Criticize Gov. Hughes Calling Out Nat. Guard

Minister Says Carload Stopped His Wife Sun.

Iowa Gov. Harold Hughes called out the National Guard to buttressed a normal 250-man state fair police force after receiving reports of rumors of "everything from civil demonstrations to riots during the fair."

The governor said that he felt

most of the rumors were unfounded "but there were enough of them and they were persistent enough for us to be concerned."

The rumors were reportedly race-related and "threatened hoodlums." The Bystander sampled opinion across the Negro community to get their reaction to the governor's action.

Rev. Joseph Gaines, 3011 Amherst, "I drew attention on the whites in the community and those who came in; Sunday morning my wife went out and a carload stopped her. They didn't say or do anything, but it gives you a funny feeling, because that sort of thing doesn't happen here. After weighing everything and the receiving of national publicity, it was kind of ridiculous for the governor to call out the National Guard unless he had reliable source and I don't think he has."

Dr. Stanley Griffin, 1608 44th, "I think it was not necessary; I'm sure people here wouldn't do anything destructive; he should have let the police take care of everything."

Mrs. Edward Frazier, 328 East Creston, "I really didn't like it. I think the heads of the states should stand up and say, 'We will not have trouble,' instead of otherwise. Sometimes agitators who are not thinking about it, will see that he has trouble. There was no need of the National Guard and it gives the state a black eye."

John Estes, Jr., 944 9th street, "If all the rumors kept persisting, he should have called out the National Guard but not publicize it. He could have moved them in on the Fairgrounds and had the same effect."

Mrs. Edythe Cawthorne, 3107 E. 7th street, "On the basis of information I had prior to his calling out the Guard, I think it was ridiculous. Perhaps, he knew something more reliable. I had heard there were indications. But if it was on the basis of an 8-year-old girl calling a radio station, it was just ridiculous."

C. Frank Franklin, 1124 14th place, "I think it was more playing politics; what he did was very dangerous; if anyone had thought that such a thing (disturbance) was going to happen, they could have come to join it and really created a disturbance."

LBJ TELLS AIDES TO INVESTIGATE WHY ONLY 9 NEGRO NAVAL CADETS

Washington—On orders of President Johnson, Defense Secretary McNamara and Navy Secretary Nitze will try to determine why so few Negroes attend the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md.

The President ordered the probe Tuesday, Aug. 3, following a meeting with Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. During the conference, Wilkins told

Hails Appointment of L.A. Riot Study Panel

Los Angeles—The appointment by Gov. Edmund G. Brown of "a seven-member commission of distinguished Californians to make an objective and dispassionate study" of the five days of rioting which erupted in Los Angeles, Wednesday, August 11, was hailed this week by Leonard H. Carter, West Coast Regional director for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Carter pledged "the full support of the NAACP to cooperate in every way possible to bring about conditions not only in Los Angeles, but throughout the state which would make a recurrence of the tragic violence impossible."

"For many years our Los Angeles Chapter has pointed out to public officials the dangers of poor police-community relations," he asserted, adding, "even our pleas for a city human relations commission was rejected in previous years."

The President met with Wilkins in Mr. Johnson that there were only nine Negroes among the 4,000 academy midshipman.

Series

the first of a series of discussions with civil rights leaders leading up to a White House civil rights conference sometime this fall.

Press Secretary Bill D. Moyers said Mr. Johnson directed the two Defense Department officials "to look into the matter right away and make a report to him." Mr. Moyers said the President wants to be sure the same principle of equality of treatment applies at the Naval Academy as elsewhere in the government.

Agreement

Wilkins told newsmen the President agreed that the Negro enrollment figure at Annapolis "looked a little low." The NAACP director said: "I don't think that it is right. After all, gold braid looks just as good on them as it does on other people. They work as hard."

A Pentagon spokesman confirmed there were nine Negroes enrolled at the Naval Academy. He said there

Companion Hurt Critically; Another Ambushed Near Jackson, Miss., Apartment

Hayneville, Ala.—Tom Coleman, 52, a part-time deputy sheriff shot and killed Jonathan Daniels and critically wounded Rev. Richard Morrisroe, both white on Aug. 20. Rev. Morrisroe was taken to the Baptist Hospital in Montgomery where he is in critical condition. Doctors operated on him for more than five hours in an attempt to save his life.

