Urges Probe of Bricklayers Union

Hold Round-up Rally and Tea for Membership

D.M. NAACP Charges Employment Office with Intentional Discrimination

Region IV Director Was Keynote Says; 'Work to Be Done'

Captains and workers of the Des Moines NAACP gathered for a rousing "round-up rally" Sunday afternoon before riding out on the range of the 1966 membership drive. Under ramrod, Rev. Kenneth McNeil, trail boss, Michael Hogan and Leola Hubbard, secretary, the membership committee hope to rope in some 1,000 members in Des Moines.

Keynote Speaker

Keynote speaker for the event was Julius Williams, Phi Beta Kappa businessman, and executive director of Region IV, Kansas City, Mo., who told his audience, "The problem of discrimination still exists and they are not going to be erased unless we do something about it."

Automation

"Today as automation increases, our children have to stay in school just to learn how to push a button. But, our school systems are not doing the job for the people. Out of 1000 students only seven will finish college and about 250 will finish high school. What will happen to the others. What's wrong with the school that their production is no better than that?"

2 Schools

Referring to Sunday's story about Negroes being denied entrance to the two bricklayers training schools, Williams reported that he had contacted high level government officials in the region and state.

"I can announce to you with all assurance, there will be something done about that and soon."

"When we invest in our children we sometimes forget to give them incentive and motives to take advantage of the opportunities that are here."

Williams was introduced by Des Moines branch president Robert A. Wright who emphasized that the Des Moines NAACP would concentrate its efforts in 1966 on "housing problems, employment problems and de facto school segregation."

Job Corps Officials Alarmed At Race Ratio of Trainees

Washington, D. C.—Government officials are becoming alarmed at what seems to be shaping up as an all-Negro Job Corps. They fear that if they do not act to reverse the trend and entice more whites into the corps there will soon be de facto segregation in the National Youth Training program.

There are 23,000 enrollees in 97 centers across the country. All seven women's centers have Negroes in majority. At the much bigger men's urban camps with contingents up to several thousand, Negroes are swiftly gaining numerical dominance. Camp Kilmer, N. J., is now more than two-thirds Negro; at the end of 1965 the ratio was 40 per cent Negro, 60 per cent white.

Seek Rural Teens

The Job Corps has now embarked on a project to attract teen-agers from rural areas, where most white recruits come from. Also planned are a pretested "big brother" advisory structure to give each enrollee

Sammy Davis, Jr., Will Head NAACP Membership Drive

New York—Sammy Davis, Jr., the popular and talented star of stage, screen and television, has been named chairman of the Life Membership Committee of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. He succeeds Kivie Kaplan who, upon election to the presidency of the NAACP last January, gave up the chairmanship of

Negro Judge's Home 'Bombed'

Wilmington, Del.—The family of Judge Sidney J. Clark, the first Negro judge in Delaware history, was routed from bed shortly before midnight Friday when a smoke bomb was thrown into his home.

Clark, his wife Alma and children Sidney, Jr., 4, and Stephen, 2, were asleep when the bomb came crashing through a dining room window.

Police described it as a "grenade type" missile shaped like a tear-gas bomb. It landed under a table on the dining room floor and started a small fire that scorched window drapes and a rug. It released smoke that filled the whole house.

Clark was appointed to the bench in 1961.

Irving Junior High School Burglarized

Burglars Friday night entered Irving Junior High School, 16th street and Forest avenue, by breaking a window on the south side of the school.

A television set used for classes was believed taken, school officials said.

The burglary was discovered at 7:30 a.m. Saturday, Apr. 16 by an assistant custodian.

Interracial Visit Halted At Waterloo Apt.

Waterloo, Ia.—At the request of operators of an apartment building here, proposed interracial visits to one of their tenants were canceled Sunday. The operators said other tenants would object to the visits.

The visitation to the apartment of a white minister, the Rev. Harlow Ferris, was scheduled as part of the fifth in a series of semi-annual interracial home visits here under sponsorship of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The Rev. Mr. Ferris said his landlord and landlady asked for the cancellation.

