3 Jailers Suspended In Connection with Three Polk Escapees

Three Polk County jailers were suspended without pay by Sheriff Wilbur Hildreth Monday in connection with last Thursday's escape of two federal prisoners from the county jail.

Suspended were G. B. Tucker, 68, a jailer since 1956 (for 30 days), Robert Bondewyns, 49, hired last November (for 15 days), and John Hackley, 62, desk man, who was jailer in charge last Thursday night (for three days).

The suspensions came after an investigation of the jailbreak which marked the fifth time in the last four years prisoners have saved their way out of the county jail.

Hildreth said the suspensions were for "instances of neglect of duty."

Key Section Survives First Major Test Brought Up Led by South Carolina

Washington, D. C.—In the first but major test case, the highest court in the land has ruled that key sections 7-5 of the 1964 Voting Rights Act is constitutional.

Chief Justice Earl Warren, in the majority opinion, dismissed a deep-south attack on constitutionality of the act.

"We hold," Warren said, "that the sections of the act which are properly before us are an appropriate means for carrying out Congress' constitutional responsibilities and are consonant with all other provisions of the Constitution."

Separate Opinion

Justice Hugo L. Black wrote a separate opinion concurring in part and dissenting in part.

The high tribunal upheld the power of Congress under the Constitution's Fifteenth Amendment to suspend state literacy tests and similar voting qualifications, and to authorize the U. S. attorney general to appoint federal examiners to register qualified voters in various sections of the country.

Equal Basis

"Hopefully, millions of non-white

Americans will now be able to participate for the first time on an equal basis in the government under which they live.

"We may finally look forward to the day when truly 'the right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude.'"

Quotation

Warren's opinion was of the Constitution's Fifteenth Amendment.

Joining in the Warren opinion were Justices William O. Douglas, Tom C. Clark, John M. Harlan, William J. Brennan, Potter Stewart, Bryon White and Abe Fortas.

South Carolina, joined by Virginia, Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia and Mississippi, had attacked the new law as violative of the Constitution. The federal government defended the law and was joined by 20 states.

Ohio Confirms Charges of Bias in Unions in Cincinnati

Cincinnati—The Ohio Civil Rights Commission has made public a comprehensive, 64-page report which confirms charges by the Cincinnati Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People that local trade unions discriminate against Negroes.

Release

Release of the report came just one week after seven NAACP leaders were found guilty on trespass charges stemming from a sit-in staged in the Building Trades Council office last August 10. The seven were placed on a year's probation with a stipulation that should they become involved in a similar demonstration during that period, they would be sentenced to 30 days in the workhouse and fined $50 each and court costs.

Another

In another development, recent hearings of the House Committee on Un-American Activities in Washington, D. C., revealed that the names of Dr. and Mrs. Green were on the "vengeance" list of the Ohio Ku Klux Klan. It was testified that the self-styled "grand empress" of the state Kluxers, Mrs. Eloise Witte, "disliked Mrs. Green very much." Mrs. Witte is said to have wanted Mrs. Green beaten up and "KKK" carved on her back and on her children.

Urban Renewal Board Votes Go-Ahead on Oakridge 5-1

In a 5 to 1 vote, the Des Moines Urban Renewal Board Tuesday urged the City Council to authorize the proposed Oakridge urban renewal project.

The board's favorable recommendation will go to the City Council next Monday, when the council will vote on whether to execute a loan-and-grant contract with the federal government.

Under the contract the city would put up about $1-million to rehabilitate and rebuild the area northeast of the city which is predominately Negro. About 180 families, three-fourths of them Negro will have to be moved from the area and replaced in homes elsewhere.

Before voting Monday the Urban Renewal board heard three requests that their property not be acquired by the city and such removed. One of these was the Des Moines Animal Rescue League at 919 14th street. The Des Moines Commission on Human Rights and Job Discrimination, the Des Moines Ministerial Alliance, and other leaders have strongly recommended to the council that the Rescue League be taken out of the area.

