make the payments required by said contract for the months of February, March, April, May, June and July, 1965, and said contract is therefore in default in the amount of Three Hundred Ninety-six and 00/100 Dollars ($396.00).

Because of said default on said contract in performance of the terms and conditions thereof as above stated, you are hereby notified that this notice is served pursuant to the terms and conditions of said contract, and the provisions of Chapter 636 of the 1962 Code of Iowa, and unless within thirty (30) days from and after the completed service of this notice, you make payment of all of said delinquency, and in addition thereto, pay the cost of preparing and serving this notice, said contract will stand cancelled and forfeited, and will become null and void, and you will be forever barred, estopped and foreclosed from having, claiming, and asserting any right, title and interest in and to said real estate.

Dated at Des Moines, Iowa, this 21st day of July, 1965.

On the Integration Scene

Americus, Georgia—Two Negroes were indicted on first degree murder charge by the Sumter County grand jury Tuesday in the slaying of a white man on the street corner a week ago. The indictment came shortly after a fight which broke out between Negro and white groups was subdued by state troopers. Five Negroes were injured when white men attacked demonstrators on Saturday shortly before the funeral of the victim.

Indicted were Eddie Will Lamar and Charles Lee Hopkins, both 21. They are accused of the slaying of Andrew A. Whatley, 21, near midnight last Wednesday about three blocks from a civil rights demonstration.

Shortly after the funeral Negro and white demonstrators marched to the Sumter County courthouse. They were escorted by state troopers, increased in Americus from 100 to 130 during h day.

As the demonstrators marched, troopers escorted a pistol-toting white bystander away from the area and stopped another as he walked toward the group at the courthouse.

Earlier in the day, five Negroes were struck, one by a snub-nosed revolver, as about 30 white men broke up a demonstration by an equal number of Negroes.

One of the five, Denny LeNow, 21, a civil rights worker from Wisconsin, was treated for head cuts caused by the pistol blow. The other four were hurt less seriously. None was admitted to the hospital.

PASS CIVIL SERVICE

BOGALUSA, LA.—Two Negroes who applied for jobs with the Bogalusa police department have passed their civil service exams, it was disclosed Saturday. If hired, they would become the first Negroes on the all-white, 36-man force.

BARRED FROM POOL

South Charleston, W. Va.—About 40 civil rights advocates attempted to enter a segregated private swimming pool near here Saturday. They were turned away when the pool's owner turned water hoses on them.

Joe Wilan, the pool's owner, said the facility is a private club and the bi-racial demonstrators were not members. He turned the hoses on newsmen as well as the demonstrators.

HALT DEMONSTRATIONS

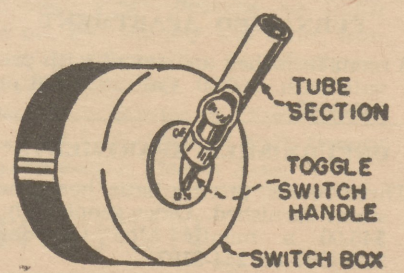

Greensboro, Ala.—Negroes called a halt to demonstrations Saturday to concentrate on getting large numbers of demonstrators out of jail. More than 475 Negroes have been arrested.

The Rev. Andrew Young, a top aide to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., is expected to arrive here tonight.

To Extend Toggle Switch

If the toggle switch on a power tool is difficult to reach, American Builder, "bible" of the building industry, has a solution. Take a short section of stiff tubing and slip it tightly over the toggle switch handle. This lengthens the handle and brings it within reach. Use either plastic or stiff rubber tubing.

The four year college scholarship was one of the awards for the winner of the Miss Tan America Pageant, held in Dallas, Texas, on April 10th. Miss Johnson represented the Washington, D.C. Region in the National Miss Tan America Pageant, and won the title in competition with 16 other regional and state winners from across the nation.

J. L. McGuire, Phillip Gilbert, G. W. Scott, William Wells and LeRoy Franklin.

Reports on the trip will be made at the club's regular meeting on Monday, Aug. 9 at 8 p.m. at Wilkie House, 900 17th street.

Bacon Rolls

Peanut butter and bacon bits team up to make a flavor hit in Bacon Rolls.

Long a favorite combination, crumbled bacon and crunch-style peanut butter meet in new fashion in Bacon Rolls. The rolls are made from a beaten yeast batter that requires no kneading.

You find the "wheat and meat" combination of Bacon Rolls makes an ideal pick-up for a light supper of an omelet or souffle, hot vegetable, crisp salad and coffee.

