1st Major Integrated TV Series Has Plenty of Sponsors

Chicago, Ill. — Television's first major integrated weekly series, I Spy, has "more sponsors than we need," executive-producer Sheldon Leonard told Ebony magazine.

"Everybody told us we were going to have trouble with the sponsors," Leonard says in the September issue of Ebony, "but none of the boogie men we had foreseen ever materialized."

The cloak-and-dagger drama co-stars Robert Culp and comedian-turned-actor Bill Cosby. Cosby's role will avoid racial material, Ebony reports.

Cosby's role—that of manager-companion to tennis bum Kelly Robinson played by Culp—is not stereotyped. Scott is a suave, quick-thinking, karate-punching, sharpshooting good guy. He also is a brilliant Rhodes scholar, fluent in seven languages.

The show will debut on NBC-TV this fall.

Des Moines NAACP To Open Fall Meetings

The Des Moines branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, will open its fall meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 28 at 8:30 p.m. at Willkie House, 900 17th street. An executive board meeting will precede at 7:30 p.m.

All board members are urged to attend. Membership and Four F quota must be met by Dec. 1. Attend and bring suggestions for progress. Robert A. Wright is president.

Mrs. Elnora Whittler, Amputee Controversy, Dies at 73 Years

Mrs. Elnora Rose Whittler, 73, the center of an amputation controversy that landed in court, died Wednesday, Sept. 1 at Broadlawn Polk County hospital.

The amputation of Mrs. Whittler's leg, seriously affected by gangrene, had been ordered the day before by Polk County District Judge Ray Fountain, although her other living relative refused to grant permission. She died before the operation could be performed.

Judge Fountain overrode the objections of Mrs. Juana H. Lopez of Milwaukee, Wis. He ruled that they were not based on religious or sound medical grounds and that the operation was necessary to save Mrs. Whittler's life.

Mrs. Lopez, in an interview here, contended that she had, in fact, consented to the operation Aug. 16.

A week later, she said, the hospital asked her to sign a second agreement because the first was valid for only seven days.

In the intervening time, according to Mrs. Lopez, Mrs. Whittler, who lived at 1001 E. 17th street, told her that she didn't want the operation. Mrs. Lopez said that is why she wouldn't offer her consent a second time.

The operation was not performed September 1 because Mrs. Whittler's blood pressure had gone down, a source at the hospital said.

Mrs. Whittler was born in Larned, Kan., and had lived in Des Moines 20 years. She was a member of the Juneau Fidelity Temple No. 247 and

NEWS In A Nutshell

Detroit, Mich. — Black Muslim leader Elijah Muhammad has picked a successor to assassinated Malcolm X who defected last year to form his own group. Speaking before nearly 6,000 followers last week he named Boston-born Louis G. 32, to the post once held by Malcolm X.

New York—Mayor Robert F. Wagner announced the appointment of the city's first Negro commissioner of hospitals, Dr. Alonzo Smythe Yerby, 44, who succeeds Dr. Ray E. Trussell in the $32,500-a-year post.

Atlanta, Ga.—Dr. Martin L. King, Jr., and his top civil rights movement assistant, Rev. Ralph Abernathy, enrolled five of their children in a previously all-white elementary school.

Louisville, Ky.—A Negro Derby City policeman enjoys the distinction of being the highest ranking minion of the law in the South. William Hughes was promoted to major in the police department, in charge of headquarters section. Reportedly there are no other Negroes holding a position above police lieutenant.

Greensboro, Ala.—Perry Smaw, 37, farmer whose tongue was cut out as an apparent warning to those who speak out against racial demonstrations, died Aug. 27 without naming his attackers.

Denver, Colo.—It took a seven-year court battle before former Air Force Captain Marlot D. Green last year became the first Negro pilot for a major U.S. airline. Last week William Norwood, 28, became another without a ripple of controversy. He graduated from the United Air Lines Pilot Training school in Denver last week and will be based in Chicago.

Birmingham, Ala.—Art Hanes, former Birmingham mayor and an unyielding segregationist, has agreed to represent three Ku Klux Klansmen accused of murdering a Detroit civil rights worker, Mrs. Viola Liuzzo.

Baton Rouge, La.—Mayor W. W.

Dumas yesterday promised to "find and prosecute" persons who tossed a bomb and blasted a hole in a crowded Negro nightclub last week.