2 Other Tenants

The Rev. Thomas Friedman said the landlady, Mrs. Lloyd Farmer of Waterloo, told him she and her husband personally had no objection but knew at least two other tenants who would object.

The Black Hawk County Chapter of the N.A.A.C.P. later issued a statement that he regretted the incident, although it expressed pleasure with the program as a whole, in which about 150 persons took part.

The statement said, "Cancellation the visit mirrors the very racial prejudice that this program is designed to overcome."

35-Members

Announcement of the selection of Mr. Davis to head the 35-member committee which conducts the NAACP's campaign for $500 life memberships was made here Tuesday, April 12, by Bishop Stephen G. SEE PAGE TWO

NEWS In A Nutshell

Norfolk, Va.—A U. S. district judge has approved a plan to integrate the faculty of local schools. The plan will transfer white teachers to Negro schools and vice versa. Judge Walter E. Hoffman said he reluctantly went along with the plan but did not approve of its "racial" character.

Chicago, Ill.—The proverbial "ship came in" for three local citizens last week when they learned they were holders of the $140,000 tickets in the Irish sweepstakes. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hudson, who had been buying sweeps tickets for 10 years and Mrs. Connie Withers, a widow living in the Chicago Housing authority's Robert H. B. Brooks Homes were the lucky threesome.

Washington, D. C.—Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, (D., N.Y.) charges that efforts are being made to split his House Education and Labor Committee "because I am a Negro," through the proposed study by a Joint Committee on the Organization of Congress to create separate House committee. Powell said, "But a black man from Harlem is a menace because he has too much legislative power."

Richmond, Va.—The local school board has agreed to assign more Negro teachers to predominantly white schools and white teachers to predominantly Negro schools. In the face of possible Supreme Court action against it, the board issued a policy statement on integration.

Milwaukee, Wis.—North Division High school has been boycotted in a protest against de facto segregation by the Milwaukee United School Integration committee. About 250 Negro students participated in the boycott. It was the first boycott directed at a single school.

Minneapolis, Minn.—Mary Mischeau, formerly receptionist in the Star and Tribune personnel office seems to have moved up a bit in that office.

Pickens, S. C.—Three Johnson brothers from here have seen action in Viet Nam. They are John Howard, (injured), Leroy, 21, missing in action and Charles, 25, reported killed.

Ford Foundation Donates $486,000 for 'Disadvantaged' Books

New York—The Fund for the Advancement of Education, established by the Ford Foundation, today announced grants totalling $486,000 for a series of experiments designed to encourage the reading and ownership of pleasurable books by disadvantaged children and adults.

The largest grant, amounting to $200,000 was made to Volunteers In Service To America (VISTA), the domestic equivalent of the Peace Corps. VISTA has more than 2,000 volunteer workers scattered throughout the country, offering various kinds of help to disadvantaged Americans.

At the request of the Des Moines NAACP Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the national organization has requested an investigation into the pre-apprenticeship programs for 32 bricklayer trainees in Des Moines and Storm Lake. All are white.

The request for an investigation was prompted by Atty. Robert A. Wright, Des Moines NAACP president, who stated "It is our belief that the selection process for applicants in these programs excluded Negroes."

Classes Filled

Some leaders went further to speculate that they believe the bricklayers classes in both cities were filled before the announcement of the proposed classes. The nine week training, public schools, started in mid-March. Trainees receive allowances during the schooling. Those who complete the course may enter the union's four-year apprentice program.

Wright said Wilkins has brought the request to the attention of Secretary of Labor Willard Wirtz and Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare John Gardner.

Union and Contractors

Wright said the selection in Des Moines was made by Bricklayers Local 2 and in Storm Lake by contractors affiliated with the Master Builders of Iowa.

Wright said the union should not have been permitted to choose the trainees because the union "traditionally has excluded Negroes."

"In fact," he said, "there have never been any Negro apprentice bricklayers in the state of Iowa."

Opportunity

Wright said the Des Moines program provided the union with "a golden opportunity to tap a good source of potential skilled labor at a time when employers are crying for such workers."