Board member Ellis Levitt said he previously had been reluctant about Oakridge, but that his "change of mind is based on the magnificent success of River Hills in the past year."

Votes in Favor

Voting in favor of the long-planned Oakridge project were Board Vice President Harold Klein, Levitt, John Ringland, Dr. Lewis James and Winston McMullen. Board member Clyde Lightner was absent. Board Chairman Don C. Swanson cast the opposing vote.

The council is expected to adopt Oakridge Monday. The $5-million gross project cost is expected to be reduced to $3.1 million by land sales. Two-thirds of this balance will be paid by the federal government.

Greater Logan Area Committee to Meet

The Greater Logan Area Action committee will meet on Monday, Mar. 14 at 7:45 p.m. at Union Baptist church.

Wilson, Bound Over in Gun Death, Released on His Bond

Following a hearing Monday Douglas McArthur Wilson, 21, of 1549 18th street, was bound over to the Polk County Grand jury on a charge of murder. After taking testimony from character witnesses for Wilson, Judge Luther T. Glanton, Jr., ordered that the youth be released on his own bond pending action by the Grand Jury.

Judge Glanton told Wilson he is the first person he has ever released on his own recognizance on a murder charge. Witnesses for Wilson said he had a good record in the community and had never been in trouble before.

Accused

He is accused in the shooting of Harold Holt, 25, of 1040 16th street, in a gun fight in front of 1138 10th street early New Year's Day. Wilson was shot in the knee and the leg in the dispute.

Holt, who suffered wounds in the liver, diaphragm and lung, died Jan. 17.

Dr. Leo Luka, Polk County medical examiner, testified that Holt died of complications from a "perforatory wound" in a lung.

Assault Charge

Another man, Herman Mure, 21, of 815 Crocker st., was charged with assault with intent to murder in connection with the same incident, but Judge Glanton dismissed that charge after a hearing Jan. 21.

Judge Glanton recommended that the county attorney wait for disposition of the murder case against Wilson and then present facts in the Mure case to the Polk County Grand Jury.

HEALTH FOR ALL

DOLEFUL DUO: POVERTY AND DISEASE

Regardless of individual tastes or preferences, there's one thing about the current antipoverty program on which just about everybody would have to agree. As the result of activities in various parts of the country, a lot of people are going to be richer in health than they were before.

And that seems quite natural when you remember the age-old affinity between poverty and sickness. Moving against the former evil, you automatically strike a blow at the latter.

Another Reason

There's another reason why antipoverty measures are bound to yield public health dividends. That reason has to do with the nature of voluntary health organizations in our country.

The antituberculosis movement, for example, has volunteer groups in some 1900 communities with organizational machinery and knowhow ready to carry out programs for the public benefit. And so, when a flourishing southwestern city was found in need of slum rehabilitation, the state TB association tackled a part of the job related to community health, with the aid of a corps of youths hired through the VISTA program.

High Rate

In a midwest metropolis with neighborhoods showing a high rate of tuberculosis, the TB association was provided with extra personnel by antipoverty authorities to help educate the public in the importance of chest X-rays as a weapon against tuberculosis. And in many sections of the country young children by the thousands have been given tuberculin skin tests with the aid of the local TB association as part of the Head Start program—another antipoverty project.

Such activities bring double-feature benefits: jobs for the jobless and health benefits for those that need them. With the help of the Christmas Seal associations and other community service groups around the country, the war on poverty has opened up some new fronts in the war against disease.

L.A. Rams Sign

H. Dyer for $200,000

BY COLLIE J. NICHOLSON

Los Angeles, Calif. (Special)—The Los Angeles Rams shocked traditionalists and caused a stir in professional football circles Thursday when they announced the signing of full-back Henry Dyer of Grambling College for a reported $200,000.

Ram officials sternly shrugged off disclosing terms of the three-year pact, but it is believed to be the best ever executed for a small-college player.

One West Coast source estimated the figure at $225,000.