Clarksdale, Miss.—The twain did meet, of necessity, in an attempt to work out a community action program in the war on poverty in this Mississippi delta community. Although the task was not an easy one, white segregation leaders and Negro militants finally are in accord that the program in Coahoma county has a good chance for success.

New York—Exiled from the musical activity of his homeland, the American Negro conductor, Dean Dixon has become the greatest ambassador of American symphonic music in Europe. Former Ankeny High Athlete Tried Swimming Across Ia. River at 2 A.M.

For the second time in two months deep tragedy struck the Jesse Smith family in Ankeny. The second blow came Tuesday night when their son, Jerome Gary Smith, 19, a second semester freshman at the University of Iowa, drowned about 2 a.m. when he attempted to swim across the Iowa River at Iowa City.

Swimming

Iowa City police said Smith had entered the water near the Memorial Union and was swimming toward the University Art Building on the west side when he went down about 50 feet from shore. Two companions, John Dalrymple and Don Renard, were unable to save Smith and Mrs. Dalrymple, who had gone to the river with the group, ran to phone police. The body was recovered at 4:10 a.m.

Sister Missing

His drowning came a little over two months after another sad event struck the Smith family earlier this summer. A sister, Jessica Faith Smith, 24, has been missing since June 26 when she disappeared. She was last seen on that day when she entered the Katz drugstore at the Park Fair

Surviving

Smith is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Smith, who live at 1985 N.E. 78th street, two other sisters, Janeen, 15 and Jodina, 5, at home, and four brothers, James, 22, stationed at Shaw Air Force Base, Sumter, S.C., Jesse, Jr., who is serving in the Navy and Jason, 17, and Joseph, 14, both at home.

A number of top-ranking national and midwestern Republicans will attend the Iowa Republican Party's $100-a-plate dinner featuring former vice president Richard M. Nixon on Wednesday, Sept. 15 in Des Moines.

at the dinner will be Ray Bliss, who took over as Chairman of the Republican National Committee last April. He will be accompanied by A. B. Hermann, who is Campaign Director of the Republican National Committee.

Senator Miller

Nixon, who served two four-year terms as vice president under President Eisenhower, will be introduced at the dinner by U. S. Sen. Jack Miller, R-Iowa. Also on hand will be U. S. Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper, R-Iowa, Iowa Congressman H. R.

MILLER

No Stranger

Nixon, who is now associated with a New York law firm, is no stranger to Iowa. During one part of his World War II service with the U. S. Navy he was stationed at the old Naval Air Base at Ottumwa. Since then he has made frequent visits to the state, with the most recent one being his non-political speech at the Herbert Hoover Birthplace at West Branch, Aug. 10.

NAACP CAP Programs Score Gains in Seven Cities

New York—The NAACP Community Action Program (CAP) of the Youth and College Division in Bridgeport, Conn., has devoted the major portion of its energies to housing code violations. Some 60 complaints of violations have been collected including defective wiring, plumbing, lighting, pest and rodent infestation, fire hazards and broken glass.

Eviction

CAP volunteers have also undertaken relocation of two families, one of whom faces eviction. An employment opportunity survey has been conducted and a class in English will be initiated shortly for Spanish-speaking persons in the community.

Brooklyn

Brooklyn has continued to devote its time to a community up-lift program. A city-owned vacant lot is being purchased and funds are being raised for development of a "vest pocket park."

Approximately thirty housing complaints have been filed with city agencies and workers are continuing to organize tenants in buildings which violate the City Housing Code.

Chicago

Granville Reed, coordinator, reported on activities in seven cities in an interim statement on the project.

Chicago has also continued to work on organizing tenant councils and on filing complaints of building code violations. Already tenants in over a dozen buildings have been organized, representing over fifteen hundred residents.

Efforts in Detroit are being directed to an intensified voter registration campaign, geared to an important city election in which two Negroes stand a good chance of being elected to the City Council.

DENT COMMITTEE TO CONSIDER ESTABLISHMENT OF NEGRO HISTORY MUSEUM COMMISSION

Washington, D. C.—U. S. Representative John H. Dent (D., Pa.) today announced his education subcommittee would hold hearings on H. R. 10683, a bill to provide for a Negro History Museum Commission. Dent is chairman of the Select Subcommittee on Education of the House Committee on Education and Labor. The hearings are scheduled for Sept. 21-22, in Washington, D. C.

The bill was recently introduced by U. S. Representative James H. Scheuer (D., N.Y.), and would establish the commission of 11 members to study all proposals for establishing a Museum of Negro History and Culture in the U. S.

