Urges More Federal Examiners Be Sent South

U. S. Rights Body Says They Are Needed To Register Voters

Washington, D. C.—More Federal examiners should be assigned to register Negro voters in the South, the U. S. Commission on Civil Rights recommended today.

The examiners, the Commission suggested in a report on the first two months of the implementation of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, should be assigned to "all remaining political subdivisions covered by the Act in which applicants are being turned away by reasons of inadequacy of State registration facilities or in which applicants are being disqualified for failure to meet a literacy requirement."

Federal Programs

The Commission also recommended affirmative Federal programs which would encourage individuals to register to vote and at the same time give them a better understanding of the rights and duties of citizenship.

The U. S. Civil Service Commission which provides and supervises the Federal examiner program should initiate an information program which would notify all unregistered voters of the qualifications required for registration and the times and places they could be registered by examiners.

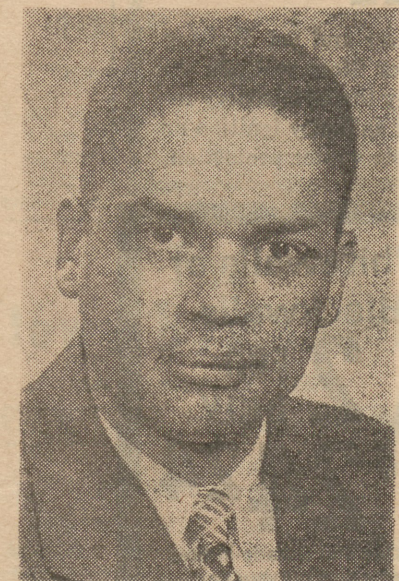

Sharp Decline

The Commission report noted that there has been a sharp decline in voter registration after an initial period of high registration in counties with examiners as well as in counties where State registration

Youngsters Smile With Their Christmas Prizes

You might say that Christmas came a little early for these smiling youngsters above as it does for all little contestants who participate in the annual doll show sponsored by the Parliamentary Law and Culture club.

Above the Prince and Princess of Christmas for 1965 are flanked by the runner-ups as they smilingly display their prizes of various toys. Left to right are Gracie Merriweather, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Merri-weather of 1441 Buchanan; Robin Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Thomas, 902 24th street, crowned "Princess of Christmas"; Joe Peters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Peters of 1216 13th street, crowned "Prince of Christmas," and Doyle Collier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Collier, 1167 13th street.

Mrs. Roberta Frazier crowned the Prince and Princess. Mrs. Sadie Peters was general chairman and Mrs. Oradell Henry is president.

Jackson Elected Anti-Povety Head of Logan Neighborhood Resigns as Hospital Trustee

Robert A. Jackson, 1405 Buchanan street was elected chairman of the Greater Logan Area Action Committee, the anti-poverty organization in his neighborhood, by a vote of 16-2, over his opponent the Rev. William A. Robinson, 1343 McCormick street.

About 20 persons, all Negroes, attended the meeting Monday night in the basement of Union Baptist church, E. University avenue and McCormick street. The Logan area is bounded by E. 14th street, Grand Avenue, Guthrie street and Wayne street.

Jackson was elected after a brief speech he made in which he declared he was "a little disgusted" by rumors spread about his motives in the poverty program.

Harassing

"There have been people in this area calling around and saying the only reason I'm in this is because I'm looking for a job," said Jackson, an insurance agent who served earlier this year as sergeant at arms in the Iowa House of Representatives. He was on the Broadlawn Polk County Hospital board of trustees which he designed.

"I want to say I'm not looking for a job in the poverty program," he said. "I am looking for a program that's going to help me and people that need help."

Later, Jackson said the rumors were started by "just somebody trying to harass me."

Rival Group

Jackson said there is another citizen group in the area. There were reports that members of this rival group, called the Logan Community Improvement Council, were complaining that they felt left out of Jackson's organization.

Woodrin E. (Woody) Kee, neighborhood co-ordinator on the county's paid anti-poverty staff, said he understood the other group met Monday morning. No one identified himself with the rival group during the meeting.

On the following night Jackson announced his resignation from the Broadlawn Polk County Hospital board of Trustees. He gave no reason for his resignation which is effective Dec. 31. He has served five years of a six-year term.

Asked if the resignation had anything to do with the anti-poverty program, he replied, "No, I don't think so."

Besides being chairman of the Logan area poverty group Jackson also is a member of the Assembly of Groups to Be Served, made up of representatives of impoverished groups, and the Polk County Community Action Council, which is in charge of the local War on Poverty.

UNCF Enters Last Phase of '65 Drive

The Iowa campaign for the United Negro College Fund is entering its final phase for the 1965 effort, according to an announcement from Dr. Robert M. Johnson, general chairman.

Iowans contribute each year more than $10,000 to the urgent needs of the Fund's 33 member colleges and their 30,000 students. Founded by the colleges themselves in 1944, the Fund has received from concerned individuals, corporations and foundations in the past 21 years over $40,000,000 with an added $50,000,000 for two special capital campaigns.

Funds are used for student scholarships, for library improvements, for laboratory equipment. Only one cam-

NEWS In A Nutshell

Lexington, Miss.—"For being our eyes to the truth," some 500 Negroes from four "Black Belt" rural counties showed their appreciation in a tangible way to a Pulitzer Prize winning editor whose "way of life" was changed because of her editorial stand in their behalf. The honoree, Mrs. Hazel Brannon Smith, last year won the prize for her writing. Her newspapers, the Lexington Advertiser and the Durrant News, have suffered financial difficulties from a white boycott because of her stand against racist groups. Holmes county Negroes during a fete in her honor at Saints Junior college, a Negro institution, presented Mrs. Smith with $2,852.22 to help her keep her papers alive.