Demonstrators

On Aug. 14, 27 persons were arrested on charges of disturbing the peace and parading without a permit as they picketed white-owned stores in nearby Fort Deposit. They had been held in jail under $100 bond for a week and were suddenly told, on the afternoon of the 20th, to get out. No bond had been posted.

Walked

They walked out of the Hayneville courthouse together and as no one had been notified they were going to be released, there was no one present to carry them home. All but six decided to walk home. These six included Willie Vaughn, Rev. Richard Morrisroe, Ruby Sales, Gloria Larry, Joyce Bailey and Jonathan Daniels.

Stopped at Store

They decided to stop at a small store about 500 yards from the courthouse to purchase food. No one felt any threat of danger, having traded at this store on previous occasions. man—later identified as Coleman—them and told them to get out of with a shotgun in his hand cursed his store. Before they could turn around to leave he began to shoot. Ruby Sales was in front and she was pushed to the floor by Daniels. He was shot in the stomach and died immediately. Joyce Bailey was pushed down by Rev. Morrisroe just before he was shot.

When everything quieted down, Ruby called out "John" but there was no answer. Ruby says "I tried to push him out of the doorway but he was too heavy." Joyce and Gloria began to ask if everyone was o.k. but no answer came from Daniels or Rev. Morrisroe. Panic stricken they began to run.

A friend of Joyce Bailey's drove them to Selma, to the Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee office. A mob of local white people gathered outside the office and threatened the civil rights workers.

Stokeley Carmichael, Lowndes County project director says "people are very tense in Hayneville and Selma. Sheriff Clark has deputized over 300 whites in the past few hours."

Seminarian

Jonathan Daniels, 27 year old seminarian at the Episcopal Theological Seminary in Cambridge, Mass. was in Alabama working with the Episcopal Society for Cultural and Racial Unity which has its headquarters in Atlanta. He had completed two years of study in the three-year course toward a bachelor of divinity

Jackson, Miss.—A white minister active in civil rights activities became the third person to be injured in the south in less than a week when he was shot from behind with buckshot Sunday night as he walked into his apartment house.

Jackson police said the Rev. Donald A. Thompson, 59-year-old minister of First Unitarian Church here, was ambushed about 10:45 p.m. as he walked toward the rear door of the apartment building.

He was reported in critical condition at Baptist Hospital Monday. Police said they were advised a lung was punctured and his shoulder broken.

A Call

Thompson, a native of Terre Haute, Ind., has been a minister here two years. He has been volunteer secretary of the Mississippi Council on Human Relations.

His Unitarian church is desegregated and serves as a teaching center for an Operation Head Start kindergarten.

Police said they received a call from the apartment building manager and found Thompson lying beside a car near the rear entrance to the building.

'Saw a Car'

Police said he told them he had just driven into the apartment parking lot after attending a board meeting at his church. He said he had driven a Negro member of the church, Johny Frazier, an official of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, to a Negro area of the city.

Thompson saw a car enter the parking lot, officers said, and a shot was fired at him, but missed. The second shot hit him in the back of the left shoulder.

Wilkins: Riot Hurt Rights Cause; Gave Free Ammo to Negro Haters in So. Calif.

New York—"The Los Angeles riot hurt the cause of civil rights because it gave free ammunition in generous amounts to Negro haters in the Southern California hot-bed and over the nation," Roy Wilkins declared in his column which appeared in the Amsterdam News, a weekly newspaper, dated Saturday, August 21.

"But, along with this damage," asserted the executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, "the riot revealed sickness that, unless cured by the people themselves, can hurt the Negro community's forward movement."

Wilkins said he was well aware that, "Negro citizens in Los Angeles have just grievances." Also, that, "The Watts area has the lowest per capita income in the entire city except that of skid row bums."

Police Chief

Furthermore, he continued, "Black Angelinos have had a hard and unsympathetic police chief and department on their backs for more than 15 years," noting that, "It was a police incident that set off the riot."

"But no grievances are settled by mob action and senseless mass destruction of property. The remedy lies in a determined and inescapable presentation of the grievances to the proper authorities with the widest possible publicity and the smartest possible use of political strength," the NAACP director declared.

Skin Color

"Choosing the emotional outlet of rioting and anarchy could mean the enthronement of thievery as an ideal of the 'Freedom Movement.' It could mean a society-sanctioned practice of hating people for their skin color alone—a practice Negroes have fought since 1619.