The Commission would be appointed by the President, composed of authorities on Negro History and Culture, and would report its findings and recommendations to the President and the Congress.

Federal Reserve Bank of New York Ending Discriminatory Hiring Policies

New York—Following intensive negotiations lasting four months, CORE and the NAACP announced that the Federal Reserve Bank of New York has begun to hire large numbers of Negroes and Puerto Ricans in the New York Federal Reserve Bank. Talks were begun four months ago as a result of complaints of discrimination received by CORE and NAACP. An investigation revealed a discriminatory pattern of employment. Since the start of negotiations, Federal Reserve hiring policy has improved, the civil rights groups reported.

Quick Turnover

Because of the large number of Federal Reserve employees and a quick turnover, the bank hires many new employees in the course of the year. The bank now extensively advertises openings in the Negro press.

Robert J. Wood, executive vice president of Carl Byoir and Associates, one of the largest Public Relations firms in the world, today announced that B & C Associates of High Point will become an affiliate of that firm, effective Sept. 1.

In addition to the services of B & C Associates under the affiliation, Robert J. Brown, president of B & C Associates, will become a member of the Plans Board of Carl Byoir

Earlier this year, he was the first Negro recipient of the Distinguished Service Award for the High Point Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Rights Office To Serve Iowa

A U. S. Commission on Civil Rights field office slated to open about Oct. 1 in Chicago will serve Iowa among seven states.

The office, which also will serve Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Wisconsin, Michigan and Minnesota, will be directed by John Lee McKnight, 33, who until recently was head of the midwest equal employment opportunity office of the U. S. Army Materiel Command in Chicago.

The new outlet is to provide information on federal civil rights policies and programs and to assist the U. S. commission in collecting and disseminating civil rights information and appraising the effectiveness of civil rights laws.

On Corner

According to Birmingham police, Rev. Shuttlesworth and several other persons were standing on a street corner engaged in conversation when a policeman who had been observing them ordered them to move. The civil rights leader was arrested as he questioned the officer as to why they could not stand on the sidewalk. Rev. Shuttlesworth contends that he and a group of friends were walking along the sidewalk, and paused for a traffic light at a corner. He said a policeman accosted him and told him to move on, but positioned himself

GOP Plan Fund Raising Barbecue

Plans for a fund raising open-pit barbecue picnic to be held Sept. 28 at the Iowa State Fairgrounds were announced by Allen Danielson, chairman of the Polk County Republican Central Committee.

Featured speaker will be Governor Robert E. Smylie of Idaho who will fly to Des Moines that day from Boise for the occasion.

Governor Smylie, who was born in Cherokee County, Iowa, is currently chairman of the Republican section of the National Governors Committee. He is serving his third 4-year term as Governor of Idaho.

Danielson said the picnic will kick off a number of Republican activities planned in the county this fall and will have the theme "Come Alive in '65". Picnic hours were announced as 4:30 to 9 o'clock p.m., and ticket prices have been set at $5.00 for adults and $1.50 under 21.

Dr. Paul Thielking of Des Moines is the chairman of the ticket sales, and John Estes, Jr. of Des Moines is to be in charge of arrangements for the picnic.

Other entertainment is planned and will be announced at a future date, Danielson said.

George E. Flagg Is Council Candidate

George E. Flagg, 40, of 744 52nd street, is a candidate for the Des Moines City Council. Active in civic organizations he is a member of the American Civil Liberties Union and was a unsuccessful candidate for Polk County Attorney and Senator on the Republican ticket.

Flagg stated, his foremost reason in decision to be a candidate is concern over the ever increasing and crushing tax burden now being imposed in Des Moines and the resultant removal of industrial plants from Des Moines and loss of new plants.

Flagg has led elections to replace the manager plan with mayor-council or commission plan types of government. Although he feels that the manager plan has been faulty in Des Moines, that it could be made to work if spending was cut and local people served in the manager's office. He promises not to be a rubber stamp for any special interest group.

James N. Parker Seeks City Council Seat

James N. Parker, seeking a seat on the City Council stated "I believe: in eliminating any and every expense (except emergencies) at once, to draw a halt to any more tax increases while setting up the Industry Growth Program, which I propose: this, or a similar program is imperative, now.