He said Negroes also are "systematically excluded" from the plumbing, electricians and sheetmetal workers unions.

Director

Albin T. Benander, state manpower training director under the Employment Security Commission, said an effort was made to attract Negroes in state-wide recruitment by the 34 Employment Service offices.

Wright said the Iowa Human Rights Commission and Des Moines Commission on Human Rights have been asked to investigate the programs.

Pounds

The N. A. A. C. P. stand was supported by Russell Pounds, manpower specialist with the Manpower Development Council, a state agency in the job-training field.

"We came into this with the intention of attempting to make the opportunities open to everyone, not just persons selected by the union," said Pounds.

Signed Statement

Pounds said the union and contractors, in applying for federal money for the programs, signed statements that there would be no discrimination on racial or other lines, as required by the Civil Rights Act.

"What happens in fact is that they don't let Negroes know about the programs and so none apply," he said.

Pounds said "all the state agencies have been sort of tacitly participating in this, knowing what's going on."

Davenport Negroes Voice Bias Complaints Against Police, School and Housing

Davenport, Ia.—At a hearing designed to explain Iowa's 1965 Civil Rights Act, here last week, the Iowa Civil Rights Commission heard Negroes complain of rebuffs from city officials and of discrimination in schools and the police force.

The meeting was held at the Davenport Children's library. The commission met earlier in the city in a closed session with the Davenport Human Rights Commission and then toured depressed areas of the city.

Mayor

Josh Roberts, head of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (N. A. A. C. P.) political committee, told the commission that he and other N. A. A. C. P. officials met with Davenport Mayor John Jebens recently, and the mayor told them "to look after the Negroes, and he (Jebens) would look after the whites."

Roberts said he never heard of a mayor representing just part of a city.

Cribbs

William Cribbs, Davenport N. A. C. P. president, said he was present at the meeting with Jebens. He said Roberts' statement was correct, but that Roberts may have worded it more forcefully than the mayor put it.

Cribbs said the meeting with the mayor, which was closed to the press, was held some time in December. He said the Davenport police chief was also present.

Purpose of the meeting, Cribbs said, was to ask the mayor and police chief to bring in a "human relations expert" for the police force.

"Look Into"

Cribbs said the Negroes were told the city would "look into it."

"The man still hasn't been brought in," Cribbs said.

Cribbs also told the commission that de facto segregation is maintained in Davenport at West High School.

He said that as the Negro "ghetto" steadily moves west, the boundaries of the school district for West High School are changed and moved far-

HEALTH FOR ALL

NATURE'S ROCK 'N' ROLL

Life has its ups and downs, as any homespun philosopher will assure you at the drop of an elevator. But even philosophers can lose that mellow outlook when caught in the ups and downs of a storm-tossed ship or plane.

Not long ago the scary specter of motion sickness decided the shape of many people's vacation plans. But in recent years seasickness, air sickness, and related horrors have been yielding to new medical knowledge.

Not that any sure fire cure has been found. Once the dreary malady has marked you for its own, there is little to do except perform the ancient rituals that so amuse people when they're happening to the other fellow. But in the field of prevention it's hardly too much to say that a corner has been turned. Drugs now available are so effective that hardly anyone need fear the billowing wave or the stormy sky providing he takes his medicine at the right time.

Bishop Spottswood also announced appointment of Dr. George D. Cannon, Manhattan physician, as vice chairman of the committee.

Mr. Kaplan hailed the selection of Mr. Davis and said he had "every confidence that Sammy will give dynamic and productive leadership to the continuing drive to enroll 100,000 NAACP life members." Under Mr. Kaplan's leadership, the number of fully-paid and subscribing life members rose from 221 in 1953 to 18,210 at the end of 1965. Payment may be made in a lump sum or in installments of $50 or $100 annually. Income from life membership payments not constitute a substantial source of the Association's annual budget.

Entire Family

Despite his busy schedule, Mr. Davis has been a consistent and active supporter of civil rights, freely contributing his energy, time, money and superb talent not only to the NAACP but also to other civil rights organizations. He recalls and lives by his early promise to his grandmother that "if I should ever become a star, I would help others whenever and wherever I can."