Minneapolis, Minn.—A shocking murder-suicide took the lives of the parents of eight St. Paul children shortly before 6 a.m. Sunday morning, Dec. 5, when a St. Paul man shot and killed his wife and then turned the gun on himself. Victims of the domestic tragedy were David, 39, the husband and Selma Adams, 38, the wife. One of the couple's children, David 17, told police he was awakened about 6 a.m. by his father who told him, "Wake up I have just killed your mother."

Washington — Rep. Charles C. Diggs, Jr., (D-Mich.) will serve as chairman of a four-man group picked by the House Foreign Affairs commission for a study mission in Africa.

Wilberforce, Ohio — A Harvard graduate with an international reputation in law last week replaced Dr. Charles Wesley as president of Central State college. Dr. Wesley retired July 1 to assume directorship of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History. He is Dr. Harry Edward Groves, 44, who had the distinction in 1960 to serve as professor of constitutional law at the University of Singapore.

South Hadley, Mass.—A Negro student at Mount Holyoke college has the distinction of being the first of her race chosen as head of the college's freshman class of 511.

New York—Another honor was accorded Harlem's first Negro police captain, Lloyd G. Sealy, last week. Capt. Sealy, who previously commanded the 28th Harlem precinct, was promoted to deputy inspector in command of an 11-precinct area. The area takes in Brooklyn North, in the predominantly Negro Bedford-Stuyvesant districts.

Durham, N. C.—Mrs. E. W. Reith was recently the victim of what police called "the biggest film flame act in Durham county." She told police she was film-flamed out of $18,000 by two women who are still being sought.

SPOOKING SPIRITS

In earlier times, Polish peasants "drove" spirits away from their crops during the 12 days between Christmas and Epiphany. They burned pine resin all night to rout witches from their homes, and on Christmas Eve,

Accused of Fraudulent Transfer of Property to Stop Paying Harlem Widow

New York, N.Y.—Across the nation people are girding themselves for an enjoyable holiday season but the financial woes of the flamboyant Representative Adam Clayton Powell increased by more than a half-million here Tuesday.

The latest development came when Acting Supreme Court Justice Maurice Wahl granted a $375,000 judgment against Powell for the fraudulent transfer of Puerto Rican property to avoid payment of a 1963 deamantion award.

Justice Wahl awarded Mrs. Esther James, 57, a Harlem widow, $500,000 in punitive and $75,000 in compensatory damages. The original award was $211,500 but an appeals court cut that to $46,500. Tuesday's judgment is an additional sum.

Mrs. James based for defamation suit on a claim that Powell had described her on a 1960 television interview as a "bag woman" or collector of graft, for corrupt police.

The controversial Powell last week criticized what he called irregularities and political manipulations of the war on Poverty pointing particularly to the administration's program in Chicago and in Harlem. He also criticized the District of Columbia program which he said "failed to include enough Negroes in top jobs."

Selma Jury Acquits Three Accused in Reeb Death

Selma, Ala.—Unlike two other recent jury trials which found four white men guilty in separate cases involving civil rights, an all-white jury deliberated just 90 minutes before returning the innocent verdicts for three Selma businessmen accused of murdering the Rev. James J. Reeb of Boston during voting rights demonstrations here last March. White spectators cheered the verdict but were soon quieted by Dallas County Sheriff Jim Clark.

Lesser Charges

The acquittal also cleared the three defendants of three lesser charges—second-degree murder and first- and second-degree manslaughter.

A group of Negroes attempted to leave the courtroom during the reading of the verdicts by jury foreman William Vaughn. They were ordered back to their seats by Clark.

The defendants—Elmer L. Cook, 42, Namon O'Neal Hoggie, 32, and his brother, William Stanley Hoggie, Although a Negro is executive director of the District of Columbia program "there are no other black people at the top," he said.

"This sorry racial tokenism has been merchandised by the unholy alliance of black Uncle Toms and insensitive upper class whites on the boards of both the Washington and Chicago programs," Powell charged.

Powell has his share of troubles in other areas. Recently he announced his resignation, the second time in less than a year, as pastor of the largest Negro denominational church, Abyssinian Baptist church in Harlem which he has pastored for a number of years. His resignation reportedly came from a controversy stemming from a congregational disagreement over his firing of an assistant, the Rev. Tee Walker, former civil rights aide to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Nobel Peace Prize winner who was scheduled to make a visit to Harlem. A few days later a news release stated that Powell would not resign and that the controversy had been smoothed over.

No Comment

None of the defendants would comment after the trial. Mrs. Cook said she was very happy. Defense Attorney Joe Pilcher, Jr., said the "verdict was consistent with the evidence."

An attorney from the U. S. Justice Department was an observer in the courtroom during the four-day-long trial. He would not comment. The three defendants plus R. B. Kelley, also of Selma, were charged last spring with violating federal anti-conspiracy laws in the Reeb case.

However, they have not been indicted and cannot be tried unless a federal grand jury brings formal charges against them.

Des Moines NAACP Will Meet Tuesday

The Des Moines branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will hold its annual meeting on Tuesday, Dec. 21 at 8:15 p.m. at Willkie House, 900 17th street. An executive board meeting will precede at 7:30 p.m. All committee chairmen are urged to attend and bring written annual reports. Robert A. Wright is president.

They wrapped cloth around the base of trees to keep spirits out, and fired shots into fields to prevent supernatural beings from harming the land.

Tot Playing with Matches Results in $3,500 Apt. Fire

A five-year-old boy playing with matches resulted in a $3,500 fire in the apartment of his mother, Mrs. Martha Clark, 2009 Harding road early Monday afternoon.

A bedroom of the apartment was badly damaged, paint was blistered in other rooms and smoke damage was extensive.

District Chief Joe Palmer said Mrs. Clark's son Kelvin, 5, admitted that he had been playing with matches in a clothes closet.