"Real opportunities are at last opening up for the black minority. The machinery to enable it to win its share has been provided. Allies, including government, stand ready to aid. There need be no more riots for both blacks and whites to lose," he said.

Watts Residents Swamp NAACP for Legal Aid

Los Angeles—As law and order returned to the predominantly Negro community of Watts this week, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People began processing hundreds of requests for legal aid from relatives and friends of persons jailed during the five days of rioting which erupted Wednesday night, Aug. 11.

"It appears that everyone who has someone in jail is coming to the NAACP for legal assistance," said Leonard H. Carter, the Association's West Coast Regional director. He added, however, that all requests are being screened carefully.

"We are primarily interested in aiding those persons who were unjustly jailed when police made mass arrests."

Complaints

Along with the requests for legal aid, Mr. Carter said the NAACP is also processing complaints from Watts residents who were not involved in the disorders, charging police with mistreatment.

HEALTH FOR ALL

"OLD DEBBIL SEA"

That sparkling sand, those lazy little waves are so linked with fun and forgetfulness, it seems positively antisocial to remind anybody that beach life has its hazards, too. The sand in the picillili, the peeling proboscis, are things you can survive. Drowning is more difficult.

Common Sense

Best ways to avoid drowning are the ways dictated by common sense but ignored by people ducking dictation when pleasure beckons. Don't for instance, go it alone; it's better to have a swimming partner and practice your rugged individualism some other time. Don't dive unless you're sure the water is deep enough and doesn't conceal any sharp or blunt obstacles to your wholeness of body and mind. Don't swim if you're tired, overheated, or full of that last luscious meal. And don't try to entertain your friends or yourself by getting too far-out in the water.

Respiration

All right, so it isn't going to happen to you—we hope—but what about the lad, or lady, who isn't primed with reminders? If you happen to be present when there's a drowning or near-drowning incident, it can be highly useful to know about artificial respiration.

Life Saving

The modern approved life-saving technique in such cases is mouth-to-mouth breathing. You place the victim face upward and clear his mouth of possible debris. Then, to keep his tongue from closing the air passages, you tilt his head back and push or pull his jaw so it juts outward. Next you pinch his nostrils shut. Then you place your mouth over his mouth and breathe hard at the rate of about 12 breaths a minute. If you prefer it, a cloth between mouth won't affect the passage of air materially.

If results don't appear, keep trying. Lives have been saved because the rescuer refused to give up. Keep at it until breath returns, or until a doctor has pronounced death, or it's evident without question.

RIGHTS WORKERS

Father Morrisroe, 26, assistant pastor at St. Columbanus Church in Chicago, had come to Alabama during the Selma crisis and had stayed to work in the civil rights struggle.

Family

Tom Coleman is the father of two children, one of them Tom Coleman, Jr., a state patrolman. He has a brother Joe L. Coleman, who is chairman of the Montgomery city water works, and a sister, Hilda Coleman is superintendent of Lowndes County Schools.

Hayneville is the county seat of Lowndes and is approximately 40 miles southeast of Selma. Mrs. Liuzzo, a white civil rights worker was killed near here last March.

Confession

Carlton L. Perdue, county solicitor says "Tom Coleman has admitted the shooting but has signed no confession. We are not going to pre-try this man. We have our stomachs full of how the president tried to pre-try those other three men."

The four witnesses have gone into hiding because they fear for their lives.

"It was very presumptuous. I have not heard of evidence that he tried to verify the rumors. I can see his point of wanting to prevent any violence on the magnitude of the L.A. riots, but I don't think anything like that could happen here."

Rev. O. M. Peavy, 1520 13th street, "It was very deploring. For a leader of a state to call out the National Guard on unconfirmed rumor is very deploring."

Mrs. James Morrow, 1701 Carpenter street, "In view of the California riots and reports that if they had called out the National Guard sooner it would not have been as bad. I can see his point. I don't envy his job, as rumor is founded or not. If not then the man was wise in doing what he did. At first I thought it was unfortunate, but I'm broad-minded enough to see his position."

Rozenting Hardaway, 1128 11th street, "I had heard rumors there was going to be a riot on Center street, not at the Fair. I believe it is good to be ready and not need

DEFENSE FUND SUIT CHALLENGES TEACHER DISCRIMINATION IN N.C.

Greensboro, N.C.—The NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund has filed suit in Federal District Court here on behalf of a Negro school teacher who contends she lost her job when the schools were desegregated.