"I believe: in appealing to you, the people, to not cast one vote for anyone who does not support a platform, which will assure you of immediate growth in Des Moines. These mea-

CORE Registers Over 4,000 Voters in Canton

Canton, Miss.—In a county where official figures show that registered white voters amount to more than the number of voting age whites, CORE workers have helped to register over 4,000 Negroes in the past three weeks. Madison County has 5,622 voting age whites and 6,256 registered white voters. Until this past month, the number of Negro registered voters was below 300 out of a total Negro voting age population of over 10,000.

Other developments in Madison County include the desegregation of the county's school system, whereby over 100 Negro youngsters will attend previously all white schools for grades 1, 2, 3, and 12. During the summer, over 400 Negro youngsters participated in the Operation Headstart program, the largest such program in Mississippi.

CORE ENDORSES N.Y.C. PRIMARY CANDIDATES

New York, N. Y.—For the first time in its history, CORE chapters in the New York City area endorsed candidates in the city's primary elections. MASON CITY

BY MRS. M. TURNER
638 So. Adams Street
Phone GA. 4-3639

The St. John Baptist Sunday school was held with Supt. C. Duncan in charge. At 11 a.m. Rev. R. Giles preached on "A Charge Amount."

Rechinda Walker sang a solo, "Bless This House." Visiting worshippers were Mrs. Essie Easley, sister of Mrs. W. Barnett and Mrs. Katherine Cotton from Kansas City, Mo., sister of Calvin Duncan.

In the afternoon the Youth chorus of the church rendered a program at the Country Home. Robert Giles read from the Scriptures. Deacon McGruder prayed. Congregational singing was held with Deborah singing the solo parts. Rev. R. Giles gave the benediction.

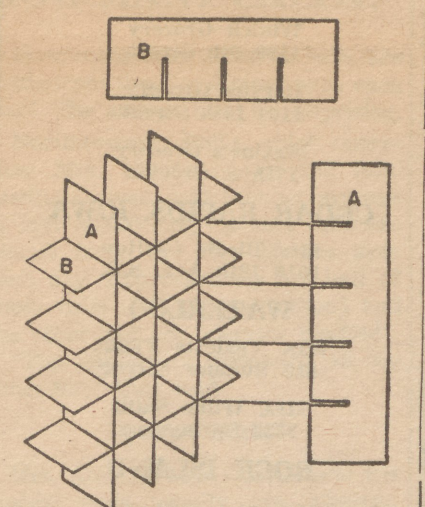

Mrs. Maud Brewton's son, Theodore Brewton and grandsons were visitors at her home.

Dr. and Mrs. LeRoy Dunn, and children, Denise and LeRoy III, were guests at his mother's home, Mrs. Willie Turner.

To Make 'Classifiers'

IN THE well-ordered home, there is ample opportunity to use "classifiers" in cabinets and drawers. Probably the simplest kind is the egg-crate type illustrated. As shown, these pigeonhole classifiers are first-rate for a tool or storage cabinet. In a flat position, the same style of classifiers may be used in a drawer.

One-eighth-inch slots should be sawed into pieces of Masonite 1/4" Tempered Duolux, a strong, smooth, two-sided hardboard which won't snag the finest fabrics and which wears indefinitely. Each slot should be cut half the width of the hardboard. To make the egg-crate construction, fit the slots together.

Area Codes are part of the "telephone address" for Long Distance calls. They route your calls to the part of the country you are dialing. For example, to call Denver: Dial 1, which connects you to the Direct Distance Dialing network; dial the Colorado Area Code (303); then dial the telephone number you want to reach. Area Codes for many communities are listed in the front pages of your telephone book.

You use an Area Code on all DDD calls except when the Area Code listed is the same as your own. (Your home region's Area Code is shown on the front cover of your directory.)

clock's yawp, comes Labor Day looming with its intimations of football weekends, autumn wardrobes, technicolor trees—and the annual march back to school.

That procession involves quite a ritual in millions of homes. Trips to the stationer for school supplies. Trips to the outfitters; maybe trips to the toy shop for consolation prizes. There's hardly a moppet-infested home that won't be bustling with such preparations in early September.

Safari

But there's another kind of trip even greater in importance: the safari to the doctor's office for the back-to-school checkup. Some families make it a group project. Some, alas, don't manage to remember it at all.

It may not rival the fun of trying on new togs or exploring a stationery and toy store. But there's this to be said for the schooltime medical checkup; it helps determine whether your child's school year is to be a time of health and well-being, or a season of dragged-down droopiness or some unsatisfactory in between. If any organ of the young physique—sight, hearing, nose and throat, heart, lungs—isn't functioning properly, it can cause poor classroom performance on your

Then there's that vital matter of vaccinations or booster shots. Are your young ones adequately protected against whooping cough? Diphtheria? Tetanus? Smallpox? Polio? Measles? Have they had tuberculin tests within the last year or so? For that matter—have you?