The Coca-Cola Company, Atlanta, Ga., donated the beautiful plaques, which honor the memory of Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune, NCNW's founder and first president, who was founder of Bethune-Cookman College, Daytona Beach, Fla. Names "Favor the Runner" As Jan. Book Selection

New York—"Favor The Runner," the new best-selling novel with an interracial theme, authored by Jay Richard Kennedy, has been named as the January book-of-the-month selection by the Negro Book Club, according to William J. Windham, president.

In announcing the selection of "Favor The Runner," the Negro Book Club cited the excellent reviews the book has received and its importance in home and other libraries. Five years in the writing and closely wedded to events that are making headline news today, "Favor The Runner" focuses on the story of a man with a secret big enough to explode his personal world and his intense and agonizing fight for freedom.

Organized

The Negro Book Club, organized in 1960 for the purpose of distributing books by and about the people of African ancestry, the Negro Book Club now provides a more extensive selection of those books than any other organization in the world.

The Book Club, which now has almost 10,000 members, makes a consistent effort to bring to the attention of its membership those books which place in true perspective the role of the Negro in contemporary society.

Make a Wreath

To make a wreath, use a wire hoop or coat hanger bent into a circle. Wire pine needles to the hoop with short pieces of wire. Add pine needles until the foundation wreath is at least two inches deep. Then wire on pieces of evergreen and berries. If the foundation is firmly made, the evergreen and berries may be stuck into the pine needles.

Examiners

Visited 32 Counties

The Commission recommendations for "effective implementation of the Act" were based on findings of staff attorneys during visits to 32 counties and parishes in Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi and South Carolina. Their visits included counties where examiners were assigned and nearby counties where there were no Federal examiners but where the populations and geography were similar.

Literacy Tests

Some counties in Alabama and Mississippi continue to require proof of literacy as a qualification for registering to vote in violation of the Voting Rights Act, the Commission reported to the President and the Congress.

The continued use of literacy tests in "many Mississippi counties as well as a few counties in Alabama" and a limited number of registration days in some States frustrate Negro efforts to register to vote, the Commission report said.

Rope of Evergreens

A rope of evergreens is easy enough to make, say the experts, and might go well over your door frame, mantel or along a stair rail.

Materials: rope long enough for your needs, short lengths of wire (15 to 18 inches), short sprays of evergreen (cedar is especially good), balls, bows, red berries or bells.

Place a bunch of evergreen against the rope and fasten in place with wire. Repeat length of rope. Drape as desired.

Locate places where additional decoration—berries, balls, bells—would be effective and wire on.

Fasten decorated rope in place with tape, tacks, corsage pins or small nails.

Wire lengths of evergreen together as a spray and decorate with bells, balls or ribbon.

For a sample copy of the Negro Book Club Newsletter, and for more information on the Club, write: William J. Windham, President, Negro Book Club, Inc., 160 West 85th Street, New York, N. Y. 10024.

Door Decorating

If you want an unusual front door decoration for the holidays, design your own. Children's toys, a small horse, a freshly painted drum and plastic toys tied with greenery and a red bow give a welcome for all children.

You can also make a huge bouquet of candy canes from decorated mailing tubes. Add a few Christmas greens, a perky bow or other decorations for a cheery greeting at the door.

Silver Decorations

Silvered berries, leaves, seed pods and sprays of ivy may be made by pouring a small amount of aluminum paint into a deep container almost filled with water. The paint floats on the water. Dip the material to be silvered into the water and draw it out slowly. Hold it over the container until it has stopped dripping. Then hand it in a dry place for 24 hours. Aluminum paint for metal surfaces works best.

Contempt Charges Upheld Against King

Contempt of court citations against five civil rights leaders were upheld by the Alabama Supreme Court in Montgomery. Two other citations were dismissed. Named in the citations were Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., A. D. King, Wyatt Tee Walker and the Revs. Ralph Abernathy and Fred Shuttlesworth. The dismissed citations against the Revs. James Bevel and Andrew Young, saying they had not been served with a notice of an injunction. The civil rights leaders were cited for violation of a 1963 injunction by a circuit court banning civil rights marches in Birmingham without a parade permit.

Several teachers from the Ottumwa Heights College gave reports from one of their recent conventions in which the author of Black Like Me was the guest speaker. Refreshments for the meeting were furnished by Mrs. A. D. Steffenson. The next meeting will be Jan. 4, 1966. Guest speaker will be Attorney Burn Bannister. Make It Fun

For children, much of the fun of any holiday is the anticipation. Let the children help decorate the home, trim the tree, and putter in the kitchen. A real fun project is a decoration that is good to eat. And, who cares if in stringing the popcorn or making popcorn balls, more popcorn is eaten than not? It's fun for all.

Holiday Time Is Baking Time

CAKES . . . COOKIES . . . MADE FROM TREASURED FAMILY RECIPES
... WITH BUTTER, OF COURSE!

Mrs. Mary Regan, formerly head of test kitchens at Better Homes and Gardens, and now Food Artist for American Dairy Association of Iowa, has this advice for homemakers:

"The best recipes for cakes and cookies call for butter. Butter not only adds its special taste, but extends flavor and freshness. So bake early. Use real butter. Store in your freezer until needed for holiday entertaining. Thaw. Serve . . . and be prepared for compliments about your holiday butter cookies!"

COOKIES

2 cups sugar
2 eggs
1 cup dairy sour cream
3/4 cups flour sifted
2 tps. baking powder

Cream butter and sugar together. Add eggs one at a time, beating well. Add vanilla; mix dry ingredients together and add alternately with the sour cream, to the creamed mixture. Asks U.S. District Court to Halt White Pupil Transfer Charlotte, N. C.—Attorneys of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund today asked the U. S. District Court here to block the parents of Terrence H. McClain in their efforts to remove their son from an integrated school.

The white parents have asked the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Board of Education for a tuition grant, payable from North Carolina's state treasury, which would allow Terrence to leave his present school.

The parents base their action on a North Carolina statute passed in 1956.