The suit names Mrs. Audrey Gillis Wall and the North Carolina Teachers Association against the Stanley County Board of Education. The Association has about 12,500 members, mostly Negro teachers in North Carolina public schools.

Mrs. Wall, who has taught at Negro schools in Stanley County for 13 years, alleges that she and other Negro teachers were dismissed in anticipation of decreased enrollment in Negro schools for the coming school year.

The county has adopted a "freedom of choice" integration plan which permits students to choose the public school they wish to attend. About 100 pupils have requested transfer from all-Negro to all-white schools this fall, according to Mrs. Wall's complaint.

Complaints Filed Against Building Trade Unions

Title VII

Washington—Following demonstrations last week in Cincinnati by the NAACP protesting discrimination in the city's building trades unions, the Association filed complaints, Aug. 18, with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission against several AFL-CIO building and construction trades unions.

Among the unions cited by the NAACP were the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, the Plumbers and Pipe Fitters Union, the Cement and Concrete Workers, the Bricklayers and the Mason Tenders Union.

Originated

In addition to Cincinnati, the complaints originated in Pittsburgh, Memphis and New York.

Demonstrations were also held last week in Pittsburgh by the NAACP. In both places NAACP branch officials protesting racial discrimination by the unions were arrested.

85 Others

Several major multi-plant corporations, labor unions and employment agencies were targets of the NAACP complaints which charged racial bias in employment and promotion policies.

How this one building escaped so much as a cracked window, no one knows. Some speculate that the building escaped because it is owned by and contains the district offices of the Golden State Mutual Insurance Company, a Negro-operated business.

Listed as violating Title VII of the Civil Rights Act in affidavits signed by local Negroes were the Alabama State Employment Service, North Carolina State Employment Security Commission and the Mississippi State Employment Service.

Complaints were also filed against the Lockheed Aircraft Corp., Marietta, Ga.; American Cast Iron Pipe Co., Birmingham, Ala.; Southern Pacific Railway Co.—Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, Houston, Tex.; Masonite Corp.—International Woodworkers of America, AFL-CIO, Laurel, Miss.; Philip Morris Tobacco Co., Richmond, Va.; American Federation of Musicians, Nashville, Tenn.

Heads Staff of U.S. Commission on Rights

Washington, D. C. — William L. Taylor has been confirmed by the U.S. Senate as Staff Director of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights.
Taylor, 33, became the third person to head the 8-year-old Federal civil rights agency when the Senate gave unanimous consent to his nomination on Aug. 11. President Lyndon B. Johnson nominated Taylor as the agency's Staff Director on March 1, 1965.

Assistant
Taylor joined the Commission staff in May 1961, as a special assistant to the then Staff Director Berl I. Bernhard. A year later he was made Assistant Staff Director for Liaison and Information. He was named General Counsel for the Commission in October 1963, the position he held when nominated to be Staff Director.

Service
Taylor served four years as secretary to the President's Subcabinet Group on Civil Rights, an interdepartmental committee established by the President to coordinate civil rights policy. He frequently represents John A. Hannah, chairman of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, on Presidential committees.

A wide variety of advertisers are using the columns of the Bystander business and believe that this medium is a good avenue to carry their have to sell. They are looking for to acquaint the public with what they message.

Deltas Re-elect Dr. Geraldine Woods

Los Angeles — Dr. Geraldine P. Woods of Los Angeles was reelected national president of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Aug. 19, concluding one of the most successful and productive conventions in the history of the fifty-four year old organization.

Cincinnati, Ohio was selected as convention site in August 1967. Three thousand five hundred delegates and their families attended the six day meeting headquartered at the Ambassador hotel.

Climax and closing of the event activities was a banquet at which Mrs. Patricia Harris, newly named Ambassador to Luxembourg and a Delta addressed her fellow sorors as principal speaker.

"Whether it be Washington, D.C. or Watts, Calif. Ambassador Harris said, Negroes have felt and experienced the sting of deprivation, scorn and hypocrisy not only from whites but from affluent Negroes as well." and she suggested to her audience a program for improved relations with the less fortunate Negro masses.

Citations

Miss Dorothy I. Height, president of the National Council of Negro Women and a former Delta president was awarded the sorority's highest honor, the Mary Church Terrell award for her work in the field of civil rights and human relations.