CAN YOU GUESS HOW MANY CALLS?

How many long distance calls are made from the Des Moines area each day? The answer may be surprising.

Northwestern Bell's chief operators, Mrs. Charlene Atz and Mrs. Lucille Graves, said that an average of over 36,000 long distance calls are placed from the Des Moines area each day. Approximately one half of these calls are customer dialed and the other half are operator handled.

"The number is increasing all the time, too," they said.

Busiest Days

Mrs. Atz and Mrs. Graves said the busiest days usually are Monday, Wednesday and Friday. And the busiest periods of the day are from 10

ICED TEA—LOW IN CALORIES—WELCOME BEVERAGE

It takes a little planning to be a gifted hostess that is, one who enjoys herself as much as her guests. But it's a real gift to be able to plan simple, self-serving refreshments that won't turn you into a hot, tired hostess during the summer months.

There's one thing you can count on when you're expecting company on a hot day—and that is that practically everyone who arrives is generally pretty thirsty. And what could be more thirst-quenching than a nice, tall frosty glass of iced tea topped off with a sprig of mint and lemon wedge. You cool off just by looking at it! And, of course, it has practically no calories, as you'll note from the following chart.

Beverages	Approx. No. Calories per six ounces	RAISIN BRAN BREAD
*Iced tea (unsweetened)	4.0	2 cups sifted flour
*Iced coffee (unsweetened—without cream)	11.0	2½ teaspoons double-acting baking powder
Sugar-free carbonated beverage	18.0	1 teaspoon salt
Beer	59.0	½ cup sugar
Cola beverages	82.0	¼ cup milk
Lemonade, frozen	86.0	3 tablespoons molasses
Carbonated, fruit-flavored beverage	91.0	3 tablespoons melted butter or other shortening
Grape juice	111.0	½ cup raisin bran
*Iced Tea—30 with sugar and lemon		Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt and sugar, and sift again. Combine egg, milk and molasses. Add to flour mixture, add shortening and cereal, then mix only enough to dampen all flour. Bake in greased 8 x 4 x 3-inch loaf pan, in moderate oven (350°F.) 1 hour, or until done. Cool. Wrap in damp cloth or waxed paper and store several hours or overnight before slicing.
*Iced Coffee—94 with sugar, cream
To make 2 quarts or about 10 servings of iced tea, pre-measure 5 tablespoons loose tea (or 15 tea bags). Bring 2 quarts fresh cold water to a full rolling boil. Remove from heat.

to 11 AM and from 8 to 10 PM.

"We still experience a big increase in calling starting at 9:00 PM weekdays. Apparently some people are still not aware that the lowest long distance rates now go into effect an hour earlier at 8:00 PM on weekdays—and that these lowest rates are in effect all day Sunday," they pointed out.

According to Mrs. Atz and Mrs. Graves, the cities called most often from here are Chicago, Kansas City and Omaha.

Increase

Two years ago, about 16,000 operator handled calls a day were made from here. Today's average is an increase of over 12%. Calls into the Des Moines area have jumped also. About 40,000 calls a day terminate here.

It all means that telephone users in the Des Moines area have interests across the nation and that interest is growing each year, they said.

PAULINE B. HUMPHREY, Manager

The Big Labor Day holiday weekend is over. Unlike the Memorial day and July 4th holidays this one kept pace with the tragic auto accidents. The rains hampered out-door activities somewhat but it was an enjoyable and restful weekend, however, you spent it.

Hope that when it came time to turn back the clocks to the regular Central Standard suntime, that you did not make as big a boo-boo as yours truly. We went to bed, arose as usual and girded ourselves for the big day, getting the youngsters off to school and preparing to meet a one-day deadline for the Bystander. All went well, until our second son who had gotten off to school, returned and reported the shocking news that he had arrived at school an hour too early.

Not only had we cheated the children and ourself out of an extra hour's sleep, we were left with the suspicion that we would accomplished the impossible, a 25-hour day, which would give us ample time to overcome our chagrin.

We had a call from Mr. Earl Bridgewater, new principal of Irving Junior high who complimented the Bystander on the Aug. 19th publication of a letter written by Lacey D. Spriggs, vice principal of the school. Mr. Bridgewater told us that the letter had been clipped from the issue and placed on the school's bulletin board for teachers and students to read. He also requested that a copy of the issue be sent to the new school superintendent, Dr. Dwight M. Davis.