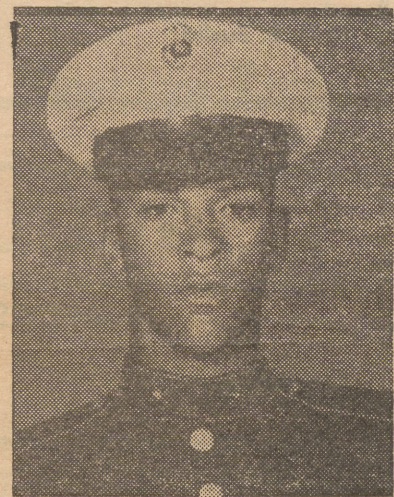

That statute also states that local school districts and the electors of such districts, may vote to close school when integration takes place.

It gives exemption, from compulsory attendance laws, to students who are assigned, against the wishes of their parents, to integrated classrooms.

Legal Defense Fund attorneys are asking the District Court to:

- *enjoin the tuition grant plan
- *prevent local school boards and electors from closing schools
- *enforce the compulsory school attendance law when schools become integrated.

The Negro plaintiffs brought the action in their own behalf and in "behalf of the Negro children attending the public schools of this state."

21-Year-Old Inmate Fatally Stabbed in Fight at Anamosa

Reformatory officials said they believe Sanders also had a knife since Williams received superficial cuts.

Sanders was arrested by Des Moines police last July 9 in connection with two early-morning armed robberies at service stations.

He subsequently was charged with participating in the holdup of the Standard Oil Co. service station at 9th street and Grand avenue, convicted in Polk County District Court, and was serving a 10-year sentence for robbery.

Shortly after the Standard holdup, an officer apprehended Sanders in weeks at the rear of the First Methodist Church, 10th and High streets. A .22-caliber pistol was found near him. Another man who was with him fled but was captured later by police.

Anamosa, Ia.—A 21-year-old inmate of the State Mens Reformatory here was dead on arrival at an Iowa City hospital last Wednesday, Dec. 8 after he was stabbed in an altercation at the reformatory. The victim was identified as Richard Sanders, of Waterloo.

Authorities said Sanders was stabbed in the abdomen by Jake E. Williams, 23, of Des Moines. Reformatory officials said there was an argument over cigarettes between Sanders and another prisoner, Williams then became involved.

The weapon was a sharpened table knife, according to Warden Charles Haugh.

The stabbing took place in a cell house where the men were watching television, authorities said. There were other inmates present.

The Role of the Negro Press In the Civil Rights Struggle

By Henry Lee Moon

Director, Public Relations, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People

To assess the role of the Negro press in the civil rights crisis is, in a real sense, analogous to raising the question as to the role of the U. S. Navy in the national defense. Among the host of organizations, institutions and social forces now actively concerned with various aspects of the civil rights issue, the Negro press, in point of seniority, yields only to the Negro church. Both institutions came into being as an expression of protest against slavery, discrimination and segregation—the church in 1877 with the establishment of the African Methodist Episcopal Church in Philadelphia and the press, 40 years later with the founding of Freedom's Journal in New York City in 1827.

Important Roles

Thus the Negro press antedated by 72 years the founding in 1909 of the oldest of the professional civil rights organizations — the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Both the church and the press preceded the Civil War and played important roles in the abolition struggle, the civil rights movement of that era. After the dissolution of the abolition societies, the press continued the fight for Negro rights through the aborted Reconstruction, through the long blackout following the compromise of 1877, supported the basic demand for re-into the rebirth of hope with the establishment of the NAACP as a permanent civil rights organization, and into the present era which some call "the Negro Revolution."

Faithful

Throughout the 138 years since the initial publication of Freedom's Journal, the Negro press, as an institution (though not necessarily every individual newspaper), has been faithful to the responsibility which history entrusted to it. The press has ognition of the Negro as a human being and as a citizen. It has, in the main, supported the program and objectives of the NAACP and newer professional civil rights organizations and movements. Not uncritically, as we in the NAACP well know, but fundamentally. In fact the sustained support of the Negro press and the Negro church, the pioneer Freedom Fighters, has helped the NAACP to survive and grow and lay the firm foundation for today's accelerated developments in the racial crisis. (Excerpts of a speech by Mr. Moon)

LEGAL DEFENSE FUND LAWYERS TAKE PARK SEGREGATION CASE BEFORE U. S. SUPREME COURT

Washington, D. C.—NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund attorneys Nov. 9 appeared before the U. S. Supreme Court to challenge the segregation policy of a Macon, Ga., park.

Jack Greenberg, Fund director-counsel, will head a team of lawyers presenting the case, which bears a strong similarity to the situation at Girard College in Philadelphia, Pa.

Coincidentally, the man with whom Mr. Greenberg argued many Legal Defense Fund cases before the high court also argued a Supreme Court case the same day.

U. S. Solicitor General Thurgood Marshall, who Mr. Greenberg succeeded at the Legal Defense Fund, appeared to argue a case for the Federal government.

The Legal Defense Fund suit is in behalf of five Macon Negroes, who are seeking to overturn lower court rulings that use of the facility may be limited to whites.

The park, known as Baconsfield, was established in 1911, by the will of the late Georgia senator, Augustus Octavius Bacon.

Says Will Push for Public Housing in All Des Moines

Because there is "dire need" for low-rent housing in Des Moines the Des Moines Commission on Human Rights and Job Discrimination decided last week that it will campaign actively for the establishment of low-rent public housing here. It also urged the public housing be dispersed throughout the city to aid in ending housing segregation.

The Rev. Edward Kelly, chairman of the commission's housing committee, said there is "dire need" for low-rent housing here.

He added it is an "absolute need" that housing be dispersed so ghettos are not re-established where minority group members are displaced, such as in urban renewal areas.

Father Kelly was instructed to seek re-activation of a coalition of civil rights groups which successfully campaigned for a fair housing ordinance two years ago.