The batter for Bacon Rolls is made with enriched flour to give three B vitamins and food iron. After the batter rises for an hour it is stirred down and spread in a greased, eight-inch square baking pan. Crumbled bacon is sprinkled over the top in rows, dividing the batter into 16 two-inch rolls. Pressing the bacon to the bottom of the pan firmly separates the rolls and gives a "bacony" taste all the way through.

When you haven't time for making yeast rolls at home you can still give your family a variety of tasty, enriched breads. Choose them from the wide selection at your bakery or food store.

1 package yeast, compressed or dry	1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup water (lukewarm for compressed yeast, warm for dry)	2 cups sifted enriched flour (about)
1/2 cup milk	1/2 cup crunch-style peanut butter
1/2 cup brown sugar	1 egg
	2 slices bacon

Soften yeast in water. Scald milk. Add brown sugar and salt and cool to lukewarm. Add 1 cup flour and peanut butter and beat until batter is smooth. Add softened yeast and egg. Mix well. Add enough more flour to make a thick batter. Beat thoroughly. Cover and let rise in warm place until bubbly (about 1 hr.). When light, stir down. Fry bacon until crisp.

Drain on absorbent paper and crumble lightly. Spread batter into greased 8-inch square pan. Sprinkle crumbled bacon in rows over batter dividing into 16 2-inch squares. With floured finger, press bacon through batter to bottom of pan. Let rise until doubled (about 30 minutes). Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) about 25 minutes. Makes 16 rolls.

When we returned from our week-end trip to Missouri where we picked up our three oldest children, we endeavored to catch up on Des Moines and some national news by turning to the copies of the local daily that we missed in our absences. We were glad we did because we had a chance to read Louis Lomax's "Prescription for Reclaiming America's Negroes." It was very penetrating and thought provoking. Perhaps the subject matter is not new; perhaps, many of you readers, have thought along similar lines, we know we have to some extent, and have discussed it with others. Be as it may, it was a very good article; if you haven't had a chance to do so, we suggest you do. It is worth a trip to the Register and Tribune building to purchase a back copy of the issue on the lobby floor. Copies are 10 cents each.

We don't go in for pushing a rival paper, but in this case we think the suggestion will be to the reader's benefit.

Lomax states what we all as Negroes know—most of us are ordinary just like the majority of any race, but we have never been given a chance to be just that—ordinary. We have always had to be extraordinary and do an extraordinary job in an ordinary job, when we had one. We have always had to be proving something, even that we are human. Consequently, Lomax contends the Negro has been kept out of ordinary jobs (which are the backbone of America's capitalistic system) such as the "clerk, the welder, the fireman, the policeman, the barber, the real-estate salesman, the plumber, the automobile mechanic."

Being left out of the ordinary jobs, they and their children most of who are ordinary, have no means of identity. They may want to be a fireman but they never see a Negro as one so the want is like a dream that will never come true.

Adults who are older, remember when there were seldom Negro entertainers on TV and certainly no Negroes in commercials. Now the trend has turned and there are Negro housewives, pilots, etc., in commercials.

We contend this is not good enough, although this is all TV can do. In real life, the Negro child must also have the opportunity of seeing Negro policemen, firemen, mechanic, milkman, taxi driver, bus driver, or what have you, so he will know and believe and dream that he can really be one too, if he wants to.

We were impressed with CORE Director James Farmer's statement that the South, though having further to go, has made more rapid progress in breaking down segregation, than the North.

This is true. All you need to do is travel in the south, now. When we traveled to Houston, Tex., two years ago we noted Negro semi truck drivers, bus drivers, soda pop, milk ice, bread, clean towel service truck drivers. These are rarely if ever seen in the north. In addition we saw several Negro operators of the huge caterpillar road equipment at work along the highways in Texas. But to see big Negro businesses like movie houses, dry cleaning firms, laundry mats, and large grocery stores, banks, insurance businesses you have to go south, mostly. It is true that because of segregation, the southern Negro has had to go into these fields and too, there is a large Negro market demand.

But much of it we contend, like Lomax, we need education, the kind that schools cannot give us. We need identity, and to know who we are. Many of us need to know first to be a man, second to be a doctor or mechanic, and third, to be a Negro. To be the best of ourselves, no matter who we are, our finances or our capacities or talents, is a man size job and a lifetime one.