"As far as I know, the expenditure for Dyer is approximately $50,000 more than the pros have shelled out previously for a small-college player," a National Football League official said.

A. Lincoln

During Lincoln's early manhood, he made a trip down the Mississippi river on a flat bottom boat where he gained his first contact with slavery. So incensed over what he saw that in one of his memorable statements he said "If I ever get a chance to hit that thing, I will hit it hard."

The upsurge for civil rights and equality of opportunity in every corner of the nation is a fulfillment of the admonition Lincoln gave at Gettysburg that the living should finish the work started by the dead.

How to Sharpen Shears
A SIMPLE method of sharpening an old pair of scissors is illustrated. Drive a 6-penny nail into a wall, as shown. Draw the jaws of the scissors their full length over the nail, as though you were cutting it. A moderate, even pressure is required during the several strokes needed to put an edge on the blades. Cutting into a piece of sandpaper or emery paper is another commonly used method of sharpening a shears.

Quick-Easy Lenten Treat

THIS DELICIOUS LENTEN DISH will become a favorite with both family and you. The family will like it for its fine flavor, you'll love its ease of preparation. That's because it's made with packaged pre-cooked rice. It's truly a hearty meal-in-one-dish, yet a pinch to make and a treat to eat.

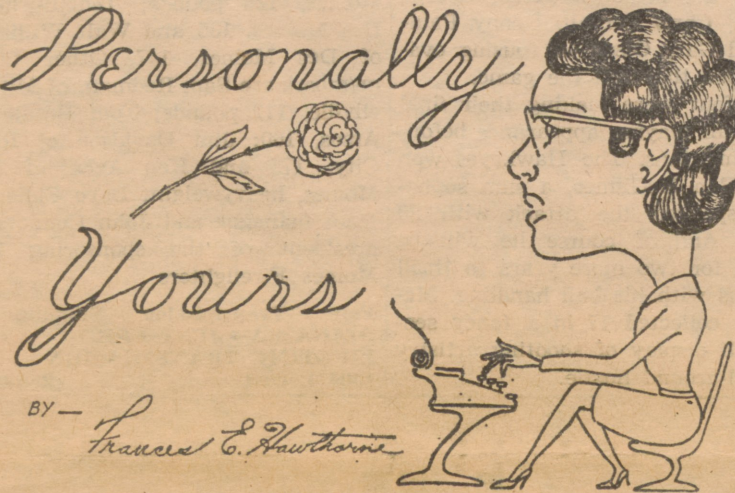

TUNA AND GREEN BEANS WITH LEMON RICE
 1½ cups (5-ounce package) packaged pre-cooked rice
 1½ teaspoons grated lemon rind
 ½ teaspoon salt
 1½ cups boiling water
 1½ tablespoons butter
 1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
 ½ cup milk
 1 can (7 ounces) tuna fish, drained and flaked
 ½ to 1 cup cooked green beans*
 Dash of pepper

Add packaged pre-cooked rice, lemon rind, and salt to boiling water in saucepan. Mix just to moisten all rice. Cover and remove from heat. Let stand 13 minutes. Add butter, mixing lightly with a fork.

Meanwhile, combine soup and milk in saucepan. Heat, stirring occasionally. Add tuna fish, green beans, and pepper. Mix and heat thoroughly. Makes 4 or 5 servings.

Serve over the rice. Arrange lemon rice in serving dish and top with the tuna and green beans.

*Use leftover or canned green beans. Or cook ½ package quick-frozen French style green beans or quick-frozen cut green beans. (ANS)

As the Lenten season advanced into that capricious month, March, we got a taste of winter which we have had sparingly this winter, even though the blizzards, and snowstorms rage around us on all sides. It is only a few weeks longer before Easter is here which officially if not weather wise ushers in the spring season.

Among past presidents recently honored by Irving Junior High P.T.A. at its Founder's Day program was Mrs. Woodrow (Dorothy) Lewis, 1710 Carpenter street. She served two consecutive years as president at Irving.