Father Kelly said the new coalition, to work for public housing, should include members of the real estate field.

A referendum to establish public housing in Des Moines was defeated in 1961. It was opposed actively by real estate men and home builders. Some commission members indicated Wednesday they feel real estate men have changed their stand since the last referendum.

Father Kelly said the drive for public housing would be to "Break down the barriers in housing patterns."

He said disadvantaged neighborhoods, which often include minority members, lack equal school and community facilities.

'Real Opportunity'

Commission member Sol M. Davidson described the dispersion of public housing as a "real opportunity" to break down de facto school segregation.

Davidson said work for dispersed housing is better than busing pupils to integrate schools, as in done in other cities.

Commission member Richard L. Sirfus said the idea of dispersed public housing will require a major pub-

CIVIL RIGHTS ATTORNEYS ASK PROTECTION OF NEGRO NURSES

Richmond, Va.—The U. S. Court of Appeals, recently was asked to decide if Negro nurses are protected by the Constitution with regard to racial discrimination at hospitals receiving Federal monies under the Hill-Burton Act.

Attorneys of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. are asking that three Negro nurses, fired two years ago for eating in the "white" cafeteria of Dixie Hospital, Hampton, Va., be reinstated.

The attorneys argue that Dixie Hospital "received Federal funds in 1956, seven years before the racial discharge" after promising that it would not "discriminate on basis of race, creed or color."

Less

Negro nurses across the South generally work for less money than their white counterparts; are given separate facilities; assigned the less desirable work; and, are confined to Negro wards, for the most part.

The nurses in this case, Mildred Smith, Agnes L. Stokes and Patricia L. Taylor were among Dixie Hospital's Negro employees forced to eat in a converted classroom, while white employees used a new cafeteria.

"In order to dine in this room (classroom) Negro employees had to telephone their orders for food service education campaign.

He said one reason for defeat of public housing in 1961 was a word-of-mouth campaign that such housing would be spread throughout the city.

In September, the City Council created a five-member Low-Rent Housing Agency to initiate a referendum under the new law.

The agency has agreed to undertake a study on low-rent housing needs in Des Moines.

ice to the cafeteria and wait until the food was delivered . . .

"This procedure resulted in cold food and delays which exhausted the 30-minute lunch period."

Nurse Smith explained that the classroom seated 35 persons, but because there are "over 100 Negro personnel who must eat there, the room is frequently crowded and persons must wait their turn for available chairs.

The three nurses involved in the suit decided to eat in the "white" cafeteria on August 8th and August 9th. They were fired on the 9th.

The Legal Defense Fund brief notes that Dixie Hospital is currently awaiting action on Federal application for an additional $585,000 for new construction.

TREE HISTORY

Today the Christmas tree is a symbol of Yuletide gaiety. In early Finland, the Votjak tribe regarded the fir tree as sacred and individual branches were considered family gods to which sacrifices must be made. Offerings of bread, meat and drink were given to a tree placed on the mantle; and it was believed a new house should not be built until a fir was placed under the roof, a cloth spread before the tree, and sacrifices placed on the cloth.

MISTLETOE MAGIC

Britain's early Druids believed mistletoe could heal disease, neutralize poisons and protect against witchcraft. They wore charm bracelets and rings made of mistletoe, and fastened the plant over doorways to their homes. The Scandinavian goddess Frigga reportedly made mistletoe an emblem of love and granted some lucky man a kiss beneath its branches—perhaps the start of the custom we know so well today.

PEACE SYMBOL

Modern youth may never give it a thought, but the custom of kissing under the mistletoe supposedly began with the Romans, who considered the mistletoe a symbol of peace. Enemies, meeting under the mistletoe, were expected to embrace and declare a truce. Roman youngsters probably came up with the kissing idea.

CHRISTMAS DAY

Pope Julius about the year 349 A. D., fixed December 25 as the date of Christmas. Two years later, after agreement on this date had been reached among church officials, some in favor of fixing the date in January or March, Julius decreed that Christmas should therefore be celebrated on December 25. In the 6th century A.D., the year 543, Christmas was made a legal holiday in Rome. But, even 100 years before that, the Roman government had required all theatres to close on Christmas day.

Cherries Are Red for Winter Holidays

FEBRUARY'S A MONTH FOR PARTIES . . . and this easy-to-make cherry coconut pie may be decorated with hearts for Valentines . . . with cherries or hatchets for a Washington's Birthday party . . . or with cut-out pastry flags for Lincoln . . . which make this pie as versatile as it is delicious!

In addition, this excellent cherry pie lives up to the familiar rhyme "She can bake a cherry pie, quick as a cat can wink her eye"—and with tender-thin coconut flakes to enhance both flavor and color, it's sure to be a holiday favorite.

CHERRY GLAZED COCONUT PIE

- 1 cup Baker's Angel Flake Coconut
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1 package vanilla pudding and pie filling mix
- 2 cups milk
- 1 baked 9-inch pie shell
- 2 teaspoons gelatin
- 1 cup cherry juice and water
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 1 1/4 cups drained canned red sour pitted cherries, packed in heavy syrup
- 2 teaspoons lemon juice

Saute 1/4 cup of the coconut in butter in saucepan until golden brown, stirring constantly. Add pie filling mix and milk; blend well. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a full boil. Cool only about 5 minutes, stirring once or twice. Pour into pie shell. Chill.

Combine gelatin and 1/4 cup of the cherry juice. Heat remaining juice and dissolve gelatin and sugar in hot juice. Add cherries and lemon juice. Chill until thick, but not firm. Turn onto chilled pie filling. Sprinkle with remaining 1/4 cup coconut. Chill until firm.