In talking about the Sewing Circle at Corinthian Baptist church, Mrs. Ethel Jeffers, unintentionally forgot to give the name of their capable president, Mrs. Eddie Bolden, 1110 12th street.

THIS ADVICE LOSES FRIENDS; IS DANGEROUS

One of the problems facing civil rights leaders today is to discourage and, if possible, prevent irresponsible people from doing and saying things which demonstrate a lack of good citizenship and lose friends for the cause.

The pressure for civil rights must be kept up but someone, somehow must control the throttle so that a dangerous amount of steam will not escape.

The latest and possibly one of the most dangerous and irresponsible moves is reported to be inspired by the Freedom Democratic Party in Mississippi.

They have distributed a leaflet urging Negroes to keep their sons from honoring the draft, and Negroes in the armed services are being asked to stage hunger strikes.

The leaflet reads further, "We will gain respect only by forcing the U. S. government and the Mississippi government not to come with guns, dogs, and trucks to take our sons away to fight and be killed, protecting Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and Louisiana."

Certainly this is the most misguided advice that could be given Negroes. The record made by Negro soldiers from Bunker Hill down through the years even to Viet Nam, is glorious. That record has endeared these boys to America and foreign nations who fought with them and is evidence responsible citizenship in their nation.

Sure Negroes have suffered at the hands of individuals and even their government. But they have come a long way and are still advancing. Certainly a man who refuses to defend his country has no right to expect that country to defend him. The Bystander has no patience with any one who takes any other position (except on religious grounds) for such people hurt themselves and those they propose to help.

NO BREAKS ON UPPING TAXES

Taxpayers often raise objections at the wrong time. The time is as the budget is being considered and not at the treasurer's office where taxes are payable.

Monday, the city council adopted a record budget without a dissenting vote. Few people appeared to object to it. The council asked what specific items were objectionable. Oakridge seemed to be the target.

Owners of real estate, particularly homeowners, complain that taxes in Des Moines are too high. The complaint is quite prevalent. High taxes keep people and business out and make those here restless and, in many cases, desirous of getting out. Public officials should run their institution in such a manner as to live within their income; they should not raise taxes simply because they have the authority.

It is a puzzle to understand that with all the new construction in progress, that the additional assessed valuation would not take up the normal increase that taxing bodies need for levying taxes.

HARRISON SPANGLER

Harrison Spangler, former Cedar Rapids attorney, state Republican chairman and member, counsel and chairman of the Republican national committee, died in Portland, Oregon last week where he had lived for the past few years.

An article appearing in the news stated that he was one of the first to advocate the expansion of the Republican party in the South; that his last visit with Iowans was at the Republican national convention in 1964.

Having worked closely with him from 1930 to the end of his political activity in Iowa, experience makes me question this accusation seriously and if such inclination existed, its basis was not to throw the Negro overboard—as do some recent advocates of this doctrine.

In 1932, Negroes worked for an Iowa delegate to the Republican national convention. Spangler had been named a delegate and only an alternate was left for Negroes to get. In keeping with his interest in our cause, Spangler stepped aside and gave over to Chas. P. Howard as the delegate, he took the alternate.

As manager of the western division in 1948, his organization included a large complement of Negroes in every capacity.

Spangler introduced me to the late Herbert Hoover at Cedar Rapids in 1928 (the only Negro who had audience with Mr. Hoover during his campaign).

During all these years, where his aid was needed to help influence the programs in which Negroes were interested, he was always found on the right side.

His last appearance was at Hoover's funeral in West Branch where I visited with him and his views were those of Spangler of old.

Spangler was a true political leader, true to his cause, true to his friends and his position on every question was never in doubt.—J.B.M.

The guys who run the Hilltop tennis meet really had a rough week-end. To begin with the Iowa Open meet at Cedar Rapids which has preceded our meet by a week for 10 years, was moved back a week to come into direct conflict with our meet. Why? We really don't know. But we thought we would go ahead and see if our meet could stand real competition. It did. The Des Moines people were more upset about the switch than our bunch was. We weren't hurt too much by the move although both meets lost some regular players.

Then Saturday, our big day to really get cleaned up. We got down pretty well and then it rained. Well, sir, we rounded up a bunch of kids and soon dried off the courts. Then as play was resumed, the rain came again harder.

So we spent a lot of time at Good park mopping those courts dry and played until dark. Then Sunday it was all-day on the courts from 8 a.m. until dark.