Last Friday evening the Mary Church Terrell club No. 2 enjoyed a western style meeting at Floyd Shade's barbecue restaurant. The menu included western barbecued ham, fresh lentil pea salad, western baked beans. The room was decorated with western signs.

Plans were made by club members for a Spring Diet Marathon. Each member handed in her weight in a sealed envelope and when the marathon ends on the Friday before Easter, the girl losing the most weight will be awarded a prize.

Games played were in keeping with the western theme. The first was the Old Purse game with Dorothy Hammit and Edith Newcomb trying for first prize. Among the most odd items found in the purses included food carried by Faye Winters; a picture of themselves by Mildred Graves and Dorothy Holmes and a picture of herself and young toddler son, by Jeannette Bethel.

Next came the Match game with the winners receiving Kleenex and the losers getting Alka-seltzer. In the second group winners received Maxwell house coffee and the losers received alka-seltzer.

The most talked about guest was Leola Hubbard who received a set of ashtrays or coasters, which will be used in the club. Mrs. Hubbard and Nicky Mann were in charge of the social committee responsible for the event.

The club will get together at their next meeting on Mar. 18 at 1303 12th street.

Phi Chapter of Deltas Hold Meeting on "Negro And Fine Arts at Des Moines Art Center

On Mar. 3 Phi chapter of Delta Sigma Theta held a meeting for the discussion of "Negro and Fine Arts," at the Des Moines Art Center.

The discussion was led by a panel composed of Irving White, who spoke on the Negro in drama; LeRoy Mitchell, Irving Junior high art teacher and Des Moines first Negro art teacher who spoke on Negro Art and Artists and Soror Dorothy Simms who spoke on Negro Music and Musicians. Soror Verda Williams was the mistress of ceremony.

Mr. White stated that although we wanted integration, we must not lose our identity as an ethnic group. Mr. Mitchell said the Negro has to reproduce in art whatever is close and meaningful to him. He noted there was a period when he could not do this because it was not acceptable. He felt that all is not lost because these events have been printed in books and today and in the future, with pride in his ethnic group, the Negro will be able to capture and reproduce the spirit of the past in art. He also noted that for a long time Negroes were not accepted in art schools and in trying to become an illustrator for literature.

Committee for the program was Sorors Haley Houston, Verda Williams, Ellaree Clinton, Dorothy Simms, Catherine Williams and Sandra Winters. The meeting adjourned to reconvene at the home of Soror Chrystal Peavy for a business session.

In conjunction with the program at the Art Center Mrs. Charlene Lakin, librarian at Roosevelt High school, was presented in February as a guest speaker on "Negro Fiction and periodicals," at the home of Soror Mae Olin. Soror Clara Bayles was co-ordinator and Soror Ada Johnson, resource person. The committee included Sorors Peavy, Barbara Williams, Willie Glanton, Angie Charlton, Helen Wimberly, Ruth Davis and Ruth Turner.

Rugs and carpets probably take more of a beating than any of your other home furnishings. However, there are several things you can do to make your carpets stay beautiful and last years longer—and save yourself the money it would cost to replace them.

Use an inexpensive carpet sweeper every day to pick up lint, crumbs and dirt from the surface of your carpet. A few minutes a day will keep dirt from being ground deeply into the carpet. Use a vacuum cleaner once a week. A good vacuum cleaner removes deep-down dirt, as well as surface material. When the carpet begins to look dull, use a rug shampoo to get rid of dirt that your vacuum cleaner can't get to. Modern rug shampoos require little work and are well worth the effort to keep your rugs and carpets beautiful. Once a year is the minimum for shampooing every carpet in the house.

Hot Spiced Tea and Sportsmen

Always welcome to a group of winter sports enthusiasts is a hot cup of tea, especially Hot Spiced Tea, "solid" sandwiches and an assortment of cakes or cookies.