He and his entire family are NAACP life members. He has also secured other top-drawer performers as $500 NAACP life members. The Motion sickness is due mainly to stimulation of the complicated inner ear apparatus (doctors call it the labyrinth) caused by the changes of direction or speed of motion. The more sensitive the labyrinth, the greater proneness to motion sickness. Plenty of fresh air, a light diet, and moderation in the use of alcohol will lessen your chance of becoming a victim.

If you are susceptible to motion sickness, consult your doctor (not your druggist) about preventive medication. Most such medications should be started before embarking; follow your doctor's advice.

Most important of all: take only what the doctor recommends. That way you will avoid the danger of serious side effects from a drug that might be all right for some others, but all wrong for you.

History

Mrs. Georgine C. Morris, president emerita of the Iowa State Conference of Branches highlighted the history of the branch. Silas Ewing was master of ceremonies, with the two membership co-chairmen and A. P. Trotter speaker briefly. Rev. N. R. Olphin gave the invocation.

Before the main speech James Dunn and his Youth for Freedom Group sang freedom songs, composed of their original words set to music of Negro spirituals.

Tea Table

Following the program, tea was served from a beautifully appointed table which had a centerpiece of red azaleas flanked by pink candles in silver candleholders. Pouring were Mesdames John Cason and Ethel Jeffers. The tea committee included Mesdames Loyatus Clark, chairman, Guy E. Green, Leola Hubbard and James B. Morris, Sr.

Beck Seeks GOP Nomination for Gov.

Des Moines, Iowa—Robert K. Beck, Centerville, Iowa publisher, has announced his candidacy for the Republican gubernatorial nomination. In the statement in which he made his announcement, Beck called for a long-range plan for development for the state, and cited what could be done in Iowa cities and towns by pointing out that in his own city, enough industry has been added that the manufacturing payroll has been doubled in less than four years. Beck has been chairman of the committee obtaining new industry for Centerville.

Beck said that Iowa has had some remarkable local gains, as in the case of Centerville, but that statewide it is far behind other states. Concerned Citizen

Beck said he was entering the campaign race as a "concerned citizen" and added that "as a concerned citizen I fear that two more years of Hughes' administration would result in more unfair taxation, more spoils system, more absenteeism government, and more constriction of opportunity for the average person."

BECK

Beck enumerated issues which he said he would discuss in detail in later statements or speeches. They were: (1) "Iowa needs subdistricting insofar as apportionment is concerned;" (2) "I am for a state merit system;" (3) "I believe the governor should be on the job;" (4) "I believe in equitable taxation;" (5) "I believe that Iowa needs a Board of Economic Development charged by law to design programs to advance the state's economic and population growth;" and (6) "I am unwilling to accept the thesis that Iowa is incapable of gaining the same economic growth as the national average."

Has Wide Experience

Beck, aged 50, is married and has three children. He is a graduate of Iowa Wesleyan College, as were his parents. He is now on the Board of Trustees of that school, and of the Community College of Centerville.

Mrs. Beck formerly was on the Centerville Board of Education. Beck was a member of the State Legislature in the 1950's, and a member of the Highway Commission.

Beck is a director of the Centerville National Bank, and has been Chairman of the Centerville Industrial Development Committee, is a World War II veteran and a member of the Board of Directors of both

The Young Years . . .

The life span of modern man has increased on the average to more than fifty years since the time of Caesar. Today young people do not worry much about dying. Statistics give them many years ahead! They may eat unwisely, generally abuse their bodies, and the consequences are not evident.

But after forty we begin to watch our diet, cut down on tobacco and perhaps liquor, take vacations as a means to health rather than just for fun.

We buy vitamin pills, we visit the doctor oftener and the bacterial enemy is feared and fought. The urge for survival becomes more and more powerful the closer we approach our statistical deadline . . . without this urge mankind would have vanished from earth long ago!

On Nov. 11, 1965, Herb sold his farm and equipment, prize dairy herd and swine breeding stock, to dedicate the rest of his life to fighting human exploitation.