Valentine Pie. Use recipe for Cherry Glazed Coconut Pie. Cut small hearts from leftover pastry. Bake hearts in hot oven (450° F.) about 10 minutes, or until done. Arrange mounds of coconut on cherry topping to resemble lace and place hearts on coconut. (ANS)

Santa Lands at U of I Hospitals To Distribute Gifts

Iowa City, Iowa—Sleigh bells and the pawing of Santa's reindeer will be heard on Christmas Eve at The University of Iowa Hospitals when Santa lands to distribute gifts to patients spending the holidays in a hospital bed.

Santa's elves for this stop are individuals and organizations throughout Iowa who contribute annually to the gifts-for-patients program for some 500 patients who will "not be home for Christmas." Gifts have begun to arrive, but more are still needed.

Suggestions

He suggests items such as books, toys, handkerchiefs, scarves, hose, fancy handwork, stationery with stamps, shawls, gloves, toilet articles, leather kits, billfolds and knitting materials. Gifts of food are impractical because of hospital and dietary regulations.

Cash gifts are welcomed and are used to buy presents. Checks or money orders should be made payable to the University Hospital Christmas Committee. Large items such as tricycles, bedside radios, strollers and record players may be kept in a ward throughout the year for the continuing benefit of many patients.

No Wrapping

Since all packages have to be opened and sorted, donors are asked not to gift-wrap packages. Hospital Red Cross Gray Ladies and other volunteers wrap them before Christmas. Gifts should be mailed to Christmas Committee, University of Iowa Hospitals, Iowa City, Iowa.

Atelier Guild Holds Christmas Bazaar

The Atelier Guild was hostess at a Christmas Handicraft Exhibit and Bazaar, from 3 to 6 p.m. on Dec. 4 at the home of Mrs. Alice Holbert, 1086 14th St. Colorful Christmas tissue balls decorated the doorways of rooms where members displayed their handiwork of the past year. The motto of the Atelier is "Be up and doing. Even though you make a mistake, make something."

Following this motto, the members had used their leisure time to good advantage, for the projects included handcrafted candles, table decorations and centerpieces, ceramics, felt wall hangings, fancy pillows, embroidery needlepoint, paintings and a variety of sweaters knitted in as many varieties of yarn.

Many lovely handmade gifts, both pleasing to the eye and palate were also on sale. Refreshments of wassail and snacks, were served from a table covered with a beautiful red and gold cloth and a gold winter bouquet. The Guild wishes to thank all of those who helped to make the day a success. Mrs. Herman Wallace, Jr. of Kansas City, a former member and now an honorary member was a special guest.

On Dec. 9 the group met at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Wallace for a Christmas party and gift exchange. A jolly time was had by all.

Library Closed

All agencies of the Public Library of Des Moines will be closed all day Friday and Saturday, Dec. 24 and 25 for the Christmas holiday.

Onanas Club Hosts 300 Guests at Third Annual Formal

Approximately 300 persons were guests of the Onanas Club at their Third Annual Formal held Nov. 27 in the Terrace Room of the Savery Hotel. The theme of this year's formal was "Mystic Moments" which was enhanced by a mirror ball revolving from the ceiling and centerpieces of blue and silver (club colors) globes on each table.

The club members wore a variety of colorful floor length gowns. Mum corsages, tipped the same color as the individual member's gown, were the symbol of the club members. Master of Ceremonies for the evening, who introduced the members and their husbands to their guests, was Mr. Willie Wells, Sr.

Officers and members of the Onanas are Mrs. Rhoda Turner, President; Mrs. Beverly Wallace,

Vice President; Mrs. Marsha Collier, Treasurer; Mrs. Elaine Williams, Secretary; Mrs. Ieta Daye, Assistant Secretary; Mrs. Annette Ashmore, Sergeant-at-Arms; Mrs. Camille Bradley, Mrs. Pat Clark and Mrs. Charlotte Parks.

Jack and Jill Families Enjoy Christmas Dinner and Program

Over 20 families of the Des Moines chapter of Jack and Jill of America, Inc., enjoyed their annual Christmas family program and dinner on Sunday afternoon at the Willkie House, 900 17th street.

The combined children's groups presented a program and sang Christmas carols under the supervision of Mrs. James Morrow, program chairman with Tony Morrow, as master of ceremonies. The tables were festively decorated with Christmas placecards, candles and other centerpieces. Mrs. William Wells is president.

Also, your Gay Nineties Christmas wouldn't be complete without at least a half dozen cornucopias on your tree. To make these, simply take colored construction paper, preferably gold and silver, roll in into a cone, and attach the ends together with masking tape. Then you punch two holes in the top rim through which you thread a piece of red or green string. With the string you attach your cornucopia to the tree, and once you fill it to the brim with Beech-Nut sours, you have a delightful (and tasty) Christmas decoration.

Then, if you want to go all the way to make your Christmas tree an old-fashioned one, you can try to locate some 1890's toys to put under it. Say, a hobby horse, carousel—or maybe a Teddy Bear.

ARE YOU AMONG THE HOMEMAKERS who like traditional holiday meals? Or do you like to introduce subtle changes—enjoy finding a new way to use old and favorite standbys? For you who like that modern touch, here is a delicious, orange-flavored, coconut-crunchy, yam recipe to serve in orange shells. Substitute sweet potatoes for the yams if your family prefers—no matter, but in any case, we'll bet this interesting recipe will become a family favorite!

YAMS IN ORANGE CUPS

3 medium-sized oranges
1/2 cup orange juice (about)
2 cups hot mashed cooked yams
4 tablespoons butter, melted
3 tablespoons brown sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon ginger
1 cup shredded coconut, cut

Mix well. Fill orange halves with yam mixture. Place in shallow pan and bake in moderate oven (375° F.) about 15 minutes.
Mix remaining 1/4 cup coconut with 1 tablespoon melted butter. Sprinkle on top of each filled orange half. Return to oven and bake 2 minutes longer, or until coconut is lightly browned. Makes 6 servings. (ANS)

You know what they say about procrastination; for want of a second a minute was lost and for want of a minute and hour was lost. That's just about the way many residents feel as the Christmas season accelerates into its final hectic week. The traditional Christmas trees have blossomed in homes and more doors and yards have taken on holiday decorations. With some it is a family affair and with others the little lady is Jack of all trades or should we say Jacqueline of all trades?