If you know anything about the reactions of outdoor sportsfolks, you know that once they're home, and relaxed, fatigue is likely to take over. So, just in case you've a few chores in mind for them to do, have plenty of that Hot Spiced Tea around. Why? Simply because tea supplies a quick pick-up followed by a steady "lift" without any let down. At the same time, in its own mysterious fashion, tea relaxes nerve tensions. Here's the recipe for the Hot Spiced Tea. If you learn to make this right, you'll automatically learn the basic rules for making a good pot of everyday tea.

HOT SPICED AFTERNOON TEA

4 quarts water
 1 teaspoon whole cloves
 1 stick cinnamon
 1½ cup loose tea or 15 teabags
 1½ cups sugar
 1 cup orange juice
 ¾ cup fresh lemon juice

Add spices to water. Bring water to full rolling boil. Remove from heat. Immediately add tea. Brew 4 minutes. Stir and strain. Add sugar; stir till dissolved. Add fruit juices. To reheat for serving place over low heat. Do not boil. Makes 25-30 servings.

CRUNCHY FRUIT SQUARES

(Makes 48 squares)
 1 cup flour
 1 teaspoon baking powder
 ½ teaspoon salt
 2 eggs, beaten
 1 cup brown sugar
 2 teaspoons vanilla
 1 cup chopped filberts
 1 cup candied fruits, chopped
 1 cup dates, chopped

Sift flour, measure and sift again with baking powder and salt. Beat eggs until they start to thicken. Continue beating and add sugar gradually, then vanilla. Stir in dry ingredients. Fold in filberts, candied fruits, and dates. Bake in an 8 x 8-inch lined and greased pan in a 350°F. oven for 40 minutes. Cool. Cut into squares and remove from pan.

FILBERT MACAROONS

(Makes about 2 dozen)
 ¼ cup shortening
 ½ cup sugar
 1 egg, well beaten
 1 cup chopped filberts
 ½ teaspoon vanilla
 1 teaspoon salt
 2½ cups ready-to-serve flake cereal, crumbled
 Cream shortening. Add sugar gradually. Beat in egg, and add chopped filberts, vanilla, salt and cereal. Mix thoroughly; press mixture into rounded bowl of tablespoon. Drop on greased baking sheet. Bake in moderate oven 350°F. for 10 minutes.

SUSTAINS ACT OF CONGRESS IMPLEMENTING ITS LAWS

The U. S. Supreme Court, by a split decision Monday, upheld the key section of the Voting Rights act of 1965. The decision upheld the power of congress under the Constitution's Fifteenth Amendment to suspend state literacy tests and similar voting qualifications and to authorize the U. S. Attorney General to appoint federal examiners to register qualified voters in various sections of the country.

When Congress passed the 15th Amendment which provides: "The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude." It was intended to prevent states, where every intention was to keep Negroes from voting, from denying the vote. Some states became more brazen as the years went by and passed all kinds of laws which would restrict Negroes from voting.

Aided by unintended restrictions laid down by the U. S. Supreme Court, the amendment became almost nullified. Congress did not have the courage to pass implementing legislation to enforce its own laws.

Said Chief Justice Warren, who delivered the majority opinion: "We hold that the sections of the act which are properly before us are an appropriate means for carrying out Congress' constitutional responsibilities and are consonant with all other provisions of the Constitution."

South Carolina, joined by Virginia, Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia and Mississippi, had attacked the new law as violative of the Constitution. The federal government defended the law and was joined by 20 states.

The props of segregation and discrimination are being knocked from the diehards wherever their heads are raised bringing the U. S. closer to its Declaration of Independence with the Negro included.

DUBOIS CLUBS MAY WELL REPEAT

Comes now a group called the W. E. B. DuBois clubs scattered in many parts of the country, which have been branded Communist. The attorney general has asked that the organization be placed on the list of un-American organizations.

W. E. B. DuBois, for whom the organization is named, was an able scholar and educator. An early graduate of Harvard University, he taught at Atlanta University, helped organize the Niagara Movement, a forerunner of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; was associated with the latter organization as a founder, editor of the Crises and in other capacities. He spent his declining years with the Pan African Congress finally winding up a member of the Communist party.