He said the failure of the present administration to send help for Negro ration in 93% of the area in the South indicates we need enforcement of civil rights laws and not the mere promise of execution. We must have a change of attitude to make education, housing, and jobs available without discrimination.

Royal Dukes Sponsor Glenwood State School And Band, Chorus in Concert at Hoyt Sherman

The Royal Dukes sponsored the Glenwood State School Band and Chorus at the Hoyt Sherman place on Mar. 25. David Young, a member of the band and chorus, has been sponsored by the club since 1961. The horn he played was presented to him by the club.

The music ranged from classical, folk, popular to jazz ending with the moving rendition of "Bless this House," by the combined chorus and band.

The Dukes brought the group of 60 children to Des Moines by chartered bus and also took them to dinner at the Hotel Commodore.

The Supt. of School Leonard W. Lavis and Band director, Warren Darrah said the children had looked forward to their first concert in Des Moines. Lavis pointed out that most of the children will never get above a third grade level but the music was far higher. The retarded child can be helped, he emphasized.

The sponsorship program is one in which a civic group or individual sponsors a resident at Glenwood who either has no family or relative to remember him or her on holidays, birthdays. The sponsors provide spending change or for other needs.

The Royal Dukes is one of the first Negro organizations to sponsor a Negro child at Glenwood. There are other Negro residents but they all have white sponsors. Each year the Dukes entertain the residents at a picnic in the park making all preparations.

The Club's social activities include picnics, formal parties, Valentine parties, and other events.

Members are James Bethel, president; Lawrence Graves, secretary; Everett Newcomb, treasurer, Lucian Bailey, Sam Bell, Albert Brewer, Murray Wolder, Robert Calderon, Lave Fowler, Jr., Herbert Green, Albert Rhodes, Gilbert Russell, John Spencer, Jessie Taylor, and Luther Wells. Honorary members are Bert Parker and Edward Cranshaw.

Last week we asked for assistance in identifying the little girl who appeared on Mary Jane Chinn show on Thursday, Apr. 7. We got a call Friday to tell us about the little girl, Cordelia (Cordy) Allen, who is the granddaughter of Mrs. Aurelia Rhodes, 111 11th street in West Des Moines.

Mrs. Rhodes said a neighbor called her referring to the paragraph. She said she and her granddaughter, whom she is rearing, were in to Jacobson Apparel store in WDM buying her Easter outfit. Mrs. Jacobson remarked what a pretty girl Cordelia was and asked "How would you like to be on TV?" The little girl said fine and Mrs. Jacobson turned to Mrs. Rhodes to ask the same question. Mrs. Rhodes thought she was kidding but was soon assured she wasn't.

So the result Cordy modeled her Easter outfit, pink dress with white yolk and ruffles, a pink straw hat trimmed with lace ruffles, and little white gloves.

Mrs. Jacobson also said she would like to use Cordy on the show again, when her store sponsors the fashion show portion.

Excited with her first place prize, Mrs. Ethel Jeffers stopped by to show us the creation she had fashioned, starting with a wicker bread basket which she filled with an artificial banana, cherries, oranges, strawberries, nuts, grapes, an ear of corn, a tiny monkey climbing a tiny palm tree and tied with yellow and pink ribbon.

The hat creation project was sponsored by her club, the Dilettante club and she was awarded a lovely blue plastic quilted hat box for her prize.

Taking second prize was Mrs. Joan Bullock who fashioned a hat from a plastic shopping bag and ribbons.

The Leonard Peavy family of 1433 Center street, had a fire recently. Mrs. Peavy said she was lying in bed when the furnace blew up causing the fire. It occurred on the same day that she was scheduled to accompany other Des Moines Deltas to Omaha, Nebr., for the presentation of the Negro Books to the Omaha library, which is a national project of Deltas.

Speaking of Negro books the local Delta chapter is also sponsoring a similar project for the Willkie House library, 900 17th street. They are appealing to clubs and individuals for donating of books and the cost of them and they will be presented in the person's or organization's name. The program in which the books will be formally presented to Willkie House will be held on Sunday, May 15. This is one of the most worthy and significant projects that has come on the local scene in months for it gives all of Des Moines an opportunity to help.