The matches? Oh yes, a fellow named Roger Coad, who just moved here and wasn't even seeded proved to be the class of the men's singles, racing through the field without the loss of a set. A 19-year-old girl from Mason City, Ia., won the women's singles honors in the same fashion. Then a couple of eager kids who vowed to retire the Bill Ashby Memorial doubles trophies got their names on the big cup for the first time. But they said they'd be back next year.

Then Esther Myers who passed up women's singles competition teamed up with Teddy Patrick to win the women's doubles. The men's doubles winners? Brian Brindley and Mike Schaumburg of Des Moines.

Harold Morrow, Sr., put his sons in the 12-year-old division and they did all right, nearly meeting in the final. Mark lost a 3-set tussle to the fellow Harold beat in the final. Junior had a rough road, all three set matches but he made it.

The 16 and 18 year-old title went to Alan Jones of Keokuk who also teamed with Roberto Lavine to win the mixed doubles and Brindley.

Harold McCollum came out the winner in the veterans singles for over 45.

You know we were a little worried about going to the park because of the news stories about the place. But the deportment at the park was above reproach. Extraordinary for a large group who didn't know what was going on around them. How much credit to give to Cecil Brewton in charge of the swimming pool, we don't know, but we have to suspect he had a hand in it. But it was a swell meet.

Tennis

Dallas, Tex.—Arthur Ashe, first Negro named to the U. S. Davis Cup team and first of his race to take the U. S. Collegiate Tennis title recently, played a starring role in defeating Mexico in the American Zone finals.

Ashe, 21-year-old UCLA senior and native of Richmond, Va., on

Thomas, East Track Wizard, Sweeps Events for U.S. Army

Fort Devens, Mass.—East High Des Moines School graduate, James Albert (Jim) Thomas, won each of the four events he entered in helping his battalion team win the Fort Devens, Mass., 1965 track and field championships recently.

Thomas' marks in just two tries at hop, skip and jump will certainly be considered by First Army sports officials when they choose representatives for the year's All-Army team.

A Reservist

The 1957 graduate of East is currently attending classes in the Army Security Agency Training School here as a reservist.

He is the son of Albert and Maxine Thomas, 1704 Walker st.

Without a high school track background, Thomas concentrated on the sport from his sophomore year to his graduation from Wesleyan University in Middletown, Conn.

This was an especially successful period in the school's track history.

The 26-year-old athlete joined the reserves in Arlington, Va., while working as a trial lawyer for the United States Department of Justice. He accepted that job after graduating from the Yale Law School in 1964.

Since he holds membership in the Iowa Bar Association, he expects to return to his home state and take up a practice there, after a couple more years experience with the Justice Department.

Thomas' winning triple jump distance of 42 feet 1 1/2 inches stood out the most of his other victories in the broad jump, and 100 and 220-yard dashes.

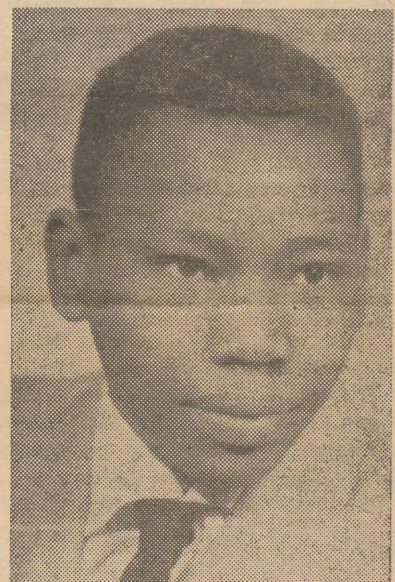

THOMAS

He remarked that he was not in good shape for the meet, having only two days of practice, "And," he added, "the next day, I was in VERY bad shape!"

Wins Twice in U.S. Track Federation Meet

Udell Cason, was a two-time winner in the U. S. Track Federation meet at Drake Fieldhouse on Saturday. Cason won the senior 330 intermediate hurdles and the broad jump. Cason received his bachelor degree from Drake university in June.

Saturday stunned Mexico's top flight player, Rafael Asuna with a 6-2, 6-3, 9-7. He even out-dazzled U. S. No. 1 player Dennis Ralston, who defeated Mexico's No. 2, Antonio Palafox, 6-2, 6-3, and 6-2.

So devastating was Ashe's performance that Osuna was unable to break his service but once, this in the second set after Ashe double-faulted twice.

Ashe kept Osuna flitting from one side of the court to the other and scored frequently with excellently placed smashes and passing shots.