One lady who lives in a neighborhood where an undecorated house would seem naked in Fairyland, related how she did not procrastinate, but took advantage of the nice weather last week to decorate with lights two yew trees outside their house. She yet had to do the inside of their home.

During the conversation someone noted how some householders string and arrange their outdoor Christmas lights around the trees late in the fall before the weather turns real cold. It is a good idea, don't you think?

This is the time of year when the various kitchens begin to smell tantalizingly like a gourmet's bakery and the youngsters gang around volunteering like mad to help with the baking chores. The older ones, who are now big enough to go on shopping expeditions on their own, bring mysterious packages and empty pockets back from downtown and just as mysteriously but quite noisily wrap their treasured gifts for their receivers.

In between it all there are the various programs, plays and parties sandwiched in for adults and children alike. Some offer youngsters and adults an opportunity to share in the real meaning of Christmas—of sharing and bringing on earth to closest thing to peace nations of men ever come to all year in any generation.

Most of you have observed that it is true even though you still do come in contact with some of the usual irascibility of mankind. During the Christmas season people go out of their way to be kind to one another, to give a smile to make allowances for the shortcomings of others. For once they act as if things are not always what they seem to be on the surface. It is a pity that mankind cannot keep this wonderful warm fuse going . . . to do unto others as you would have them treat you.

There seem to be a rash of accidents or minor and some serious illnesses prior to the holiday season this year. Mrs. Shirley Montgomery, 1214 11th street was a patient in Mercy hospital last week undergoing tests. Also in the hospital is Mrs. Charles (Dorothy) Holmes of 6224 Forest avenue. She is going into her third week of being a patient receiving treatment from complications suffered in a fall some five weeks before. Mrs. Herman Wallace, 2724 Amick avenue, fell down the steps at the YWCA last week and injured her ankle but is able to get around on it now. She was doing her good deed for the day, furnishing transportation for a student who is in the United States.

People often talk and yearn for the old fashioned Christmas tree but often never do anything about it. However we came across an idea that said it is easy to have an old fashioned Christmas tree. We thought we would present it for your consideration. You can copy it or duplicate your own ideas or preferences.

If you want to celebrate your Christmas in the 1890's tradition, it's not as difficult as you might think. For the top of the tree, you can cut a star out of gold construction paper. You can also cut chains from the same paper to string along the branches. Or if you prefer, make your strings of popcorn and cranberries.

Then you should have loads of cookies, candies, and gilded nuts. Star-shaped cookies, gingerbread men, and Beech-Nut sours—hard candies that capture the turn-of-the-century flavor—any of these would do just fine.

You can put the sours in little transparent bags and attach them to the tree. You can also use the candies to stuff gifts and fill stockings with. And if you want a real Gay Nineties touch, you can just fill a dish with sours, and keep it standing on a foyer table for your Christmas guests.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON
SHOULD NAME DR. WEAVER

Congress created a new post in the cabinet this year, Secretary of Urban Affairs. The measure was generally opposed by Republicans, greatly because Democrats control most of the larger cities and this they contend would serve as machinery for a well oiled political organization.

The secretary has not been named by President Johnson.

It is generally known that Dr. Robert C. Weaver, present housing administrator, is a leading candidate. He is eminently qualified. Some have called his expression, that he would like the job, fatal. Roy Wilkins of the NAACP, Whitney Young, Jr., of the Urban League, as well as many others have urged his appointment.

President Johnson has done much for the Negro. He should appoint Dr. Weaver because of his qualifications; because the Democrat party is indebted to the Negro for putting them in office; because he has appointed Polls, Jews, Checks and other racial strains much for the very reason that Dr. Weaver should be appointed.

The Democrats are paying their political debts with cabinet and ambassadorial posts to others. With this one he should honor the Negro.

IOWA REPUBLICANS
HONOR JACK MILLER

Republicans in and out of Iowa paid tribute to Senator Jack Miller at a dinner Friday which might well serve as his announcement for re-election. Messages from fellow senators and party leaders, including former President Eisenhower and Republican chairman Ray Bliss, were read. Senator Dirksen of Illinois was the principal speaker. (He spoke by telephone from Chicago.)

It was indeed a warm tribute. Jack Miller deserves it. His first term in the senate found him a hard worker. His knowledge of government soon caught the attention of his colleagues. Instead of standing back as most first year senators do, he has become a leader and his views carry weight.

The U.S. Senate cannot boast a large percentage of stalwart, able statesmen as in earlier years. Too often it is difficult to get top notch candidates to make the sacrifice, taking a chance on being defeated or subjected to the type of campaign that is often required to get elected.

Iowa has in Jack Miller a young senator who meets the test. To defeat him would drop Iowa's seniority on important committees far from the chairmanships most of which are held by southern senators.

The impetus given at this warm sendoff should carry through to his re-election as U.S. Senator from Iowa.

BRANCH RICKEY

Social changes don't come fast, but when they do there arises someone who has the courage to take the lead and get the job done.

Branch Rickey, who had the courage and successfully inducted Negroes into organized baseball, died last week. He was a successful manager and among other innovations perfected the farm system which has been a feeder for regular teams.

Rickey was smart in picking his first man, Jackie Robinson. He wanted a player who could deliver and had the intelligence to realize that the future of Negro participation in organized baseball depended upon his record.

Obviously the choice was wise, the move right for today Negroes play a great part on all teams.

Rickey believed he was right and proceeded to do what was right.

IOWA HAS NEW HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Iowa has a new head football coach, Ray Nagel, former coach at Utah University. He succeeds Jerry Burns whose miserable season this fall climaxed a poor record.