Even though DuBois' association at the end was very unfortunate, he did much in earlier years to lay the foundation for a much better day which has come to the Negro today.

Communism disillusioned DuBois because it did not accomplish for the darker areas what he had in mind and thus the fine work he did in early years was frittered away by his final association with Russia.

These new DuBois clubs will find themselves disillusioned also, for their purposes and tactics do tend to alienate the support and in many cases embarrass those of both races who keep their heads, continually pushing toward complete justice for the Negro. And their ending may well parallel that of Dr. DuBois.

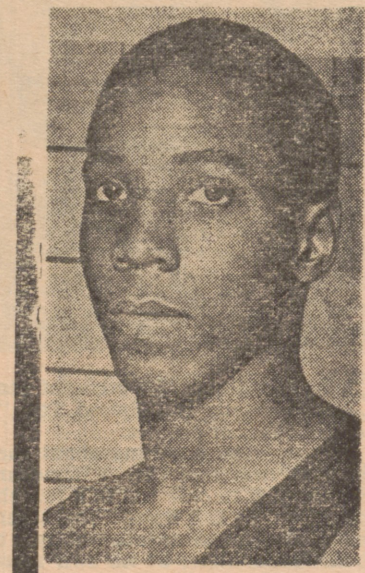

All-City Marble Champ

Sporting a big smile as he gazed happily at his trophy was Gary Strode, 13, who won the All-City Marble Tournament Saturday at the Municipal Armory. The only trophy available was a baseball player but it will be exchanged later when the right one arrives.

Gary is the son of Mr. and Mrs.

Ken Whitney, Guard, Makes All-City Cage Team with Two Other Roughriders

Kenneth Whitney was among three team members of the undefeated Roosevelt Roughriders who were named to the All-City basketball team by the Register and Tribune last week.

WHITNEY

Whitney who plays guard for the state defending champions was the third top vote getter with 24 points. He is a junior. Whitney saw only limited action last year after being brought up to the varsity for the tournament eliminations. This season the 6-ft. 4-in. junior has improved steadily and increased his scoring average in recent games to nearly 13 a game. He is certain to play an important part in the Roughrider cage scheme of things next year.

If the Roughriders make it all the way to the tournament he will be the first Negro regular squad member on a Des Moines team in many a year to play the tourney. Keokuk and Waterloo had Negro team members last year.

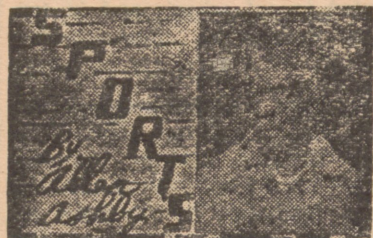

CAWTHORNE

Other teammates making the first team were Center Tom Schulze who made the No. 1 team last year and Forward Don Sears. Schulze is the city's leading scorer with a 20-point average. Other members of the first team were Forward Rick Hall and Guard Steve Lundholm of North.

Herb Cawthorne, North, was named to the second team. Receiving honorable mention were Bob Gaines of East; Willie Herndon of Tech and Bob Wright of Lincoln.

By the time you read this they may have put the principals in the heavyweight championship bout on a rocket headed for the moon where the fight may end up. Let's see; there was this announcement by Cassius Clay's draft board that the champ was to be reclassified and might or most certainly would go in March. Then there was Cassius's saying a lot of things he later wished he hadn't said. We know from all too painful experience how news writers can put words in your mouth and make some weird statements come out.

Draft Board

We don't propose to take any side with the champion's argument with his draft board. That is between him and them. But we do wish some of these super patriots could have heard some of the expressions we heard as the boys were drafted in World War II. Now a lot or most of them went uncomplaining but some yelled even as did Clay.

Joe Louis

To say the guy ought to be like Joe Louis is funny. Louis is one man and Clay is another. Each has his own ideas about things and life and they couldn't emulate each other no matter how hard they tried. But this is an election year and just about everybody who is interested in politics sounded off about the coming title fight. Lambasting it became a sort of status symbol.