All parents should be interested and if they have time, attend some portion of the one-day conference on "Rearing Children of Good Will," to be held Monday, Sept. 20 at Unitarian church, Bell and Casady drive. (A story appears elsewhere). Among the co-operating organizations are the Des Moines chapter of Jack and Jill of America, Inc. and the YWCA.

Last week a pretty postcard arrived from Mrs. Jeanne Morris, who was in Cairo, Ill. Her note indicated it was her first time south. Her statement sent us to a World Almanac to check the map, and sure enough she was right. Cairo, Ill., is on the southern most tip of Illinois, just across the Ohio river from Kentucky. We recall as we were growing up that the imaginary Mason-Dixon line which separated the North and south, was drawn along St. Louis, Mo., which would include nearly the one-third lower portion of Illinois, too.

Mrs. Morris wrote of some experiences and observances:

"I left Des Moines Sunday afternoon, Aug. 22 for Muscatine, Ia., to drive with friends to Cairo, Ill., to attend the 94th Illinois Annual A.M.E. conference. It was a long but an enjoyable drive.

"I was surprised to see so few Negroes on the streets of Cairo. It was also a surprise to see so many vacation business buildings and houses for sale. I believe someone said the population in Cairo has dropped from 20,000 to 9,000.

"We wondered what the people (Negro) did to earn a living. There seemed to be so little business or industry. We expected to see more Negro businesses.

"The white people seemed glad to have our business. One of the nice eating places (Mark Twain) had all of their prices marked up. I think it was good for the city of Cairo to have this convention of intelligent, well behaved and well dressed Negroes, about 1,500. It should make for better race relations there.

"We had arrived in Cairo on Monday at 6 p.m. and checked into the city motel. The conference opened Tuesday evening so Tuesday morning we drove to Paducah, Ky. On the way we stopped to see the ancient buried City, Fort Defiance, and the confluence of the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers.

"In Cairo we went through Magnolia Manor House, where General Grant stayed at one time. My first time to see a Magnolia tree. This was my first time to be in the South. It was all very interesting and the scenery beautiful.

"As we went in and out of stores, we saw only two Negro girls working in the Woolworth's stores, one as a cashier and one as a waitress in another. I remarked to the cashier, that this was my first trip south. She replied, "You haven't missed anything."

"I enjoyed the trip, we had a good conference and it was certainly well attended. Glad I went and as always, glad to get home.

"La Tricia King, of Muscatine, said, "I never saw anyone so glad to go home."

I'm going to school...
please drive carefully!

VOTE IN THE SCHOOL
ELECTION MONDAY

The independent school district of Des Moines is electing three members of the school board Monday. Candidates in the race come from business, housewives, the professional and middle class groups which is as it should be. It shows an interest in the schools far beyond anything that has occurred for many years.

As the new assessment of real estate in Polk County was completed and with increased building construction in the district that has been going on this year, most tax payers felt that the board of education would at least hold the line and come up with a budget which would not cause an increase in taxes.

Unfortunately, the board has succumbed to a program which is disquieting in that the budget will require an increase in the school levy and thus more taxes on real estate.

Altogether to much of the cost of schools falls on real estate and thus a great many people escape payment of but little cost of the operation of schools. The legislature, fearful of the very people who would benefit, refuse to levy taxes that are fair and equitable. Unquestionably, the sales tax is the fairest and most all inclusive tax that is levied for it broadens the base of taxation.

The Bystander makes no endorsement of candidates in the school election. However, there are those who call forcefully for holding the budget to such increases as are justified in the light of the tax load. These additions and improvements can come without continued rise year in and year out of a fair tax load.

Heretofore school elections have brought very few people to the polls. This has been occasioned by the trend in government to concentrate power in a small group which handles the people's business in a dictatorial manner, like the corporation executive who is interested in rounding up 51% of the vote of stock holders at meetings rather than the 95% which represents most of the stockholders.

Vote Monday for the people who wish to conduct a business like school administration rather than one which spends and spends and gives little consideration to those who pay the bills.

MARICHAL'S CONDUCT
PENALIZES SPORTS

Baseball games produce many queer situations, rubeisms, fist-fights but they set no precedent for the San Francisco Giants' pitcher who in the heat of the game, assaulted catcher Johnny Roseboro of the Dodgers with a baseball bat.