Nagel's record is not particularly impressive. His overall record at Utah was 42 won, 39 lost, 1 tied. This year the record was 7 losses, 3 wins. However, his choice by the board of control of athletics was unanimous follow-

TOP PLAYERS OF ORANGE BLOSSOM CLASSIC

Russell Jolivet, Morgan State College, Baltimore, Md., quarterback, 2nd from left, and Joe Williams, halfback, Florida A&M University, Tallahassee, 2nd from right, were selected 'Players-of-the-Game' at recent Miami, Fla., Orange Blossom Classic, featuring the Morgan 'Bears' and the A&M 'Rattlers'. The awards, sponsored by The Coca-Cola Company, Atlanta, Ga., a pioneer participant in the OBC, honor J. R. E. Lee, Jr., left, FAMU vice president, who founded the nationally respected classic-event.

defeated A&M, annual game-host, by a score of 36 to 7.

For young Jolivet, the return to Miami's Orange Bowl was something of a triumph—in 1963 his 'Bears' had lost to the A&M 'Rattlers', 30-7. At the game's end, Williams was certainly the Tallahassee institution's hero, for he had put the 'Rattlers' on the score-board for its only touchdown—an 83-yard, first-quarter kickoff return.

Hawks could have a lot to say about who will be the next Big Ten champs. Drake may have trouble in its own league as will Iowa State. But the Bulldogs really played two good games and may get tough as the season wears on.

High School

Negroes came up on just about every team there is in the local high schools. Now, swimming, wrestling, etc., just name it and there will be a Negro in it somewhere. Even in table tennis. There is probably a story about young Mr. Henry T. McKnight, Jr., somewhere else in the paper.

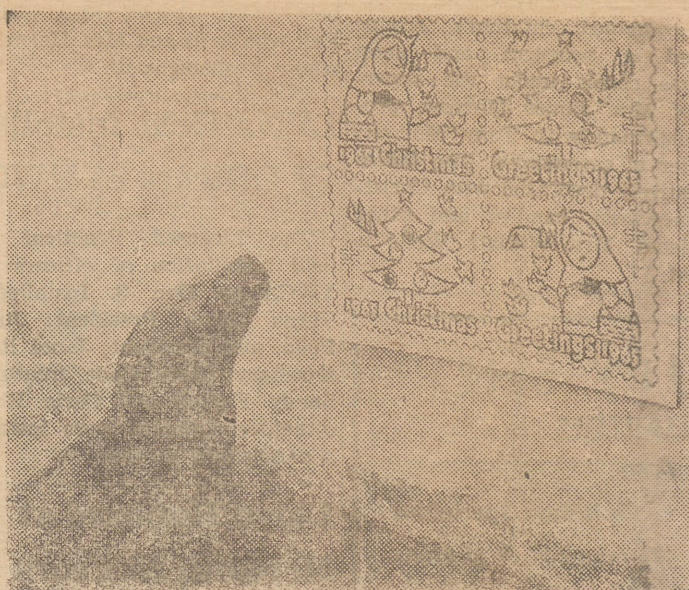

We wish there were more Negroes interested in the local tennis teams.

you to Napoleon Bonaparte who often said he would rather have a mediocre general who was lucky than a good leader who was not. One stroke of good luck can erase a whole lot of mistakes in strategy. And by the same token one piece of ill fortune can erase a lot of brilliant planning.

Do you agree?

Basketball

The Drake-Iowa basketball game was just about what we expected. Drake really wanted this one. Iowa didn't fire up for the Bulldogs until the Hawks found themselves 12 points behind. Then they showed the poise and confidence of a championship team and came through. Those

PRINCE OF PEACE

THE NIGHT lay dark on the Judean hills,
And even waiting winds had ceased to blow

On weary travelers, seeking to and fro.
There was no shelter till a worn doorsill

Led homeless hearts to straw beds soft as snow;
Then through wall cracks the moon-beam's glow

Enclosed that scene with one bright silver frill.

No flags were raised, no royal bugles blew,

No purple robes to mark the young King by,

No crown but thorns would that fair head adorn!

But still, the shepherds and the Wise Men knew,

By that great star that blazed up in the sky,

In Bethlehem the Prince of Peace was born.

CHRISTMAS BELLS

By Louise Darcy

Now Christmas bells are pealing
Across the frosty snow,

Nagel, SUI Head Football
Coach Seeks Negro Aide

Iowa City, Ia.—After weeks of suspense the Iowa Hawkeyes have a new football coach . . . for sure.

And soon we will be singing
The Christmas hymns we know.
The birthday of the Christ child
We celebrate again,
A holy time of gladness
And peace on earth for men.

HOLD FAST

When the anchors that faith had cast
Are dragging in the gale,
I am quietly holding fast.
I know that right is right,
That it is not good to lie,
That love is better than spite,
And a neighbor than a spy.
In the darkest night of the year,
When the stars have all gone out;
That courage is better than fear,
That faith is truer than doubt.
And fierce though the fiends may fight,

And long though the angels hide,
I know that Truth and Right
Have the universe on their side.
—Stephen J. Hunyadi

He is Ray Nagel, former head football coach at the University of Utah and who made his assistant coaching debut under former Oklahoma football coach Bud Wilkinson.

Nagel has a fine football record despite last year's record of 3-6 after he lost 12 of his regulars because of graduation.

Nagel held a news conference Friday at the time of the announcement of his being hired by Iowa Athletic Coach Forest Evashevski. Monday in another talk with newsmen he made it known that he is going to invite a Negro coach from the Los Angeles area to join his staff. He says also that he wants four of his assistants at Utah to come with him to Iowa. In addition he is seeking a coach from the Chicago area and one from Pennsylvania as assistants, keeping in mind that "all my assistants must be good recruiters."

For Nagel, his being named head coach at Iowa is a dream come true. "I have always wanted to coach in the Big Ten," he said.