An award was also presented to Vivian Malone, first Negro graduate from the University of Alabama. Mrs. Medgar Evers, widow of the famed Mississippi Civil rights fighter was initiated into the sorority.

COWARDLY ATTACKS ON FREEDOM OF ACTION

Last week, Jonathan Daniels, a student Episcopal priest from New Hampshire, and Richard Morrisroe of Chicago, Roman Catholic priest were shot in broad daylight in Alabama. The student died while the Roman Catholic priest seems on the road to recovery. Both had been aiding in the civil rights work.

Sunday, Reverend Donaldson Thompson, a civil rights worker, was severely wounded by a gunshot in Mississippi.

These acts are intimidations in opposition to the assistance given by white people in the fight to gain complete citizenship for the Negro. The acts are cowardly and, of course, a reckless disregard for law and order.

But equally unfortunate and irresponsible has been the failure of juries to convict white defendants who commit crimes against Negroes and whites who are trying to help Negroes become first class citizens.

The hung juries and acquittals, in the face of fair convincing evidence, cut the props from under dedicated prosecutors, in an attempt to perform their sworn duties, and tacitly agree that the crime was justified.

The only difference in the criminals in these instances is that generally they commit these crimes in the dark or with sheets over their heads, while those in Los Angeles and Chicago commit them in the open.

Both are equally offensive, uncalled for and a blot on their community.

GOVERNOR BLUNDERS;
NEEDS BETTER ADVICE

Dealing with racial questions requires a technique all its own and must be dealt with in the light of general experience plus the social aspects.

Prior to the opening of the state fair, Governor Hughes said he heard persistent rumors that Negroes would be imported from Chicago and Omaha to stage a riot and general disturbance aimed at crippling the operation of the annual event.

Governor Hughes became so disturbed over the rumors, (nobody yet has divulged their source) that he called the chief of police, attorney general, highway patrol head and bureau of investigation for advice about what to do with the approaching hoard of Negroes.

No Negroes were asked in to partake in the huddle. This, of course, meant that steel and gun powder would be the next move. The conference needed no advice or counsel from those who would be hurt most by such an escapade.

Thursday came the announcement that a contingent of the Iowa national guard had been activated to protect the public.

The Bystander has interrogated Negro citizens in all areas of the city, particularly the "man on the street". Nobody knew of any "persistent" rumors; nobody saw other than that normal floaters, white and black, who follow fairs. On the other hand, much resentment was expressed, mainly the growling that the governor's blunder had made every Negro a source of suspect for unsuspecting white people.

Many people, black and white, are at a loss as to why such a blunder over so serious a matter when he was surrounded by a coterie of officials "schooled" in police intelligence.

12,000 Added to Voter Rolls
In Miss. Since July 4 Drive

Jackson, Miss.—The appointment thus far of Federal voting registrars in nine Southern counties, with additional appointment expected shortly, is expected to substantially aid the NAACP voter registration campaign being conducted this summer in Mississippi, South Carolina and Alabama.

In a three-day period, Aug. 9-11, 236 persons registered in Natchez, 168 persons in Jackson and 248 in Vicksburg. Since the NAACP opened its voter registration drive in Mississippi on July 4, a total of 12,619 persons have become bonafide voters in the state, Miss Althea T. L. Simmons, coordinator of the three-state project, reported on Aug. 12.

Our Davis cup tennis team picks up the pieces of the wreck in Spain and one can't help but do some second guessing. Could Arthur Ashe have beaten the Spaniards? Now we will never know. Of course the non-playing captain and coach knew the situation better than the folks do at home. So maybe, they did what they thought was best. But, we would still like to have seen Arthur play the matches.

Baseball

The baseball races get a little closer each week. And that National league thing is closer than 99 is to one 100.

We were a bit surprised at the light suspension given the Giant Pitcher Juan Marichal for whacking Dodger catcher Johnny Roseboro over the head with a baseball bat. Why the fellow could have got at least 10 days in jail for such a performance on the street. Might get more than that if different charges were filed.

Football

Pennant race or not we think the fellow should have been banned for at least 20 days. He should be made to feel that if his team lost then pennant it would be his fault. Oh well, so much for that.

The Des Moines Warriors open their pro-grade season Sunday at the stadium. No one knows much about the league or the strength of the teams. There is no way of guessing where our team will finish. If they win their first couple of games they will draw some nice crowds. But if they start out by dropping a couple the fans will drop them.