Our oldest son, Victor, was among four students from Irving Junior high school making a day-long trip to Perry, Ia., to attend the Iowa Junior Academy of Science there last Friday.

We were a little amused at Mrs. Bennie Flanigan, 1112 10th street, when we called her last week and she set up an appointment for Wednesday of this week for us. Then

FOOL THE PUBLIC

Sheriff Wilbur Hildreth has named G. B. Tucker bailiff in the Polk County District Court apparently dictated by the continued escape by persons from the jail. Tucker, a turnkey, was suspended for 30 days following the last jail break.

Much confusion has arisen over what the appointment means due to a lack of knowledge of what has gone before.

The announcement of the appointment stated that this was the first time a Negro has held that post. This is not true for the late Will Jones was bailiff until 1921.

During the political campaign of 1920, Negroes complained that the job of bailiff was but valet of the judge and that a full deputy sheriff was desirable. Sheriff Robb appointed Jack Lindsey regular deputy sheriff. Park Findley appointed James McGuire upon his election but he, along with later sheriffs, bowed to the complaint of some people who objected to Negro deputy sheriffs serving notices on them, relegated them to turnkeys.

Maybe Sheriff Hildreth did not know the record with respect to appointment of Negroes in the Polk County sheriff's office or that a bailiff appointment is a demotion.

Polk County Negro Democrats and others need to come to Tucker's defense in this matter for he alone has been made the goat for the inefficiency of some of his co-workers.

STUNTS WHICH KEEP PEOPLE ON EDGE

Last week, the Des Moines NAACP charged the Negroes had been excluded from the bricklayers' apprenticeship training programs now being conducted in Des Moines and Storm Lake under the Iowa Security Commission and State Department of Public Instruction.

Albin T. Benander, the state manpower training director under the Employment Security Commission, said an effort was made to attract Negroes in state wide recruitment. Robert Wright, who heads the branch, said the selections were made by the bricklayers unions.

The Bystander was told last month that the selection had been made before the public generally knew about the project.

There has been much confusion about just what has happened. The bad record of the bricklayers which has left Negroes out of the unions and their refusal, in one instance, to work with some Negro bricklayers (union men) who had been imported makes one highly suspicious that tricks are carried on even in these federal projects to continue to practice their dirty tricks.

The national office has requested an investigation by the department of labor and manpower commission to the end that the project be discontinued and a new one started which would give Negroes a chance to get on the job.

The investigation should be conducted promptly because too many conflicting statements have been made which leave the public puzzled.

The secrecy placed on the civil rights commissions make it difficult to know what, if anything, is being done to follow through. Unfortunately, former cases of this type have slipped through the fingers of the commissions winding up simply as a farce.