Attorney General

We never thought the Illinois boxing commission would cancel the bout which means so much money to them. But neither had we counted on the attorney general going back into section 92 of the boxing laws to bring up one to stop the battle.

Promoters

As we write this we guess the promoters were still wondering what to do. They can write all the stories questioning the Americanism of the champion they want to. But we still think the whole thing boils down to the fact that there is just too much money to be made by all those Negroes. We are almost certain that had one of the principals been a white boxer who might win, the bout would have been held in New York.

Local

Here at home two of our high school wrestlers came through in the state wrestling meet recently. Jason Smith of Ankeny proved that he may well be the best mat man around these parts. He climaxed an unbeaten season by winning the Class A 165-pound title. Jim Shade won the 145-pound class AA crown. Both boys were unbeaten all season and maybe welcome additions to some college squad. We think they are both good students.

Willkie League

If you would hear, yes hear, basketball, as it should be played just be in Well's pool hall after one of those Willkie House league sessions. The boys really replay the games and know exactly what they did wrong and just how to correct it. Yep, there is a lot of basketball played in that pool hall. Probably more than sometimes gets played

WHAT IS CHRISTIANITY?

Well, it ain't the Parson's preachin' That flings wide the Golden Gates, Nor the choir's high-toned screechin' That builds halos 'round your pates; Nor the "cheerful giver" look of looks When you toss in your dime, Nor mumbling prayers you find in books— (Nor readin' of this rhyme). It's the things you do on Monday When the Church is just a place That you'll come again next Sunday To sing out "I'm saved by Grace!" It's the favors you don't have to do— (But do them just the same); It's the self respect you bring back to

Some neighbor, bowed with shame, And it's Tuesday's smile and Wednesday's hand To someone feeling "down". And it's making someone feel just grand By having you around. It's knowing, Thursday, that you've done Some friendly little deed— Some errand, Friday, you have run To help a friend in need. And it's playing fair on Saturday With everyone you meet:— With stranger, friend, at work, at play— At home or on the street; Then Sunday in your church may you Pray God with spirit meek, That He'll show you the things to do For Him the coming week. —Douglas Pearson.

Laugh Lines

The new family was anxious to make a good impression in the neighbors remained aloof. The mother was overjoyed when finally her youngest son ran in and announced happily, "Mommy, the lady next door asked my name today!" "Oh, how nice!" his mother exclaimed. "And then what did she do?" "Then she gave it to the policeman," the boy said.

Thoughts for Today

"Optimism is the process of distilling the best and sweetest out of life and sharing it with others. Hope is the real riches as fear is the real poverty. Faith is the force of life." —Tolstol.

Hire First Negro Aide in A. F. L.

Boston, Mass. — The Patriots Thursday signed Rommie Loudd as the first Negro assistant coach in American Football League history. Loudd, an assistant who helped New Bedford win Atlantic Coast League championships the past two seasons, will work with Patriot linebackers.

"Rommie Loudd has been hired only because he has the ability to do the job," Patriots President Bill Sullivan said. "It doesn't make any difference what the color of the skin—it's character and ability that count."

at the Willkie House. All those Negroes on the two-all Big Ten cage team; wonder how that one white boy made it.

Peebles and Pervall Play Final Game for Iowa; Get Ovation

Iowa City, Ia.—A crowd of 11,800 watched the Iowa Hawkeyes finally emerge victorious over Indiana here Monday night and then gave each one of the senior starters—George Peebles, Chris Pervall, Denny Pauling and Gary Olson—a rousing ovation when they left the game.

The four were making their final basketball playing appearance before the home fans. The Hawkeyes won 82-77. Ben McGilmer, a slim sophomore, sparked the attack with 20 points. And of course he will be around for two more years to thrill the fans with his ball handling. McGilmer collected 17 in a fancy second-half display of shooting artistry and all-around hustle.