To Ashe, the No. 2 player, fell the opportunity Monday of clinching the prestigious championship and he responded by cutting down Mexico's Antonio Palafox, 6-1, 6-4, 6-4.

The twin triumph gave the Americans a sweep in singles competition and a 4-1 edge in the final standings. It earned them a berth against Spain in the interzone round at Barcelona later this month.

Ashe overshadowed his top-ranked teammate and was clearly the hero of the three-day event.

Playing with his unit's baseball team, he had already acquired a reputation before the track meet.

Steals Home

Against the post's strikeout sensation, Ray Sevilla, Thomas dared to steal home. He made it, the only man to have stolen home against any pitcher here this season.

Thomas was an all-city football and baseball player at East and a standout in basketball.

In addition, he was an honor student and won an academic scholarship to Wesleyan where he also graduated with honors.

The only pattern of peace
Is righteous living;
If a nation would be at peace
It must be love-giving.
Peace lies where harmony
Makes her bed;
Whether it be in a heart
Or in a nation wide,

Little League Football

The Little All American League of Des Moines will hold registration for junior high school boys on the first three Saturday mornings in August.

Registration will take place from 9 a.m. through 12:30 p.m. on Aug. 7, 14 and 21 in the Campus room of the Y. M. C. A.

To be eligible, a boy must reside inside the Des Moines school system boundaries, be in seventh, eighth or ninth grade, and weigh between 90 and 155 pounds.

Each boy should be accompanied to registration by one of his parents. A dollar registration fee will be charged.

Practice in the junior grid league will begin on Aug. 23. The first game of the season will be a jamboree September 12 at 1:30 p.m.

All games will be played on Firestone Field just north of the Firestone plant.

Esther Myers, Teddy Patrick Take Hilltop Women's Doubles Title

Mrs. Esther Myers, who returned from her home in Minneapolis, Minn., to help supervise the annual Hilltop Tennis Tournament last weekend at Birdland and Goode courts, teamed with Teddy Patrick to take the tourney's women's doubles title.

Mrs. Myers is former women's singles champion for the tournament but was sidelined from competition in the entry because of a pulled leg muscle the past several years. She also has served as president of the organization, the only all-Negro tennis club in the state and probably midwest which has sponsored tournament over the past decades.

(Read Ashby Sports column for further comment on the tourney).

Mrs. Myers and Miss Patrick defeated Becky Den Hartog of Centerville and Nary Nissen of Mason City, 6-0, 6-0, 6-2.

We Welcome Letters

The Bystander welcomes "letters to the editor," be they adversely critical or complimentary. However, all letters must be signed complete with street address and city.

ADVANTAGES OF GROWING OLDER

The thought of aging is abhorrent to some, but there are advantages, and the later years can be a benediction to all. Remember these rewards they bring:

You have learned for a fact that "man does not live by bread alone."
You have discovered resources which bereavements have revealed.

You know from experience that materialism does not have the last word—that "life is more than meat and bread."

You have had much practice in separating the important from the trivial.

You have learned patience, which makes for clear purpose and peace of mind.

You have observed gratefully that silence is not indifference, and unanswered prayer is not rejection.

You begin to realize that much you have striven for can be foregone without unhappiness—indeed, with relief.

You have been initiated into the great fraternity of pain, which has opened the door to much sympathy and love.

You have traced the familiar paths of memory, and probed the green fields of hope, and have found them both sweet.

You have been introduced to an eternal Companion, whose presence is unfailing on the high ground, or in the deep waters.

Service is as important as the product you buy.

Save money by making sure . . . before you buy . . . that reliable repair service is available locally.

Six rules of buying a product that will need maintenance or repair:

1. Expect good sales service. If you don't get it you're likely to have trouble when you need repairs.

2. A guarantee is only as good as the organization behind it. Read it carefully.

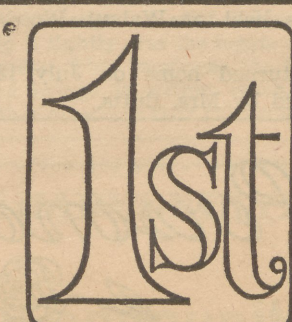

3. Think of the product in terms of need for maintenance and availability of parts and service.

4. A good product name is essential but not enough if facilities for service are lacking.

5. Utility companies may be able to tell you where to obtain good service.

6. A dealer with adequate service facilities may have to charge a slightly higher price for the product.

You save in the long run with those who have facilities for good service.