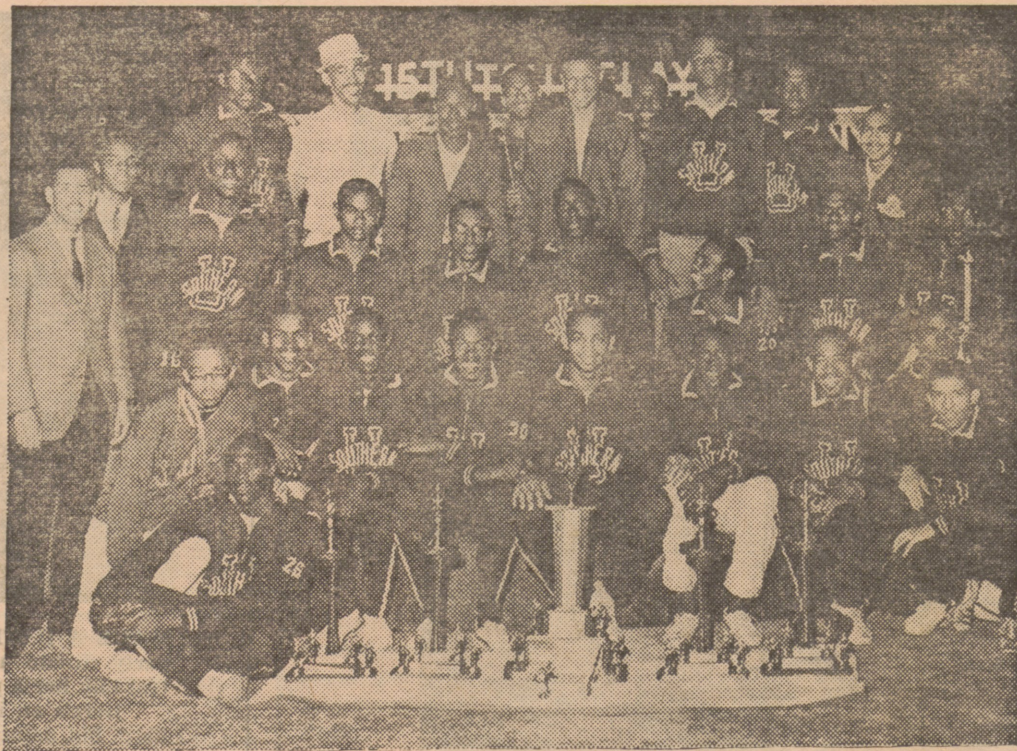

It is this type of thing which, while designed to do a job without regard to race, is administered by the same old officials who have become past masters in shouting civil rights but cut the Negroes throat at every turn.

A similar deal developed in St. Louis last year. There positive action was taken by going to court and stopping the project. A new one was begun with Negroes included. This type of action gets results.

Texas Southern Relay Team Will Return to Drake Apr. 29-30

Texas Southern's fabulous relay team from Houston, Tex., will return to the Drake Relays on Apr. 29-30 where it has such amazing results. With Clyde Duncan, former North High sprint star, they expect to field the strongest entry it has ever put on the cinder track.

The Flying Tigers from Houston, Tex., under the guidance of Coach Stan Wright, have won 15 relay titles at Drake in the past five years, half the number of championship possibilities.

Texas Southern has run faster than the Drake Relays college division records in the 440, 880 and sprint medley relays and in addition will bring the defending high jump champion, John Hartfield, and present two of the country's top high hurdlers, Roy Hicks and Arnaldo Bristol.

Tie 440 Mark

Four times already this season Texas Southern has run below the Drake 440 relay record of :40.5. At the Prairie View Relays Duncan, Bristol, Hicks and sophomore Jim Hines tied the accepted world mark of 39.9 seconds, although Stanford has a pending mark of 39.7.

The Houston team equalled the Drake 880 relay mark of 1:23.2, at Prairie View with Duncan, Hicks and Hines teaming with freshman Bobby Evans. They upset Southern University in the Texas Relays.

Current Record

The current T.S.U. speedsters are 1½ seconds below their Drake Relays mark in the sprint medley with 3:18.3, using Duncan, Hicks, Hines and George Hunt, a 1:49 half-mile.

As a sophomore last year, Hartfield established a Drake record of 6-feet 9¼-inches and he has been over the 7-foot mark four times already this season, including his second straight triumph at the Texas Relays.

First Negro Named to Coach in Pro Sports

Boston, Mass.—"I got to succeed or fall on this job not as a black man or white man or a green but as a coach."

These were the realistic words of Bill Russell, new coach of the Boston Celtics pro-basketball and the first of his race to be named a head coach in pro-sports in any major league.

"I can fail as a coach," Russell said Monday after he was appointed to succeed Red Auerbach, who is stepping down to devote full time to his duties as general manager of the National Basketball Association team.

"I wasn't offered the job because I am a Negro. Red wouldn't have offered it to me under those conditions and I would not have taken it."

"Race was not considered. I was offered it because Red figured I could handle it. It was our decision his and mine."

"This doesn't even come close to the Jackie Robinson case," said Russell. "At that time there were no Negroes in any big league sports. Now there are so many you don't even know who they are."

"But this is part of the thing Robinson did. It followed logically. It is part of the same story. Now maybe there will be some more Negro coaches and managers in sports."