Juan Marichal was fined $1,750 and suspended for eight days. Warren Giles, who levied the fine, said that this was a hard decision to make because the penalty against Juan Marichal had damaged the chance of the Giants, one of the leading contenders in National League pennant race.

Juan Marichal should have been suspended and fined even more. And while such a penalty would have hurt the Giants this should have no influence in settling the situation which constitutes such a blot on sports.

A man is responsible for the consequences of his acts. A baseball player on the diamond who uses a bat against another player is a poor sport, disregarding his obligation as a sport to allow his adversary an equal chance to defend himself. It sets a bad example for youngsters who hope to follow his example as a baseball player.

The Bystander is fully concerned with the rise in crime today much of which can be traced to those who meter out punishment. All too often this gives criminals the notion that they can commit offenses and get off with a slap on the wrist and this is about what happened in the Marichal affair.

DES MOINES STEPS UP WITH MASSEY-FERGUSON

Des Moines moved a big step further in becoming a more industrial city when Massey-Ferguson decided to locate here.

When Solar Aircraft closed its plant here, most of its employees had difficulty finding jobs. Many were forced to take jobs with less pay, all of which caused many people to leave town.

The firm is a happy addition to the Des Moines family; undoubtedly both will be benefitted by the move.

What a month September is! Tennis, baseball and the opening of football. Not to mention a few races by horses, cars and people. If you are a sports fan, you can see just about any sports you want if you just wait a while. They are all here in this brilliant month.

The pennant races are threatening to go down to the wire. Football season has decided to televise exhibition games. So it will be increasingly hard to get baseball on Saturday afternoons.

Ashe

We would like to see Arthur Ashe win the American Tennis championship being played at Forest Hills, N. Y. He probably won't though since he is seeded at about 7th in the draw and tennis seasons have a peculiar habit of running too few to form. Maybe he will reach the quarterfinals and will probably make into the final round.

Warriors

So the Warriors ran into more than they could handle at Grand Rapids. We asked our fellow about it and he said we got beat. This Grand Rapids team is probably the chief of the league. They have players who are just a shade below the big league caliber and are better organized than any new team. They might win the league crown, of course, our guys need some help here and there and as the season wears on will probably get it or become better organized. They are going to win some more games.

Wonder how this league compares with the other minor football leagues around the country?

East High

The word around the city is that East is the team to beat this year. We should know more about it after this weekend. The Cerebral Palsy game is a fine thing played for a good cause, but because of the early opening of the regular season, coaches just don't jerk too many of their stars out there. This is the first time that we can recall a season ending Oct. 29. Seems as if they could go into November.

Another Alou Brother
Wants to Play Ball

Chicago, Ill.—There's another Alou brother ready to break into the majors, the September issue of Ebony magazine reports.

His name is George and he wants to play for the San Francisco Giants. However, his mother wants him to become a doctor.

Meanwhile, Ebony notes that brothers Felipe of the Milwaukee Braves and Matty and Jesus of the Giants form the biggest family act in the majors today.

All three were once Giants and it's possible that if Felipe was not traded in December of 1963, the Giants would have three brothers in the outfield today.

If George lives up to the family reputation, Ebony says, the possibility still exists.

Matty is only 26 and Jesus is only 23. Both figure to be around a long time. Brother George is only a few years away, unless mother Alou wins out.

Charlie Sifford Has
Big Golf Payday

Sutton, Mass.—Charlie Sifford collected $3,350 for an eighth place finish in the $200,000 Carling Tournament at the 6,713-yard, par 36-35-71 Pleasant Valley County Club Monday.

Sifford was seven strokes off the pace set by winner Tony Lema, who carded a 71-71-67-70-297. Sifford of Los Angeles, posted a 73-70-70-73-286 to tie with Jack Cupit and two others for eighth place.

Four strokes behind Sifford was the top money winner, Jack Nicklaus.

Roseboro Sues Marichal for $110,000 in Bat Assault

Los Angeles, Calif.—Los Angeles Dodger Catcher John Roseboro has taken two steps since he was hit on the head by San Francisco Giant pitcher Juan Marichal.

First he has taken up judo lessons from a hand-to-hand combat expert in case someone comes at him with a bat again. Second he announced Sept. 1 that he is suing Marichal for $110,000 for the "unprovoked attack made upon me at Candlestick Park on Aug. 22."

In Los Angeles, Roseboro's attorney, Leo Branton, Jr., said a complaint had been filed in Superior Court against Marichal and the Giants, asking $10,000 in general damages and $100,000 in exemplary and punitive damages.