So Playboy magazine has Iowa listed as a possible winner of nine games while losing one. Well, last year a handful of points was all that kept the team from having a seven and two mark. If those points fall right this year Iowa could make it big. Barring injuries to key players and with just a few breaks they didn't get last year, the Hawks could make Playboy magazine a good forecaster.

Drake

Drake will likely have an interesting team and probably a winning season. Don't know about Iowa State yet, but plan to see some of their games.

Here it is almost September and our high school season is just around the corner. Looks as if Roosevelt is going to be tough again, but maybe East will beat them. Bu we don't know how North could have a really tough outfit and get even with some of the teams that trounced the club last year.

Hoping for a rough season is yours truly.

Boxing

The boxing bill passed the house by a good margin. Now we would like to see how it is set up. We think the bill is aimed at people like Cassius Clay and Sonny Liston and their fights. The commissioners will probably be Jack Dempsey, Gene Tunney and Joe Louis, or Jersey Joe Walcott. Maybe they would make it as a team. Might be like the New York commission that earned the name of the three dumb Dukes.

Counties

One of the registrars has been sent to Leflore County, Miss., where only 2.1 per cent of the Negroes are registered. In this county, where Negroes outnumber whites by a ratio of three to one, 71.5 per cent of the white population are registered voters.

The NAACP plans to "blitz" the areas that get Federal examiners," Miss Simmons said. Approximately 145 out-of-state and full-time local volunteers have been sent to Leflore and Madison County, the other county in Mississippi which has received a federal registrar.

Buses

Buses have been chartered in the two counties, in addition to several Sifford toured the home course of Arnold Palmer in rounds of 73, 75, 71 and 75. He tied with such top players as Gary Player, Ed Furgol, Paul Harney and Palmer.

Lou Proctor Rejoins
Warriors; Moses
Stephens Is Tackle

The Des Moines Warriors, of the Professional Football League of America, announced today that Lou Proctor, former Drake University lineman, has rejoined the squad.

The center of human interest stories while at Drake, Lou lost part of one arm in an industrial accident shortly before his last season at Drake. A 23 year-old, the 5 foot 11 inch, 200 pounder, is now the recreation director at the Eldora Training School for Boys.

Where the action is, that's where you can find Moses Stephens. The 290 pound defensive tackle will hold down the line for the Warriors this season.

Surprisingly agile for his size, Big Mo is as noted for his basketball ability as he is for playing football. Stephens was on All Far East Command selection while in the service.

Mo has also played for a farm team of the Harlem Globe Trotters, at pivot, and with the Harlem Clowns. A former Idaho State and Kansas Tech star, Moses spent the 1957 and 1958 seasons with the Toronto Argonauts in the Canadian league. WHAT'S A
AREA CODE?

IT'S A QUICK
"ADDRESS" FOR A LONG DISTANCE
CALL!

Area Codes are part of the "telephone address" for Long Distance calls. They route your calls to the part of the country you are dialing. For example, to call Denver, Dial 1, which connects you to the Direct Distance Dialing network; dial the Colorado Area Code (303); then dial the telephone number you want to reach. Area Codes for many communities are listed in the front pages of your telephone book.

You use an Area Code on all DDD calls except when the Area Code listed is the same as your own. (Your home region's Area Code is shown on the front cover of your directory.)

Harvard Law School

Cambridge, Mass.—In a special seminar for students and faculty at Harvard Law School here on Aug. 20, Herbert Hill, NAACP director for labor program, said the strength of the Association lay in "the flexibility of its strategies within the context of well-defined programmatic goals . . . (and) the variety of its tactics in the struggle for Negro rights."

Mr. Hill warned the group that the "matter of unemployment and underemployment of Negroes is reaching crisis proportions and . . . the struggle for economic justice has become the central question for Negroes living in the slum ghettos of the urban North."

Witnesses
Two more officers arrived and witnesses say "they threw him in the back seat of the police car and beat him again." He was then taken to the jail where he was beat again.

Mrs. Rogers went to the jail to see if she could have her brother released, but the jailer told her to "get out." When a white friend demanded that Williams be given medical attention, Chief of Police Buck Abbott called a doctor. The doctor advised them to get Williams to the hospital immediately.

He has two broken bones in his head, a possible concussion and may have internal injuries. His legs were swollen and bloody.