Keokuk's Douglas

New York, N. Y.—Greg Douglas of Keokuk, Ia., was one of 40 players named Sunday to the Scholastic Magazine high school all-America basketball squad.

The 6-foot, 8-inch, 230-pound center was on The Register's first all-state team this year after leading Keokuk to a 22-1 record with his 25-point average. He was second team all-stater last year after pacing his club to third in the state tournament.

The all-America selections were headed by Calvin Murphy, who averaged 40.3 points for his Norwalk, Conn., team.

VUU COMPLETES PLANS FOR ARTS FESTIVAL

Richmond, Va.—The Thirteenth Annual Fine Arts Festival will be held at Virginia Union University during the week of April 24. The Festival will begin with a modern art exhibit on Sunday in William Clark Library at 6:30 p.m. Professor Richard A. Long of Morgan State College, Baltimore, Maryland, will lecture on the subject, "The Art of Haiti-A Search for Negritude." Haitian Art will be featured. A reception will follow in the library.

The big news of the weekend may be of the year was the appointing of Bill Russell as Coach of the Boston Celtics pro-basketball team. It was said at least 44 times that this was the first Negro coach of a major league pro team in any league.

We are pleased that the management saw fit to give the job to Russell who probably has what it takes to be a good coach. As we recall Bill sometimes ran the club during the last two years when the regular coach was absent and most of the time they won.

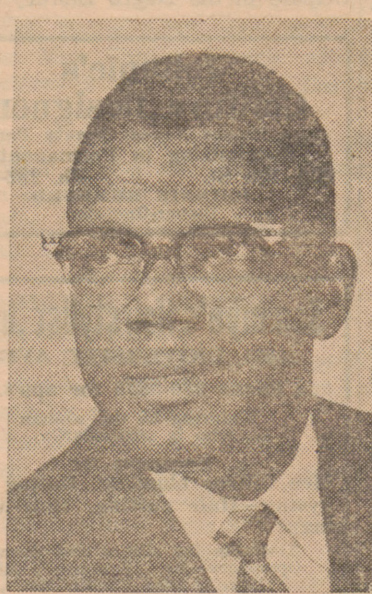

But right now we don't envy Bill. The rest of the league is catching up with the Celtics and they have literally scrambled their way into the finals. They might be dethroned this year. It could be that Boston is used to a regular diet of championships and will settle for nothing less.

There isn't but one way for the team to go and that is down. They are already at the top. Maybe a winning season or some winning seasons without titles can't be taken by the Boston fans or the team front office.

We would say the Celtics are about in the same position as the Yankees of two years ago. They have most of it behind them and we hope Bill Russell can keep the pieces together. We wonder if anybody in Boston reads our column.

THE HEALIN GCUP

These things are like a bath
In bright clear waters
That brim with buoyant health
For earth's sons and daughters;
The clean high sweep
Of every wind that passes,
Bearing the healing cup
Of wine emerald grasses.
The sun to warm the heart
Where God lights His fires.
The moon, whose fruits are red
And gold, for all desires.

The warm black soil,
Kindlier than a mother—
Oh, I would go to it
Sooner than any other!
And rain can wash the mind
White as a pigeon's feather—
Come with me and find
Health in God's good weather!

Laugh Lines

College professors can generally tell the status of a student by the answers he gives. Freshman: "I don't know." Sophomore: "I'm not prepared." Junior: "I don't remember." Senior: "I don't believe I can add anything constructive to what has already been said."

A city boy was visiting on a farm. One day when he was coming out of the barn where he had gathered a few eggs, a rooster came up behind him and crowed.

"Thank you," he replied politely, "but I'm already up."

New York—The agreement reached between the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company was hailed this week by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People as "a major step forward in the long battle against racial discrimination in American industry."

Under terms of the agreement, which resulted from 41 complaints filed by the NAACP with the EEOC, Negro employees who have been held back by Jim Crow practices will receive automatic promotions and pay increases. These long-time victims of discrimination will also be afforded opportunity to advance into higher job classifications and into supervisory positions as they become available.