In the brawl, Marichal struck Roseboro on the head with bat—opening a two-inch gash.

8-Day Ban

Warren Giles, National League president, suspended Marichal for eight playing days and fined him $1,750.

In his statement, Roseboro said he was bringing legal action not only because of the attack, but also because Marichal "set a bad example for millions of baseball fans" and because Marichal has "attempted to defend and justify his outrageous conduct" in recent statements.

Marichal has said he was provoked into the fight with Roseboro.

He has alleged the battle was triggered when the catcher ticked him on the ear with a ball in a throw back to pitcher Sandy Koufax. Marichal also has said Roseboro threatened him.

The Statement

"My decision to take this action is due not only to the brutal attack upon me, but, just as important, is due to the fact that some severe action should be taken against a man who not only set a bad example for millions of baseball fans throughout the world, but apparently from recent statements has attempted to defend and justify his outrageous conduct," said Roseboro in his statement.

"Therefore, I believe a Superior Court jury should decide whether this type of conduct should go unpunished with the exception of a small fine and short suspension."

Begin Little League
Football Season

The Little All American Football League of Des Moines starts its tenth season Sunday afternoon with a jamboree game.

Action starts at 1:30 on Firestone Field, just north of the Firestone plant with each of eight teams playing one quarter.

The first quarter will have East Giants vs. West 49'ers, second quarter has North Colts vs. South Rams, third quarter pits East Lions vs. West Packers, fourth quarter has North Cardinals vs. South Bears.

The regular season starts the following weekend, with each team playing a double round robin schedule in its weight division. Lightweights play on Saturday mornings, heavyweights play Sunday afternoons.

Laugh Lines

A certain ivy league professor had his classes stumped. The old man's accent, though very impressive, defied identification. Arguments over the accent's origin raged every day. Finally, one curious student blurted out one day after class, "I beg your pardon, sir, but we've all been wondering about your accent. Some of us think it's British, others Canadian, still others Bostonian."

"Well," smiled the old man, "it is none of those."

There was a long pause. Then the student asked, "Well, what is it then?"

The old man laughed. "It's sheer affectation, my lad! Sheer affectation!"

by his maternal grandfather, the late George Koons.

The Things You Do

It isn't the thing you do, dear,
It's the thing you've left undone,
Which gives you a bit of heartache,
At the setting of the sun.

The tender word forgotten,

The letter you did not write,

The flower you might have sent, dear,
Are your haunting ghosts to-night.

The stone you might have lifted,
Out of your brother's way,

The bit of heartsome counsel
You were hurried too much to say;

Shrine, Des Moines Oilmen's Club,
National Wheel & Rim Association,
Y.M.C.A., Des Moines Golf and Country Club, and Des Moines Club.

Three Children in School

Callison and his wife have three children, Michael James, 17, a freshman at Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill.; Karen Virginia, 14, a sophomore at Roosevelt High School, and James Walter, Jr., 11, a student at Merrill Junior High School.

The Callison are members of St. John's Lutheran Church.

Callison's hobbies are tennis, handball, golf, hunting and fishing. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. (Mike) Callison, live in Des Moines.

We Welcome Letters

The Bystander welcomes "letters to the editor," be they adversely critical or complimentary. However, all letters must be signed complete with street address and city.

The loving touch of the hand, dear,
The gentle and winsome tone,
That you had no time or thought for,
With troubles enough of your own.
The little act of kindness
So easily out of mind;
Those chances to be angels,
Which every mortal finds—
They come in the night and silence
Each chill reproachful wraith—
When hope is faint and flagging,
And a blight has dropped on faith.

Jim Brown Still

Same For Browns

Los Angeles—Flanker Gary Collins caught two touchdown passes and Jim Brown rushed for another touchdown Sunday as the Cleveland Browns defeated the Los Angeles Rams 21-19 to remain unbeaten in National Football League exhibition play.

With the Browns trailing 9-0, Frank Ryan hit Collins with a 25-yard pass in the second period and Jim Ninowski connected on a 12-yard scoring throw to Collins in the fourth period.

Brown climaxed a 41-yard thrust in the third period with a two-yard plunge to a touchdown.

The brilliant defensive play of the Rams, led by rookie Clancey Williams and Aaron Martin, kept the Browns bottled up much of the game. Both intercepted two passes.

In the opening period, Ryan faded into his end zone and was tackled by David Jones for a safety.
